AUTHORITY: §§ 324.11 to 324.13 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 324, 332, 337, 405, 66 Stat. 246, 252, 258, 280.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 324.11 Former citizen at birth or by naturalization; procedural requirements. A former citizen of the United States of the class described in section 324 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act shall submit to the Service an application to file a petition for naturalization, on Form N-400 and Supplemental Form N-400A, in accordance with instructions contained therein. The petition for naturalization of such person shall be filed on Form N-405, in duplicate, in any naturalization court, regardless of the petitioner's residence, and need not aver that it is the intention of the petitioner to reside permanently in the United States. The petition shall be verified by at least two United States citizen witnesses as provided in § 334.21 of this chapter. At the hearing on the petition the qualifications described in sections 324 (a) and (b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act shall be proven in the manner provided in Part 335b of this chapter. The petition may be heard immediately, provided a certificate of examination on Form N-440, in duplicate, is attached thereto, as provided in § 332.12 of this chapter. If the final hearing on the petition is held within sixty days preceding the holding of a general election within the territorial jurisdiction of the naturalization court, the petitioner shall not be permitted to take the oath prescribed in Part 337 of this chapter prior to the tenth day next following such general election. There shall be inserted after averment 1e of Form N-405 at the time of the filing thereof an averment of the petitioner's loss of citizenship, as follows:

(Indicate whether by birth or naturalization) on _____ and lost my citizenship by marriage on _____ (Month day year) (Month day year) to _____, a citizen of _____ (Name of husband) (Name of foreign country)
not acquired any other nationality by an affirmative act other than by marriage.

§ 324.12 A woman, citizen of the United States at birth, who lost or is believed to have lost citizenship by marriage and whose marriage has terminated; procedural requirements. A woman, formerly a citizen of the United States at birth, who applies in the United States to regain her citizenship under section 324 (c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, shall submit to the Service a preliminary application to take the oath of allegiance, on Form N-401, in accordance with the instructions contained therein. The oath may be taken before the judge or clerk of any naturalization court, regardless of the applicant's place of residence. The applicant shall establish that it is her intention, in good faith, to assume and discharge the obligations of the oath of allegiance and that her attitude toward the Constitution and laws of the United States renders her capable of fulfilling the obligations of such oath. The applicant shall not be naturalized if, within the period of ten years immediately preceding the filing of the application to take the oath of allegiance or after such filing and before taking such oath she is, or has been found to be within any of the classes of persons described in section 313 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. The eligibility of the applicant to take the oath shall be investigated by a member of the Service who shall make an appropriate recommendation to the naturalization court. The application to the court shall be made on Form N-408, in triplicate. The original shall be retained as a part of the court record and numbered consecutively in a separate series, and the duplicate forwarded to the appropriate district director with duplicates of other naturalization papers. After the applicant has taken the oath of allegiance, the clerk of court shall furnish the applicant, upon demand, the triplicate copy of Form N-408, properly certified, for which a fee not exceeding $5.00 may be charged. No charge shall be made by the clerk of court for the filing of Form N-408. In case the applicant does not demand the triplicate Form N-408, it shall be transmitted to the appropriate district director with the duplicate of said form. The oath of allegiance may be taken before any diplomatic or consular officer of the United States abroad, in accordance with such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State.

§ 324.13 Women restored to United States citizenship by the act of June 25, 1936, as amended by the act of July 2, 1940. A woman who was restored to citizenship by the act of June 25, 1936, as amended by the act of July 2, 1940, but who failed to take the oath of allegiance prescribed by the naturalization laws prior to December 24, 1952, may take the oath of allegiance prescribed by Part 337 before any naturalization court on or after December 24, 1952. Such woman shall comply with the procedural requirements of § 324.12 except that a fee not exceeding $1.00 may be charged if the woman demands the triplicate copy of Form N-408, properly certified.

325.1 Residence and physical presence in the United States.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 325.1 Residence and physical presence in the United States. A national of the United States who is not a citizen thereof and who is otherwise qualified for naturalization may, if he becomes a resident of any State, be naturalized upon compliance with the applicable provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the case of such a person, residence and physical presence within the United States or residence and physical presence within any of the outlying possessions of the United States for the period during which continuous residence and physical presence are required to be established under Chapter 2 of Title III of the Immigration and Nationality Act shall be regarded as residence and physical presence within the United States pursuant to lawful admission for permanent residence, within the meaning of section 316 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Such person shall, unless otherwise exempted therefrom, established six months' residence within the State in which the petition for naturalization is filed, as required by section 316 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

(Sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interprets or applies secs. 316, 325, 332, 66 Stat. 242, 248, 252)

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

AUTHORITY: §§ 327.1 and 327.11 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 327, 332, 338, 344 (h), 66 Stat. 248, 252, 259, 265.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 327.1 Period of service in armed forces. A former citizen of the United States of the class described in section 327 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, who during World War II served in the armed forces of any country at war with a country with which the United States was at war after December 7, 1941, and before September 2, 1945, may be naturalized under this part if such service was on or after September 1, 1939, and before September 2, 1945, even though the United States was not at war during the period of his service, provided that such country was not at war with the United States during any period of his service. Such person is not subject to the provisions of section 318 of the Immigration and Nationality Act barring from naturalization a person against whom there is outstanding a final finding of deportability pursuant to a warrant of arrest.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 327.11 Procedural requirements. A former citizen of the United States of the class described in section 327 of the Immigration and Nationality Act shall submit to the Service an application to file a petition for naturalization on Form N-400 and Supplemental Form N-400A, in accordance with the instructions contained therein. The petition for naturalization of such person shall be filed on Form N-405, in duplicate, with supplemental Form N-405A in triplicate, in any naturalization court. The original of Form N-405A shall be retained as part of the court record. After the oath of allegiance has been taken by the petitioner, the duplicate and triplicate copies of Form N-405A, bearing a copy of the oath duly attested and certified by the clerk, shall be forwarded by the clerk of court to the appropriate district director. The district director shall file the duplicate copy with the Service record and transmit the triplicate copy to the Department of State. The petitioner shall pay to the clerk of the court of the naturalization court at the time of filing the petition a fee of $10, unless exempted therefrom under section 344 (b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

PART 328—SPECIAL CLASSES OF PERSONS WHO MAY BE NATURALIZED: PERSONS WITH THREE YEARS SERVICE IN ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES

Sec.
328.1 Where service is continuous.
328.2 Whenever service is not continuous; petition filed while still in service or within six months after termination of service.
328.3 Whenever service terminates more than six months before petition is filed.
328.4 Proof of qualifications.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

328.11 Procedural requirements.

AUTHORITY: §§ 328.1 to 328.11 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 318, 328, 332, 334 and 335, 66 Stat. 244, 249, 252, 254, 255.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 328.1 Whenever service is continuous—(a) Petition filed while still in service. A person of the class described in section 328 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, whose service in the armed forces of the United States aggregating three years has been continuous may, if his petition for naturalization is filed while still in the service, be naturalized, subject to the provisions of this part, upon compliance with the provisions of Chapter 2 of Title III of the Immigration and Nationality Act, except that no particular period of residence or physical presence in the United States or any State or within the jurisdiction of the naturalization court shall be required, and except that such person shall not be subject to the provisions of section 318 of the Immigration and Nationality Act barring from naturalization a person against whom there is outstanding a final finding of deportability pursuant to a warrant of arrest. Such person shall establish that he is in the United States pursuant to a lawful admission for permanent residence occurring prior to the filing of the petition for naturalization, whether or not it occurred before or after the service in the armed forces.

(b) Petition filed within six months after termination of service. A person of the class described in paragraph (a) of this section, who has been separated from the service described therein prior to filing his petition for naturalization but who files his petition within six months after the termination of such service may be naturalized under the conditions and with the exemptions set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, except that he shall establish his residence in the United States, good moral character, attachment to the principles of the Constitution, and favorable disposition to the good order and happiness of the United States, for the period from the date of his separation from such service to the date of the filing of his petition for naturalization and from the latter date to the date of his admission to citizenship, by affidavits and testimony of at least two United States citizen witnesses, in the manner provided in § 334.21 and Part 335b of this chapter.

§ 328.2 Whenever service is not continuous; petition filed while still in service or within six months after termination of service. A person of the class described in § 328.1 whose service aggregating three years was not continuous and who files a petition for naturalization while still in such service or within six months after the termination of such service may be naturalized under the conditions and with the exemptions set forth in paragraph (a) of § 328.1, except that he shall establish his residence in the United States and State, good moral character, attachment to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and favorable disposition to the good order and happiness of the United States, during the period or periods within five years immediately preceding the date of filing the petition and to the date of admission to citizenship, when not serving in the armed forces, by the affidavits and testimony of at least two United States citizen witnesses, for each such period, in the manner provided in § 334.21 and Part 335b of this chapter.

§ 328.3 Whenever service terminates more than six months before petition is filed. A person of the class described in §§ 328.1 or 328.2, whose service aggregating three years terminated more than six months preceding the date of filing his petition for naturalization shall comply with the applicable provisions of Chapter 2 of Title III of the Immigration and Nationality Act except that service during the five years immediately preceding the date of filing the petition shall be considered as residence and physical presence within the United States.

§ 328.4 Proof of qualifications. A petitioner under this part shall establish his residence and physical presence in the United States and in the State in which his petition is filed, his good moral character, attachment to the principles of the Constitution, and favorable disposition to the good order and happiness of the United States during the periods of service referred to in §§ 328.1, 328.2, and 328.3 by the production of duly authenticated copies of the records of the executive departments having custody of the records of such service, which copies shall show the period or periods of such service, and that it was performed honorably or under honorable conditions. The petitioner shall also produce a certified statement from the appropriate executive department showing that he has never been discharged from the armed forces of the United States under other than honorable conditions. Such copies shall be accepted in lieu of the affidavits and testimony or depositions of witnesses for the period or periods of such service.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 328.11 Procedural requirements. A person of the class described in §§ 328.1, 328.2, or 328.3 shall submit to the Service an application to file a petition for naturalization on Form N–400, in accordance with the instructions contained therein. The duly authenticated copies of the records and the certified statements of the executive departments described in § 328.4 shall be requested by the applicant on Form N–426, in triplicate, and submitted to the Service with Form N–400. A person of the class described in §§ 328.1 or 328.2 may file his petition for naturalization in any naturalization court, regardless of his place of residence; a person described in § 328.3 shall file his petition in a court having jurisdiction over his place of residence. The petition for naturalization shall be filed on Form N–405 in duplicate. There shall be inserted after averment 10 of Form N–405, at the time of the filing thereof, a description of the petitioner's service, as follows:

I entered the _____
on _____ under Serial No. _____
(Month, day, year)
and am now serving honorably (was honorably discharged on _____).
(Month, day, year)

The petitioner may be naturalized immediately, if he is still in the armed services, and a certificate of such examination on Form N–440, in duplicate, is attached to his petition, in accordance with § 332.12 of this chapter. The petition shall be verified by at least two United States citizen witnesses, as provided in § 334.21 of this chapter.

PART 329—SPECIAL CLASSES OF PERSONS WHO MAY BE NATURALIZED: VETERANS OF THE UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES WHO SERVED DURING WORLD WAR I OR WORLD WAR II

Sec.
329.1 World War I; definition.

AUTHORITY: §§ 329.1 to 329.21 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 329, 332, 334, 335, 402 (e), 66 Stat. 250, 252, 254, 255, 276.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 329.1 World War I; definition. For the purposes of section 329 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, World War I shall be deemed to have commenced on April 6, 1917, and to have ended on November 11, 1918.

§ 329.2 Proof of character, attachment, and disposition. A person of the class described in sections 329 (a) or 402 (e) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, shall establish that he is a person of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the United States, in the manner provided by § 334.21 and Part 335b of this chapter.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 329.1 Procedural requirements. A person of the class described in section 329 or 402 (e) of the Immigration and Nationality Act shall submit to the Service an application to file a petition for naturalization on Form N–400 in accordance with the instructions contained therein. The certification required by section 329 (b) (4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act to prove service shall be requested by the applicant on Form N–426, in triplicate, and submitted to the Service with Form N–400. The petition for naturalization shall be filed on Form N–418, in duplicate, in any naturalization court, regardless of the residence of the petitioner. The petition shall be verified by at least two United States citizen witnesses as provided in § 334.21 of this chapter. The petitioner may be naturalized immediately if a certificate of such examination is filed with the petition in accordance with § 322.12 of this chapter.

PART 330—SPECIAL CLASSES OF PERSONS WHO MAY BE NATURALIZED: SEAMEN

Sec.
330.1 Service on vessels after lawful admission for permanent residence; when deemed residence and physical presence in the United States.
330.2 Service on vessels prior to September 23, 1950; when deemed residence and physical presence in the United States and State.
330.3 Proof of qualifications.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

330.11 Procedural requirements.

AUTHORITY: §§ 330.1 to 330.11 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 316, 330, 332, 334, 335, 66 Stat. 242, 251, 252, 254, 255.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 330.1 Service on vessels after lawful admission for permanent residence; when deemed residence and physical presence in the United States. Service at any time after lawful admission for permanent residence, whether before or after the effective date of the Immigration and Nationality Act, on board vessels of the classes described in section 330 (a) (1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, shall under the conditions specified in that section be deemed residence and physical presence within the United States within the meaning of section 316 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

§ 330.2 Service on vessels prior to September 23, 1950; when deemed residence and physical presence in the United States and State—(a) Service aggregating five years. Service at any time prior to September 23, 1950, for periods aggregating five years, whether or not there has been a lawful admission for permanent residence, shall be deemed residence and physical presence within the United States and residence within the State during the five-year period next preceding the filing of the petition for naturalization, within the meaning of section 316 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, if (1) such service was performed honorably or with good conduct, on board any vessel of the United States Government, other than in the United States Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard, or on board vessels of more than twenty-tons' burden, whether or not documented under the laws of the United States, and whether public or private, which are not foreign vessels and the home port of which is in the United States, and (2) a petition for naturalization is filed on or before December 24, 1953.

(b) Service aggregating less than five years. Service at any time prior to September 23, 1950, aggregating less than five years, shall be deemed residence and physical presence within the United States, equivalent to that of the period of service, during the earliest portion of the five-year period next preceding the filing of the petition for naturalization within the meaning of section 316 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, if (1) such service was performed honorably or with good conduct, on board vessels of the classes described in paragraph (a) of this section, (2) the person was so serving on September 23, 1950, and is residing in the United States pursuant to a lawful admission for permanent residence occurring at any time prior to filing the petition for naturalization, and (3) the petition for naturalization is filed on or before September 23, 1955.

§ 330.3 Proof of qualifications—(a) Residence and physical presence in the United States. Except as otherwise provided in this part, a person having the service described in this part shall prove that he has complied with all the applicable provisions of Chapter 2, Title III of the Immigration and Nationality Act, except that proof of residence and physical presence within the United States for the periods of such service shall be made by duly authenticated copies of the records of the executive departments or agencies having custody of the records covering the person's service on vessels of the United States Government, or by certificates from the masters of the vessels if service was on other than vessels of the United States Government, which records or certificates shall describe the vessels and the periods of service, and shall attest that during those periods the person served honorably or with good conduct.

(b) Character, attachment, and disposition; State residence. (1) The records or certificates described in paragraph (a) of this section shall be accepted also as proof of good moral character, attachment to the principles of the Constitution, and favorable disposition to the good order and happiness of the United States for that portion of the service performed within the period of five years immediately preceding the date of the petition, and, in the cases of persons of the classes described in § 330.2 (a), as proof of residence within the State in which the petition is filed.

(2) A person claiming the benefits of § 330.2 (b) shall establish his good moral character, attachment to the principles of the Constitution and favorable disposition toward the good order and happiness of the United States during the five-year period next preceding the date of filing the petition, and from that date to the date of admission to citizenship, when not serving on such vessels, by the testimony or depositions of witnesses, in the manner described in Part 335b of this chapter. Such person shall establish also six months' State residence, as required by section 316 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 330.11 Procedural requirements. A person claiming the benefits of § 330.1 or § 330.2 shall submit to the Service an application to file a petition for naturalization, together with Supplemental Form N–400–B, in accordance with the instructions contained therein. The petition for naturalization shall be filed on Form N–405 in duplicate in a naturalization court having jurisdiction over the petitioner's place of residence. There shall be attached to, and made a part of the original and duplicate of, the petition for naturalization at the time of filing an affidavit of the petitioner sworn to before the clerk of court or an officer of the Service, on Form N–421, in duplicate, fully describing the vessel or vessels on which the petitioner has served and the periods of service. The petition shall be verified by at least two United States citizen witnesses, as provided in § 334.21 of this chapter.

PART 331—SPECIAL CLASSES OF PERSONS WHO MAY BE NATURALIZED: ALIEN ENEMIES

Sec.
331.1 Alien enemy defined.
331.2 Termination of status of alien enemy.
331.3 Revocation of exception from classification of alien enemy.
331.4 Naturalization under special provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

Sec.
331.11 Petition for naturalization pending; notice of and objection to final hearing on petition.
331.12 Waiver of 90-day notice.
331.13 Exception from classification of alien enemy.

AUTHORITY: §§ 331.1 to 331.13 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 306, 324, 329, 331, 332, 342, 402, 66 Stat. 237, 247, 250, 252, 263, 278.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 331.1 Alien enemy defined. An alien who is a native, citizen, subject, or denizen of any country, state, or sovereignty with which the United States is at war shall be considered an alien enemy for the purposes of the naturalization laws. A native of such an enemy country, state, or sovereignty, who subsequent to birth has become stateless or who has become a citizen, subject or denizen of a nation with which the United States is not at war shall nevertheless be considered an alien enemy.

§ 331.2 Termination of status of alien enemy. An alien enemy as defined in § 331.1 shall cease to be an alien enemy within the meaning of this part upon the official determination in the manner prescribed by section 331 (d) of the Immigration and Nationality Act that hostilities between the United States and the enemy country, state, or sovereignty have ended.

§ 331.3 Revocation of exception from classification of alien enemy. If subsequent to the filing of a petition for naturalization, and prior to admission to citizenship, evidence becomes available to the Service that exception from the classification of alien enemy was illegally or fraudulently obtained from or was granted through illegality or by fraud practiced upon the district director or the Commissioner, or a Deputy Commissioner, or Assistant Commissioner, action to cancel the exception granted may be taken in accordance with the provisions of Part 5 of this chapter, in which case a motion shall be made to the court to defer final hearing until such proceedings have been concluded. If the exception is cancelled by the district director or the Commissioner, or a Deputy Commissioner, it shall be considered a nullity from the date of the granting thereof, and the petitioner shall be subject to all the provisions of this part to the same extent as though the exception had never been granted. Written notice of the cancellation shall be furnished by the district director to the clerk of the naturalization court for inclusion in the naturalization record.

§ 331.4 Naturalization under special provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act. An alien enemy, as defined in § 331.1, who is applying for naturalization under the provisions of sections 306 (a) (1), 324 (c), 329, or 402 (j) of the Immigration and Nationality Act may be naturalized, if otherwise qualified, notwithstanding the provisions of this part.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 331.11 Petition for naturalization pending; notice of and objection to final hearing on petition. Subject to the conditions stated in this section, an alien enemy, as defined in § 331.1, whose petition for naturalization was pending at the beginning of the state of war, may, if otherwise eligible, be naturalized after his loyalty has been fully established upon investigation by the appropriate district director. The petition for naturalization shall not be called for a hearing or heard, except after ninety-days' notice by the clerk of court to the appropriate district director or officer in charge. Such notice shall be given on Form N–435, in duplicate, and the ninety-day period shall commence on the date of its receipt. The district director or officer in charge shall mail a receipted copy of Form N–435 to the clerk of court within two business days after receipt. The district director or officer in charge may, at any time prior to final hearing, object to such hearing. Such objection shall be made on Form N–434, in duplicate, and filed with the clerk of court. The filing of such objection shall cause the petition to be continued until such time as the objection is withdrawn. The clerk of court shall mail a receipted copy of Form N–434 to the district director or officer in charge within two business days after receipt.

§ 331.12 Waiver of 90-day notice. A petitioner for naturalization embraced within this part may request the district director or officer in charge, in writing, to waive the ninety-day notice referred to in § 331.11. Such waiver may be granted at any time after the petition has been filed and either before or after the clerk's notice has been given and the ninety-day period has commenced. The district director or officer in charge shall cause a full and complete investigation to be conducted and if such investigation satisfactorily establishes the petitioner's loyalty to the United States the district director or officer in charge may, in his discretion, grant the waiver. If the waiver is granted, notice thereof shall be given to the clerk of court by the district director or officer in charge on Form N–424, in duplicate, a copy of which shall be retained in the Service file.

§ 331.13 Exception from classification of alien enemy. An alien enemy, as defined in § 331.1, who did not have a petition for naturalization pending at the beginning of the state of war, shall not be eligible to file a petition for naturalization, unless and until the district director has excepted such alien from the classification of alien enemy. Application for such exception shall be made on Form N–436 and submitted to the Service with the application to file a petition for naturalization. The district director shall thereupon cause a full and complete investigation to be made of the loyalty of such applicant. If, after such investigation, the district director is satisfied as to the applicant's loyalty to the United States, he may, in his discretion, except the applicant from the classification of alien enemy by the execution of Form N–438, in duplicate, the original of which shall be filed with the clerk of the naturalization court at the time of or prior to the filing of the petition for naturalization, and the copy retained in the Service file. The exception so granted on Form N–438 shall not be effective for the purpose of filing a petition for naturalization unless and until such form is filed with the clerk of court. Form N–438 need not be filed with and made a part of the petition but shall be filed with the naturalization record by the clerk of court. If the district director is not satisfied as to the applicant's loyalty, he shall deny the application. The applicant shall be notified in writing of the denial of his application with the reasons therefor and, at the same time, shall be advised that he has ten days from the date of the notification in which he may appeal to the Assistant Commissioner, Inspections and Examinations Division, in accordance with the provisions of Part 7. If the Assistant Commissioner approves the application, the district director shall except the applicant from the classification of alien enemy, in the manner provided in this section. An applicant who has been excepted from the classification of alien enemy under this section shall be entitled to a hearing upon his petition for naturalization without regard to the provisions of § 331.11.

PART 332—PRELIMINARY INTERROGATION OF APPLICANTS FOR NATURALIZATION AND WITNESSES

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

Sec.
332.11 Interrogation preliminary to filing petition for naturalization.
332.12 Certificate by examiner whenever petitioner is entitled to immediate hearing.
332.13 Use of record of preliminary interrogation.
332.14 Notice of proposed recommendation of denial; findings, conclusion, and recommendation.

AUTHORITY: §§ 332.11 to 332.14 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 332, 335, 66 Stat. 252, 255.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 332.11 Interrogation preliminary to filing petition for naturalization—(a) Scope of interrogation. Whenever practicable, each applicant for naturalization and his witnesses shall appear in person before an officer of the Service authorized to administer oaths, prior to the filing of a petition for naturalization, and give testimony under oath concerning the applicant's mental and moral qualifications for citizenship, attachment to the principles of the Constitution, and disposition to the good order and happiness of the United States, the qualifications of the witnesses, and any other matter touching or in any way affecting his eligibility for naturalization. The interrogation shall be uniform throughout the United States.

(b) Conduct of interrogation. The Service officer, prior to the beginning of the interrogation, shall make known to the applicant and the witnesses the official capacity in which he is conducting the interrogation. The applicant and each witness shall be questioned under oath separately and apart from one another and apart from the public. The applicant shall be interrogated as to each assertion made by him in his application to file a petition and in any supplemental form. Whenever necessary, the written answers in the forms shall be corrected by the officer to conform to the oral statements made under oath. The examining officer, in his discretion, may have a stenographic transcript made, or prepare affidavits covering testimony of the applicant or witnesses. The questions to the applicant and the witnesses shall be repeated in different form and elaborated if necessary, until the officer conducting the interrogation is satisfied that the person being interrogated fully understands them. At the conclusion of the interrogation all corrections made on the application form and supplements thereto shall be consecutively numbered and recorded in the space provided therefor in the applicant's affidavit contained in the form. The affidavit shall then be subscribed and sworn to by the applicant and signed by the examining officer. The witnesses shall be questioned to develop their own credibility and competency as well as the extent of their personal knowledge of the applicant's qualifications to become a naturalized citizen. If the applicant is exempted from the requirement of reading and writing, and speaking English, the interrogation, including the examination of the applicant's knowledge and understanding of the Constitution, history, and form of Government of the United States, may be conducted through an interpreter.

§ 332.12 Certificate by examiner whenever petitioner is entitled to immediate hearing. The officer or employee conducting the preliminary interrogation shall execute a certificate of examination on Form N–440 in duplicate, for attachment to the original and duplicate petitions for naturalization, in any case in which the petitioner, under the provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act applicable to his case, is entitled to an immediate hearing following examination by a representative of the Service.

§ 332.13 Use of record of preliminary interrogation. The record of the preliminary interrogation, including the executed and corrected application form and supplements thereto, affidavits, transcripts of testimony, documents and other evidence, and the reports of any investigations conducted, shall, in those cases in which a preliminary examination is to be held under Part 335 of this chapter, be submitted to the examiner designated to conduct such examination, for his use in examining the petitioner and witnesses. In those cases in which no preliminary examination is held the recommendation to the naturalization court shall be based upon the record of the preliminary interrogation and such other evidence as may be available.

§ 332.14 Notice of proposed recommendation of denial; findings, conclusion, and recommendation. In those cases in which the recommendation to the court is for denial of the petition, and no preliminary examination under Part 335 of this chapter is held, an officer of the Service shall, as soon as practicable after the preliminary interrogation and investigations have been concluded, prepare a memorandum in behalf of the Service in the manner described in § 335.12, and subject to review by the Commissioner, for presentation to the court at the final hearing. The petitioner shall be given written notice on Form N–429 advising him of the recommendation which will be made to the court and the specific reasons therefor. The notice and a copy of the memorandum shall be sent the petitioner by registered mail, return receipt requested, after review of the recommendation by the Commissioner, if made, and at least thirty days prior to final hearing. The hearing before the court may be held less than thirty days after such notification, if the petitioner agrees thereto.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 332a.11 Initial application for official forms. Whenever the initial application for forms, records, books, and supplies is made by a State court of record, it shall be accompanied by a certificate of the Attorney General of the State, certifying that the said court is a court of record, having a seal, a clerk, and jurisdiction in actions at law or in equity, or at law and in equity, in which the amount in controversy is unlimited.

§ 332a.12 Subsequent application for official forms. Included with the initial supply of official forms, records, and books furnished to the various courts by the Service shall be Form N–3 entitled "Requisition for Forms and Binders," and thereafter such forms shall be used by clerks of courts in making requisition for forms, records, books, and supplies for use in naturalization proceedings in their respective courts.

§ 332a.13 Alteration of forms of petitions or applications for naturalization. The official forms for petitions or applications for naturalization to the court shall be altered by the clerk of court as follows:

(a) Deletion of inapplicable acts or sections of acts. Whenever the petition form is designed for use under more than one act or more than one section of an act, by striking from the title of the form the reference to the inapplicable act or section.

(b) Exemption from residence in United States and State. Whenever residence in the United States and State residence for any specified period is not required, by striking out allegations 10 and 16 on Form N–406, allegations 12 and 13 on Form N–407, allegation 16 on Form N–405, and the statements in the affidavits of witnesses as to the period of United States and State residence on Forms N–405 and N–406.

(c) Exemption from physical presence in the United States. Whenever physical presence in the United States for any specified period is not required, by striking out allegation 14 on Form N–407, and allegation 16 on Form N–405.

(e) Exemption from intention to reside permanently in the United States. Whenever intention to reside permanently in the United States is not required by striking out allegation 12 on Form N–405.

(f) Supplemental affidavits filed with petition for naturalization. Whenever a supplemental affidavit is filed with the petition by adding to allegation 18, on Form N–405 "and supplemental affidavit on Form No. ------."

(g) Oath of allegiance. Whenever a petitioner or applicant for naturalization is exempt from taking the oath of allegiance prescribed in Part 337 in its entirety, by striking from the oath of allegiance the inapplicable clauses.

PART 332b—INSTRUCTION AND TRAINING IN CITIZENSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES: TEXTBOOKS, SCHOOLS, ORGANIZATIONS

Sec.
332b.1 Public school instruction and training in citizenship responsibilities of applicants for naturalization.
332b.2 Sending names of candidates for naturalization to the public schools.
332b.3 Federal citizenship textbooks.
332b.4 Public school certificates as evidence of petitioner's educational progress.
332b.5 Cooperation with official National and State organizations.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

AUTHORITY: §§ 332b.1 to 332b.5 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 332, 346, 66 Stat. 253, 266.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 332b.1 Public school instruction and training in citizenship responsibilities of applicants for naturalization. The Central Office and the field offices of the Service shall cooperate with appropriate authorities or organizations in the establishment and maintenance of classes within or under the supervision of the public schools for the preparation of naturalization applicants for their citizenship duties and responsibilities. Field officers shall visit such classes when practicable. Should applicants for naturalization who desire such preparation live in remote localities where the establishment of a class is impracticable, field officers shall communicate with the appropriate representative of the public schools for the purpose of making other suitable arrangements, if possible, for their instruction.

§ 332b.2 Sending names of candidates for naturalization to the public schools. Arrangements shall be made with the public schools by which the names and addresses of applicants for naturalization will be made available to such schools for the purpose of interesting applicants in attending public school classes in preparation for citizenship duties and responsibilities.

§ 332b.4 Public school certificates as evidence of petitioner's educational progress. Public school certificates attesting the attendance and progress records of petitioners for naturalization in citizenship classes shall be given weight by naturalization officers in determining the petitioner's knowledge and understanding of the fundamentals of the history, and of the principles and form of government of the United States, and his ability to read, write, and speak English, provided that approval of the courses of instruction, teaching, and examinations of the public schools issuing such certificates is given by the district director and the naturalization courts.

Sec.
333.1 Description of required photographs.
333.2 Attachment of photographs to documents.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

AUTHORITY: §§ 333.1 and 333.2 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 332, 333, 334, 66 Stat. 252, 253, 254.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 333.1 Description of required photographs. Every applicant required to furnish photographs of himself under this subchapter shall submit three identical photographs which shall be 2 by 2 inches in size, unmounted, printed on a thin paper, have a light background, clearly show a full front view of the features of the applicant with head bare (unless the applicant is wearing a headdress as required by a religious order of which he is a member), with the distance from the top of the head to point of chin approximately 1¼ inches, and which shall have been taken within 30 days of the date they are furnished. The applicant, except in the case of a child or other person physically incapable of signing his name, shall sign each copy of the photograph with his full true name, in such manner as not to obscure the features. The signature shall be by mark if the applicant is unable to sign his name. If the applicant is a prospective petitioner for naturalization, the photographs shall be signed by him in the English language, unless the applicant is of the class exempted from signing a petition for naturalization in the English language, as provided by § 334.13 of this chapter, in which case the photographs may be signed in any language. In the case of a child unable to sign its name, the photographs shall be signed by the parent, parents, or guardian as may be appropriate, and the signature shall read "(insert name of parent, parents, or guardian) in behalf of (insert name of child)." The photographs shall be signed when submitted with an application if the instructions accompanying the application so require. If the instructions do not so require the photographs shall be submitted without being signed and shall be signed at such later time during the processing of the application as may be appropriate.

§ 333.2 Attachment of photographs to documents. There shall be securely and permanently attached to each original and duplicate certificate of naturalization and to each duplicate and triplicate declaration of intention issued by any clerk of court, and to each copy of a declaration of intention, certificate of naturalization or certificate of citizenship issued by the Service, a signed photograph of the applicant. In each case in which a seal is affixed, the imprint of a part of the seal shall be affixed so as to extend over the lower portion of the photograph in such manner as not to obscure the features of the applicant.

334.16 Amendment of petition or application for naturalization.
334.17 Transfer of petition for naturalization.
334.18 Withdrawal of petition and failure to prosecute.
334.21 Verification of petition for naturalization: administration of oath.

AUTHORITY: §§ 334.1 to 334.21 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 332, 334, 335, 66 Stat. 252, 254, 256, 257, 259, 265.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 334.1 Right to file petition or application for naturalization. No person shall be denied the right to apply for naturalization in accordance with the procedure prescribed in this subchapter to any court authorized to exercise naturalization jurisdiction.

§ 334.2 Oath or affirmation of petitioner and witnesses. The petition for naturalization shall be executed under the following oath (or affirmation): "You do swear (affirm) that you know the contents of this petition for naturalization subscribed by you, and that the same are true to the best of your knowledge and belief."

The following oath (or affirmation) shall be administered to each of the witnesses who verify the petition: "You do swear (affirm) that the statements of fact you have made in the affidavits to this petition for naturalization subscribed by you are true to the best of your knowledge and belief."

§ 334.3 Petitions for naturalization; numbering, indexing, binding. Petitions for naturalization shall be numbered consecutively in the order in which they are filed, shall be filed chronologically in separate volumes, indexed, and made a part of the records of the naturalization court. Each such volume shall, upon completion, be permanently bound by an employee of the Service. Whenever a petitioner's name has been changed by order of court the original and the changed name shall be entered by the clerk of court in the index of petitions for naturalization.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 334.11 Petition for naturalization and preliminary application. Except as otherwise provided in this subchapter, a person who has attained the age of eighteen years and who desires to apply for naturalization, shall make and file, in accordance with the provisions of this part, a sworn petition for naturalization, in duplicate. Such person shall, before filing the petition for naturalization, execute and submit to the Service preliminary application to file a petition for naturalization, Form N–400, in accordance with the instructions contained therein.

§ 334.13 Filing of petition for naturalization. The petition for naturalization and the duplicate copy thereof shall be filed by the petitioner, in person, with the clerk of the court or his authorized deputy and only in the office of the clerk, except that an applicant for naturalization who satisfactorily establishes that he is prevented by sickness or other disability from appearing in the office of the clerk, may file the petition for naturalization at such other place as may be designated by the clerk of court or his authorized deputy. Except as otherwise provided in this subchapter, the petition shall be on Form N–405 and shall contain an averment that it is the intention of the petitioner to reside permanently in the United States. The petition shall be signed by the petitioner in the English language, if physically able to write, unless the petitioner on December 24, 1952 was over fifty years of age and had been living in the United States for at least twenty years, in which case the petitioner may sign his name in any language. When the petition has been so filed, the clerk shall furnish to the petitioner an acknowledgment of the filing of the petition on Form N–414. The petitioner shall pay the clerk of the naturalization court, at the time the petition is filed, a fee of $10, unless the petitioner is exempt therefrom by section 344 (h) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

§ 334.14 Investigation and report if applicant is sick or disabled. Whenever it appears that an applicant for naturalization may be unable, because of sickness or other disability, to present himself in the office of the clerk of a naturalization court to file a petition for naturalization, the district director or officer in charge shall cause an investigation to be conducted to determine the circumstances, and shall report the condition of the applicant to the clerk of court for the purpose of aiding the court to determine whether the clerk of court shall designate another place to file a petition for naturalization. The report shall show whether the sickness or disability is of a nature which so incapacitates the applicant as to prevent him from appearing personally in the office of the clerk of court.

§ 334.15 Spoiled petitions for naturalization. If a petition for naturalization filed with the clerk of court is materially defective on its face, it shall nevertheless remain a part of the records of the court and the duplicate thereof disposed of, and the fee accounted for, in accordance with the provisions of Part 339 of this chapter. The Service shall inform the petitioner of the defect and the desirability of having the petition marked "Void" in order that the fee may be refunded or credited to the filing of another petition. If the petitioner desires to have the defective petition submitted to the court for a judicial ruling in lieu of having it marked "Void", no refund of the fee shall be made. A request by the petitioner that his petition be marked "Void" shall be made on Form N–403, in duplicate, and submitted to the district director. If the request is approved by the district director the original shall be furnished the clerk of court for attachment to the petition and the clerk of court shall mark the petition "Void". The duplicate shall be retained in the field office file.

§ 334.16 Amendment of petition or application for naturalization—(a) During pendency of petition or application. An application to amend a petition or application for naturalization, while such application or petition is pending, shall be made by the petitioner or applicant on Form N–410, with copies thereof equal to the number of copies of the petition or application for naturalization, and presented to the court at the hearing on the petition or application for naturalization. When the court orders the petition or application amended, the original order shall be filed with the original petition or application and the copies attached to the respective copies of the petition or application.

(b) After final action on petition or application. Whenever an application is made to the court to amend a petition or application for naturalization after final action thereon has been taken by the court, a copy of the application shall be served upon the district director or officer in charge having administrative jurisdiction over the territory in which the court is located, in the manner and within the time provided by the rules of court in which application is made. A representative of the Service may appear at the hearing upon such application and be heard in favor of or in opposition thereto. When the court orders the petition amended, the clerk of court shall transmit a copy of the order to the district director or officer in charge for inclusion in the Service file.

§ 334.17 Transfer of petition for naturalization—(a) Application for transfer. A petitioner for naturalization who removes from the jurisdiction of the court in which his petition for naturalization is pending, may make application to the court on Form N–455, in quadruplicate, for transfer of the petition to a naturalization court having jurisdiction over his place of residence, or, if the petition was not required to be filed in a naturalization court having jurisdiction over his place of residence, to any other naturalization court exercising naturalization jurisdiction. The application shall be submitted, in accordance with the instructions contained therein, to the district director or officer in charge exercising administrative jurisdiction over the place where the court in which the petition is filed is located.

(b) Action by district director or officer in charge. If the district director or officer in charge consents to the transfer, he shall so indicate on each copy of Form N–455, which shall be filed with the clerk of court in which the petition is pending. If the district director or officer in charge does not consent to the transfer he shall so indicate on each copy of Form N–455 which shall be filed with the clerk of court, with a memorandum of the district director or officer in charge setting forth the reasons for the denial. The applicant shall be notified by the district director or officer in charge of the filing of Form N–455 with the clerk of court, and whether consent has been given by the district director or officer in charge.

(c) Action by court in which petition is filed. The court in which the petition is filed shall enter an order on Form N–455, in quadruplicate, approving or disapproving the application. If the application is approved, the original Form N–455 shall be filed with the naturalization record in the office of the clerk of court, the duplicate and triplicate copies transmitted to the court to which the petition is to be transferred, and the quadruplicate transmitted to the district director or officer in charge. If the application is disapproved, the original Form N–455 shall be filed with the naturalization record in the office of the clerk of court and the remaining copies transmitted to the district director or officer in charge, who shall notify the applicant of the disapproval.

(d) Action by court to which petition is transferred. The court to which the petition is to be transferred shall enter an order on the duplicate and triplicate copies of Form N–455, approving or disapproving the transfer. The duplicate copy shall be filed with the clerk of the court to which the petition is to be transferred, and the triplicate transmitted to the clerk of the court in which the petition is filed. If the application is disapproved, the clerk of court receiving the triplicate copy shall notify the district director or officer in charge of the disapproval.

(e) Transfer of petition and record. If the court to which the petition is to be transferred approves the transfer, the clerk of court in which the petition is filed shall file the triplicate copy of Form N–455 with the naturalization record and forward a certified copy of the petition, and the originals of all documents filed relating thereto, to the court to which the petition is being transferred, and notify the district director having administrative jurisdiction over the place in which the petition is filed, of the action taken. Upon receipt of the certified copy and record, the clerk of court to which the petition is transferred shall index it, number it consecutively in the order in which it is received, prefixed by the letters TR, and in a series separate from petitions originally filed in the court. The petition shall be made a part of the record of the naturalization court. No fee shall be charged by the clerk of the court to which the petition is transferred for the filing of the transferred petition or the issuance of a certificate of naturalization.

§ 334.18 Withdrawal of petition and failure to prosecute. (a) A petitioner who desires to withdraw his petition for naturalization after the filing thereof shall make request for withdrawal on Form N–404, in duplicate. The original shall be filed with the clerk of court and the duplicate with the office of the Service exercising administrative jurisdiction over the district in which the court is located. At the final hearing upon the petition, the officer in attendance shall inform the court whether the district director or officer in charge consents to the withdrawal of the petition. In cases in which such officer does not consent to the withdrawal, the court shall determine the petition on its merits.

(b) At the final hearing upon a petition for naturalization which the petitioner has failed to prosecute, the officer in attendance shall inform the court whether the district director or officer in charge consents to dismissal of the petition for lack of prosecution. In cases in which such officer does not move that the petition be dismissed for lack of prosecution, the court shall determine the petition on its merits.

§ 324.21 Verification of petition for naturalization; administration of oath. Every petition for naturalization shall, before it is filed, be verified by the petitioner, and by the affidavits of two credible witnesses, citizens of the United States, who shall appear in person either before a designated examiner or before the clerk of the court or his authorized deputy. Any such officer shall administer the required oaths to the petitioner and the witnesses. The witnesses shall sign the affidavits. The witnesses shall have and aver knowledge of the petitioner as to each place of his residence in the State where he is residing during the period of at least six months immediately prior to the filing of the petition unless the petitioner is exempted from the usual State residence requirement. If the petitioner has resided at two or more places in the State during the required six-month period and for this reason two witnesses cannot be procured to verify the petition as to all such residence, additional witnesses may be used and their affidavits shall be executed, in duplicate, on Form N–451, one copy of which shall be attached to the original petition and the other to the duplicate petition at the time of filing the petition. The witnesses shall state in their affidavits that they personally know that the petitioner is and has been a resident at such place for such period and that the petitioner is and has been during all such time a person of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, well disposed to the good order and happiness of the United States, and in all respects qualified to become a citizen of the United States. If the petitioner is exempted from the usual State residence requirement, the witnesses shall state in their affidavits the period of time that they have personally known the petitioner to have been a resident of the United States, and that such petitioner is, and, for the period required by the naturalization provisions applicable to the case, has been, a person of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, well disposed to the good order and happiness of the United States, and in all respects qualified to become a citizen of the United States.

334a.11 Preliminary form for declaration of intention.
334a.12 Notification to applicant.
334a.13 Filing of declaration of intention.
334a.14 Execution and fee.
334a.15 Disposition.
334a.16 Declaration of intention; numbering, indexing, binding.

AUTHORITY: §§ 334a.11 to 334a.16 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 332, 334, 339, 344, 66 Stat. 252, 254, 259, 264.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 334a.11 Preliminary form for declaration of intention. Each prospective declarant shall, before making and filing a declaration of intention, submit to the Service an application therefor on Form N–300 in accordance with the instructions contained therein. The application may be submitted at any time after the applicant has been lawfully admitted for permanent residence and has attained the age of eighteen years.

§ 334a.12 Notification to applicant. Following approval of the application by the Service, the applicant shall be notified when and where to appear to make and file the declaration of intention.

§ 334a.14 Execution and fee. The declaration of intention shall be executed by the alien on Form N–315, in triplicate, before the clerk of any court exercising naturalization jurisdiction or his authorized deputy, regardless of the place of residence of the applicant, and only in the office of said clerk. The applicant may sign the declaration and the photographs affixed thereto in any language, or by mark if unable to write. The declarant shall pay the clerk of court, at the time the declaration of intention is filed, the statutory fee of $5.

PART 335—PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION ON PETITIONS FOR NATURALIZATION

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

Sec.
335.11 Preliminary examination pursuant to section 335 (b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.
335.12 Recommendations of the designated examiner and the Commissioner; notice.
335.13 Notice of recommendation of designated examiner.

AUTHORITY: §§ 335.11 to 335.13 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 332, 335, 66 Stat. 252, 255.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 335.11 Preliminary examination pursuant to section 335 (b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act—(a) When held. Preliminary examinations shall be open to the public, and shall, where practicable, be held immediately after the petition for naturalization is filed with the clerk of the court unless, in the opinion of the district director or officer in charge, the interests of good administration would be better served by holding such examinations prior to the filing of the petition in the office of the clerk of court, but in no event shall such examinations be held before the petition has been properly executed by the petitioner and his verifying witnesses.

(b) Conduct of examination. Preliminary examinations shall be held before an employee of the Service, designated by the district director to conduct such proceedings and to make findings and recommendations thereon to the naturalization court, who shall be known as the "designated examiner." The petitioner and his witnesses and the witnesses produced on behalf of the Government shall be present. The designated examiner shall, prior to the commencement of the examination, make known to the petitioner his official capacity and that of any other officer of the Service who may participate in the proceeding. The designated examiner shall have before him the entire record of the preliminary interrogation, including the petitioner's application to file a petition for naturalization (Form N–400) and any other evidence or data that may be revelant or material to the inquiry. All testimony taken at the examination shall be under oath or affirmation administered by the designated examiner. The designated examiner may interrogate the petitioner and witnesses produced in behalf of the petitioner or the Government, and present evidence touching upon the petitioner's admissibility to citizenship. He shall regulate the course of the examination, rule upon applications for the issuance of subpenas and issue such subpenas in proper cases, grant or deny continuances, and rule on all objections to the introduction of evidence, which rulings shall be entered on the record. Evidence held by the designated examiner to be inadmissible shall nevertheless be received into the record subject to the ruling of the court. The petitioner and the Government shall have the right to present such oral or documentary evidence and to conduct such cross-examination as may be required for a full and true disclosure of the facts. If the petitioner is not represented by an attorney or representative, the designated examiner shall assist the petitioner in the introduction of all evidence available in his behalf. All documentary or written evidence shall be properly identified and introduced into the record as exhibits by number, unless read into the record.

(c) Assignment of examining officer at preliminary examination. The district director or officer in charge may in his discretion assign an employee of the Service to act as examining officer at the preliminary examination. Such employee shall examine and cross-examine witnesses produced in behalf of the Government or the petitioner and present evidence pertinent to the petitioner's admissibility to citizenship. The designated examiner may take such part in the interrogation of the petitioner and witnesses and the introduction of evidence as he may deem necessary.

(d) Stenographic reporting of proceedings; mechanical recording equipment. A stenographer shall be in attendance whenever, in the opinion of the designated examiner, such attendance is desirable, and in every case to which an examining officer is assigned. The stenographer shall record verbatim the entire proceedings, including the oaths administered and rulings on objections, but shall not record arguments in support of objections, or statements made off the record with the consent of the petitioner. The stenographer shall certify that the transcribed minutes constitute a complete and accurate record of the examination. Whenever, in the opinion of the designated examiner the use of mechanical recording equipment in lieu of a stenographer is deemed desirable, the proceedings may be recorded by such equipment.

(e) Issuance of subpenas; attendance and mileage fees. Subpenas requiring the attendance of witnesses or the production of documentary evidence, or both, may be issued by the designated examiner, upon his own volition or upon written application of the petitioner or his attorney or representative, the examining officer, or the Service. Such written application shall specify, as nearly as may be, the relevance, materiality, and scope of the testimony or documentary evidence sought and show affirmatively that the testimony or documentary evidence cannot otherwise be produced. Subpenas shall be issued on Form I–138 and due record shall be made of their service. The subpena may be served by any person over 18 years of age, not a party to the case, designated to make such service by the district director or officer in charge. Mileage and fees for witnesses subpenaed under this section shall be paid by the party at whose instance the subpena is issued at rates allowed and under conditions prescribed by the naturalization court in which the petition is pending. Before issuing a subpena the designated examiner may require a deposit of an amount adequate to cover the fees and mileage involved. If the witness subpenaed neglects or refuses to testify or produce documentary evidence as directed by the subpena, the district director or the officer in charge shall request the United States Attorney for the proper district to report such neglect or refusal to any court exercising naturalization jurisdiction and to file a motion in such court for an order directing the witness to appear and testify and to produce the documentary evidence described in the subpena.

(f) Briefs. At the conclusion of the preliminary examination the petitioner or his attorney or representative, and the examining officer if one was assigned, may submit briefs in support of arguments made or issues raised at the examination.

(g) Representation by attorney or representative; absence of representative; advice to petitioner. The petitioner may be represented by an attorney or a representative who has, where required, been admitted to practice before the Service in accordance with Part 292 of this chapter. If at any stage of the preliminary examination it appears to the designated examiner that he may recommend denial of the petition, or granting thereof with the facts to be presented to the court, he shall advise the petitioner of his right to be represented by an attorney or representative. A continuance of the examination shall be granted upon the petitioner's motion for the purpose of obtaining an attorney of representative. The petitioner's attorney or a representative shall be permitted to be present at all times during the preliminary examination or at any subsequent examinations and the petitioner shall not in any such examination or subsequent examinations be interrogated in the absence of his attorney or representative, unless the petitioner waives such appearance. The attorney or a representative shall be permitted to offer evidence to meet any evidence presented or adduced by the Government or the designated examiner. A petitioner who is not represented by an attorney or a representative shall be entitled to all the benefits and the privileges provided for in this section.

§ 335.12 Recommendations of the designated examiner and the Commissioner; notice. The designated examiner shall, as soon as practicable after conclusion of the preliminary examination, prepare an appropriate recommendation thereon for the court. If the designated examiner is of the opinion (a) that the petition should be denied, or (b) that the petition should be granted but the facts should be presented to the court, he shall prepare a memorandum containing a summary of the evidence adduced at the examination, findings of fact and conclusions of law, and his recommendation as to the final disposition of the petition by the court, and shall before final hearing, in those cases designated by the Commissioner, submit the memorandum to him for his views and recommendation. No evidence dehors the record or evidence that would not be admissible in judicial proceedings under recognized rules of evidence shall be considered in the preparation of the memorandum. The Commissioner shall return the designated examiner's memorandum, the record, and any memorandum prepared by the Commissioner containing his own views and recommendation for presentation to the court.

§ 335.13 Notice of recommendation of designated examiner—(a) Recommendation that petition be denied. When the designated examiner proposes to recommend denial of the petition, the petitioner or his attorney or representative shall be notified thereof, on Form N-425, and furnished a copy of the designated examiner's memorandum. The notice shall be sent by registered mail, with return receipt requested, after any review made by the Commissioner and at least thirty days prior to final hearing. The petitioner shall inform the Service in writing within thirty days from the date of the notice whether he desires a hearing before the court.

(b) Recommendation that petition be granted. When the designated examiner proposes to recommend granting of the petition and to present the facts and issues to the court, the petitioner or his attorney or representative shall be notified of the recommendation and furnished a copy of the designated examiners' memorandum prior to the date of the hearing, and after any review made by the Commissioner.

(c) Disagreement between recommendations of designated examiner and Commissioner. In those cases reviewed by the Commissioner in which his views and recommendation do not agree with those of the designated examiner, the notice required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall also advise the petitioner of the recommendation of the Commissioner and that both recommendations will be presented to the court. There shall also be enclosed with such notice a copy of the Commissioner's memorandum.

PART 335a—TRANSFER, WITHDRAWAL OR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE PETITION FOR NATURALIZATION

§ 335a.11 Transfer of petition; procedure. See § 334.17 of this chapter.

§ 335a.12 Withdrawal of or failure to prosecute petition; procedure. See § 334.18 of this chapter.

PART 335b—PROOF OF QUALIFICATIONS FOR NATURALIZATION: WITNESSES: DEPOSITIONS

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

335b.1 Proof of residence and other qualifications.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

Sec.
335b.11 Substitution of witnesses; procedure.
335b.12 Depositions; procedure.

AUTHORITY: §§ 335b.1 to 335b.11 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply sec. 307, 54 Stat. 1142, secs. 287, 316, 332, 335, 336, 405, 66 Stat. 233, 242, 252, 255, 257, 258.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 335b.1 Proof of residence and other qualifications.—(a) Whenever State residence is required. At the preliminary examination upon the petition for naturalization before a designated examiner, or if no preliminary examination is held, at the final hearing before the court, residence in the State in which the petitioner resides at the time of filing the petition, for at least six months immediately preceding the date of filing the petition and the other qualifications required by section 316 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act during such residence, shall be proved only by the oral testimony of two credible witnesses, citizens of the United States. Residence and other qualifications required by section 316 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, for the period prior to such six-month period shall be proved either by depositions taken in accordance with § 335b.12 or by the oral testimony of at least two credible witnesses, citizens of the United States. If oral testimony is taken from witnesses who did not verify the petition, affidavits on Form N-451 shall be executed by such other witnesses, in duplicate, before the clerk of the court or the designated examiner, one copy of which shall be attached to the original petition and the other to the duplicate petition.

(b) Whenever State residence is not required. In any case in which State residence is not required to be established, the petitioner shall, at the preliminary examination before the designated examiner, or if no preliminary examination is held, at the final hearing before the court, prove his residence within the United States and the other qualifications required by section 316 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, for such period as they have known the petitioner, by the oral testimony of two credible witnesses, citizens of the United States. That portion of the time during which the petitioner is required to establish residence within the United States and the other qualifications required by section 316 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, which is not covered by the oral testimony of such witnesses, shall be proved either by depositions taken in accordance with § 335b.12, or by the oral testimony of at least two credible witnesses, citizens of the United States. If oral testimony is taken from witnesses who did not verify the petition, affidavits on Form N-451 shall be executed by them and filed in the manner described in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Whenever petitioner is absent from the United States. A petitioner who has been granted the benefits of section 316 (b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act or section 307 (b) of the Nationality Act of 1940 to cover his absence from the United States for the purposes specified in that section shall not be required to establish his qualifications under section 316 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act for the period of his absences by the testimony of witnesses, as required by this part. The qualifications during such period may be established by any evidence satisfactory to the naturalization court.

(d) Witnesses excused from final hearing. If the testimony of the witnesses is heard at a preliminary examination under Part 335 of this chapter the witnesses may be excused by the designated examiner from appearance before the court at the final hearing, unless the petitioner otherwise demands or the court otherwise requires.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 335b.11 Substitution of witnesses; procedure. If the witnesses who verified the petition have not been excused from appearance at the final hearing and the petitioner is unable to produce such witnesses, other witnesses may be presented in their stead, upon notice given by the petitioner on Form N-450 to the district director or officer in charge, within a reasonable time in advance of the date set for final hearing. If any of the verifying witnesses appear to be incompetent and the petitioner has acted in good faith in producing such witnesses, other witnesses may be substituted upon notice on Form N-450 given in the manner described in this section. In no case shall a final hearing be held until after the substitute witnesses have been examined by the representative of the Service and an affidavit on Form N-451 has been executed in duplicate by the witnesses before such representative or the clerk of the court in the manner described in § 335b.1 (a).

§ 335b.12 Depositions; procedure—(a) In the United States. Depositions may be used to prove compliance with the requirements for naturalization during any period except the minimum period of State residence. A request to take depositions shall be made by the petitioner on Form N-460. Such depositions shall be taken only upon written interrogatories on Form N-462. Except as otherwise provided in this section they shall be made in the United States before an employee of the Service authorized to administer oaths and take depositions under Part 332d of this chapter, unless there is a likelihood of unusual delay or hardship, in which case the district director or officer in charge may authorize such depositions to be taken before a postmaster, without charge, or before a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths for general purposes, and the authorization to take such depositions shall be filed in the naturalization court with the depositions. In cases in which the depositions are taken other than before an employee of the Service or a postmaster, the alien shall be informed of the name and title of the officer designated to take the depositions and the petitioner shall arrange with him independently of the Service to defray all costs and expenses incident thereto. When depositions are taken by the Service, the time and place shall be fixed so as to be as convenient as possible to all concerned, consistent with good administration. The petitioner or his attorney or representative may be present when the depositions are taken. Depositions taken under this section shall be sent to the officer in charge having administrative supervision over the territory in which the petition is pending and by him forwarded to the clerk of the naturalization court prior to the final hearing, for filing with the petition.

(b) Outside the United States. Petitioners for naturalization who, under sections of the Immigration and Nationality Act applicable to their cases, are exempt from the usual requirement of residence and physical presence in the United States, but who are required to establish good moral character, attachment to the principles of the Constitution, and favorable disposition to the good order and happiness of the United States for the period applicable to their cases, and who were absent from or were not residents of the United States during such period, may establish their qualifications during the periods of absence by depositions taken outside the United States in the manner described in paragraph (a) of this section. Such depositions shall be taken before any employee of the United States designated for that purpose by the Commissioner. The petitioner shall be informed that he will be required to defray all costs and expenses of the person taking the depositions, as may be authorized by law and that the petitioner shall arrange with the deponents for the payment of such costs and expenses independently of the Service.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 336.11 Notice to Service; personal representation of Government at naturalization proceedings. At least thirty days prior to the holding of any naturalization proceedings referred to in section 336 (d) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, the clerk of the naturalization court shall give written notice to the appropriate district director or officer in charge of the time, date, and place of such proceedings. Such notice may be waived by the district director or officer in charge. Final naturalization hearings or other naturalization proceedings shall, whenever practicable, be attended personally by naturalization examiners or other members of the Service, who shall present to the court the views and recommendations of the designated examiner and the Commissioner, as appropriate. In those cases in which the recommendation of the Commissioner does not agree with that of the designated examiner, a member of the Service other than the person who conducted the preliminary examination shall, whenever practicable, represent the Service before the court. Such representative may cross-examine the petitioner and his witnesses and may call other witnesses and produce evidence concerning any matter affecting the petitioner's eligibility for naturalization. In cases in which it appears to be necessary, the representative in attendance at the proceedings, shall have a stenographic report made of the testimony given in the proceedings.

§ 336.12 Written report in lieu of personal representation. In any case in which a preliminary interrogation or preliminary examination has been conducted pursuant to Part 332 or Part 335 of this chapter, and it is impracticable thereafter for a representative of the Service to be present at the final naturalization hearing, written notice of that fact shall be given by the Service to the court. The petitions set down for hearing shall be listed on the appropriate form prescribed by § 336.13. The grounds for objection, if any, shall be supported by the memoranda required by §§ 335.12 and 332.14 of this chapter. If continuance of the petition is desired, the basis therefor shall be set forth. The forms and memoranda shall be transmitted to the clerk of court, who shall submit the appropriate lists and orders to the court, in accordance with the procedure described in § 336.13.

§ 336.13 Preparation of recommendations and orders of court for presentation at final hearing. Prior to the final hearing referred to in section 336 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, the representative attending the final hearing shall have prepared, in duplicate, lists of petitions on Form N–480, Form N–481, Form N–485, or Form N–490, as appropriate, for those recommended to be granted; on Form N–483 for those recommended to be continued; and on Form N–484, Form N–486, or Form N–491, as appropriate, for those recommended to be denied. Such forms, except Forms N–490 and Forms N–491, shall be signed by the representative attending the final hearing. The forms shall be submitted to the court at or before such hearing. In any case in which the Commissioner's recommendation differs from that of the designated examiner, the Commissioner's list shall be prepared in duplicate, on Form N–492 for petitions recommended to be granted, and on Form N–493 for petitions recommended to be denied, shall be signed by the district director or officer in charge, and submitted by the representative to the court at or before the final hearing. After the final hearing has been held, an order of court, in duplicate, on Form N–480A for petitions recommended to be granted by the designated examiner; on Form N–483 for petitions recommended to be continued; on Form N–490 for petitions granted; on Form N–491 for petitions denied on Form N–492 for petitions recommended to be granted by the Commissioner, and on Form N–493 for petitions recommended to be denied by the Commissioner, as appropriate, shall be presented to the judge who presided at the final hearing, for his signature. In any case in which the petitioner is not permitted to take the oath of allegiance required by section 337 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act until a date following a general election referred to in section 336 (c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, the order of court on Forms N–480A, N–484A, N–490, and N–492 shall be amended by striking therefrom the words, "and each having taken the oath of allegiance required by the naturalization laws and regulations," and inserting immediately following the word "America" in the order of admission, the words "as of the date of and upon the taking of the oath of allegiance required by the naturalization laws and regulations at a date subsequent to ----------, 19----." Following the taking of the oath of allegiance after a general election pursuant to such amended order, the clerk of court shall prepare a list, in duplicate, on Form N–489, certifying that such oath was taken. The originals of all court orders and lists specified herein shall be filed permanently in the court, and the duplicates forwarded by the clerk of court to the appropriate field office of the Service for retention by such office. The same disposition shall be made of any list presented to, but not approved by, the court.

§ 336.14 Presentation of designated examiner's and Commissioner's recommendation at final hearing. At the final hearing or prior thereto, in addition to the lists prepared under § 336.13, there shall be presented to the court and made a part of the record in the case, the memoranda of the designated examiner and the Commissioner, prepared pursuant to provisions of Part 332 or Part 335 of this chapter.

§ 336.15 Final hearing: sickness or disability of petitioner; investigation. Whenever it appears that a petitioner for naturalization may be unable, because of sickness or other disability, to appear in open court for final hearing upon his petition for naturalization, the district director or officer in charge shall cause an investigation to be conducted to determine the circumstances and shall report the condition of the petitioner to the clerk of court for the purpose of aiding the court to determine whether another place for the final hearing shall be designated. The report shall show whether the sickness or other disability is of a nature which so incapacitates the person as to prevent him from appearing in open court.

§ 336.16 Final hearing; waiver of 30-day period. A petitioner for naturalization may request the district director or officer in charge, in writing, to waive the thirty-day period following the filing of the petition referred to in section 336 (c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Such request may be made at any time prior or subsequent to the filing of the petition. The district director or officer in charge shall cause a full and complete investigation to be conducted and if such investigation satisfactorily establishes that such waiver will be in the public interest and will promote the security of the United States, he may, in his discretion, grant the waiver. Notice of granting of the waiver shall be given to the clerk of court in writing.

PART 337—OATH OF ALLEGIANCE

Sec.
337.1 Oath of allegiance.
337.2 Persons naturalized by judicial action; effective date.
337.3 Renunciation of title or order of nobility.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

337.11 Oath of renunciation and allegiance; sickness or disability of petitioner.

AUTHORITY: §§ 337.1 to 337.11 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or applies secs. 322, 323, 332, 337, 66 Stat. 246, 252, 258.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 337.1 Oath of allegiance.—(a) Form of oath. Except as otherwise provided in the Immigration and Nationality Act, a petitioner or applicant for naturalization shall, before being admitted to citizenship, take in open court the following oath of allegiance:

I hereby declare, on oath, that I absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, of whom or which I have heretofore been a subject or citizen; that I will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I will bear arms on behalf of the United States when required by the law; or that I will perform noncombatant service in the armed forces of the United States when required by the law; or that I will perform work of national importance under civilian direction when required by the law; and that I take this obligation freely without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; so help me God. In acknowledgement whereof I have hereunto affixed by signature.

(b) Alteration of form of oath. In those cases in which a petitioner or applicant for naturalization is exempt from taking the oath prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section in its entirety, the inapplicable clauses shall be deleted and the oath shall be taken in such altered form.

(c) Obligations of oath. A petitioner or applicant for naturalization shall, before being naturalized, establish that it is his intention, in good faith, to assume and discharge the obligations of the oath of allegiance, and that his attitude toward the Constitution and laws of the United States renders him capable of fulfilling the obligations of such oath.

§ 337.2 Persons naturalized by judicial action; effective date. Any person who was or shall hereafter be admitted to citizenship by the written order of a naturalization court, shall be deemed to be a citizen of the United States as of the date of taking the prescribed oath of allegiance. Whenever a waiver of such oath is granted by the court in the case of a child naturalized under sections 322 or 323 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, the child shall become a citizen of the United States as of the date of such waiver.

§ 337.3 Renunciation of title or order of nobility. A petitioner for naturalization who has borne any hereditary title or has been of any of the orders of nobility in any foreign state, shall, in addition to taking the oath of allegiance prescribed by § 337.1, make under oath in open court an express renunciation of such title or order of nobility, in the following form:

I further renounce the title of ---------- (give title or ---------- which I have heretofore held; or titles)
I further renounce the order of nobility ---------- to which I (Give the order of nobility) have heretofore belonged.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 337.11 Oath of renunciation and allegiance; sickness or disability of petitioner. Whenever it appears that a petitioner for naturalization may be unable because of sickness or other disability to take the oath of allegiance in open court, the district director or officer in charge shall cause an investigation to be conducted to determine the circumstances, and shall report the condition of the petitioner to the naturalization court for the purpose of aiding the court to determine whether the oath may be taken at another place. The report shall show whether the sickness or other disability is of a nature which so incapacitates the person as to prevent him from appearing in open court.

Sec.
338.11 Execution and issuance.
338.12 Endorsement in case name is changed.
338.13 Spoiled certificates.
338.14 Delivery of certificates; surrender of alien registration receipt card.
338.15 Signing of certificate.
338.16 Correction of certificates.

AUTHORITY: §§ 338.11 to 338.16 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 322, 323, 332, 333, 336, 338, 339, 66 Stat. 246, 252, 253, 258, 259.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 338.11 Execution and issuance. When a petitioner for naturalization has duly taken and subscribed to the oath of allegiance and a final order admitting petitioner to citizenship has been duly signed by the court, a certificate of naturalization shall be issued by the clerk of the court on Form N–550, in duplicate. The certificates and the stub of the original thereof shall be signed by the petitioner. The certificate shall show under "former nationality" the name of the country of which the petitioner was last a citizen, as shown in the petition, even though petitioner may have been stateless at the time of admission to citizenship. The clerk or a deputy clerk shall sign the certificate in his own handwriting and enter on the stub thereof all the essential facts set forth in the certificate. Both copies of the certificate, including the stubs, shall be prepared in one operation on a typewriter with the use of carbon paper. Photographs shall be affixed to the original and duplicate certificates in the manner provided by Part 333 of this chapter. The stub of the original shall be removed and retained by the clerk of court and filed in an upright card file, or in a three by five inch card drawer by trimming the stub to that size. The original certificate shall be delivered to the petitioner. The duplicate copies of the certificates shall not be separated from their stubs and shall be forwarded to the appropriate office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service with all other duplicate papers in accordance with Part 339 of this chapter.

§ 338.12 Endorsement in case name is changed. Whenever the name of a petitioner has been changed by order of court as a part of a naturalization, the clerk of court shall make, date, and sign the following endorsement on the reverse side of the original and duplicate of the certificate of naturalization: "Name changed by decree of court from ----------, as a part of the naturalization," inserting in full the original name of the petitioner. A similar notation shall be made on the stubs of the original and duplicate certificate. The certificate of naturalization shall be issued and the stub of the original thereof signed by the petitioner in the name as changed.

§ 338.13 Spoiled certification. Whenever a certificate of naturalization is damaged, mutilated, defaced or otherwise spoiled before delivery by the clerk, the original and duplicate, with stubs intact, shall be marked "Spoiled" and transmitted to the appropriate immigration and naturalization office, in the manner described in § 339.2 of this chapter, with the monthly report of the clerk on Form N–4.

§ 338.14 Delivery of certificates; surrender of alien registration receipt card. No certificate of naturalization shall be delivered by the clerk of court unless and until the naturalized person has surrendered his Alien Registration Receipt Card, unless the district director or officer in charge authorizes delivery without the card. The number of the card shall be endorsed by the clerk on the stubs of the original and duplicate certificate. The clerk shall forward the receipt card to the appropriate immigration and naturalization office with the duplicate certificate in accordance with § 339.2 of this chapter.

§ 338.15 Signing of certificate. If a child, who has been admitted to citizenship under section 322 or section 323 of the Immigration and Nationality Act is unable to sign his name, the certificate of naturalization shall be signed by the petitioning parent or parents, whether natural or adoptive, as may be appropriate, and the signature shall read "(insert name of petitioning parent or parents) in behalf of (insert name of naturalized child)." A naturalized person whose petition was signed by him in a foreign language may sign his certificate of naturalization in the same manner.

§ 338.16 Correction of certificates. Whenever a certificate of naturalization has been delivered which does not conform to the facts shown on the petition for naturalization, or a clerical error was made in preparing the certificate, an application on Form N–458 may be made by the naturalized person to the district director exercising jurisdiction over the place in which the court is located to authorize the correction of the certificate. If the district director finds that a correction is justified and can be made without mutilating the certificate, he shall authorize the clerk of the issuing court on Form N–459, in duplicate, to make the necessary correction and to place a dated endorsement on the reverse of the certificate, over his signature and the seal of the court, explaining the correction. The authorization shall be filed with naturalization record, the corrected certificate returned to the naturalized person and the duplicate Form N–459 shall be endorsed to show the date and nature of the correction and endorsement made, and returned to the district director. No fee shall be charged the naturalized person for the correction. The district director shall forward such duplicate to the Central Office. When a correction would or does result in mutilation of the certificate, the district director may authorize the clerk of court on Form N–459, in duplicate, with the consent of the naturalized person, to issue without fee a new certificate from his supply, upon surrender of the incorrect certificate and submission of photographs. The surrendered certificate shall be marked "Spoiled" and transmitted to the district director with the duplicate copy of the new certificate and the duplicate Form N–459 appropriately endorsed, with the monthly report of the clerk on Form N–4. The original of the new certificate shall be delivered to the naturalized person. Objection shall be made by the Service to any application to the court for the alteration of a certificate of naturalization which would cause it to vary from the record on which the naturalization was granted.

PART 339—FUNCTIONS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF NATURALIZATION COURTS

Sec.
339.1 Administration of oath to declarations of intention and petitions for naturalization.
339.2 Monthly reports.
339.3 Relinquishment of naturalization jurisdiction.
339.4 Binding of naturalization records.
339.5 Numbering and indexing and filing of petitions for naturalization and declarations of intention.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

AUTHORITY: §§339.1 to 339.5 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 332, 339, 344, 66 Stat. 252, 259, 265.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 339.1 Administration of oath to declarations of intention and petitions for naturalization. It shall be the duty of every clerk of a naturalization court to administer the required oath to each applicant for a declaration of intention. The clerk shall receive and file petitions and administer the required oaths to each petitioner and the witnesses to each petition, unless such petitioner and witnesses have executed the petition before a designated examiner.

§ 339.2 Monthly reports. Clerks of court shall on the first day of each month submit to the district director, or officer in charge, having administrative jurisdiction over the place in which the court is located, a report on Form N–4, in duplicate, listing all declarations of intentions, all petitions for naturalization, and all certificates of naturalization issued during the preceding month, in accordance with the instructions contained in Form N–4. When at any time during the month the aggregate number of petitions and declarations filed reaches 100 the clerk shall on request of the district director or officer in charge forthwith forward such reports in accordance with the provisions of this section. The report shall be accompanied by all duplicate copies of declarations of intention and applications therefor on Forms N–300; by all duplicates of petitions for naturalization not theretofore delivered to a representative of the Service, and all duplicates of certificates of naturalization with stubs intact and surrendered alien registration receipt cards attached thereto. The clerk of court shall show opposite the number of each petition in which the petitioner is exempt from payment of a naturalization fee under section 344 (h) of the Immigration and Nationality Act the letter "M". Opposite the name of each such case and at the bottom of the petition, the notation "No fee" shall be inserted. Void petitions shall be listed separately on Form N–4 and on Form N–7 and so indicated on such forms.

§ 339.3 Relinquishment of naturalization jurisdiction. Whenever a court relinquishes naturalization jurisdiction, the clerk of court shall, within ten days following the date of relinquishment, furnish the district director or officer in charge having administrative jurisdiction over the place in which the court is located, a certified copy of the order of court relinquishing jurisdiction. A representative of the Service shall thereafter examine the naturalization records in the office of the clerk of court and shall bind and lock them. The clerk of court shall return all unused forms and blank certificates of naturalization to the district director or officer in charge with his monthly report on Form N–4.

§ 339.4 Binding of naturalization records. Whenever a volume of petitions for naturalization, applications to take the oath of allegiance, declarations of intention, orders of court, or other documents affecting or relating to the naturalization of persons is completed, it shall be bound and locked in the office of the clerk of court by a representative of the Service. It shall be the duty of the clerk of court to notify the district director or officer in charge as soon as a volume is ready for binding and locking and to request such officer to arrange to have the volume bound and locked.

§ 339.5 Numbering and indexing and filing of petitions for naturalization and declarations of intention. See §§ 334.3 and 334a.16 of this chapter.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

Sec.
340.11 Investigation and report.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 340.11 Investigation and report. Whenever it appears that any grant of naturalization may have been procured by concealment of a material fact or by wilful misrepresentation, the facts shall be reported to the district director having jurisdiction over the naturalized person's last known place of residence. If the district director is satisfied that a prima facie showing has been made that grounds for revocation exist, he shall cause an investigation to be made and report the facts in writing to the Commissioner with a recommendation as to whether revocation proceedings should be instituted. If it appears that naturalization was procured in violation of section 1425 of Title 18 of the United States Code, the facts in regard thereto may be presented by the district director to the appropriate United States Attorney for possible criminal prosecution.

Sec.
341.1 Persons eligible.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

341.11 Application and fee.
341.12 Supporting documents and copies.
341.13 Notice and examination of applicant and witnesses.
341.14 Burden of proof; benefit of Service records.
341.15 Report and recommendation.
341.16 Final disposition.
341.17 Attorneys.

AUTHORITY: §§ 341.1 to 341.17 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 332, 333, 337, 341, 344, 66 Stat. 252, 254, 258, 263, 264.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 341.1 Persons eligible. A person who claims to have derived United States citizenship through the naturalization of a parent or parents or through the naturalization or citizenship of a husband, or who claims to be a citizen at birth outside the United States under the provisions of any of the statutes or acts specified in section 341 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, may apply for a certificate of citizenship.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 341.11 Application and fee. Application for a certificate of citizenship under this part shall be submitted to the Service on Form N–600, in accordance with the instructions contained therein. The application shall be signed by the applicant, or in the case of a child under the age of eighteen years by his parent or guardian, but shall not be subscribed or sworn to or affirmed until the applicant appears before an officer of the Service for examination. The application shall be accompanied by the statutory fee of $5.

§ 341.12 Supporting documents and copies. The originals of such documentary evidence, or pertinent excerpts therefrom if the documents are lengthy or bulky, as the applicant may have or be able to obtain relating to the date and place of his birth, the date and place of the marriage of his parents, the date and place of marriage of the applicant if the applicant be a woman, the identity of any person involved, or any other documents tending to establish the claimed citizenship, shall be submitted with the application. The applicant shall not be required to furnish a translation of any such documents written in a foreign language. If the applicant desires any such documents returned to him after final action has been taken in his case, the application shall be accompanied also by photostatic, photographic, or typewritten copies of such documents, except that no copy may be made of any original or copy of a declaration of intention or certificate of naturalization or citizenship or any part thereof. If the applicant has made reasonable effort to obtain official copies of public or church records of such documentary evidence without success or cannot obtain such copies without undue hardship, other evidence may be submitted.

§ 341.13 Notice and examination of applicant and witnesses. The applicant shall be notified when and where to appear in person before an officer of the Service for examination upon the application and shall be requested to produce witnesses in support of his application. The examining officer shall orally review the application with the applicant, or in the case of a child under the age of eighteen years, with its parent or parents, or guardian, before administering the oath to the applicant. Any necessary changes in the application shall be consecutively numbered and acknowledged in writing by the applicant or the parent or guardian. The applicant and the person or persons through whom applicant claims to have derived or acquired citizenship shall then be carefully questioned under oath concerning the identity and relationship of the applicant to the person or persons through whom citizenship is claimed to ascertain whether the applicant or such person or persons ever lost such citizenship, the applicant's immigration status, if pertinent, and any other matter touching upon the applicant's eligibility for a certificate of citizenship. If the person or persons through whom the applicant claims citizenship are deceased or otherwise not available, the testimony customarily required of such person or persons shall be furnished by qualified witnesses. If the sworn application form, supporting documentary evidence, records of the Service, the testimony of the person or persons through whom citizenship is claimed, and the testimony of the applicant, or the parent or guardian if the applicant is a child under the age of eighteen years, establish applicant's claim to citizenship, no other witnesses shall be required. Otherwise, such number of credible witnesses, preferably citizens of the United States, as may be deemed necessary, shall be questioned under oath by the examiner concerning the facts of the applicant's citizenship. The testimony heard shall not be reduced to writing in verbatim form except in cases in which neither primary nor secondary documentary evidence is available to establish an essential fact concerning applicant's citizenship, and except in cases in which it appears that criminal proceedings might be instituted as a result of false testimony.

§ 341.14 Burden of proof; benefit of Service records. The burden of proof to establish his citizenship and eligibility for the certificate shall at all times be upon the applicant. In presenting his proof, the applicant shall be entitled to the benefit of any pertinent records pertinent to the issue, concerning him which are in the custody of the Service and which are not regarded by the Commissioner as confidential. Copies thereof, or information from such records, may be made available to the officer of the Service passing upon the application, without payment of fee by the applicant.

§ 341.15 Report and recommendation. Upon completion of the examination, the examining officer shall prepare a report of his findings on Form N–635 as to each of the essential facts to be established in the proceedings, together with his recommendation and any comment he deems necessary. If any issue of law or fact is raised by the evidence, or if denial of the application is recommended, the examining officer shall summarize the evidence, the issues involved, and the reasons for denial, in a separate report to accompany Form N–635. If a recommendation to grant the application is based principally on documentary evidence, that fact shall be stated; if not, a brief statement of the facts and circumstances in evidence considered sufficient to justify the action recommended shall be made. The recommendation of the examining officer and the record shall then be forwarded to the district director for decision.

§ 341.16 Final disposition—(a) Issuance of certificate. If the district director grants the application he shall issue the certificate on Form N–560, in duplicate. If the applicant has assumed, or is known by, a name other than his true name, but has not changed his name in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction where he assumed it the certificate of citizenship, shall be issued in the applicant's true name followed by the words "also known as" followed by the assumed name, but in such case the applicant shall be required to sign only his true name on the certificate and on the photographs submitted with his application. The certificate shall be signed by the applicant unless he is a child unable to sign his name, in which case the certificate shall be signed by the parent or guardian, and the signature shall read "(Insert name of parent or guardian) in behalf of (insert name of child)." The applicant shall, unless he is too young to understand the meaning thereof, take and subscribe to, before a member of the Service, the oath of renunciation and allegiance prescribed by Part 337 of this chapter. Thereafter personal delivery of the original of the certificate shall be made to the applicant, or to his parent or guardian, who shall sign a receipt therefor.

(b) Applications denied. If the district director denies the application, the applicant shall be notified in writing as promptly as possible of such denial with the reasons therefor and, at the same time, shall be advised that he has ten days from the date of receipt of notification in which he may appeal to the Assistant Commissioner, Inspections and Examinations Division, in accordance with the provisions of Part 7 of this chapter.

(c) Review by Assistant Commissioner, Inspections and Examinations Division. Upon review of a record received under this section, the Assistant Commissioner, Inspections and Examinations Division, shall enter an order granting or denying the application, which order shall be final. The Assistant Commissioner's decision shall be sent to the district office of origin with the return of the file relating to the applicant. If the application is granted by the Assistant Commissioner, the district director shall issue the certificate in the manner described in paragraph (a) of this section. The district director shall advise the applicant in writing of the Assistant Commissioner's decision.

§ 341.17 Attorneys. Attorneys and other persons qualified to practice before the Service who represent applicants for certificates of citizenship under section 341 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, shall be permitted, upon completion of the application and examination of the applicant and his witnesses, to submit briefs and to review the record, either before it is forwarded to the district director or thereafter and prior to final decision. When final decision is made in a case, the attorney or other person representing the applicant shall be notified.

PART 341a—CERTIFICATE OF CITIZENSHIP—HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Sec.
341a.1 Persons eligible.
341a.2 Certificate of Citizenship—Hawaiian Islands; effect of.
341a.3 Certificate of Citizenship—Hawaiian Islands; improper use.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

341a.11 Application; fee.
341a.12 Notice; examination.
341a.13 Report and recommendation.
341a.14 Disposition of application.
341a.21 Certificate lost, mutilated or destroyed.

AUTHORITY: §§ 341a.1 to 341a.21 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply Title V, 65 Stat. 290, secs. 332, 333, 343, 66 Stat. 252, 253, 264; 8 U. S. C. 140.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 341a.1 Persons eligible. A citizen of the United States who is a bona fide resident of Hawaii, who intends to depart temporarily from that territory, and who desires to establish his United States citizenship for the purpose of facilitating his readmission to the United States, may apply for a "Certificate of Citizenship—Hawaiian Islands." The burden of proof to establish his eligibility for the certificate shall be upon the applicant.

§ 341a.2 Certificate of Citizenship—Hawaiian Islands; effect of. Certificates of Citizenship—Hawaiian Islands, issued pursuant to this part may be presented to an immigration officer at any port of entry, as evidence to prove United States citizenship. The certificate shall not be required to be surrendered to the immigration officer, but may be retained by the proper holder thereof.

§ 341a.3 Certificate of Citizenship—Hawaiian Islands; improper use. Whenever it is ascertained that a Certificate of Citizenship—Hawaiian Islands is in the possession of a person to whom it was not issued, the certificate shall be taken up and forwarded with a report of the circumstances to the district director at Honolulu by the district director having administrative jurisdiction over the place where the certificate was presented. No appeal shall lie from any action taken under this section.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 341a.11 Application; fee. Application for the issuance of a "Certificate of Citizenship—Hawaiian Islands" shall be submitted to the office of the Service at Honolulu, T. H. on Form N–108, in accordance with the instructions contained therein. The application shall not be signed or sworn to until the applicant appears before an officer of the Service for examination in accordance with the requirements of § 341a.12. The application shall be accompanied by a fee of $5.00, by three photographs of the applicant as prescribed in Part 333 of this chapter, and by documentary evidence or pertinent excerpts therefrom, as described in § 341.12 of this chapter, tending to establish the applicant's citizenship. Pertinent documents in the custody of the Service shall be made available to the applicant under the conditions described in § 341.14 of this chapter.

§ 341a.12 Notice; examination. The applicant shall be required to appear in person before an officer of the Service for examination upon the application. The examining officer shall orally review the application with the applicant, before administering the oath to the applicant. Any necessary changes shall be consecutively numbered and acknowledged in writing by the applicant. The applicant shall then be questioned under oath concerning his citizenship and eligibility for the certificate. If the application, supporting documentary evidence, records of the Service and the testimony of the applicant establish the applicant's eligibility for the certificate, no witnesses shall be required. Otherwise, such number of credible witnesses, preferably citizens of the United States, as may be deemed necessary, shall be questioned under oath concerning the applicant's eligibility for the certificate. If such witnesses are, for good cause shown, unable to appear in person, their affidavits may be accepted in the discretion of the examining officer in lieu of their oral testimony. The testimony of the applicant and witnesses shall not be reduced to writing in verbatim form except when documentary evidence is not available to establish an essential fact concerning the applicant's citizenship, and except in cases in which it appears that criminal proceedings might be instituted as a result of false testimony.

§ 341a.13 Report and recommendation. Upon completion of the examination, the examining officer shall prepare a report of his findings on Form N–110 as to each of the essential facts to be established, together with his recommendation and any comment he deems necessary. If any issue of law or fact is raised by the evidence, or if denial of the application is recommended, the examining officer shall summarize the evidence and prepare a report thereon to accompany Form N–110. If a recommendation to grant the application is based principally on evidence other than documentary evidence, a brief statement of the facts and circumstances in evidence considered sufficient to justify such recommendation shall be made. If such recommendation is based principally on documentary evidence that fact shall be stated. The record, supporting documents, and the Form N–110 shall then be forwarded to the district director, Honolulu, T. H., for decision.

§ 341a.14 Disposition of application—(a) Issuance of certificates; delivery. If the district director is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to receive a certificate of citizenship, he shall so indicate on the Form N–110 and issue the certificate on Form N–109, in duplicate. The original certificate shall be delivered personally to the applicant, and the duplicate filed in the office of the district director at Honolulu, T. H.

(b) Application denied. If the district director is not satisfied that the application shall be granted, he shall so indicate on the Form N–110 and deny the application. The applicant shall be notified in writing as promptly as possible of such denial with the reasons therefor and, at the same time shall be advised that he has ten days from the date of receipt of notification in which he may appeal to the Assistant Commissioner, Inspections and Examinations Division, in accordance with the provisions of Part 7 of this chapter.

(c) Review by Assistant Commissioner, Inspections and Examinations Division. Upon review of a record received under this section, the Assistant Commissioner, Inspections and Examinations Division, shall enter an order granting or denying the application, which order shall be final. The Assistant Commissioner's decision and the record shall be sent to the district director at Honolulu, T. H., who shall advise the applicant of the decision. If the application is granted by the Assistant Commissioner, the certificate shall be issued by the district director in the manner described in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 341a.21 Certificate lost, mutilated or destroyed. A United States citizen whose Certificate of Citizenship—Hawaiian Islands, has been lost, mutilated or destroyed may apply for a new certificate in lieu thereof. The application shall be made on Form N–565 and submitted to the district director, Honolulu, T. H., in accordance with the instructions contained therein, accompanied by a fee of $5.00. The applicant shall be interrogated, and action upon his application taken in accordance with the provisions of §§ 343a.13 and 343a.14 of this chapter.

§ 343.11 Application. A person who lost citizenship of the United States incidental to service in one of the Allied armies during World War I or II, or by voting in a political election in a country not at war with the United States during World War II, and who was naturalized under the provisions of section 323 of the Nationality Act of 1940, as amended, or a person who, before January 13, 1941, resumed United States citizenship under the twelfth subdivision of section 4 of the act of June 29, 1906, may obtain a certificate evidencing such citizenship by making application therefor on Form N–580, and submitting it to the Service in accordance with the instructions contained therein. The application shall be accompanied by two photographs of the applicant, and the statutory fee of $5.

§ 343.12 Issuance of certificate. The field office shall forward the properly executed application with any supporting documents to the district director having jurisdiction over the applicant's place of residence, for decision. The applicant shall be interrogated by an officer of the Service with respect to his eligibility for the certificate, at any time prior to delivery of the certificate. The examining officer shall prepare a report as to the applicant's eligibility to receive the certificate. Every applicant for a certificate of naturalization or repatriation under this part shall be required to satisfy the district director that he has not, since the naturalization or repatriation, become expatriated. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the district director that the applicant is a citizen, and that he has been naturalized or repatriated as claimed, a certificate of naturalization on Form N–582 or a certificate of repatriation on Form N–581, as appropriate, shall be issued by the district director and forwarded to the field office for delivery to the applicant in person, in the United States only, upon his signed receipt therefor.

§ 343.13 Denial of application. If the district director is not satisfied that an application under this part should be granted, he shall deny the application. The applicant shall be notified in writing of such denial with the reasons therefor and, at the same time, shall be advised that he has ten days from the date of receipt of notification in which he may appeal to the Assistant Commissioner, Inspections and Examinations Division, in accordance with the provisions of Part 7 of this chapter. The Assistant Commissioner's decision shall be transmitted to the district director, who shall advise the applicant in writing of the decision and take such action as is required by the decision. If the application is granted by the Assistant Commissioner, the district director shall issue the appropriate document.

343a.11 Applications for replacement of or for new naturalization or citizenship paper.
343a.12 Submission of application; fees and documents.
343a.13 Interrogation of applicant.
343a.14 Action upon application.

AUTHORITY: §§ 343a.11 to 343a.14 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply sec. 317, 54 Stat. 1146, secs. 324, 332, 343, 344, 405, 66 Stat. 247, 252, 264, 265, 280.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS
[RESERVED]

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 343a.11 Applications for replacement of or for new naturalization or citizenship paper—(a) Lost, mutilated, or destroyed naturalization papers. A person whose declaration of intention, certificate of naturalization, citizenship, or repatriation, or whose certified copy of proceedings under the act of June 25, 1936, as amended, or under section 317 (b) of the Nationality Act of 1940, or under section 324 (c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, has been lost, mutilated, or destroyed, may apply on Form N–565 for a new paper in lieu thereof.

(b) New certificate in changed name. A naturalized citizen whose name has been changed after naturalization by order of court or by marriage, may apply on Form N–565 for a new certificate of naturalization, or of citizenship, in the changed name.

§ 343a.12 Submission of application; fees and documents. An application under § 343a.11 shall be submitted to the Service in accordance with the instructions contained therein. Applications under § 343a.11 (a) and (b) shall be accompanied by the statutory fee of $5 (unless the applicant is exempted from the payment of a fee by section 344 (b) (7) of the Immigration and Nationality Act), except that an application for a certified copy of proceedings under the act of June 25, 1936, as amended, shall be accompanied by the statutory fee of $1.50. The applications shall be accompanied by all mutilated naturalization, citizenship or repatriation papers. An application for a new certificate in a changed name shall be accompanied by documentary evidence of such change and the original certificate.

§ 343a.13 Interrogation of applicant. The field office shall forward the applications and all supporting documents to the district director having jurisdiction over the applicant's place of residence, for decision. The applicant shall be interrogated by an officer of the Service with respect to his eligibility to receive a new paper at any time prior to delivery of such paper. Every applicant under this part shall satisfy the district director that he has not become expatriated subsequent to the date he claims to have acquired United States citizenship.

(b) New declarations issued. If an application for a new declaration of intention is approved, the new declaration of intention shall be issued by the district director on Form N–321 or Form N–325, in duplicate, as appropriate, the original delivered to the applicant upon his signed receipt therefor, and the duplicate retained in the declarant's Service file.

(c) New certified copy of repatriation proceedings issued. If an application for a new certified copy of the proceedings under the act of June 25, 1936, as amended, or under section 317 (b) of the Nationality Act of 1940, or under section 324 (c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act is approved, there shall be issued by the district director a certified, positive photocopy of the record of the proceedings filed in the Central Office, whether such record be a duplicate of the court proceedings or a copy of the proceedings conducted at an embassy, legation, or consulate. If subsequent to the naturalization or repatriation the applicant's name has been changed by marriage, and if appropriate documentary evidence of such change is submitted with the application, the certification of the positive photocopy shall show both the name in which the proceedings were had and the changed name. The new certified copy shall be transmitted to the appropriate field office for personal delivery to the applicant, who shall sign a receipt therefor.

(d) Denial of application. If the district director is not satisfied that an application under this part should be granted, he shall deny the application. The applicant shall be notified in writing of such denial with the reasons therefor and, at the same time, shall be advised that he has ten days from the date of receipt of notification of the decision in which he may appeal to the Assistant Commissioner, Inspections and Examinations Division, in accordance with the provisions of Part 7 of this chapter. The Assistant Commissioner's decision shall be transmitted to the district director, who shall advise the applicant in writing of the decision and take such action as is required by the decision. If the application is granted by the Assistant Commissioner, the district director shall issue the appropriate document.

AUTHORITY: §§ 343b.11 to 343b.13 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 332, 343, 344, 66 Stat. 252, 264.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS
[RESERVED]

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 343b.11 Application and fee. A naturalized citizen who desires to obtain recognition as a citizen of the United States by a foreign state shall submit to the Service an application on Form N–577, in accordance with the instructions contained therein and with the statutory fee of $5.

§ 343b.12 Investigation; certificate; disposition. The field office shall forward a properly executed application to the district director for decision. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the district director that the application should be granted, a special certificate of naturalization on Form N–578 shall be issued by the district director in duplicate, the original of which shall be forwarded to the Secretary of State for transmission to the proper authority of the foreign state. The duplicate shall be retained in the Service file of the naturalized person. The district director shall advise the applicant of the action taken. If the applicant is within the United States, an officer of the Service shall interrogate the applicant at any time before the certificate is forwarded to the Secretary of State and shall prepare a report as to the applicant's eligibility for the certificate. If the applicant is outside the United States, the certificate shall be transmitted to the Secretary of State, who shall designate an employee of the Department of State in the foreign country in which the applicant is residing to interrogate the applicant before delivery of the certificate to the proper authority in the foreign state. Every applicant under this part shall satisfy the district director that he has not, since naturalization, lost his United States citizenship.

§ 343b.13 Denial of application. If the district director is not satisfied that the application should be granted, he shall deny the application. The applicant shall be notified in writing of such denial with the reasons therefor, and, at the same time, shall be advised that he has ten days from the date of receipt of notification of the decision in which he may appeal to the Assistant Commissioner, Inspections and Examinations Division, in accordance with the provisions of Part 7 of this chapter. The Assistant Commissioner's decision shall be transmitted to the district director, who shall advise the applicant in writing of the decision and take such action as is required by the decision. If the application is granted by the Assistant Commissioner, the district director shall issue the special certificate, as provided in § 343b.12.

Sec.
344.1 Division of the year for accounting for naturalization fees.
344.2 Fees in United States courts; remittance.
344.3 Fees in other than United States courts; United States District Courts in Alaska; remittance.
344.4 Fees in the District Courts at the Virgin Islands and Guam: remittance.
344.5 Time for report of and accounting for fees collected.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

AUTHORITY: §§ 344.1 to 344.5 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply secs. 332, 344, 66 Stat. 252, 264, 265.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 344.1 Division of the year for accounting for naturalization fees. For the purpose of accounting for and reporting naturalization fees quarterly by clerks of courts, the fiscal year shall end on June 30 of any given calendar year and shall be divided as follows: the first quarter shall end September 30; the second quarter ends December 31; the third quarter ends March 31; and the fourth quarter ends June 30.

§ 344.2 Fees in United States courts; remittance. All naturalization fees collected by clerks of United States district courts (except in Alaska, and the District Courts of Guam and the Virgin Islands of the United States) shall be forwarded quarterly to the district director having administrative jurisdiction over the place in which the court is located, by a remittance payable to the order of the "Treasurer of the United States."

§ 344.3 Fees in other than United States courts; United States District Courts in Alaska; remittance. One-half of all naturalization fees collected by clerks of courts other than United States courts, and one-half of all naturalization fees collected by the clerks of the United States district courts in Alaska, up to $6,000 in any one fiscal year shall be similarly remitted to the district director in the manner provided in § 344.2. Where the collections during the first quarter of any fiscal year equal or exceed $1,500, the clerk shall remit all in excess of $750; and whenever such collections for the first and second quarters equal or exceed $3,000, the clerk shall remit all in excess of $1,500; and whenever the collections for the first three quarters of the fiscal year equal or exceed $4,500, the clerk shall remit all in excess of $2,250; and whenever the total collections for any fiscal year equal or exceed $6,000, the clerk shall remit all fees or moneys so collected in excess of $3,000.

§ 344.4 Fees in the District Courts at the Virgin Islands and Guam; remittance. All naturalization fees collected by the clerk of the District Court of the Virgin Islands of the United States shall be paid into the Treasury of Virgin Islands. All naturalization fees collected by the clerk of the District Court of Guam shall be paid into the Treasury of Guam. However, such clerks shall report the fees collected to the district director having administrative jurisdiction over the place in which the court is located, in accordance with § 344.5.

§ 344.5 Time for report of and accounting for fees collected. The accounting for naturalization fees collected and the payment of fees turned over to the district director as provided in §§ 344.2, 344.3 and 344.4 shall be made on Form N-7 within thirty days from the close of each quarter of each and every fiscal year.

AUTHORITY: §§ 475.1 to 475.51 issued under sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173. Interpret or apply Title V, 65 Stat. 119, secs. 101, 212, 235, 241, 242, 264, 405, 66 Stat. 168, 184, 186, 199, 206, 209, 224, 281; 7 U. S. C. 1461-1468.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 475.1 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) The term "agricultural worker" means a native-born citizen of Mexico who is and has been a bona-fide resident of Mexico for at least one year immediately preceding the date of application for admission and who seeks to enter the United States temporarily under the provisions of Title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended (63 Stat. 1051, Pub. Law 78, 82nd Cong.), for the sole purpose of engaging in agricultural employment as defined herein, and who is legally admitted to the United States for temporary employment in agriculture in accordance with the terms of the Migrant Labor Agreement of 1951, as amended, entered into between the Governments of the United States and Mexico.

(b) The term "agricultural employment" means:

(1) Cultivation and tillage of the soil, planting, production, cultivation, growing, and harvesting of any agricultural or horticultural commodities and any practices (including any forestry or lumbering operations) performed by a farmer or on a farm as an incident to or in conjunction with such farming operations, including preparations for market, delivery to storage, or to market, or to a carrier for transportation to market; or

(2) The maintenance of a farm and its tools and equipment, or salvaging of timber or clearing land of brush and other debris left by a hurricane, if the major part of such service is performed on a farm; or

(3) The maintenance of ditches, canals, reservoirs, or waterways, not owned or operated for profit and used exclusively for supplying or storing water for farming purposes, and cotton ginning; or

(4) Handling, drying, packing, packaging, processing, freezing, grading or storing, in its unmanufactured state any agricultural or horticultural commodity for the operator of a farm; but only if such operator produced more than one-half of the commodity with respect to which the service is performed; or

(5) All of the activities described in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph for a group of operators of farms but only if such operators produced the commodities with respect to which such activities are performed: Provided, That the provisions of this subparagraph and subparagraph (4) of this paragraph shall not be applicable with respect to services performed in connection with commercial canning or commercial freezing, or in connection with any agricultural or horticultural commodities, after their delivery to a terminal market for distribution or consumption.

(c) The term "employer" means:

(1) The operator of agricultural property who is engaged in agricultural employment, as defined in this section;

(2) An association or other group of employees but only if those of its members for whom Mexican workers are being obtained are bound, in the event of its default, to carry out the obligations undertaken by it pursuant to the provisions of the Migrant Labor Agreement of 1951, as amended, unless the Secretary of Labor of the United States determines that such individual liability is not necessary to assure performance of such obligations; or

(3) A processor, shipper or marketer of agricultural products when the Mexican workers whom he obtains are employed by him in agriculture or crops purchased by him.

§ 475.2 Period for which admitted. An agricultural worker may be admitted to the United States as a nonimmigrant pursuant to section 101 (a) (15) (H) of the Immigration and Nationality Act: Provided:

(a) That the initial period of admission shall not extend beyond December 31, 1953, nor shall any extension be granted which would permit such worker to remain in the United States beyond December 31, 1953;

(b) That no maintenance-of-status or departure bond shall be required; and

(c) That the period of temporary admission shall be subject to immediate revocation, without notice, by the district director of the district having jurisdiction over the place of the alien's employment upon—

(1) Failure of the agricultural worker to maintain his status as such by accepting any employment or engaging in any activities not specifically authorized at the time of his recruitment and temporary admission;

(2) Withdrawal of the employer's certification because of violation of Title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, or the Migrant Labor Agreement of 1951, as amended, or individual work contract made thereunder, as specified in § 475.4 (b); or

(3) Determination and notification by the Secretary of Labor that sufficient domestic workers who are able, willing, and qualified are available at the time and place needed to perform the work for which such workers are employed, or that the employment of such workers is adversely affecting the wages and working conditions of domestic agricultural workers similarly employed, or that reasonable efforts have not been made to attract domestic workers for such employment at wages and standard hours of work comparable to those offered to foreign workers; or

(4) Termination of the Migrant Labor Agreement of 1951, as amended, prior to December 31, 1953.

§ 475.3 Conditions of admission. Any alien who applies for admission into the United States under the provisions of Title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, and the provisions of this part, must:

(a) Establish that he is an agricultural worker as defined in § 475.1 (a);

(b) Establish that he is in all respects admissible under the provisions of the immigration laws;

(c) Have been regularly recruited by the Secretary of Labor as an agricultural worker; and

(d) Establish to the satisfaction of the examining immigration officer that, if admitted, he will comply with all of the conditions of such admission.

§ 475.4 Compliance by employer. (a) No agricultural workers shall be made available to, nor shall any such workers made available be permitted to remain in the employ of, any employer who has in his employ any Mexican alien when such employer knows or has reasonable grounds to believe or suspect or by reasonable inquiry could have ascertained that such Mexican alien is not lawfully within the United States. Whenever it shall appear that a Mexican alien not lawfully in the United States is so employed, an investigation shall be made and a report submitted to the district director having jurisdiction over the place of the alien's employment.

(b) Upon notification from the Secretary of Labor that an employer fails or refuses to comply with the provision of Title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, or the Migrant Labor Agreement of 1951, as amended, or individual work contract made thereunder, the temporary admission of all agricultural workers employed by such employer may be revoked in the same manner as provided in § 475.2 (c).

(c) If a Mexican agricultural worker leaves his employment without proper authorization, the employer shall report such departure immediately or within five days thereof to the district director having jurisdiction over the reception center at which the worker was recruited. Such notification shall contain (1) the individual worker's name, as shown in the employer's copy of the contract; (2) the worker's Form I–100 number; (3) the location of the reception center at which the worker was originally contracted, and (4) the date the worker left the employer.

§ 475.5 Extension of stay; conditions. After an alien has been admitted to the United States as an agricultural worker under the provisions of this part or of prior regulations pertaining to Title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, he may be granted an extension or extensions of the period of his temporary admission by the district director having jurisdiction over the place of the alien's employment, subject to the same limitations as are placed on original admission by § 475.2.

§ 475.6 Readmission after temporary visits to Mexico. (a) An agricultural worker who has been admitted to the United States under the provisions of this part may be readmitted after temporary visits to Mexico on presentation of Form I–100, Alien Laborer's Permit and Identification Card, if he is still maintaining the status of an agricultural worker in the United States.

(b) An agricultural worker who is granted a furlough shall be furnished by the employer with a letter stating the time for which the furlough is granted and that all contractual obligations will be reassumed upon the alien's return to his employment after the furlough. The letter shall be appropriately endorsed to show approval of the furlough by a representative of the United States Employment Service and the appropriate Mexican Consul if the furlough:

(1) Is for more than 15 days, or

(2) Is to take place during the last 15 days of a six-week contract, or

(3) Is to take place during the last 30 days of a contract of more than six weeks.

§ 475.7 Previous removal, deportation; permission to reapply. An alien who established that he is in all respects entitled to admission as an agricultural worker under the provisions of this part, except that he has been previously removed at Government expense pursuant to section 242 (b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, or excluded or arrested and deported, on not more than one occasion solely because of illegal entry or absence of required documents, is hereby granted permission to reapply for admission to the United States as an agricultural worker: Provided, That in the case of such an alien who has been so removed or arrested and deported, such permission to reapply shall not become effective unless and until the alien has resided outside the United States for at least one year after deportation.

§ 475.8 Arrest and deportation of agricultural workers. (a) An alien admitted to the United States as an agricultural worker shall be deemed to have failed to maintain his nonimmigrant status within the meaning of section 241 (a) (9) of the Immigration and Nationality Act if:

(1) He remains in the United States after the expiration of the time for which he was temporarily admitted or after the expiration of any authorized extension of such period; or

(2) He violates or fails to fulfill any of the other conditions of his admission to or extended stay in the United States; or

(3) He evidences orally or in writing or by conduct an intention to violate or to fail to fulfill any of the conditions of his temporary admission to or extended stay in the United States; or

(4) He remains in the United States after the period of his temporary admission or extended stay is revoked pursuant to § 475.2 (c).

(b) Any alien to whom paragraph (a) of this section is applicable shall be subject to being taken into custody and made the subject of further proceedings under the applicable provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act and the regulations in this chapter.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 475.21 Recruitment centers; preliminary inspection. To the extent possible under the circumstances, all immigration inspections and medical examinations of the agricultural workers at recruitment centers in Mexico shall be similar to those regularly conducted at ports of entry on the border. If the immigration officer at the recruitment center in Mexico determines that the alien is admissible as an agricultural worker he shall so note and initial the conditional permit which is issued to the alien by the Secretary of Labor when the alien is recruited. Such endorsement shall not be construed as a guarantee that the alien will be admitted to the United States nor shall the alien be entitled to accept employment in the United States unless and until he has been issued Form I–100 as prescribed in § 475.22. Aliens who have been issued conditional permits, which have been noted by immigration officers, will be conveyed directly from the recruitment center to a reception center at or near a port of entry under the supervision of representatives of the Secretary of Labor for completion of immigration inspection and registration pursuant to Chapter 7 of Title II of the Immigration and Nationality Act. The conveyance of an agricultural worker to a reception center shall not constitute an admission to the United States. Such alien shall be considered to have been admitted to the United States only after he has been inspected and issued Form I–100 as prescribed in § 475.22. If the immigration officer at the recruitment center in Mexico determines that the alien is inadmissible as an agricultural worker, he shall refuse to note the alien's conditional permit and such decision by the immigration officer shall not be subject to appeal to a special inquiry officer.

§ 475.22 Immigration inspection at reception centers; authority to admit; hearings before special inquiry officer. (a) Any alien who presents the conditional permit described in § 475.21, duly noted by an immigration officer at a recruitment center, who is found to be admissible under this part as an agricultural worker may be so admitted by the examining immigration officer, at which time he shall—

(1) Be fingerprinted as follows:

(i) By placing the rolled impression of the right index finger on the reverse [illegible] of the original Form I–100, Alien Laborer's Permit and Identification Card, which shall be prepared in duplicate in each such case;

(ii) By placing complete fingerprints of both hands on one copy of Form AR–4; and

(iii) By executing the obverse of Form AR–4 and placing thereon the serial number of the Form I–100 and a stamped notation reading "Admitted as agricultural worker"; the executed form shall be mailed direct to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington 25, D. C.

(2) Be given the Form I–100a bearing his photograph and stating his name, place of birth and citizenship, duly noted by an immigration officer to show the date, place, and period of his admission into the United States and signed by said immigration officer across the bottom of the photograph, partly on the photograph and partly on the card. Such noted card shall constitute an alien registration receipt card pursuant to section 264 (d) of the Immigration and Nationality Act and shall be the sole documentation required for admission to the United States under the provisions of this part. The Form I–100 shall be forwarded to and retained by the district director of the district having jurisdiction over the port of the alien's entry.

(3) The foregoing shall be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions of Chapter 7 of Title II of the Immigration and Nationality Act relating to the registration of aliens.

(b) Any alien seeking admission under this part in whose case the examining immigration officer at the reception center is not satisfied that such alien is admissible, shall be held for hearing before a special inquiry officer, and the procedure applicable to aliens seeking admission to the United States under the general provision of the immigration laws shall be followed: Provided, however, That the case of an alien believed to be inadmissible to the United States under the provisions of paragraphs (27), (28) or (29) of section 212 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act shall be handled in accordance with the provisions of section 235 (c) of the said act and § 235.15 of this chapter.

§ 475.23 Recontracting in the United States. During the period for which he is admitted, or any authorized extension thereof, an agricultural worker may, with the approval of the district director having jurisdiction over the place of the alien's employment, be recontracted by the same or another employer. When an agricultural worker is so recontracted, his Form I–100 shall be appropriately noted and the officer in charge having administrative jurisdiction over the port of the alien's entry notified.

§ 475.24 Duplicate identification cards. Duplicate Form I–100a may be issued in the discretion of the district director or the officer in charge having jurisdiction over the place of alien's employment where the original has been lost, mutilated, or destroyed. The officer in charge having administrative jurisdiction over the port of the alien's entry shall be notified of the issuance of such a duplicate Form I–100.

§ 475.51 Extension of period of admission. Extension of the temporary admission of an alien admitted to the United States as an agricultural worker under Title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, and regulations pursuant thereto or under this part may be granted by the district director or the officer in charge having jurisdiction over the place of the alien's employment only upon determination and certification by the Secretary of Labor that:

(a) Sufficient domestic workers who are able, willing, and qualified are not available at the time and place needed to perform the work for which such workers are to be employed;

(b) The employment of such workers will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of domestic agricultural workers similarly employed; and

(c) Reasonable efforts have been made to attract domestic workers for such employment at wages and standard hours of work comparable to those offered to foreign workers.

SEAS SHIPPING CO., INC.

REGISTRATION OF HOUSE FLAG AND FUNNEL MARK

OCTOBER 31, 1952.

The Commissioner of Customs, by virtue of the authority vested in him by law and in accordance with § 3.81 (a), Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 3.81 (a)), has registered the house flag and funnel mark of the Seas Shipping Company, Inc., as described below:

(a) House flag. The following description of the house flag is as though viewed from a point at which the hoist appears at the viewer's left. The flag is rectangular in shape; the hoist is 4 feet and the fly is 6 feet. The field is navy blue with a design centered between the upper and lower edges of the flag which design is composed of a white ellipse with a red letter "R" of condensed Gothic type centered therein, from which ellipse three horizontal white stripes of varying lengths extend toward the fly. The major axis of the ellipse, which is slanted 20 degrees from vertical with the lower end nearer the hoist, is 27 inches in length and the minor axis is 16 inches. The extreme left edge of the ellipse is 8 inches from the hoist at a point 2 feet from the lower edge of the flag. The letter "R" is 16 inches in height and 8 inches in width, with a 2¼-inch stroke and is similarly slanted 20 degrees from vertical. The three white stripes are cut off on a diagonal 35 degrees from vertical; the upper edges of the stripes, respectively 45¾, 37½, and 22¼ inches; and all stripes are 4¼ inches in width, spaced 1¼ inches apart. The top of the upper stripe is 14 inches from the top of the flag.

(b) Funnel mark. The funnel mark is to appear on a light platinum gray funnel elliptical in shape, the major axis of which is 32 feet 6 inches in a fore-and-aft direction and the minor axis of which is 20 feet. The funnel markings consist of three contiguous horizontal stripes of varying lengths, each 26 inches wide, the upper edge of the top stripe being 24 inches from the top of the stack. The stripes in descending order are painted blue, white, and red, respectively, each having a black border at the bottom 2 inches wide. The stripes appear on each side of the funnel and extend around the forward portion. Each stripe is cut off on a diagonal 35 degrees from vertical, the upper edge being the longer. The projected length of the upper edge of the red stripe on either side of the funnel is 17 feet, the white stripe 21 feet 3 inches, and the blue stripe 30 feet 3 inches.

Colored drawings of the house flag and funnel mark described above are on file with the Federal Register Division.

[SEAL] FRANK DOW,
Commissioner of Customs.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 1 of the Military Personnel Claims Act of 1945, 59 Stat. 225, as amended by Public Law 439, 82d Congress, 2d session, July 3, 1952, and pursuant to section 202 (f) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 5 U. S. C. 171a, the following designation and delegation of authority is effective this date.

1. The Secretary of the Army, in addition to his authority with respect to claims of civilian employees of the Department of the Army under the Military Personnel Claims Act of 1945, as amended, is hereby authorized to exercise all of the powers conferred upon the Secretary of Defense by section 1 of that act, as amended, with respect to claims of civilian employees of the Department of Defense who are not civilian employees of the Department of the Army, Navy, or Air Force.

Dated: October 31, 1952.

ROBERT A. LOVETT,
Secretary of Defense.

TOWN SITE OF CLAYTON, IDAHO

SALE OF TOWN LOTS

OCTOBER 28, 1952.

1. Authority. Pursuant to the authority delegated by section 2.78 of Bureau of Land Management Order No. 427 (15 F. R. 5639, 5642) lots in the Town Site of Clayton, Idaho, will be disposed of under the provisions of sections 2382 to 2386, Revised Statutes. The plat of survey of this town site was approved on April 5, 1939.

2. Area and price. The area and minimum price of the lots which will be offered for sale are shown in the attached schedule.

3. Preemption claims. Preemption rights to purchase at the minimum price and not exceeding two lots were extended by Circular No. 1472, approved May 29, 1940 to actual residents and claimants for a period of 90 days, following the date of the circular. Such preemption claimants were required to file in the Land Office within the 90 day period, proof of their preemption claims and failure to do so worked a forfeiture of such rights. Therefore the notice announcing the public sale contains no provision pursuant to which preemption claims may be filed for any of the lots listed.

4. Public sale. The lots listed will be offered for sale at public auction by the Regional Administrator, or his designated representative, and will be sold to the highest bidder at the Court House, Challis, Idaho, starting at 10:00 a. m., July 15, 1953, and continuing until all lots are offered. Any qualified person may purchase any number of lots for which he is the highest bidder.

5. Payment. No lot will be sold for less than the appraised price. Payment for lots must be made at the time of sale, unless the total sum due from any purchaser exceeds the amount of $500.00. If the total sum due from any purchaser exceeds the amount of $500.00, he may elect to pay one-half of the total amount in cash on the sale date, and pay the balance within one year from the date of sale, plus interest at four per cent per annum to the date of payment. Any deferred payments must be made to the Manager, Idaho Land and Survey Office, Boise, Idaho. Failure to make full payment of any deferred installments, with interest, within the time allowed will cause an automatic forfeiture of all payments made, and of all interest under the sale, and the cancellation of the memorandum certificate of sale issued to the purchaser.

6. Citizenship requirements. Every individual purchasing a lot will be required to furnish evidence that he is a citizen of the United States, or that he has declared his intention to become a citizen, and every corporation purchasing a lot will be required to furnish evidence, including a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, showing that it was organized under the laws of the United States or of some State, Territory, or possession thereof, and that it is authorized to acquire and hold real estate in Idaho.

7. Manner of sale. Bids and payments may be made in person or by agent, but may not be made by mail nor at any time or place other than that fixed by this notice.

8. Authority of officer conducting the sale. The officer conducting the sale is hereby authorized to reject any and all bids for any lot and to suspend, adjourn, or postpone the sale of any lot or lots. After all the lots to be sold have been offered, the sale will be adjourned or closed as the officer conducting the sale may deem proper; and if the sale is closed, said officer shall reappraise any unsold lots as a basis for private entry whenever he shall find that the amounts bid or the appraised prices are inadequate.

9. Disposal of lots after sale has been closed. Lots remaining unsold at the close of the sale shall be subject to private entry for cash at the price fixed by any reappraisal pursuant to paragraph 8 hereof, or if not reappraised, then at their appraised price, and said lots may be purchased from the Manager, Idaho Land and Survey Office, Boise, Idaho.

10. Reservations. Patents for lots, when issued, will contain a reservation of fissionable source materials and the conditions and limitations as provided by the act of August 1, 1946 (60 Stat. 755), and a reservation of rights-of-way for ditches and canals in accordance with the act of August 30, 1890 (26 Stat. 391).

11. Warning. All persons are warned against bargaining in a manner, forming any combinations, or ordering any agreements, which will prevent any lot from selling advantageously or which will, in any way, hinder or prevent this sale. Any person so offending will be subject to prosecution under 18 U. S. C. 1860.

JAMES F. DOYLE,
Assistant Regional Administrator.

2. The authority herein delegated shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of section 303 (a) of the Defense Production Act, as amended, and in accordance with such policies as may be established by the Defense Materials Procurement Administrator.

3. The authority hereby delegated may be redelegated to officers and employees of the General Services Administration.

4. This delegation is effective as of July 7, 1952.

Dated: November 3, 1952.

ECONOMIC STABILIZATION AGENCY

Office of Price Stabilization

[Delegation of Authority No. 78]

DIRECTORS OF THE REGIONAL OFFICES

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO ACT UNDER SECTIONS 2 AND 3 OF GOR 25

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Director of Price Stabilization, pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended (64 Stat. 798, 803; 65 Stat. 131; 66 Stat. 296), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, as amended (16 F. R. 738, 11626), this Delegation of Authority is hereby issued.

1. Authority to act under sections 2 and 3 of GOR 25. Authority is hereby delegated to the Directors of the Regional Offices of the Office of Price Stabilization:

(a) To disapprove or reduce under Section 2 any ceiling price proposed, reported, or established under any ceiling price regulation, in connection with which the Regional Director is authorized to act on an individual price determination or authorization, so as to bring it in line with the level of ceiling prices otherwise established by that ceiling price regulation;

(b) To issue an order, under Section 3 of GOR 25, fixing an in-line ceiling price for any person subject to a ceiling price regulation, in connection with which the Regional Director is authorized to act on an individual price determination or authorization, who fails to prepare or keep any record or file any report required in connection with the establishment of his ceiling price, or who fails to establish a ceiling price or to apply to the Office of Price Stabilization for the establishment of a ceiling price if such action is required by the applicable regulation.

2. Redelegation of authority. The authority hereby delegated may be redelegated to the Directors of the District Offices of the Office of Price Stabilization.

This delegation of authority shall take effect on November 6, 1952.

JOSEPH H. FREEHILL,
Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

[Docket No. G-1710]

TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

ORDER PROVIDING FOR FURTHER HEARING

OCTOBER 30, 1952.

By order issued on June 14, 1951, as amended by order issued July 9, 1951, in Docket No. G-1710, the Commission instituted an investigation for the purpose of determining whether any rate, charge or classification demanded, observed, charged or collected by Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transcontinental) in connection with any transportation or sale of natural gas, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, pursuant to the provisions of Transcontinental's Rate Schedule EM-1, or Rate Schedule EX-1, on file with the Commission, or any rule, regulation, practice or contract affecting such rate, charge or classification, is unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential. Rate Schedule EM-1 provides for the sale of natural gas on an emergency basis at a price of 31.6 cents per Mcf, and Rate Schedule EX-1 applies to the exchange of natural gas with a 31.6 cents per Mcf price for any deliveries not returned within 60 days.

The order of June 14, 1951, recites that Transcontinental has on file with the Commission its Rate Schedule E, containing a rate of 22 cents per Mcf for gas deliveries which appear to be substantially the same in character as provided for in Rate Schedules EM-1 and EX-1.

On December 14, 1951, the Commission issued an order consolidating said proceeding Docket No. G-1710 for hearing with a proceeding, Docket No. G-1842, wherein the Commission had suspended certain proposed rate schedules filed by Transcontinental and had ordered a public hearing concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications and services therein set forth.

The consolidated proceeding came on for hearing commencing January 28, 1952. On January 28 and January 29, during the presentation of Transcontinental's case respecting Docket No. G-1710, the Presiding Examiner rejected certain evidence offered by Transcontinental; and Transcontinental appealed to the Commission, under § 1.28 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, from such ruling of the Presiding Examiner. The Presiding Examiner prescribed that the proceeding in Docket No. G-1710 should remain open subject to the introduction of further evidence if directed by the Commission. Thereupon, Transcontinental proceeded with the presentation of evidence respecting the issues in the rate proceeding, Docket No. G-1842. On May 29, 1952, the Commission issued an opinion and order dismissing and terminating Docket No. G-1842.

On October 6, 1952, Transcontinental filed a motion for receipt of further evidence and other or further relief, to which motion were attached proposed new rate schedules as follows:

A new Rate Schedule E (Transcontinental FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, Second Revised Sheets Nos. 27 and 28, superseding Original Sheets Nos. 27 and 28, and Second Revised Sheet No. 28-A, superseding Original Sheets Nos. 28-A and 28-B); and

A new Rate Schedule EX-1 (Transcontinental FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, Third Revised Sheet No. 28-C, superseding First Revised Sheet No. 28-C, and First Revised Sheet No. 28-D, superseding Original Sheet No. 28-D).

Said motion recites that the proposed rate Schedule E would have the effect of supplanting Transcontinental's presently effective Rate Schedules EM-1 and E and consolidating certain features of each of said schedules into a single schedule and, among other things, would substitute a single price of 28 cents per Mcf in lieu of the price of 31.6 cents per Mcf, contained in presently effective Rate Schedule EM-1, and in lieu of the price of 22 cents per Mcf contained in presently effective Rate Schedule E; that the proposed Rate Schedule EX-1, among other things, so greatly increases the penalty for failure of the receiving company to return exchange gas delivered by Transcontinental as virtually to insure such return and substantially guarantee the operation of such schedule as an unquestionably straight exchange vehicle.

In said motion, Transcontinental prays that an appropriate order be issued to provide for further hearing in this matter and to permit Transcontinental to show of record that its proposals are justified.

The Commission finds: Good cause exists for further hearing in this proceeding as prayed for by Transcontinental.

The Commission orders: This proceeding be and the same hereby is set for further public hearing to be held on November 12, 1952, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.

Date of issuance: October 31, 1952.

LONE STAR GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

OCTOBER 30, 1952.

On August 1, 1952, Lone Star Gas Company (Applicant), a Tennessee corporation having its principal place of business at Knoxville, Tennessee, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas transmission facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as described in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Applicant having requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for noncontested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest or petition having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 22, 1952 (17 F. R. 7709).

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on November 18, 1952, at 9:45 a. m., in the hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application as supplemented: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance, October 31, 1952.

SOUTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

OCTOBER 30, 1952.

Take notice that on September 12, 1952, Southern Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at Birmingham, Alabama, filed an application pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of a line tap and metering and regulating facilities at a point on Applicant's Calhoun lateral line near Rome, Georgia, for the sale and delivery of up to 7,450 Mcf of natural gas per day to Chattahoochee Natural Gas Company for resale and delivery to the communities of Summerville, Trion, Lafayette, and Dalton, Georgia.

The estimated cost of the proposed facilities is $31,000, to be financed out of funds on hand.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 19th day of November 1952. The application is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

OCTOBER 30, 1952.

On September 17, 1952, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transcontinental), filed with the Commission Second Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 9, 12, 17, 19 and 24, Third Revised Sheet No. 16, First Revised Sheets Nos. 39, 40, and 41, and Original Sheet No. 41-A to its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, proposed to become effective October 18, 1952, increasing the effective rates and charges to Transcontinental's interstate wholesale customers. On October 15, 1952, the Commission issued an order suspending such proposed tariff sheets until March 18, 1953, and until such further time thereafter as the same might be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act; and providing for a public hearing to be held at a date and place thereafter to be fixed concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications and services, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as set forth in said tariff sheets filed by Transcontinental on September 17, 1952.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and appropriate to carry out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, and it is in the public interest, that this proceeding be set for hearing and that the procedure hereinafter prescribed shall be followed at such hearing.

The Commission orders:

(A) A public hearing be held commencing on December 1, 1952, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications and services, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as set forth in the aforesaid Second Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 9, 12, 17, 19 and 24, Third Revised Sheet No. 16, First Revised Sheets Nos. 39, 40 and 41, and Original Sheet No. 41-A to FPC Gas Tariff Original Volume No. 1, filed by Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation.

(B) The order of procedure at the public hearing referred to in paragraph (A) hereof shall be:

(i) Pursuant to the provisions of section 4 (e) of the Natural Gas Act, Transcontinental shall go forward with the burden of proof imposed upon it, presenting its justification with respect to the issues referred to in paragraph (A) hereof;

(ii) After Transcontinental has so presented its justification, other parties and participants, including Commission staff counsel, may conduct as much of their cross-examination with respect to Transcontinental's justification as they are then prepared to undertake. Thereupon, if request therefor is made, the Presiding Examiner shall recess the hearing to a date to be fixed by further order of the Commission, in order to permit such preparation for the remainder of such cross-examination as the facts and circumstances may warrant.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: October 31, 1952.

NEW YORK STATE NATURAL GAS CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

OCTOBER 30, 1952.

Take notice that New York State Natural Gas Corporation (Applicant), a New York corporation with its principal place of business in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, filed on October 16, 1952, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of a natural gas regulating station at a point near Phelps, Ontario County, New York, between the transmission systems of Tennessee Gas Transmission Company and New York State Electric & Gas Corporation.

The application recites that it is necessary for Applicant to install the gas regulating station between the pipe line and gas measurement facilities that Tennessee Gas Transmission Company is installing for the delivery of gas at Phelps, New York, to New York State Electric & Gas Corporation (Docket No. G–1573) and the facilities being installed by New York State Electric & Gas Corporation to receive gas delivered to it by Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, for the sole purpose of regulating the pressure of gas which may be delivered on peak days or during emergency periods by Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, for the account of Applicant to New York State Electric & Gas Corporation.

The application further recites that Applicant is obligated to deliver gas to New York State Electric & Gas Corporation at a uniform pressure of 75 psig and Tennessee Gas Transmission Company makes delivery to Applicant at the point of delivery at a minimum pressure of 200 psig, with no obligation to meet the pressure requirements of New York State Electric & Gas.

The total over-all cost of facilities described is estimated to be $33,150, which Applicant proposes to defray from cash on hand.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure of the Commission (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 19th day of November 1952.

The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

BLACKSTONE VALLEY GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

OCTOBER 30, 1952.

Take notice that Blackstone Valley Gas and Electric Company (Applicant), a Rhode Island corporation having its principal place of business at Pawtucket, Rhode Island, filed on October 17, 1952, an application for an order pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, ordering Northeastern Gas Transmission Company (Northeastern), to extend its transportation facilities and to establish physical connection between them and the facilities of Blackstone and to sell and deliver natural gas to Blackstone.

Applicant proposes to purchase up to 10,600 Mcf per day from Northeastern, to meet Applicant's requirements within its franchise area, pursuant to an agreement entered into between Applicant and Northeastern.

The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection. Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 19th day of November 1952.

[Docket No. G–2083]

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE CO. OF AMERICA

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED RATE SCHEDULES AND PROVIDING FOR HEARING

OCTOBER 30, 1952.

On October 1, 1952, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Natural), pursuant to Part 154 of the Commission's regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Part 154), filed with this Commission proposed First Revised Sheet Nos. 5, 6, and 7 to its FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1 proposed to become effective November 1, 1952. Natural's aforesaid gas tariff became effective December 1, 1951, under bond, by order issued December 5, 1951, In the Matter of Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America, Docket No. G–1697.

The proposed rate schedules would increase the presently effective rates and charges to 16 of Natural's 17 wholesale customers by approximately $3,511,489, based on estimated sales for the year ending October 31, 1953, or an increase of approximately 13 percent, distributed among customers in the amounts set out in Appendix A hereto.

Natural proposes to increase the demand and commodity components of the first block of its Rate Schedule CD–1 from $1.35 to $1.40 per Mcf per month and from 6.67 cents to 8.37 cents per Mcf, respectively. No change is proposed in the demand and commodity components for the second block of its Rate Schedule CD–1. Initially, Revised Sheet No. 7 proposed a change in the rates and charges for gas taken in excess of the total contract demand of Block 1 and Block 2 volumes. Subsequently, on October 20, 1952, Natural withdrew such proposed change by filing a substitute Revised Sheet No. 7.

The first block of the billing demand is different for each of Natural's customers. Such block is equal to any customer's allocated portion of Natural's capacity prior to December 1, 1951. The second block of billing demand is also different for each of Natural's customers. Such block is equal to the difference between any customer's total contract volume and the Block 1 volume. In effect, such blocking arrangement appears to result in the establishment of separate rates for each of Natural's customers. By its aforesaid rate schedules Natural continues in effect the block form of rate first proposed in its filing at Docket No. G–1697, and which form of rate is in issue at that proceeding.

The cost studies submitted by Natural do not appear to support the proposed increase in rates and charges. Its claimed costs include increases in the cost of gas purchased not now incurred but anticipated to become effective at various future dates up to February 1953; the Texas gas gathering tax which has been declared unconstitutional by a State District Court but which decision has been stayed pending appeals; a rate of return of 6½ percent without submitting financial facts in support thereof; income taxes associated with such rate of return; and increased wage rates now effective but subject to approval by the appropriate governmental agency. Also, data are not available from the rate increase application to properly evaluate a claimed increase in depreciation expense and rental expense.

Copies of the proposed rate schedules, together with copies of material submitted by Natural to this Commission pursuant to § 154.63 of the Commission's regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 154.63) were served upon each of Natural's wholesale customers and State commissions concerned. Several of the customers and the Wisconsin and Illinois commissions oppose the proposed rate increase. Two customers, including the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company, parent of Natural, indicate that the proposed rate increase is satisfactory to them.

The rates, charges, and classifications set forth in Natural's proposed First Revised Sheet Nos. 5, 6, and 7 to its FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1 may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential or otherwise unlawful, and may place an undue burden upon ultimate consumers of natural gas.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing, pursuant to the authority contained in section 4 of such act, concerning the lawfulness of Natural's FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, as amended by proposed First Revised Sheet Nos. 5, 6, and 7, and that said proposed First Revised Sheet Nos. 5, 6, and 7 be suspended pending hearing and decision thereon.

The Commission orders:

(A) A public hearing to be held at a date and place hereinafter to be fixed by the Commission concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, and classifications, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission; as set forth in Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America's FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, as amended by proposed First Revised Sheet Nos. 5, 6 and 7.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision, said proposed First Revised Sheet Nos. 5, 6, and 7 tendered for filing by Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America, be and the same hereby are suspended and the use thereof is deferred until April 1, 1953, and until such further time as the such proposed revised tariff sheets may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: October 31, 1952.

By the Commission.

HOUSING AND HOME FINANCE AGENCY

Office of the Administrator

DEFENSE HOUSING PROGRAMS IN CRITICAL DEFENSE HOUSING AREAS

On October 27, 1951, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER at 16 F. R. 10962, under the caption "Notice of Housing Programs and Relaxation of Credit Controls in Critical Defense Housing Areas" a "General Statement" designated as "Part I" preceding the actual listing of the Defense Housing Programs (Part II). In the third paragraph of that statement (16 F. R. 10963) reference was made to the manner in which applications to construct defense housing (and to receive exceptions from credit controls) were to be made. In setting forth the eligibility requirements for obtaining the approval of an application for the construction of programmed defense housing (with exceptions from residential credit controls) the General Statement (Part I) provided that applications must be submitted pursuant to HHFA Regulation CR 2 with respect to housing in the three Atomic Energy Installation Areas known as the Savannah River, Paducah (Kentucky), and Idaho Reactor Testing Station installations or pursuant to HHFA Regulation CR 3 with respect to all other critical defense housing areas listed in Part II.

On April 12, 1952, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 3244) an additional statement announcing that with respect to the programmed defense housing set out in additional new defense housing programs and supplemental programs the aids authorized by the Defense Housing and Community Facilities and Services Act of 1951 (Pub. Law 139, 82d Cong.), including a new and more liberal form of Federal Housing Administration mortgage insurance under Title IX of the National Housing Act, as amended, were available. The approval of an application however, under HHFA Regulation CR 2 or CR 3, was required as a condition to the approval by the FHA of an application for mortgage insurance under the provisions of Title IX of the National Housing Act, as amended.

On September 15, 1952, following certification by the Secretary of Labor that new non-farm housing starts had been below an annual rate of 1,200,000 units for three consecutive months, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and Housing and Home Finance Administrator, acting simultaneously announced, respectively, the suspension of restrictions on residential real estate credit imposed by Regulation X and a relaxation of related credit restrictions in the regulations of the Federal Housing Commissioner and the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs. This action was taken pursuant to the Defense Production Act Amendments of 1952.

On October 10, 1952, an amendment to CR 3 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 9034) which provided that no further application would be accepted under the provisions of CR 3 and that applications relating to the construction of programmed defense housing may thereafter be filed with the local office of the Federal Housing Administration serving the particular defense housing area in which the proposed defense housing is to be located. A similar amendment with respect to defense housing authorized under HHFA Regulation CR 2 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of October 11, 1952 (17 F. R. 9073). This amendment similarly prevents the filing of further applications for defense housing under the provisions of CR 2. As a result of the foregoing changes, the caption and the text of "Part I—General Statement" referred to in the first part of this note is amended to read as follows:

PART I—GENERAL STATEMENT

Pursuant to section 102 (a) of the Defense Housing and Community Facilities and Services Act of 1951 (Pub. Law 139, 82d Cong.), the Housing and Home Finance Administrator is required to announce and to publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER certain information with respect to permanent dwelling units needed for defense workers and military personnel in critical defense housing areas. The Director of Defense Mobilization, under Executive Order 10296 dated October 2, 1951 (16 F. R. 10103), is authorized to determine that certain areas are critical defense housing areas under section 101 of that act. The Director of Defenses Mobilization, acting under such authority, has determined that the areas listed in Part II (Defense Housing Programs) are critical defense housing areas within the meaning of section 101 of said act. Part II hereof contains area programs for each of the critical defense housing areas so designated by the Director of Defense Mobilization setting forth, as required by said act, information with respect to the number of permanent dwelling units (including information as to type of dwellings, rentals and sales price and general location of such housing) needed for defense workers and military personnel in each such area.

Under section 102 (d) of said act, no permanent housing may be constructed by the Federal Government under Title III of said act except to the extent that private builders or eligible mortgagees have not, within a period of at least ninety days after public announcement of the availability of insurance aids under Title IX of the National Housing Act, as amended, indicated (by filing bona fide applications for mortgage insurance or guaranty under programs of the Federal Housing Administration or the Veterans Administration or otherwise) that they will provide the defense housing determined to be needed in the area and publicly announced pursuant to section 102 (a). Such bona fide applications must meet the requirements as to types, rentals or sales prices and general locations specified in the Area Programs in Part II hereof.

With respect to the needed housing set out in Part II of this notice and with respect to any additional housing programs published under Part II, applications relating to the construction of such defense housing may be filed with the local FHA office serving the particular critical defense housing area in which the proposed defense housing is located under appropriate regulations of the FHA; and in connection with such housing, the aids authorized by the Defense Housing and Community Facilities and Services Act of 1951 (Pub. Law 139, 82d Cong.) are available. These aids include the more liberal form of Federal Housing Administration mortgage insurance under Title IX of the National Housing Act, as amended, and the special benefits provided in Title III of that act in connection with commitments by the Federal National Mortgage Association for the purchase of mortgages covering defense housing programmed by the Housing and Home Finance Administrator. To be eligible for these special aids all applicable requirements, conditions and restrictions imposed by or pursuant to said Title III or Title IX of the National Housing Act, as amended, must be complied with. Information concerning such requirements, conditions and restrictions may be obtained from the local FHA and FNMA offices.

The critical defense housing areas listed in Part II hereof indicate the areas in connection with which defense housing has been programmed. In order to be eligible for the special aids authorized, the housing must be located within the designated critical defense housing area. However, more specific information with respect to the location of housing (serving such areas) may be found in the individual area programs set forth in Part II hereof.

Applications for construction of housing will be approved in accordance with the needs indicated in the area programs listed in Part II hereof and in accordance with certain standards, including the location and desirability of the sites, to be announced by the local FHA office.

PART II—DEFENSE HOUSING PROGRAMS

Amendments to defense housing programs previously published:

Amendment 1. Area program numbered 1 (AEC, Savannah River Installation, S. C. and Ga.) appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER of October 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 10962) is amended by changing the number of 2 bedroom rental units from 2,220 to 2,167, and by changing the maximum rental for any of such units from $65.00 per month to $70.00 per month except that 240 of such 2 bedroom rental units must be reserved for a rental not to exceed $60.00 per month and 1,827 of such units at a rental not to exceed $65.00 per month. The area program is further amended by changing the maximum rental of 3 bedroom rental units from $75.00 a month to $80.00 a month except that 100 of such rental units must be reserved for a rental not to exceed $70.00 per month and 790 of such rental units at a rental not to exceed $75.00 per month; the total number of sales units in area program numbered 1 is changed from 280 units to 333.

Amendment 2. Area program numbered 22 (Hanford-Kennewick-Pasco, Washington) appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER of October 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 10962) is amended by deleting 500 rental units from the total of 650 rental units in the area program intended to be located in Richland, Washington. As thus amended, there are 150 rental and 150 sales units for the other areas specified in the program.

Amendment 3. Area program numbered 103 (Herlong, California) appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER of January 24, 1952 (17 F. R. 740) is amended by changing the number of 2 bedroom rental units from 90 to 75, and the number of 3 bedroom rental units from 55 to 45; and the program is further amended by changing the number of 2 bedroom sale units from none to 15 at a sales price not to exceed $8,500.00, and the number of 3 or more bedroom sale units from none to 10 at a sales price not to exceed $9,500.00. The total number of units for sale and rent, 150, remains the same as in the original program.

Amendment 4. Area program numbered 7 (Star Lake, New York) appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER of October 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 740) is amended by reducing the number of sales units from 75 to 25 with 13 two bedroom sales units and 12 three or more bedroom units at a price not to exceed $9,000.00.

Amendment 5. Area program numbered 70 (Gulfport-Biloxi-Pascagoula, Mississippi) appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 28, 1951 (16 F. R. 11980) is amended by reducing the number of one bedroom rental units from 100 to 80, the number of 2 bedroom rental units from 400 to 305, and the number of 3 or more bedroom rental units from 200 to 183. As thus reduced, the total of all rental units in such program is reduced from 700 to 568.

Amendment 6. Area program numbered 87 (Corona, California) appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER of December 19, 1951 (16 F. R. 12731) is amended by reducing the number of sales units appearing therein from 100 to 41.

Amendment 7. The critical defense housing area in the defense housing program numbered 149 and designated as Bedford, Massachusetts, published at 17 F. R. 3244 (April 12, 1952), is amended to read as follows:

149. Bedford, Massachusetts, Area. (The cities of Waltham and Woburn, and the Towns of Bedford, Billerica, Burlington, Carlisle, Concord, Lexington, Lincoln, and Wilmington, all in Middlesex County.)

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[4th Sec. Application 27502]

DENATURED ALCOHOL AND RELATED ARTICLES FROM PORT ARTHUR, TEX., TO ILLINOIS AND WESTERN TRUNK-LINE TERRITORIES

APPLICATION FOR RELIEF

NOVEMBER 3, 1952.

The Commission is in receipt of the above-entitled and numbered application for relief from the long-and-short-haul provision of section 4 (1) of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Filed by: F. C. Kratzmeir, Agent, for carriers parties to his tariff I. C. C. No. 3721.

Commodities involved: Denatured alcohol and related articles, carloads.

From: Port Arthur, Tex.

To: Points in Illinois and western trunk-line territories.

Grounds for relief: Competition with rail carriers and circuitous routes.

Schedules filed containing proposed rates: F. C. Kratzmeir, Agent, I. C. C. No. 3721, Supp. 239.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

OCTOBER 31, 1952.

In the matter of Standard Gas and Electric Company, Wisconsin Public Service Corporation, Menominee & Marinette Light & Traction Company; File No. 70-2932.

Standard Gas and Electric Company ("Standard"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of Standard Power and Light Corporation, also a registered holding company, Wisconsin Public Service Corporation ("Wisconsin"), a public utility subsidiary of Standard, and Menominee & Marinette Light & Traction Company ("Menominee"), a public utility subsidiary of Wisconsin, having filed a joint application-declaration as amended pursuant to sections 6 (a) 9 (a) and 12 (f) of the act and Rules U-43 and U-45 (b) (6) promulgated thereunder with respect to the following transactions:

On October 1, 1952, the Commission approved Steps I and I-A of a plan of liquidation of Standard, filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act. (Holding Company Act Release No. 11510). Step I involves the retirement of the Prior Preference Stock of Standard through the distribution of portfolio stocks of Standard, including common stock of Wisconsin. An application by the Commission for court enforcement of Steps I and I-A is now pending in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware. Standard presently holds 2,000,000 shares, representing all of the outstanding $10 par value common stock of Wisconsin. Under Step I of the Standard plan it is proposed that Standard will purchase 218,070 additional shares of such common stock for $2,600,000 in cash and will distribute to the Prior Preference stockholders all but 46,834.8 shares of its total holdings of Wisconsin common stock. The instant application-declaration proposes, among other things, the issuance and sale of the said 218,070 additional shares of common stock by Wisconsin to Standard.

It is also proposed under Step I of the aforementioned plan that Standard, Wisconsin and Menominee will enter into an agreement whereby (a) the latter two companies will pay to Standard four separate installments aggregating $2,100,000, which, according to Standard's tax counsel, is the approximate net maximum liability of the two companies for Federal income and excess profits taxes for the period 1944 through 1950 for which period they joined in consolidated Federal tax returns as part of the Standard holding company system; (b) Standard will indemnify Wisconsin and Menominee for any unpaid liability or future assessment for such taxes for all periods ending on or prior to December 31, 1950; and (c) Standard will be entitled to receive any refunds of such taxes otherwise applicable to Wisconsin and Menominee and to retain any portion of the $2,100,000 not required to be paid on behalf of Wisconsin and Menominee. In its findings and opinion approving Step I of the aforesaid Standard plan, this Commission found that the proposed agreement would be fair and equitable to Standard's security holders and to Wisconsin and Menominee. In the present application-declaration specific approval is sought as to the execution of the proposed agreement by the three companies (Wisconsin and Menominee were not parties to the proceeding involving Step I of the Standard plan) and the carrying out of that portion of the agreement relating to the payment of $2,100,000 by Wisconsin to Standard. Wisconsin proposes, in this regard, (a) to pay $525,000 in cash to Standard when this application-declaration is permitted to become effective or on the last business day prior to the effective date of the said Step I (whichever date is later), and (b) to issue three unsecured non-interest bearing promissory notes, payable to Standard or order, each in the amount of $525,000 and maturing on the first days of March, June and September, 1953, respectively, provided that if the effective date of Step I is postponed beyond October 31, 1952, the dates for the payment of each note shall be postponed an equal length of time. Menominee will reimburse Wisconsin in the amount of $61,000 in cash or on open account as the financial position of Menominee shall warrant.

It is also proposed in the instant filing to amend the articles of incorporation and by-laws of Wisconsin, in order to bring them into conformity with the standards of this Commission, prior to the distribution of the Wisconsin common stock to the Prior Preference stockholders of Standard pursuant to Step I of the said plan. The proposed amendments will:

(a) Provide preemptive rights to the holders of the common stock of Wisconsin to purchase pro rata any additional common stock offered for sale for cash, other than by a public offering of such shares, prior to any sale of such stock to others;

(b) Provide that Wisconsin shall not merge or sell all or substantially all of its assets without the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote;

(c) Provide that a quorum at a meeting of stockholders shall be the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote;

(d) Place limitations on the authority of the Board of Directors of Wisconsin to adopt or alter the by-laws of the company without the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares entitled to vote; and

(e) Provide that the holders of one-tenth of the outstanding common stock may request that a special meeting of stockholders be called.

Wisconsin and Menominee estimate that the total fees and expenses to be incurred by them in connection with the proposed transactions will not exceed $18,000, including counsel fees of $14,500 to the firm of Froelich, Grossman, Teton and Tabin. Standard estimates its expenses will not exceed $200, and its counsel states that they will make application for fees for services with respect to the instant application-declaration in connection with the pending reorganization of Standard under section 11 of the act.

The Public Service Commission of Wisconsin has authorized the aforesaid issuance of common stock by Wisconsin and has also authorized the tax agreement among Standard, Wisconsin and Menominee.

Appropriate notice of said filing having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to the act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said application-declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to the application-declaration as amended that the applicable provisions of the act and rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, that the estimated fees and expenses are not unreasonable and that it is not necessary to impose any terms and conditions other than those set forth below, and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application-declaration as amended be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith and deeming it appropriate to grant applicants' request for tax recitals conforming to the requirements of Supplement R and section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration as amended be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

It is further ordered and recited, That the issuances, sales, exchanges, expenditures, investments, acquisitions, distributions and receipts hereinafter described and recited in subparagraphs I and II below, which are proposed herein, by Standard, Wisconsin and Menominee are hereby authorized and approved and are necessary and appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, all in accordance with the meaning and requirements of Supplement R of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and section 1808 (f) thereof, the stock and other securities and other property to be issued, sold, exchanged, acquired, distributed and received upon such transactions, and the expenditures and investments to be made, being specified and itemized as follows:

I. The issuance and sale by Wisconsin to Standard of 218,070 shares of common stock of Wisconsin (one certificate, No. 1072 to be issued for 171,266 shares, and another, No. 1073, to be issued for 46,804 shares) and the payment by Standard to Wisconsin, as consideration therefor, of the sum of $2,600,000 in cash.

II. The execution and delivery by and between Wisconsin and Menominee, on the one hand, and Standard, on the other, of an agreement relating to Federal income and excess profits taxes for the periods in which Wisconsin and/or Menominee were included in consolidated Federal tax returns filed for Standard and other companies in the Standard system, in the form filed as an amended exhibit in this proceeding and heretofore approved in this order, the payment by Wisconsin and Menominee, respectively, to Standard of the sums provided therein by the initial cash payment of $525,000 therein provided and by the execution by Wisconsin and delivery by it to Standard of the promissory notes provided for by said agreement, namely, three non-interest bearing promissory notes, payable to Standard or order, each in the amount of $525,000 and payable on the first days of March, June and September, 1953, respectively (provided that if the distribution of the common stock of Wisconsin to the holders of $7 and $6 Prior Preference Stock of Standard pursuant to Step I of the Standard Plan is postponed beyond October 31, 1952, the dates for the payment of each of said notes shall be postponed an equal length of time), the distribution to Standard by Wisconsin and Menominee of such rights as Standard may acquire under said agreement to receive any refunds of consolidated Federal income and excess profits taxes and the performance by Wisconsin, Menominee and Standard of the acts and obligations on their parts to be performed under said agreement.

By the Commission.

[File No. 70-2951]

PUBLIC SERVICE CO. OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

NOTICE OF FILING REQUESTING AUTHORITY TO ISSUE AND SELL SHORT-TERM NOTES

OCTOBER 31, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), by Public Service Company of New Hampshire ("New Hampshire"), a public utility subsidiary of New England Public Service Company, a registered holding company. Applicant has designated the first sentence of section 6 (b) of the act as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 18, 1952, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 18, 1952, said application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided by Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

New Hampshire proposes to issue and renew, from time to time, up to and including June 30, 1953, notes having a maturity of three months or less up to the maximum amount of $6,500,000 at any one time outstanding (including notes presently outstanding in the amount of $1,825,000). Each such note, including the renewal notes, will be made payable to the First National Bank of Boston and will bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum, subject to change in interest rates for prime paper. It is stated at the present time that the interest rate for prime paper is 3 percent per annum. In case the interest rate should exceed 3¼ percent on any note, the company will file an amendment to its application stating the interest rate and other details of the note or notes at least five days prior to the execution and delivery thereof, and asks that such amendment become effective without further order of the Commission at the end of the five day period unless the Commission shall have notified the contrary within said period.

The proceeds from the sale of the notes will be used for construction and other purposes. The application states that the company's construction program for the nine months ending June 30, 1953, calls for the expenditures of approximately $5,050,000. It is also stated that it is the present intention of the company to issue approximately $5,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds in May or June 1953 and in the latter part of 1953 to issue a sufficient number of shares of common stock to raise approximately $4,000,000. However, it is stated that market conditions, among other things, may require some variation of the proposed financing.

It is represented that no State commission or any other Federal commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions, and that legal fees and expenses in connection with the application will amount to approximately $100. The applicant requests that the Commission's order herein become effective upon the issuance thereof.

By the Commission.

quires the restoration to the Territory of Hawaii of an additional parcel of such land, more particularly described hereinafter; and

WHEREAS it is deemed desirable and in the public interest that the possession, use, and control of the said additional parcel be restored to the Territory of Hawaii, and that title thereto and to the three parcels of land described in the said Executive Order No. 5521 as Parcel 1, Parcel 2, and Parcel 4–B, respectively, be transferred to the said Territory:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 91 of the act of April 30, 1900, 31 Stat. 159, as amended by section 7 of the act of May 27, 1910, 36 Stat. 447, it is ordered as follows:

1. The possession, use, and control of the following-described tract of land comprising a portion of the Fort Shafter Military Reservation, Honolulu, Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, is hereby restored to the Territory of Hawaii, and title to such tract is hereby transferred to the said Territory:

Beginning at the Northeast corner of this piece of land, and the South corner of Parcel 128, the same being also the South corner of Lot 2–C, Map 2 of Land Court Application 748, and the initial point of Parcel 2 described in Executive Order No. 5521 of December 26, 1930, and on the present Northwest side of Middle Street, thence running by azimuths measured clockwise from True South:

1. 48° 42' 500.49 feet along the present Northwest side of Middle Street; along Parcel 2 of Executive Order No. 5521; Thence along the seaward toe of the Well Fish Pond wall (recently covered with dredged material) along land owned by the Territory of Hawaii, for the next three (3) courses, the direct azimuths and distances between points on said seaward toe of Well Fish Pond wall being:
2. 77° 20' 24.53 feet;
3. 102° 40' 50.00 feet;
4. 115° 40' 50.00 feet;
5. Thence on a curve to the left with a radius of 578.38 feet, along the remainder of the Fort Shafter Military Reservation, the chord azimuth and distance being: 241° 39' 40'' 259.45 feet;
6. 228° 42' 362.00 feet along the remainder of the Fort Shafter Military Reservation;
7. 356° 15' 33.99 feet along Parcel 128, along Lot 2–C, Map 2 of Land Court Application 748;
8. 19° 15' 26.56 feet along same, to the point of beginning and containing an AREA OF 26,162 SQUARE FEET or 0.601 ACRE.

2. Title to the three parcels of land described in Executive Order No. 5521 of December 26, 1930, as Parcel 1, Parcel 2, and Parcel 4–B, respectively, is hereby transferred to the Territory of Hawaii.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

Subchapter A—Civil Air Regulations

[Supp. 20]

PART 4b—AIRPLANE AIRWORTHINESS; TRANSPORT CATEGORIES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

This supplement reinstates rules regarding the approval of materials, parts, processes, and appliances; adds policies regarding the application of Technical Standard Orders—C Series; alters a reference regarding alternate standards for water loads; recodifies policies regarding water-solution-type hand fire extinguishers; and adds interpretations regarding the approval of hand fire extinguishers.

The rules adopted in this supplement were in effect until recently when they were eliminated as a result of the Board's recision of its section on the approval of materials, parts, processes, and appliances, and subsequent adoption of a new section on the same subject bearing a different number. Therefore, compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be unnecessary, and is not required.

1. Section 4b.18–1 and § 4b.18–2 are adopted to read:

§ 4b.18–1 Approval of aircraft materials, parts, processes and appliances (CAA rules which apply to § 4b.18). Aircraft materials, parts, processes and appliances made the subject of Technical Standard Orders shall be approved upon the basis and in the manner prescribed in Part 514,[1] "Technical Standard Orders—C Series—Aircraft Components", of this title.

§ 4b.18–2 Application of Technical Standard Orders—C Series (CAA policies which apply to § 4b.18).—(a) Purpose of Technical Standard Orders. Technical Standard Orders are a means by which the Administrator adopts and publishes the specifications for which authority is provided in § 4b.18 (a).

(b) Applicability of Technical Standard Order requirements. (1) The applicability of and effective dates for TSO'd items are set forth in each TSO.

(2) Each Technical Standard Order sets forth the conditions under which materials, parts, processes and appliances approved by the Administrator prior to establishment of an applicable TSO, may continue to be used in aircraft.

(3) The establisment of a Technical Standard Order for any product does not preclude the possibility of establishing the acceptability of a similar product as part of an aircraft, engine or propeller, under the type certification or modification procedures, if there is established a level of safety equivalent to that provided in the Civil Air Regulations as implemented by the appropriate Technical Standard Order and the product is identified as a part of the airplane, engine or propeller.

(c) Administration of the Technical Standard Order (TSO) system. The principles which apply in administering the Technical Standard Order system are as follows:

(1) Technical Standard Orders will reference performance provisions of recognized government specifications, or established industry specifications which have been found acceptable by the CAA. If no satisfactory specification exists, the orders will include criteria prepared by the Administrator. In preparing criteria of this type, the Administrator will give consideration to recommendations made by the industry.

(2) Minimum performance requirements established by the Civil Aeronautics Administration and published in Technical Standard Orders will serve as a means by which materials, parts, processes, and appliances intended for use in certificated aircraft will be accepted.

(3) TSO's set forth the minimum requirements for safety. Every effort will be made by the CAA to keep the requirements at the minimum levels of safety, and TSO's will not be used to set forth "desirable" standards.

(4) It will be the responsibility of the person submitting a statement of conformance to the CAA, certifying that his product meets the requirements of the TSO, to conduct the necessary tests demonstrating compliance therewith. This person will be held responsible for maintaining quality control adequate to assure that products which he guarantees to meet the requirements of a TSO do, in fact, meet these standards. The CAA will not formally approve such products as meeting the requirements of TSO's nor exercise direct inspection control over them. The statement of conformance with the provisions of a Technical Standard Order normally will be accepted by the CAA as sufficient indication that the applicable requirements have been fulfilled. Any TSO'd item which is modified must continue to comply with the requirements of the TSO, and the person authorizing the modification will be responsible for such compliance.

(d) Numbering of Technical Standard Orders. Each Technical Standard Order will be assigned a designation consisting of the letters "TSO," a series code letter "C", indicating aircraft materials, parts, processes or appliances and a serial number to be assigned in sequence for each of the TSO's issued in the "C" series, e. g., TSO–C–1, "Smoke Detectors." Revisions are indicated by the addition of letters a, b, c, etc., after the number.

2. Section 4b.250–1, published on February 16, 1951, in 16 F. R. 1630 is amended by substituting "§ 4b.250" for "§ 4b.252, 4b.253, and 4b.257."

3. Sections 4b.380–1 and 4b.380–2 are adopted to read:

§ 4b.380–1 Water-solution type hand fire extinguishers (CAA policies which apply to § 4b.380 (a)—(a) General. It has been established that water-solution-type hand fire extinguishers are more suitable for controlling and extinguishing Class A fires (fires in seat upholstery, curtains, floor coverings, clothing, paper, etc.) than are other types designed primarily for extinguishing Class B fires (fires in inflammable liquids, greases, etc.), or Class C fires (electrical fires, which require non-conducting extinguishing agents).

(b) Installation. Water-solution-type hand fire extinguishers which comply with the provisions of Technical Standard Order TSO–C19 (a), the performance requirements for which are based on SAE Aeronautical Standard AS245, dated November 1, 1948, may be used to meet the minimum requirements of this part for fuselage fire protection in civil aircraft on the following basis:

(1) The hand fire extinguisher required for use by the pilot or copilot in the cockpit should continue to be of the carbon dioxide, carbon tetrachloride, dry chemical, or an equivalent type since Class B or Class C fires are considered to be the primary hazard in pilot compartments. Such an extinguisher should have a minimum capacity of carbon tetrachloride, of 1 quart, or, if carbon dioxide, of 2 pounds.

(2) Other hand fire extinguishers may be of the water-solution-type, unless the primary hazard is considered to require Class B or Class C extinguishing equipment, e. g., possible grease fires in the galley (Class B fires), fires in the electrical or radio installations, etc. (Class C fires).

(3) When substitution of hand water-solution-type fire extinguishers for other types of extinguishers is contemplated in the design of new aircraft or as a replacement in aircraft already in service, it should be on a minimum basis of one 1¾-quart water-solution-type fire extinguisher conforming to SAE Aeronautical Standard AS245 for each 1-quart capacity carbon tetrachloride unit, each 2-pound-capacity carbon dioxide extinguisher, or for each 2 pounds of dry-chemical extinguishing agent.

(c) There is no objection to installation of hand water-solution-type fire extinguishers in addition to those required in this part.

§ 4b.380–2 Approval of hand fire extinguishers (CAA Interpretations which apply to § 4b.380 (a). An approved hand fire extinguisher is,

(a) One approved by Underwriter's Laboratories, Factory Mutual Laboratories, or other agencies deemed qualified by the Administrator; or,

(b) One meeting the standards of an appropriate CAA Technical Standard Order.

4. Section 4b.641–1, published on February 6, 1951, in 16 F. R. 1057, is hereby rescinded.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 52 Stat. 1007, 1009 as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553)

These rules and policies shall become effective October 31, 1952.

Subchapter C—Procedural Regulations

[Reg., Serial No. PR–20]

PART 302—RULES OF PRACTICE IN ECONOMIC PROCEEDINGS

TIME FOR FILING ANSWERS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 31st day of October 1952.

The Board's revised rules of practice (Part 302 of the Procedural Regulations) provide specific time limitations for the filing of answers to various documents covered by the rules. However, with respect to certain types of documents, such as applications for change of service pattern and for suspension, a question has arisen as to what time limitations are applicable in the case of answers thereto. It therefore appears that some clarifying amendment is necessary.

This will be accomplished by adding to § 302.6, which deals with answers generally, a provision that the time for filing answers to any document filed with the Board shall be seven (7) days except where otherwise specifically provided in the rules.

Since this amendment is not a substantive rule but one of agency procedure, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary, and the amendment may be made effective upon less than 30 days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 302 of the Procedural Regulations (14 CFR Part 302), as follows, effective October 31, 1952, to be applicable to documents filed with the Board on or after such date:

1. By adding the following sentence to § 302.6 to read: "Answers to any document shall be filed within seven (7) days except where otherwise specifically provided. It is not hereby intended to give a right to answer documents where the rules or any other provisions of the Economic Regulations do not specifically so provide."

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 934, 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply sec. 1001, 52 Stat. 1017, 49 U. S. C. 641)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] M. C. MULLIGAN,
Secretary.

[Amdt. 19]

PART 610—MINIMUM EN ROUTE INSTRUMENT ALTITUDES

ALTERATIONS

The minimum en route IFR altitudes appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with interested members of the industry in the regions concerned insofar as practicable. The altitudes are adopted without delay in order to provide for safety in air commerce. Therefore, compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable.

Part 610 is amended as follows:

1. The footnote to § 610.5 Minimum en route IFR altitudes along particular routes is amended as follows:

a. The Clarksville intersection is altered to read:

Clarksville intersection: The intersection of the Detroit, Michigan, 143° true radial and the west course Wellington, Ohio (VAR).

b. The South Bass intersection is altered to read:

South Bass intersection: The intersection of the Detroit, Michigan, 143° true radial and the Toledo, Ohio, 070° true radial.

c. The Sycamore intersection is altered to read:

Sycamore intersection: The intersection of the Findlay, Ohio, 097° true radial and the Columbus, Ohio, 342° true radial.

d. The Tiffin intersection is altered to read:

Tiffin intersection: The intersection of the Findlay, Ohio, 067° true radial and the Toledo, Ohio, 155° true radial.

e. The West Lodi intersection is altered to read:

West Lodi intersection: The intersection of the Toledo, Ohio, 127° true radial and the Findlay, Ohio, 067° true radial.

2. Section 610.12 Green Civil Airway No. 2 is amended to read in part:

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket 5844]

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

MINK TRADERS ASSOCIATION, INC., ET AL.

Subpart—Coercing and intimidating: § 3.370 Suppliers and sellers—To adopt desired marketing practice. Subpart—Combining or conspiring: § 3.397 To control marketing methods, practices and conditions: § 3.475 To restrict competition in buying. Subpart—Cutting off competitors' or others' access to customers or market: § 3.560 Interfering generally with distributive outlets. In, or in connection with, the offering for sale, sale and distribution in interstate commerce of "mink fur pelts" in commerce, and on the part of respondent Association, its directors, officers and members, and their respective officers, representatives, etc.; and on the part of all other members as represented by the member respondents named, etc.; entering into, cooperating in, carrying out or continuing any planned common course of action, understanding, agreement or combination between and among any two or more said respondents, or between any one or more said respondents and others not parties, to (1) hold, attend, or participate in meetings, or agree upon, arrive at or adopt any plan, device or program for the purpose or with the effect of reducing the number of mink pelt auction sales or postponing or cancelling any such sales; (2) hold, attend, or participate in meetings, or agree upon, arrive at or adopt any plan, device or program for the purpose or with the effect of controlling the size of individual mink pelt bundles or auction lots of mink pelts; (3) hold, attend, or participate in meetings, or agree upon, arrive at or adopt any plan, device or program for the purpose or with the effect of eliminating dressed mink pelts from auction sales or in any way to reduce the number of such pelts offered at such sales; (4) hold, attend, or participate in meetings, or agree upon, arrive at or adopt any plan, device or program for the purpose or with the effect of eliminating "private treaty" selling by mink ranchers, the members of mink breeders associations and auction houses to the members of respondent Association or others; or, (5) hinder or prevent by intimidation, coercion, persuasion, withdrawal or threatened withdrawal of patronage, or custom, or by boycotting, or threatening to boycott, expressly or impliedly, the sale of mink pelts by any auction house, mink rancher or mink breeders association; prohibited.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722, 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45). [Cease and desist order, Mink Traders Association, Inc., et al., New York, N. Y., Docket 5844, August 28, 1952]

In the Matter of Mink Traders Association, Inc., a Corporation, and Its Officers, Directors and Members: Joseph Liebergall, President, Jack Levine, Vice-President, Barney Wollman, Vice-President, Sidney Ziskind, Treasurer, Martin Schwarz, Secretary, Al Weinig, Murray Schulman, Morris Greenbaum, Sam Cherny, Joe Feirstein, Arthur Margolyes, Henry Bild, Mannie Lederberg, Jack Farmer, Jack Klein, S. B. Levin, Philip Lieberman, Henry Mechutan, E. J. Pager and A. S. Gold, Directors, Individually, and as the Above Officers and Directors, Respectively; Joseph Liebergall and Sophie Liebergall, Trading as Joseph Liebergall & Company; Arthur B. Margolyes, Inc., a Corporation; Samuel B. Levin, Irene Levin, and Edith Falick, Trading as S. B. Levin Fur Company; B. Wollman and Bros., Inc., a Corporation; Jack Levine Fur Company, Inc., a Corporation; Joseph Schwarz and Martin Schwarz, Trading as Joseph Schwarz & Son; Samuel Cherny and Joseph Cherny, Trading as Cherny Fur Company; as Above Members, Respectively, and as Representatives of the Entire Membership of Mink Traders Association, Inc.

This proceeding was heard by Everett F. Haycraft, hearing examiner, upon the complaint of the Commission, respondents' answers, and hearings at which testimony and other evidence in support of the complaint were introduced before said examiner, theretofore duly designated by the Commission, and at the conclusion of which hearings, in October 1951, attorneys in support of the complaint closed their case in chief and respondents moved to dismiss the complaint.

Thereupon said examiner heard oral argument on said motion which was later denied, and thereafter testimony and other evidence in opposition to the allegations of the complaint were introduced before said examiner, and on January 31, 1952, the taking of testimony before him was closed. Subsequently proposed finding were submitted by attorneys in support of the complaint, counsel for the respondents having waived the filing of proposed findings and conclusions, oral argument was heard before said examiner on March 31, 1952, and on April 14, the proceeding before him was closed.

Thereafter the proceeding came on for final consideration by said examiner upon the complaint, the answers thereto, testimony and other evidence, proposed findings as to the facts and conclusions presented by counsel in support of the complaint, and oral arguments of counsel, and said examiner, having duly considered the record in the matter, and having found that the proceeding was in the interest of the public, made his initial decision, comprising certain findings as to the facts,[1] conclusions drawn therefrom,[1] and order to cease and desist.

No appeal having been filed from said initial decision of said hearing examiner as provided for in Rule XXII, nor any other action taken as thereby provided to prevent said initial decision becoming the decision of the Commission thirty days from service thereof upon the parties, said initial decision, including said order to cease and desist, accordingly, under the provisions of said Rule XXII became the decision of the Commission on August 28, 1952.

The said order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents, Mink Traders Association, Inc., an incorporated trade association, its directors and officers individually and as such directors and officers, Joseph Liebergall, Jack Levine, Barney Wollman, Sidney Ziskind, Martin Schwartz, Al Weinig, Murray Schulman, Morris Greenbaum, Sam Cherny, Joe Feirstein, Arthur Margolyes, Henry Bild, Mannie Lederberg, Nathan Farber, Jack Klein, S. B. Levin, Philip Lieberman, Henry Mechutan, E. J. Pager, and A. S. Gold, individually and in their capacities as officers, members, representatives and agents of other respondents; Arthur B. Margolyes, Inc., a corporation, B. Wollman & Bros., Inc., a corportation, Jack Levine Fur Company, Inc., a corporation; their respective officers, representatives, agents and employees; Joseph Liebergall and Sophie Liebergall trading under the name and style of Joseph Liebergall & Company, a partnership, their representatives, agents and employees; Samuel B. Levine, Irene Levin and Edith Falick trading under the name and style of S. B. Levin Fur Company, a partnership, their representatives, agents and employees; Joseph Schwartz and Martin Schwartz trading under the name and style of Joseph Schwartz & Son, a partnership, their representatives, agents and employees; and Samuel Cherny and Joseph Cherny, trading under the name and style of Cherny Fur Company, a partnership, their representatives, agents and employees; all other members of said Association, as representatives for whom the said members named above were made respondents herein; individually and in their capacities as members, representatives and agents of other respondents in, or in connection with, the offering for sale, sale and distribution in inter-state commerce of "mink fur pelts" in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from entering into, cooperating in, carrying out or continuing any planned common course of action, understanding, agreement or combination between and among any two or more of said respondents, or between any one or more of said respondents and others not parties hereto, to do or perform any of the following acts and things:

1. Holding, attending, or participating in meetings, or agreeing upon, arriving at or adopting any plan, device or program for the purpose or with the effect of reducing the number of milk pelt auction sales or postponing or cancelling any such sales;

2. Holding, attending, or participating in meetings, or agreeing upon, arriving at or adopting any plan, device or program for the purpose or with the effect of controlling the size of individual mink pelt bundles or auction lots of mink pelts;

3. Holding, attending, or participating in meetings, or agreeing upon, arriving at or adopting any plan, device or program for the purpose or with the effect of eliminating dressed mink pelts from auction sales or in any way to reduce the number of such pelts offered at such sales;

4. Holding, attending, or participating in meetings, or agreeing upon, arriving at or adopting any plan, device or program for the purpose or with the effect of eliminating "private treaty" selling by mink ranchers, the members of mink breeders associations and auction houses to the members of respondent Association or others;

5. Hindering or preventing by intimidation, coercion, persuasion, withdrawal or threatened withdrawal of patronage, or custom, or by boycotting, or threatening to boycott, expressly or impliedly, the sale of mink pelts by any auction house, mink rancher or mink breeders association.

By "Decision of the Commission and order to file report of compliance", Docket 5844, August 28, 1952, which announced and decreed fruition of said initial decision, report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: August 28, 1952.

By the Commission.

In the Matter of Benjamin Bieler and Louis Rabinowitz, Copartners Doing Business as Bieler and Rabinowitz and Sew-Easy Products Company

This proceeding was heard by Frank Hier, hearing examiner, upon the complaint of the Commission, respondents' answer, and hearings, at which testimony and other evidence, duly recorded and filed in the office of the Commission, in support of and in opposition to the allegations of said complaint were introduced before said examiner, theretofore duly designated by the Commission, respondents offering no witnesses in their behalf nor any other evidence except two exhibits.

Thereafter the proceeding regularly came on for final consideration by said hearing examiner on the complaint, answer thereto, testimony and other evidence, and said examiner, having duly considered the record in the matter, and having found that the proceeding was in the interest of the public, made his initial decision, comprising certain findings as to the facts,[1] conclusions drawn therefrom,[1] and order to cease and desist.

No appeal having been filed from said initial decision of said hearing examiner as provided for in Rule XXII, nor any other action taken as thereby provided to prevent said initial decision becoming the decision of the Commission thirty days from service thereof upon the parties, said initial decision, including said order to cease and desist, accordingly, under the provisions of said Rule XXII became the decision of the Commission on August 28, 1952.

The said order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents, Benjamin Bieler and Louis Rabinowitz, individually and as copartners doing business as Bieler and Rabinowitz and as Sew-Easy Products Company, or trading under any other name, and their representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of sewing machine heads or sewing machines in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Offering for sale, selling or distributing foreign made sewing machine heads, or sewing machines of which foreign made heads are a part, without clearly and conspicuously disclosing on the heads, in such a manner that it will not be hidden or obliterated, the country of origin thereof.

2. Representing, directly or by implication, that their sewing machine heads or sewing machines are fully guaranteed, or that they are otherwise guaranteed, unless the nature and extent of the guarantee and the manner in which the guarantor will perform thereunder are clearly and conspicuously disclosed.

3. Representing, through the use in advertising of the word "factory," or any other word or term of similar import or meaning, or in any other manner, that said respondents are the manufacturers of the sewing machine heads or sewing machines sold by them, unless and until such respondents actually own and operate, or directly and absolutely control, a factory wherein said products are manufactured by them.

By "Decision of the Commission and order to file report of compliance",

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

Docket 5891, August 28, 1952, which announced and decreed fruition of said initial decision, report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: August 28, 1952.

Subchapter B—Renegotiation Board Regulations Under the 1951 Act

PART 1455—PERMISSIVE EXEMPTIONS FROM RENEGOTIATION

SUBCONTRACTS RELATED TO EXEMPT PRIME CONTRACTS AND SUBCONTRACTS

This part is amended by deleting § 1455.7 Subcontracts related to exempt prime contracts and subcontracts in its entirety and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 1455.7 Subcontracts related to exempt prime contracts and subcontracts. The Board has exempted all subcontracts related to the prime contracts and subcontracts exempted pursuant to the authority of section 106 (d) of the act, except (a) subcontracts related to prime contracts and subcontracts exempted in § 1455.2 and (b) other subcontracts, when the Board, in exempting prime contracts or subcontracts, determines that the exemption will not extend to some or all of the subcontracts related to such prime contracts or subcontracts.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Ceiling Price Regulation 22, Supplementary Regulation 6, Revision 1, Interpretation 1]

CPR 22—MANUFACTURERS' GENERAL CEILING PRICE REGULATION

SR 6—CEILING PRICES FOR MANUFACTURERS FOR THE SALE OF PAINTS, VARNISHES, AND LACQUERS

INT. 1—REFILING UNDER REVISION (SECTION 8)

Revision 1 of SR 6 to CPR 22 (ceiling prices for manufacturers of paints, varnishes and lacquers) was issued August 13, 1952, to become mandatorily effective on November 13, 1952. The revision is designed primarily to permit additional optional methods of establishing ceiling prices alternative to those found in CPR 22 and the original SR 6. The mandatory effect of the revision also operates to remove, as of November 13, 1952, the option now afforded by SR 12 to CPR 22, to continue under the GCPR.

Some manufacturers established ceiling prices under the original SR 6 or, as permitted thereby, under CPR 22. They have complied with applicable reporting requirements. The question now arises whether such manufacturers must refile under the revision even though they do not establish new ceiling prices under one of the added optional methods therein provided.

If, prior to issuance of the revision, a manufacturer established ceiling prices under a method which is continued in the revision and has complied with applicable filing requirements he has done everything required of him by the revision and need not refile. Thus, where a manufacturer under SR 6 unrevised filed the information required by section 32 of CPR 22 where he priced by the comparison method provided under section 5(d) of the unrevised regulation, he need not file Public Form No. 150 as required of sellers using this method under section 5(c) of the revised regulation inasmuch as that form requires, in substance, the information already supplied.

New reports or filings are only required where a manufacturer reestablishes ceiling prices under a method provided by the revision which was not previously available, or which he did not previously elect to use. In that event, he need file only those reports prescribed by the revision for the method he elects.

CPR 34—SERVICES

ACQUIRING A BUSINESS OR SUPPLYING SERVICES PREVIOUSLY SUPPLIED BY ANOTHER PERSON AT THE SAME BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENT; MOVING OF BUSINESS; CHAINS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 6 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Section 13 (a) is being amended to clarify its scope and purposes. As the section was previously written it was clear that where there had been a voluntary transfer of a previously established service business such a transfer was subject to the provisions of section 13 (a), and the transferee was therefore governed by the ceiling prices applicable to the transferor. Section 13 (a), which deals with the acquisition of a previously established service business establishment, thus generally preserved to the classes of purchasers at that establishment the same services without any increase in their ceiling prices. It was also recognized that a mere formal break in the chain of direct transfer should not be allowed to become an easy way for bringing about an increase in those ceiling prices. Accordingly, the section also was considered to apply to a seller who acquired such a business by means other than by way of direct transfer from its previous owner. For example: Landlord A rented a vacant lot to tenant B for a period from January 1, 1950, to December 31, 1951. During the base period of December 19, 1950, to January 25, 1951, inclusive, B operated this lot as a parking lot and established ceiling prices for his parking lot services under section 5 of this regulation. On the expiration of this lease Landlord A rented the lot, effective January 1, 1952, to tenant C. Under such or similar circumstances C was considered to have acquired B's parking lot business and B's ceiling prices for parking lot services. Because, however, of questions raised as to the reasonableness of applying the language of section 13 (a) to such a situation, that section is now amended to make plain that acquisitions of a previously established business whether with or without privity of contract are governed by the section.

Section 13 (a), however, does not apply under circumstances which demonstrate that there is no substantial continuity in the operation of substantially the same kind of service business at the establishment. For example, purchaser X buys a parking lot business from Y on May 1, 1952. Between May 1, 1952, and October 13, 1952, X operates an open air fruit and vegetable market at this parking lot location. Thereafter if X discontinues the operation of this market and establishes a parking lot business, his ceiling prices for parking services will be determined by the applicable sections of this regulation other than section 13 (a).

This amendment also clarifies the regulation by expressly stating the method of establishing new ceiling prices if the ceiling prices of the previously established service business are not on file in the OPS district office, and the person carrying on the business has not obtained the records necessary to establish the ceiling prices of the previously established service business.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization this amendment is generally fair and equitable and is necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

In view of the clarifying nature of this amendment, special circumstances have rendered consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, impracticable.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, is further amended as follows:

1. The title of section 13 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 13. Acquiring a business or supplying services previously supplied by another person at the same business establishment; moving of business; chains.

2. Paragraph (a) of section 13, as amended, is further amended to read as follows:

(a) Acquiring a business or supplying services previously supplied by another person at the same business establishment. (1) If, after January 25, 1951, you acquire a previously established service business and you carry on such business in an establishment separate from an establishment previously owned or operated by you, or if, after January 25, 1951, you carry on a service business, at such a separate establishment, similar to a service business which within a reasonable period prior thereto had been carried on by another person at such a separate establishment, your ceiling prices for the services you supply at such a separate establishment shall be the same as those previously in effect for such services at that establishment, and your obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall also be the same. You must further prepare and preserve (if that has not already been done for this establishment) and keep up to date the statement required under section 18 of this regulation. The person from whom you acquire the business or the last person that carried on such a previously established business shall preserve and turn over to you all records of transactions he may have with respect to that business which are necessary to enable you to comply with the records provisions of this regulation.

(2) If you cannot obtain such records, and if the ceiling prices of the previously established service business are not on file in your OPS district office, you may apply for new ceiling prices under section 7 of this regulation. In addition to the information otherwise required by that section, your application must contain the trade name and address of the previously established service business and a statement that you cannot obtain such records. If your ceiling prices are established under section 7 of this regulation for the reason stated above, OPS may change them to the ceiling prices of the previously established service business when ascertained.

Effective date. This Amendment 6 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is effective November 12, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[General Overriding Regulation 5, Revision 1, Amdt. 9]

GOR 5—EXEMPTIONS AND SUSPENSIONS OF CERTAIN CONSUMER DURABLE GOODS AND RELATED COMMODITIES

EXEMPTION OF FLOOR BROOMS AND WHISK BROOMS, MADE OF BROOM CORN

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 9 to General Overriding Regulation 5, Revision 1, is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

In line with the need for focusing the interests and energies of the Office of Price Stabilization on major areas of commodities and services affecting the cost of living and business costs, this amendment to General Overriding Regulation 5, Revision 1, exempts floor brooms and whisk brooms made of broom corn from price control. Remaining under control for the present are brooms made of synthetic filaments, or of vegetable fibres, and all types of brushes.

Brooms made of broom corn are no longer a major component in living cost. For some years the broom corn broom industry has been a declining industry. Over a period of ten years production of broom corn brooms has declined twenty percent. The competition of mechanical sweepers and of brooms made of other materials has been largely responsible for this decline. These competing products have made serious inroads on the broom corn broom market. Administration and enforcement of price controls for these brooms place an increasingly serious burden on the Office of Price Stabilization, while the benefits of ceiling prices for these brooms have tended to dwindle.

The broom corn broom industry has been in large part decontrolled by previous regulations. Brooms made by institutions for the blind were decontrolled by GOR 1, on April 4, 1951. Brooms made by Federal and District of Columbia penal institutions were decontrolled by GOR 19 on October 13, 1951. Sales of brooms by State agencies were decontrolled by GOR 11 on July 21, 1952. Sales of brooms by manufacturers whose gross sales do not exceed $25,000 per year were exempted by amendments to the General Ceiling Price Regulation and CPR 22 on August 20, 1952. These exempted sellers make from one-third to one-half of all broom corn brooms sold in the United States.

Although the reduced volume and consequent high prices for this year's crop of broom corn make it probable that decontrol of this industry will result in somewhat higher prices in the immediate future, the availability of many other types of sweeping and dusting tools will tend to moderate the extent of such increases. Since the industry has as its major material broom corn (60 to 70 percent of the materials cost of a broom is for broom corn), and since sales of broom corn by producers are not controlled, it is believed that higher prices would result under OPS standards even if broom corn brooms were to remain subject to price control.

In the formulation of this amendment there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

General Overriding Regulation 5, Revision 1, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph to section 7 immediately following "Cork Stoppers":

Floor brooms and whisk brooms, made of broom corn.

GOR 5—EXEMPTIONS AND SUSPENSIONS OF CERTAIN CONSUMER DURABLE GOODS AND RELATED COMMODITIES

INT. 2—PACKAGES OR SETS

Where a given commodity has been exempted or suspended from price control under GOR 5, Revision 1, such exemption or suspension does not apply or extend to a package or set composed of the exempted or suspended commodity and one or more commodities which are neither exempted nor suspended, unless the entire package or set itself is included within the terms of the exemption or suspension.

For example, if upholstered studio couches are suspended whereas upholstered chairs are not, a combination of these two items offered for sale as a set is not suspended unless such sets are independently included in the suspension.

Similarly, the exemption or suspension of a package or set as such does not extend to an independent and separate sale of one of the items included in the described package or set, unless such separate commodity has been exempted or suspended from control.

Chapter VI—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[NPA Order M-47B, as Amended November 6, 1952]

M-47B—USE OF CONTROLLED MATERIALS IN CERTAIN CONSUMER DURABLE GOODS

This order as amended is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this amended order, consultation with industry representatives has been rendered impracticable due to the need for immediate action and because the order affects many different trades and industries.

EXPLANATORY

This order, as amended, affects NPA Order M-47B, as last amended August 4, 1952, as follows: Section 3 is amended to specify that the order applies to any prime consumer who obtains controlled material pursuant to Directions 1, 17, and 18 to CMP Regulation No. 1. Former paragraph (c) of section 4 is deleted and new paragraphs (c), (d), (e), and (f) are inserted in lieu thereof. Such new paragraphs (c) and (d) extend the principle of flexibility in connection with the production of repair and replacement parts. Paragraphs (e) and (f) place certain restrictions upon the use of controlled materials obtained in the manner referred to therein and make clear that nothing in section 4 modifies Direction 1 to this order. The section number and title of the former section 5, which was deleted August 4, 1952, is reinserted only because of the reference to "section 5" of this order in paragraph (b) of section 3 of NPA Order M-47A. Sections 5, 6, 7, and 8 are renumbered sections 6, 7, 8, and 9, respectively. Paragraph (c) of the renumbered section 7 is deleted and paragraph (d) thereof is redesignated paragraph (c).

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 9 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. Purpose. The purpose of this order is to provide for a degree of flexibility in the production of certain consumer durable goods, by permitting a CMP allotment received for the production of one product to be used, subject to certain limitations, in the production of a different product.

SEC. 2. Definitions. The following terms shall have the same meanings as given for such terms in section 2 of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(1) Person.
(2) Controlled material.
(3) Industry division.
(4) Prime consumer.
(5) Allotment.
(6) Class A product.
(7) Class B product.

SEC. 3. Application of this order. This order applies to any producer of any Class B product in Schedule I of this order, including any prime consumer who obtains any controlled material as provided by Directions 1, 17, or 18 to CMP Regulation No. 1 or by allotment from an industry division. This order does not apply to the production of controlled materials.

SEC. 4. Authority to use allotments of controlled material to produce other products, repair and replacement parts, and authority to provide flexibility in the production of repair and replacement parts. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any CMP regulation, any prime consumer, who has received from an industry division an allotment of any iron and steel, copper, or aluminum in the controlled material forms and shapes listed in Schedule I to CMP Regulation No. 1 for the production, during any calendar quarter, of any Class B product in Schedule I of this order, may, during such quarter, use all or part of such allotment, and the rating authorized for use in connection therewith, for the production of any other Class B product or products included in Schedule I if each of the other Class B products which the allotment is used to produce is either (1) one for which he also received an allotment for such quarter from an industry division, or (2) one which he has produced, for purpose of sale, on or after July 1, 1949. In all other respects, the provisions of CMP regulations shall apply to such production.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to increase or to serve as a basis for increasing the amount of any controlled material allotted to any person for production of all products in Schedule I of this order, or for all production.

(c) Any prime consumer, who obtains in the manner set forth in section 3 of this order any iron and steel, copper, or aluminum in the controlled material forms and shapes listed in Schedule I to CMP Regulation No. 1 for the production during any calendar quarter of any Class B product included in Schedule I of this order may, subject, however, to the same restrictions as are contained in paragraph (a) of this section, use all or a part of such CMP allotment in the production of repair or replacement parts of any product listed in Schedule I of this order.

(d) Any prime consumer, who obtains in the manner set forth in section 3 of this order any iron and steel, copper, or aluminum in the controlled material forms and shapes listed in Schedule I to CMP Regulation No. 1 for the production during any calendar quarter, of repair or replacement parts of any Class B product listed in Schedule I of this order may, subject, however, to the same restrictions as are contained in paragraph (a) of this section, use all or a part of such CMP allotment in the production of repair or replacement parts of a different product listed in Schedule I of this order.

(e) Nothing in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section permits the use for production of any Class B product listed in Schedule I of this order, of any CMP allotment received for the production of repair or replacement parts of any such product, or authorizes any action contrary to Direction 1 to this order, as amended.

(f) Controlled material obtained by any prime consumer under the authorizations provided by Directions 1, 17, or 18 of CMP Regulation No. 1 for the production of any new product designated in Schedule I of this order, or for repair or replacement parts for any such new product shall be subject to the provisions of Direction 1 to this order, as amended. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term "new product" shall have the meaning defined in section 2 (a) of Direction 1 to this order, as amended.

SEC. 5. Prohibited use of copper and aluminum (Deleted August 4, 1952).

SEC. 6. Request for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests for adjustment or exception claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, by letter in triplicate, and shall set forth all pertinent facts, the nature of the relief sought, and the justification therefor.

SEC. 7. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order, or who relies on section 4 of this order, shall make and preserve, for at least 3 years thereafter, accurate and complete records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, production, and use, in sufficient detail to permit the determination, after audit, whether each transaction complies with the provisions of this order. This order does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily used, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals by those persons who, at the time such microfilm or other photographic records are made, maintain such copies of records in the regular and usual course of business.

(b) All records required by this order shall be made available for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority, at the usual place of business where maintained.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports to the National Production Authority as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 8. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-47B.

SEC. 9. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or any other order or regulation of NPA, or who wilfully furnishes false information or conceals any material fact in the course of operation under this order, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

NPA Order M-47B as so amended shall take effect November 6, 1952.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,

[NPA Order M-47B, Direction 1 as Amended November 6, 1952]

M-47B—USE OF CONTROLLED MATERIALS IN CERTAIN CONSUMER DURABLE GOODS

DIR. 1—EXCLUSION OF NEW PRODUCTS FROM FLEXIBILITY PROVISION

This direction as amended is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this direction, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. However, in the formulation of this amended direction, consultation with industry representatives has been rendered impracticable due to the necessity for immediate action and because the order affects a large number of different trades and industries.

Sec.
1. Purpose.
2. Definitions.
3. New product limitation.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 3 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. Purpose. The purpose of this direction is to prohibit allotments granted for the production of a new product from being immediately diverted to the production of a different product. In cases in which NPA authorizes production of a new product, this direction provides that allotments granted for such new production are excluded from the flexibility provision of NPA Order M–47B, until the applicant has actually produced the new product to a substantial extent.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this direction:

(a) "New product" means a Class B product produced by a person who, prior to July 1, 1950, produced for sale neither that product nor any other Class B product listed in the same Product Code Classification in the Official CMP Class B Product List.

(b) "Initial authorization from NPA for the production of a new product" means an official action by NPA, either by adjustment or exception to NPA Order M–47A, or by the granting of an authorized production schedule and an allotment of controlled materials, which for the first time specifically authorizes a person to produce a new product. It does not apply, however, to any such official action taken with respect to a product for which an adjustment or exception was previously granted to the same person by NPA under NPA Order M–7, M–12, or M–47.

(c) "Principal controlled material" means whichever controlled material (either steel, copper, or aluminum) a person is authorized to use in the largest amount by his initial authorization from NPA for the production of a new product.

(d) "NPA" means the National Production Authority.

SEC. 3. New product limitation. (a) No primary consumer who has heretofore or hereafter received initial authorization from NPA for the production of a new product may treat such product as included in any group in Schedule I of NPA Order M–47B until he has used in the production of such product an amount of his principal controlled material equal to the amount which he was authorized to use for such production in the calendar quarter for which the initial authorization was granted, plus the amount of such material authorized for use in the succeeding calendar quarter.

(b) Under paragraph (a) of this section:

(1) Allotments of controlled materials voluntarily returned to NPA shall not be deducted in determining the amount permitted to be used in any calendar quarter.

(2) Authorization to use material in inventory shall be disregarded in determining the amount authorized to be used in any calendar quarter.

(3) Amounts allotted by a primary consumer to others and used for production of Class A product components for such new product on and after October 1, 1951, shall be included to determine use of controlled materials in the production of the new product.

(4) No prime consumer who obtains controlled material pursuant to the self-authorization provisions of Direction 1 or 17 to CMP Regulation No. 1 for use in the manufacture of a new product may, at the end of the period specified in paragraph (a) of this section, divert during any succeeding calendar quarter from the production of such new product to the production of any other Class B product in Schedule I of this order an amount of any controlled material which exceeds the greatest amount of such controlled material which he used in either calendar quarter of such period in the production of such new product.

This direction as amended shall take effect November 6, 1952.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
By GEORGE W. AUXIER,
Executive Secretary.

DARTHRONOL AND HEPTUNA CAPSULES

PROSPECTIVE TARIFF CLASSIFICATION

OCTOBER 31, 1952.

It appears probable that darthronol and heptuna capsules composed in part of niacinamide and riboflavin derived from coal tar are properly classifiable under the provision in paragraph 28 (a), Tariff Act of 1930, for "all mixtures, including solutions, consisting in whole or in part of any of the articles or materials provided for in this paragraph, excepting mixtures of synthetic odoriferous or aromatic chemicals," at a rate of duty higher than that heretofore assessed under a uniform practice established as a result of the United States Customs Court's decision published as C. D. 1313.

Pursuant to § 16.10a (d), Customs Regulations of 1943, notice is hereby given that the existing uniform practice of classifying such merchandise under the provisions of paragraph 23 as medicinal substances in capsules is under review in the Bureau of Customs.

Consideration will be given to any relevant data, views, or arguments pertaining to the correct classification of this merchandise which are submitted to the Bureau of Customs, Washington, D. C., in writing. To assure consideration, such communications must be received in the Bureau not later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice. No hearings will be held.

[SEAL] FRANK DOW,
Commissioner of Customs.

WHEAT UNFIT FOR HUMAN CONSUMPTION

PROSPECTIVE TARIFF CLASSIFICATION

NOVEMBER 3, 1952.

Paragraph 729, Tariff Act of 1930, provided for a rate of duty of 10 per centum ad valorem on "wheat, unfit for human consumption." This rate was reduced to 5 per centum on January 1, 1939, under the authority of section 350, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended.

Following the passage of the Tariff Act of 1930 it was concluded after appropriate inquiry that it was not generally practicable under then existing conditions to use in the milling of products for human consumption wheat containing 30 per centum or more of damaged kernels, as determined in accordance with the official grain standards of the United States. Wheat damaged to such an extent was accordingly held to be "wheat, unfit for human consumption" within the meaning of paragraph 729.

This decision was published in 1935 as Treasury Decision 47577 in order to insure uniformity of action by customs officers and to make public the procedure followed in determining what wheat was properly classifiable as "wheat, unfit for human consumption" under paragraph 729.

In the last two years certain foreign wheat crops have suffered extensive damage as a result of weather conditions. Substantial quantities of this wheat have been imported. Its availability for use in the milling of products for human consumption has been intensively explored by the industry, with the result that it appears to have been conclusively established that substantial quantities of grades which it has been the practice to classify under paragraph 729 as wheat unfit for human consumption are commercially usable, after blending with higher grade wheat, in the milling of products for human consumption. There are indications that these developments are due to a combination of technological advances and economic factors.

Investigations have established that wheat classified under paragraph 729 as wheat unfit for human consumption has been used to a significant extent in the milling of three classes of flour for human consumption: (1) So-called family flour, milled from a blend of wheat containing 3 to 5 per centum of damaged wheat; (2) so-called bakery flour, milled from a blend containing not over 5 per centum of damaged wheat; (3) so-called institutional flour, milled from a blend containing as much as 50 per centum of damaged wheat.

Industrial flour, which is used in the United States in the manufacture of pastes, molds, paints, industrial alcohol, etc., but not for human consumption, is made entirely from damaged wheat.

In the circumstances, it appears that the presence of 30 per centum or more of damaged kernels can no longer be accepted as the sole criterion in determining when wheat is classifiable under paragraph 729 as wheat unfit for human consumption.

Pursuant to § 16.10a (d), Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 16.10a (d)), notice is hereby given that the existing uniform practice of classifying as wheat, unfit for human consumption, at the rate of 5 per centum ad valorem under paragraph 729, as modified, wheat which contains 30 per centum or more of damaged kernels is under review in the Bureau of Customs, with a view to determining what classes of wheat are now entitled to that classification.

Consideration will be given to any relevant data, views, or arguments pertaining to the correct classification of this merchandise which are submitted in writing to the Bureau of Customs, Washington 25, D. C. To assure consideration, such communications must be received in the Bureau not later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice. No hearings will be held.

[SEAL] FRANK DOW,
Commissioner of Customs.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 17, Section 11 (d), Special Order 1]

OLYMPIA-TENINO MARKETING AREA

ADJUSTMENT OF TANK WAGON CEILING PRICES

Statement of considerations. This special order adjusts the ceiling prices for sales of heating oils (kerosene, No. 1 and 2 oils, furnace oil, range oil and stove oil) by tank wagon distributors in the Olympia-Tenino marketing area.

The Office of Price Stabilization was requested by distributors in the Olympia-Tenino marketing area to conduct a survey to determine whether increased costs have reduced the net margins in the area below a point sufficient to maintain the level of earnings in the year ending May 31, 1950. The results of that survey show that an upward adjustment is necessary to bring earnings to that level.

There are hundreds of heating oil sellers at the tank wagon level in this region and the need for relief is not uniform but varies from marketing area to marketing area. Thus it is concluded that the adjustment must be on a marketing area basis, rather than on a region-wide basis. For the purpose of this special order the market area has been defined as the area of reseller competition, which is the same as the area of the free delivery zones.

The adjustment granted by this order does no more than bring earnings to the level of the year ending May 31, 1950. It is therefore consistent with the provisions of Section 11 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 17.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations and pursuant to the provisions of Section 11 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 17 and Delegation of Authority 72, It is ordered:

1. That the ceiling price of heating oil distributors in the Olympic-Tenino marketing area for tank wagon sales of heating oils (kerosene, Nos. 1 and 2 oils, furnace oil, range oil and stove oil) to consumers shall be increased by $0.004 per gallon. The Olympia-Tenino marketing area is defined as the Olympia-Tenino free delivery zone.

2. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 17, except as inconsistent with the provisions of this order shall remain in full force and effect as to the commodities covered by this order.

3. This order may be amended, modified, or revoked at any time.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective on November 5, 1952.

HAROLD WALSH,
Regional Director,
Office of Price Stabilization,
Region XII.

NASH MOTORS, DIVISION OF NASH-KELVINATOR CORP.

APPROVAL OF REVISIONS ATTACHED TO LETTER TO DEALERS, DATED OCTOBER 23, 1952

Statement of considerations. This Special Order, pursuant to section 5 of Supplementary Regulation 3 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34, approves certain modifications and supplements to time allowances which appear in the Nash Flat Rate Schedule 1952.

The Director of Price Stabilization has determined from the data submitted by the publisher of the Nash Flat Rate Schedule 1952, that the approval of these modifications and supplements would not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

Special provisions. 1. On and after the effective date of this order, the modifications and supplements to the Nash Flat Rate Schedule 1952, as covered in Nash Motors, Division of Nash-Kelvinator Corporation Application # USE 52-4 and USD 52-4 are authorized for use in establishing the time allowances for the operations described therein.

2. The following notice must be printed or stamped in a prominent position of the publication "Approved by OPS November 4, 1952, by Special Order No. 6 issued under section 5 of SR 3 to CPR 34."

3. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, and Supplementary Regulation 3, as amended, except as changed by this Special Order shall remain in full force and effect.

4. This Special Order or any provision thereof may be revoked, suspended or amended at any time by the Director of Price Stabilization.

Effective date. This order shall become effective November 4, 1952.

Director of Price Stabilization.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-1319]

ALGONQUIN GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

NOTICE OF ORDER DISMISSING APPLICATION

NOVEMBER 3, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that on October 31, 1952, the Federal Power Commission issued its order entered October 29, 1952, dismissing for lack of jurisdiction the application for temporary certificate of public convenience and necessity in the above-entitled matter.

[SEAL] J. H. GUTRIDE,
Acting Secretary.

[F. R. Doc. 52-11952; Filed, Nov. 6, 1952; 8:46 a. m.]

[Docket Nos. G-1319, G-1568, G-1012, G-1554, G-1558, G-1559, G-1560, G-1576, G-1584, G-1655, G-2077]

ALGONQUIN GAS TRANSMISSION CO. ET AL.

ORDER REOPENING AND CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

OCTOBER 31, 1952.

In the matters of Algonquin Gas Transmission Company, Docket No. G-1319; Northeastern Gas Transmission Company, Docket No. G-1568; Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G-1012; Portland Gas Light Company, Docket No. G-1554; Biddeford and Saco Gas Company, Docket No. G-1558; Gas Service, Incorporated, Docket No. G-1559; Allied New Hampshire Gas Company, Docket No. G-1560; Greenfield Gas Light Company, Docket No. G-1576; Gardner Gas Fuel and Light Company, Docket No. G-1584; Athol Gas Company, Docket No. G-1655; Blackstone Valley Gas and Electric Company, Docket No. G-2077.

On January 24, 1950, Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin) filed an application in Docket No. G-1319, as amended on May 1, 1950, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of a natural-gas pipeline system extending from an interconnection with the pipeline system of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern), near Lambertville, New Jersey, to a point near Boston, Massachusetts, and to sell natural gas to distributing companies and communities in New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Massachusetts. Algonquin stated, in its application, that it would obtain its gas requirements from Texas Eastern.

Texas Eastern had theretofore filed an application for a certificate on March 10, 1948, in Docket No. G-1012, as amended on November 14, 1949, which it further amended on May 5, 1950, to seek authority to construct and operate pipeline facilities for the sale and delivery of natural gas to Algonquin.

Hearings on Algonquin's application in Docket No. G-1319 were held in Boston, Massachusetts, between June 12, 1950, and July 3, 1950, and were subsequently reconvened in Washington, D. C., on July 24, 1950. Thereafter, hearings were held in Washington between July 24, 1950, and August 5, 1950, at which time they were recessed.

Hearings on Texas Eastern's application in Docket No. G-1012 were held in August, September, and December 1950, being recessed in December.

On December 21, 1950, while the hearings in Docket No. G-1319 were in recess, Northeastern Gas Transmission Company (Northeastern), an intervener in the Docket No. G-1319 proceedings, filed an application, in Docket No. G-1568, for a certificate authorizing it to construct and operate natural-gas facilities necessary for it to sell and deliver natural gas to "all of the towns and communities which Algonquin • • • has applied to this Commission for authority to serve and to a number of additional communities in Massachusetts, eastern New Hampshire, and Maine, to whom natural-gas service has not heretofore been proposed."

On December 29, 1950, Northeastern filed a "Supplement to Petition to Intervene" in Docket No. G-1012, in which it was an intervener, requesting that "any certificate issued to Texas Eastern" be conditioned so "as to require Texas Eastern to sell to Northeastern 60,000 Mcf of natural gas per day in the event" its application filed December 21, 1950, in Docket No. G-1568, was granted.

On January 10, 1951, the Commission adopted an order (issued January 17, 1951), dismissing Northeastern's application in Docket No. G-1568 so far as said application sought authority to serve market areas which Algonquin proposed to serve in Docket No. G-1319.

By a second order adopted by the Commission on January 10, 1951 (issued January 12, 1951), the Commission dismissed Northeastern's "Supplement to Petition to Intervene" filed in Docket No. G-1012, on the grounds that, among other things, it had not been timely filed.

By a third order adopted by the Commission on January 10, 1951 (issued January 12, 1951), on motion of Algonquin, Northeastern was dismissed from further participation as an intervener in Docket No. G-1319.

On February 27, 1951, the Commission issued Opinion No. 206, and accompanying order. In Paragraph B of said order the Commission issued a certificate, in Docket No. G-1012, to Texas Eastern authorizing it, among other things, to sell and deliver natural gas to Algonquin. In Paragraph C of said order the Commission issued a certificate, in Docket No. G-1319, to Algonquin authorizing it to construct and operate a natural-gas system, and to sell natural gas to certain customers in the States of New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Massachusetts.

On March 3, 1951, Northeastern filed a petition for review of said Opinion No. 206 and accompanying order granting Algonquin a certificate, and for review of the three orders adopted January 10, 1951, aforementioned, in the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, alleging, among other things, that as a competitor of Algonquin it had, by virtue of said three orders, been denied due process. Upon judicial review, said opinion and accompanying order, and the three orders adopted January 10, 1951, were set aside by order of the Court of Appeals, Northeastern Gas Transmission Co. et al. v. Federal Power Commission, 195 F. 2d 872 (CA 3, 1952). Issuance of the mandates of the Court of Appeals to this Commission was stayed, first by order of the Court, and later by the filing of petitions for writ of certiorari with the Supreme Court of the United States by Algonquin, Texas Eastern, and this Commission.

On October 13, 1952, the Supreme Court denied the petitions for a writ of certiorari to the Court of Appeals, Algonquin and Texas Eastern thereupon filed an "Application for Stay" in the Supreme Court requesting that Court to stay the issuance of its order denying the petitions for a writ of certiorari until the Supreme Court should have acted upon Algonquin's petition for rehearing of the Supreme Court's denial. On October 20, 1952, the Supreme Court denied the aforementioned Application for Stay. Algonquin and Texas Eastern filed with the Supreme Court a petition for rehearing on October 24, 1952.

The mandates of the Court of Appeals were received by this Commission on October 23, 1952. The mandates provide:

• • • It is now here ordered and adjudged by this Court that the following orders of the Federal Power Commission be and they are hereby set aside:

1. The order entered in the Commission's Docket G-1568 on January 10, 1951.

2. The order entered in the Commission's Docket G-1319 on January 10, 1951.

3. The order entered in the Commission's Docket G–1012 on January 10, 1951.

4. Paragraph C of the Commission's opinion and order No. 206 issued February 27, 1951.

Paragraph B of the Commission's opinion and order No. 206 issued February 27, 1951 is hereby modified by eliminating from the certificate of public convenience and necessity issued to Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation by said paragraph any authorization to Texas Eastern to sell and deliver natural gas to Algonquin Gas Transmission Company.

The cause is remanded to the Commission for further proceedings not inconsistent with the opinion of this Court.

On October 10, 1952, the Commission adopted an order, issued October 14, 1952, accepting Algonquin's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, tendered for filing on October 7, 1952. The mandate of the United States Court of Appeals setting aside Paragraph C of the Commission's Opinion No. 206 and accompanying order, in which paragraph the Commission issued a certificate to Algonquin, renders the aforesaid order issued October 14, 1952 a nullity.

In addition to the matters set forth above, certain gas distributing companies in certain New England states have each filed an application, pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, for an order directing Northeastern to establish physical connection with, and to sell and deliver natural gas to each applicant. Such companies are:

Portland Gas Light Company, Docket No. G–1554.

Biddeford and Saco Gas Company, Docket No. G–1558.

Gas Service, Incorporated, Docket No. G–1559.

Allied New Hampshire Gas Company, Docket No. G–1560.

Greenfield Gas Light Company, Docket No. G–1576.

Gardner Gas Fuel and Light Company, Docket No. G–1584.

Athol Gas Company, Docket No. G–1655.

Blackstone Valley Gas and Electric Company, Docket No. G–2077.

In each of the matters set forth in the heading hereof due "Notice of Application" was given, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Opportunity for the filing of protests or petitions to intervene was given. Many persons filed petitions to intervene, and by order of the Commission were permitted to intervene, in one or more of the above-docketed proceedings. Such interveners shall have the same rights and status as interveners in the proceedings, as hereinafter reopened, as in any of the above-docketed proceedings in which they were, by order of the Commission, permitted intervention.

The Commission finds:

(1) In accordance with the mandates, and consistent with the opinion of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, aforementioned, the proceedings in Docket Nos. G–1319, G–1568, and G–1012 should be reopened for the purpose of determining whether each of the applicants in said docketed proceedings is able and willing properly to do the acts and to perform the service proposed in their respective applications, and to conform to the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and the requirements, rules, and regulations of the Commission thereunder, and further, whether the service, sale, operation, construction, extension, and acquisition to the extent proposed in each of the aforementioned applications, is or will be required by the present or future public convenience and necessity.

(2) Good cause exists and it is in the public interest to consolidate the above-docketed proceedings for purpose of hearing.

(3) It is in the public interest that at the hearing in the proceedings, consolidated for purpose of hearing as hereinafter ordered, testimony and evidence shall be proffered as follows, except for such deviation and additions as the Presiding Examiner may determine to be required in the interest of expedition and due process:

(a) (i) Testimony and evidence by Algonquin in support of its application in Docket No. G–1319; cross-examination of witnesses for Algonquin.

(ii) Testimony and evidence by any party other than Algonquin in support of Algonquin's application in Docket No. G–1319; cross-examination of witnesses offered by such parties.

(iii) Testimony and evidence by any party in opposition to Algonquin's application in Docket No. G–1319; cross-examination of witnesses offered by such parties.

(b) (i) Testimony and evidence by Texas Eastern in support of its application in Docket No. G–1012, so far as such application seeks authority to deliver and sell natural gas to Algonquin, cross-examination of witnesses for Texas Eastern.

(ii) Testimony and evidence by any party other than Texas Eastern in support of Texas Eastern's application in Docket No. G–1012, as limited in (b) (i) above; cross-examination of witnesses offered by such parties.

(iii) Testimony and evidence by any party in opposition to Texas Eastern's application in Docket No. G–1012, as limited in (b) (i) above; cross-examination of witnesses for Northeastern.

(c) (i) Testimony and evidence by Northeastern in support of its application in Docket No. G–1568; cross-examination of witnesses for Northeastern.

(ii) Testimony and evidence by any party other than Northeastern in support of Northeastern's application in Docket No. G–1568, or in support of applications filed pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, for orders directing Northeastern to make physical connection with, and deliver and sell natural gas to the respective applicants; cross-examination of witnesses offered by such parties.

(iii) Testimony and evidence by any party in opposition to Northeastern's application in Docket No. G–1568 or the foregoing section 7 (a) application; cross-examination of witnesses offered by such parties.

The Commission orders:

(A) The proceedings in Docket Nos. G–1319, G–1568, and G–1012 be and they are hereby reopened for further hearing for the purposes as set forth in Finding (1) of this order, and in the manner and procedure set forth in Finding (3) of this order.

(B) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, the proceedings in Docket Nos. G–1319, G–1012, G–1568, G–1554, G–1558, G–1559, G–1560, G–1576, G–1584, G–1655, and G–2077 be and they are hereby consolidated for purpose of hearing; said hearing to commence on November 24, 1952, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by the aforementioned applications.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: October 31, 1952.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G–2069]

PHILADELPHIA ELECTRIC CO.

OCTOBER 31, 1952.

On September 12, 1952, Philadelphia Electric Company (Applicant), a Pennsylvania corporation having its principal place of business at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, filed an application pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural-gas facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as described in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, Applicant having requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for non-contested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest or petition having been timely filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 7, 1952 (17 F. R. 8966).

The Commission orders:

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Office of Alien Property

[Vesting Order 19059]

WILHELMINE L. BAYERDORFER

In re: Estate of Wilhelmine L. Bayerdorfer, deceased. File No. F 28-3852.

Under the authority of the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended, (50 U. S. C. App. and Sup. 1-40) Public Law 181, 82d Congress, 65 Stat. 451; Executive Order 9193, as amended by Executive Order 9567 (3 CFR, 1943 Cum. Supp.; 3 CFR 1945 Supp.); Executive Order 9788 (3 CFR 1946 Supp.) and Executive Order 9989 (3 CFR 1948 Supp.), and pursuant to law, after investigation, it is hereby found:

1. That Anna Voelker, whose last known address is Germany, and on or since December 11, 1941, and prior to January 1, 1947, was a resident of Germany and is, and prior to January 1, 1947, was, a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. That the sum of $174.82 was paid to the Attorney General of the United States by Phil C. Katz, Public Administrator of the City and County of San Francisco, California, as administrator of the estate of Wilhelmine L. Bayerdorfer, deceased, acting under the judicial supervision of the Superior Court in and of the City and County of San Francisco, California;

3. That said sum of $174.82 was accepted by or on behalf of the Attorney General of the United States on October 15, 1952, pursuant to the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended;

4. That said sum of $174.82 is presently in the possession of the Attorney General of the United States and on October 15, 1952, and prior to January 1, 1947, was property within the United States owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to or which was evidence of ownership or control by, the aforesaid national of a designated enemy country (Germany); and it is hereby determined:

5. That the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a person who is and prior to January 1, 1947, was a national of a designated enemy country (Germany).

All determinations and all actions required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, having been made and taken, and it being deemed necessary in the national interest,

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

This vesting order is issued nunc pro tunc to confirm the vesting of the said property by acceptance as aforesaid.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in Section 10 of Executive Order 9193, as amended.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10405

EXEMPTION OF THEODORE MARKS FROM COMPULSORY RETIREMENT FOR AGE

WHEREAS Theodore Marks, Associate Chief of the Veterans Employment Service, Department of Labor, during the month of November 1952 will become subject to compulsory retirement for age under the provisions of the Civil Service Retirement Act of May 29, 1930, as amended, unless exempted therefrom by Executive order; and

WHEREAS, in my judgment, the public interest requires that the said person be exempted from such compulsory retirement as provided below:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 204 of the act of June 30, 1932, 47 Stat. 404 (5 U. S. C. 715a), I hereby exempt the said Theodore Marks from compulsory retirement for age for an indefinite period of time.

CREATING AN EMERGENCY BOARD TO INVESTIGATE A DISPUTE BETWEEN THE UNITED AIR LINES, INC., AND CERTAIN OF ITS EMPLOYEES

WHEREAS a dispute exists between the United Air Lines, Inc., a carrier, and certain of its employees represented by the Flight Engineers' International Association, UAL Chapter, a labor organization; and

WHEREAS this dispute has not heretofore been adjusted under the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, as amended; and

WHEREAS this dispute, in the judgment of the National Mediation Board, threatens substantially to interrupt interstate commerce to a degree such as to deprive a section of the country of essential transportation service:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 10 of the Railway Labor Act, as amended (45 U. S. C. 160), I hereby create a board of three members, to be appointed by me, to investigate the said dispute. No member of the said board shall be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any organization of employees or any carrier.

The Board shall report its findings to the President with respect to the said dispute within thirty days from the date of this order.

As provided by section 10 of the Railway Labor Act, as amended, from this date and for thirty days after the board has made its report to the President, no change, except by agreement, shall be made by the United Air Lines, Inc., or its employees in the conditions out of which the said dispute arose.

In performing its functions under this order the Board shall comply with the requirements of section 502 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

of any State or Territory, where (a) the law of such State or Territory provides for the collection of a tax by imposing upon employers generally the duty of withholding sums from the compensation of employees and making returns of such sums to the authorities of such State or Territory, and (b) the duty to withhold is imposed generally with respect to the compensation of employees who are residents of such State or Territory: Provided, that each such agreement shall be consistent with the provisions of the said act of July 17, 1952, and of rules and regulations issued thereunder, and shall be subject to any amendments of any of such provisions, including amendments occurring after the effective date of any such agreement.

2. Each such agreement (a) shall provide that the head of each agency of the United States shall comply with the requirements of such law of the State or Territory concerned with respect to employees of such agency who are subject to such tax and whose regular place of federal employment is within the State or Territory with which such agreement is entered into, (b) shall specify when the withholding of tax shall commence, and (c) shall provide for procedures for the withholding, the filing of the returns, and the payment of the tax to the State or Territory which conform, in so far as practicable, to the usual fiscal practices of agencies of the United States.

3. No such agreement (a) shall apply with respect to compensation for service as a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, or (b) shall require collection by agencies of the United States of delinquent tax liabilities of federal employees.

4. The head of each agency shall designate, or provide for the designation of, the officers or employees whose duty it shall be to withhold taxes, file required returns, and direct the payment of such taxes withheld, in accordance with the terms of agreements entered into between the Secretary of the Treasury and the States or Territories.

5. Nothing in this order, or in rules or regulations issued hereunder, or in any agreement entered into pursuant thereto, shall be deemed to consent to the application of any provision of law of any State or Territory which has the effect of imposing more burdensome requirements upon the United States than it imposes upon other employers, or which has the effect of subjecting the United States or any of its officers or employees to any penalty or liability.

6. As used in this order—

(a) The term "agency" means each department, commission, authority, administration, board, or other independent establishment of the Government of the United States, including any wholly-owned instrumentality of the United States, but such term does not include governments of the possessions or units of the legislative or judicial branches of the United States except to the extent that any such units may by specific statutory provision be subject to laws relating generally to the executive branch of the Government;

(b) The term "Armed Forces of the United States" includes all regular and reserve components of the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Marine Corps, and the Coast Guard.

(c) The term "employees" as applied to employees of the United States includes officers and means individuals appointed by a federal officer and engaged in the performance of federal functions in an agency as defined in paragraph (a), above, under authority of an act of Congress or an Executive order, who in the performance of their duties are supervised and directed by a federal officer, but the term does not include retired personnel, pensioners, annuitants, or similar beneficiaries of the federal government, whether their status is civilian or in the Armed Forces of the United States, who are not performing active service, or persons receiving remuneration for services on a contract-fee basis.

(d) The term "regular place of federal employment" means the place where an employee actually performs his services, irrespective of his residence, except when such services are performed in a travel or temporary duty status, in which case his "regular place of federal employment" will be the place to which he will normally be expected to proceed for the purpose of performing further services in connection with his federal employment on the termination of travel or temporary duty status.

7. I hereby delegate to the Secretary of the Treasury authority to prescribe such rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith as may be necessary further to effectuate the provisions of the act of July 17, 1952, or of this order.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

TITLE 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 24—FORMAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FOR APPOINTMENT TO CERTAIN SCIENTIFIC, TECHNICAL, AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

INDIAN SCHOOLS

1. The headnote to § 24.14 and paragraph (a) (1) of that section are amended to read as follows:

§ 24.14 Teacher and Substitute (Temporary) Teacher, GS–1710–5–7, in Indian Schools—(a) Educational requirement—(1) Elementary. Completion of a full four-year course, leading to a degree from an accredited college or university, including or supplemented by 24 semester hours in education, 12 of which must be in elementary education.

NOTE: For temporary appointment of substitute elementary teacher, this educational requirement may be modified to require only two full years of study in the education department of an accredited college or university.

2. Sections 24.115, 24.116, 24.117, and 24.118 are hereby added as follows:

§ 24.115 Principal (Day School), GS–1710–9–11, Principal (Boarding School), GS–1710–9–12, Reservation Principal, GS–1710–9–13, School Superintendent, GS–1710–12–13, in Indian Schools—(a) Educational requirement. Completion of a full four-year course, leading to a degree from an accredited college or university, including or supplemented by 18 semester hours in education.

(b) Duties. Principals and Superintendents are responsible for planning an educational program to meet the special need of the students, which includes development of curricula and standards of instructions, evaluation of teacher performance, integration of school and community programs, supervision of the staff, and administration of the school plant.

(c) Knowledge and training requisite for performance of duties. The duties to be performed require a knowledge of principles, philosophy, and techniques of education; the ability to recognize special instructional problems that arise in teaching situations; and the ability to develop curricula and analyze effectiveness of the teaching program. This knowledge, understanding and ability can be gained only through a directed course of study as shown in paragraph (a) of this section, in an accredited college with well equipped libraries and thoroughly trained instructors, where guidance is expertly given and the student's progress is carefully evaluated.

§ 24.116 Department Head (Academic, Agriculture, Guidance, Home Economics, Vocational Subjects, and General), GS–1710–9, in Indian Schools—(a) Educational requirement. Completion of a full four-year course leading to a degree from an accredited college or university with a major in a subject matter area in which the duties are to be performed, including or supplemented by 18 semester hours of education.

(b) Duties. Department Heads are responsible for organizing a subject matter department and supervising its activities so that the knowledge and skills of the field of specialization will be efficiently taught. Department Heads establish overall course objectives and collaborate with the staff on preparation of instructional material and teaching techniques. They keep pertinent records for the departments.

NOTE: The Department Head (Academic) is responsible for organizing instruction either in the elementary grades or in one of the subject matter fields taught at the secondary level, other than agriculture, home economics, guidance, and vocational subjects.

The Department Head (General) is responsible for the organization of two subject matter fields in any combination of elementary grades, agriculture, home economics, guidance, vocational subjects or any of the other subjects taught at the secondary level.

(c) Knowledge and training requisite for performance of duties. The duties to be performed require a knowledge of principles, philosophy, and techniques of education; the ability to recognize special instructional problems that arise in teaching situations; thorough knowledge of one or more subject matter fields being taught, ability to integrate the department program with remainder of school program. This knowledge, understanding, and ability can be gained only through a directed course of study as shown in paragraph (a) of this section, in an accredited college with well-equipped libraries and thoroughly trained instructors, where guidance is expertly given and the student's progress is carefully evaluated.

§ 24.117 Director of Schools, GS–1710–12–13–14, in Indian Schools—(a) Educational requirement. Completion of a full four-year course leading to a degree from an accredited college or university, including or supplemented by major study in education.

(b) Duties. The Director of Schools is responsible for planning and developing an educational program to meet the special needs of the students; giving technical assistance to the staff in the development of curricula, course materials and teaching aids; for reviewing teaching methods and techniques; and also for recruitment, supervision, training and management of educational personnel.

(c) Knowledge and training requisite for performance of duties. The duties to be performed require a knowledge of the professional principles and philosophy of education, its theories, practices and techniques; comprehensive knowledge of educational and child psychology and the demonstrated ability to utilize this knowledge to facilitate learning; outstanding ability to evaluate the educational and vocational needs of the area and to plan a program to meet these needs. This knowledge and training can be obtained only through a directed course of study in an accredited college with well equipped libraries and thoroughly trained instructors, where guidance is expertly given and student progress is competently evaluated.

§ 24.118 Principal-Teacher, GS–1710–7–9, in Indian Schools—(a) Educational requirement. Completion of a full four-year course, leading to a degree from an accredited college or university, including or supplemented by 24 semester hours in education, 12 of which must be in elementary education.

(b) Duties. Principal-Teachers are responsible for the administration and development of the school and community programs; for the guidance and supervision of the teachers and custodial employees assigned to the school; for teaching in the elementary grades; for all school property, records, reports and correspondence; and for issuing supplies and equipment.

(c) Knowledge and training requisite for performance of duties. The duties to be performed require a knowledge of teaching principles and techniques and philosophy of education; the ability to recognize special instructional problems that arise in teaching situations; and the ability to integrate the school program with community activities as educative factors. This knowledge, understanding, and ability can be gained only through a directed course of study as shown in paragraph (a) of this section, in an accredited college with well-equipped libraries and thoroughly trained instructors, where guidance is expertly given and the student's progress is carefully evaluated.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VII—Production and Marketing Administration (Agricultural Adjustment), Department of Agriculture

PART 725—BURLEY AND FLUE-CURED TOBACCO

PROCLAMATION OF NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA FOR BURLEY TOBACCO FOR 1953–54 MARKETING YEAR AND APPORTIONMENT OF THE QUOTA AMONG THE SEVERAL STATES

§ 725.403 Basis and purpose. (a) Sections 725.403 and 725.404 are issued (1) to announce the reserve supply level and the total supply of Burley tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, and to establish the amount of the national marketing quota for Burley tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953; and (2) to apportion the national marketing quota among the several States. The findings and determinations by the Secretary contained in §§ 725.403 and 725.404 have been made on the basis of the latest available statistics of the Federal Government, and after due consideration of data, views and recommendations received from Burley tobacco producers and others as provided in a notice (17 F. R. 8922) given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003).

(b) Since the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, requires the holding of a referendum of Burley tobacco producers within 30 days after the issuance of the proclamation of the national marketing quota to determine whether such producers favor marketing quotas and requires, insofar as practicable, the mailing of notices of farm acreage allotments to farm operators prior to the date of the referendum, it is hereby found that compliance with the 30-day effective date provision of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest. Therefore, the proclamation and apportionment of the Burley tobacco national marketing quota contained herein shall become effective upon the date of filing with the Federal Register.

§ 725.404 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for Burley tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953 [1]—(a) Reserve supply level. The reserve supply level for Burley tobacco is 1,569,000,000 pounds, calculated, as provided in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, from a normal year's domestic consumption of 520,000,000 pounds and a normal year's exports of 39,000,000 pounds.

[1] Rounded to the nearest million pounds.

(b) Total supply. The total supply of Burley tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, is 1,674,000,000 pounds consisting of carry-over of 1,063,000,000 pounds and estimated 1952 production of 611,000,000 pounds.

(c) Carry-over. The estimated carry-over of Burley tobacco at the beginning of the marketing year for such tobacco beginning October 1, 1953, is 1,114,000,000 pounds calculated by subtracting the estimated disappearance for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, of 560,000,000 pounds from the total supply of such tobacco.

(d) National marketing quota. The amount of Burley tobacco which will make available during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953, a supply of Burley tobacco equal to the reserve supply level of such tobacco is 455,000,000 pounds and a national marketing quota of such amount is hereby proclaimed. It is determined, however, that a national marketing quota in the amount of 455,000,000 pounds would result in undue restriction of marketings during the 1953–54 marketing year and such amount is hereby increased by 20 percent. Therefore, the amount of the national marketing quota for Burley tobacco in terms of the total quantity of such tobacco which may be marketed during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953, is 546,000,000 pounds.

(e) Apportionment of the quota. The national marketing quota proclaimed in paragraph (d) of this section is hereby apportioned among the several States pursuant to section 313 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and converted into State Acreage allotments in accordance with section 313 (g) of the Act as follows:

State:	Acreage allotment
Alabama	47
Arkansas	77
Georgia	109
Illinois	9
Indiana	10,700
Kansas	167
Kentucky	281,283
Missouri	4,676
North Carolina	12,231
Ohio	13,810
Oklahoma	5
Pennsylvania	2
South Carolina	5
Tennessee	83,589
Virginia	13,987
West Virginia	3,651
Reserve [1]	2,133

[1] Acreage reserved for establishing allotments for farms upon which no Burley tobacco has been grown during the past five years.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 312, 313, 52 Stat. 38, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1301, 1312, 1313)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of November 1952. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

PART 726—FIRE-CURED, DARK AIR-CURED, AND VIRGINIA SUN-CURED TOBACCO

PROCLAMATION OF NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA FOR VIRGINIA SUN-CURED TOBACCO FOR 1953–54 MARKETING YEAR, AND APPORTIONMENT OF THE QUOTA AMONG THE SEVERAL STATES

§ 726.401 Basis and purpose. (a) Sections 726.401 and 726.402 are issued (1) to announce the reserve supply level and the total supply of Virginia sun-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, and to establish the amount of the national marketing quota for Virginia sun-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953; and (2) to apportion the quota among the several States. The findings and determinations contained in §§ 726.401 and 726.402 have been made on the basis of the latest available statistics of the Federal Government, and after due consideration of the data, views, and recommendations received from Virginia sun-cured tobacco producers and others as provided in a notice (17 F. R. 8922) given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003).

(b) Since the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, requires the holding of a referendum of Virginia sun-cured tobacco producers within 30 days after the issuance of the proclamation of the national marketing quota to determine whether such producers favor marketing quotas and requires, insofar as practicable, the mailing of notices of farm acreage allotments to farm operators prior to the date of the referendum, it is hereby found that with respect to the proclamation and apportionment of the quota for Virginia sun-cured tobacco compliance with the 30-day effective date provision of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest. Therefore, the proclamation and apportionment of the Virginia sun-cured tobacco national marketing quota contained herein shall become effective upon the date of filing with the Federal Register.

§ 726.402 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for Virginia sun-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953 [1]—(a) Reserve supply level. The reserve supply level for Virginia sun-cured tobacco is 8,249,000 pounds, calculated, as provided in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, from a normal year's domestic consumption of 2,600,000 pounds and a normal year's exports of 428,000 pounds.

(b) Total supply. The total supply of Virginia sun-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, is 6,995,000 pounds consisting of a carry-over of 2,900,000 pounds and estimated 1952 production of 4,095,000 pounds.

(c) Carry-over. The estimated carry-over of Virginia sun-cured tobacco at the beginning of the marketing year for such tobacco beginning October 1, 1953, is 3,355,000 pounds calculated by subtracting the estimated disappearance for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, of 3,600,000 pounds from the total supply of such tobacco.

(d) National marketing quota. The amount of Virginia sun-cured tobacco which will make available during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953, a supply of Virginia sun-cured tobacco equal to the reserve supply level of such tobacco is 4,854,000 pounds and a national marketing quota of such amount is hereby proclaimed.

(e) Apportionment of the quota. Since Virginia sun-cured tobacco is grown only in the State of Virginia, the quota is apportioned only to that State under section 313 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. The national marketing quota proclaimed in paragraph (d) of this section, less 24,000 pounds reserved for establishing allotments for farms upon which no Virginia sun-cured tobacco has been grown within the past five years, becomes the State marketing quota for Virginia. The State marketing quota is hereby converted in accordance with section 313 (g) of the act into a State acreage allotment of 4,929 acres. Likewise, the reserve of 24,000 pounds for establishing allotments for farms upon which no Virginia sun-cured tobacco has been grown within the past five years is hereby converted into 24 acres.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 312, 313, 52 Stat. 38, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1301, 1312, 1313)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of November 1952. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Lemon Reg. 460]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.567 Lemon Regulation 460—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 14 F. R. 3612), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as provided in this section, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on November 5, 1952; such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 9, 1952, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 16, 1952, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 210 carloads;

(iii) District 3: 15 carloads.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached to Lemon Regulation 459 (17 F. R. 9845) and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3," shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of November 1952.

PART 994—PECANS GROWN IN GEORGIA, ALABAMA, FLORIDA, MISSISSIPPI, AND SOUTH CAROLINA

CHANGES IN REPORTING DATES

Pursuant to authorization contained in § 994.6 (b) (4) of the marketing agreement and order (7 CFR, 1951 Supp., Part 994), regulating the handling of pecans grown in Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, and South Carolina, which program is effective under the Agricultural Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of a recommendation and information furnished by the Pecan Administrative Committee and other available information, the changes set forth below are being made with respect to the day of the week on which pecan handlers must furnish certain reports with respect to price information on pecans.

It is now required in § 994.6 (b) (2) of the aforementioned regulatory program that each pecan handler "shall furnish to the Secretary each Friday during the period October 15 through January 31 of each fiscal period the following price information for the then current week: Prices paid by the handler to growers for orchard-run pecans by varieties as specified by the Committee." It is also now required in § 994.6 (b) (3) of said regulatory program that each pecan handler "shall furnish to the Secretary each Friday during the periods October 15 through January 31 and August 15 through September 30 of each fiscal period the following price information for the then current week: Prices received by the handler by grade, pack, and size on basis of either f. o. b. shipping point or delivered destination."

These reports on prices from individual pecan handlers provide the bases for the summaries of grower prices and f. o. b. prices in respect to pecans for each week of the prescribed reporting periods which is made available to interested parties upon request. The present requirement as to the day of the week on which such reports must be furnished, however, results in a situation where the summary for a week cannot be made available for distribution before Tuesday of the following week. This means that such summaries do not come into the hands of pecan growers and handlers until the following Wednesday at the earliest and, in many instances, not until the following Thursday or Friday. Because of this time lag, the value of these summaries to pecan growers and handlers is reduced substantially.

With a view to making these summaries available as soon as practicable and thereby enhancing their value to the pecan industry, the Pecan Administrative Committee, at its meeting in Albany, Georgia, on October 2, 1952, by unanimous vote adopted a recommendation that pecan handlers be required to furnish the aforementioned reports on Wednesday, instead of Friday, of each week during the periods of each fiscal year when such reports are required by the provisions of said § 994.6 (b) (2) and (3). The making of such a change in these circumstances is authorized in § 994.6 (b) (4) of this regulatory program.

The proposed change in the day of the week (i. e., to Wednesday instead of Friday) will enable each price summary to be compiled and issued not later than Friday of the particular week for which such report is furnished. This earlier reporting date will enable growers and handlers to receive more timely price information than is now practicable.

In view of the proposed change in the day of reporting prices from Friday to Wednesday, the price information should cover the seven (7) day period ending on Wednesday.

Therefore, after consideration of all relevant matters, it is hereby ordered as follows:

§ 994.501 Day of week for filing reports as to prices. Effective on and after November 8, 1952, the day of each week for the filing of the weekly reports as to prices prescribed in § 994.6 (b) (2) and (3) shall be Wednesday, rather than Friday.

It is hereby found that it is unnecessary and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, or postpone the effective date of this order later than the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER for the following reasons: (1) The handling of the 1952 crop of pecans has already begun, the filing of such reports is now required, and the current reports should reflect the change at the earliest date practicable; (2) pecan handlers are generally aware of the actions taken by the Pecan Administrative Committee in recommending the changes; (3) handlers will not be required to change their methods of keeping price records or be subjected to additional expense as a result of the change in the day of reporting prices; and (4) the pecan industry, including both handlers and growers, are generally desirous of having such change made, as evidenced by the unanimous vote on the matter by the Pecan Administrative Committee, and its subsidiary body, the Handlers Advisory Council.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D .C., this 5th day of November 1952, to become effective upon publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[B. A. I. Order 309, Amdt. 16]

PART 76—HOG CHOLERA, SWINE PLAGUE, AND OTHER COMMUNICABLE SWINE DISEASE

CHANGES IN AREAS QUARANTINED BECAUSE OF VASICULAR EXANTHEMA

Pursuant to the authority conferred by sections 1 and 3 of the act of March 3, 1905, as amended (21 U. S. C. 123 and 125), sections 1 and 2 of the act of February 2, 1903, as amended (21 U. S. C. 111 and 120), and section 7 of the act of May 29, 1884, as amended (21 U. S. C. 117), § 76.10 in Part 76 of Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations, containing a notice of the existence in certain areas of the swine disease known as vesicular exanthema and establishing a quarantine because of such disease, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 76.10 Notice and quarantine. (a) Notice is hereby given that the contagious, infectious and communicable disease of swine known as vesicular exanthema exists in the following areas:

The State of California, except Modoc and Siskiyou Counties;
St. Clair County, Jarvis Township in Madison County; Columbia Township in Monroe County, in Illinois;
Bristol County in Massachusetts;
Thetford, Forest, Genesee and Richfield Townships in Genesee County; Green Oak Township in Livingston County; Lyon and Novi Townships in Oakland County; Ann Arbor, Dexter, Lima, Northfield, Salem, Scio, Superior and Webster Townships in Washtenaw County; and Canton and Northville Townships in Wayne County, in Michigan;
St. Louis County in Missouri;
Burlington, Camden, Gloucester, Hudson, Morris, and Ocean Counties in New Jersey;
New York County and Clarkstown Township in Rockland County, in New York;
Council Grove, Mustang, Oklahoma and Greeley Townships in Oklahoma County, in Oklahoma;
York County in Pennsylvania;
Dallas County, Tarrant County, and that part of Parker County lying north of U. S. Highway 180 and east of State Highway No. 51, in Texas.

(b) The Secretary of Agriculture, having determined that swine in the States named in paragraph (a) of this section are affected with the contagious, infectious and communicable disease known as vesicular exanthema and that it is necessary to quarantine the areas specified in paragraph (a) of this section and the following additional areas in such States, in order to prevent the spread of said disease from such States, hereby quarantines the areas specified in paragraph (a) of this section and in addition Bergen, Essex, and Union Counties in New Jersey.

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective upon issuance. This amendment includes within the areas in which vesicular exanthema has been found to exist, and in which a quarantine has been established.

Bristol County in Massachusetts;
Thetford, Forest, Genesee and Richfield Townships in Genesee County; Green Oak Township in Livingston County; Lyon and Novi Townships in Oakland County; Ann Arbor, Dexter, Lima, Northfield, Salem, Scio, Superior and Webster Townships in Washtenaw County; and Canton and Northville Townships in Wayne County, in Michigan.
Camden County in New Jersey;
York County in Pennsylvania;
Dallas County in Texas.

Hereafter, all of the restrictions of the quarantine and regulations in 9 CFR Part 76, Subpart B, as amended (17 F. R. 7070, 9553) apply with respect to shipments of swine and carcasses, parts and offal of swine from these areas.

This amendment excludes from the areas in which vesicular exanthema has been found to exist, and in which a quarantine has been established.

Pulaski County in Arkansas;
Modoc and Siskiyou Counties in California;
Honor Farm of the Federal Penitentiary, in DeKalb County, in Georgia;
Aurora Township in Kane County, in Illinois;
Wabash Township in Tippecanoe County, in Indiana;
Oshtemo Township in Kalamazoo County, in Michigan;

This amendment also removes Hunterdon County in New Jersey from designation as a quarantined area.

Hereafter, none of the restrictions of the quarantine and regulations in 9 CFR Part 76, Subpart B, as amended (17 F. R. 7070, 9553) apply with respect to shipments of swine and carcasses, parts and offal of swine from these areas.

The foregoing amendment in part relieves restrictions presently imposed and must be made effective immediately to be of maximum benefit to persons subject to such restrictions. In part the amendment imposes further restrictions necessary to prevent the spread of vesicular exanthema, a communicable disease of swine, and to this extent it must be made effective immediately to accomplish its purpose in the public interest. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the foregoing amendment are impracticable and contrary to the public interest and good cause is found for making the amendment effective less than 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Secs. 4, 5, 23 Stat. 32, as amended, sec. 2, 32 Stat. 792, as amended, secs. 1, 3, 33 Stat. 1264, as amended, 1265, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 120, 111, 123, 125. Interprets or applies sec. 7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 117)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of November 1952.

In the sale of table salt in commerce, discriminating, directly or indirectly, in the price of such products of like grade and quality, (1) by selling such table salt to any wholesaler thereof at prices different from the prices charged any other wholesaler who in fact competes with said wholesaler in the sale or distribution of such table salt; (2) by selling such table salt to any retailer thereof at prices different from the prices charged any other retailer who in fact competes with said retailer in the sale or distribution of such table salt; and, (3) by selling such table salt to any retailer thereof at prices lower than prices charged any wholesaler whose customers compete with such retailer in the sale or distribution of such table salt; it being understood that for the purpose of comparison, the term "price" as used in the order takes into account discounts, rebates, allowances, and other terms and conditions of sale; and, II. in the aforesaid connection, (1) paying or allowing, or contracting to pay or allow, anything of value to, or for the benefit of, any customer for advertising or display services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the sale or offering for sale of said table salt, unless such payment or consideration is made available on proportionally equal terms to all of its other customers competing with said favored customer in the resale of such table salt; or, (2) paying or allowing, or contracting to pay or allow, anything of value to, or for the benefit of, any customer as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the handling, processing, sale, or offering for sale of said table salt, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all of its other customers competing with said favored customer in the sale or distribution of such table salt; prohibited.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 2, 38 Stat. 730, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 13) [Cease and desist order, International Salt Company et al., Scranton, Pa., Docket 4307, August 22, 1952]

Pursuant to the provisions of an act of Congress entitled "An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes", approved October 15, 1914

(the Clayton Act), as amended by an act of Congress approved June 19, 1936 (the Robinson-Patman Act), and by virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Trade Commission by the aforesaid act, the Federal Trade Commission, on September 9, 1940, issued and subsequently served its original complaint in this proceeding upon the respondents named in the caption hereof, together with two other named corporations, charging each of them with violation of the provisions of subsection (a) of section 2 of the aforesaid Clayton Act, as amended. On April 2, 1942, the Commission issued and subsequently served its first amended complaint charging the same respondents as named in the original complaint with violation of the provisions of subsections (a) and (d) of section 2 of the aforesaid Clayton Act, as amended. After the issuance of the first amended complaint and the filing of respondents' answers thereto, testimony and other evidence in support of the allegations of said complaint were taken before a hearing examiner of the Commission duly designated by it. Thereafter, on June 5, 1943, the Commission issued and subsequently served its second amended complaint upon the respondents named in the caption hereof, charging each of them with violation of the provisions of subsections (a) and (d) of section 2 of the aforesaid Clayton Act, as amended. After the filing of respondents' answers to the second amended complaint, testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of said complaint were introduced before the hearing examiner of the Commission previously designated by it. All of the testimony and other evidence introduced before said hearing examiner were duly recorded and filed in the office of the Commission. Thereafter, this proceeding, regularly came on for final hearing before the Commission upon the second amended complaint, the answers thereto, testimony and other evidence, the recommended decision of the hearing examiner and respondents' exceptions thereto, and briefs and oral argument of counsel; and the Commission, having duly considered the matter and having entered its order disposing of the exceptions to the hearing examiner's recommended decision and being now fully advised in the premises, makes this its findings as to the facts [1] and its conclusion drawn therefrom:[1]

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon an amended complaint of the Commission, the respondents' answers thereto, testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of said amended complaint introduced before a hearing examiner of the Commission, theretofore duly designated by it, the hearing examiner's recommended decision and exceptions thereto, and briefs and oral argument of counsel, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondents have violated the provisions of subsection (a) of section 2, and that respondent International Salt Company has violated subsection (d) of section 2, of the act of Congress entitled "An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes", approved October 15, 1914 (the Clayton Act), as amended by an act of Congress approved June 19, 1936 (the Robinson-Patman Act):

It is ordered, That respondent International Salt Company, a corporation, and respondent Eastern Salt Company, a corporation, and their respective officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in the sale of table salt in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid Clayton Act, do forthwith cease and desist from discriminating, directly or indirectly, in the price of such products of like grade and quality:

1. By selling such table salt to any wholesaler thereof at prices different from the prices charged any other wholesaler who in fact competes with said wholesaler in the sale or distribution of such table salt.

2. By selling such table salt to any retailer thereof at prices different from the prices charged any other retailer who in fact competes with said retailer in the sale or distribution of such table salt.

3. By selling such table salt to any retailer thereof at prices lower than prices charged any wholesaler whose customers compete with such retailer in the sale or distribution of such table salt.

For the purpose of comparison, the term "price" as used in this order takes into account discounts, rebates, allowances, and other terms and conditions of sale.

It is further ordered, That respondent International Salt Company, a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the sale of table salt in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid Clayton Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Paying or allowing, or contracting to pay or allow, anything of value to, or for the benefit of, any customer for advertising or display services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the sale or offering for sale of said table salt, unless such payment or consideration is made available on proportionally equal terms to all of its other customers competing with said favored customer in the resale of such table salt.

2. Paying or allowing, or contracting to pay or allow, anything of value to, or for the benefit of, any customer as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the handling, processing, sale, or offering for sale of said table salt, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all of its other customers competing with said favored customer in the sale or distribution of such table salt.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have compiled with this order.

By the Commission, Commissioner Carretta not participating for the reason that oral argument on the merits was heard prior to his appointment to the Commission.

Issued: August 22, 1952.

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 39]

PART 608—DANGER AREAS

ALTERATIONS

The danger area alterations appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Subcommittee, and are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Since a military function of the United States is involved, compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

Part 608 is amended as follows:

1. In § 608.41, the Bogue Sound, North Carolina, areas (D-118, D-119 and D-120), published on July 16, 1949 in 14 F. R. 4294, and revised by adding area (3) on June 13, 1951 in 16 F. R. 5616, are deleted.

2. In § 608.41, the Brant Island, North Carolina, area (D-379), published on September 22, 1951 in 16 F. R. 9680, and amended on October 31, 1951 in 16 F. R. 11068, is deleted.

3. In § 608.41, the Cherry Point, North Carolina, areas (D-123 and D-125), published on August 16, 1950 in 15 F. R. 5429, and amended on April 17, 1952 in 17 F. R. 3405, are revised to read:

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IV—Joint Regulations of the Armed Forces

Subchapter A—Armed Services Procurement Regulations

PART 407—TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The following additions and amendments are made to Part 407—Termination of Contracts (17 F. R. 1791, February 29, 1952), all of which refer to the termination for convenience of nonprofit research and development contracts with educational and other nonprofit institutions. Additional §§ 407.307 (c) and 407.402 (e), and amended § 407.501 adopt a system of cost principles applicable to a fund system of accounting as normally used by educational institutions. Amended § 407.522-6 eliminates the requirement that the above-mentioned contractors pay interest on overpayments made by the government, if such overpayments are repaid within 30 days after demand. Amended § 407.608-3 provides for a simplified procedure for the disposition of government-owned scientific equipment to contractors having custody thereof. Additional § 407.704 prescribes a uniform termination clause for the contracts mentioned above.

SUBPART C—TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE

In § 407.307 Settlement agreements the following paragraph (c) is added:

(c) Under a terminated cost contract (without fixed-fee) if the Contractor elects to cost out on "1034 vouchers" no settlement agreement will be required. Under terminated cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts where the negotiated settlement is limited to the fixed fee the settlement agreement should cover only the fixed fee.

SUBPART D—GENERAL PRINCIPLES APPLICABLE TO THE SETTLEMENT OF TERMINATED FIXED-PRICE CONTRACTS

1. Paragraph (e) Research and development contracts, is added to § 407.402 Statement of Principles for consideration of costs, and follows paragraph (d) Limitation on certain costs:

(e) Research and development contracts. This section (except for the general policies contained in the paragraph (a) of this section) and §§ 407.403, 407.404, 407.405 are not applicable to nonprofit research and development contracts with educational and other nonprofit institutions provided such contracts incorporate, or are negotiated on the basis of, the cost principles set forth in Part 414, Subpart C, of this subchapter. Cost principles relating to the settlement of such contracts are as set forth in § 407.406.

2. Section 407.406 Cost principles applicable to the settlement of certain terminated research and development contracts is added to Part 407, Subpart D:

§ 407.406 Cost principles applicable to the settlement of certain terminated research and development contracts. In considering cost data as a basis for negotiation or determination of settlements under research and development contracts (whether fixed-price or cost-type) with educational or nonprofit institutions, the following items of costs shall be considered for reimbursement, subject to the general policies set forth in the first paragraph of § 407.402, provided such contracts incorporate, or were negotiated on the basis of, the cost principles set forth in Part 414, Subpart C, of this subchapter, and provided further such contracts are placed on a no-fee or no-profit basis:

(a) Costs incurred in the performance of the work terminated, determined on the basis of the principles set forth in Part 414, Subpart C, of this subchapter, entitled respectively "Contract Cost Principles" and "Research Contracts with Nonprofit Institutions."

(b) Subject to the general principles set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, and irrespective of whether particular costs are treated by the Contractor as direct or indirect, the costs described below shall be included to the extent that they are allocable to the terminated portion of the contract or the part thereof under consideration:

(1) Common claims of Subcontractors: The claims of Subcontractors which are common to the contract and to other work of the Contractor.

(2) Costs continuing after termination: If in a particular case it is impossible to discontinue certain costs and expenses immediately after the effective date of termination, such costs and expenses occurring after the termination date may be considered.

(3) Subcontracted services.

(4) Settlement expenses: Reasonable accounting, legal, clerical, and other expenses necessary in connection with the termination and settlement of the contract and subcontracts and purchase orders thereunder, including expenses incurred for the purpose of obtaining payment from the Government but only to the extent reasonably necessary for the preparation and presentation of settlement proposals and cost evidence in connection therewith. (Settlement expenses include reasonable storage, transportation, and other costs incurred for the protection of properly acquired or produced for the contract or in connection with the disposition of such property.)

(5) Special leases: Rental under a bona fide lease clearly shown to have been reasonably necessary for the performance of the terminated contract, less the residual value of such lease, may be considered: Provided, That (i) the amount of such rental which may be considered shall not exceed the reasonable use value of the premises leased for the period of the contract and such further period as may be reasonable, and (ii) the Contractor makes all reasonable efforts to terminate, assign, settle, or otherwise reduce the cost of such lease. (Subject to the foregoing limitations, there may also be considered the cost of reasonable alterations of premises so leased, provided such alterations were necessary for the performance of the contract, and reasonable restoration costs to the extent required by the provisions of the lease.)

(6) Severance pay to the extent required by law, employer-employee agreement or by the Contractor's established policy and which is reasonably allocable to the terminated portion of the contract.

(7) Costs arising under specific contract provisions.

(8) Property damage: The direct cost of property damage which has resulted from the removal of a Government-owned or Contractor-owned special facility for delivery to the Government or other disposition at the direction of the Contracting Officer.

SUBPART E—SETTLEMENT OF CONTRACTS TERMINATED FOR CONVENIENCE

GENERAL

Section 407.501 Methods of settlement is amended to read as follows:

§ 407.501 Methods of settlement. Settlement of contracts terminated for the convenience of the Government may be effected by (a) negotiated agreement, (b) determination by the Contracting Officer, (c) in the case of cost-type contracts costing out under "1034 vouchers," or (d) a combination of these methods. The negotiated agreement is the most expeditious and most satisfactory method of settling termination claims. This method will be used for settlement whenever feasible. Other methods of settlement should be resorted to only when a termination claim cannot be fairly settled by agreement.

COST-TYPE CONTRACTS

Section 407.522–6 Limitation on total amount; effect of overpayment is amended to read as follows:

§ 407.522–6 Limitation on total amount; effect of overpayment. The total amount of any partial payment or payments made under this section shall not exceed the amount which will in the opinion of the Contracting Officer, become due to the Contractor by reason of the termination. If the total of partial payments made to the Contractor should exceed the amount finally determined to be due to the Contractor on its termination claim, the excess shall be repayable to the Government on demand, together with interest computed at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the date such excess payment was made to the date of repayment: Provided, however, That no interest shall be charged with respect to any such excess payment attributable to a reduction in the contract termination claim by reason of retention or other disposition of termination inventory: And provided, further, That no interest shall be charged with respect to overpayments when in connection with research and development contracts which provide for performance at cost (without profit or fee to the Contractor) if such overpayments are repaid to the Government within 30 days after demand. Where credits for disposition of termination inventory reduce the amount of the termination claim below the total amount of partial payments previously made, the difference shall be repayable to the Government without interest within 10 days after notice to Contractor that such payments have become excessive. If not repaid within such time, the Government may demand repayment, with interest, computed at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the date such payments became excessive.

SUBPART F—TERMINATION INVENTORY

Section 407.608–3 Other sales, is amended to read as follows:

§ 407.608–3 Other sales. (a) Acquisitions or sales, other than those under paragraph (b) of this section, may be authorized without competitive bids only in exceptional or unusual cases. Such sales to the Contractor at market price may be approved by the Contracting Officer. Any other such sales without competitive bids under this paragraph shall be at a price which is fair and reasonable as set forth in § 407.608–2 (b).

(b) After such appropriate screening as may be provided by the regulations of the various departments, scientific equipment allocated to terminated research and development contracts with educational institutions may be sold to the Contractor in possession for use in educational or research pursuits without obtaining competitive bids. Prices under which such equipment is transferred shall be based upon negotiations between the Contractor and the Contracting Officer, provided that such prices shall be fair and reasonable and not less than the proceeds that could reasonably be expected to be obtained if the property were offered for competitive sale at such time. Such sales to the Contractor at market price may be approved by the Contracting Officer.

(c) Any sales made under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, without competitive bids, except at market price as provided in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, in which the original acquisition cost of the materials involved exceeds $1,000 shall be subject to the prior approval of a property disposal board, or such other reviewing agency as may be designated by Departmental Procedures, in addition to the required approval of the Contracting Officer under § 407.608–1. Where time is of the essence, such approvals as are required may be obtained orally by the Contracting Officer.

SUBPART G—FORMS

The following §§ 407.704 (formerly Reserved) and 407.704–1 are added to Part 407, Subpart G:

§ 407.704 Termination clause for research and development contracts with educational and other nonprofit institutions. The following standard clause shall be used in any research or development contract (whether fixed-price or cost-type) with an educational or nonprofit institution, provided such contract incorporates, or was negotiated on the basis of, the cost principles set forth in Part 414, Subpart C, of this subchapter, and provided further such contract is placed on a no-fee or no-profit basis.

TERMINATION FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF THE GOVERNMENT

(a) The performance of work under this contract may be terminated, in whole or from time to time in part, by the Government whenever for any reason the Contracting Officer shall determine that such termination is in the best interests of the Government. Termination of work hereunder shall be effected by delivery to the Contractor of a Notice of Termination specifying the extent to which performance of work under the contract is terminated and the date upon which such termination becomes effective.

(b) After receipt of the Notice of Termination the Contractor shall cancel its outstanding commitments hereunder covering the procurement of materials, supplies, equipment and miscellaneous items. In addition the Contractor shall exercise all reasonable diligence to accomplish the cancellation or diversion of its outstanding commitments covering personal services and extending beyond the date of such termination to the extent that they relate to the performance of any work terminated by the notice. With respect to such cancelled commitments the Contractor agrees to (i) settle all outstanding liabilities and all claims arising out of such cancellation of commitments, with the approval or ratification of the Contracting Officer, to the extent he may require, which approval or ratification shall be final for all purposes of this clause, and (ii) assign to the Government, in the manner, at the time, and to the extent directed by the Contracting Officer, all of the right, title and interest of the Contractor under the Orders and Subcontracts so terminated.

(c) The Contractor shall submit its termination claim to the Contracting Officer promptly after receipt of a Notice of Termination, but in no event later than two years from the effective date thereof, unless one or more extensions in writing are granted by the Contracting Officer upon written request of the Contractor within such two year period or authorized extension thereof. Upon failure of the Contractor to submit its termination claim within the time allowed, the Contracting Officer may determine, on the basis of information available to him, the amount, if any, due to the Contractor by reason of the Termination and shall thereupon pay to the Contractor the amount so determined.

(d) Any determination of costs under paragraph (c) shall be governed by the cost principles set forth in § 407.406 of Part 407 of the Armed Services Procurement Regulation, as in effect on the date of this contract.

(e) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) above, the Contractor and the Contracting Officer may agree upon the whole or any part of the amount or amounts to be paid to the Contractor by reason of the termination under this clause, which amount or amounts may include any reasonable cancellation charges thereby incurred by the Contractor and any reasonable loss upon outstanding commitments for personal services which it is unable to cancel: Provided, however, That in connection with any outstanding commitments for personal services which the Contractor is unable to cancel, the Contractor shall have exercised reasonable diligence to divert such commitments to its other activities and operations. Any such agreement shall be embodied in an amendment to this contract and the Contractor shall be paid the agreed amount.

(f) The Government may from time to time, under such terms and conditions as it may prescribe, make partial payments against costs incurred by the Contractor in connection with the terminated portion of this contract whenever, in the opinion of the Contracting Officer, the aggregate of such payments is within the amount to which the Contractor will be entitled hereunder. If the total of such payments is in excess of the amount finally agreed or determined to be due under this clause, such excess shall be payable by the Contractor to the Government upon demand, Provided, That if such excess is not so paid upon demand, interest thereon shall be payable by the Contractor to the Government at the rate of 6% per annum, beginning 30 days from the date of such demand.

(g) The Contractor agrees to transfer title and deliver to the Government, in the manner, at the time and to the extent, if any, directed by the Contracting Officer, such information and items which, if the contract had been completed, would have been required to be furnished to the Government, including (i) completed or partially completed plans, drawings and information, and (ii) materials or equipment produced or in process or acquired in connection with the performance of the work terminated by the notice. Other than the above any termination inventory resulting from the termination of the contract may, with the written approval of the Contracting Officer, be sold or acquired by the Contractor under the conditions prescribed by and at a price or prices approved by the Contracting Officer. The proceeds of any such disposition shall be applied in reduction of any payments to be made by the Government to the Contractor under this contract or shall otherwise be credited to the price or cost of work covered by this contract or paid in such other manner as the Contracting Officer may direct. Pending final disposition of property arising from the termination, the Contractor agrees to take such action as may be necessary, or as the Contracting Officer may direct, for the protection and preservation of the property related to this contract which is in the possession of the Contractor and in which the Government has or may acquire an interest.

(h) Any disputes as to questions of fact which may arise hereunder shall be subject to the "Disputes" clause of this contract.

§ 407.704–1 Suggested clause for subcontracts. The clause in § 407.704 suitably altered to indicate the relationship between the prime contractor and subcontractor, is suggested for use in subcontracts placed with educational or non-profit institutions provided such subcontracts incorporate, or are negotiated on the basis of, the cost principles set forth in Part 414, Subpart C, of this subchapter, and provided further such subcontracts are placed on a no-fee or no-profit basis.

Chapter VII—Department of the Air Force

Subchapter G—Personnel

PART 881—PERSONNEL REVIEW BOARDS

AIR FORCE BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF MILITARY RECORDS

The following §§ 881.1 to 881.11 supersede §§ 881.1 to 881.13 (14 F. R. 891, 6946; 15 F. R. 6252; 32 CFR 881.1 to 881.13). Sections 881.1 to 881.11 are effective September 29, 1952.

Sec.
881.1 Purpose.
881.2 Establishment, function, and jurisdiction of the Board.
881.3 Application for correction.
881.4 Entitlement to hearing, notice, counsel, witnesses, and access to records.
881.5 Hearing.
881.6 Action by the Board.
881.7 Action by the Secretary of the Air Force.
881.8 Staff action.
881.9 Reconsideration.
881.10 Settlement of claims.
881.11 Miscellaneous.

AUTHORITY: §§ 881.1 to 881.11 issued under R. S. 161, sec. 202, 63 Stat. 500, as amended; 5 U. S. C. 22, 171a. Interpret or apply sec. 207, 60 Stat. 837, as amended; 5 U. S. C. 191a.

DERIVATION: AFR 31–3, Nov. 3, 1952.

§ 881. Purpose. The regulations contained in §§ 881.1 to 881.11 establish procedures for making application, and the consideration of applications, for the correction of military records by the Secretary of the Air Force acting through the Air Force Board for the Correction of Military Records (hereinafter referred to as the Board).

§ 881.2 Establishment, function, and jurisdiction of the Board—(a) Establishment and composition—(1) Establishment. Pursuant to the provisions of section 207 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, as amended (60 Stat. 837, as amended; 5 U. S. C. 191a) the Board is established in the Office of the Secretary of the Air Force.

(2) Composition. The Board will consist of civilian officers or employees of the Department of the Air Force in such number, not less than three, as may be appointed by the Secretary of the Air Force. Three members present shall constitute a quorum of the Board. The Secretary of the Air Force will designate one member as the Chairman. In the event of absence or incapacity of the Chairman, an Acting Chairman chosen by the Board shall act as Chairman for all purposes.

(b) Function. The function of the Board is to consider all applications properly before it for the purpose of determining the existence of an error or an injustice and to make appropriate recommendations to the Secretary of the Air Force.

(c) Jurisdiction. The Board shall have jurisdiction to review and determine all matters properly brought before it, consistent with the existing law.

§ 881.3 Application for correction—(a) General requirements—(1) Submission. The application for correction should be submitted on DD Form 149, "Application for Correction of Military or Naval Records", or exact facsimile thereof, and should be addressed to the Air Adjutant General, Headquarters United States Air Force, Attention: Personnel Records Service Division, Washington 25, D. C., DD Form 149 and explanatory matter may be obtained from the Air Adjutant General, Headquarters United States Air Force, Attention: Personnel Records Service Division, Washington 25, D. C.

(2) By whom signed. Except as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, the application shall be signed by the person requesting corrective action with respect to his record and will either be sworn to or will contain a provision to the effect that the statements submitted in the application are made with full knowledge of the penalty provided by law for making a false statement or claim (sec. 1, 62 Stat. 698, 749; 18 U. S. C. 287, 1001).

(3) When person is unable to submit application himself. When the record in question is that of a person who is incapable of making application himself, or whose whereabouts are unknown, or when such person is deceased, for the purpose of bringing the matter before the Board the application may be made (except where compliance with the provisions of the law with respect to time limitations for filing an application may require otherwise) by such person as the Board shall determine to be competent and suitable and to have a proper interest therein, including but not limited to, a spouse, a parent, or relative. Such proof of suitability and proper interest shall be submitted as may be required by the Board.

(b) Time limit for filing application. The claimant, his heirs at law, or legal representatives, must file a request for correction of a record with the Secretary of the Air Force prior to October 25, 1961, or within three years of discovery of the alleged error or injustice, whichever be the later. The failure to file such request within the time prescribed may be excused by the Board on its finding that it is in the interest of justice to do so.

(c) Exhaustion of other remedies. No application will be considered until the applicant has exhausted all effective administrative remedies afforded him by existing law or regulations, and such legal remedies as the Board shall determine are practical and appropriately available to the applicant.

(d) Other proceedings not stayed. The application to the Board for correction of a record shall not operate as a stay of any proceedings being taken with respect to the person involved.

(e) Denial of application. It shall be adequate ground for denial of any application that a sufficient basis for review has not been established or that effective relief cannot be granted.

§ 881.4 Entitlement to hearing, notice, counsel, witnesses, and access to records—(a) Entitlement to hearing. When an application has been found to be within the jurisdiction of the Board and sufficient evidence has been presented indicating probable error or injustice, the applicant will be entitled to a hearing before the Board either in person or by counsel of his own selection or in person with counsel.

(b) Notice—(1) To applicant and counsel. In each case in which a hearing is authorized, the Board will transmit to the applicant and counsel, if any, a written notice stating the time and place of hearing. The notice will be mailed to the applicant and counsel, if any, at least 30 days prior to the date of hearing, except that an earlier date may be set where the applicant waives his right to such notice in writing.

(2) Notifying Board. Upon receipt of notice of hearing, the applicant will notify the Board in writing at least 15 days prior to the date set for hearing as to whether he will be present at the hearing and will indicate to the Board the name of counsel, if represented by counsel, and the names of such witnesses as he may intend to call in his behalf. Cases in which the applicant notifies the Board that he does not desire to be present at the hearing, will be considered in accordance with § 881.5 (b) (2).

(c) Definition of counsel. As used in the regulations contained in §§ 881.1 to 881.11, the term "counsel" will be construed to include members in good standing of the Federal Bar or the Bar of any State, accredited representatives of veterans organizations recognized by the Veterans' Administration under section 200 of the act of June 29, 1936 (49 U. S. C. 2031, as amended; 38 U. S. C. 101), and such other persons who, in the opinion of the Board, are considered to be competent to present equitably and comprehensively the request of the applicant for correction, unless barred by law.

(d) Witnesses. The applicant will be permitted to present witnesses in his behalf at hearings before the Board. It will be the responsibility of the applicant to notify his witnesses and to arrange for their appearance at the time and place set for hearing.

(e) Access to records—(1) Official records. The applicant shall have access to such official records as are deemed necessary to an adequate presentation of his case. It will be the responsibility of the applicant to procure such evidence not contained in the official records of the Department of the Air Force as he desires to present in support of his case.

(2) Classified or privileged matter. Classified or privileged matter shall not be disclosed or made available without express finding of the Chairman that such disclosure is required in the case and is not detrimental to the public interest. Such disclosure shall not be contrary to existing law and departmental regulations concerning the security of classified material. When appropriate, the applicant may be supplied only with a summary or extract of classified matter.

§ 881.5 Hearing—(a) Convening the Board. The Board will be convened at the call of the Chairman and will recess or adjourn at his order.

(b) Conduct of hearing—(1) By Chairman. The hearing shall be conducted by the Chairman, and shall be subject to his rulings so as to insure a full and fair hearing. The Board shall not be limited by legal rules of evidence but shall maintain reasonable bounds of competency, relevancy, and materiality.

(2) When applicant is not present or represented at hearing. If the applicant, after being duly notified, has indicated to the Board that he does not desire to be present or to be represented by counsel at the hearing, the Board will consider the case on the basis of all the material before it, including, but not limited to, the application for correction filed by the applicant, any documentary evidence filed in support of such application, any brief submitted by or in behalf of the applicant, and all available pertinent records.

(3) When applicant fails to appear at time and place set for hearing. If the applicant, after being duly notified, has indicated to the Board that he will be present or be represented by counsel at the hearing, and without good cause and timely notice to the Board, he or his representative fails to appear at the time and place set for the hearing, the Board may consider the case in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, or will make such other disposition of the case as is indicated under the circumstances.

(4) Testimony. All testimony before the Board shall be given under oath or affirmation. The proceedings of the Board and the testimony given before it will be recorded verbatim.

(c) Continuance. The Board may continue a hearing on its own motion. A request for continuance by or in behalf of the applicant may be granted by the Board if a continuance appears necessary to insure a full and fair hearing.

§ 881.6 Action by the Board—(a) Deliberations, findings, decisions, and recommendations—(1) Deliberations. Only members of the Board and its staff shall be present during the deliberations of the Board.

(2) Further information. Whenever, during the course of its review of the case, it appears to the Board's satisfaction that the facts have not been fully and fairly disclosed by the records or by the testimony and other evidence before the Board, the Board may require the applicant to obtain, or the Board may obtain, such further information as it may consider essential to a complete and impartial determination of the facts and issues.

(3) Findings, decisions, and recommendations. Following a hearing, the Board will make written findings, decisions, and recommendations. A majority vote of the members present on any matter before the Board will constitute the action of the Board and shall be so recorded.

(4) Separate communication. Where the Board deems it necessary to submit comments or recommendations to the Secretary of the Air Force as to matters arising from but not directly related to the issues of any case, such comments and recommendations shall be the subject of separate communication.

(b) Minority report. In case of a disagreement between members of the Board a minority report may be submitted, either as to the findings, decisions, or the recommendations or to all, including the reasons therefor.

(c) Record of proceedings. When the Board has completed its proceedings, a record thereof shall be prepared. Such record shall indicate whether or not a quorum was present at the hearing and at the Board's deliberations. The record shall include the application for relief, a transcript of any testimony, affidavits, papers, and documents considered by the Board, briefs and written arguments filed in the case, the findings, decision and recommendations of the Board and all other papers, documents, and reports necessary to reflect a true and complete history of the proceedings. The record so prepared will be certified by the Chairman or his designee as being true and complete.

(d) Withdrawal. The Board may permit an applicant to withdraw his application without prejudice at any time before its proceedings are forwarded to the Secretary of the Air Force.

§ 881.7 Action by the Secretary of the Air Force. The record of proceedings of the Board will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Air Force who will direct such action in each case as he determines to be appropriate, which may include the return of the record to the Board for further consideration when deemed necessary.

§ 881.8 Staff action—(a) Returning case to Board. Upon final action by the Secretary of the Air Force, the complete record in each case will be returned to the Board. The Board will transmit the decision of the Secretary of the Air Force to the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force, for appropriate action.

(b) Communicating decision to applicant and counsel. Upon receipt of the record of proceedings after final action by the Secretary of the Air Force, the Board will communicate the decision to the applicant and counsel, if any.

(c) Informing applicant when administrative action has been completed. When all necessary administrative action has been completed by the Air Staff, the applicant will be informed of such action by the Air Staff office designated by the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force.

(d) Written notice to Chairman of Board. Written notice specifying the action taken and the date thereof will be transmitted to the Chairman of the Board.

(e) Filing record of decision of the Secretary of the Air Force. The record of the decision of the Secretary of the Air Force will not be filed in the military records of the subject of the application where the effect of such action would be to nullify the relief granted or in those cases wherein the application is denied.

(f) Applicant not entitled to copies of record of proceedings. The applicant shall not be entitled to copies of the record of proceedings, but such record shall be made available for his inspection except where, in the discretion of the Chairman, it is detrimental to the public interest.

§ 881.9 Reconsideration. After final adjudication, further hearing before the Board will be granted only upon presentation by the applicant of newly discovered relevant evidence not previously considered by the Board and then only upon recommendation of the Board and approval by the Secretary of the Air Force.

§ 881.10 Settlement of claims—(a) Authority—(1) Claims authorized to be settled and paid. The Department of the Air Force is authorized to settle and pay claims for amounts paid as fines or forfeitures or for losses of pay (including retired or retirement pay), allowances, compensation, emoluments, or other monetary benefits as the case may be which are found to be due, under applicable provisions of law, on account of military service, and as the result of action heretofore or hereafter taken under section 207 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, as amended (60 Stat. 837, as amended; 5 U. S. C. 191a), except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) Claims not authorized to be paid. The Department of the Air Force is not authorized to pay any claim heretofore compensated by Congress through enactment of a private law, or to pay any amount as compensation for any benefit to which the claimant might subsequently become entitled under the laws and regulations administered by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs.

(b) Application for settlement—(1) Filing claim. Settlement and payment of claims shall be made only upon a claim of the person whose record has been corrected or of his legal representative, his heirs at law, or his beneficiaries. Such claim for settlement and payment may be filed as a separate part of the application for correction of the record.

(2) To whom payments will be made if person is deceased. In case the person whose record has been corrected is deceased, and where no demand is presented by a duly appointed legal representative of the estate, payments otherwise due shall be made to the decedent's widow, widower, legal heirs, or beneficiaries, in the order of precedence or succession as may be prescribed by the applicable provisions of law relating to the kind of payment involved and when not otherwise so provided, in the order of precedence as set forth in the act of February 25, 1946 (60 Stat. 30; 10 U. S. C. 868), or as may be prescribed by the applicable provisions of law relating to the kind of payment involved.

(3) Determining status as proper parties to claim. Upon request, the applicant or applicants shall be required to furnish requisite information to determine their status as proper parties to the claim for purposes of payment under applicable provisions of law.

(c) Settlement—(1) Basis for settlement. Settlement of claims shall be upon the basis of the decision and recommendations of the Board, as approved by the Secretary of the Air Force. Computation of the amounts due shall be made by the Deputy Chief of Staff, Comptroller. In no case will the amount found due exceed the amount which would otherwise have been paid or have become due under applicable laws had no error or injustice occurred. To the extent authorized by law and regulations, amounts found due may be reduced by the amount of any existing indebtedness to the Government, arising from military service.

(2) Advising as to nature and amounts of benefits. Prior to or at the time of payment, the person or persons to whom payments are to be made shall be advised by the Deputy Chief of Staff, Comptroller as to the nature and amount of the various benefits represented by the total settlement, and shall be advised further that acceptance of such settlement shall constitute a complete release by the claimants involved of any claim against the United States on account of the correction of the record.

(d) Report of settlement—(1) To Chairman of the Board. In every case where payment is made, the amount of such payment and the names of the payee or payees, shall be reported to the Chairman of the Board.

(2) To the Secretary of the Air Force. The Chairman of the Board shall make a semiannual report to the Secretary of the Air Force of all claims paid during the period covered by the report, including a statement of the amount paid, the names of the payee or payees and a brief description of the claim in each case.

§ 881.11 Miscellaneous—(a) Staff assistance—(1) Assembling and transmitting available military records. At the request of the Board, the appropriate staff office will assemble the original or certified copies of all available military records pertinent to the corrective action requested. Such records together with the application and all supporting papers will be transmitted to the Board with a certification from the staff office designated by the Chief of Staff, that the corrective action requested cannot be granted through administrative action by any staff office.

(2) Facilities of staff offices. The facilities of all staff offices will be made available as required to assist the Board in the accomplishment of its function. Upon request of the Board, personnel of the Air Staff will be made available for presentation before the Board of matters within their functional areas and which relate to the issues under consideration.

(b) Expenses. No expenses of any nature whatsoever voluntarily incurred by the applicant, his counsel, his witnesses, or by any other person in his behalf, will be paid by the Government.

(c) Changes in procedures. The Board may initiate recommendations for such changes in procedures as established herein as may be considered necessary for the proper functioning of the Board. Such changes will be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Air Force and of the Secretary of Defense.

The regulations contained in §§ 881.1 to 881.11 and any amendments thereto will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TITLE 39—POSTAL SERVICE
Chapter I—Post Office Department

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The following parts are amended as follows:

PART 35—PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO THE SEVERAL CLASSES OF MAIL MATTER

In § 35.16 Motion-picture films make the following changes:

1. Amend paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) Further packing provisions. Motion-picture films may also be packed in outside wooden boxes complying with Specification No. 15C of the Interstate Commerce Commission regulations for the transportation of dangerous articles, provided each reel is placed in a tightly closed inside metal container. Marking on boxes to indicate compliance with the specification is:

I. C. C.—15C•••

the stars being replaced by figures indicating the maximum gross weight for which the box is authorized. The letters and figures in this symbol shall be at least one-half inch high.

2. Amend paragraph (c) by striking out the words "to be dispatched outside of mail bags," in the second sentence and inserting a period in lieu thereof.

3. Amend paragraph (e) to read as follows:

(e) Noninflammable films. Noninflammable motion-picture films shall be accepted without other restriction when packed in sufficiently strong containers to bear safe transmission in the mails. Such containers shall be plainly marked as to contents such as "Motion-picture film—Not dangerous;" "Motion-picture film—Safety base," or "Business Microfilm—Safety base."

4. Amend paragraph (g) (1) by striking out the phrase "shall be handled outside of mail bags;".

5. Amend paragraph (k) by inserting in the first sentence after the words "or railroad employee" the words "wherever possible," and by striking out the words "outside of mail bags" in the last sentence.

6. Redesignate present paragraph (l), (17 F. R. 2184), as paragraph (m), and add a new paragraph (l) to read as follows:

(R. S. 161, 396; secs. 304, 309, 42 Stat. 24, 25, 62 Stat. 781, as amended; 5 U. S. C. 22, 369; 18 U. S. C. 1716)

PART 97—STAR, STEAMSHIP, AND STEAMBOAT ROUTES, AND VEHICLE SERVICE IN CITIES

In § 97.60 Compensation for additional service amend paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) Report of change in travel distance. In all cases where the regular line of travel becomes impassable from any cause, the carrier must use the most available road in order to perform full service. He should immediately report the matter to the proper General Superintendent, Postal Transportation Service, and to the postmaster at the head of the route or to the postmaster at the office first named in the statement of service. The postmaster shall forward a special report to the proper General Superintendent, Postal Transportation Service, stating the manner in which it is necessary for the carrier to travel, the increase in distance involved, the date on which the detour began, and the probable date on which regular service may be resumed.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
Bureau of Internal Revenue
[26 CFR Part 29]

INCOME TAX TREATMENT OF EXEMPT COOPERATIVES FOR TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1951

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32; 26 U. S. C. 62).

[SEAL] JOHN B. DUNLAP,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) to section 314 (a), (b), and (d) of the Revenue Act of 1951, approved October 20, 1951, such regulations are hereby amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.101 (12)-1 (26 CFR 29.101 (12)-1) the following:

SEC. 314. INCOME TAX TREATMENT OF EXEMPT COOPERATIVES (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Amendment of section 101 (12). Section 101 (12) is hereby amended as follows:

(1) By inserting after "(12)" the following: "(A)".

(2) By inserting after such paragraph the following:

(B) An organization exempt from taxation under the provisions of subparagraph (A) shall be subject to the taxes imposed by sections 13 and 15, or section 117 (c) (1), except that in computing the net income of such an organization there shall be allowed as deductions from gross income (in addition to other deductions allowable under section 23)—

(i) Amounts paid as dividends during the taxable year upon its capital stock, and

(ii) Amounts allocated during the taxable year to patrons with respect to its income not derived from patronage (whether or not such income was derived during such taxable year) whether paid in cash, merchandise, capital stock, revolving fund certificates, retain certificates, certificates of indebtedness, letters of advice, or in some other manner that discloses to each patron the dollar amount allocated to him. Allocations made after the close of the taxable year and on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of such year shall be considered as made on the last day of such taxable year to the extent the allocations are attributable to income derived before the close of such year.

Patronage dividends, refunds, and rebates to patrons with respect to their patronage in the same or preceding years (whether paid in cash, merchandise, capital stock, revolving fund certificates, retain certificates, certificates of indebtedness, letters of advice, or in some other manner that discloses to each patron the dollar amount of such dividend, refund, or rebate) shall be taken into account in computing net income in the same manner as in the case of a cooperative organization not exempt under subparagraph (A). Such dividends, refunds, and rebates made after the close of the taxable year and on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of such year shall be considered as made on the last day of such taxable year to the extent the dividends, refunds, or rebates are attributable to patronage occurring before the close of such year.

(b) Technical amendments. (1) Section 101 is hereby amended by striking out "Except as provided in supplement U" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Except as provided in paragraph (12) (B) and in supplement U".

(2) The last sentence of section 101 is hereby amended by striking out "Notwithstanding supplement U" and inserting in lieu thereof "Notwithstanding paragraph (12) (B) and supplement U".

• • • • •

(d) Effective date. The amendments made by subsection (a) and (b) of this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951 • • •

PAR. 2. There is inserted immediately following § 29.101 (12)-1 the following new sections:

§ 29.101 (12)-2 Farmers' cooperative marketing and purchasing associations; taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951—(a) In general. (1) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951, section 101 (12) is applicable to farmers, fruit growers', or like associations organized and operated on a cooperative basis in the manner prescribed in section 101 (12) (A). Although such an association is subject to both normal tax and surtax, as in the case of corporations generally, certain special rules for the computation of net income are provided in section 101 (12) (B) and § 29.101 (12)-3. For the purpose of any law which refers to organizations exempt from income taxes such an association shall, however, be considered as an organization exempt under section 101. Thus, under section 454 (a) such an association is not subject to the excess profits tax. Similarly, the provisions of section 26 (b), providing a credit for dividends received from a domestic corporation subject to taxation, are not applicable to dividends received from a cooperative association subject to 101 (12) (B). The provisions of section 141, relating to consolidated returns, are likewise not applicable.

(2) Rules governing the manner in which amounts allocated as patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds are to be taken into account in computing the net income of such an association are set forth in § 29.101 (12)-4. For the tax treatment, as to patrons, of amounts received during the taxable year as patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds see § 29.22 (a)–23.

(b) Meaning of terms. For purposes of §§ 29.101 (12)–2 to 29.101 (12)–4, inclusive, §§ 29.148–4, and 29.22 (a)–23, the following terms shall have the meaning ascribed below:

(1) Cooperative association. The term "cooperative association" includes any corporation operating on a cooperative basis and allocating amounts to patrons on the basis of the business done with or for such patrons, except that the term does not include any cooperative or nonprofit corporation (including any cooperative or nonprofit corporation engaged in rural electrification) exempt from taxation under section 101 (10) or (11) or any corporation subject to a tax imposed by Supplement G (relating to insurance companies).

(2) Patron. The term "patron" includes any person with whom or for whom the cooperative association does business on a cooperative basis, whether a member or a nonmember of the cooperative association, and whether an individual, a trust, estate, partnership, company, corporation, or cooperative association.

(3) Allocation. The term "allocation" includes distributions in cash or merchandise made by a cooperative association to a patron, the issuance by such association of capital stock, revolving fund certificates, retain certificates, certificates of indebtedness, letters of advice, similar documents, or any other act by a cooperative association whereby there is disclosed to a patron the apportionment on the books of such association of the dollar amount of its assets for the account of such patron. Thus, a mere credit to the account of a patron on the books of the cooperative association, without disclosure to the patron is not an allocation.

(4) Patronage dividends, rebates, and refunds. The term "patronage dividend, rebate, or refund" includes any amount allocated (whether in cash, merchandise, capital stock, revolving fund certificate, retain certificates, certificates of indebtedness, letters of advice, or in some other manner that discloses to each patron the amount of such dividend, refund, or rebate) by a cooperative association, to the account of a patron on the basis of the business done with or for such patron. The following are not patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds:

(i) Amounts distributed in redemption of capital stock, or in redemption or satisfaction of certificates of indebtedness, revolving fund certificates, retain certificates, letters of advice, or other similar documents;

(ii) In the case of a cooperative association marketing the products of members or other patrons, the amount paid in cash or merchandise by the association for such products to the extent such amount is fixed without reference to the earnings of the cooperative association. For this purpose, the term "earnings" includes the excess of amounts retained by the association to cover expenses or other items over the amount of such expenses or other items.

§ 29.101 (12)–3 Manner of taxation of cooperative associations subject to 101 (12).—(a) In general. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951, farmers, fruit growers, or like associations, organized and operated in compliance with the requirements of section 101 (12) (A) and § 29.101 (12)–1 shall be subject to the taxes imposed by sections 13 and 15 or section 117 (c) (1), except that there shall be allowed as deductions from gross income, in addition to the other deductions allowable under section 23, certain special deductions provided in section 101 (12) (B) (i) and (c) below, section 101 (12) (B) (ii) and paragraph (d) of this section. Amounts allocated as patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds, whether in cash, merchandise, capital stock, revolving fund certificates, retain certificates, certificates of indebtedness, letters of advice, or other similar documents, with respect to patronage for the taxable year or for preceding taxable years, shall be taken into account in the manner provided in section 101 (12) (B) and in § 29.101 (12)–4.

(b) Cooperative associations exempt from tax before January 1, 1952. (1) In the case of a cooperative association exempt from tax for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1952, the taxable year (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) shall be determined without regard to the fact that such association may have been exempt from tax during any prior period. See sections 41 and 48 and the regulations thereunder. Similarly in computing net income, the determination of the taxable year for which an item of income or expense is taken into account shall be made under the provisions of sections 41, 42 and 43 and the regulations prescribed thereunder, whether or not the item arose during a taxable year beginning before, on, or after December 31, 1951. For the purpose of determining the method of accounting of the cooperative association under section 41, the method of accounting utilized in the return of such association filed for the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1951, shall be deemed to constitute the method of accounting regularly employed by the cooperative association.

(2) For the purpose of computing, under section 122, the net operating loss deduction provided in section 23 (s), the terms "preceding taxable year" and "preceding taxable years", as used in section 122, shall not include any taxable year for which such association was not subject to the provisions of section 101 (12) (B). Thus, if the cooperative association was not subject to the provisions of 101 (12) (B) for the immediately preceding taxable year, the net operating loss is not a carry-back to any preceding taxable year, and the net operating loss carry-over to succeeding taxable years is not reduced by the net income for any preceding taxable year. No net operating loss carry-back or carry-over shall be allowed from a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1952. The adjustments to the cost or other basis of property provided in section 113 (b) and §§ 29.113 (b) (1)–1 to 29.113 (b) (1)–3, inclusive, are applicable although such an association was exempt from tax for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1952. Proper adjustment to basis must be made under section 113 (b) for the entire period since the acquisition of the property. Thus, adjustment to basis must be made for depreciation allowable for all prior taxable years although such an association was exempt from tax during such period. Similarly, in the case of tax exempt and partially taxable bonds purchased at a premium and subject to amortization under section 125, proper adjustment to basis must be made to reflect amortization with respect to such premium from the date of acquisition of the bond. (For principles governing the method of computation, see the example in § 29.113 (b)–1 (4) relating to mutual savings banks, building and loan associations, and cooperative banks.) The basis of a fully taxable bond purchased at a premium shall be adjusted from the date of the election to amortize such premium in accordance with the provisions of section 125 in the same manner as if the institution were subject to tax from the date of acquisition of the bond.

(3) In the case of a mortgage acquired at a premium where the principal of such mortgage is payable in installments, adjustments to the basis for the premium must be made for all taxable years (whether or not the institution was exempt from tax during such years) in which installment payments are received. Such adjustment shall be an amount which is equal to the proportion of the premium which each installment payment on principal bears to the face value of the mortgage loan. For the purpose of this adjustment, the term "premium" includes the amount of cash paid in excess of the face amount of the loan, including attorneys' fees, brokerage commissions, and all other costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the mortgage.

(4) The elective method of inventorying goods may be adopted by the cooperative association for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1951, in accordance with the requirements of section 22 (d) and the regulations issued under that section. In order to use such method for such a taxable year, the cooperative association must exercise the election provided in section 22 (d) (2) (A) and § 29.22 (d)–8 even though it may have utilized such method for accounting purposes for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1952.

(5) The cooperative association may select either of the alternative methods for treating bad debts provided in § 29.23 (k)–1 (a) in the return for its first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1951. The method selected shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner upon examination of the return. Any change in the method so selected and approved may be made only if permission is granted as provided in § 29.23 (k)–1 (a).

(c) Deduction for dividends paid. There is allowable as a deduction from the gross income of a cooperative association operated in compliance with the requirements of section 101 (12) (A) and § 29.101 (12)–3, amounts paid as dividends during the taxable year upon the capital stock of the cooperative association. For the purpose of the preceding sentence, the term "capital stock" includes common stock (whether voting or nonvoting) preferred stock, capital retain certificates, revolving fund certificates, letters of advice, or other documentary evidence of a proprietary interest in a cooperative association. Such deduction is applicable only to the taxable year in which the dividends are actually or constructively paid to the shareholders of the cooperative association. If a dividend is paid by check and the check bearing a date within the taxable year is deposited in the mail, in a cover properly stamped and addressed to the shareholder at his last known address, at such time that in the ordinary handling of the mails the check would be received by the shareholder within the taxable year, a presumption arises that the dividend was paid to the shareholder in such year. The determination of whether a dividend has been paid to the shareholder by the corporation during its taxable year is in no way dependent upon the method of accounting regularly employed by the corporation, in keeping its books, or upon the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income of the corporation is computed. For further rules as to the determination of the right to a deduction for dividends paid, under certain specific circumstances, see §29.27 (b)–2.

(d) Deduction for income not derived from patronage. There is allowable as a deduction from the gross income of a cooperative association operated in compliance with the requirements of section 101 (12) (A) and § 29.101–(12)–1 amounts allocated during the taxable year to patrons with respect to its income not derived from patronage (whether or not such income was derived during such taxable year) whether such amounts are paid in cash, merchandise, capital stock, revolving fund certificates, retain certificates, certificates of indebtedness, letters of advice, or in some other manner that discloses to each patron the dollar amount allocated to him. For this purpose, allocations made after the close of the taxable year and on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of the taxable year shall be considered as made on the last day of such taxable year to the extent that such allocations are attributable to income derived during the taxable year or during years prior to the taxable year. As used in this paragraph, the term "income not derived from patronage" includes incidental income derived from sources not directly related to the marketing, purchasing, or service activities of the cooperative association. For example, income derived from the lease of premises, from temporary investment in securities, from the sale or exchange of capital assets, constitutes income not derived from patronage. Business done with the United States shall constitute income not derived from patronage. In order that the deduction for income not derived from patronage may be applicable it is necessary that the amount sought to be deducted be allocated on a patronage basis in proportion, insofar as is practicable, to the value of the patrons' interest in such non-patronage income. Thus, if capital gains are realized from capital assets acquired and disposed of during the taxable year such income must be allocated to patrons of such year in proportion to the amount of business done by such patrons during the taxable year.

§ 29.101 (12)–4 Patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds; treatment as to cooperative associations entitled to tax treatment under section 101 (12) (B).—(a) General rule. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951, patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds, allocated by a cooperative association entitled to tax treatment under section 101 (12) (B) to a patron shall be taken into account in computing the gross income of such association for the taxable year, as an increase in its cost of goods sold in the case of an association marketing products for patrons, or as a reduction in its gross receipts, in the case of an association purchasing supplies and equipment or performing services for patrons, as the case may be, if:

(1) The allocation is made in fulfillment and satisfaction of a valid obligation of such association to the patron, which obligation was in existence prior to the receipt by the cooperative association of the amount allocated, and

(2) The allocation, whether in cash, merchandise, capital stock, revolving fund certificates, retain certificates, certificates of indebtedness, letters of advice, or similar documents, is made on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of the taxable year in which the amounts allocated were received by the cooperative association.

For the purpose of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, amounts allocated by a cooperative association entitled to tax treatment under section 101 (12) (B) will be deemed allocated in fulfillment and satisfaction of a valid enforceable obligation, if made pursuant to provisions of the by-laws, articles of incorporation, or other contract, whereby the association is obligated to make such allocation after the retention of "reasonable reserves". Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, amounts allocated as patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds during the taxable year, or on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of such year, with respect to patronage for years preceding the taxable year, shall be taken into account as an increase in the cost of goods sold, or as a reduction in gross receipts for the taxable year, as the case may be, where retention as "reasonable reserves" of the amounts so allocated beyond the year in which earned was proper in accordance with the provisions of section 101 (12) and where the allocation is made to the patron to whose account the retained amount was apportioned on the books of the cooperative association.

Example 1. E, a cooperative association entitled to tax treatment under section 101 (12) (B), organized without capital stock, is engaged in the business of marketing products for its patrons on a non-pool basis. The by-laws of cooperative E provide that there shall be allocated to patrons as patronage dividends within a reasonable time following the close of the year all of the gross returns from sales, less expenses of operation for the year and amounts retained as "reasonable reserves" necessary to the operation of cooperative E. At the close of the taxable year, 1952, it is determined that from the gross returns from sales less operating expenses for such year, $5,000 is to be retained as "reasonable reserves" for various necessary purposes of cooperative E. It is assumed that the retention of such amount is proper in accordance with the provisions of section 101 (12). Such $5,000 is apportioned on the books of cooperative E to patrons of 1952 on a patronage basis. On March 1, 1953, pursuant to the terms of the by-laws $200,000, the balance of the gross returns for the taxable year, is allocated to patrons of 1952 on the basis of patronage. $100,000 of such $200,000 is allocated in cash. The remaining $100,000 is allocated in "retain certificates", bearing no interest and redeemable in the discretion of the Board of Directors of cooperative E.

There may be added to the cost of goods sold by cooperative E for 1952, $200,000 ($100,000 in cash, $100,000 in retain certificates), the total amount allocated as patronage dividends, rebates or refunds in fulfillment and satisfaction of the obligation of the by-laws, on March 1, 1953, before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of 1952. There may not be added to the cost of goods sold by cooperative E for 1952, $5,000, the amount retained as reserves apportioned on the books, but not allocated as patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds.

Example 2. The facts are the same as example 1, it additionally appearing that at the close of 1953 it is determined by cooperative E to allocate as cash patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds to patrons of 1952, $5,000, the amount retained as "reasonable reserves" for 1952 and apportioned on the books of cooperative E to patrons of such year. On March 1, 1954, such amount is allocated.

There may be added to the cost of goods sold by cooperative E for 1953, $5,000, the amount allocated with respect to patronage of a preceding year, 1952, properly maintained as a reserve under section 101 (12) and previously apportioned to the account of patrons of cooperative E for 1952.

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately after § 29.22 (a)–22 the following:

§ 29.22 (a)–23 Patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds; treatment as to patrons.—(a) In general. Amounts allocated by a cooperative association, whether or not entitled to tax treatment under section 101 (12) (B), as patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds, whether in cash, merchandise, capital stock, revolving fund certificates, retain certificates, certificates of indebtedness, letters of advice or in other documentary form disclosing to the patron the dollar amount allocated shall be included in the computation of the gross income of such patron for the taxable year in which received to the extent prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section. The determination of the extent of taxability of such patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds is in no way dependent upon the method of accounting employed by the patron or upon the basis, cash, accrual or otherwise, upon which the net income of such patron is computed.

(b) Extent of taxability. (1) Patronage dividends allocated by a cooperative association to a patron with respect to products marketed for such patron, with respect to supplies, equipment, or services for the trade or business of such patron or with respect to supplies, equipment or services the cost of which was deductible by the patron under section 23, shall be included in the computation of the gross income of such patron to the following extent:

(i) If the allocation is in cash, in the amount of cash received.

(ii) If the allocation is in merchandise, to the extent of the fair market value of such merchandise at the time of receipt by the patron.

(iii) If the allocation is in the form of capital stock, revolving fund certificates, letter of advice, retain certificates or similar documents:

(a) To the extent of the face amount of such documents, if the allocation was made in fulfillment and satisfaction of a valid obligation of such association to the patron, which obligation was in existence prior to the receipt by the cooperative association of the amount allocated. For this purpose, it is immaterial whether such allocation was made within the time required by § 29.101 (12)–4 (a) (ii).

(b) To the extent of the face amount of such documents, if the allocation was made with respect to patronage of a year preceding the taxable year from amounts retained as "reasonable reserves" under § 29.101–4 (a).

(c) To the extent of the cash or merchandise received in redemption or satisfaction of such documents at the time of receipt of such cash or merchandise by the patron, where such allocation was not made in pursuance of the valid obligation referred to in subdivision (a) of this subparagraph or from amounts retained as "reasonable reserves" under § 29.101 (12)–4 (a), referred to in subdivision (b) of this subparagraph.

(2) Patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds allocated by a cooperative association with respect to supplies, equipment, or services not obtained for the trade or business of a patron or with respect to supplies, equipment, or services the cost of which was not deductible by the patron under section 23, are not includible in the computation of the gross income of such patron.

PAR. 4. Section 29.143–4 is amended by striking subparagraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) of paragraph (d) thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "The terms, 'cooperative association,' 'patron,' 'patronage dividends, rebates, and refunds,' and 'allocation' are defined, for the purpose of this section, in § 29.101 (12)–2 (b)."

BURLEY TOBACCO MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM

The Secretary of Agriculture has duly proclaimed, pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, a national marketing quota for Burley tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953.[1] A referendum of farmers who were engaged in the production of the 1952 crop of Burley tobacco will be held pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and applicable regulations, to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to such quota and to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to Burley tobacco marketing quotas for the 3-year period beginning October 1, 1953.

Registration. The operator on each farm on which Burley tobacco was produced in 1952 should inform a county or community committeeman of the names and addresses of all persons sharing in the proceeds of such crop in order that their names may be listed on the register of eligible voters. The eligibility to vote of any person may be challenged if his name is not recorded on the registration list.

Eligibility to vote. 1. All persons engaged in the production of the 1952 crop of Burley tobacco are eligible to vote in the referendum. Any person who shares in the proceeds of the 1952 crop of Burley tobacco as owner (other than a landlord of a standing-rent or fixed-rent tenant), tenant, or share cropper, is considered as engaged in the production of such crop of tobacco in 1952.

2. If several members of the same family participate in the production of the 1952 crop of Burley tobacco on a farm, the only member or members of such family who shall be eligible to vote shall be the member or members of the family who have an independent bona fide status as operator, share tenant, or share cropper, and are entitled as such to share in the proceeds of the 1952 crop.

3. No person shall be eligible to vote in any community other than the community in which he resides except as follows:

(a) Any person who resides in a community in which there is no polling place shall be eligible to vote at the polling place designated for the community nearest to the community in which he was engaged in the production of Burley tobacco in 1952.

(b) Any person who does not reside in or who will not be present in the county in which he engaged in the production of Burley tobacco in 1952 may obtain a ballot at the most conveniently located county committee office and may cast his ballot by signing his name thereto and mailing it so that the ballot reaches the county committee for the county in which he engaged in the production of tobacco in 1952 not later then the closing hour on the date of the referendum.

4. There shall be no voting by mail (except as provided in paragraph 3 above), by proxy, or by agent, but a duly authorized officer of a corporation, association, or other legal entity or a duly authorized member of a partnership, may cast its vote.

5. Persons who planted tobacco in the field in 1952 but did not harvest any tobacco on such acreage for any reason except neglect to farm the planted acreage shall be regarded as engaged in the production of tobacco in 1952 and therefore eligible to vote in the referendum. Any farmer who did not plant tobacco in the field shall not be eligible to vote.

6. No person (whether an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity) shall be entitled to more than one vote in the referendum even though he may have been engaged in the production of tobacco on several farms in the same or in two or more communities, counties, or States in 1952.

7. In the event two or more persons were engaged in producing tobacco in 1952 not as members of a partnership but as tenants in common or joint tenants or as owners of community property, each such person shall be eligible to vote.

Place for balloting. The Burley tobacco marketing quota referendum will be held on Saturday, November 22, 1952. The place of voting and the hours which the polls will be open for voting in each community will be announced by the County PMA Committee.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of November 1952. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

VIRGINIA SUN-CURED TOBACCO MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM

The Secretary of Agriculture has duly proclaimed, pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, a national marketing quota for Virginia Sun-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953.[1] A referendum of farmers who were engaged in the production of the 1952 crop of Virginia Sun-cured tobacco will be held pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and applicable regulations, to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to such quota and to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to Virginia Sun-cured tobacco marketing quotas for the 3-year period beginning October 1, 1953.

Registration. The operator on each farm on which Virginia Sun-cured tobacco was produced in 1952 should inform a county or community committeeman of the names and addresses of all persons sharing in the proceeds of such crop in order that their names may be listed on the register of eligible voters. The eligibility to vote of any person may be challenged if his name is not recorded on the registration list.

Eligibility to vote. 1. All persons engaged in the production of the 1952 crop of Virginia Sun-cured tobacco are eligible to vote in the referendum. Any person who shares in the proceeds of the 1952 crop of Virginia Sun-cured tobacco as owner (other than a landlord of a standing-rent or fixed-rent tenant), tenant, or share cropper, is considered as engaged in the production of such crop of tobacco in 1952.

2. If several members of the same family participate in the production of the 1952 crop of Virginia Sun-cured tobacco on a farm, the only member or members of such family who shall be eligible to vote shall be the member or members of the family who have an independent bona fide status as operator, share tenant, or share cropper, and are entitled as such to share in the proceeds of the 1952 crop.

3. No person shall be eligible to vote in any community other than the community in which he resides except as follows:

(a) Any person who resides in a community in which there is no polling place shall be eligible to vote at the polling place designated for the community nearest to the community in which he was engaged in the production of Virginia Sun-cured tobacco in 1952.

4. There shall be no voting by mail (except as provided in paragraph 3 above), by proxy, or by agent, but a duly authorized officer of a corporation, association, or other legal entity or a duly authorized member of a partnership, may cast its vote.

5. Persons who planted tobacco in the field in 1952 but did not harvest any tobacco on such acreage for any reason except neglect to farm the planted acreage shall be regarded as engaged in the production of tobacco in 1952 and therefore eligible to vote in the referendum. Any farmer who did not plant tobacco in the field shall not be eligible to vote.

6. No person (whether an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity) shall be entitled to more than one vote in the referendum even though he may have been engaged in the production of tobacco on several farms in the same or in two or more communities, counties, or States in 1952.

7. In the event two or more persons were engaged in producing tobacco in 1952 not as members of a partnership but as tenants in common or joint tenants or as owners of community property, each such person shall be eligible to vote.

Place for balloting. The Virginia Sun-cured tobacco marketing quota referendum will be held Saturday, November 22, 1952. The place of voting and the hours the polls will be open for voting in each community will be announced by the County PMA Committee.

Office of International Trade

[Case No. 140]

GEORGE BLUDS AND CAYMEX CORP.

ORDER DENYING LICENSE PRIVILEGES

In the matter of George Bluds, individually and as President, Caymex Corporation, 50 Broad Street, New York, New York, Caymex Corporation, 50 Broad Street, New York, New York, respondents; Case No. 140.

This proceeding was instituted on August 6, 1952, by the transmission of a charging letter issued by the Investigation Staff, Office of International Trade, to Caymex Corporation and George Bluds, individually and as president of said corporation. After receiving the charging letter, respondents requested an oral hearing and a date for such hearing was set, but before the proceeding could go to hearing respondents elected to waive such hearing and conferred with officials of the Office of International Trade regarding a consent order. Following such conferences with said officials and with the Compliance Commissioner, respondents submitted to the Office of International Trade a statement dated October 10, 1952, in which they admitted for the purpose of this compliance proceeding only the charges in said charging letter, waived all rights to a hearing thereon, and consented to the entry of an order, the terms of which are set forth below.

The charges, which respondents have admitted and to which they have entered their consent, are, in substance, that respondents, acting by and through respondent George Bluds, violated the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder by applying for and obtaining a validated export license in December 1951, to export a quantity of copper sulphate to France through false and untrue representations and statements and that, in effecting exportation of the copper sulphate pursuant to said license, respondents failed and omitted to place or cause to have placed upon the shipping documents relating to said exportation the legend required by § 381.4 (c) of the regulations that the commodity was licensed by the United States for the ultimate destination of France and that diversion contrary to United States law was prohibited.

The record herein shows that the Office of International Trade issued a regulation on November 8, 1951, whereby copper sulphate was added to the Positive List of Commodities requiring validated licenses for exportation to all foreign destinations, except Canada, effective 12:01 a. m., November 13, 1951. By provision of said regulation, shipments of copper sulphate which were on dock, on lighter, laden aboard an exporting carrier, or in transit to a port of exit pursuant to actual orders prior to 12:01 a. m., November 13, 1951, could be exported under general license provisions previously applicable to copper sulphate, up to and including December 8, 1951. While this regulation was in effect, respondent George Bluds, acting for and in behalf of respondent Caymex Corporation, on or about December 11, 1951, applied to the Office of International Trade to issue, on grounds of hardship, a validated license authorizing exportation by respondents of 290,000 pounds of copper sulphate to France.

In support of said application, respondents falsely represented to the Office of International Trade that said 290,000 pounds of copper sulphate had been in transit to the docks of a steamship line in New York City prior to 12:01 a. m., November 13, 1951, but could not be exported on or before December 8, 1951, under the previously applicable general license in accordance with the aforesaid regulation, because of a dock strike in New York; and further, falsely represented and stated that evidence of this in-transit status had been submitted by respondents to the Collector of Customs at the port of New York.

In reliance on respondents' representations and statements, the Office of International Trade, under date of December 19, 1951, issued to respondent Caymex Corporation a validated license to export said 290,000 pounds of copper sulphate to France, conditioned upon respondents' representation and promise to furnish the Office of International Trade within 30 days of December 14, 1951, shipping and other pertinent documents to establish that prior to 12:01 a. m., November 13, 1951, said 290,000 pounds of copper sulphate was in transit to the port of New York, but respondents failed to furnish such documentary evidence as, in fact, at the time respondents made the aforesaid representations and promises to the Office of International Trade, they knew same were wholly false in that said 290,000 pounds of copper sulphate were not in transit to the port of New York prior to 12:01 a. m., November 13, 1951.

The record further shows that, in making the exportation of said copper sulphate to France, respondents did not place upon the shipping documents the statement required to be placed thereon by the regulations, as follows: "These commodities licensed by U. S. for ultimate destination France. Diversion contrary to U. S. law prohibited."

The charging letter and above-stated proposal for a consent order were submitted to the Compliance Commissioner for review and consideration, and the Commissioner also informally reviewed the evidence presented by the Investigation Staff in support of the charges. Upon the basis of such review and upon the unsworn statements of George Bluds made to the Commissioner in the course of their conferences, the Commissioner concluded that the charges applicable to respondents are substantiated by the evidence and that the proposed consent order is just and fair and should be approved.

The findings and recommendations of the Compliance Commissioner have been carefully considered together with the above evidentiary material, the charging letter, and the proposal for a consent order, and it appears that such findings are in accordance with the evidence and that such recommendations are reasonable and should be adopted.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, as follows:

(1) Caymex Corporation and George Bluds, individually and as president of said corporation, are hereby denied and declared ineligible to exercise the privileges of exporting, receiving, or otherwise participating directly or indirectly in any exportation to any foreign destination of any commodity on the Positive List of Commodities, as such list may be constituted at the time of any proposed shipment. Such denial of export privileges is deemed to include and prohibit the participation by said respondents, and each of them, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) in the obtaining or using of validated or general export licenses, (b) as a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application, (c) in the receiving of any exportation from the United States exported pursuant to any validated or general export license, and (d) in the financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of exports from the United States pursuant to any validated or general export license for any commodity on the Positive List of Commodities, as such list may be constituted at the time of any proposed shipment.

(2) Such denial of export privileges shall extend not only to the named respondents, and each of them, but also to Bel Export Company and Caymex Trading Company (two companies owned by George Bluds and his wife), and to any person, firm, corporation, or other business organization with which said respondents or any of them may be now or hereafter related by ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade involving exports under validated or general export licenses from the United States or services connected therewith.

(3) This order shall extend for a period of twelve (12) months from the date hereof: Provided, however, That upon the expiration of six (6) months from the date of this order, the order shall be suspended for the balance of the six (6) months remaining and the export privileges denied herein shall be restored to said respondents. In the event, however, that said respondents, or any of them, shall at any time during the twelve (12)-month period covered by this order knowingly violate any of the provisions of the order or any of the Office of International Trade regulations, the Office of International Trade may summarily, at such time as it determines such violation occurred, issue an order which denies to the respondent or respondents who have violated, all export privileges for the full six (6) months which have been suspended, without limiting thereby the Office of International Trade from instituting any other and further action it may deem appropriate based on such violation.

(4) No person, firm, corporation, or other business organization, whether situated in the United States or abroad, shall knowingly apply for or obtain any license, shipper's export declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any exportation from the United States of any commodity on the Positive List of Commodities under validated and general export licenses, to or for the named respondents or any of them, or any person, firm, corporation, or other business organization covered by paragraph (2) hereinabove, without prior disclosure of such facts to, and specific authorization from, the Office of International Trade.

Assistant Director for Export Supply.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. G-1732, G-2028]

MANUFACTURERS LIGHT AND HEAT CO. AND CUMBERLAND AND ALLEGHENY GAS CO.

ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

NOVEMBER 3, 1952.

In the matters of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Docket No. G-1732; the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, and Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company, Docket No. G-2028.

On August 14, 1952, the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company (Manufacturers), a Pennsylvania corporation, and Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company (Cumberland), a West Virginia corporation (sometimes referred to hereinafter as Applicants), both of which have their principal place of business at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, filed a joint application in Docket No. G-2028, for certificates of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural-gas transmission facilities, and for permission and approval, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, to abandon certain natural-gas transmission facilities in connection therewith, all as more fully described in said application.

On October 7, Manufacturers filed a petition for modification of the Commission's order issued on October 4, 1951, in Docket No. G-1732, issuing a certificate of public convenience and necessity to construct and operate certain natural-gas transmission facilities and authorizing and approving the abandonment of certain natural-gas transmission facilities in connection therewith.

Manufacturers, in its petition filed in Docket No. G-1732, has requested that the Commission delete from the certificate issued therein certain natural-gas facilities to increase deliveries of natural gas to Weirton, West Virginia, described in its application in said proceeding as Job 16. Manufacturers, in its application in Docket No. G-2028 proposes to substitute for said Job 16, a project described as Job 1 in said application. It appears that these proceedings are interrelated and that they involve common questions of law and fact.

The Commission finds: (1) It is appropriate for carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and good cause exists for consolidating the above proceedings for purpose of hearing.

(2) These proceedings are proper ones for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, Applicants having requested that the application filed in Docket No. G-2028 be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for noncontested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest or petition having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application in Docket No. G-2028, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 30, 1952 (17 F. R. 7952).

The Commission orders:

(A) The aforesaid proceedings in Docket Nos. G-1732 and G-2028 be and the same hereby are consolidated for purpose of hearing.

(B) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on November 21, 1952, at 9:45 a. m., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application and petition: Provided, however, That the Commission may after a noncontested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: November 4, 1952.

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO LEASE OF WATER ISLAND, VIRGIN ISLANDS

1. Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended, (hereinafter referred to as "the act") I hereby authorize the Secretary of the Interior to determine that the property known as Water Island in the Virgin Islands is not required for the needs and responsibilities of Federal Agencies and to dispose of such property by negotiated lease upon such terms as may be deemed advantageous to the United States.

2. Prior to such determination and disposal of the property, the Secretary of the Interior shall take such steps as may be appropriate to determine whether any Federal Agency has need therefor, and, if so, shall transfer the property to such agency upon such terms as to reimbursement as may be prescribed in accordance with the provisions of section 202 (a) of the act, as amended by section 1 (f) of Public Law 522, 82d Congress.

3. The Secretary of the Interior shall submit to the appropriate Committees of Congress an explanatory statement of the type required by section 203 (e) of the act, as amended by section 1 (i) of Public Law 522, 82d Congress, at least fifteen (15) days prior to the consummation of any lease negotiated hereunder. A copy of each such statement shall be furnished to this Administration.

4. The authority herein delegated may be redelegated to any officer or employee of the Department of the Interior.

5. This delegation of authority shall be effective as of the date hereof.

Dated: November 3, 1952.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING PROPOSED CHARTER AMENDMENTS

NOVEMBER 4, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that Indiana & Michigan Electric Company ("Indiana"), an electric utility subsidiary of American Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, has filed an application-declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and has designated sections 6 and 7 thereof and Rule U-62 of the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as applicable to the following transactions:

Indiana proposes to amend its Articles of Acceptance so as (1) to modify the present provisions limiting the amount of unsecured debt, so as to increase the amount of such unsecured debt which may be issued without the consent of a majority of the preferred stockholders from 10 percent to 20 percent of the sum of secured debt, capital stock and surplus, as more specifically summarized hereafter; and (2) to increase the number of its authorized shares of common stock, without par value, from 1,250,000 shares to 2,500,000 shares.

The proposed provision modifying the present unsecured debt provisions would allow Indiana to issue unsecured debt in a total amount not exceeding 20 percent, of which short-term unsecured debt could not exceed 10 percent, of the sum of secured debt, capital stock and surplus. Under this provision, long-term unsecured debt would be unsecured debt having maturities of 10 years or more, except that where a single maturity or a final instalment matures 10 or more years from time of issuance it will be considered long-term unsecured debt until the date of its maturity is less than 5 years from time of computation. This amendment to the Articles of Acceptance requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding preferred stock of Indiana, and the company will solicit proxies from its preferred stockholders with respect to such amendment.

The proposed amendments are designed to afford greater flexibility to Indiana for the raising of capital to finance its construction program, expenditures for which, for the years 1952 to 1954 inclusive, are estimated to total approximately $87,700,000. The Company represents that it contemplates the sale of additional common stock in order to finance its construction program and to preserve an adequate equity ratio, and that for this purpose additional authorization of stock is necessary.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 12, 1952 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date said application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided by Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under said act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof. All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration which is on file with this Commission for a full statement of the transactions therein proposed.

By the Commission.

[4th Sec. Application 27515]

IMPORT RATES ON ABRASIVES FROM NEW YORK, N. Y., AND POINTS GROUPED THEREWITH TO WESTFIELD, MASS.

APPLICATION FOR RELIEF

NOVEMBER 5, 1952.

The Commission is in receipt of the above-entitled and numbered application for relief from the long-and-short-haul provision of section 4 (1) of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Filed by: C. W. Boin, Agent, for The New York Central Railroad Company.

Commodities involved: Abrasives, viz: emery or corundum, crude, carloads.

From: New York, N. Y., and points grouped therewith.

To: Westfield, Mass.

Grounds for relief: Competition with rail carriers and circuitous routes.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

By the Commission, Division 2.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 2995

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CORONADO NATIONAL MEMORIAL

ARIZONA

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS section 1 of the act of August 18, 1941, 55 Stat. 630 (16 U. S. C. 450y), as amended by Public Law 478, 82nd Congress, approved July 9, 1952, provides that for the purpose of permanently commemorating the explorations of Francisco Vasquez de Coronado the President of the United States may declare, by proclamation, any lands within the area therein described to be established as the Coronado National Memorial; and

WHEREAS it appears that the public interest would be promoted by the establishment of the said Memorial on certain of the said lands as hereinafter provided:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 1 of the said act of August 18, 1941, as amended, do proclaim and declare that, subject to all valid existing rights, the following-described public lands in the State of Arizona are hereby established as the Coronado National Memorial:

Sec. 19, all;
Sec. 20, lots 3 and 4.

The areas described aggregate approximately 2,745.33 acres.

Warning is hereby expressly given to all unauthorized persons not to appropriate, injure, destroy, deface, or remove any feature of this Memorial or to settle upon any of the lands thereof as hereby established.

Subject to the provisions of the said act of August 18, 1941, the Director of the National Park Service, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, shall have the supervision, management, and control of the lands constituting the Coronado National Memorial in accordance with the act entitled "An Act to establish a National Park Service, and for other purposes", approved August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535; 16 U. S. C. 1–3), and acts supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof so far as the provisions of such acts may be applicable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this fifth day of November in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] fifty-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-seventh.

HARRY S. TRUMAN

By the President:

DAVID BRUCE,
Acting Secretary of State.

CODIFICATION GUIDE—Con.

Sec.
307.3 Determining amount of contribution.
307.4 Preparation and distribution of Form FHA–449.

AUTHORITY: §§ 307.1 to 307.4 issued under sec. 510 (g), 63 Stat. 438; 42 U. S. C. 1480 (g). Interpret or apply sec. 503, 63 Stat. 434; 42 U. S. C. 1473.

§ 307.1 General. The County Supervisor is responsible for determining the amount of contribution, if any, to which each section 503 borrower may be entitled. This determination will be made at the time of the analysis of the annual farm and home business of the borrower and will be based on the facts recorded on Form FHA–14, "Farm and Home Plan," for each loan closed before December 16 of the payment year.

(a) The term "payment year" as used in this subpart means the 12-month period ending the December 31 on which the payment is due.

(b) Each section 503 borrower whose loan was closed prior to December 16 of the payment year must submit a statement of his income and expenses on Form FHA–14, which will be prepared with the assistance of the County Supervisor. For each section 503 loan closed during the period from December 16 of the payment year to January 1 of the succeeding year, the borrower need not prepare Form FHA–14. Such a borrower will remit, at the time of loan closing, the amount of the first installment or as much thereof as he is able to pay. If the County Supervisor determines that such a borrower is unable to pay his first installment in full at the time of loan closing, he will credit the borrower with a contribution equal to that portion of the first installment which he is unable to pay.

(c) For each section 503 borrower whose loan was closed prior to December 16 of the payment year and who has not paid in full before that date the amount due as of December 31, the County Supervisor will determine whether the borrower is, in fact, unable to pay all or part of the installment due and, therefore, is entitled to a contribution, or whether the borrower had income sufficient to pay but failed to do so. This determination will be based on an analysis of the information on Form FHA–14. The borrower is entitled to contribution credit on his installment only to the extent that he is actually unable to pay. Any part of the indebtedness due which it is determined he can pay or could have paid but which remains unpaid as of December 31 of the payment year will constitute a delinquency.

(d) A contribution will not be made if a borrower whose loan was closed prior to December 16 does not complete Form FHA–14 and execute Form FHA–449, "Declaration of Borrower and Contribution Determination," or if Form FHA–14 shows that he had income sufficient to pay the installment in full if the income had been used in accordance with the policies established in § 307.2. Any amount due that is unpaid and is not covered by a contribution will be considered as a delinquency.

(e) The record book year for section 503 borrowers will end as of November 30. The analysis on Form FHA–14 will be prepared on the basis of the borrower's records for the year ending November 30. For section 503 borrowers who do not have record books for all of the first payment year, contributions will be determined on the basis of the best information available.

§ 307.2 Use of income. During the first five years a section 503 Farm Housing borrower's cash income should be used as follows to determine whether or not he is entitled to a contribution.

(a) First, to pay farm operating and family living expenses, including debts incurred for these purposes and all interest charges for the year payable by the borrower except interest on the Farm Housing loan. These should be kept in reasonable control by conformance to approved farm and home plans.

(b) Second, the next priority for the use of cash income is for the following purposes in the order listed:

(1) To pay on chattel debts an amount equal to the scheduled installment for the year as shown on the chattel notes. If the Farm Housing mortgage is subject to a prior lien on which there are amounts overdue or soon to become due and the borrower's cash income is insufficient to make payments with respect to chattels as specified in the preceding sentence and also to pay in full the amounts overdue or soon to become due on the prior lien, the prior lienholder's consent to letting delinquencies remain or occur should be obtained in order to avoid foreclosure.

(2) To pay principal amounts due on prior real estate liens.

(3) To pay an amount equivalent to 50 percent of the principal due on the scheduled annual installment for the year on the Farm Housing loan.

(4) To pay the balance of the scheduled annual installment on his note and other charges on his Farm Housing debt.

(5) To pay additional amounts on chattel debts to the extent necessary to remove delinquencies.

(c) Third, the remaining income should be used for the following purposes, depending on the circumstances of the individual case:

(1) To get the borrower ahead of schedule on his Farm Housing loan and other real estate debts.

(2) To speed up retirement of the chattel debts and to pay unsecured debts.

(3) To build up cash-operating capital so that less money will have to be borrowed for this purpose.

(4) To make capital investments that will result in sound and justifiable expansion of operations and improve living conditions.

§ 307.3 Determining amount of contribution—(a) Borrowers with first installment due December 31 of the payment year. Included in this group are all section 503 borrowers whose loan checks (notes) are dated within the period January 1 and December 31 of the first payment year. Since the first installment is equal to the interest on the loan from the date of the note to the first succeeding December 31, a borrower may qualify for a contribution up to the full amount of the first installment on the note.

(1) A contribution equal to the full amount of the first installment will be made only in those cases where Form FHA–14 for a borrower whose loan is closed prior to December 16 of the first payment year indicates that the income for his first payment year, when used in accordance with the policies established in § 307.2, was actually insufficient to pay any part of his first installment and no part of the installment has been paid. A contribution equal to the full amount of the first installment also may be made to a borrower whose loan is closed after December 15 of his first payment year and before January 1 of the succeeding year, and who is unable at the time of loan closing to pay any part of his first installment.

(2) A contribution equal to a part of the first installment may be made in those cases where Form FHA–14 indicates that the borrower's income for his first payment year, when used in accordance with the policies established in § 307.2, was actually insufficient to pay the first installment in full, but was adequate to pay a part of the first installment, except that no contribution will be made to cover any amount the borrower has actually paid on the first installment. In such cases, a contribution may be made equal to the portion of the first installment that the borrower is unable to pay. A contribution equal to a part of the first installment also may be made to a borrower whose loan was closed after December 15 of the first payment year and before January 1 of the succeeding year, provided at the time of loan closing he was able to pay a part but not all of his first installment.

(b) Borrowers with second installment due December 31 of payment year. This group is composed of all section 503 borrowers whose second installment (first regular amortized installment) is due December 31 of the payment year. The maximum contribution authorized for this group is an amount equal to all of the interest and one half of the principal of the scheduled annual installment due for the second payment year. The maximum contribution to any borrower in this group is 86.3 percent of the scheduled annual installment due December 31 of his second payment year. Thus, each borrower in this group must pay at least 13.7 percent of a scheduled annual installment, since this is equal to 50 percent of the principal of the installment due for his second payment year.

(1) A contribution equal to 86.3 percent of the scheduled annual installment due may be made only in those cases where:

(i) Form FHA–14 indicates that the borrower's income for the payment year, when used in accordance with the policies established in § 307.2, was actually insufficient to pay more than 13.7 percent of the scheduled annual installment due December 31 of his second payment year.

(ii) Any amount the borrower has actually paid on his scheduled annual installment due December 31 of his second payment year plus any amount he was ahead of schedule on his loan as of December 31 of the preceding payment year does not exceed 13.7 percent of the scheduled annual installment.

(2) A contribution equal to less than 86.3 percent of the scheduled annual installment may be made in those cases where:

(i) Form FHA–14 indicates that the borrower's income, when used in accordance with the policies established in § 307.2, was actually insufficient to pay in full the scheduled annual installment due December 31 of his second payment year, but was adequate to pay more than 13.7 percent of such installment.

(ii) The borrower has not actually paid the full amount due December 31 of his second payment year.

(iii) The borrower was not ahead of schedule as of December 31 of the preceding payment year in an amount equal to or greater than the amount he is actually unable to pay on his installment due December 31 of his second payment year. If the borrower was ahead of schedule as of December 31 of the preceding payment year in an amount equal to or greater than the amount he is unable to pay for his second payment year, he would not be entitled to a contribution.

(c) Borrowers with third installment due December 31 of payment year. This group is composed of all section 503 borrowers whose third installment (second regular amortized installment) is due December 31 of the third payment year. The contributions for this group of borrowers will be determined in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, except that the maximum contribution to any borrower is 85.75 percent of the scheduled annual installment due, and the minimum payment required of each borrower is 14.25 percent of such installment.

(d) Borrowers with fourth installment due December 31 of payment year. This group is composed of all section 503 borrowers whose fourth installment (third regular amortized installment) is due December 31 of the fourth payment year. The contributions for this group of borrowers will be determined in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, except that the maximum contribution to any borrower is 85.19 percent of the scheduled annual installment due, and the minimum payment required of each borrower is 14.81 percent of such installment.

(e) Borrowers with fifth installment due December 31 of payment year. This group is composed of all section 503 borrowers whose fifth installment (fourth regular amortized installment) is due December 31 of the payment year. The contribution for this group of borrowers will be determined in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, except that the maximum contribution to any borrower is 84.59 percent of the scheduled annual installment due, and the minimum payment required of each borrower is 15.41 percent of such installment.

(1) In determining the amount of any contribution to which a borrower may be entitled on his fifth installment, the County Supervisor will analyze the borrower's records for the record book year ending November 30 and also will consider his estimated income and expenses for the following month of December.

(2) For those cases in which a contribution is made on the fifth installment, the County Supervisor, within 30 days after December 31, will review with the borrower his actual income and expenses for the month of December. If the County Supervisor determines that the borrower's income actually was sufficient to pay all or a part of the contribution he received on his fifth installment, the County Supervisor will:

(i) Collect the additional amount he determines that the borrower can pay on his Farm Housing loan, and

(ii) Advise the Area Finance Office by memorandum to reduce the amount of the contribution made on the fifth installment by the additional amount that the borrower is able to pay.

§ 307.4 Preparation and distribution of Form FHA–449. Form FHA–449 will be prepared for each section 503 Farm Housing borrower to whom a contribution will be made.

(a) The borrower will be required to sign the "Declaration of Borrower," section of Form FHA–449. No contribution will be made to any borrower unless he signs this statement.

(b) The County Supervisor will, after he has determined the amount of contribution to which a section 503 borrower is entitled, complete the "Contribution Determination" section of Form FHA–449 and give one copy to the borrower. The contribution will be applied the same as a regular payment namely: first to any accrued and unpaid interest shown on Form FHA–473, "Area Guide Card," and any remainder will be applied to principal.

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.1 to 501.30 issued under sec. 2, 62 Stat. 1240; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2001.

§ 501.1 Appearance. Any person may appear in proceedings relating to a claim before the Commission in his own behalf or through his authorized representative.

§ 501.2 Authorized representatives. The Commission will recognize three categories of authorized representatives: (a) An attorney at law authorized to practice before the Commission, (b) an agent authorized to practice before the Commission, or (c) an accredited organization. The Office of the General Counsel shall be the custodian of the records relating to authorized representatives.

§ 501.3 Attorneys at law. An attorney at law shall be deemed authorized to practice before the Commission, who after first filing a petition (WCC Form 1002, Petition For Admission To Practice As Attorney Practitioner) requesting enrollment shall be approved and placed upon the approved attorneys' roll by the Commission. The petition for enrollment shall state, among other things, the name and address of the petitioner, the place or places and dates of admission to practice law, a statement that the petitioner is in good standing as a member of the bar, a statement of employment if any by the government and dates; that he is familiar with section 10 of the War Claims Act of 1948, as amended, and the regulations of the Commission fixing fees thereunder and stating that he will comply with such rules of the Commission. Such petition should be supported by a certificate of court of record in the state, territory, or District of Columbia, in which such attorney practices that he is a person of good moral character and a member of the bar in good standing. After examination of such petition and supporting evidence and such investigation as the Commission deems necessary the Commission in its discretion will allow or deny the petition for enrollment.

§ 501.4 Agents. An agent shall be deemed authorized to practice before the Commission who after first filing a petion. (WCC Form 1003, Petition For Admission To Practice As Agent Practitioner) requesting enrollment shall be approved and placed upon the approved agents' roll by the Commission. The petition of enrollment shall state the name and address of petitioner, his usual business, experience in representing persons before the government, employment by the government if any with dates; said petition shall also contain a statement that the agent is familiar with section 10 of the act and the fees fixed by the Commission thereunder and that the agent intends to comply with such scheduled fees and other regulations of the Commission. Corporations may be recognized as agent representatives in appropriate cases. Any such corporate agent must present in its petition facts with reference to its organization, charter, purposes and business and also state its intention to observe the regulations of the Commission and the act with reference to fees. After examination of such petition and supporting evidence and such investigation as the Commission deems necessary, the Commission in its discretion will allow or deny the petition for enrollment.

§ 501.5 Accredited organizations. (a) Persons designated by veterans', service, and other organizations to appear before the Commission in a representative capacity on behalf of claimants shall be deemed duly authorized to practice before the Commission when the designating organization shall have been issued a letter of accreditation by the Commission.

(b) Petitions for accreditation shall be in writing, executed by duly authorized officer or officers, addressed to the War Claims Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

(c) Upon receipt of a petition setting forth pertinent facts as to the organization's history, purpose, number of posts or chapters and their locations, approximate number of paid-up membership, statements that the organization will not charge any fee for services rendered by its designates in behalf of claimants and that it will not refuse on the grounds of non-membership to represent any claimant who applies for such representation if he has an apparently valid claim; accompanied by a copy of the organization's constitution or charter, by-laws, and its latest financial statement, the Commission in its discretion will consider and in appropriate cases issue or deny letters of accreditation.

§ 501.6 Rules governing representatives and cancellation of authorization. No attorney or agent authorized to practice before the Commission shall either directly or indirectly charge or accept any fee or other remuneration in excess of the amount of such fee fixed by the Commission in each class of cases. No person shall attempt to represent any claimant or person acting in behalf of the claimant until a power of attorney in the form prescribed by the Commission or substantially similar to such form has been duly executed and filed with the Commission. Any violation of this part or other rules of the Commission by attorneys, agents, or organizations shall constitute cause for revocation of authority to practice before the Commission. In the event there is brought to the attention of the Commission information that any person authorized to practice before the Commission has been disbarred, indicted, or found guilty of acts which in the judgment of the Commission renders such person unsuitable to represent claimants before it, the Commission may revoke the authority of such person to practice before it. Whenever the Commission is informed that fees in excess of those fixed by it are being charged, collected, received or paid directly or indirectly, the Commission shall initiate appropriate procedures to invoke penal provisions of the act.

§ 501.7 Schedule of fees. The schedule of fees is set forth as follows:

For assisting internees or evaders in the preparation and filing of an application for detention benefits • • • not in excess of 1 percent of the total amount awarded.

For assisting prisoners of war in the preparation and filing of an application for compensation • • • not in excess of 1 percent of the total amount awarded.

For assisting survivors of internees, evaders, or prisoners of war in the preparation and filing of an application for either detention benefits or compensation • • • not in excess of 2 percent of the total amount awarded.

For securing additional oral or written testimony, or in the preparation and presentation of an appeal under sections 5 and 6 of the act the Commission may authorize an additional fee, but said additional fee plus the fee previously allowed will not exceed 10 percent of the total amount awarded.

For assisting religious organizations or the personnel of religious organizations in the preparation and filing of an application for reimbursement under section 7 (a) of the act, not in excess of:

10 percent on the first $1,000 awarded.
7½ percent on the next $9,000 awarded.
5 percent on the next $40,000 awarded.
1 percent on all over $50,000 awarded.

For services rendered to religious organizations or the personnel of religious organizations in presenting a claim for compensation under section 7 (b) through (g) of the act, a fee agreed upon by the parties, but not in excess of:

10 percent on the first $100,000 awarded.
6 percent on the next $400,000 awarded.
4 percent on all over $500,000 awarded.

§ 501.8 Suspension of attorneys. The Commission may censure, suspend or revoke the right of any attorney to appear before the Commission in any claim proceeding if it finds that such attorney has concealed any material facts with reference to his legal qualifications, professional standing, character or integrity, has failed to conform to recognized standards of professional conduct, has conducted himself in a contumacious, contemptuous or unethical manner before the Commission, or any board or unit thereof, or has violated the provisions of section 10 of the act.

§ 501.9 Rules of procedure. The Commission may, where it has cause to believe that any attorney has violated any provision of the law or of § 501.6, § 501.7, or § 501.8, institute proceedings to censure, suspend or revoke the right of such attorney, hereinafter called the respondent, to appear before the War Claims Commission. Such proceedings shall be governed by the rules in this part, Part 502 of this subchapter, and Part 516 of this chapter.

§ 501.10 Negotiations. At any time prior to hearing the Commission may, in its discretion, informally review submissions made by the respondent for the purpose of determining the propriety of continuing the authorization of the respondent to practice. The parties may at any time prior to or during the hearing limit the issues by stipulation. Such stipulations if any shall be entered in the record.

§ 501.11 Statement of charges. The statement of charges shall contain a plain and concise statement of the facts which it has claimed constitute grounds for censure, suspension or revocation of the right of the respondent to appear before the Commission. A statement of charges which fairly informs the respondent of the charges against him so that he is able to prepare his defense shall be deemed sufficient.

§ 501.12 Bill of particulars. If, in order to prepare for defense, the respondent desires additional information as to the time and place of the alleged misconduct, or the means by which it was committed, or any other more specific information concerning the alleged misconduct, he may present a motion in writing to the Commission asking that the statement of charges be made more specific, stating further in such motion in specific manner in which respect the statement of charges leaves him in doubt and describing the particular language of the statement of charges as to which additional information is required. If in the opinion of the Commission such information is reasonably necessary to enable the respondent to prepare his defense, the Commission shall furnish the respondent with a bill of particulars.

§ 501.13 Answer. The respondent's answer shall be filed in writing within the time specified in the original notice unless on application the time is extended pursuant to § 502.7 (b) of this subchapter. The answer shall be made under oath before an officer authorized to administer oaths and shall be filed in duplicate with the Commission.

§ 501.14 Content of answer. In his answer the respondent should specifically admit or deny every material allegation in the statement of charges. Every allegation in the statement of charges not denied shall be deemed admitted, unless the respondent shall state in his answer that he has no knowledge thereof sufficient to form a belief, which statement shall be considered a denial. In answer to a statement of charges, the respondent shall not deny a material allegation of fact which he knows to be true, or state in such answer that he is without sufficient information to form a belief when in fact he possesses such information.

§ 501.15 Affirmative defense. In his answer the respondent may also state affirmatively special matters of defense, and shall not give in evidence any matters in avoidance or of defense, consistent with the truth of the allegation of the statement of charges, unless in his answer he states such matters specifically.

§ 501.16 Complaining witness. The Commission may, in its discretion, furnish a complaining witness with a copy of the answer if in its opinion such action will aid in ascertaining the truth or falsity of the charges. The term "complaining witness" for the purposes of this provision shall include any officer or employee of the Commission or any attorney who may have reported the alleged misconduct to the Commission or any other person upon whose information the Commission has instituted the proceedings.

§ 501.17 Reply to answer. If the answer contains affirmative matter in avoidance, consistent with the truth of the material allegations in the statement of charges, a reply by the Commission admitting or denying the new matter set forth in the answer shall be served upon the respondent.

§ 501.18 Supplemental charges. If it appears that a denial of a material allegation of fact in the statement of charges, or a statement that the respondent has no knowledge sufficient to form a belief; was made in bad faith in the answer; or that the respondent has knowingly introduced false testimony during proceedings against him pursuant to the provisions of this part the Commission may thereupon file supplemental charges which charges may be tried with the other charges in the case, provided the respondent shall be given due notice thereof and afforded an opportunity for preparing a defense.

§ 501.19 Sufficiency of the pleadings. The Commission shall have authority to pass upon the sufficiency of the statement of charges, the answer, and all other pleadings. The parties may be heard upon the sufficiency of any pleadings whenever, in the opinion of the Commission, a hearing thereon is necessary or desirable.

§ 501.20 Immaterial mistakes. The Commission need not observe strict rules as to pleadings and may disregard immaterial misnomers of third persons, immaterial mistakes in description of any person, thing or place or the ownership of any property, a failure to prove immaterial allegations in the description of the respondent's conduct, or any other immaterial matters occurring at any point in the proceedings.

§ 501.21 Hearings. All evidence shall be presented before the Commission, decisions on procedure and final determinations may be taken by majority vote. Subject to its regulations in these respects the Commission may determine the time, place, and manner in which hearings shall be conducted; the form in which evidence shall be received, and may adopt rules of procedure and modify the same from time to time as occasion requires for the orderly disposition of disciplinary cases. Written notice of the time and place of all hearings shall be given the respondent in the manner provided in Part 502 of this subchapter for the service of papers. No hearing shall be held without reasonable notice thereof to the respondent, except that the Commission may postpone or adjourn hearings when necessary or desirable, on notice to the parties.

§ 501.22 Testimony. Unless the Commission shall otherwise direct, the testimony of witnesses at all hearings will be taken under oath and stenographically recorded and transcribed.

§ 501.23 Documents. Whenever any book, document or paper is introduced as an exhibit in a proceeding the Commission may authorize, upon such conditions as it may be deemed proper, the withdrawal of such exhibit upon the request of such party.

§ 501.24 Proof; partial. If the Commission finds that a part of the charges in the statement of charges is not sufficiently proved but that the residue thereof is so proved, it may base its determination on such charges as are so proved.

§ 501.25 Proof; variance. In the case of variance between the allegations in the statement of charges and the evidence, the Commission shall have power to base its findings on any facts established by the evidence which are grounds for censure, suspension of revocation and to order the amendment to the statement of charges to conform to the evidence: Provided, That the respondent has had or is given reasonable opportunity to present his defense to such amended charges, with such postponements of the hearings as may be reasonably necessary to permit the respondent to present such defense.

§ 501.26 Decision. After the parties rest, the Commission shall make its decision which decision may include (a) findings and conclusions, as well as the reasons or basis therefor, upon all the material issues of fact, and law, presented on the record and (b) an order to censure, suspend or revoke the right of the respondent to appear before the Commission or order to dismiss the charges as the case may require. If at any hearing upon issue of fact raised by the record in the case the respondent fails to put in any evidence the Commission may base its findings upon the record before it.

§ 501.27 Decision. The decision of the Commission, in the absence of a request for reconsideration pursuant to § 501.32, shall without further proceedings become the final decision of the agency.

§ 501.28 Notice of decisions. Each decision shall promptly be filed in the record, and the Commission shall thereupon give notice thereof to the parties in the manner prescribed for the service of papers.

§ 501.29 Effect of censure, suspension or revocation of right to practice. After the right of an attorney to appear before the Commission has been suspended or revoked, such person will not thereafter be recognized during the period of suspension or revocation as an attorney in any matter before the Commission.

§ 501.30 Reconsideration. An attorney who has been censured, suspended, or whose right to appear has been revoked may make written application to the Commission to have the order of suspension vacated or modified upon the ground (a) of newly discovered evidence or (b) that important evidence is now available which the applicant was unable to produce at the original hearing by the exercise of due diligence. Every application for reinstatement shall be filed with the Commission in duplicate. Such application must set forth specifically the precise character of the evidence to be relied upon in its support and shall state the reasons why the applicant was unable to produce it when the original charges were heard. If the Commission after due consideration of the application shall deem it sufficiently meritorious to warrant reopening, the Commission shall set a time and place for a hearing on the application and give due notice thereof to the applicant. Upon the conclusion of the hearing in the event that the Commission shall issue an order vacating or revoking the prior order to censure, suspend or revoke the right of an attorney to appear before the Commission, notice thereof shall be given by the Commission to all those to whom the original order of censure, suspension, or revocation of the right to appear before the Commission was sent.

PART 502—SUBPOENAS, DEPOSITIONS AND OATHS

Sec.
502.1 Extent of authority.
502.2 Subpoenas.
502.3 Service.
502.4 Witnesses.
502.5 Depositions.
502.6 Documentary evidence.
502.7 Time.

AUTHORITY: §§ 502.1 to 502.7 issued under sec. 2, 62 Stat. 1240, as amended; 50 U. S. C., App. Sup. 2001.

§ 502.1 Extent of authority—(a) Subpoenas, oaths and affirmations. The Commission or any member thereof may issue subpoenas, administer oaths and affirmations, take affidavits, conduct investigations, and examine witnesses in connection with any hearing, examination, or investigation within its jurisdiction.

(b) Certification. The Commission or any member thereof may, for the purpose of any such hearing, examination, or investigation, certify the correctness of any papers, documents, and other matters pertaining to the administration of any laws relating to the functions of the Commission.

§ 502.2 Subpoenas—(a) Issuance. A member of the Commission or a designated employee may, on his own volition or upon written application by any party and upon a showing of general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought, issue subpoenas requiring persons to appear and testify or to appear and produce documents. Applications for the issuance of subpoenas duces tecum shall specify the books, records, correspondence, or other documents sought. The subpeona shall show on its face the name and address of the party at whose request the subpoena was issued.

(b) Deposit for costs. The Commission or designated employee, before issuing any subpoena in response to any application by an interested party, may require a deposit in an amount adequate to cover the fees and mileage involved.

(c) Motion to quash. If any person subpoenaed does not intend to comply with the subpoena, he shall, within 15 days after the date of service of the subpoena upon him, petition in writing to quash the subpoena. The basis for the motion must be stated in detail. Any party desiring to file an answer to a motion to quash must file such answer not later than 15 days after the filing of the motion. The Commission shall rule on the motion to quash, duly recognizing any answer thereto filed. The motion, answer, and any ruling thereon shall become part of the official record.

(d) Appeal from interlocutory order. An appeal may be taken to the Commission by the interested parties from the denial of a motion to quash or from the refusal to issue a subpoena for the production of documentary evidence.

(e) Order of court upon failure to comply. Upon the failure or refusal of any person to comply with a subpoena, the Commission may invoke the aid of the United States District Court within the jurisdiction of which the hearing, examination, or investigation is being conducted, or wherein such person resides or transacts business. Such court, pursuant to the provisions of Public Law 696, 81st Congress, approved August 16, 1950, 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2001 (d), may issue an order requiring such person to appear at the designated place of hearing, examination, or investigation, then and there to give or produce testimony or documentary evidence concerning the matter in question. Any failure to obey such an order may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof. All processes in any such case may be served in the judicial district wherein such person resides or transacts business or wherever such person may be found.

§ 502.3 Service—(a) Service by registered mail. Subpoenas, orders, rulings, and other processes of the Commission, may be served by delivering in person or by registered mail addressed to the person, partnership, or corporation to be served at his or its residence, principal office or place of business, except when service by another method shall be specifically ordered by the Commission.

(b) Personal service. Service by delivering in person may be accomplished by:

(1) Delivering a copy of the document to the person to be served, to a member of the partnership to be served, to an executive officer, or a director of the corporation to be served, or to a person competent to accept service; or

(2) By leaving a copy thereof at the residence, principal office or place of business of such person, partnership, or corporation.

(c) Proof of service. The return post office registered receipt for said order, other process or supporting papers, or the verification by the person serving, setting forth the manner of said service, shall be proof of the service of the document.

(d) Service upon attorney or agent. When any party has appeared by an authorized attorney or agent, service upon such attorney or agent shall be deemed service upon the party.

(e) Date of service. The date of service shall be the day upon which the document is deposited in the United States mail or delivered in person, as the case may be.

§ 502.4 Witnesses—(a) Examination of witnesses. Witnesses shall appear in person and be examined orally under oath, except that for good cause shown, testimony may be taken by deposition.

(b) Witness fees and mileage. Witnesses summoned by the Commission on its own behalf or on behalf of a claimant or interested party shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are allowed and paid witnesses in the District Courts of the United States. Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the Commission or by the party at whose request the witness appears.

(c) Transcript of testimony. Every person required to attend and testify or to submit documents or other evidence shall be entitled to retain or, on payment of prescribed costs, procure a copy or transcript of his testimony or the documents produced.

§ 502.5 Depositions—(a) Application to take. An application to take a deposition shall be in writing setting forth the reason why such deposition should be taken, the name and address of the witness, the matters concerning which it is expected the witness will testify, and the time and place proposed for the taking of the deposition, together with the name and address of the person before whom it is desired that the deposition be taken. If such deposition is being offered in connection with a hearing or examination, the application for deposition shall be made to the Commission at least 15 days prior to the proposed date of such hearing or examination.

Application to take a deposition may be made during a hearing or examination, or, subsequent to a hearing or examination only where it is shown for good cause that such testimony is essential and that the facts as set forth in the application to take the deposition were not within the knowledge of the person signing the application prior to the time of the hearing or examination.

The Commission or its representative shall, upon receipt of the application and a showing of good cause, make and cause to be served upon the parties an order which will specify the name of the witness whose deposition is to be taken, the time, the place, and where practicable the designation of the officer before whom the witness is to testify. Such officer may or may not be the one specified in the application. The order shall be served upon all parties at least 10 days prior to the date of the taking of the deposition.

(b) Who may take. Such deposition may be taken before the designated officer or, if none is designated, before any officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States. If the examination is held in a foreign country, it may be taken before a secretary of an embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States.

(c) Examination and certification of testimony. At the time and place specified in said order the officer taking such deposition shall permit the witness to be examined and cross-examined under oath by all parties appearing, and his testimony shall be reduced to writing by, or under the direction of, the presiding officer. All objections to questions or evidence shall be deemed waived unless made in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section. The officer shall not have power to rule upon any objections but he shall note them upon the deposition. The testimony shall be subscribed by the witness in the presence of the officer who shall attach his certificate stating that the witness was duly sworn by him, that the deposition is a true record of the testimony and exhibits given by the witness, and that said officer is not counsel or attorney to any of the interested parties. The officer shall immediately seal and deliver an original and two copies of said transcript, together with his certificate, by registered mail to the War Claims Commission, Washington 25, D. C., or the field office designated.

(d) Admissibility in evidence. The deposition shall be admissible in evidence, subject to such objections to the questions and answers as were noted at the time of taking the deposition, or within ten (10) days after the return thereof, and would be valid were the witness personally present at the hearing.

(e) Errors and irregularities. All errors or irregularities occurring shall be deemed waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

(f) Scope of use. The deposition of a witness, if relevant, may be used if the Commission finds: (1) That the witness has died since the deposition was taken; or (2) that the witness is beyond a distance greater than 100 mile radius of Washington, D. C., the designated field office or the designated place of the hearing; or (3) that the witness is unable to attend because of other good cause shown.

(g) Interrogatories and cross-interrogatories. Depositions may also be taken and submitted on written interrogatories in substantially the same manner as depositions taken by oral examinations. When a deposition is taken upon interrogatories and cross-interrogatories, none of the parties shall be present or represented, and no person, other than the witness, and his representative or attorney, a stenographic reporter and the presiding officer, shall be present at the examination of the witness, which fact shall be certified by such officer, who shall propound the interrogatories and cross-interrogatories to the witness in their order and reduce the testimony to writing in the witness' own words.

(h) Fees. A witness whose deposition is taken pursuant to the regulations in this part and the officer taking the deposition, shall be entitled to the same fees and mileage allowed and paid for like service in the United States District Court for the district in which the deposition is taken. Such fees shall be paid by the Commission or by the party at whose request the deposition is being taken.

§ 502.6 Documentary evidence. Documentary evidence may consist of books, records, correspondence or other documents pertinent to any hearing, examination, or investigation within the jurisdiction of the Commission. The application for the issuance of subpoenas duces tecum shall specify the books, records, correspondence or other documents sought. The production of documentary evidence shall not be required at any place other than the witness' place of business. The production of such documents shall not be required at any place if, prior to the return date specified in the subpoena, such person either has furnished the issuer of the subpoena with a properly certified copy of such documents or has entered into a stipulation as to the information contained in such documents.

§ 502.7 Time—(a) Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by the regulations in this part, by order of the Commission, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Sunday nor a holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 7 days, Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in the computation. A half holiday shall be considered as other days and not as a holiday.

(b) Enlargement. When by the regulations in this part or by a notice given thereunder or by order of the Commission an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the Commission for cause shown may, at any time in its discretion (1) with or without motion or notice, previous order or (2) upon motion permit the act to be done after the expiration of the specified period where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect.

Subchapter B—Receipt, Adjudication and Payment of Claims

PART 505—FILING OF CLAIMS AND PROCEDURES THEREFOR

Sec.
505.1 Claim defined.
505.2 Time within which claims may be filed.
505.3 Official forms.
505.4 Official certificate of dependency.
505.5 Place of filing claims.
505.6 Documents to accompany forms.
505.7 Language for forms and documents.
505.8 Receipt of claims.
505.9 Failure to note change of address.

AUTHORITY: §§ 505.1 to 505.9 issued under sec. 2, 62 Stat. 1240; 50 U. S. C., App. Sup. 2001.

§ 505.1 Claim defined. (a) A properly completed and executed application made on an official form provided by the Commission for such purpose constitutes a claim and will be adjudicated under laws administered by the Commission.

(b) Any communication, letter, note or memorandum from a claimant, or his duly authorized representative, or a person acting as next friend of a claimant who is not sui juris, setting forth sufficient facts to apprise the Commission of an intent to apply under the provisions of sections 5 (a) through (e), 6 and 7 (a) of the act shall be deemed to be an informal claim. When an informal claim is received and an official form is forwarded for completion and execution by the applicant, such official form shall be considered as evidence necessary to complete the initial claim, and unless such official form is received within six months from the date it was transmitted for execution, the claim will be disallowed.

(c) Any communication, letter, note or memorandum from a claimant, or his duly authorized representative setting forth sufficient facts to apprise the Commission of an intent to apply under the provisions of section 7 (b) and (c) of the act shall be deemed to be an informal claim. When an informal claim is received and an official form is forwarded for completion and execution by the applicant, such official form shall be considered as evidence necessary to complete the initial claim, and unless such official form is received within two months from the date it was transmitted for execution, the claim will be disallowed.

§ 505.2 Time within which claims may be filed. (a) Claims made under sections 5 (a) through (e) of the act will be received by the Commission during the period from January 3, 1950, to March 31, 1952, inclusive, in accordance with notice given pursuant to the provisions of section 2 (d) of the act, as amended. Claims to be accepted must be postmarked before midnight March 31, 1952, or delivered to the Office of the War Claims Commission at Washington, D. C., to any field office thereof, or to any person or agency authorized by the Commission to receive claims on its behalf, before midnight March 31, 1952.

(b) Claims made under sections 6 (a) through (c) of the act will be received by the Commission during the period from January 3, 1950, to March 31, 1952, inclusive, in accordance with notice given pursuant to the provisions of section 2 (d) of the act, as amended. Claims to be accepted must be postmarked before midnight March 31, 1952, or delivered to the Office of the War Claims Commission at Washington, D. C., to any field office thereof, or to any person or agency authorized by the Commission to receive claims on its behalf, before midnight March 31, 1952.

(c) Claims made under section 6 (d) of the act will be received by the Commission during the period from April 9, 1952, to midnight April 9, 1953, in accordance with the notice given pursuant to the provisions of section 2 (d) of the act, as amended, and section 3 of Pub. Law 303, 82d Cong., approved April 9, 1952. Claims to be accepted must be postmarked before midnight April 9, 1953, or delivered to the Office of the War Claims Commission at Washington, D. C., to any field office thereof, or to any person or agency authorized by the Commission to receive claims on its behalf, before midnight April 9, 1953.

(d) Claims made under section 7 (a) of the act will be received by the Commission during the period from January 3, 1950, to March 31, 1952, inclusive, in accordance with notice given pursuant to the provisions of section 2 (d) of the act, as amended. Claims to be accepted must be postmarked before midnight March 31, 1952, or delivered to the Office of the War Claims Commission at Washington, D. C., to any field office thereof, or to any person or agency authorized by the Commission to receive claims on its behalf, before midnight March 31, 1952.

(e) Claims made under section 7 (b) and (c) of the act will be received by the Commission during the period from April 9, 1952, to October 1, 1952, inclusive, in accordance with notice given pursuant to the provisions of section 2 (d) of the act, as amended, and section 2 (f) of Pub. Law 303, 82d Cong., approved April 9, 1952. Claims to be accepted must be postmarked before midnight October 1, 1952, or delivered to the Office of the War Claims Commission at Washington, D. C., to any field office thereof, or to any person or agency authorized by the Commission to receive claims on its behalf, before midnight October 1, 1952.

§ 505.3 Official forms. Official forms are provided for use in the preparation of claims for submission to the Commission for adjudication and such forms are available as prescribed in section 7 of the description of organization (14 F. R. 7819). An official form is provided for each type of claim that may be made under the provisions of sections 5 (a) through (e), 6 (a) through (c), 6 (d), as added by Public Law 303, 82d Congress, 7 (a), or 7 (b), or (c) of the act, as amended, and each such official form is accompanied by printed instructions which explain its proper use, preparation, and execution. The official forms provided for use with respect to each type of claim adjudicable under said sections 5(a) through (e), 6 (a) through (c), 6 (d) as added by Public Law 303, 82d Congress, 7 (a) or 7 (b) or (c) of the act, are designated and identified as follows:

(a) For compensation by living prisoners of war, WCC Form 601—Application for Living Ex-Prisoner of War Benefits.

(b) For compensation by living Philippine prisoners of war, or their survivors, WCC Form 602—Application for Ex-Prisoner of War Allowance.

(c) For compensation by living prisoners of war, arising out of inhumane treatment or forced labor, WCC Form 611—Application for Living Ex-Prisoner of War Compensation for Compulsory Labor and/or Inhumane Treatment.

(d) For compensation by living Philippine prisoners of war, arising out of inhumane treatment or forced labor, WCC Form 612—Application for Living Ex-Prisoner of War Compensation for Compulsory Labor and/or Inhumane Treatment.

(e) For compensation by survivors of deceased prisoners of war, WCC Form 650—Application for Prisoner of War Benefits by Survivors of Deceased Prisoners of War.

(f) For compensation by survivors of deceased prisoners of war, for inhumane treatment and forced labor, WCC Form 660—Application for Survivors of Deceased Ex-Prisoners of War for Compensation for Compulsory Labor and or Inhumane Treatment.

(g) For detention benefits by living civilian American citizens, WCC Form 501—Application for Living Civilian Detention Benefits.

(h) For detention benefits by survivors of deceased civilian American citizens, WCC Form 550—Application for Detention Benefits by Survivors of Deceased Civilian Prisoners, Internees, Etc.

(i) For reimbursement by a religious organization or the personnel of a religious organization, WCC Form 701—Application for Reimbursement by Religious Organizations or Religious Personnel.

(j) For compensation to any religious organizations or personnel of a religious organization for loss or damage sustained to facilities as a consequence of the war, WCC Form 711—Application by Religious Organization for Compensation for Loss and Damage to Property as a Consequence of World War II.

§ 505.4 Official certificate of dependency. Claims submitted to the Commission for adjudication by a dependent husband as a survivor of a deceased prisoner of war or as a survivor of a deceased civilian American citizen (as defined in section 5 of the act) shall be accompanied by a certificate of dependency prepared on an official form designated and identified as WCC Form 551—Husband's Certificate of Dependency.

§ 505.5 Place of filing claims. Claims submitted to the Commission for adjudication under the provisions of section 5 (a) through (e), 6 or 7 of the act, shall be filed at the offices of the Commission at Washington, D. C., at any field office thereof, or with any person or agency authorized by the Commission to receive claims on its behalf.

§ 505.6 Documents to accompany forms. (a) All claims filed pursuant to the provisions of sections 5 (a) through (e), 6 and 7 (a) of the act shall be accompanied by all the evidentiary documents, instruments and records prescribed in the instructions which accompany each type of official form (see § 505.3). If such evidentiary documents, instruments, and records do not accompany the claim and are not furnished within six months following the date of request, the claim may be deemed to have been abandoned and be disallowed.

(b) All claims filed pursuant to the provisions of sections 7 (b) and (c) of the act shall be accompanied by all the evidentiary documents, instruments and records prescribed in the instructions which accompany the official form (see § 505.3). If such evidentiary documents, instruments, and records do not accompany the claim and are not furnished within one month following the date of request, the claim may be deemed to have been abandoned and be disallowed.

§ 505.7 Language for forms and documents. Official forms shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions which accompany each type of official form and in the English language, but evidentiary documents, instruments or records, or authenticated copies thereof, shall be submitted in the language in which originally written.

§ 505.8 Receipt of claims—(a) Claims deemed received. A claim shall be deemed to have been received by the Commission on the date postmarked, if mailed, or if delivery is made in person, on the date when delivered, either at the office of the Commission in Washington, D. C., at any field office thereof, or with any person or agency authorized by the Commission to receive claims on its behalf.

(b) Claims developed. In the event that a claim has been so prepared as to preclude adjudication thereof, the Commission may request the claimant to furnish whatever supplemental evidence, including the completion and execution of an official form, as may be essential to the adjudication thereof. If the evidence or official form requested is not received within the time limitations set forth in §§ 505.1 and 505.6 the claim may be deemed to have been abandoned and be disallowed.

§ 505.9 Failure to note change of address. If any communication mailed to the claimant at the last address furnished to the Commission is returned unclaimed, the claim may be disallowed for failure of the claimant to keep the Commission informed of current address. Such claims shall thereupon be sent to the closed files.

PART 506—PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION

Sec.
506.1 Persons eligible to file claims.
506.2 Persons under legal disability.
506.3 Definitions.

AUTHORITY: §§ 506.1 to 506.3 issued under sec. 2, 62 Stat. 1240; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2001.

§ 506.1 Persons eligible to file claims. Persons eligible to submit claims to the Commission for adjudication under the provisions of sections 5, 6, or 7 of the act, are:

(a) Prisoners of war or the survivors of deceased prisoners of war under the provisions of section 6 of the act,

(b) Civilian American citizens or the survivors of deceased civilian American citizens for detention benefits under the provisions of section 5 of the act,

(c) Religious organizations or the personnel of religious organizations for reimbursement under the provisions of section 7 of the act.

§ 506.2 Persons under legal disability. (a) Claims may be submitted for adjudication on behalf of persons who, being otherwise eligible to make claims under the provisions of sections 5 (a) through (e), and 6 of the act, are incompetent or otherwise under any legal disability, by the natural or legal guardian, committee, conservator, curator, or any other person including the spouse of such claimant, whom the Commission may determine is vested with the care of the claimant or his estate.

(b) In the event the Commission has before it satisfactory evidence that a member of the armed forces of the United States on active duty in Korea or captured by the forces of aggression fighting in Korea or elsewhere or reported missing in action, interned or beleaguered may be eligible to file a claim for compensation under Pub. Law 303, 82d Cong., and is unable to file a claim because of inaccessibility to forms and mailing facilities, the Commission may file an informal claim in behalf of such person.

§ 506.3 Definitions—(a) Widow. A "widow" is the surviving female spouse of a deceased prisoner of war or a deceased civilian American citizen who was married to the deceased at the time of his death by a marriage valid under the applicable law of the place where entered into.

(b) Dependent husband. A "dependent husband" is the surviving male spouse of a deceased prisoner of war or of a deceased civilian American citizen who was married to the deceased at the time of her death by a marriage valid under the applicable law of the place where entered into, and who was then dependent upon the deceased.

(c) Child. (1) A "child" is a natural or adopted son or daughter of a deceased prisoner of war or a deceased civilian American citizen, including any posthumous son or daughter of such deceased person.

(2) Any son or daughter of such deceased person born out of wedlock will be deemed to be a child of such deceased for the purposes of this act if, (i) legitimated by a subsequent marriage of the parents, (ii) recognized as a child of the deceased by his or her admission, or (iii) so declared by an order or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) Parent. (1) A "parent" is the natural or adoptive father or mother of a deceased prisoner of war, or any person standing in loco parentis to a deceased prisoner of war for a period of not less than one year immediately preceding the date of his entry into active service and during at least one year of his minority. Not more than one mother and/or father as defined shall be recognized in any case. A person will not be recognized as standing in loco parentis if the natural parents or adoptive parents are living, unless there is affirmative evidence of abandonment and renunciation of parental duties and obligations by the natural or adoptive parent or parents prior to entry into active service by the deceased prisoner of war.

An award in the full amount allowable had the deceased prisoner of war survived may be made to only one parent when it is shown that the other parent has died or if there is affirmative evidence of abandonment and renunciation of parental duties and obligations by the other parent.

(2) The father of an illegitimate child will not be recognized as such for purposes of the act unless evidence establishes that (i) he has legitimated the child by subsequent marriage with the mother; (ii) recognized the child as his by written admission prior to enlistment of the deceased in the armed forces; (iii) or prior to death of the child he has been declared by decree of a court of competent jurisdiction to be the father.

(e) Dependent. A husband of a deceased prisoner of war or of a deceased civilian American citizen will be deemed to be dependent if, at the time of the capture or the death of the prisoner of war or of the civilian American citizen, the deceased contributed substantially to the support of such husband.

(f) Natural guardian. The father and mother shall be deemed to be the natural guardians of the person of their minor children. If either dies or is incapable of acting, the natural guardianship of the person shall devolve upon the other. In the event of death or incapacity of both parents then such blood relative, paternal or maternal, standing in loco parentis to the minor shall be deemed the natural guardian.

SUBPART A—PRISONER OF WAR COMPENSATION

AUTHORITY: §§ 507.1 to 507.12 issued under sec. 2, 62 Stat. 1240; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2001.

§ 507.1 Persons entitled to award of compensation. Any regularly appointed, enrolled, enlisted, or inducted member of the military or naval forces of the United States who was held as a prisoner of war for any period of time subsequent to December 7, 1941, by a government of any nation with which the United States has been at war subsequent to December 7, 1941, and, with respect to whom the enemy government by which he was held as a prisoner of war (a) violated its obligation to furnish him the quantity and quality of food to which he was entitled as a prisoner of war under the terms of the Geneva Convention of July 27, 1929; or (b) violated its obligation relating to the treatment to be accorded a prisoner of war and the rules governing labor of prisoners of war, who makes claim is a person entitled to an award of compensation as a prisoner of war.

§ 507.2 Rate of and basis for award of compensation. (a) Compensation allowed a prisoner of war under sections 6 (a) through (c) of the act will be paid at the rate of $1 per each day that he was held as a prisoner of war on which the enemy government failed to furnish him such quantity or quality of food required to be furnished prisoners of war under the terms of the Geneva Convention of July 27, 1929.

(b) Compensation allowed a prisoner of war under the terms of section 6 (d) of the act, as added by Pub. Law 303, 82d Cong., will be paid at the rate of not to exceed $1.50 for each day that he was held as a prisoner of war on which the enemy government subjected him to inhumane treatment and/or compelled him to engage in labor contrary to the provisions of the Geneva Convention of July 27, 1929.

§ 507.3 Membership in the military or naval forces of the United States. Regular appointment, enrollment, enlistment or induction in the military or naval forces of the United States shall be established by certification of the Department of Defense.

§ 507.4 Military or naval forces of the United States. "Military or naval forces of the United States" means the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard; commissioned officers of the United States Public Health Service who were detailed for active duty with the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard; commissioned officers of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey who were assigned to duty during World War II on projects of the War and Navy departments outside the continental United States; members of the organized Philippine Army of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines and other units who were called or ordered into service of the armed forces of the United States in valid orders by the General, United States Army, designated by the Secretary of War, pursuant to and in compliance with the Military Order of the President of the United States, dated July 26, 1941 (6 F. R. 3825; 3 CFR, 1943 Cum. Supp.).

§ 507.5 Enemy government. "Enemy government" means any government of any nation with which the United States has been at war subsequent to December 7, 1941; and, "any government of any nation with which the United States has been at war" means any government which declared war on the United States on or after December 7, 1941, or with which, as respects the United States, a state of war existed subsequent to that date.

§ 507.6 Subsequent to December 7, 1941. "Subsequent to December 7, 1941," means any time following 12:00 o'clock midnight, December 7, 1941.

§ 507.7 The Geneva Convention. The Geneva Convention is the "Convention of July 27, 1929, Relative To The Treatment Of Prisoners Of War" entered into between the United States and other powers at Geneva, Switzerland, on July 27, 1929, to the observance of which, among other signatory powers, the United States, Germany, Italy, Hungary, Bulgaria, Thailand, and Japan subsequently became bound.

§ 507.8 Obligation of the Geneva Convention. For the purposes of this part, the obligation of the Geneva Convention is the responsibility assumed by the contracting parties thereto, with respect to prisoners of war within the meaning of the Convention, to comply with and to fully observe the provisions of the Convention, and particularly those articles relating to food ration of prisoners of war, humane treatment, protection, and labor of prisoners of war.

§ 507.9 Equal in quantity and quality. "Equal in quantity and quality" means food that is equal in amount and volume, and in edibility, palatability, and nutritional value to a standard ration prescribed by the detaining power for issue to its own military or naval personnel at its own base camps.

§ 507.10 Base camp. "Base camp" means a permanent military establishment used by the detaining power to provide quarters for components of its own regularly established military or naval forces, and for the purposes of this part, shall be deemed to include only camps at which a standard ration or standard quarters were prescribed by the detaining power for issue or allotment to its own regularly established military or naval forces.

§ 507.11 Violation of the obligation of the Geneva Convention. For the purposes of this part, the obligation of the Geneva Convention shall be deemed to have been violated by the enemy government each day:

(a) That it did not furnish prisoners of war within the meaning of this act and the Geneva Convention with food of like quantity or quality as that prescribed by the detaining power as a standard ration for issue to its own regularly established military or naval forces at its own base camps.

(b) That it compelled prisoners of war to perform labor and failed to comply with the standards prescribed in the labor provisions of the Geneva Convention of July 27, 1929, including those listed in subparagraphs (1) to (13) of this paragraph but not excluding any provision which may be appropriately applied.

(1) The labor of able prisoners of war, if utilized, should have been utilized by the detaining power only in accordance with their rank and aptitude, officers and persons of equivalent status excepted.

(2) Non-commissioned officers should have been required to do only supervisory work, unless they expressly requested remunerative work.

(3) Prisoners of war who were victims of accidents in connection with their work were entitled to the provisions applicable to laborers of the same class according to the legislation of the detaining power, and if no such legislation existed, all proper measures to equitably indemnify the victims should have been taken.

(4) The detaining power had full responsibility for the maintenance, care, treatment and payment of wages of prisoners of war working for private persons.

(5) No prisoner of war should have been employed at labor for which he was physically unfit.

(6) The length of a day's work of prisoners of war, including the trip going and returning, should not have been excessive and should not, in any case, have exceeded that customary for civilian workers in the region employed at the same work.

(7) Every prisoner of war should have been allowed a rest period of 24 consecutive hours every week.

(8) Labor furnished by prisoners of war should not have had any direct relation with war operations, especially in manufacturing or transporting arms or munitions of any kind, or in transporting material intended for combat units.

(9) Prisoners of war should not have been employed at unhealthful or dangerous work; the conditions of labor should not have been aggravated by disciplinary measures.

(10) Labor detachments should have worked only under conditions similar to the standards fixed for prisoner of war camps, particularly with respect to sanitary conditions, food, attention in case of accident or sickness, correspondence and the receipt of packages.

(11) Prisoners of war were not entitled to receive wages for work connected with the administration, management and maintenance of prisoners of war camps.

(12) Prisoners of war utilized for other work were entitled to wages in amounts prescribed through agreement between belligerents.

(13) Such agreements should have specified the portion which was to be retained by the camp administration, the amount which was to be paid to the prisoner of war, and the manner in which that amount was to be put at his disposal during the period of his captivity.

(ii) In the absence of such agreement, work done for the detaining power should have been paid for in accordance with the rates in force for soldiers of the national army doing the same work, or if none existed, according to a rate in harmony with the work performed.

(iii) Work performed for the account of other public administrations or for private persons, should have been paid for as regulated by agreement with the military authority.

(13) The proceeds of wages remaining to the credit of a prisoner of war should have been delivered to him at the end of his captivity, and in the event of his death, should have been forwarded through diplomatic channels to his heirs.

(c) That it failed to accord to prisoners of war humane treatment as required by the standards prescribed in the provisions of the Geneva Convention of July 27, 1929, including those listed in subparagraphs (1) to (14) of this paragraph but not excluding any provisions relating to humane treatment which may be appropriately applied.

(1) Prisoners of war should at all times have been humanely treated and protected, particularly against acts of violence, insults and public curiosity. Measures of reprisal against them should have been prohibited.

(2) Prisoners of war should have had their person and their honor respected. Women should have been treated with all the regard due to their sex. Prisoners were entitled to retain their full civil status.

(3) Prisoners of war should have been evacuated within the shortest possible period after their capture, to depots located in regions far enough from the zone of combat for them to be out of danger.

(i) Only those prisoners who, because of wounds or sickness, would have been exposed to greater risks by such evacuation than by remaining may have been temporarily kept in a dangerous zone.

(ii) Prisoners of war should not have been needlessly exposed to danger while awaiting their evacuation from a combat zone.

(iii) Evacuation of prisoners on foot should normally have been effected only in stages of 20 kilometers per day, unless the necessity for reaching water and food depots required longer stages.

(4) Prisoners of war should have been lodged in buildings or in barracks affording all possible guarantees of hygiene and healthfulness.

(i) The quarters of prisoners of war should have been fully protected from dampness, sufficiently heated and lighted. All precautions should have been taken against fire hazards.

(ii) If dormitories were used, the total surface minimum cubic amount of air, arrangement, material of bedding, and other conditions, should have met the standards established for troops at base camps of the detaining power.

(5) Clothing, linens and footwear should have been furnished to prisoners of war by the detaining power. Replacement and repair of such effects should have been accomplished regularly. In addition, laborers should have received work clothes wherever required by the nature of the work.

(6) Canteens should have been installed in all camps where prisoners of war could obtain, at the local market price, food products and ordinary objects. Profits made by such canteens for camp administrations should have been used for the benefit of prisoners.

(7) The detaining powers should have taken all sanitary measures necessary to insure the cleanliness and healthfulness of the camps and to prevent epidemics.

(i) Prisoners of war were entitled to have at their disposal, day and night, installations conforming to sanitary rules and constantly maintained in a state of cleanliness.

(ii) Without prejudice to baths and showers, with which the camp should have been as well provided as possible, prisoners should have been furnished sufficient quantity of water for the care of their own bodily cleanliness.

(iii) Provisions should have been made for prisoners of war to take physical exercise and to enjoy the open air.

(8) Officers and persons of equivalent status as prisoners of war should have been treated with due regard to their rank and age.

(9) In order to insure service in officers camps, soldiers of the same army who were prisoners of war and, wherever possible, who spoke the same language, should have been assigned thereto, in sufficient numbers, considering the rank of the officers and persons equivalent in status.

(10) With respect to arrest of a prisoner of war for disciplinary punishment the duration of a single punishment should not have exceeded 30 days.

(i) The maximum of 30 days should not have been exceeded in the case of several acts for which the prisoner was required to undergo discipline at the time when it was ordered for him whether or not such acts were connected.

(ii) When, during, or after the end of the period of arrest, the prisoner had a new disciplinary punishment imposed on him, a space of at least 3 days should have separated each of the periods of arrest, if any one of them was for a period of 10 days or more.

(11) In no case should prisoners of war have been transferred to penitentiary establishments for the purpose of disciplinary punishment.

(12) The quarters in which prisoners of war were subjected to disciplinary punishment should have conformed to sanitary requirements set out in the Convention.

(13) Prisoners subjected to disciplinary punishment should have been afforded the opportunity to keep themselves clean and should have been allowed to exercise or stay in the open air for a period of at least two hours during each day under such punishment.

(14) Prisoners of war subjected to disciplinary punishment should have been allowed to read and write as well as to send and receive letters. Packages and money for prisoners of war subjected to disciplinary punishment may have been withheld until the expiration of such punishment.

§ 507.12 Survivors entitled to award of compensation. In the case of the death of a prisoner of war who would have been entitled to an award of compensation under section 6 of the act, such compensation shall be awarded to, and if claim is made only to, the following persons: (a) Widow or dependent husband if there is no child or children of the deceased; (b) widow or dependent husband and child or children of the deceased, one-half to the widow or dependent husband and the other half to the child or children of the deceased in equal shares; (c) child or children of the deceased (in equal shares) if there is no widow or dependent husband; and (d) parents (in equal shares) if there is no widow, dependent husband, or child.

SUBPART B—INTERNED CIVILIAN AMERICAN CITIZENS DETENTION BENEFITS

AUTHORITY: §§ 507.20 to 507.38 issued under sec. 2, 62 Stat. 1240; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2001.

§ 507.20 Persons entitled to award of detention benefits. Any civilian American citizen who, being then a citizen of the United States, was captured by the Imperial Japanese government on or after December 7, 1941, at Midway, Guam, Wake Island, the Philippine Islands, or any Territory or possession of the United States attacked or invaded by such government, or while in transit to or from any such place (referred to in this subpart as "internee") or who went into hiding at any such place in order to avoid capture or internment (referred to in this subpart as an "evader"), by such government and who makes claim is a person entitled to an award of detention benefits.

§ 507.21 Term "being then" defined. "Being then" as used in the phrase "being then a citizen of the United States" means (a) in the case of an internee, the date upon which he was captured by the Imperial Japanese government (b) in the case of an evader, the date upon which he initiated a course of conduct intended to effect an evasion of capture or internment by such government, or (c) in the case of a child born of an evader or internee on or after December 7, 1941, the date of birth of such child.

§ 507.22 Citizen of the United States. "Citizen of the United States" means a person who under applicable law acquired citizenship of the United States by birth, by naturalization, or by derivation.

§ 507.23 Captured by the Imperial Japanese government. A civilian American citizen shall be deemed to have been captured by the Imperial Japanese government at the time when, by reason of any act of such government or any agent thereof, he was taken into actual or constructive custody by such government, whether by forceable seizure and detention or by his compliance with any order of such government, however published, directing him to restrict his freedom of movement.

§ 507.24 On or after December 7, 1941. "On or after December 7, 1941," means any time subsequent to 12:00 o'clock midnight of December 6, 1941.

§ 507.25 Any such place. "Any such place" means Midway, Guam, Wake Island, the Philippine Islands, Alaska, or any other Territory or possession of the United States attacked or invaded by such government.

§ 507.26 In transit to or from. A civilian American citizen shall be deemed to have been in transit to or from any such place when he was travelling by sea or by air aboard a public, private, or government carrier in any capacity, the destination of which carrier was, or the itinerary of which included calls at Midway, Guam, Wake Island, the Philippine Islands, Alaska, or any other Territory or possession of the United States attacked or invaded by such government, or which had taken a departure from any such place.

§ 507.27 Went into hiding. A civilian American citizen shall be deemed to have entered into hiding to avoid capture or internment by the Imperial Japanese government when he initiated a course of conduct consistent with an intention to evade such capture or detention.

§ 507.28 Subsequent to December 6, 1941. "Subsequent to December 6, 1941" means any time subsequent to 12:00 o'clock midnight of December 6, 1941.

§ 507.29 Rate of detention benefits. Detention benefits awarded a civilian American citizen will be paid at the rate of $60.00 for each calendar month of internment during which such person was at least eighteen years of age and at the rate of $25.00 for each calendar month of internment during which such person was less than eighteen years of age. Awards shall take account of fractional parts of a calendar month.

§ 507.30 Calendar month. "Calendar month" means the period of time between a designated day of any given month and the date preceding a similarly designated day of the following month.

§ 507.31 Less than eighteen years of age. A civilian American citizen shall be deemed to have been less than eighteen years of age at any time prior to 12:01 a. m. of the date on which such person would have attained his eighteenth birthday.

§ 507.32 Survivors entitled to award of detention benefits. In the case of the death of a civilian American citizen who would have been entitled to detention benefits under the act, such benefits shall be awarded if claim is made only to the following persons: (a) Widow or dependent husband if there is no child or children of the deceased; (b) widow or dependent husband and child or children of the deceased, one half to the widow or dependent husband and the other half to the child or children in equal shares; and (c) child or children of the deceased (in equal shares) if there is no widow or dependent husband.

§ 507.33 Persons not entitled to award of detention benefits. Certain persons are disqualified for an award of detention benefits as follows:

(a) A person who at any time voluntarily gave aid to, collaborated with, or in any manner served the Imperial Japanese government, or

(b) A person who at the time of capture or entrance into hiding was:

(1) A person within the purview of the act entitled "An act to provide compensation for employees of the United States suffering injuries while in the performance of their duties, and for other purposes," approved September 7, 1916, as amended and extended, (39 Stat. 742, as amended; 5 U. S. C. 751 et seq.), or

(2) A person within the purview of the act entitled "An act to provide benefits for the injury, disability, death, or enemy detention of employees of contractors with the United States, and for other purposes," approved December 2, 1942, as amended, (56 Stat. 1028, as amended; 42 U. S. C. and Sup., 1701 et seq.), or

(3) A person within the purview of the Missing Persons Act of March 7, 1942, as amended (56 Stat. 143; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 1001 et seq.), or

(4) A regularly appointed, enrolled, enlisted, or inducted member of any military or naval force.

§ 507.34 Such government. "Such government" means the Imperial Japanese government or any agent or employee thereof who, in the Philippine Islands or other such place subsequent to December 7, 1941, engaged in any military or civil activities designed to further the prosecution of its war against the United States.

§ 507.35 Voluntarily. "Voluntarily" means to have acted freely and willingly, without coercion, duress or constraint and without imminent peril of substantial punitive action against the person.

§ 507.36 Collaborated with. A civilian American citizen shall be deemed to have collaborated with such government when he so acted as to give aid or assistance to such government whether military, political, intellectual or economic in nature, with or without adherence to such government, and when such acts were not such as to be within the duty of obedience which inhabitants of occupied territory owe the military occupant, under recognized international law.

§ 507.37 Gave aid to. A civilian American citizen shall be deemed to have given aid to such government when by an overt act on his part he furthered the hostile designs of such government or strengthened or tended to strengthen such government in the prosecution of its war against the United States.

§ 507.38 In any manner served. A civilian American citizen shall be deemed to have in some manner served such government when he performed any service for such government which aided or tended to aid it, or which anticipated its desires, or which furthered or implemented its ends and purposes, and which was beyond services to which such government was entitled to demand or require as transactions in the ordinary course of civil society as a military occupant.

SUBPART C—REIMBURSEMENT TO RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS AND PERSONNEL THEREOF

AUTHORITY: §§ 507.50 to 507.70 issued under sec. 2, 62 Stat. 1240, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2001.

§ 507.50 Religious organization functioning in the Philippine Islands. (a) A "religious organization functioning in the Philippine Islands" for purposes of section 7 (a) of the act, means any church, sect, denomination, religious order or congregation, or any group, body, corporation, association or other entity formed for religious purposes, professing and adhering to the tenets of some particular religious faith or form of worship and which maintained under its auspices in the Philippine Islands, on or after December 7, 1941, a church, chapel, or other place of divine worship or a religious house, community, mission, convent or facilities for divine worship, or operated a school, dormitory, hospital, dispensary, orphanage or other like institutions under religious auspices; or any part, division or association of such churches, sects, denominations, religious orders, congregations, groups, bodies, corporations or entities.

(b) Within the contemplation of section 7 (b) of the act the term "such religious organization" shall be deemed to include a religious organization as defined in paragraph (a) of this section, but restricted to the religious organization which owned and operated the schools, colleges, universities, scientific observatories, hospitals, dispensaries, orphanages, and other property or facilities connected with their educational, medical, or welfare work at the time loss or damage was sustained.

(c) Within the contemplation of section 7 (c) of the act the term "such [affiliated] organization"[1] shall be deemed to mean a religious organization as defined in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 507.51 Affiliated with a religious organization in the United States. A religious organization functioning in the Philippine Islands will be deemed to have been affiliated with a religious organization in the United States when (a) by its charter or articles of association, incorporation or its rules, regulations or constitution it was a branch, part or division of a religious organization operating in the United States; or (b) by its rules, regulations or customs was subject to the control or directions of the duly constituted authorities of a church, sect, or religious order operating in the United States; or (c) it was directly supported financially, in whole or in part, by a church, sect, or religious organization operating in the United States; or, furnished or exchanged personnel with such organizations under conditions determined by the Commission to be consistent with the intent and purpose of section 7 (a), (b), and (c) of the act.

§ 507.52 Personnel—(a) Personnel of any such Philippine organization within the meaning of section 7 (a) of the act. The personnel of such Philippine organization for purposes of section 7 (a) shall be deemed to include any person who held office therein by reason of appointment, ordination, consecration, profession, religious vows or other form of ceremonial admission to ministerial religious status, and any duly authorized representative, agent or employee of such organization.

(b) Personnel of any such religious organization within the meaning of section 7 (b) of the act. The term personnel of a religious organization for purposes of section 7 (b) of the act shall include only a person, group of persons (e. g. trustees, vestrymen or deacons, etc.), or any other individual or legal entity in whom legal title to that portion of the property for which claim is made is vested pursuant to the customs, practices, or usages of a religious organization as defined in § 507.50, for the beneficial use of such organization.

§ 507.53 Reimbursement. Reimbursement or repayment of expenditures incurred shall be made whenever possible in dollars, the amount of the award to be computed on the basis of the rate of exchange applicable at the date such expenditures were incurred.

§ 507.54 Expenditures incurred. An expenditure shall be deemed to have been incurred by such Philippine organization or the personnel thereof, when money or any other article of calculable value which was the property of, or for which such organization or personnel was obliged to make repayment or restitution, was voluntarily spent, paid over, donated, contributed, used or consumed, or which, after being designated for use in accordance with the terms of section 7 of the War Claims Act of 1948, was lost, confiscated, or destroyed, while held for delivery or during delivery, to, or in behalf of the persons described in §§ 507.57 and 507.58: Provided, That the aforesaid expenditures were not incurred in accordance with an agreement with the Japanese authorities which provided for compensation.

§ 507.55 Fair value of supplies used. The fair value of supplies used means the original cost of such supplies or the present replacement value, whichever is greater. In the event the supplies have already been replaced at a cost in excess of either the original cost or the present replacement price, the actual amount thus expended shall constitute the fair value. If such amount expended for replacement is less than the present replacement price then the original cost or the actual amount expended in replacing such supplies, whichever is greater, shall constitute the fair value. The fair value of services furnished in accordance with the provisions of section 7 means either the fee, price or rental charge prevailing in the Philippine Islands at the time such services were furnished or such fixed or standard valuation as the Commission shall establish. In computing the fair value of supplies used or services furnished any compensation received by the claimant, in pursuance thereof, whether at the time of the delivery or use of the supplies, at the time of performance of the service, or subsequent thereto, shall be deducted. Whenever the claimant is unable to adduce relevant, reliable and probative evidence which tends to establish fair value, the Commission will establish as the fair value of the supplies used or the services performed, an amount which, being consistent with the intent and purpose of section 7 of the act, it deems equitable and reasonable.

§ 507.56 Furnishing shelter, food, clothing, hospitalization, medicines, and medical services and other relief. A religious organization functioning in the Philippines will be deemed to have furnished shelter, food, clothing, hospitalization, medicines and medical aid in the Philippines when such organization or its personnel voluntarily, either directly or indirectly, provided refuge for, fed, clothed, provided hospital, medical, and nursing services to, or supplied medicines, drugs, religious articles and the like, or furnished such other services and supplies determined by the Commission to be consistent with the intent and purpose of section 7 of the act, or provided funds or other means whereby such things were provided, or where items of supply after being designated for such use were confiscated, or destroyed while held for delivery or during delivery, to or in behalf of the persons described in §§ 507.57 and 507.58: Provided, That such shelter, food, clothing, hospitalization, medicines, and medical aid, and the like were not furnished in accordance with an agreement with Japanese authorities which provided for compensation.

§ 507.57 Members of the armed forces of the United States. Members of the armed forces of the United States shall mean any regularly appointed, enrolled, enlisted, or inducted member of the military or naval forces of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard; commissioned officers of the United States Public Health Service who were detailed for active duty with the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard; commissioned officers of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey who were assigned to duty during World War II on projects of the War and Navy departments outside the continental United States; members of the organized Philippine Army of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines and other units who were called or ordered into service of the armed forces of the United States in valid orders by the General, United States Army, designated by the Secretary of War, pursuant to and in compliance with the Military Order of the President of the United States, dated July 26, 1941 (3 CFR, 1943 Cum. Supp.).

§ 507.58 Civilian American citizen (as defined in section 5 of the act). The term "civilian American citizen" means any person who, being then a citizen of the United States, was captured by the Imperial Japanese Government on or after December 7, 1941, at Midway, Guam, Wake Island, the Philippine Islands, or any Territory or possession of the United States attacked or invaded by such government, or while in transit to or from any such place, or who went into hiding at any such place in order to avoid capture or internment by such government.

§ 507.59 Definitions of "compensated".—(a) Compensated. (1) The word "compensated" as employed in section 7 (b) of the act shall be deemed to include a computation of the loss or damage sustained, deducting therefrom any amounts which such religious organization or its personnel, as defined in §§ 507.50 (b) and 507.52 (b) or any person or entity, has heretofore received from, or which have been expended by, the Philippine War Damage Commission or any other agency of the United States on account of the same loss or damage.

(2) In any case in which a claim may properly be filed under section 7 (c) of the act, no compensation for the same loss or damage may be authorized under section 7 (b).

(b) "Compensated" within the meaning of section 7 (c) of the act. Within the contemplation of section 7 (c) of the act, the term "compensated" shall be deemed to include a computation of the loss or damage sustained deducting therefrom any amounts which the Philippine War Damage Commission or any other agency of the United States has heretofore awarded and paid or expended on account of the same loss or damage.

§ 507.60 Loss or damage sustained as a consequence of the war. (a) Within the contemplation of section 7 (b) of the act, "loss or damage sustained as a consequence of the war" shall be deemed to include any such loss or damage which resulted directly from one or more of the following perils subsequent to December 6, 1941, and prior to August 15, 1945:

(1) Enemy attack;

(2) Action taken by or at the request of the military, naval, or air forces of the United States to prevent such property from coming into the possession of the enemy;

(3) Action taken by enemy representatives, civil or military, or by the representatives of any government cooperating with the enemy;

(4) Action by the Armed Forces of the United States in opposing, resisting, or expelling the enemy from the Philippines;

(5) Looting, pillage, or other lawlessness or disorder accompanying the collapse of civil authority determined by the Commission to have resulted from any of the other perils enumerated in this section or from control by enemy forces.

(b) Any award made pursuant to the provisions of section 7 (c) of the act shall be authorized only for loss or damage sustained as a consequence of the war as defined in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 507.61 "Other property or facilities connected with" within the meaning of section 7 (b) of the act. The term "other property or facilities connected with" within the meaning of section 7 (b) of the act shall be deemed to include any property, both real and personal, owned by such religious organization or its personnel, as defined in §§ 507.50 (b) and 507.52 (b), which was substantially used and necessarily maintained in the operation of its schools, colleges, universities, scientific observatories, hospitals, dispensaries, and orphanages in the furtherance of its work in the fields of education, medicine and welfare.

§ 507.62 Educational, medical and welfare work within the meaning of section 7 (b) of the act. Educational, medical and welfare work shall be deemed to include those programs, curricula and other duly constituted procedures and services essential to the functioning of educational, medical and welfare institutions, and which were regularly offered by such schools, colleges, universities, scientific observatories, hospitals, dispensaries and orphanages.

§ 507.63 Any interest in. The term "any interest in" as used in section 7 (c) of the act shall mean less than a freehold ownership but shall include substantial participation in the management and operation of a hospital by furnishing the equipment, teachers, nurses, or personnel by which such institutions were operated.

§ 507.64 American citizens substantially composed the administrative staff. The administrative staff of any hospital described in section 7 (c) of the act will be deemed to be substantially composed of American citizens where it is determined that persons, who are citizens of the United States, mainly, and for the most part, comprised or made up the personnel engaged in the management, conduct, direction or superintendence of the application of things, or functions of persons, in connection with and directly related to the operation of such hospital. Where a hospital within the purview of section 7 (c) has ceased operations, qualifications relating to the composition of the administrative staff will be determined as of December 7, 1941.

§ 507.66 Postwar.—(a) Real property. (1) "Postwar" as used in the term "postwar cost of replacement" for purposes of section 7 (d) of the act is defined to mean, in cases where buildings, structures, installations, etc., have not been replaced or restored, the twelve-month period extending from October 1, 1951, to October 1, 1952.

(2) In cases where real property has been fully replaced or restored at the expense of an eligible claimant, "postwar" as used in the term "postwar cost of replacement" for purposes of section 7 (d) of the act is defined to mean the actual date on which the obligation was incurred or the calendar year during which the obligation was incurred.

(3) In cases where real property has been partially replaced or restored, "postwar" as used in the term "postwar cost of replacement" for purposes of section 7 (d) of the act, for that portion which has been replaced or restored shall be determined in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, and as to that portion which has not been replaced or restored in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(b) Personal property. "Postwar" as used in the term "postwar cost of replacement" for purposes of section 7 (d) of the act is defined to mean, in relation to personal property lost or damaged as a consequence of the war, the twelve-month period extending from October 1, 1951, to October 1, 1952.

§ 507.67 Cost of replacement. The term "cost of replacement" as used in the phrase "postwar cost of replacement" for purposes of section 7 (d) of the act shall be the amount determined to be fair and equitable within the limitations set forth in § 507.66, required to restore the property lost or damaged as defined in § 507.60 to the same actual functional capacity or degree of usefulness as existed immediately prior to the loss or damage.

§ 507.68 In an amount sufficient to enable such organization to replace. The term "in an amount sufficient to enable such organization to replace" as used in section 7 (c) of the act shall be construed in relation to both real and personal property in accordance with the formulae and limitations set forth in §§ 507.66 and 507.67: Provided, however, That the date to be used in determining the actual functional capacity or degree of usefulness shall be December 7, 1941.

§ 507.69 The hospital's facilities and capacity. The term "the hospital's facilities and capacity" as used in section 7 (c) of the act shall be deemed to be restricted to property, both real and personal, which was substantially used and necessarily maintained in the operation of such hospital as of December 7, 1941.

§ 507.70 Equal to. The term "equal to" as used in section 7 (c) of the act means the same actual functional capacity and degree of usefulness as existed on December 7, 1941.

PART 508—PAYMENT

Sec.

508.1 The War Claims Fund.
508.2 Payments under the War Claims Act.
508.3 Payment of awards to certain members of religious organizations.
508.4 Payment of fees.

AUTHORITY: §§ 508.1 to 508.4 issued under sec. 2, 62 Stat. 1240; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2001.

§ 508.1 The War Claims Fund. There is created on the books of the Treasury of the United States, a trust fund known as the War Claims Fund, which consists of all sums covered into the Treasury pursuant to the provisions of section 39 of the Trading With the Enemy Act of October 6, 1917 (40 Stat. 411), as amended, the monies of which fund are available for expenditure as provided in other sections of the War Claims Act.

§ 508.2 Payments under the War Claims Act.—(a) Living prisoners of war or living civilian American citizens. Any award made to a living prisoner of war for compensation, or to a living civilian American citizen for detention benefits will be certified to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment to the person entitled thereto, except that as to persons under legal disability payment will be made as specified in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) Survivors of deceased prisoners of war or deceased civilian American citizens. Awards made to the survivors of deceased prisoners of war, or to the survivors of deceased civilian American citizens, will be certified to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment to the individual members of the class or classes of survivors entitled thereto in the full amount of the share to which each survivor is entitled, except that as to persons under any legal disability payment will be made as specified in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Payments to persons under legal disability. Any award or any part of an award payable pursuant to sections 5 (a) through (e), or 6 of the act to any person under legal disability may, in the discretion of the Commission, be paid for the use of the claimant to the natural or legal guardian, committee, conservator, or curator, or if there is no such natural or legal guardian, committee, conservator or curator then, in the discretion of the Commission, to any person, including the spouse of such person, or the Chief Officer of the hospital in which the claimant may be a patient, whom the Commission may determine is vested with the care of the claimant or of his estate. In the case of a minor, any part of the amount payable may, in the discretion of the Commission, be paid to such minor.

(d) Religious organizations. (1) Any award made to a religious organization under the provisions of section 7 (a) of the act will be certified to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment in the full amount to such organization in its corporate name, or to such officer or officers thereof as are properly and lawfully designated by the organization.

(2) Any award made to a religious organization under the provision of section 7 (b) or (c) of the act will be certified to the Secretary of the Treasury in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, or upon request of such religious organization will be authorized to be paid to its properly designated affiliate in the United States: Provided, That such affiliate certifies to the War Claims Commission that all money paid on said claim and received by the named affiliate will be used for the purpose of restoring the educational, medical and welfare facilities described in the claim and located in the Philippines.

§ 508.3 Payment of awards to certain members of religious organizations. Pursuant to the provisions contained in section 14 of the act, when an award is made to any person who is prevented from accepting such money by the rules, regulations or customs of the church, religious order or organization of which he is a member, certification for the payment of such award to such church, religious order or organization will be made by the Commission to the Secretary of the Treasury upon the written request of such person.

§ 508.4 Payment of fees. Fees of attorneys or agents will not be deducted in whole or in part from the amount awarded to any claimant. The Commission reserves the right to withhold certification for payment of any award to any claimant represented by an attorney or agent until it is satisfied that the provisions of the act, relative to fees for services rendered, or any rule or regulation adopted by the Commission have been or will be complied with.

SUBPART C—FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

515.30 Decisions of Appeals Board.
515.31 Notice of findings.
515.32 Rehearing and reargument.

AUTHORITY: §§ 515.1 to 515.32 issued under sec. 2, 62 Stat. 1240; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2001.

SUBPART A—FILING OF, AND COMMISSION ACTION ON APPEALS

§ 515.1 Basis for appeal. Any claimant whose claim is denied or is approved for less than the full allowable amount may appeal to the Commission from such determination.

§ 515.2 Form of request. (a) An appeal shall be made in writing on WCC Form 1105. Such form, to be acceptable, must be filed with the Commission within six months from the date of the award or disallowance letter informing the claimant of the original determination.

(b) Upon failure to file such an appeal within six months, the claimant will be deemed to have waived his right to appeal and the decision of the Commission shall constitute a full and final disposition of the case.

(c) Upon proper cause shown, the Commission may, in its discretion, extend the time within which an appeal may be filed.

§ 515.3 Appeal proceedings. Appeal proceedings may consist of:

(a) A review of the original determination and the material in support thereof, plus any additional supporting evidence or briefs which the claimant or his authorized representative may submit.

(b) A hearing before an Appeals Board for the purpose of considering the original determination and the material in support thereof, plus any additional supporting evidence or briefs which the claimant or his authorized representative may submit. The claimant will be permitted to appear personally, or through an authorized representative before the Commission, and to present the testimony of other witnesses.

(c) The Commission may, in its discretion, require a hearing in any proceeding and shall give to the parties to the proceeding at least thirty (30) days notice of the time and place of such hearing.

§ 515.4 Appeals calendar. Upon receipt of WCC Form 1105 the case shall be entered on the Appeals and Hearings Docket. Each appealed claim shall be assigned an appeal number in the order of its receipt. This number shall govern the order in which appealed claims are considered.

§ 515.5 Action by Commission on Appeals. (a) If the claimant has specified on WCC Form 1105 that he does not wish to make a personal appearance, his claim, when reached on the appeals calendar, will be reviewed by an Appellate Attorney. The Appellate Attorney will present the claim and a summary of the evidence to an Appeal Board, with his recommendation as to whether the Commission's original determination should be affirmed, modified or reversed.

(b) If the claimant in executing WCC Form 1105 has requested a personal appearance, the claim will be assigned to an Appellate Attorney who will set the case for hearing. He will notify the claimant, his authorized representative, and all witnesses of the time and place of the hearing thirty (30) days in advance. The Appellate Attorney will then review the claim preparatory to presenting it to the Appeals Board.

(c) Personal appearance may be waived by the interested parties at any time and the case submitted to an Appeals Board on briefs.

§ 515.6 Appeals Boards. An Appeals Board shall consist of three members. One of the Commissioners shall act as Chairman of the Board; the other two members of the Board shall consist of such officers or employees as the Commission may designate.

SUBPART B—HEARING PROCEDURES

§ 515.20 Pre-hearing conference. At the request of the claimant or by an order of an Appeals Board, at any time prior to the hearing, the Chairman of the Appeals Board, or the Appellate Attorney assigned to the claim may arrange for a conference at a designated time and place to consider, among other things, simplification of the issues and any other matter which would tend to expedite the disposition of the proceedings.

§ 515.21 Conduct of hearings. (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, hearings on appeals shall be closed. The hearing shall be stenographically reported and the transcript shall be a part of the record.

(b) The Chairman of an Appeals Board, or any employee of the Commission designated by him, may administer oaths and examine witnesses. The Chairman of an Appeals Board may, in accordance with Part 502, Subchapter A of the Commission's regulations, require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses, as well as the production of all necessary books, papers, documents, records, correspondence, and other evidence.

(c) The claimant shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the claim proceeding.

(d) The claimant, his authorized representative, or the Appellate Attorney, shall have the right and power to call, examine and cross-examine witnesses and to introduce for the record documentary or other evidence.

(e) The rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law and equity shall not be controlling. Any testimony or other evidence having probative value shall be received. However, it shall be the policy to exclude irrelevant, incompetent, immaterial or unduly repetitious evidence.

(f) In the discretion of the Chairman of an Appeals Board the hearing or prehearing may be adjourned from day to day, postponed to a later date, or to a different place by announcement thereof at the hearing, or by reasonable notice to the interested parties.

§ 515.22 Motions. (a) A motion by the Appellate Attorney to dismiss a hearing may be granted by the Appeals Board when the claim on its face is not allowable or when it appears that the appeal has been abandoned. Such a motion shall be made in writing and shall state the reasons in support thereof. The motion shall be filed with the Appeals Board, and a copy shall be served upon all interested parties by the Appellate Attorney.

(b) Hearing on the motion shall be held at a time and place as ordered by the Chairman of the Appeals Board.

(c) Briefs may be submitted before the hearing, at the hearing, or within a time fixed by the Chairman of the Appeals Board after the close of the hearing.

(d) The decision of the Appeals Board upon the motion shall be final and shall be the decision of the Commission. The rehearing and reargument provisions of § 515.32 shall apply to decisions of the Appeals Board upon such a motion.

§ 515.23 Oral argument at close of hearing. Any party shall be entitled upon request, at the close of the hearing, to such time as may be fixed by the Chairman of the Appeals Board for oral argument. Oral argument made with the consent of the Appeals Board shall be included in the stenographic report of the hearing.

§ 515.24 Proposed findings and conclusions. At the close of the reception of evidence, or within a reasonable time thereafter, to be fixed by the Appeals Board, any party may submit proposed findings and conclusions, together with a brief in support thereof. Such proposal shall be in writing and shall contain appropriate references to the record. Copies thereof shall be furnished to all parties. Reply briefs may be filed with the permission of and within a reasonable time to be fixed by the Appeals Board.

SUBPART C—FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

§ 515.30 Decisions of Appeals Board. The Appeals Board, as soon as practicable after receipt of the complete transcript and all exhibits, shall render a decision which shall become a part of the record and shall include a statement of the reasons and grounds therefor. Each decision by the Appeals Board, when concurred in by two or more of the Commissioners, shall constitute a full and final disposition of the case.

§ 515.31 Notice of findings. Notice of the final decision of the Appeals Board shall be delivered in person to all interested parties, or shall be sent by regular mail to such parties.

§ 515.32 Rehearing and reargument. Any party desiring a rehearing, reargument or any relief not specifically covered by this Part may file a petition with the Commission within ten (10) days after notice of the decision of the Appeals Board, stating the relief sought and the reasons in support thereof. The Commission may allow the petition, in whole or in part, as it deems proper.

PART 516—INVESTIGATIONAL HEARINGS

Sec.
516.1 Type of hearings.
516.2 Purpose of hearings.
516.3 Conduct of hearings.

AUTHORITY: §§ 516.1 to 516.3 issued under sec. 2, 62 Stat. 1240; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2001.

§ 516.1 Type of hearings. Investigational hearings, as distinguished from appeals, shall be held only as ordered by the Commission, and shall be held before the Commission, one or more of its members, or a duly authorized and designated representative.

§ 516.2 Purpose of hearings. Such hearings shall be conducted for the purpose of receiving the testimony of witnesses, documents and other data relating to subjects within the jurisdiction of the Commission.

§ 516.3 Conduct of hearings. (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, such hearings shall be public. Hearings shall be stenographically reported and a transcript thereof shall be a part of the record of the study, investigation, or claim.

(b) The rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law and equity shall not be controlling. Any testimony or other evidence having probative value shall be received. However, it shall be the policy to exclude irrelevant, incompetent, immaterial or unduly repetitious evidence.

520.9 Domestic or foreign laws.
520.10 The report of the Commission.
520.11 Who may submit information.
520.12 How information is to be submitted.
520.13 Where to send information.
520.14 Time information must be received.

AUTHORITY: §§ 520.1 to 520.14 issued under sec. 2, 62 Stat. 1240; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2001. Interpret or apply sec. 8, 62 Stat. 1245; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2007.

§ 520.1 General provisions. Pursuant to the provisions of section 8 of the War Claims Act of 1948, as amended, the War Claims Commission initiated an inquiry and prepared and submitted an initial report to the President and the Congress on March 31, 1950, with respect to war claims arising out of World War II other than claims which may be received and adjudicated under the act. The preliminary report of the Commission presented initial estimates of the numbers, types, categories, and amounts of such claims and suggested certain priorities and limitations for consideration in connection with its initial recommendations as to the recognition and payment of such claims. The War Claims Commission is now required to complete its inquiry and to report further under the terms applicable to its preliminary report.

§ 520.2 Inquire into. "Inquire into" means that the Commission shall accept information voluntarily submitted and shall, in its discretion, request information concerning war claims arising out of World War II from any person, firm, or organization, or from any agency or department of the Government of the United States, or of any foreign nation, by means of requests for information, interviews, investigations, correspondence, public or closed hearings, or by use of appropriate official questionnaire forms.

§ 520.3 War claims. Shall include any loss, injury, or damage suffered or sustained by a person or business entity or organization, who, at the time of such loss, injury, or damage was:

(a) A national of the United States, as hereafter defined, who did not give aid or comfort to, or collaborate with any enemy or ally of enemy of the United States; or a branch or agency of the United States Government; or a regularly appointed, enrolled, enlisted or inducted member of the military or naval forces of the United States; or an alien to whom the United States owes protection, such as an alien seaman signed on a United States vessel. Such loss, injury, or damage must be the result of action by a branch or agency, civil or military, of any sovereign power who, by declaration of war or by military activity of its regular forces, was at war during World War II, such loss, injury, or damage being one which would not have occurred, but for the existence of a state of war; or

(b) Not a national of the United States and not an enemy, or ally of enemy, as defined in section 2 of the Trading With the Enemy Act of 1917 (50 U. S. C. Appendix, sec. 2): Provided, That such definition shall not apply to a person who, after September 1, 1939, being resident within enemy or ally of enemy territory, or being a citizen or subject of such enemy or ally of enemy nation, was deprived of liberty, or did not enjoy full rights of citizenship under the laws of such enemy or ally of enemy nation, as a consequence of any law, decree or regulation, of the nation within which he resided, or of which he was a citizen or subject, discriminating against political, racial, or religious groups. Such loss, injury, or damage must be the result of an action by the Government of the United States or one of its civil or military agencies. Such action must arise out of World War II and the loss, injury, or damage must be one which would not have occurred but for the existence of a state of war.

§ 520.4 National of the United States. (a) In the case of an individual, the provisions of the Nationality Act of 1940 (8 U. S. C. 501 et seq.) shall apply;

(b) In the case of a business entity or organization, incorporated or unincorporated, such entity or business organization must be organized under the applicable laws of the United States or one or more of the States of the United States, its territories or possessions; and its owners, participants, members or shareholders representing at least 50 percent of the ownership or control of such business entity or organization, must be nationals of the United States; or in the case of a business entity or organization, incorporated or unincorporated, not organized under the applicable laws of the United States or one or more of the States of the United States, its territories or possessions, its owners, participants, members or shareholders representing at least that percentage of control necessary under the laws of that State or territory, where such business entity or organization is organized, to effect the liquidation of such business entity or organization, must be nationals of the United States.

§ 520.5 Arising out of. "Arising out of" means originating from, or springing out of, the activities of a branch or agency, civil or military, of any sovereign power which, by declaration of war or by military action of its regular forces, was at war during World War II, which activities are directly related to such power's preparation for, and participation in World War II.

§ 520.6 World War II. World War II shall be deemed to have commenced September 1, 1939, and ending:

(a) In the case of actions taking place within the United States, its territories and possessions, or on the high seas, on the date to be proclaimed by the President of the United States as the date of termination of World War II;

(b) In the case of actions taking place in enemy territory or in territory of an ally of an enemy of the United States, on the effective date of a treaty of peace between the United States or its allies and the former enemy;

(c) In the case of actions taking place in territories formerly occupied by enemy forces and subsequently occupied by forces of the United States or its allies, on the date of the withdrawal of United States or allied occupation forces, or on the date of the return of the territory to the control of a sovereign power, other than a former enemy, or to a trustee, or to a controlling power deriving its authority from an act of the United Nations, whichever date is earlier; or

(d) In the case of actions taking place in the territories of allies of the United States, on the date proclaimed or determined by the executive or legislative branches of the sovereign power to be the date of termination of World War II.

§ 520.7 Claims which may be received and adjudicated under the preceding sections of this act. Claims which may be received and adjudicated under the preceding sections of this act include claims by prisoners of war or their survivors; civilian American citizens or their survivors; religious organizations or the personnel of such organizations, which claims are paid or payable under the provisions of sections 5, 6, or 7 of the act, as amended.

§ 520.8 International agreements. An "international agreement" is any treaty, convention, executive agreement, agreement on a military level, agreement resulting from action by the United Nations and its agencies, and an agreement arising from a diplomatic exchange of notes.

§ 520.9 Domestic or foreign laws. (a) "Domestic laws" means any statute, act, or resolution of the Congress of the United States, any executive order or proclamation of the President of the United States, and any statute, act, or resolution of the Legislature of a State of the United States, or of its territories or possessions, and any proclamation or order of the Governor of a State of the United States or its territories or possessions;

(b) "Foreign laws" means any act, having the force of law, of the executive or legislative branches of a sovereign power or any of its subdivisions or territories other than the United States, its individual States, territories or possessions.

§ 520.10 The report of the Commission. The report of the Commission to the President, for submission to the Congress, shall include:

(a) A statement of results of research—presented in narrative form, together with such supporting evidence as the Commission deems applicable;

(b) A recital of the types and categories of claims—including all claims considered reportable by the Commission on the basis of information obtained and facts found by the Commission with respect to such claims;

(c) The estimated number and amount of claims—to be shown in tabular form;

(d) A statement, when ascertainable, outlining the extent of satisfaction available under international agreements and foreign and domestic laws;

(e) Recommendations for recognition and allowance of claims in order of priority;

(f) A discussion of the legal or equitable bases of claims recommended to be received and considered;

(g) The recommended administrative method by which claims should be received and considered;

(h) Recommendations concerning limitations as to payment of fees for assistance in filing and procesucting claims in the recommended categories and suggested limitations as to the time in which claims may be accepted after the passage of any proposed legislation;

(i) Other miscellaneous recommendations which the Commission may deem appropriate; and

(j) Such proposals for legislation as the Commission deems appropriate to carry out the recommendations made in the report.

§ 520.11 Who may submit information. Any person, business entity, organization, or any agency or department of the Government of the United States or of any foreign nation, as well as any authorized representative or agent of such person, firm, organization, or governmental department may file a statement of information concerning a war claim arising out of World War II.

§ 520.12 How information is to be submitted—(a) Questionnaires. For the purpose of uniformity in submitting statements of loss, injury, or damage, official questionnaires of the Commission should be used. Such questionnaires are:

(1) WCC Form–801—Report of Loss or Damage to Real or Personal Property Arising out of World War II.

(2) WCC Form–802—Report of Personal Injury, Detention, Death, etc., Arising out of World War II.

(b) Letters. If an official questionnaire is not available, the statement of loss, injury, or damage may be submitted by letter. This statement should be carefully checked to include all data and information necessary for full consideration of the case and should include:

(1) Name and address of claimant.

(2) Nationality of claimant at time claim arose.

(3) Type of loss, injury, or damage.

(4) Estimate of damage, including the date as of when the estimate is made and the monetary basis.

(5) Government against which claim lies.

(6) Date and place of injury or loss on which claim is based.

(7) Statement as to whether claimant was a member of the military or naval forces of the United States, dates, branch of service, and serial or service number.

(8) Statement as to dates and places of government employment, if any.

(9) Brief account of the circumstances surrounding the loss, injury, or damage.

(10) Name of any agency of any government to which such loss or injury has been reported previous to submission of this information to the War Claims Commission.

(11) Results of any such prior submission showing allowance, disallowance, or compensation in whole or in part.

(12) Statement concerning any tax deduction taken as a result of such loss or injury or any other form of relief granted, such as compensation, insurance, etc.

(c) Availability of questionnaires and general information. Questionnaires and general information concerning potential claims to be considered in the report of the Commission are available at the Washington Office of the Commission. Questionnaires will be forwarded upon request and will also be distributed through such governmental, public, and private agencies as the Commission shall designate.

§ 520.13 Where to send information. All questionnaires and statements of loss, injury, or damage must be sent to the War Claims Commission, Attention: Legislation and Opinions Service, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 520.14 Time information must be received. All questionnaires and statements of loss, injury, or damage must be received by the Commission on or before June 30, 1951. Consideration cannot be given to any questionnaires or statements received after that date.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 53136]

PART 10—ARTICLES CONDITIONALLY FREE, SUBJECT TO A REDUCED RATE, ETC.

EFFECTS AND TOOLS OF TRADE

It has been concluded that customs clearance without requirement of an entry may be extended, in the discretion of the collectors of customs, to certain non-commercial shipments in addition to those for which such clearance is now provided for in the customs regulations (see § 10.20).

1. Since an entry may not be required for certain shipments of household effects, § 10.11 (a), Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 10.11), is hereby amended by deleting "in connection with the entry" and substituting therefor "to support the claim for free entry".

(Sec. 201 (par. 1632), 46 Stat. 675, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759; 19 U. S. C. 1201 (par. 1632), 1624)

2. To eliminate an implication that an individual entitled to the privilege provided for in the second proviso to paragraph 1798, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, must be the actual owner of the articles to which the privilege applies, and since an entry may not be required for certain shipments of such articles, § 10.15, Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 10.15), is amended to read as follows:

§ 10.15 Tools of Trade. When professional books, implements, instruments, or tools of trade, occupation, or employment are claimed to be free of duty under the first clause of paragraph 1747, Tariff Act of 1930," or under the second proviso to paragraph 1798, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended," a declaration of the emigrant or returning individual shall be required to support the claim for free entry. The declaration shall be on customs Form 3299 if the declarant is an emigrant or nonresident returning from abroad, and on customs Form 3297 if the declarant is a returning resident of the United States, except that, as to any such articles claimed to be free of duty under the said second proviso to paragraph 1798, an oral declaration of the returning individual may be accepted in lieu of a written declaration.

3. Footnotes 17 and 19 appended to § 10.15 are amended by deleting the reference numbers, so that each such note will become a second paragraph of the immediately preceding footnote.

4. To broaden the provision for clearance of certain duty-free noncommercial shipments without requiring that an entry be filed, § 10.20, Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 10.20), as amended, is further amended as follows:

a. Paragraph (a) is amended to read:

(a) Effects and tools of trade. When effects claimed to be free of duty under the first clause of paragraph 1798 or the second proviso to paragraph 1798, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, do not accompany the importer on his arrival in the United States or are forwarded in bond, a declaration of the importer on customs Form 3299 in the case of a nonresident, or on customs Form 3297 in the case of a returning resident, shall be required to support the claim for free entry, except that as to effects which are free of duty under the said second proviso to paragraph 1798, an oral declaration of the importer may be accepted in lieu of a written declaration on Form 3297. If the collector is satisfied that an entry would serve no good purpose, none need be required, but evidence of ownership for customs purposes, such as a carrier's certificate or properly endorsed bill of lading, shall be required in connection with the declaration. Such exemption from entry may also be applied with respect to household effects or tools of trade entitled to free entry (see §§ 10.11 and 10.15 respectively) which are unaccompanied or forwarded in bond.

b. Paragraph (b) is deleted and paragraphs (c) and (d) are redesignated as paragraphs (b) and (c).

(Secs. 498, 624, 46 Stat. 728, 759; 19 U. S. C. 1498, 1624)

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter II—Federal Maritime Board, Maritime Administration, Department of Commerce

[General Order 76]

PART 236—STEAMSHIP CONFERENCES USING CONTRACT/NON-CONTRACT RATES

Whereas, the Federal Maritime Board published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 31, 1952 (17 F. R. 7020) a notice of proposed rule of procedure pertaining to the use of contract/non-contract rates by steamship conferences to become effective as of a date to be specified in such rule if adopted by the Board; and

Whereas, the Board granted interested parties an opportunity to submit written statements and comments on said rule within 30 days of the publication of said notice, and thereafter at the request of interested parties extended the time therefor until September 19, 1952; and

Whereas, the Board granted interested parties, at their request, an opportunity to be heard at an oral argument before the Board on October 16, 1952; and

Whereas, after consideration of the written statements and comments submitted and oral argument as aforesaid, and in the light thereof, the Board has adopted the rule of procedure hereinafter set forth; and

Whereas, in view of the time and opportunity to be heard afforded all interested parties, and the necessity for prompt and uniform treatment of steamship conferences using contract/non-contract rates, the Board finds that it is in the public interest to make said rule effective upon the publication thereof.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, that pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (46 U. S. C. 814), section 204 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended (46 U. S. C. 1114), and sections 3 and 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1002, 1003), the following rule of procedure shall be effective as of the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

1. Steamship freight conferences having in effect contract/non-contract rates on the effective date of this rule shall file with the Federal Maritime Board within 90 days after the effective date of this rule a statement containing:

(a) The date when contract/non-contract rates were first established by the conference;

(b) The amount of the spread or differential between current contract/non-contract rates stated in terms of percentages or dollars and cents;

(c) The reasons for the use of the current contract/non-contract rates in the particular trade involved, and the basis for the current spread or differential between such rates; and

(d) Copies of the form of all contracts pertaining to such current rates.

2. Steamship freight conferences now or hereafter having in effect contract/non-contract rates shall file with the Federal Maritime Board at least 30 days prior to initiating any increase in the spread or differential between such rates, a statement containing:

(a) The amount of increase in the spread or differential and the total proposed spread or differential in terms of percentages or dollars and cents;

(b) The effective date;

(c) The reasons for the increase in the spread or differential; and

(d) Copies of the form of any changed contract provisions relating to such increase in spread or differential.

As used in this paragraph 2, an "increase in the spread or differential" shall be deemed only to mean an increase in the percentage of a spread or differential between rates if such spread or differential has been established in terms of percentages, or an increase in the dollars and cents amount of the spread or differential if such spread or differential has been established in terms of dollars and cents.

3. Steamship freight conferences proposing to establish contract/non-contract rates to become effective after the effective date of this rule shall file with the Federal Maritime Board at least 30 days prior to the initiation of such rates, a statement containing:

(a) The amount of the spread or differential in terms of percentages or dollars and cents;

(b) The effective date;

(c) The reasons for the use of contract/non-contract rates in the particular trade involved, and the basis for the spread or differential between such rates; and

(d) Copies of the form of all contracts pertaining thereto.

Contract/non-contract rates for a commodity as to which such rates have previously been in effect and discontinued shall not be deemed to be newly established contract/non-contract rates within the meaning of this paragraph 3 if such contract/non-contract rates are again made effective by the conference without increase in spread or differential and within 12 months after discontinuance.

4. Upon a showing of good and sufficient cause, the time within which to file the foregoing statements may be shortened or extended, or such other action taken with respect thereto, as the Board may consider to be in the public interest and not detrimental to the commerce of the United States.

5. The information referred to in the above paragraphs shall be submitted to the Federal Maritime Board in the form of a verified original statement duly executed by an authorized official of the conference, together with 15 conformed copies thereof. Conferences complying with this rule may from time to time amend or amplify statements submitted pursuant thereto in a manner not inconsistent with prior compliance therewith.

6. All information filed pursuant to this rule shall be available for inspection by interested parties at the Regulation Office of the Board. A notice of the filing of the statement required under paragraphs 2 and 3 above will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as soon as practicable. Except as may be otherwise provided in cases arising under paragraph 4 above, interested parties shall have twenty (20) days after the date of such publication within which to submit written comments relating to the information filed with the Board pursuant to this rule. Said comments may include a statement of position with respect to approval, disapproval or modification, together with a request for hearing, should such hearing be desired.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 10—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR RAILROAD COMPANIES

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of August A. D. 1952.

The matter of accounting regulations for carriers by railroad, which are not independently operated as electric lines, being under consideration pursuant to provisions of section 20 of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended (24 Stat. 386, 41 Stat. 493, 54 Stat. 916, 49 U. S. C. 20 (3)); and,

It appearing, that by orders dated May 19, 1914, the "Classification of Investment in Road and Equipment of Steam Roads, Issue of 1914," the "Classification of Operating Revenues and Operating Expenses of Steam Roads, Issue of 1914," the "Classification of Income, Profit and Loss, and General Balance Sheet Accounts for Steam Roads, Issue of 1914," and the "Classification of Train-miles, Locomotive-miles, and Car-miles for Steam Roads, Issue of 1914," were all and severally prescribed, certain provisions of all of which orders having been modified subsequently by supplemental orders and the regulations prescribed by those orders subsequently reissued in revised form, and good cause appearing:

It is ordered, That the four orders dated May 19, 1914, as above referred to and as subsequently modified, be and they are hereby vacated and set aside effective October 1, 1952, and that the accounting rules and regulations of permanent effect which were promulgated by those orders as modified, be and they are hereby, reissued in the codified form which is attached hereto and made a part hereof to be known as the "Uniform System of Accounts for Railroad Companies, Issue of 1952;" and,

It is further ordered, That effective October 1, 1952, all carriers by railroad subject to provisions of Part I of the Act and not independently operated as electric lines, shall comply with the said "Uniform System of Accounts for Railroad Companies, Issue of 1952;" and,

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order with the attached regulations shall be served on all railroad companies subject to its provisions, and on every receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, or assignee of any such railroad company, and that notice shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy of the order with attached regulations in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 1.

NOTE: In this part the numbers assigned to sections thereof include as a whole number, following the decimal point, the number of the prescribed account. Where references throughout the regulations are to an account, as such, only the account number portion of the section number is used. For example: Account 101, "Freight," may be mentioned in the instructions or in the text of another account, and will be found as § 10.101 under operating revenues. Sections devoted to instructions, as distinguished from the texts of the prescribed accounts, are numbered serially § 10.01 to § 10.08, inclusive, with appropriate sub-numbers following a dash.

INVESTMENT IN ROAD AND EQUIPMENT

§ 10.01 General instructions. The carrier's records shall be kept with sufficient particularity to show fully the facts pertaining to all entries made in the accounts provided in this part for investment in road and equipment. Where the full information is not recorded in the general books, the entries therein shall be supported by other records in which the full details shall be shown. Such general book entries shall contain sufficient reference to the detail records to permit ready identification, and the detail records shall be filed in such manner as to be readily accessible for examination by representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

§ 10.01–1 Accounts for investment in road and equipment. The accounts prescribed in this classification, except in connection with the acquisition of transportation property as provided in accounts 702½A, "Acquisition adjustment," and 702½B, "Donations and grants," are designed to show the investment of the carrier in property devoted to transportation service. The carrier's investment in physical property other than transportation property is provided for in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property." "The carrier" means the accounting carrier, except when otherwise specifically indicated. The carrier's records shall be kept in such form that expenditures for additions and betterments may be reported separately from those for original road, original equipment, and road extensions, and shall show separately the expenditures under each authorized addition and betterment project. (See balance-sheet account 701, "Road and equipment property," and 702, "Improvements on leased property.") When a building or structure is used primarily for transportation purposes it is not contemplated that parts of such buildings or structures rented to others will be carried in account 705; nor is it contemplated that irregular parcels of land acquired in connection with acquisition of right-of-way which have no value as commercial property shall be transferred to account 705, either for the purpose of making right-of-way boundaries run more or less regular or for the purpose of eliminating from account 701 the cost of unoccupied lands between tracks in yards and terminals.

§ 10.01–2 Items to be charged. To these accounts shall be charged the cost of original road, original equipment, road extensions, additions, and betterments; also the estimated values at time of acquisition of right of way and other road and equipment property donated to the carrier, except that unless authorized by the Commission no charges shall be made to these accounts after July 1, 1914, for donations received previously to that date. Applications to the Commission for including such items in the road and equipment accounts shall contain full information concerning the source and character of the donations.

(a) When the property change involves: (1) the acquisition of units and minor items of road property (other than land or tracks) such as defined in paragraphs (e) and (c) of § 10.01–7 Road property retired the cost of which is less than $500.00; (2) the betterment of road property (see "Betterments" under paragraph (c) of this section), the betterment cost of which is less than $500.00, the cost of the units and minor items of road property acquired under (1) and betterment costs under (2) shall be charged to operating expenses.

The retirement of units and minor items of road property shall be accounted for in accordance with § 10.01–7 Road property retired.

(b) The carrier shall not parcel expenditures or retirements under a general plan for the purpose of bringing the accounting therefor within this rule, neither shall it combine unrelated items of property for the purpose of excluding the accounting therefor from the rule.

(c) The carrier is permitted to adopt for the purpose of its accounting a limit of less than the aforesaid amounts provided it first files with the Commission the maximum amount which it proposes to adopt and makes no subsequent change in this amount except by authority of the Commission, except that when the carrier adopts a limit of less than $500 in reporting property changes to the Bureau of Valuation for valuation purposes it shall adopt a like minimum for accounting purposes in order to coordinate the original cost with the physical property included in the inventory.

"Construction" includes all processes connected with the acquisition and construction of original road and equipment, road extensions, additions, and betterments.

"Original road" means the land and road property provided and arranged for in the original plan for the construction of a new road. When the acquisition of any road property under the original plan is deferred, such property when acquired, shall be considered an addition. Original road shall not include road property which, under the original plans for the road, it is proposed to substitute at some time subsequent to the beginning of commercial operations, for the property originally installed and used for transportation operations, such as steel bridges substituted for trestles.

"Original equipment" means equipment provided and arranged for under the original plan for the construction of a new road. When the acquisition of such equipment under the original plan is deferred, such equipment, when acquired, shall be considered as additions.

"Road extensions" means the land and road property provided and arranged for in the original plan for the construction of extensions of existing main lines, additional branch lines, and extensions of existing branch lines. When the acquisition of any road property under the original plan is deferred, such property, when acquired, shall be treated as an addition. Road extensions shall not include road property which, under the original plan for the extensions, it is proposed to substitute, at some time subsequent to the beginning of commercial operations for the property originally installed and used for transportation in connection with the commercial operations, such as steel bridges substituted for trestles.

"Equipment" means the rolling stock, boats, highway vehicles, horses, and harness devoted to transportation service, the cost of which is includible in the equipment accounts.

"Road property" means transportation property other than equipment.

"Additions" are additional facilities, such as additional equipment, tracks (including timber and mine tracks), buildings, bridges, and other structures; additions to such facilities, such as extensions to tracks, buildings, and other structures; additional ties laid in existing tracks; and additional devices applied to facilities, such as air brakes applied to cars not previously thus equipped. When a unit of property is retired from service and replaced with property of like purpose, the newly acquired property shall, for the purpose of this classification, be considered as an addition, and the cost thereof accounted for accordingly. (See § 10.01–7 Road property retired.)

"Betterments" are improvements of parts (minor items) of existing facilities through the substitution of superior parts for inferior parts replaced. The cost chargeable to the accounts of this classification is the excess cost of new parts over the cost at current prices of new parts of the kind replaced.

"Cost" shall be actual money costs to the carrier. Where a portion of the funds expended by or for the carrier has been obtained by grants from governmental agencies, or by donations from individuals or others, the accounting shall be in accordance with paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) of this section as may be applicable.

(1) Donations from individuals or others. The entire cost of constructing transportation property to which the carrier acquires exclusive title and exclusive right of use shall be included in these accounts without deduction on account of contributions received from others. The money value of donations shall be credited to account 702½B, "Donations and grants."

NOTE: Amounts billed against a lessee company for a proportion of the cost of constructing facilities under a contract which covers the joint use of such facilities but does not transfer title, shall be credited by the owning company to account 508, "Joint facility rent income," and charged by the lessee to account 541, "Joint facility rents." The entire cost of the facilities shall be charged by the owning company to the appropriate accounts of this classification.

(2) Joint projects. Contributions by governmental agencies, or individuals toward construction of projects involving joint use of facilities by the carrier and others after completion of the project shall not be considered donations and only the cost borne by the carrier in connection with the construction of these projects shall be included in these accounts. In accounting for the cost to the carrier of projects involving joint use of facilities by the carrier and others, such costs shall be first applied to the cost of construction of railway facilities includible in accounts other than 2½, "Other right-of-way expenditures," or 39, "Public improvements—Construction," any remaining balance to be included in account 2½, or account 39, as appropriate.

Illustrations of joint projects referred to are:

(i) Jointly owned tracks, interlockers, etc.;

(ii) Construction or widening of highways, spillways, drainage canals, farm and other private passes, pipe lines, drains, and other facilities across the carrier's right of way;

(iii) Construction of overhead or undergrade crossings;

(iv) Installation of warning signals to protect highway traffic.

(3) Public improvement projects other than joint projects. In connection with public improvement projects which do not involve joint use by the carrier and others of the facilities after completion of the projects such as reconstruction and relocation of tracks and appurtenant facilities at the expense of governmental agencies, the ledger value of the property retired shall be credited and the cost of constructing the new property shall be charged to the appropriate accounts of this classification. The sum contributed by the governmental agencies unless contract specifies otherwise shall be applied first to reduce or cancel the amount that otherwise would be charged to operating expenses or depreciation reserve in accounting for the retirements, and the remainder, if any, representing cost of railroad property only, shall be credited to account 702½B, "Donations and grants." The projects here referred to are those such as occur in connection with the carrying out of flood control, reclamation and other public projects where it becomes necessary to abandon a part of the line of road and relocate it.

§ 10.01–3 Basis of charges. The charges to the accounts of this classification shall be based upon the cost of the property acquired. When the consideration given for the purchase or the improvement of property the cost of which is chargeable to the accounts of this classification is other than money, the money value of the consideration at the time of the transaction shall be charged to these accounts, and the actual consideration shall be described in the record in sufficient detail to identify it. The carrier shall be prepared to furnish the Commission, upon demand, the particulars of its determination of the actual cash value of the consideration, if other than money.

§ 10.01–4 Cost of construction. It is intended that the accounts for road property and equipment shall include the cost of construction of such property. The cost of construction shall include the cost of labor, materials and supplies, work-train service, special machine service, transportation, contract work, protection from casualties, injuries and damages, privileges, and other analogous elements in connection with such work. The several items of cost here referred to are defined as follows:

(a) "Cost of labor" includes the amount paid for labor expended by the carrier's own employees, including the cost of labor expended for preliminary work, such as sinking test holes or making soundings for tunnels, grading, buildings, and other structures; and cost of labor expended in laying and taking up tracks for temporary use in construction, except the cost of labor expended on tracks provided for the protection of traffic during the progress of addition and betterment work. Office expenses and traveling and other personal expenses of employees, when borne by the carrier, shall be considered a part of the cost of the labor, as shall also the cost of fidelity bonds and employers' liability insurance premiums. When officers or employees are specially assigned to construction work, their pay and their traveling and incidental expenses while thus engaged shall be included in the cost of the work. No charge shall be made against road and equipment accounts for the pay of officers and employees who merely render services incidentally in connection with extensions, additions, or betterments, although traveling and incidental expenses incurred by such officers and employees solely on account of such work shall be included in the account to which the cost of the work is chargeable.

(b) "Cost of materials and supplies" includes the purchase price of materials and supplies, including small tools, at the point of free delivery, plus the cost of inspection and loading assumed by the carrier; also a suitable proportion of store expenses. (See § 10.04–16 Material store expenses and § 10.04–17 Stationery store expenses.) In calculating the cost of materials used, proper allowance shall be made for the value of unused portions and of cuttings, turnings, borings, etc.; for the value of the material recovered from temporary tracks, scaffolding, cofferdams, and other temporary structures used in construction; and for the value of small tools recovered and used for other purposes.

(c) "Cost of work-train service" includes amounts paid to others for rent and maintenance of equipment used; cost of labor of enginemen, trainmen, and enginehousemen, including wages of engine crews and train crews held in readiness for such service; and cost of fuel and other supplies consumed in connection with the operation of work trains. It shall also include the cost of maintaining the carrier's own equipment used in construction service. However, no rent or return upon the investment in such equipment shall be included as a part of the cost of work-train service.

(d) "Cost of special machine service" includes the cost of labor expended and of materials and supplies consumed in maintaining and operating steam shovels, scrapers, rail unloaders, ballast unloaders, pile drivers, dredges, ditchers, weed burners, and other labor-saving machines; also rents paid for use of such machines. (See Note A under account 37, "Roadway machines," and tenth paragraph of general account 50, "Equipment.")

(e) "Cost of transportation" includes the amounts paid to other companies or individuals for the transportation of men, materials and supplies, special machine outfits, appliances, and tools in connection with construction. Freight charges paid foreign lines for the transportation of construction material to the carrier's line shall be included, so far as practicable, as a part of the cost of the material.

(f) "Cost of contract work" includes amounts paid for work performed under contract by other companies, firms, or individuals, and costs incident to the award of the contract.

(g) "Cost of protection from casualties" includes expenditures for protection against fire, such as payments for discovery or extinguishment of fires, cost of detecting and prosecuting incendiaries, witness fees in relation thereto, amounts paid to municipal corporations and others for fire protection, and other analogous items of expenditure in connection with construction work.

(h) "Cost of injuries and damages" includes expenditures on account of injuries to persons or damage to property when incident to construction projects, and shall be included in the cost of the work in connection with which the injury or damage occurs. It also includes that portion of premiums paid for insuring property applicable to the period prior to the completion or coming into service of the property insured. Insurance recovered on account of compensation paid for injuries to persons incident to construction shall be credited to the accounts to which such compensation is charged, and insurance recovered on account of damages to property incident to construction shall be credited to the accounts chargeable with the expenditures necessary for restoring the damaged property. The cost of injuries and damages incident to the removal of old structures, or parts thereof, shall be charged to operating expenses, except that such costs in connection with the removal of old structures which are incumbrances on newly acquired lands shall be included in account 2, "Land for transportation purposes," or 3, "Grading," as may be appropriate. (See § 10.01–7 Road property retired.)

(i) "Cost of privileges" includes compensation for temporary privileges, such as the use of public property or streets, in connection with the construction of the property of the carrier.

§ 10.01–5 Excavated material. The cost of disposing of material excavated in connection with construction shall be considered as a part of the cost of the work, except that when such material is used for filling, the cost of removal and dumping shall be equitably apportioned between the work in connection with which the removal occurs and the work in connection with which the material is used.

§ 10.01–6 Items to be credited. To these accounts shall be credited the ledger value of property retired.

"Ledger value of property" is the value at which the property is carried in the property investment account in the general ledger of the carrier. In case the value of any item of property is not shown separately in the ledger the ledger value of that item shall be its proportionate share of the value of the entire group in which the particular property is included.

"Property retired" means a unit of property whether replaced or not and a minor item not replaced, which is sold, abandoned, demolished, dismantled, or otherwise withdrawn from transportation service.

§ 10.01–7 Road property retired. (a) When a unit of road property, other than land, is retired from service, or a minor item is retired and not replaced, the ledger value of the unit or minor item shall be credited to the appropriate road accounts of this classification at the time of retirement from service. The amount of this credit shall be charged concurrently as follows:

(1) For depreciable property. The service value (ledger value less value of salvage) shall be charged, and insurance recovered, if any, shall be credited to account 702½C, "Accrued depreciation—Road." The charge for the salvage shall be in accordance with the disposition of the material recovered. The cost of dismantling or demolishing the property, if borne by the carrier, shall be charged to account 270, "Dismantling retired road property," or account 306, "Dismantling retired shop and power plant machinery," as may be appropriate.

NOTE: When property included in the depreciable accounts but excluded from the depreciation base is retired, the service value (including engineering expenditures assignable to the retired property but not included in the depreciation base) shall be charged to operating expenses.

(2) For nondepreciable property. The service value (ledger value less value of salvage) shall be charged to account 267, "Retirements; Road." The cost of dismantling or demolishing the property, if borne by the carrier, shall be charged to account 270, "Dismantling retired road property." The charge for the salvage shall be in accordance with the disposition of the material recovered.

An equitable proportion of any balances carried in accounts 72 to 77, inclusive, applicable to the road property retired, shall be credited thereto concurrently and charged to account 267, "Retirements; Road."

NOTE: For parts (minor items) of road property retired and replaced for both depreciable and nondepreciable accounts the cost of replacement including cost of removal, shall be charged to the accounts in operating expenses appropriate for the cost of repairing such property.

(b) The term "service value" as applied to road property means the ledger value thereof less the value of the salvage recovered therefrom.

(c) The term "minor item" as applied to road property means the associated parts of which units of road property are composed.

(d) The term "value of salvage" means the amount received for property retired, or for the material salvaged therefrom if sold; or if retained, the value at which the property or the material salvaged therefrom is chargeable to account 716, "Material and supplies," or other accounts of this system of accounts. When such material is retained and again used by the carrier, the value shall be determined by deducting a fair allowance for depreciation from current prices of the material as new. If the retired property is held without being torn down the estimated value of the salvage therefrom shall be included in account 722, "Other deferred assets," until the salvage is recovered.

(e) The term "unit of road property" means any structure or item of property that is physically distinct or separate, or any substantial part of a composite or continuous structure (except tracks) such as a bridge, a trestle, a snowshed, or right-of-way fence, the original cost of which can be readily ascertained with reasonable accuracy. With respect to buildings it means the entire structure including component parts. The foregoing is intended as a guide in determining what is a unit of road property and should be regarded as representative only.

(f) Leased property. When a unit of road property used but not owned, other than land, the rent for which is includible in account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment," is retired from service, or a minor item is retired and not replaced, the service value of nondepreciable property shall be charged to account 267, "Retirements; Road," by the lessee and the service value of depreciable property shall be charged to the depreciation reserve account by either the lessee or lessor, as appropriate. If under terms of the lease the lessor is obligated to reimburse the lessee for additions and betterments and is credited with the ledger value of retired property, the lessor shall credit the ledger value of the retired property to account 701, "Road and equipment property." If under terms of the lease the lessee bears the cost of additions and betterments without reimbursement and is not obligated to reimburse the lessor for the ledger value of retired property, the lessee shall credit the ledger value to account 702, "Improvements on leased property." The salvage shall be accounted for by the company that has title thereto and charged in accordance with the disposition of the material recovered.

When the lessee makes settlement with the lessor currently for retirements of property leased, the lessee shall credit to account 706, "Investments in affiliated companies," or 707, "Other investments," as applicable, the service value of nondepreciable property charged to account 267, "Retirements; Road," and the lessor shall make corresponding charge to account 757, "Amounts payable to affiliated companies," or other liability accounts, as may be appropriate.

The lessee shall furnish the lessor such information as is required to perform the necessary accounting.

§ 10.01–9 Equipment retired. The instructions for accounting for equipment retired are contained in the text of general account 50, "Equipment."

§ 10.01–10 Land retired. When any land, the cost of which is included in the accounts of this classification, is retired, the ledger value shall be credited to account 2, "Land for transportation purposes." If the land is retained by the carrier, its estimated value shall be charged to balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property," the necessary adjustment of the difference between the ledger value and the estimated value on acount of the loss in the property due to its retirement from transportation service shall be made through account 621, "Miscellaneous debits". If sold, the difference between the ledger value credited to account 2 and the amount received for the land shall be adjusted through accounts 607, "Miscellaneous credits," or 621, "Miscellaneous debits," as appropriate.

§ 10.01–11 Adjustment for converted property. If a unit of equipment by its transfer from one class of service to another, with or without physical conversion, becomes includible in a primary investment account other than that in which it has been carried, it shall be accounted for as retired. (See the text of general account 50, "Equipment.")

In accounting for the retirement of such a unit the retirement accounting should be on a basis consistent with the accounting which would be proper if the carrier were to make no further use of it, as in the case of demolition or sale. Following this principle, the salvage value to be used in arriving at the service value shall be the ledger value of the unit less an allowance to reflect consumed, expired or lost usefulness and in no case shall it be less than the estimated value of the scrap and reusable parts which would be recovered if the unit were dismantled. In arriving at this salvage value, the amount which would have been paid, had the old unit in its second-hand condition been purchased from another company, and the further use which it is contemplated will be made of the unit after conversion, are factors to be given consideration.

In accounting for the unit as converted, its ledger value shall be the estimated salvage value used in the retirement accounting less any salvage recovered and not used in the conversion process plus all expenditures for labor and material necessary to fit the unit for its future use, but not in excess of the cost (at current market prices of labor and material) of a new unit of equal capacity and equal expectation of life in service, less a suitable allowance on account of the second-hand portions remaining therein.

NOTE: The procedure outlined in the foregoing with regard to the transfer of equipment from one class of service to another shall be followed in accounting for fixed property when by its transfer from one class of service to another it becomes includible in a primary investment account other than that in which it has been carried.

§ 10.01–12 Expenses in connection with additions and betterments. The cost of removing old material from equipment and from buildings, bridges, wharves, tracks, and other fixed improvements, shall be charged to the appropriate operating expense accounts. Such charges shall include the cost of removing old foundations and filling old excavations, and restoring condition of grounds after addition and betterment work; and maintaining or protecting traffic during the progress of addition and betterment work, including the cost of constructing, maintaining, and removing temporary tracks required for maintaining traffic during the progress of the work.

§ 10.01–13 Interpretation of item lists. Lists of "items," "details," etc., have been given as a part of this classification for the purpose of clearly indicating the application of the accounting rules in specific cases. The lists in every case are to be considered as merely representative, and not as excluding from any account analogous items which happen to be omitted from the list appended. On the other hand, the appearance of an item in a list warrants the inclusion of the item in the account concerned only when the text of the account also indicates inclusion, inasmuch as the same item frequently appears in more than one list. The item of boilers, for example, will be found under accounts 18, 27, 37, 44, and 45, and the proper charge in any one instance must be determined by the text of the account.

§ 10.01–14 Submission of questions. To the end that uniformity of accounting may be maintained from year to year, carriers shall submit all questions of doubtful interpretation of the accounting rules to the Commission for consideration and decision.

PROPERTY ACCOUNTS

ROAD

§ 10.0 Road. The several primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show the cost of land and road property owned by the carrier and devoted to transportation service.

§ 10.1 Engineering. This account shall include the pay and expenses of engineers, assistants, and clerks engaged in the survey and construction of new lines and extensions, or in making additions to and betterments of the carrier's road, including wharves and docks.

NOTE A: When employers designated above are engaged in the maintenance of the road, their pay and expenses while thus employed shall be charged to operating expenses.

NOTE B: Expenditures for tentative or preliminary surveys shall be carried in a suspense account until it is determined whether or not to continue the work. If the project is continued, expenditures for all surveys in connection therewith shall then be transferred to this account, and, if abandoned, to operating expenses, income, or profit and loss, as may be appropriate.

NOTE C: The cost of designing, making plans and specifications, and supervising the construction of equipment shall be included in the cost of the equipment.

NOTE D: The cost of stationery and printing supplies used for accounting purposes in connection with engineering work shall be included in account 74, "Stationery and printing," when not directly assignable to specific road or equipment accounts.

NOTE E: Fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of buildings shall be included in the accounts appropriate for the cost of the buildings constructed.

§ 10.2 Land for transportation purposes. This account shall include the cost of land of necessary width acquired for roadway; the cost of land for station, office, shop, and other grounds; for ingress to or egress from such grounds; for borrow pits, waste banks, snow fences, sand fences, and other railway appurtenances; and for storage of material adjoining the right of way; the cost of land for wharves and docks and the cost of riparian or water rights necessary therefor; the cost of removing from the right of way and locating elsewhere the property of others, and the cost of the necessary land for relocation of the property, when such costs are assumed by the accounting carrier.

The carrier's records shall be kept in such manner as to show separately the cost of land purchased by it and the estimated values at time of acquisition of lands donated.

Proceeds from the sale of timber or of improvements purchased with right of way, less any cost of removal, shall be credited to this account.

ITEMS OF EXPENSE

Abstracts.
Appraisals.
Arbitrators in condemnation cases.
Commissions paid to others.
Condemnation expenses, including court costs and special counsel fees.
Damages to property of others.
Deferred payments for right of way.
Ditches for waterways when part of consideration.
Judgments and decreed costs to clear or defend titles.
Notarial fees.
Plats.
Premiums on condemnation bonds.
Recording deeds.
Payments for relinquishment of cattle passes and other rights.
Removal and relocation of buildings and other structures not purchased.
Rent of land when part of consideration for purchase.
Right-of-way agents' compensation (engaged solely in acquiring right of way).
Taxes accrued and assumed at time of purchase.

NOTE: The cost of land acquired in excess of that necessary for transportation operations shall be included in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property." When the purchase of land acquired for transportation operation involves the purchase of land not used for such purposes the charges to this account shall be based upon the estimated cost of only that portion which is used for such purposes, and the cost of the remaining land shall be included in account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property." Only the actual cost borne by the carrier for right of way and other lands acquired through vacation of streets and highways shall be included in this account. No donations should be considered as involved in the acquisition of such property.

§ 10.2½ Other right-of-way expenditures. This account shall include the cost (in excess of cost of railway facilities installed, if any) actually borne by the carrier of improvement projects (other than public improvement projects), such as the construction of canals, farm and other private passes, pipe lines, drains, and other facilities across the carrier's right of way.

§ 10.3 Grading. This account shall include the cost of clearing and grading the roadway, and of constructing protection for the roadway, tracks, embankments, and cuts.

When a part of a bridge or trestle, or the entire structure, is converted by filling into an earth embankment, and the bridge is used in lieu of a temporary trestle for the purpose of filling, the estimated cost of such temporary trestle shall be included in the cost of the filling, and charged to this account. (See Note A, under account 6, "Bridges, trestles, and culverts.")

When a tunnel is converted into an open cut, the cost of clearing, grubbing, and excavating shall be included in this account.

Temporary trestling for fills.
Tools for grading.
Wing dams.

§ 10.5 Tunnels and subways. This account shall include the cost of tunnels and subways for the passage of trains, including apparatus for ventilating and lighting, and safety devices therein, other than signals.

NOTE A: The cost of tracks, including guard rails, in tunnels shall not be charged to this account.

NOTE B: Station subways not highway crossings are includible in account 16, "Station and office buildings."

NOTE C: If a tunnel be converted into an open cut the accounting shall be in accordance with § 10.01–11 Adjustment for converted property.

§ 10.6 Bridges, trestles, and culverts. This account shall include the cost of the substructure and superstructure of bridges, trestles, and culverts which carry the tracks of the carrier over watercourses, ravines, public and private highways, and other railways.

Wing walls.

NOTE A: When a part of the entire structure of a bridge or trestle is converted, by filling, into an earth embankment, the ledger value of the structure, or of the portion thereof filled, shall be credited to this account. In case the bridge or trestle is used in lieu of a temporary trestle for the purpose of filling, the estimated cost of such temporary trestle shall be charged to account 3, "Grading." The ledger value of the structure or portion thereof, filled, less the value of the salvage and the estimated cost of trestle charged to account 3, shall be charged to account 702½C.

NOTE B: The cost of bridges to carry the carrier's tracks over undergrade crossings, including the necessary piers and abutments to sustain them shall be included in this account. (See "Cost" in paragraph (c) of § 10.01–2 Items to be charged.)

§ 10.7 Elevated structures. This account shall include the cost of elevated structures and foundations of elevated railway systems.

This account is applicable to structures other than earthwork, which are for the purpose of elevating tracks above the grade of streets, and which are not properly classable as bridges or trestles.

NOTE: The cost of stations and other structures built on elevated structures shall be accounted for according to the class of the structure thus superimposed and not in this account.

§ 10.8 Ties. This account shall include the cost of cross, switch, bridge, and other track ties used in the construction of tracks for the movement or storage of locomotives and cars (including tracks in shops, fuel stations, supply yards, etc.), and the cost of additional ties subsequently laid in such tracks; also the excess cost of metal ties used in repairs of track over the cost to replace in kind wooden ties removed.

The cost of handling ties in general supply and storage yards shall be included as store expenses apportioned to this account when the ties are used for construction purposes.

NOTE A: The cost of labor for unloading, distributing, and placing the ties in tracks, and the cost of train service in connection with the distribution of ties laid shall be charged to account 12, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE B: The cost of ties used in the construction of car floats shall be included in the cost of such floating equipment, and the cost of ties used in the construction of temporary tracks, such as gravel-pit and quarry tracks, shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts.

§ 10.9 Rails. This account shall include the cost of rails used in the construction of tracks for the movement or storage of locomotives and cars (including tracks in shops, fuel stations, supply yards, etc.), and the cost of the excess in weight of heavier rails laid in replacement of lighter rails.

The cost of handling rails in general supply and storage yards shall be included as store expenses apportioned to this account when the rails are used for construction purposes.

To this account shall be credited the cost (at current prices at time of removal) of the excess weight of heavier rails replaced with lighter rails.

NOTE A: The cost of labor for unloading, distributing, and placing the rails in tracks, and of train service in connection with the distribution of the rails, shall be charged to account 12, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE C: The cost of rails used in the construction of car floats shall be included in the cost of such floating equipment, and the cost of rails used in the construction of temporary tracks, such as gravel-pit and quarry tracks, shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts.

§ 10.10 Other track material. This account shall include the cost of material used in the construction of tracks for the movement or storage of locomotives and cars (including tracks in shops, fuel stations, supply yards, etc.), except ballast and material chargeable to foregoing accounts; also the excess cost of heavier or improved "other track material" used in repairs of tracks over the cost of replacing in kind such material removed.

The cost of handling "other track material" in general supply and storage yards shall be included as store expenses apportioned to this account when such material is used in the construction of new tracks.

ITEMS OF OTHER TRACK MATERIAL

Angle bars.
Anticreepers.
Bumping posts.
Compromise joints.
Connecting rods.
Crossings for steam and electric railways, including foundations or bases.
Derails.
Frog blocking.
Frogs.
Guard-rail blocking.
Guard-rail clamps.
Guard-rail fasteners.
Guard rails, switch and other.
Main rods.
Nut locks.
Nuts.
Offset bars.
Rail braces.
Rail chairs.
Rail clips.
Rail joints.
Rail rests.
Rail shims.
Rail splices.
Splice bars.
Step chairs.
Switch chairs.
Switch crossings.
Switch lamps.
Switch locks and keys.
Switch points.
Switch stands.
Switch targets.
Switches.
Tie plates.
Tie plugs.
Tie rods.
Track bolts.
Track insulators.
Track spikes.

NOTE A: The cost of labor and train service for distributing, unloading, and applying "other track material" shall be charged to account 12, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE B: No entry is required in this account with respect to improved "other track material" unless installed under a definite plan of changing standards, such as increasing the weight of rail.

NOTE C: The cost of "other track material" used in the construction of car floats shall be included in the cost of such floating equipment, and the carrier cost of such track material used in the construction of temporary tracks, such as gravel-pit and quarry tracks, shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts.

§ 10.11 Ballast. This account shall include the cost of gravel, stone, slag, cinders, sand, and like material used in ballasting tracks (including tracks in shops, fuel stations, supply yards, etc.) not previously ballasted, including cost of work-train service and of unloading; cost of ballast applied in excess of ballast required to restore to its maximum height and width the ballast previously put on the roadbed; and the excess cost of improved ballast used in renewals over the cost to replace in kind to the original height and width the ballast removed. Charges to this account shall not exceed the cost of ballast applied to a depth of 24 inches beneath the tie, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission. (§ 10.04–11 Gravel and sand pits and quarries applies to the accounting for pits from which ballast material is obtained either for construction work or for maintenance, or for both.)

NOTE A: The cost of ballast used in the construction of temporary tracks, such as gravel-pit and quarry tracks, shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts.

NOTE B: Earth placed to form a crown in the middle of the track is not to be considered as ballast.

NOTE C: The cost of ballast material placed on the decking of bridges solely for fire-protection purposes shall be included in account 6, "Bridges, trestles, and culverts."

NOTE D: No charge shall be made to the accounts of this classification representing the value of cinders accumulated by the carrier.

§ 10.12 Track laying and surfacing. This account shall include the cost of distributing (including train service), laying, and adjusting ties, rails, and other track material used in the construction of tracks for the movement or storage of locomotives or cars, including repair tracks, but not tracks on car floats or temporary tracks the cost of which is chargeable to clearing accounts. It shall also include the cost of the labor expended in placing ballast in tracks not previously ballasted.

NOTE A: The cost of distributing and adjusting ties, rails, ballast, and other track material for repairs shall be charged to operating expenses, both when such materials are replaced in kind and when replaced with improved and heavier material.

NOTE B: The cost of work-train service in delivering ballast and of unloading such material is provided for in account 11, "Ballast."

§ 10.13 Fences, snowsheds, and signs. This account shall include:

(a) Fences. The cost of right-of-way fences and snow and sand fences, farm gates, cattle guards, wing fences, aprons, and hedges, on property not previously fenced, excluding those around stockyards, fuel stations, station and shop grounds, and building sites.

(b) Snowsheds. The cost of snowsheds, including initial cost of planting trees for protecting tracks from snow.

(c) Signs. The initial cost of signs other than those for identification of bridges, signals, stations, and other structures.

SIGN ITEMS

Boundary signs.
Bridge-caution signs.
Crossing signs.
Curve and elevation markers.
Division-limit signs.
Mileposts.
Monuments.
Safety-first signs at crossings.
Section-limit signs.
Slow or stop signs.
Tunnel-caution signs.
Water-station signs.
Water-trough signs.
Whistle signs.
Yard-limit signs.

NOTE A: The cost of fences (other than right-of-way boundary fences) around stock yards, fuel and water stations, and other building sites, shall be charged to the accounts appropriate for the cost of the structures.

NOTE B: The cost of signs for identifying bridges, signals, stations, and other structures shall be included in the account appropriate for the cost of the structures.

NOTE C: The cost of crossing signals, including crossing gates, shall be included in account 27, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE D: It shall also include the cost of replacing units of such property or substantial parts of fences or snowsheds the original cost of which were charged to this account.

§ 10.16 Station and office buildings. This account shall include the cost of station and office structures, their fixtures, appurtenances, and furniture necessary first to equip the buildings for use.

STATION AND OFFICE STRUCTURES AND DETAILS

Baggage rooms.
Breakwaters for protection of buildings.
Buildings and rooms for trainmen.
Buildings on piers.
Call bells.
Coal bins.
Coal transferring machinery (not on coal and ore wharves).
Coal trestles (not at fuel stations).
Commissarial buildings.
Drainage and sewerage systems.
Dwellings.
Eating houses.
Electric wiring.
Elevators and machinery.
Express buildings.
Fences
Fire-engine houses.
Freight cranes.
Freight derricks.
Freight handling machinery.
Freight houses.
Garages.

Gas-supply systems.
General office buildings.
Grain cribs.
Grain elevators.
Grain warehouses.
Greenhouses.
Hay houses.
Heating plants.
Hedges.
Hoisting engines, for handling freight.
Hose houses.
Ice houses.
Lighting plants.
Mail cranes.
Milk stands.
Office buildings.
Ore-transferring machinery.
Outhouses.
Pavement within ground limits.
Platforms, freight.
Platforms, passenger, including planking between tracks.
Power distribution systems, interior.
Reading rooms.
Rooms for Y. M. C. A.
Scale houses.
Sidewalks.
Stables.
Station footbridges (not highway crossings).
Station intertrack fences.
Station platforms.
Station signs.
Station stairways.
Station subways (not highway crossings).
Station power houses.
Stations, freight.

Stock pens.
Storehouses.
Telegraph offices.
Telpher systems.
Track scales.
Transfer houses.
Transfer platforms.
Waiting rooms.
Warehouses.
Washrooms.
Water-supply systems.
Yard offices.

NOTE A: Office buildings used exclusively in connection with maintenance of way shall be included in account 17, "Roadway buildings." Those used exclusively in connection with maintenance of equipment shall be included in account 20, "Shops and enginehouses."

NOTE B: The cost of grading and preparing grounds, both before and after the construction of station and office buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

§ 10.17 Roadway buildings. This account shall include the cost of roadway shops and other roadway buildings, including drainage, water, gas, and sewer pipes and connections; and all machinery, fixtures, and furniture to equip the building ready for use.

LIST OF ROADWAY BUILDINGS

Bins for material.
Blacksmith shops.
Boarding houses.
Breakwaters for protection of buildings.
Carpenter shops.
Dwellings.
Fire-engine houses.
Frog shops for repair of track material.
Hand-car houses.
Lighting plants.
Lumber sheds.
Offices.
Outhouses.
Planing mills.
Rail shops for repair of track material.
Repair shops.
Scrap bins.
Section dwelling houses.
Stables.
Storehouses.
Tool houses.
Watch houses.

NOTE: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of roadway buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

§ 10.18 Water stations. This account shall include the cost of structures, facilities, and appliances necessary to equip for service, stations for supplying water. The cost of analyses of water preliminary to the establishment of water stations shall be included in this account.

WATER STATION STRUCTURES AND DETAILS

Boilers.
Breakwaters for protection of buildings.
Buildings on piers.
Cisterns.
Dams.
Fences.
Outhouses.
Penstocks.
Pump houses.
Pumps.
Purifying plants.
Reservoirs.

Stationary engines.
Steam pipes.
Tanks and foundations.
Test wells.
Track tanks.
Tubs.
Water cranes.
Water pipe lines.
Water-treating plants.
Wells.
Windmills.

NOTE A: The cost of water stations used solely for supplying water to shops, power plants, stations, hotels, tenement houses, or section houses shall be charged to the appropriate accounts relating to the property so supplied.

NOTE B: The cost of a temporary water station established only for use during the construction period shall be included in the primary accounts to which is charged the cost of the work in connection with which the water station is used.

NOTE C: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of water station buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

§ 10.19 Fuel stations. This account shall include the cost of structures, facilities other than tracks, and appliances necessary to equip for service, stations for supplying fuel to locomotives and floating equipment.

FUEL STATION STRUCTURES AND DETAILS

Breakwaters for protection of buildings.
Buckets.
Buildings on piers.
Coal buckets.
Coal buggies.
Coal hoists.
Coal pockets and chutes.
Dumping machinery.
Elevating machinery.
Fences.
Fuel houses or stations.
Fuel-oil columns.
Fuel-oil plants.
Fuel-oil pumps.
Fuel-oil sumps.
Fuel-oil tanks.
Fuel platforms.
Fuel wharves.
Indlines.
Outhouses.
Scales.
Sheds.
Stationary engines.
Tipple cars.
Weighing apparatus.
Wood racks.

NOTE A: The cost of fuel stations, coal houses, etc., used solely for supplying fuel to shops, power plants, stations, hotels, tenement houses, or section houses shall be charged to the appropriate accounts relating to the property so supplied.

NOTE B: The cost of a temporary fuel station established only for use during the construction period shall be included in the primary accounts to which is charged the cost of the work in connection with which the fuel station is used.

NOTE C: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of fuel station buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

§ 10.20 Shops and enginehouses. This account shall include the cost of buildings to be used as shops, enginehouses, and storehouses for material for maintenance of equipment; foundations, except those special to particular machines and other apparatus; furniture and fixtures other than equipment chargeable to account 44, "Shop machinery"; drainage, sewerage, and water-supply systems; and plants for heat and light.

SHOP AND ENGINEHOUSE STRUCTURES AND DETAILS

Air-compressor houses.
Ash pits and pockets.
Ash plants.
Bins for material.
Blacksmith shops.
Breakwaters for protection of buildings.
Buildings on piers.
Car sheds.
Car shops.
Carpenter shops.
Cinder pits.
Cinder pockets.
Drop pits.
Dry houses.
Electric-power distribution systems within buildings.
Enginehouses.
Fire-engine houses.
Footbridges (not public highways).
Foundries.
Gas-compressor houses.
Heating plants.
Hose houses.
Ice houses.
Laboratories.
Lighting plants.
Lumber sheds.
Machine shops.
Material and supply truck tracks.
Motor-crane tracks.
Offices, shop.

NOTE A: The cost of distinct power plant buildings for shop purposes shall be included in account 29, "Power plants." The cost of distribution systems leading from such power plants to shops and enginehouses shall be included in account 31, "Power-transmission systems."

NOTE B: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of shop and enginehouse buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

NOTE C: The cost of shop buildings devoted solely to the maintenance of way and structures shall be included in account 17, "Roadway buildings."

§ 10.21 Grain elevators. This account shall include the cost of structures, including the cost of conveyors, machinery, and fixtures which the railway companies operate for the transfer, treatment, and storage of grain.

The buildings referred to in this account are not small storage elevators at stations where grain is received for shipment, etc., but large elevators in which grain is stored for various owners.

NOTE A: Small storage elevators at way stations are classed as station buildings.

NOTE B: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of grain-elevator buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

NOTE C: The cost of grain elevators leased to noncarriers shall be included in account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.22 Storage warehouses. This account shall include the cost of storage warehouses, including machinery and fixtures therein.

The buildings herein referred to are not the ordinary freight warehouses or stations where freight is received for shipment, etc., but warehouses in which merchandise is stored and which the railway companies operate as storage warehouses.

NOTE A: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of storage warehouse buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

NOTE B: The cost of warehouses leased to noncarriers shall be charged to account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.23 Wharves and docks. This account shall include the cost of wharves, docks, dry docks, slips, float bridges, and other landings for vessels, including the cost of necessary dredging, and the cost of float-bridge machinery; also the cost of piling, pile protection, cribs, cofferdams, walls, and other necessary devices and apparatus for the operation or protection of wharves and docks.

DETAILS OF WHARVES AND DOCKS

Bridge pontoons.
Bulkheads.
Caissons.
Cribwork.
Dry docks.
Ferry-bridge machinery.
Ferry bridges.
Ferry racks.
Ferry slips.
Jetties.
Jetty inclines.
Transfer-bridge machinery.
Transfer bridges.

NOTE A: The cost of coal and ore wharves and docks shall be included in account 24, "Coal and ore wharves."

NOTE B: The cost of the land on which wharves are built and cost of riparian or water rights for wharves and docks shall be charged to account 2, "Land for transportation purposes."

NOTE C: The cost of buildings located on wharves shall be included in the accounts appropriate for the class of buildings.

NOTE D: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of wharves (other than coal and ore wharves) and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the wharves, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the wharves.

§ 10.24 Coal and ore wharves. This account shall include the cost of wharves and docks for the transfer, treatment, blending, or storage of coal or ore, including the cost of necessary dredging and of conveyors, machinery, and fixtures.

NOTE A: The structures referred to in this account do not include small transfer or storage trestles or wharves at stations where coal is stored or delivered, such trestles being classed as station buildings.

NOTE B: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of coal and ore wharves, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the wharves, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the wharves, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the wharves.

§ 10.26 Communication systems. This account shall include the cost of telegraph, telephone, radio, radar, inductive train communication, and other communication systems, including terminal equipment.

Details of telegraph and telephone terminal equipment:

Batteries.
Cables and wires, interior.
Carrier terminating equipment.
Conduits, interior.
Connecting wires.
Current-controlling instruments.
Electric generators and motors.
Electric meters.
Engines, stationary.
Fuses and mechanical protectors.
Rectifiers.
Rheostats.
Sending and receiving instruments.
Switchboards.
Telegraph repeaters.
Telephone repeaters.
Teletypewriters.
Testing outfits.
Transformers.

Details of telegraph and telephone outside plant:

Aerial attachments.
Braces.
Brackets.
Cable boxes and appurtenances.
Cables and wires, aerial.
Conduits and appurtenances.
Cross arms.
Gas and associated facilities for cables.
Guy grubs.
Guy wires.
Insulators.
Load coils.
Poles.
Submarine cables and connections.
Telephone pole boxes.
Towers.
Underground cables and connections.

Details of radio, radar, and inductive train communication equipment:

Aerials or antenna, and attachments.
Buildings or towers used exclusively for wireless.
Control units.
Power generating, converting, or supply equipment.
Radar console and associated equipment.
Roadwide or office equipment for all wireless systems operated on special channels between train and train, train and tower or office, or between ship and shore.
Specialized testing and repair equipment.
Transmitters and receivers, including mobile units.

NOTE A: Radio, radar or trainphone equipment (except portable apparatus) which is permanently attached to locomotives, cars, work equipment, or other rolling stock or floating equipment shall be included in the same accounts as the equipment on which installed. Wireless sets for instruction, advertising, or entertainment shall be included in the same accounts as the building in which located.

NOTE B: Communication systems of limited extent, not connected with other systems, used for special purposes and usually installed within a single building, group of buildings, or within the limits of a station or shop layout or yard, shall be included in the same account as the building in which located or in the account appropriate for the service with which associated.

ITEMS

Buzzers, bells, dictaphones or other interoffice communication systems in an office or group of buildings.
Loud speakers, bells, or whistles in shop and other yards.
Loud speakers, public address devices, press button control lights, telautograph or other systems in stations or on platforms.
Whistles, klaxons, or horns operated from signal towers.

NOTE C: Test sets shall be classified as tools and included in the account appropriate for their use.

§ 10.27 Signals and interlockers. This account shall include the cost of interlocking and other signal apparatus for governing the movements of locomotives, cars, and trains, and for the protection of traffic at crossings, including towers and other buildings, furniture, fixtures, and machinery in connection therewith; roadway installations for train control and remote control including the cost of the initial tests of such installations; also the cost of buildings and machinery of power plants used primarily for the production of power for the operation of signals and interlockers.

ITEMS

Air compressors.
Automatic-train control devices other than on equipment.
Batteries.

Battery wells and houses.
Boilers.
Call-bell systems along track to call in flagmen.
Call boxes, electric.
Car-retarder systems.
Centralized traffic control.
Conduits for pipe and wire.
Crossing flasher-light signals.
Crossing gates, highway and railway.
Crossing signal bells.
Crossing warning signals.
Distant signals.
Dynamos.
Engines, stationary.
Home signals.
Impedance bonds.
Interlocker buildings.
Interlocker machinery.
Interlocker mechanism.
Levers.
Power apparatus primarily for the operation of signals and interlockers.
Power-distribution lines primarily for the operation of signals and interlockers.
Rail bonds.
Railway crossing signals.
Relays.
Semaphores.
Signal and switch levers.
Signal arms.
Signal blades.
Signal bridges.
Signal buildings.
Signal cables.
Signal-lamp brackets and connections.
Signal lamps.
Signal machinery.
Signal poles and foundations.
Signal pulleys and foundations.
Special appliances.
Station signals.
Train-order signals.
Wiring.

NOTE A: When signal or interlocking apparatus is located in a station building, only the cost of the signal or interlocking apparatus shall be charged to this account. The entire cost of the building shall be included in account 16, "Station and office buildings."

NOTE B: The cost of track material, such as switches, special rail braces, special rods, special track fastenings, split rails, derails, derail stands, and frogs, used in connection with interlockers, shall be included in account 10, "Other track material."

NOTE C: When derails are arranged so as to be thrown from switch stands, the cost of labor expended in the installation of the connections between the switch stand and derail and the devices for throwing the derail shall be included in account 12, "Track laying and surfacing." The cost of the material shall be included in account 10, "Other track material."

NOTE D: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of signal and interlocker buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

§ 10.29 Power plants. This account shall include the cost of power-plant and substation buildings (housing machinery provided for in account 45, "Power-plant machinery"); all foundations other than those special to particular machines and apparatus; and also dams, canals, pipe lines, and accessories devoted to the utilization of water for power. Gas and sewer pipes and their connections, fixtures (including wiring) for lighting and heating, and furniture and miscellaneous fixtures, shall be considered as a part of the power-plant buildings.

POWER-PLANT STRUCTURE ITEMS

Buildings.
Coal pockets and trestles.
Coal bunkers.
Fences (other than right-of-way boundary fences).
Fixtures for lighting (including wiring) and heating power-plant buildings.
Foundations (except special foundations for machines and other apparatus).
Fuel-oil tanks.
Furniture.
Hose and appliances for protecting buildings against fire.
Pavement within ground limits.
Permanent rights in water supply.
Platforms.
Smoke stacks and chimneys and their foundations when distinct from and not resting on boilers.
Water, sewer, gas, and drainage pipes and connections.
Wells (but not pumps).

DAM, CANAL, AND PIPE-LINE ITEMS

Aqueducts.
Bridges.
Fences (Other than right-of-way boundary fences).
Footbridges.
Forebays.
Gates.
Grids.
Inlet valves.
Penstocks.
Reservoirs.
Roadways.
Sluices.
Valves.
Water rights.

NOTE A: The cost of power-plant machinery, including stacks resting on boilers, and special foundations for machines, shall be included in account 45, "Power-plant machinery."

NOTE B: The cost of the buildings and of the power machinery and other apparatus of plants used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 27, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE C: Investment in buildings and machinery of detached plants for furnishing power both for operating purposes and for sale shall be included in this account and in account 45, "Power-plant machinery," respectively. When plants are intended and used primarily for generating power for sale to other than common carriers, the investment shall be included in account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.31 Power-transmission systems. This account shall include the cost of systems for conveying electricity, steam, and compressed air from producing plants to place or building where used; also the cost of conduits and of poles, cross arms, insulator pins, brackets, and other pole fixtures, and of other structures for power-transmission and distribution systems, including those for electric railway operation, and lighting systems for general lighting purposes.

POWER-TRANSMISSION SYSTEM ITEMS

Air pipe-lines in car yards.
Cables.
Compressed air pipe-lines.
Compressed air storage tanks (not at power houses or shops).
Cut-outs (not at power houses and substations).
Feed wires.
Guard wires.
Insulators and connections.
Overhead trolley wires.
Rail-bond plugs.
Rail bonds.
Rail-insulating devices.
Span wires.
Steam-heating pipe-lines in car yards.
Steam pipe-lines.
Switchboards (not at power houses and substations).
Third rail.
Third-rail braces.
Third-rail insulation and protection.
Third-rail supports.
Transformers (not at power houses and substations).
Underground power tubes.

POLE-LINE AND CONDUIT ITEMS

Braces and other supports for holding poles in position.
Brackets and other pole fixtures.
Conduits for wires and cables.
Cross arms.
Cutting and trimming trees.
Guy stubs.
Guy wires.
Insulator pins.
Manholes.
Poles.
Sewer traps.
Stenciling or painting letters or numbers on poles.
Towers.

NOTE A: The cost of wire and pipe-distribution systems located within shop buildings and in stations and office buildings shall be included in the cost of the buildings, except that lateral service lines to equipment-shop machines shall be included in account 44, "Shop machinery." The cost of distribution systems used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 27, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE B: The cost of conduits and of poles and fixtures for telegraph and telephone, or signal lines shall be included in account 26, "Communication systems," or account 27, "Signals and interlockers," as appropriate. The cost of poles and conduits used for telegraph and telephone or signal lines and for power-distribution lines shall be included in the account appropriate according to their predominant use.

§ 10.35 Miscellaneous structures. This account shall include the cost of all permanent structures not provided for elsewhere, including all fixtures and furniture to equip them for use.

§ 10.37 Roadway machines. This account shall include the cost of the initial outfit of roadway machines provided for the maintenance of roadway and structures at the time the road is opened for commercial traffic, and the cost of additional roadway machines acquired subsequently.

LIST OF ROADWAY MACHINES

Boilers, portable.
Cars, hand.
Cars, lever.
Cars, motor inspection.
Cars, push.
Cars (small), crane, for supply yards and general use.
Concrete mixers.
Ditching machines.
Dredging machines.
Engines, portable.
Grading outfits.
Hydraulic outfits.
Jacks, hydraulic.
Log loaders.
Pile drivers.
Plows, unloading.
Rail unloaders.
Rock crushers.
Steam rollers.
Timber trucks.
Velocipedes.

NOTE A: When an important addition and betterment project or the construction of a new line necessitates the purchase of roadway machines to be used exclusively thereon, the cost shall be included in the accounts to which the cost of the work is charged. The amount realized from any subsequent sale, or the appraised value of the machines retained after the completion of the special work for which they were purchased, shall be credited to the accounts charged with the cost thereof. The appraised value of such machines retained shall be debited to this account and thereafter considered as the cost of such property.

NOTE B: The cost of machines for the equipment of roadway shops shall be included in account 17, "Roadway buildings," as provided for therein.

NOTE C: The cost of roadway machines, such as pile drivers, log loaders, hoist engines, and concrete mixers, when permanently mounted for movement on the carrier's tracks, shall be included in account 57, "Work equipment."

§ 10.38 Roadway small tools. This account shall include the cost of the initial outfit of roadway and track small tools provided for the maintenance of way and structures at the time the road is opened for commercial traffic; also the initial outfit of such tools provided for the maintenance of extensions of such road.

LIST OF ROADWAY TOOLS

Adzes.
Anvils.
Augers.

NOTE: The cost of roadway and track small tools of which no specific record is kept shall be charged when acquired to an appropriate materials and supplies account, from which they shall be charged as issued to the appropriate road and equipment, operating expense, or other accounts. When such tools are used both for construction and maintenance work the cost shall be equitably apportioned among the accounts provided for the two classes of work.

§ 10.39 Public improvements; construction. This account shall include amounts assessed on carrier property by governmental authority (by mutual agreement or otherwise) to cover the cost of constructing public improvements, when such assessments are made against property within defined areas of taxing districts. It shall also include the cost borne by the carrier of public improvements constructed by it under governmental requirements.

The entire amount of each assessment for public improvements shall be included in this account as soon as it is determined.

ITEMS

Cost of land outside carrier's right of way to provide for the relocation of streets or highways or providing slopes therefor.
Cost of removal and relocation of buildings and other structures in connection with the construction of streets and highways.
Curbing streets and highways.
Damage to property of others when incidental to highway construction.
Drainage systems.
Engineering—When such costs apply to items chargeable to this account.
Flood protection.
Grading streets and highways.
Guttering streets and highways.
Irrigation systems.
Levees.
Overhead highway bridges, including approaches.
Paving streets and highways, including such pavings at crossings.
Planking, highway crossings.
Sewer systems.
Sidewalks.
Street-lighting systems.
Water works.

NOTE A: The cost of railway facilities installed in connection with joint public improvement projects if not in excess of total costs borne by the carrier shall be included in accounts other than account 39, "Public improvements—Construction," appropriate for the class of property installed. Any costs borne by the carrier in excess of the cost of railway facilities shall be charged to this account.

NOTE B: The cost to the carrier of maintaining public improvements shall be included in Operating Expenses.

NOTE C: Any portion of the cost of public improvements which is included in the general tax levy for a regular taxing district shall be included in the account appropriate for taxes.

NOTE D: The amount of the deferred payments of assessments for public improvements if payments are to be made within one year, shall be included in account 768, "Other current liabilities." If the payments are spread over a longer period they shall be credited to account 770, "Other deferred liabilities." The interest paid on such assessments shall be included in account 547, "Interest on unfunded debt."

NOTE E: Interest and penalties imposed, on basis of monthly or annual percentage rates, for failure to pay assessments within the allotted time shall be charged to account 547, "Interest on unfunded debt."

NOTE F: Assessments on noncarrier property for the cost of constructing public improvements shall be charged to account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.40 Revenues and operating expenses during construction. This account shall include the cost of operating a piece of road during the period before the regular operation of revenue trains, including rent and repairs of equipment used in commercial service during such period. It includes the cost of running construction trains over such section of road when the cost of operating such trains can not properly be charged to any specific account.

To this account shall be credited amounts collected for rents of buildings and other properties and for the transportation of commercial freight or of passengers on construction trains; also the net profits from boarding and commissarial outfits, and other sources of operating revenue.

Carriers which wish to subdivide this account shall use appropriate subaccounts corresponding to accounts prescribed for operating revenue, operating expense, or income accounts.

§ 10.42 Reconstruction of road property acquired. When road property acquired is in such physical condition that it is necessary to substantially rebuild the road in order to bring it up to the standard required by the carrier, the accounting for such reconstruction including retirements in connection therewith shall be presented to the Commission for approval before being entered in the accounts.

NOTE: A comprehensive statement of the estimated amount necessary to reconstruct a road in accordance with the above provision shall be made to the Commission as soon as the estimate is made.

§ 10.43 Other expenditures; road. This account shall include items which can not properly be included in any of the foregoing accounts as a part of the cost of any specific work, amounts paid for rent and repairs of equipment and for injuries to persons incident to and in connection with original road, road extensions, or additions and betterments; and analogous items. When assignable, such expenditures shall be included in the cost of the property in connection with which the expenditure occurs.

NOTE: Rents paid for and repairs made to equipment used in commercial operations during the period before the regular operation of revenue trains shall be charged to account 40, "Revenues and operating expenses during construction."

§ 10.44 Shop machinery. This account shall include the cost of machinery and other apparatus in shops and engine houses, including the cost of special foundations and installation, and cost of small hand tools necessary first to equip a shop.

NOTE A: The cost of power machinery and other apparatus installed in a shop as part of the shop equipment shall be included in account 44, "Shop machinery."

NOTE B: The cost of power machinery and other apparatus installed in station and office buildings shall be included in account 16, "Station and office buildings."

NOTE C: The cost of the buildings and the power machinery and other apparatus of plants used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 27, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE D: The cost of foundations other than those special to particular machines and other apparatus shall be included in the cost of the building and not in this account.

NOTE E: The cost of machinery and buildings of detached plants for producing power both for operating purposes and for sale shall be included in this account and in account 29 "Power plants," respectively. When plants are intended and used primarily for generating power for sale to non-carriers the investment shall be included in account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.47 Unapplied construction material and supplies. This account shall include the cost of material and supplies located at the point of use which have been purchased for projected new roads and road extensions.

The purpose of this account is to exclude from the current assets the cost of supplies and unapplied material which are located for use on projected new roads and road extensions, under the condition that the material will not be used for other purposes.

NOTE A: Material and supplies designed for projected new roads and road extensions which are carried in storehouses and store yards and included in the general stock of an operating company shall be included in balance-sheet account 716, "Material and supplies."

NOTE B: The cost of unapplied materials and supplies on hand at the completion of construction work shall be transferred to balance-sheet account 716, "Material and supplies."

EQUIPMENT

§ 10.50 Equipment. The several primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show the cost of the several classes of equipment owned by the carrier, or held under equipment trust agreements for purchase.

To the appropriate primary accounts in this general account shall be charged the cost of all equipment, such as steam locomotives, electric locomotives, passenger-train cars, freight-train cars, work equipment, floating equipment, and the necessary appurtenances, furniture, and fixtures first to equip for service, including the cost of inspection, setting up, and trying out, and transportation over foreign lines; also the cost of additions, such as headlights, mechanical stokers, power brakes, vestibules, machinery for self-propulsion, heating and lighting apparatus, and the like; and the excess cost of betterments, such as improved appliances, parts, or appurtenances, over the cost at current prices (as new) of the appliances, parts, or appurtenances removed. The cost of removing the old appliances and applying the improved shall be charged to operating expenses.

The ledger value of each unit of equipment shall be credited to the appropriate equipment account when it is permanently retired from service. (See Note A which follows.)

The service value (see Note B which follows) of the unit shall be charged to account 702½D, "Accrued depreciation—Equipment." An equitable proportion of any balances carried in accounts 72 to 77, inclusive, applicable to the equipment retired, shall be credited thereto concurrently and charged to account 330, "Retirements—Equipment."

The value of the salvage (see Note C which follows) from the unit shall be charged to account 716, "Material and supplies," or to other account appropriate according to the disposition thereof. In case the retired equipment is held without being torn down, the estimated value of the salvage therefrom shall be included in account 722, "Other deferred assets," until the salvage is recovered.

The cost of tearing down the retired unit and recovering the salvage shall be charged to account 329, "Dismantling retired equipment."

The ledger value (estimated if not known) of all parts of equipment retired and not replaced shall be credited to the property investment account and the service value thereof charged to account 702½D, "Accrued depreciation—Equipment."

When equipment of one class is converted so as to be includible in another class, the accounting shall be as provided in § 10.01–11 Adjustment for converted property.

When an important addition and betterment project or the construction of new lines necessitates the purchase of equipment to be used exclusively therein, the cost of such equipment shall be included in the accounts representing the cost of the work, and no charge shall be made to operating expenses for depreciation on such equipment while the cost remains so charged. The amount realized from any subsequent sale, or the appraised value of the equipment retained after the completion of the special work for which it was purchased, shall be credited to the accounts charged with its cost. The appraised value of such equipment retained shall be debited to the appropriate primary account herein, and thereafter, for the purposes of accounting, such appraised value shall be considered as the cost of the equipment.

When second-hand equipment acquired is in such physical condition that it is necessary to make extensive repairs to it to bring it up to the standard required by the carrier, the cost of such repairs shall be included in the account appropriate for the cost of the equipment. A comprehensive statement of the amount estimated to be necessary to rebuild second-hand equipment in accordance with the above provision shall be furnished to the Commission as soon as the estimate is made.

When equipment is rebuilt in order to modernize and create an expectation of life fairly comparable with new units of similar type and capacity, the units shall be accounted for as retired from service and their cost as rebuilt shall be charged to the appropriate equipment account. Units of equipment accounted for as rebuilt shall conform to the requirements of the A. A. R. Code of Rules for rebuilt units. The cost of the rebuilt equipment shall be the sum of:

(a) Cost of new material applied.

(b) Current market price new of secondhand parts applied or remaining therein less allowance for secondhand condition.

(c) Cost of labor constructing rebuilt units. Provided, That such costs shall not be in excess of the cost (at current market prices of labor and material) of a new unit of equal capacity and equal expectancy of life in service, less a suitable allowance on account of the secondhand portions remaining therein.

The accounting for leased equipment retired shall be in accordance with provisions in § 10.01–7 Road property retired relating to leased road property retired.

NOTE A: The term "retired from service" as applied to equipment means equipment which has been permanently withdrawn from transportation service. The dismantling or tearing down of a unit of equipment in order to replace parts thereof with improved parts, when it does not constitute rebuilding such unit, shall be accounted for as repairs. In accounting for such repairs due consideration shall be given to the instructions with respect to accounting for additions and betterments.

NOTE B: The term "service value" as applied to equipment means the ledger value thereof less the value of the salvage therefrom.

NOTE C: The term "value of salvage" means the amount received for property retired, or for the material salvaged therefrom, if sold; or if retained, the value at which the property or the material salvaged therefrom is chargeable to account 716, "Material and supplies," or other account of this system of accounts.

The following list of units of equipment is prescribed for the purpose of designating items of equipment, the ledger value of which shall be credited to the property investment account at the time of retirement:

51. Steam locomotives.
A complete locomotive.
A locomotive, exclusive of tender.
A tender.
A locomotive booster.
52. Other locomotives.
A complete locomotive.
A complete motor equipment.
A propulsion motor.
A generator for propulsion power.
53. Freight-train cars.
A complete car.
A complete motor equipment.
A freight container, complete.
A propulsion motor.
A generator for propulsion power.
54. Passenger-train cars.
A complete car.
A complete motor equipment.
A propulsion motor.
A generator for propulsion power.
56. Floating equipment.
A complete vessel or boat.
A boiler.
A steam engine.
An electric generator.
A motor.
57. Work equipment.
(a) Rail equipment:
(1) A complete car or machine.
(2) A boiler.
(3) A steam engine.
(4) A motor.
(5) Machinery equipment (with or without tractive machinery) such as concrete mixer, snow plow, derrick, steam shovel, or pile driver.
(6) A complete motor equipment.
(7) A generator for propulsion power.
(b) Floating equipment—Work:
(1) A complete vessel or boat.
(2) A boiler.
(3) A steam engine.
(4) A motor.
(5) An electric generator.
58. Miscellaneous equipment.
A horse.
A wagon.
An automobile vehicle.

§ 10.51 Steam locomotives. This account shall include the cost of steam locomotives and tenders, purchased or built by the carrier, and of appurtenances, furniture, and fixtures necessary to equip them for service, including the cost of inspection, setting up, and trying out after receipt from builders, and transportation charges to the carrier's line.

LIST OF APPURTENANCES TO LOCOMOTIVES

§ 10.58 Miscellaneous equipment. This account shall include the cost of horses and harness; and cost of wagons, automobiles, and other highway vehicles.

§ 10.59 Unapplied material and supplies; equipment. This account shall include the cost of unapplied material and supplies located at the point of use which have been purchased specifically for the construction of new railroad equipment.

NOTE A: If material and supplies designated for new railroad equipment are carried in storehouses and storeyards as part of the general stock of the company, their cost shall be included in balance sheet account 716, "Material and supplies."

NOTE B: The cost of unapplied material and supplies on hand at the completion of construction work shall be transferred to balance sheet account 716, "Material and supplies."

GENERAL EXPENDITURES

§ 10.70 General expenditures. The primary accounts of this general account are designed to include expenditures made in connection with the acquisition and construction of original road and equipment, and with extensions, additions, and betterments to road and equipment property, when such expenditures can not properly be included in any of the foregoing accounts as a part of the cost of any specific work. When assignable, such expenditures shall be included in the cost of the property in connection with which the expenditures occur.

§ 10.71 Organization expenses. This account shall include all fees paid to governments for the privilege of incorporation, and office and other expenditures incident to organizing the corporation and putting it in readiness to do business; cost of preparing and distributing prospectuses; costs of soliciting subscriptions for stock; cash fees paid to promoters, and the actual cash value (at the time of the organization) of securities paid to promoters for their services in organizing the enterprise; special counsel fees; cost of preparing and issuing certificates of stock; cost of procuring the necessary certificates from State authorities; and other like costs.

NOTE: Cost of soliciting for loans or for the sale of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness shall be charged to balance-sheet account 725, "Discount on funded debt."

§ 10.72 General officers and clerks. This account shall include the pay and expenses of executive and general officers and of general office clerks engaged exclusively in connection with the construction of new road and extensions.

NOTE: The salaries and expenses of executive and general officers and of general office clerks engaged in connection with the conduct of commercial operations during the period before the regular operation of revenue trains shall be included in account 40, "Revenues and operating expenses during construction."

§ 10.73 Law. This account shall include specific and distinct expenditures, not provided for elsewhere, for law service in connection with the acquisition of new road, road extensions, additions, and betterments, such as pay and expenses of counsel, solicitors, and attorneys, their clerks and attendants, and expenses of their offices.

ITEMS OF EXPENSES

NOTE A: The cost of printing bonds, etc., in connection with the carrier's funded debt shall be included in balance-sheet account 725, "Discount on funded debt."

NOTE B: The cost of stationery and printing, when assignable, shall be included in the cost of the property in connection with the acquirement or construction of which the expenditure occurs.

§ 10.75 Taxes. This account shall include State, county, township, city, school, road, annual franchise, and all other taxes and assessments levied and paid on property belonging to the carrier during construction and before the facilities are used for commercial operations, except special assessments for street and other improvements chargeable to account 39, "Public improvements—Construction."

NOTE: Taxes during construction, when assignable, shall be included in the cost of the property acquired or constructed.

§ 10.76 Interest during construction. When any bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness are sold, or any interest-bearing debt is incurred for acquisition and construction of original road and equipment, extensions, additions, and betterments, the interest accruing on the part of the debt representing the cost of property chargeable to road and equipment accounts (less interest, if any, allowed by depositaries on unexpended balances) after such funds become available for use and before the receipt or the completion or coming into service of the property so acquired shall be charged to this account.

When such securities are sold at a premium the proportion of such premium assignable to the time between the date of the actual issuance of the securities and the time when the property acquired or the improvement made becomes available for service shall be credited to this account.

This account shall also include such proportion of the discount and expense on funded debt issued for the acquisition of original road, original equipment, road extensions, additions, and betterments, as is equitably assignable to the period between the date of the actual issuance of securities and the time when the property acquired or the improvement made becomes available for the service for which it is intended. The proportion of discount and expense thus chargeable shall be determined by the ratio between the period prior to the completion or coming into service of the facilities or improvements acquired and the period of the entire life of the securities issued.

NOTE A: Interest on bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness accruing before the proceeds from the sale of the securities become available for use shall not be included in this account, nor shall there be included any interest accruing after the property with respect to which the proceeds are expended is received or becomes available for use in connection with commercial service.

NOTE B: If any securities which have been issued or assumed by the carrier are sold or exchanged by or for the carrier for a consideration the actual money value of which at the time of such sale or exchange is less than the value of the securities at par and the accrued interest thereon, if any, the difference between the money value of the consideration received and the par value of the securities plus the accrued interest shall be deemed a discount. In no case (except as provided in the third paragraph of this account) shall discounts be included as part of the cost of anything charged to any account prescribed in this classification.

NOTE C: For definition of securities actually issued, see Note B, under general balance-sheet account 755, "Funded debt unmatured."

NOTE D: Whenever interest, premium, or discount assignable to the construction period is incurred in connection with an expenditure covered by some specific road and equipment account or accounts, such interest, premium, or discount shall be charged directly to the specific accounts to which it is related.

NOTE E: This account shall not include interest during the construction period on the carrier's own funds expended in connection with the acquisition or construction of original road and equipment, extensions, additions, and betterments.

§ 10.77 Other expenditures; general. This account shall include all expenditures of a special and incidental nature in connection with the acquisition and construction of original road and equipment, road extensions, additions, and betterments which cannot properly be included in any other account in this classification.

OPERATING REVENUES AND OPERATING EXPENSES

§ 10.02 General instructions. The carrier's records shall be kept with sufficient particularity to show fully the facts pertaining to all entries made in the accounts provided herein for railway operations. Where the full information is not recorded in the general books, the entries therein shall be supported by other records in which the full details shall be shown. Such general book entries shall contain sufficient reference to the detail records to permit ready identification, and the detail records shall be filed in such manner as to be readily accessible for examination by representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

§ 10.02–1 Operating accounts. The accounts of this classification are designed to show the revenues and expenses (including the maintenance of the facilities used) of the carrier's railway operations, including rail-line transportation, water-line transportation, if any, and services incident to transportation.

"Transportation" includes the receipt, conveyance, and delivery of traffic.

"Rail-line transportation" includes not only the conveyance of traffic over tracks, but also the necessary conveyance by water transfers (ferriage, lighterage, and floatage) either between track terminals or between track terminals and points not reached by tracks.

Carriers are at liberty to subdivide the general and primary accounts here given, but if this option be exercised a statement of the accounts adopted shall be filed in the office of the Bureau of Accounts and Cost Finding of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

"The carrier" means the accounting carrier, except when otherwise specifically indicated.

§ 10.02–2 Unaudited items affecting operating accounts. When it is known that a transaction has occurred which affects operating revenues or operating expenses, but the amount involved and its effect upon the accounts cannot be determined with absolute accuracy, the amount thereof shall be estimated and included in the appropriate operating and balance-sheet accounts. Any such estimate shall be revised whenever and at the time a substantial change is indicated and shall be finally adjusted as soon as the exact amount is determined. The carrier is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the operating accounts.

Any change in practice of accounting for accruals or any unusual accruals involving substantial amounts shall be reported promptly to the Commission. Accruals shall not be recorded for purely speculative items, but shall be limited to reasonable estimates on reliable information of transactions that will be consummated.

§ 10.02–3 Delayed items. Delayed items and adjustments, except adjustments pertaining to accounts 702½C, "Accrued depreciation — Road," and 702½D, "Accrued depreciation—Equipment," arising during the current year which are applicable to prior years, shall be included in the same account which would have been charged or credited if the item had been taken up or adjusted in the year to which it pertained. When the amount of the delayed item is relatively so large that its inclusion in the appropriate account for the current year would seriously distort the revenues, expenses or income of the current year, the amount of the delayed item may be credited to account 520, "Delayed income credits," or charged to account 557, "Delayed income debits," as may be appropriate.

When the amount of a delayed item is relatively so large that its inclusion in the accounts for a single month will seriously distort those accounts it may be distributed in equal monthly charges to the remaining months of the calendar year.

"Delayed items" are items representing transactions which occurred before the calendar year.

§ 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations. The revenues and expenses of miscellaneous operations involving the use of such facilities as hotels, restaurants, grain elevators, storage warehouses, power plants, cold storage plants, etc., shall not be included in the accounts of this classification unless the operation of the facilities is conducted by the railway companies in connection with furnishing transportation services.

[12 F. R. 4452, as amended at 12 F. R. 6576]

§ 10.02–5 Submission of questions. To the end that uniformity of accounting may be maintained from year to year, carriers shall submit all questions of doubtful interpretation of the accounting rules to the Commission for consideration and decision.

§ 10.02–6 Stockyards. The revenues and expenses arising from the operation of stockyards shall not be included in operating revenue or operating expense accounts unless the operation of the facilities is conducted in connection with the transportation of livestock. It is not intended, however, that revenues and expenses arising from incidental public stockyards service rendered by stockyards primarily devoted to transportation services shall be excluded from operating revenues and expenses.

OPERATING REVENUES

§ 10.03 Special instructions.

§ 10.03–1 Accounts for operating revenues. The accounts provided for operating revenues are designed to show amounts of money which a carrier becomes entitled to receive from transportation and from operations incident thereto.

Credits to the revenue accounts shall as nearly as practicable be upon the basis of accruals of revenue.

Uncollected tariff charges on unclaimed and refused shipments of freight, such refused shipments having been transported in accordance with the contract of shipment, shall be charged to the appropriate revenue account to which shall be credited the proceeds derived from the sale of such unclaimed and refused freight.

The carrier's tariff charges on lost, destroyed, or damaged shipments, for which charges neither consignees nor consignors are liable, shall be charged to the revenue accounts previously credited.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, the revenue accounts shall include collections in excess of proper charges, such collections being subject to refund, and there shall be charged to the revenue accounts uncollectible revenue charges determined after the service has been rendered.

§ 10.03–2 Interpretation of item lists. Lists of items to be credited and of items to be charged have been given as a part of the text of this classification for the purpose of clearly indicating the application of the accounting rules. They are not to be considered as comprising all the items creditable or chargeable to the several accounts, but merely as representative of them.

The items contained in the lists of items to be charged to the respective accounts are chargeable only when such items have been, through oversight, included in the credits to the accounts, or they are items of revenue payable to others for service to be rendered in accordance with the tariff provisions applicable to the rates upon which the credits to the several accounts have been based.

§ 10.03–3 Accruals of revenues. In order that operating revenue accounts may as nearly as practicable include the full amount of revenues accruing to the carrier each month, the carrier shall accrue currently in the appropriate revenue and balance-sheet accounts estimates of unaudited items affecting revenues. If these estimates are not fully adjusted in the following month, the balances in the balance-sheet accounts shall be kept separately by months until each is adjusted. The carrier is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the revenue accounts.

§ 10.03–5 Delayed items. Cancellation of entries recorded in balance-sheet accounts relating to operating revenues of former years shall be recorded in accordance with § 10.02–3 Delayed items.

Revenue Accounts

TRANSPORTATION

§ 10.100 Transportation; rail line. The primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show amounts of money which the carrier becomes entitled to receive or which accrue to its benefit from service rendered in transporting property or persons by rail line. (See § 10.02 General instructions.)

§ 10.101 Freight. This account shall include revenue from the transportation of freight and from transit, stop, and reconsigning privileges, upon the basis of lawful tariff rates.

ITEMS TO BE CREDITED

(a) Revenue upon the basis of local freight tariff rates, regardless of class of train in which the freight is transported.
(b) The carrier's proportion of revenue upon the basis of through freight tariff rates, regardless of class of train on which the freight is transported.
(c) Revenue from transportation of mail matter, and empty mail pouches, at freight tariff rates.
(d) Revenue from transportation of freight on special trains at rates based on weights of shipments.
(e) Revenue on basis of classifications and freight tariffs from transportation of caretakers of freight shipments.
(f) Revenue from reconsigning privileges.
(g) Revenue from stop privileges.
(h) Revenue from transit privileges.
(i) Revenue upon the basis of arbitraries out of freight rates for water transfers (ferriage, lighterage, and floatage).

ITEMS TO BE CHARGED

Amounts paid as bridge and ferry arbitraries on freight.
Amounts paid for completing a haul.
Amounts paid for elevation of freight.
Amounts paid for switching services, in connection with the transportation of freight, on the basis of switching tariffs, and allowances out of through rates, including amounts paid for switching empty cars in connection with a freight revenue movement.
Amounts paid for transferring freight between stations.
Arbitraries and allowances to others for lighterage and wharfage.
The carrier's proportion of overcharges resulting from the use of erroneous rates, weights, classifications or computations.
The carrier's proportion of refunds on account of errors in routing and billing.
The carrier's proportion of uncollected revenue on freight lost or destroyed in transit.
The carrier's proportion of uncollected tariff charges on damaged shipments for which charges neither shipper nor consignee is liable.
Amounts paid on basis of tariff rates for loading and unloading livestock.

NOTE A: Amounts paid for switching empty cars otherwise than in connection with loaded movements shall be charged to operating expense account 411, "Other expenses," except that amounts paid for switching equipment for repairs shall be included in the appropriate equipment repair accounts.

NOTE B: Other carriers' proportion of revenue and of uncollectible undercharges paid by the carrier on account of its errors in routing and billing shall be charged to operating expense account 411, "Other expenses."

NOTE C: Other carriers' proportion of revenue paid by the carrier on freight lost, destroyed, or damaged in transit, for which neither consignees nor consignors are liable shall be charged to operating expense accounts 418, "Loss and damage—Freight."

NOTE D: When a lessee company transports freight over the tracks of another carrier on the basis of a proportion of revenues under a joint arrangement, it shall include the entire compensation in its revenues and statistics, charging the appropriate joint facility expense and rental accounts with the amounts paid the lessor company, and the lessor company shall credit the corresponding accounts.

The accounting in connection with transportation train service operated under a joint arrangement for the benefit of two or more carriers shall be as provided in the second paragraph of § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts.

NOTE E: The accrued revenue derived from the transportation of cream, sweet milk, etc., on a basis of lawful tariffs at rates per package, regardless of weights, shall be included in account 109, "Milk."

NOTE F: Revenue from the transportation of caretakers of freight shipments, when not included as a part of the freight charges on the waybill covering the freight shipments, shall be credited to account 102, "Passenger."

NOTE G: This account shall be maintained so as to show separately payments and allowances (a) to railway express agencies, (b) to motor truck companies and others, and (c) to shippers and consignees, for terminal collection and delivery services when performed in connection with line haul transportation of freight on the basis of freight tariff rates; also (d) payments for switching services when performed in connection wih line haul transportation of freight on the basis of switching tariffs and allowances out of freight rates, including the switching of empty cars in connection with a revenue movement, and (e) payments on basis of tariff rates for loading and unloading livestock.

§ 10.102 Passenger. This account shall include the revenue from transportation of passengers at passenger tariff fares; from the transportation of passengers at special fares as provided by law, and from incidental charges in connection therewith.

ITEMS TO BE CREDITED

(a) Revenue from local passenger fares.
(b) The carriers' proportion of revenue from interline passenger fares.
(c) Revenue from extra fares.
(d) Revenue from additional fares or charges for exclusive use of a passenger car, drawing room, compartment, bedroom, etc.
(e) Revenue from mileage and scrip coupons honored for all services covered by this account.
(f) Revenue from transportation of passengers in special cars or on special trains when charge is based on passenger fare per capita, regardless of the number of passengers actually transported.
(g) Revenue from a guaranteed minimum amount not based on per capita fare, for transportation of passengers on special or chartered trains.
(h) Cash fare penalty collections.
(i) Unclaimed collections and deposits for transportation of passengers.
(j) Passenger fare overcharges.
(k) Revenue from transportation of corpses, based on passenger fares.
(l) Revenue from water transfers (ferriage), bridge tolls, and transfers between railway stations or between railway stations and docks, received as arbitraries in division of passenger fares.

ITEMS TO BE CHARGED

(a) Amounts paid as bridge tolls, and also for ferry, depot to depot and depot to dock passenger transfer service.
(b) Amounts paid for switching in completing a passenger transportation movement.
(c) Amounts paid for switching empty passenger-train cars in connection with transportation of passengers. (See Note C.)
(d) Redemptions of unused and partially unused local tickets and redemptions of carrier's proportions of unused and partially unused interline tickets.
(e) Refund of extra fares, cash fare penalty collections, and overcharges in excess of tariff fares.
(f) Uncollectible undercharges.

NOTE A: Gross receipts from the sale of mileage tickets, and scrip books shall be credited to a suspense account. The suspense account shall be charged and this account credited with the value of coupons as honored, in connection with any of the services provided for in "Items To Be Credited."

NOTE B: When a lessee company transports passengers over the tracks of another company under a joint arrangement upon the basis of a proportion of the passenger revenue, it shall include the entire compensation in its passenger revenue and statistics, charging the appropriate joint facility expense and rental accounts with the amounts paid the lessor company and the lessor company shall credit the corresponding joint facility accounts.

The accounting in connection with transportation train service operating under a joint arrangement for the benefit of two or more carriers shall be as provided in the second paragraph of § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts, and Case 297, Accounting Bulletin No. 15.

NOTE C: Amounts paid for switching empty passenger-train cars otherwise than in connection with loaded movements, shall be charged to account 411, "Other expenses," except that when switched for repairs, the amounts paid shall be included in account 317, "Passenger-train cars—Repairs."

NOTE D: Revenue from the transportation of automobiles, with or without trailers, in freight service, in connection with the transportation of passengers, also revenue from loading and unloading automobiles at point of origin, destination, or enroute, shall be credited to account 101, "Freight."

§ 10.103 Baggage. This account shall include the revenue from the transportation of baggage, packages, baby carriages, bicycles, household pets, dogs, etc., on passenger trains at other than freight or express tariff rates.

LIST OF ITEMS

(a) Revenue from transportation of baggage in excess of free allowances.
(b) Revenue from transportation of packages, baby carriages, bicycles, household pets, dogs, etc., at baggage tariff rates.
(c) Revenue from transportation of baggage or other articles based upon excess value.
(d) Revenue from transportation of baggage when passenger does not make corresponding trip.
(e) Revenue from excess weight of corpses based on baggage tariff charges and from special charges for transferring corpses between depots.
(f) Revenue from scrip coupons honored for any of the above-mentioned services. (See Note B.)
(g) Overcharges on baggage transactions.
(h) Revenue from transportation of emergency shipments and articles based on double gross weight, etc.
(i) Amounts received specifically to cover movement of special or chartered baggage cars including transportation of attendants regardless of whether the charge is based upon passenger tariff fares, a stated minimum, or any other basis. This includes box cars when used for baggage service.
(j) Revenue from issuing duplicate baggage checks.

NOTE A: Revenue derived from transportation of shipments of silk, fish, etc., in passenger trains at freight rates, shall be included in account 101, "Freight."

NOTE B: Amounts of refunds, uncollectible undercharges, etc., involved in these credits, shall be charged to this account.

NOTE C: Gross receipts from the sale of baggage scrip books shall be credited to a suspense account. The suspense account shall be charged and this account credited with the value of the coupons as honored for any of the services covered by this account.

§ 10.104 Sleeping car. This account shall include the revenue from berth and seat accommodations furnished in sleeping cars on the basis of berth or seat rates for the space occupied.

§ 10.105 Parlor and chair car. This account shall include the revenue from seat accommodations furnished in parlor, observation, chair, and other special passenger cars when operated in passenger-train service or in special-train service at seat rates for space occupied.

§ 10.106 Mail. This account shall include the revenue from the transportation of mail at established rates for specified routes; from the use of railway post-office cars when in carrier's service transporting mails; from the use of special mail facilities; and from bonuses for special mail transportation.

To this account shall be charged fines and penalties imposed by the Government when not collected from agents or employees.

NOTE: The revenue from the transportation of mail matter and empty mail pouches on freight trains at freight tariff rates shall be included in account 101, "Freight."

§ 10.107 Express. This account shall include the revenue from transportation of express matters and from use of facilities on trains and at stations incident to such transportation.

When a railway company transacts an express business through its regular railway organization, the revenue therefrom shall be credited to this account.

NOTE: When contracts for express privileges provide specific amounts for the rent of facilities at stations, such amounts shall be included in revenue account 142, "Rents of buildings and other property."

§ 10.108 Other passenger-train. This account shall include the revenue derived from the operation of passenger trains not provided for elsewhere.

LIST OF ITEMS

(a) The carrier's proportion of contract revenue derived from the operation over its line of sleeping, parlor, chair, observation, and other special passenger-train cars, owned and operated by companies other than The Pullman Company.
(b) Value of portions of mileage tickets or coupons, scrip books or coupons, including baggage, circus and show scrip, unpresented and unredeemed.
(c) Revenue from transportation of newspapers at local tariff rates or at proportions of interline tariff rates.

§ 10.109 Milk. This account shall include the revenue from the transportation of cream, sweet milk, skim milk, sour milk, buttermilk, condensed milk, butterfat, and smearcase or pot cheese, upon the basis of lawful tariffs at rates per package, regardless of weights.

NOTE: The revenue from the transportation of milk upon the basis of lawful tariffs at rates per specified weights shall be included in revenue account 101, "Freight."

§ 10.110 Switching. This account shall include the revenue from switching service upon the basis of lawful tariff rates.

To this account shall be credited the carrier's revenue upon the basis of tariff rates, or the carrier's allowance out of through rates, from the switching of cars of all kinds, loaded or empty, either locally at a station or within a switching district, between connecting lines, between local industries, or between connecting lines and local industries; revenue upon the basis of distinct tariff rates for "trap-car" and "ferry-car" service and for spotting cars; also the revenue from interwork switching at industrial plants, and the revenue from "penalty switching" incident to the improper delivery of cars by other carriers.

To this account shall be charged amounts paid others for switching when such switching service is provided for in the switching rate charged by the carrier.

NOTE: "Penalty switching" charges paid by the carrier shall be included in expense account 411, "Other expenses."

§ 10.113 Water transfers; freight. This account shall include the revenue from the transfer of freight by water transfers (ferriage, lighterage, and floatage) upon the basis of lawful tariff rates for local service.

NOTE: No revenue shall be included in this account upon the basis of arbitraries out of rates for transportation involving rail line haul.

§ 10.114 Water transfers; passenger. This account shall include the revenue from the transfer of passengers by water transfers (ferriage) upon the basis of lawful tariff rates for local service.

NOTE: No revenue shall be included in this account upon the basis of arbitraries out of rates for transportation involving rail line conveyance.

§ 10.115 Water transfers; vehicles and livestock. This account shall include the revenue from the transfer by water transfers upon the basis of lawful local tariff rates, of vehicles of all classes; horses, cattle, and other animals; and Government artillery and equipment.

NOTE: No revenue shall be included in this account upon the basis of arbitraries out of rates for transportation involving rail line haul.

§ 10.116 Water transfers; other. This account shall include the revenue from water transfers not otherwise provided for, such as the revenue from towing beyond lighterage limits and all other towing for which an extra charge is made; insurance of freight afloat when billed out at other than cost; storage of freight afloat; grain overage in boats; pumping performed for outside parties; and from other similar sources.

To this account shall be charged amounts payable to other companies or individuals for extra lighterage, extra towing, and for all other service when such payments represent revenue collected and credited to this account and not a direct expense.

INCIDENTAL

§ 10.130 Incidental. The primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show the amounts which the carrier becomes entitled to receive from services rendered incidentally with rail-line and water-line transportation, for the use of facilities of which the expenses for operation and maintenance are not separable from railway expenses, and from incidental sources not provided for elsewhere.

§ 10.131 Dining and buffet. This account shall include the revenue from dining and buffet service on trains and transfer boats.

ITEMS TO BE CREDITED

(a) Revenue from lunches furnished.
(b) Revenue from meals furnished.
(c) Revenue from liquors furnished.
(d) Revenue from tobacco furnished.
(e) Revenue from cigars and cigarettes furnished.

§ 10.132 Hotel and restaurant. This account shall include the revenue from hotels, restaurants, and station lunch counters. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations.)

ITEMS TO BE CREDITED

(a) Revenue from the rent of rooms.
(b) Revenue from the use of baths.
(c) Revenue from the use of billiard tables.
(d) Revenue from the use of bowling alleys.
(e) Revenue from lunches furnished.
(f) Revenue from meals furnished.
(g) Revenue from liquors furnished.
(h) Revenue from tobacco furnished.
(i) Revenue from cigars furnished.
(j) Revenue from cigarettes furnished.
(k) Revenue from newspapers furnished.
(l) Revenue from periodicals furnished.
(m) Revenue from tonsorial service.
(n) Revenue from laundry work.

NOTE: This account shall not include the revenues from hotels and restaurants which are entirely distinct from the carrier's transportation plant and the cost of which is included in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.133 Station, train, and boat privileges. This account shall include revenue from weighing, vending, and other automatic machines located at stations; from advertising at stations and on trains and on transfer boats; from the privilege of operating news stands at stations and selling papers, periodicals, fruit, etc., on trains and on transfer boats; from telephone companies for the privilege of installing and operating commercial telephones at stations; from the operation of eating houses and dining and buffet service on trains and transfer boats when such operation is conducted by individuals or companies other than railway companies and when the expenses incurred by the carrier in connection therewith are not separable from its regular operating expenses; and from similar sources.

§ 10.134 Parcel room. This account shall include the revenue from the operation of parcel rooms.

§ 10.135 Storage; freight. This account shall include the revenue from the storage of freight.

§ 10.136 Storage; baggage. This account shall include the revenue from the storage of baggage.

§ 10.137 Demurrage. This account shall include the revenue from the detention of cars incident to loading, unloading, reconsigning, and stops in transit upon the basis of lawful tariffs for demurrage.

§ 10.138 Communication. This account shall include the revenue from commercial operation of telegraph, telephone, radio, and all other forms of communication systems. It shall also include amounts received from commercial operators of such systems, whether as a proportion of earnings or otherwise, for the privilege of transacting business in offices along the carrier's lines, but only when the carrier furnishes some service of employees whose pay is included in its operating expenses.

NOTE: When a commercial operator rents a communication system belonging to the carrier and pays all expenses incident to its maintenance and operation, the rent so received shall be credited to income account 510, "Miscellaneous rent income."

§ 10.139 Grain elevator. This account shall include the revenue from the operation of grain elevators. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations.)

ITEMS TO BE CREDITED

(a) Revenue from the elevation of grain.
(b) Revenue from the storage of grain.
(c) Revenue from bagging grain.
(d) Revenue from screening grain.
(e) Revenue from blowing grain.
(f) Revenue from cooling grain.
(g) Revenue from clipping grain.
(h) Revenue from cleaning grain.
(i) Revenue from mixing grain.
(j) Revenue from transferring grain in elevators.
(k) Revenue from loading grain into and unloading grain from boats not covered by elevation charges.
(l) Revenue from trimming grain in boats when performed by elevator employees.
(m) Revenue from the sale of screenings and sweepings.
(n) Revenue from inspecting grain in elevators.

§ 10.141 Power. This account shall include the revenue from the sale of electric current and other power. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations.)

§ 10.142 Rents of buildings and other property. This account shall include the revenue from the exclusive use of buildings and other property or portions thereof, such as depot and station grounds and buildings, general and other offices, wharves, ferry landings, elevators, stockyards, fuel yards, enginehouses, repair shops, and section and other houses, when the property is operated and maintained in connection with the property used in the carrier's transportation operations and the expenses of maintaining and operating the rented portion cannot be separated from the expenses of that portion used by the carrier. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations.)

NOTE: When the expenses of maintaining and those of operating property rented to others are separable, the rents received shall be credited and the expenses of maintenance and operation shall be charged to appropriate income accounts.

§ 10.143 Miscellaneous. This account shall include the revenue from railway operations not provided for elsewhere. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations.)

LIST OF ITEMS

(a) Amounts received for privilege of cutting hay along the right of way.
(b) Commissions received for collecting premiums on insurance policies from employees and installment payments for books, watches, etc., sold by dealers to employees.
(c) Profit from jobbing and installing electric power lines for others.
(d) Revenue from boat demurrage.
(e) Revenue from freight and passenger privileges over a carrier's wharves and docks.
(f) Revenue from garnishee fees.
(g) Revenue from operation of coal and ore wharves, cold-storage plants, coal-storage plants, cotton-compress plants, and wood-preserving plants.
(h) Revenue from privilege of mooring and anchoring boats at wharves and docks.
(i) Revenue from the sale of cinders produced by carrier.
(j) Revenue from use of carrier's bridges by pedestrians, streetcar lines, vehicles, etc.
(k) Revenue from temporary use of carrier's tracks for detouring trains, etc.
(l) Revenue from use of tracks incident to delays in loading or removing freight.
(m) Revenue from water furnished boats from water stations operated by the carrier.
(n) Revenue from weighing cars.
(o) The carrier's proportion of gross revenue from operation of clergy bureaus.
(p) The carrier's proportion of gross revenue from operation of ticket validation agencies.
(q) Collections made by station ushers (Red Caps) for the handling of passengers' baggage.
(r) Revenue from loading and unloading livestock in transit by railroad, and from feeding, watering, bedding, shearing, dipping, inspecting, and otherwise caring for such stock.

NOTE: When a bridge of one carrier is jointly used by itself and another carrier and such use is paid for on the basis of flat rent or charge per train-mile or toll per passenger, per ton, or per car, the compensation therefor shall be credited to the appropriate joint facility, operating expense, and income accounts.

JOINT FACILITY

§ 10.150 Joint facility.

§ 10.151 Joint facility—Cr. This account shall include the carrier's proportion of revenue collected by others in connection with the operation of joint tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities, including revenue from hotels, restaurants, grain elevators, sale of power, and other miscellaneous operations.

NOTE A: The purpose of this account is to show the amounts of revenue from the operation of joint tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities operated by other companies, which under existing contracts or agreements are credited by the operating company to the tenant companies which participate therein. The bill rendered by any creditor company against a debtor company for the latter's proportion of the expense of maintenance and operation of joint facilities, which includes also a credit covering a proportion of the revenue to be paid over, shall show the distribution of the credit for such proportion of the revenue separately from the distribution of the expense of operation.

NOTE B: No credits shall be made to this account representing amounts creditable by the operating company to primary accounts 101 to 109, 113 to 116, and 131, except as provided in Case 297, Accounting Bulletin No. 15.

§ 10.152 Joint facility—Dr. This account shall include that proportion of revenue from the operation of joint tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities, which is creditable to other companies, including revenue from hotels, restaurants, grain elevators, sale of power, and other miscellaneous operations.

NOTE A: The purpose of this account is to show the amount of revenue from operation of a terminal company or other carrier which, under the terms of existing contracts or agreements covering the joint use of tracks, yards, and other facilities, is credited to other carriers that participate in the benefits from such joint use. The bill rendered by a creditor company against a debtor company for the latter's proportion of expense of maintaining and operating joint facilities, which includes a credit covering the debtor company's proportion of the revenues from operation of such joint facilities, shall indicate separately the proper distribution of both the revenues and the expenses included in the bill, and such distribution shall be adhered to by the debtor.

NOTE B: No debits shall be made to this account representing amounts creditable by the operating company to primary accounts 101 to 109, 113 to 116, and 131, except as provided in Case 297, Accounting Bulletin No. 15.

OPERATING EXPENSES

§ 10.04 Special instructions.

§ 10.04–1 Accounts for operating expenses. The accounts prescribed for operating expenses are designed to show expenses of furnishing transportation service including the expense of maintenance and depreciation of the plant used in the service. The accounting shall be, as nearly as practicable, upon the basis of accruals.

"Road property" means transportation property other than equipment.

Following the texts of the primary operating expense accounts, there are provided condensed groupings of the same accounts to be used by Class II and Class III carriers. For the purpose of these condensed classifications, Class II carriers shall be those having annual operating revenues of $100,000 to $1,000,000 and Class III those having annual operating revenues less than $100,000. Small carriers which elect to use the primary accounts for large railroads shall include in annual reports the group totals required by the condensed classifications for their class.

§ 10.04–2 Maintenance expenses. The accounts provided for maintenance of road property and of equipment are designed to show the cost of repairs and also the loss through depreciation of the property used in operations, including all such expenses resulting from ordinary wear and tear of service, exposure to the elements, inadequacy, obsolescence, or other depreciation, or from accident, fire, flood, or other casualty.

The cost of repairs which has been provided for in the several repair accounts shall include the cost of inspecting to determine the repairs necessary, and of adjusting or repairing parts, both of road property and of equipment, such as the repairing of locomotives, cars, frogs, switches, rails, etc.; the cost of inspecting and testing after repairs have been made, such as the testing of locomotives after repairs to determine whether the repairs have been properly made, and the running of repaired locomotives light in order to break them in for regular service; incidental costs of repairs, such as the construction or removal of false work in connection with maintenance, cost of demolishing retired road property and disposing of the wreckage therefrom when the property is dismantled by or for the carrier; cost of maintaining or protecting traffic during the progress of construction work, including the cost of constructing, maintaining and removing temporary tracks required for maintaining traffic during the progress of the work; cost of mowing and beautifying grounds around buildings; repairing fences, sidewalks, driveways, and streets within or adjacent to such grounds; cost of removing snow from roofs of buildings when not removed by those employed in the buildings); cost of periodical restoration of seasonal features, such as gardens, shrubbery, and lawns; cost of operating hothouses in connection with the work of beautifying grounds; and cost of clearing and removing casual incumbrances, such as ice, snow, and fallen timber.

Distinct maintenance accounts have been provided for expenses of a general character, such as superintendence, stationery and printing, and injuries to persons, which, on account of established practice, it is deemed advisable to segregate.

§ 10.04–3 Cost of repairs. It is intended that the repair accounts of this classification shall include the cost of labor, materials and supplies, work-train service, floating equipment work service, special machine service, contract work, privileges, protection from casualties, and other analogous items of expense in connection with the maintenance of the plant used in railway service. The several items of cost here referred to are defined as follows:

(a) "Cost of labor" includes amounts paid for the labor of the carrier's own employees. Except where otherwise specified in the text of the accounts, the cost of boarding, traveling, and other incidental expenses of employees shall be included in the accounts to which the pay of the employees is chargeable.

(b) "Cost of materials and supplies" includes the cost of materials and supplies, including small tools, at the point of free delivery, plus freight charges of foreign lines, and the costs of inspection and loading assumed by the carrier; also a proportion of store expenses (see § 10.04–16 Material store expense). It should not, however, include expenses of transportation over the carrier's line. In calculating the cost of materials used proper allowance shall be made for the value of unused portions and of cuttings, turnings, borings, etc., and for the value of the material recovered from property repaired and from temporary tracks, scaffolding, cofferdams, and other temporary structures used in repair work.

(c) "Cost of work-train service" includes cost of labor of enginemen, trainmen, and enginehouse men, including the wages of engine crews and train crews held in readiness for such service; and the cost of fuel and other supplies consumed in connection with the operation of work trains.

(d) "Cost of floating equipment work service" includes cost of labor of crews, including wages of crews held in readiness for service; and the cost of fuel and other supplies consumed in connection with the operation of floating equipment work service.

(e) "Cost of special machine service" includes the cost of labor expended and of materials and supplies consumed in operating steam shovels, scrapers, rail unloaders, ballast unloaders, pile drivers, dredges, ditchers, weed burners, and other labor-saving machines; also rents paid for use of such machines.

(f) "Cost of contract work" includes amounts paid for work performed under contract by other companies, firms, or individuals and specific expenses incident to the award of the contract.

(g) "Cost of privileges" includes amounts paid for special privileges, such as the temporary use of public property or streets, in connection with the repairs of the property of the carrier. (Periodical payments for such privileges in connection with permanent use of public property for railway operations shall be included in the income accounts.)

(h) "Cost of protection from casualties" includes expenditures for protection against damage by fire, flood, etc., such as payments for discovery or extinguishment of fires, cost of detecting and prosecuting incendiaries, expense for witnesses in relation thereto, amounts paid to municipal corporations and others for fire protection, and other analogous items of expense in connection with repair work, but does not include insurance premiums paid to assure reimbursement for prospective losses.

§ 10.04–4 Royalties on appliances. The royalties for patent rights on mechanical appliances used in repairs of equipment shall be included in the cost of the repairs.

§ 10.04–5 Road property retired. The service value (ledger value less salvage and insurance recovered, if any) of road property retired and replaced with property of like purpose, together with the cost of demolishing and removing the retired property, shall be accounted for in accordance with § 10.01–7 Road property retired.

§ 10.04–6 Distribution of charges for nondepreciable road property retired. In case the amount chargeable to operating expenses for nondepreciable property retired, as provided in § 10.01–7 Road property retired, is relatively large and its inclusion would seriously distort the expenses for the year, the carrier, if so authorized by the Commission, may charge the amount thereof to account 726, "Property retired chargeable to operating expenses," and distribute it thereafter in accordance with the provisions of that account to operating expenses of the current and succeeding years.

§ 10.04–7 Adjustment for converted property. When a unit of equipment or fixed property by its transfer from one class of service to another, with or without physical conversion, becomes includible in a primary investment account other than that in which it has been carried, the procedure outlined in § 10.01–11 Adjustment for converted property shall be followed.

§ 10.04–8 Depreciation accounting; road property. (a) There shall be charged monthly to operating expenses or other appropriate accounts and credited to account 702½C, "Accrued depreciation—Road," during the service life of depreciable road property amounts which will approximate the loss in service value not restored by current repairs or covered by insurance. The charges for currently accruing depreciation shall be computed in conformity with the group plan by applying to the original cost or the estimated original cost of the road property as found by the Bureau of Valuation such percentage rates as will distribute the service value by the straight-line method in equal annual charges to operating expenses or other accounts during the estimated life of the property. Pending the compilation of the original cost figures to a current date by the Bureau of Valuation, the carrier shall use as a depreciation base that bureau's figures as far as they have been summarized and add thereto the cost for the subsequent years as recorded in its Order No. 3 records and accounts. Such adjustment of original cost figures as may be necessary after the original cost figures have been summarized by the Bureau of Valuation to a current date shall be made at that time.

NOTE: If a carrier submits proof that the actual cost to it of the depreciable road property which it owns or the actual cost to the owner of the depreciable road property which it uses and for which depreciation accounting is required, was substantially different from the original cost figures of the Bureau of Valuation, with the approval of the Commission, such carrier may use such actual cost figures as the depreciation base.

(b) As soon as the information can be assembled the carrier shall file with the Commission composite annual percentage rates estimated to be applicable to the original cost or estimated original cost of the property in each primary account covering depreciable road property owned or used by it. These percentage rates shall be based on the estimated service values and service lives of the road property developed by a study of the carrier's history and experience and such engineering and other information as may be available with respect to future conditions. Such percentage rates shall, for each primary account comprised of more than one class of road property, produce a charge for depreciation based on the original cost or estimated original cost of the depreciable property included in such account equal to the sum of the amounts that would otherwise be chargeable as depreciation for each of the various classes of property included in such account. The annual percentage rates when filed shall be accompanied by a sworn statement showing the bases therefor and the methods employed in their computation.

(c) The carrier shall keep such records of depreciable property and property retirements as will reflect the service life of property which has been retired, or will permit the determination of service life indications by mortality, turnover, or other appropriate methods; also such records as will reflect the percentage of value of the salvage for property retired from each class of depreciable property. The carrier shall be prepared at any time, upon direction of the Commission, to compute and submit for its approval revised percentage rates in cases where existing rates are deemed inapplicable.

(d) A separate composite annual percentage rate for each account covering depreciable property shall be used in computing depreciation charges. Such composite rates shall be those which are from time to time prescribed by the Commission except, that where no rates for any class of property have previously been prescribed for the carrier's use by the Commission, the carrier's estimate of composite annual percentage rates computed in accordance with paragraph (b) of this instruction shall be used prior to the date such rates are prescribed by the Commission.

NOTE: Until such time as the carrier's estimates of composite annual percentage rates have been computed, the carrier shall base its depreciation charges upon the percentage rates obtained from the Bureau of Valuation which is prepared to furnish such rates upon request.

(e) In computing monthly charges the annual percentage rates shall be applied to the depreciation base as of the first of each month and the result divided by twelve.

(f) In the event annual percentage rates prescribed by the Commission, in the judgment of the carrier, become no longer currently applicable, it shall in like manner file revised annual percentage rates which in its judgment should be established. Where property is acquired for which no rates have been prescribed the carrier shall immediately compile and submit to the Commission appropriate estimates developed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this instruction.

(g) For the purpose of the group plan of depreciation accounting for road property the following primary accounts under § 10.0 Road, are classed as depreciable accounts:

1. Engineering (as appropriately assigned, but not distributed, to the other depreciable accounts in arriving at the amounts used as the depreciation base).
2½. Other right-of-way expenditures.
3. Grading (depreciable property recorded in this account).
5. Tunnels and subways.
6. Bridges, trestles and culverts.
7. Elevated structures.
13. Fences, snowsheds, and signs.
16. Station and office buildings.
17. Roadway buildings.
18. Water stations.
19. Fuel stations.
20. Shops and enginehouses.
21. Grain elevators.
22. Storage warehouses.
23. Wharves and docks.
24. Coal and ore wharves.
26. Communication systems.
27. Signals and interlockers.
29. Power plants.
31. Power-transmission systems.
35. Miscellaneous structures.
37. Roadway machines.
39. Public improvements—construction.
44. Shop machinery.
45. Power-plant machinery.

NOTE: With respect to accounts 2½, 3, 5, and 39, carriers may confine the accruals to the depreciable property recorded therein by applying the percentage rates furnished by the Bureau of Valuation to the aggregate cost of such property (emitting nondepreciable property), in computing depreciation charges, or they may request the Bureau of Accounts to prescribe percentage rates covering obsolescence due to the premature retirement of certain nondepreciable property, in which case the composite percentage rates will be applied to the total amount recorded in each of the accounts in computing depreciation charges.

(h) The accounting for depreciation on road property leased from others shall be in accordance with § 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation. The depreciation on road property includible in operating expenses by the lessee under that instruction shall be computed and stated under the group plan in accordance with the foregoing instructions pertaining to the carrier's own road property.

(i) The term "group plan" means the plan under which depreciation charges are accrued upon the basis of the original cost of depreciable road property for each primary road account using the service lives of the individual depreciable units in the accounts and properly weighting to determine the composite annual rate of depreciation. Upon the retirement of a unit of property, its full service value is chargeable to account 702½C, "Accrued depreciation—Road," whether or not the particular item has attained the average service life.

(j) The owning carrier shall include in the depreciation accounts in operating expenses the charges for depreciation on units of depreciable property jointly used with one or more other carriers. The owning carrier shall credit and each using carrier shall charge the appropriate joint facility accounts in operating expenses with the amounts billed by the owning carrier against each using carrier for its proportion of the service loss on property retired from service whether billed currently as depreciation or when retirements occur as the loss in service value. The using carriers shall be required to account for depreciation or retirement of units of road property jointly used but not owned only to the extent of their contract liability. The same principle shall apply to terminal companies and their nonowner tenants in accounting for depreciation accruals or retirement charges recorded in the accounts of the terminal companies.

(k) If the cause of the retirement of the unit or units of road property is not a recognized factor in depreciation and the loss is not covered by insurance, the carrier may upon proof that the charge will result in unduly depleting the depreciation reserve, and with the approval of the Commission, charge all or a part of the service value of the property, less the estimated depreciation accrued thereon, to account 726, "Property retired chargeable to operating expenses," and distribute it from that account to account 267, "Retirements—Road."

§ 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts. Accounts thus designated have been provided for the joint users of tracks, bridges, yards, wharves, stations, and other facilities to indicate the proper accounting for settlements which cover income and operating expenses in connection with the use of such facilities, and for settlement covering cost of yard service. When the compensation for the use of facilities is a fixed amount or is based upon a charge per passenger, ton, car, or other unit, it shall be fairly apportioned by the operating company among the joint facility operating expense and income accounts. The creditor shall show the distribution of these charges upon its bills, and such distribution shall be adhered to by the debtor.

Train service in connection with the line haul of traffic, including that operated under a joint arrangement for the benefit of two or more carriers is not considered a joint facility operation and the settlements between carriers covering items chargeable to accounts 392 to 403, inclusive, shall not be included in the joint facility accounts. (See Case 297, Accounting Bulletin No. 15.)

§ 10.04–10 Clearing accounts. In recognition of the fact that certain expenditures incident to the construction and the operation of property are not chargeable directly to any particular property investment or expense account, clearing accounts have been provided for the purpose of securing an equitable distribution of such items to the proper primary accounts, as hereinafter set forth.

§ 10.04–11 Gravel and sand pits and quarries. When a gravel or sand pit or quarry is opened for operations likely to extend over a long period, an account shall be set up designated "Operations of gravel pit at ---------," or "Operations of quarry at ---------," as the case may be. To this account shall be charged:

(a) That part of the cost of the land in excess of its estimated value after the gravel, sand, or stone has been removed, the amount thus charged being concurrently credited to the property account in which the cost of the land is included.

(b) Amounts paid for the right to enter upon and remove ballast from land not owned by the carrier.

(c) The cost of sinking test holes.

(d) The expenses for clearing, stripping, draining, and ditching the land, and of moving and changing fences and buildings preparatory to opening the pit or quarry.

(e) The cost, in excess of the estimated salvage value, of rails and fastenings used in constructing tracks to and in the gravel pit or quarry, the estimated salvage being carried in an appropriate suspense account.

(f) The cost, in excess of the estimated salvage value, of ties and other material, and of labor expended on such tracks.

(g) The cost of labor and train service employed in producing, quarrying, and loading ballast, including the cost of operation, repairs, and depreciation of stationary engines, steam shovels, stone crushers, and other similar machinery, and the pay and expenses of watchmen.

(h) The cost of explosives and hand tools, and miscellaneous expenses.

(i) The cost of installing, operating, and maintaining signals and interlockers at gravel pits.

Credit to these accounts shall be made each month to cover the cost of ballast material produced during the month. The cost of production shall include the expenses directly assignable to the monthly output, plus a proportion of the expenses not directly assignable, such as cost of land, tracks, machinery, and interlockers. This latter amount shall be computed upon the basis of the ratio which the monthly output bears to the total estimated yardage to be taken from the pit.

When any portion of the product of such pits or quarries is sold, the cost thereof shall be credited to this clearing account, and the profit thereon, if any, shall be credited to revenue account 143, "Miscellaneous."

§ 10.04–12 Power plant operations. The accounting for the expenses of maintaining and operating an electric, steam, or other power plant (both building and machinery) shall be determined by the purpose for which the power produced is used.

When the power plant is intended and used for producing power solely for the carrier's own operations and the cost of operating the plant is chargeable to clearing account "Shop expenses," or to any one specific account for operating expenses the expenses of maintenance shall be charged to the appropriate maintenance accounts, and the cost of operation to the account appropriate according to the use of the power.

When the power from such a plant is properly chargeable to more than one account, the expenses of maintaining and operating the plant shall be included in clearing account "Power plant operations." The expense of maintenance shall be cleared from that account to the appropriate maintenance accounts for operating expenses. The expenses of operation shall be apportioned to the appropriate accounts upon the basis of quantity of power used for the various purposes.

When a part of the power produced by a power plant is sold and the remainder is used in the carrier's own operations, the cost of maintaining and operating the plant shall be charged to a clearing account. The expense of maintenance shall be cleared from that account to the appropriate maintenance account in operating expenses. The proportion of the expenses of operation assignable to the power sold, on the basis of ratio of quantity of power sold to total quantity of power produced, shall be credited to this clearing account and charged to account 445, "Producing power sold." The remainder of the cost of operation shall be distributed to the appropriate expense accounts for the carrier's own operations, in the manner indicated in the preceding paragraphs.

When power plants are intended and used solely for furnishing power to others, the investment therein shall be included in balance sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property," and the operation shall not be included in the accounts of this classification. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations and income account 534, "Expenses of miscellaneous operations.")

§ 10.04–14 Maintaining transmission and distribution systems. The accounting for the maintenance of transmission systems and distribution systems shall be in accordance with instructions pertaining to power plant operations.

§ 10.04–15 Shop expenses. A clearing account entitled "Shop expenses" shall be kept, to which shall be charged items of expense at shops, enginehouses, repair tracks, and other places at which mechanical work is done, not assignable directly to specific accounts. Such expenses shall be apportioned among the various accounts affected. The basis of distribution shall be the relative proportion which the total amount of charges to "Shop expenses" bears to the total of the directly distributed labor. To avoid monthly fluctuations in the ratio of shop expenses to the total of distributed labor, carriers are permitted to make the monthly apportionment on the basis of a percentage of the distributed labor, provided the shop expense account be adjusted and closed out at the end of each year. The expenses assignable to this account are as follows:

(a) General shop employees. The pay of general foremen in small shops, who exercise direct supervision over all departments unassisted by department foremen; the pay of department foremen, assistant department foremen, other supervising or directing employees, and their clerks; pay of chauffeurs and oilers; pay of sweepers, cleaners, roustabouts, and other unskilled laborers employed in general work in and about shops and shop grounds; pay of watchmen, gatekeepers, and policemen at shops, repair tracks, and other places at which mechanical work is done; pay of employees while attending fires or fire drills; and pay of employees while making, repairing, or having charge of small shop tools.

(b) Power. The cost of fuel used in steam and other power plants in producing power for shops and for other places at which mechanical work is done; cost of oil, grease, waste, and other material used in the operation of such power plants; pay of stationary engineers, firemen, electricians, coal handlers, and other employees engaged in production of power; cost of carbon brushes, fuses, lamps, picks, pokers, scuttles, shovels, and other small tools and supplies; and cost of water and power purchased. (See § 10.04–12 Power plant operations.)

(c) Heating. The cost of fuel and other supplies used for heating shops and other places at which mechanical work is done, shop offices, watchmen's and gatekeepers' boxes, and inspectors' shanties; and the pay of firemen, coal handlers, and other employees engaged in operating heating boilers. (See § 10.04–12 Power plant operations.)

(d) Lighting. The cost of electric current, gas, oil, torches, lamp burners, lamp chimneys, lamps not permanently attached to buildings, incandescent lamps and carbons, and other material used in lighting shops and shop offices, repair tracks, and other places at which mechanical work is done, and cost of material used and labor expended in operating electric-light plants and repairing electric-light and other lamps at shops. (See § 10.04–12 Power plant operations.)

(e) Switching locomotives. All expenses, including wages, fuel, and supplies, of operating switching locomotives when exclusively assigned to switching service at shops. (The expenses of incidental switching at shops by locomotives in transportation switching service shall be charged to appropriate transportation accounts.)

(f) Shop supplies. Fuel for forge and other shop work; supplies and small tools used by mechanics on miscellaneous work and not durable; test-room and laboratory supplies used in connection with shop work; lubricating material for shop machinery and tools; water used at shops and shop offices, repair tracks, and other places at which mechanical work is done; and other supplies used generally in shop work.

(g) Incidental expenses. Watchmen's uniforms, clocks, and call boxes; traveling expenses connected with the operation of shops and not directly chargeable to other accounts; removal of snow and ice from transfer tables and shop yards; cleaning of privy vaults; horse keep; cost of ice for shops; and other undistributed shop expenses.

§ 10.04–16 Material store expenses. To a clearing account called "Material store expenses" shall be charged expenses in connection with purchasing, handling and storing material in and distributing it from the company's storehouses, including the pay of officers and employees in the purchasing and store departments and their traveling, office, and other expenses; also all expenses, including wages, fuel, and supplies, of operating switching locomotives when exclusively assigned to the service of switching at material storehouses. (Expenses of incidental switching at material yards by locomotives in regular switching service shall be charged to the appropriate transportation accounts.) The pay and expenses of men employed in purchasing or inspecting a single class of material, such as ties, shall be added as store expenses to the cost of that particular material.

The total amount of storehouse expense charged to this account shall be so distributed among the accounts to which material has been charged that the amounts thus distributed will be, for each account, in proportion to the value of the material issued chargeable thereto, except that the amount representing the purchasing department expenses shall be apportioned on the value of the material issued which was purchased by that department. To avoid monthly fluctuations in the ratio of store expenses to the value of material purchased or issued, carriers may make a monthly apportionment on the basis of fair percentage rates, provided the store expense account be adjusted and closed out at the end of each year.

§ 10.04–17 Stationery store expenses. A clearing account entitled "Stationery store expenses" shall be kept, to which shall be charged expenses in connection with purchasing, handling, and storing stationery, and for distributing it from the stationery stores, including the pay of officers and employees in the stationery store department and their traveling, office, and other expenses. The amounts charged to this account shall be apportioned to the accounts to which is charged stationery issued from the store, upon the basis of the charges to these accounts for such stationery. To avoid monthly fluctuations in the ratio of store expenses to the value of material issued or purchased, carriers may make a monthly apportionment on the basis of fair percentage rates, provided the stationery store expense account be adjusted and closed out at the end of each year.

§ 10.04–18 Insurance. Provision has been made in each of the general accounts for premiums paid and amounts set aside for fire and other insurance. Amounts of insurance recovered on account of losses shall be credited to the accounts to which the losses are chargeable.

§ 10.04–19 Equalization of maintenance expenses. The cost of maintaining way and structures and equipment shall be included in the appropriate primary accounts in the month in which the expense is incurred. In case the carrier adopts a budget or estimate for all or a part of the calendar year of expenses includible in one or more primary maintenance accounts or for the general accounts 200, "Maintenance of way and structures," and 300, "Maintenance of equipment," an equitable monthly proportion of the difference between the budgeted or estimated expenses and the actual expenses chargeable each month may be debited or credited as appropriate to account 280, "Equalization—Way and structures," or account 338, "Equalization—Equipment," with contra entries in account 773½, "Equalization reserves." If certain primary accounts only are budgeted the carrier's records shall show for amounts included in the equalization accounts the amount of the equalization assignable to each such primary account.

Amounts included in account 773½, "Equalization reserves," in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, shall be cleared therefrom at the close of each calendar year through the equalization accounts originally charged or credited. (See § 10.04–25 Deferred maintenance, and major repairs to equipment.)

§ 10.04–20 Accruals of expenses. In order that operating expense accounts may as nearly as practicable include the full amount of expenses incurred by the carrier each month, the carrier shall accrue currently in the appropriate expense and balance-sheet accounts estimates of unaudited items affecting expenses. If these estimates are not fully adjusted in the following month, the balances in the balance-sheet accounts shall be kept separately by months until each is adjusted. The carrier is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the expense accounts.

§ 10.04–22 Interpretation of item lists. Lists of "items," "details," etc., have been given as a part of this classification for the purpose of clearly indicating the application of the accounting rules in specific cases. The lists in every case are to be considered as merely representative and not as excluding from any account analogous items which happen to be omitted from the list appended. On the other hand, the appearance of an item in a list warrants the inclusion of such item in the account concerned only when the text of the account also indicates inclusion, inasmuch as the same item frequently appears in more than one list—for example, the item of blank books under accounts 276, 334, 358, 410, and 458—and the proper charge in any one instance must be determined by the text of the account.

§ 10.04–23 Delayed items. Cancellation of entries recorded in balance-sheet accounts relating to operating expenses of former years shall be recorded in accordance with § 10.02–3 Delayed items.

§ 10.04–24 Depreciation accounting; equipment. The accounting for depreciation of equipment shall be in accordance with the following:

(a) There shall be currently charged to operating expenses, and other accounts and credited to account 702½D, "Accrued depreciation—Equipment," during the service life of equipment, amounts which will approximate the loss in service value not restored by current repairs or covered by insurance. These charges for currently accruing depreciation shall be computed at such percentage rate of the ledger value of the equipment that the service value may be distributed under the straight-line method in equal annual charges to operating expenses and other accounts during the estimated service life of the equipment.

(b) All depreciation charges to operating expenses, and other accounts and concurrent credits to account 702½D, "Accrued depreciation — Equipment," shall be made monthly in conformity with the group plan of accounting for depreciation. The term "group plan" as applied to equipment depreciation accounting means the plan under which "depreciation" charges are accrued upon the basis of the ledger value of the property included in each equipment primary account (51 to 54 and 56 to 58, all inclusive), using the average service life thereof properly weighted and, upon the retirement of any unit of such property, its full service value is charged to account 702½D, "Accrued depreciation—Equipment," whether or not the particular item has attained the estimated average service life. In determining such monthly charges and credits the annual percentage rates shall be applied to the ledger value, as of the first of each month, of the respective primary equipment accounts and the result divided by 12.

(c) For purposes of analysis the carrier shall maintain subsidiary records in which the reserve is broken down into component parts corresponding to each equipment primary account (51 to 54 and 56 to 58, all inclusive) showing in these records also in complete detail by each such primary account the current credits and debits to the reserve. Such detailed information shall be reported annually to this Commission.

(d) In determining monthly depreciation charges to operating expense, and other accounts, and the corresponding credits to the depreciation reserve, the annual percentage rates applied to the ledger value of the property included in each primary equipment account (51 to 54 and 56 to 58, all inclusive) shall be those which are prescribed from time to time by this Commission, except that where no rates previously have been prescribed, the carrier's estimate of the annual percentage rates computed in accordance with this instruction shall be used.

(e) The carrier shall keep such records of equipment retirements, as will reflect the service lives and value of salvage of each class of equipment; shall maintain in convenient and accessible form engineering and other data bearing on prospective service lives; and shall be prepared at any time upon direction of this Commission to compute and submit for its approval, new percentage rates to take the place of those based on service lives or value of salvage found to be inaccurate.

(f) If the cause of retirement of a unit of equipment is not a recognized factor in depreciation but is a cause against which the carrier is insured the depreciation reserve shall be credited with the full amount of the insurance recovered. If the cause is not a recognized factor in depreciation and the loss is not covered by insurance the carrier may upon proof that the charge will result in unduly depleting the depreciation reserve and with the approval of this Commission charge all or a part of the service value of the unit to account 726, "Property retired chargeable to operating expenses," and distribute it from that account to account 330, "Retirements—Equipment."

(g) For the purpose of the group plan of depreciation accounting for equipment, the following primary accounts under account 50, "Equipment," are classed as depreciable accounts:

51. Steam locomotives.
52 Other locomotives.
53. Freight-train cars.
54. Passenger-train cars.
56. Floating equipment.
57. Work equipment.
58. Miscellaneous equipment.

(h) The accounting for the depreciation of leased equipment shall be in accordance with § 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation. The depreciation on equipment includible in operating expenses by the lessee under that instruction shall be stated under the group plan in accordance with the foregoing instructions pertaining to the carrier's owned equipment.

§ 10.04–25 Deferred maintenance, and major repairs to equipment. When so authorized by the Commission there may be included each month in account 268, "Deferred maintenance—Way and structures"; account 339, "Deferred maintenance—Equipment"; and account 340, "Major repairs—Equipment"; an equitable proportion of the amount estimated as necessary (a) to provide for the cost of repairs which the carrier finds it is unable to undertake or complete during any calendar year due to non-receipt of material and supplies because of priorities regulations or due to adverse labor conditions; (b) also in anticipation of major repairs to equipment when such repairs are made at intervals of several years. The amounts included in these accounts shall be concurrently credited to account 774, "Maintenance reserves." The cost of such repairs when made shall be charged according to the repairs to the appropriate primary accounts under maintenance of way and structures and maintenance of equipment, and to the extent that provision has been made for such repairs, amounts included in account 774, "Maintenance reserves", shall be cleared therefrom through the accounts originally charged. The carrier in its application to the Commission shall give full particulars concerning the nature of the repair work specifically provided for in this section, and an estimate by primary accounts of the cost of such repairs.

EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

MAINTENANCE OF ROADWAY

§ 10.200 Maintenance of way and structures. The primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show the expenses of maintaining road property devoted to railway operations, with the exception of shop machinery, power plant machinery, and power plant apparatus, the expenses of maintaining which are includible in general account 300, "Maintenance of equipment."

The accounts for maintenance of way and structures shall be kept in such manner as to show separately, by primary accounts, the expenses directly assignable to sleeping car operations, dining and buffet service, hotels and restaurants, grain elevators, stockyards, producing power sold, and other miscellaneous operations.

§ 10.201 Superintendence. This account shall include:

(a) Pay of officers. The pay of officers directly in charge of or engaged in the maintenance of roadway and structures.

NOTE A: When employees designated above are specifically assigned to construction work, their pay and expenses while thus employed shall be charged to the work upon which engaged. (See § 10.01–4 Cost of construction.)

NOTE B: When officers designated above have supervision over more than one department, their salaries, the pay of their clerks and attendants and their office and other expenses shall be apportioned equitably among the departments over which they have jurisdiction.

NOTE C: No part of the pay and expenses of the officers and employees designated above shall be charged to other primary accounts under account 200, "Maintenance of way and structures."

NOTE D: The cost of stationery for maintenance of way and structures offices is chargeable to account 276, "Stationery and printing."

§ 10.202 Roadway maintenance. This account shall include:

(a) Care of roadbed. The cost of repairing roadbed.

ITEMS OF ROADWAY EXPENSE

Blasting rocks.
Building temporary tracks around slides and washouts.
Repairing and cleaning tile ditches, open ditches, and drains.
Crowning track ties with retaining earth.
Filling borrow and cattle pits.
Keeping tracks clear and repairing sub-grade in case of washouts.
Landscape gardening along roadway.
Oiling roadbed.
Post driving and pressure grouting to promote stability of roadbed.
Removing temporary tracks around slides and washouts.
Repairing roadbed damaged by washouts.
Removing dangerous rocks.
Removing slides.
Restoring roadbed, cuts, fills, and embankments to standard width.
Sloping cuts.
Sodding roadway.

NOTE A: The cost of drains or sewers laid under tracks shall be included in account 208, "Bridges, trestles, and culverts." The cost of landscape gardening within the limits of the grounds around buildings shall be included in the appropriate repair accounts for buildings.

(b) General cleaning. The cost of cutting, removing, and disposing of brush, grass, and weeds from the right of way; plowing and digging fireguards; dressing ballast and cutting sod lines; removing miscellaneous scrap, drift, cinders, dirt, and other material from right of way and from road and terminal tracks (including tracks at stations, engine yards, and car yards); and cleaning streets used as roadways.

NOTE B: Loading ashes at engine-yard tracks shall be charged to the engine-house expense accounts.

(c) Watching roadway. The cost of extinguishing fires on right of way and adjacent thereto, and of walking, watching, and patrolling tracks and right of way.

NOTE C: The cost of watching and patrolling bridges, buildings, and miscellaneous property is provided for in accounts specifically relating to such property.

(d) Bank protection. The cost of repairs to riprap, piling, dikes, piers, breakwaters, revetments and retaining walls, which were placed or constructed for bank protection.

(e) Train service. The cost of work-train service in connection with work pertaining to roadway maintenance.

(f) Track changes. The cost of roadway work in connection with taking up and relocating tracks.

(g) Other expenses. The cost of roadway work not provided for elsewhere, such as official roadway inspection train service and premiums in connection with roadway maintenance.

NOTE D: Tools and supplies used by repair men and watchmen in roadway maintenance service shall be charged to account 271, "Small tools and supplies."

[12 F. R. 4452, as amended at 12 F. R. 6576 and 13 F. R. 6633]

§ 10.206 Tunnels and subways. This account shall include the cost of repairing, ventilating, lighting, and watching tunnels and subways for the passage of trains, and the cost of special tools and supplies furnished in connection with the work.

NOTE: The cost of repairs to signals and to roadway and tracks in tunnels shall be charged to the appropriate maintenance of way accounts and not to this account.

§ 10.208 Bridges, trestles, and culverts. This account shall include the cost of repairing (including fuel and supplies used) and watching bridges, trestles, and culverts, including altering and bracing during process of filling, dredging and cleaning water channels for protection, and cleaning culverts.

The bridges, trestles, and culverts referred to in this account include only structures which carry the carrier's own tracks.

DETAILS OF BRIDGE STRUCTURES

Abutments.
Bridge signs.
Cofferdams.
Concrete and masonry ends for culverts.
Cribs.
Decking, including gravel for fire protection.
Dike protection.
Drainage systems.
Draw protection.
Drawbridge engines and machinery.
False work.
Guard timbers.
Ice breakers.
Painting.
Pier protection.
Piers and foundations.
Pipe culverts.
Retaining walls.
Riprap around abutments.
Riprap at culvert ends.
Supports.
Water channels.
Waterproofing.
Wing dams.
Wing walls.

NOTE: When a part of the entire structure of a bridge or trestle is converted, by filling into an earth embankment, the ledger value of the structure, or of the portion thereof filled, shall be credited to road and equipment account 6, "Bridges, trestles, and culverts." In case the bridge is used in lieu of a temporary trestle for the purpose of filling, the estimated cost of such a temporary trestle shall be charged to road and equipment account 3, "Grading." The ledger value of the structure, or portion thereof, filled, less the value of the salvage and the estimated cost of trestle charged to road and equipment account 3, "Grading," shall be charged to account 702½C.

§ 10.210 Elevated structures. This account shall include the cost of repairing elevated structures and foundations of elevated railway systems.

§ 10.212 Ties. This account shall include the cost of cross, switch, bridge, and other track ties used in the repairs of tracks.

NOTE A: The cost of labor for unloading, distributing, and putting ties in tracks, the cost of work-train service in connection with the distribution of the ties laid, and the cost of picking up and concentrating or disposing of the ties released shall be charged to account 220, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE B: The excess cost of metal ties applied in place of wooden ties over the cost at current prices of replacing in kind the wooden ties removed shall be charged to road and equipment account 8, "Ties."

NOTE C: The cost of ties used for repairs of tracks in quarries and ballast pits shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts, and of ties used for repairs of tracks on car floats in account 323, "Floating equipment—Repairs."

§ 10.214 Rails. This account shall include the cost (less salvage) of rails used in the repairs of tracks; also the cost (at current prices at time of removal) of the excess in weight of heavy rails removed and lighter rails applied in repairs of tracks.

NOTE A: The cost of labor for unloading, distributing, and putting rails in tracks, the cost of work-train service in connection with the distribution of the rails laid, and the cost of picking up and concentrating the rails released shall be charged to account 220, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE B: The cost of the excess weight of heavier rails applied in repairs of tracks in replacement of lighter rails shall be included in account 9, "Rails."

NOTE C: The cost of rails used for repairs of tracks in quarries and ballast pits shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts, and of rails used for repairs of tracks on car floats to account 323, "Floating equipment—Repairs."

§ 10.216 Other track material. This account shall include the cost (less salvage) of all track material used in the repairs of tracks, other than ballast, ties, and rails.

ITEMS OF OTHER TRACK MATERIAL

Angle bars.
Anticreepers.
Connecting rods.
Derails.
Frog and guard-rail blocking.
Frogs.
Guard-rail clamps.
Guard-rail fasteners.
Guard rails.
Main rods.
Nut locks.
Nuts.
Offset bars.
Rail braces.
Rail chairs.
Rail clips.
Rail joints.
Rail rests.
Rail shims.
Rail splices.
Splice bars.
Step chairs.
Switch chairs.
Switch crossings.
Switch lamps.
Switch locks and keys.
Switch points.
Switch stands.
Switch-stand bolts.
Switch targets.
Switches.
Tie plates.
Tie plugs.
Tie-rods.
Track bolts.
Track insulators.
Track spikes.

NOTE A: The cost of labor and train service for distributing, unloading, and applying "other track material" used, and the cost of picking up and concentrating the material released shall be charged to account 220, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE B: The excess cost of improved or heavier track material applied for repairs of tracks, under a definite plan of changing standards, over the cost, at current prices, of material of the same weight and quality as that released, shall be charged to road and equipment account 10, "Other track material."

NOTE C: The cost of "other track material" used for repairs of tracks in quarries and ballast pits shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts, and of such track material used for repairs of tracks on car floats in account 323, "Floating equipment—Repairs."

§ 10.218 Ballast. This account shall include the cost of gravel, stone, slag, cinders, sand, and like ballast material used in the repairs of tracks, including the cost of work-train service and of unloading the material. (See § 10.04–11 Gravel and sand pits and quarries.)

When the ballast taken from a pit is not sufficient to justify the opening of a clearing account, the cost of gravel and quarry rights and cost of sinking test holes shall be included in this account.

NOTE A: The cost of loading cinders at ash pits shall be charged to account 388, "Enginehouse expenses—Yard," or to account 400, "Enginehouse expenses—Train." No charge to cover the value of cinders accumulated by the carrier shall be included in this account.

NOTE B: The cost of labor putting ballast in tracks shall be included in account 220, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE C: The excess cost of ballasting tracks over the cost of replacing in kind to its maximum height and width the ballast previously put in the roadbed shall be charged to road and equipment account 11, "Ballast."

NOTE D: Earth placed to form a crown in the middle of the track is not to be considered as ballast.

NOTE E: The cost of ballast used for repairs of temporary tracks, such as gravel pit or quarry tracks, shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts.

§ 10.220 Track laying and surfacing. This account shall include:

(a) Applying ballast. The cost of labor expended in preparing the roadbed, and applying ballast for repairs of tracks.

(b) Applying ties. The cost of labor expended in unloading, distributing and applying ties for repairs of tracks; in gathering up and disposing of the ties released; and in respacing ties.

(c) Applying rails. The cost of labor expended in unloading, distributing, cutting, slotting, drilling, adzing for, and laying rails for repairs of tracks; in gathering up and loading rails released; and in adjusting for expansion and contraction of rails.

(d) Applying other track material. The cost of labor expended in unloading, distributing, and applying other track material for repairs of tracks; and the cost of gathering up and loading the material released.

(e) Track maintenance. The cost of labor expended in alining, surfacing, gauging, and shimming tracks; in tightening track bolts and track spikes; in restoring rails, ties, and ballast in case of washouts, derailments, and wrecks; and in taking up tracks.

(f) Train service. The cost of work-train service (except work trains distributing ballast material) in connection with work pertaining to track laying and surfacing.

(g) Track changes. The cost of track work (exclusive of the cost of track material) in taking up and relocating tracks.

(h) Other expenses. The cost of track laying and surfacing work not provided for elsewhere, and expenses, such as repairing and replacing rail rests, official track inspection train service, and premiums in connection with track repairs.

NOTE: Tools and supplies used by track repair men and watchmen shall be charged to account 271, "Small tools and supplies."

§ 10.221 Fences, snowsheds, and signs. This account shall include:

(a) Fences. The cost of repairing right-of-way fences and snow and sand fences, farm gates, cattle guards, wing fences, aprons, and hedges, excluding those around stockyards, fuel stations, station and shop grounds, and building sites.

(b) Snowsheds. The cost of repairing snowsheds, including cost of replacing trees for protecting tracks from snow.

(c) Signs. The cost of repairing signs other than those for identification of bridges, signals, stations, and other structures. (For items of signs see account 13, "Fences, snowsheds, and signs.")

NOTE A: The cost of repairing fences (other than right-of-way boundary fences) around stockyards, fuel and water stations, and other building sites, shall be charged to the accounts appropriate for the cost of repairs of the structures.

NOTE B: The cost of repairing signs for identifying bridges, signals, stations, and other structures shall be included in the account appropriate for the cost of repairs of the structures.

NOTE C: The cost of repairing crossing signals, including crossing gates, shall be included in account 249, "Signals and interlockers."

§ 10.227 Station and office buildings. This account shall include the cost of repairing station and office buildings, fixtures, and appurtenances (including those for heating and lighting), used by the carrier in its operations; also the cost of maintaining grounds appurtenant to such buildings.

NOTE A: The cost of repairing machinery and other apparatus, including special foundations in shops for maintenance of equipment shall be included in account 302, "Shop machinery."

NOTE B: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by shop employees, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.237 Grain elevators. This account shall include the cost of repairing structures for the transfer, treatment, and storage of grain, including conveyors, machinery and fixtures; also the cost of maintaining the grounds appurtenant to such buildings.

The buildings referred to in this account are large elevators in which a regular grain business is handled or grain is stored for various owners.

NOTE A: Small storage elevators at way stations, where the freight is received for shipment, etc., are classed as station buildings.

NOTE B: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by grain elevator employees shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.239 Storage warehouses. This account shall include the cost of repairing storage warehouses, including machinery and fixtures therein; also the cost of maintaining the grounds appurtenant to such warehouses.

The buildings referred to in this section are not the ordinary freight warehouses or stations where freight is received for shipment, etc., but are warehouses in which merchandise is stored and which the carrier operates as storage warehouses.

NOTE: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by storage warehouse employees, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.241 Wharves and docks. This account shall include the cost of repairing wharves located at marine, lake, or river docks; dredging waterways to approaches and around such structures, including removal of dredged-out material; and cutting ice in and around docks and wharves to prevent damage; also cost of repairs of cribwork, racks, or caissons for preserving the depth of water in docks; and cost of repairs of guards, piling, and other protection against damage by drift or ice.

Transfer-bridge machinery.
Transfer bridges.

NOTE A: The cost of repairing buildings, tracks, and machinery (not bridge machinery) on wharves and piers shall be charged to the appropriate expense accounts.

NOTE B: The cost of repairing coal and ore wharves shall be charged to account 243, "Coal and ore wharves."

NOTE C: Incidental cleaning, when done by regular wharf employees, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.243 Coal and ore wharves. This account shall include the cost of repairing wharves and docks, including the cost of repairing conveyors, machinery, and fixtures for the transfer, treatment, blending, or storage of coal or ore.

NOTE A: The structures referred to in this account do not include small transfer or storage trestles at stations where coal is stored or delivered, such trestles being classed as station buildings.

NOTE B: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by coal and ore wharf employees, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.247 Communication systems. This account shall include the cost of repairing telegraph, telephone, radio, radar, inductive train communication, and other communication systems, including terminal equipment.

DETAILS OF RADIO, RADAR, AND INDUCTIVE TRAIN COMMUNICATION EQUIPMENT

Aerials or antenna, and attachments.
Buildings or towers used exclusively for wireless.
Control units.
Power generating, converting, or supply equipment.
Radar console and associated equipment.
Roadside or office equipment for all wireless systems operated on special channels between train and train, train and tower or office, or between ship and shore.
Specialized testing and repair equipment.
Transmitters and receivers, including mobile units.

NOTE A: Repairs of radio, radar, or trainphone equipment (except portable apparatus) which is permanently attached to locomotives, cars, work equipment, or other rolling stock or floating equipment shall be included in the same account as repairs of the equipment on which installed. Repairs of wireless sets for instructions, advertising, or entertainment shall be included in the same account as repairs of the building in which located.

NOTE B: Repairs of communications systems of limited extent, not connected with other systems, used for special purposes and usually installed within a single building, group of buildings, or within the limits of a station or shop layout or yard, shall be included in the same account as repairs of the building in which located or in the account appropriate for the service with which associated.

NOTE C: The pay, rent, other office expenses, and traveling expenses of officers, their clerks and attendants, who supervise, or are engaged both in maintenance and operation, shall be apportioned equally between this account and account 407, "Communication system operation."

ITEMS

Buzzers, bells, dictaphones, or other interoffice communication systems in an office or group of buildings.
Loud speakers, bells, or whistles in shop and other yards.
Loud speakers, public address devices, press button control lights, telautograph, or other systems in stations or on platforms.
Whistles, klaxons, or horns operated from signal towers.

§ 10.249 Signals and interlockers. This account shall include the cost of repairing signals and interlockers governing the movements of locomotives and trains, and for the protection of traffic at crossings, including towers and other buildings, furniture, fixtures, and machinery in connection therewith; also the cost of repairing buildings and machinery of power plants used primarily for the production of power for the operation of signals and interlockers.

For list of items see account 27, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE A: The pay and expenses of employees engaged both in maintaining and operating signals and interlockers shall be apportioned equitably between this account and account 404, "Signal and interlocker operation."

NOTE B: When signal or interlocking apparatus is located in station buildings, only the cost of repairing the signal or interlocking apparatus shall be charged to this account. The cost of repairing the building shall be included in account 227, "Station and office buildings."

NOTE C: The cost of repairs of track material such as special rail braces, special rods, switches, special track fastenings, split rails, derails, derail stands, and frogs, used in connection with interlockers shall be included in account 216, "Other track material."

NOTE D: When derails are arranged so as to be thrown from switch stands, the cost of labor expended for repairs of the connections between the switch stands and the derail and devices for throwing the derail, shall be included in account 220, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE E: The salaries, office expenses, and traveling expenses of supervisors or inspectors when engaged in maintaining both telegraph and telephone lines and signals and interlockers shall be equitably apportioned between this account and account 247, "Communication systems."

§ 10.253 Power plants. This account shall include the cost of repairing power-plant and substation buildings, including all foundations other than those special to particular machines and apparatus; and also dams, canals, pipe lines, and accessories devoted to the utilization of water for power. Gas and sewer pipes and their connections, fixtures (including wiring) for lighting and heating, and miscellaneous fixtures, shall be considered as a part of the power-plant buildings.

The power-plant buildings here referred to are those in which power is produced for the operation of trains and cars and for general purposes.

For list of items see road and equipment account 29, "Power plants."

NOTE A: The cost of repairing power-plant machinery, including small stacks resting on boilers, and special foundations for machines, shall be included in account 304, "Power-plant machinery."

NOTE B: The cost of repairng the buildings and the power machinery and other apparatus of plants used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 249, "Signals and interlockers."

§ 10.257 Power-transmission systems. This account shall include the cost of repairing systems for conveying electricity, steam, and compressed air from producing plants to place or building where used; also the cost of conduits and poles, cross arms, insulator pins, brackets and other pole fixtures, and of other structures for power-transmission and distribution systems, including those for electric railway operation, and lighting systems for general lighting purposes.

For list of items see account 31, "Power-transmission systems."

NOTE A: The cost of repairing the portions of distribution systems located within shop buildings and station and office buildings shall be included in the accounts provided for the cost of maintaining the buildings. The cost of repairing distribution systems in plants used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 249, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE B: The cost of repairing conduits and poles and fixtures for telegraph and telephone lines shall be included in account 247, "Communication systems." If poles and conduits are used both for telegraph and telephone lines, and for power-distribution lines, the cost of repairs thereof shall be included in the account appropriate according to their predominant use.

§ 10.265 Miscellaneous structures. This account shall include the cost of repairing permanent structures, not provided for elsewhere, including the cost of repairing all furniture and fixtures to equip them for use. It shall also include the cost of maintenance of the grounds appurtenant to such structures.

NOTE A: When separable the cost of maintaining structures which are rented to other companies or individuals shall be charged to the income account in which is included the rent received for use of the structures.

NOTE B: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by employees regularly working in miscellaneous buildings, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.266 Road property; depreciation. This account shall include the amount of depreciation charges applicable to the accounting period for all classes of depreciable road property listed in paragraph (g) of § 10.04–8 Depreciation accounting; road property, with the exception of shop machinery and power-plant machinery.

NOTE: Depreciation charges applicable to shop machinery and power-plant machinery shall be included in account 305, "Shop and power-plant machinery—Depreciation."

§ 10.267 Retirements; road. This account shall include charges for the service value (ledger value less value of salvage) of nondepreciable road property retired, excluding rail, ties, and other track material, and ballast used in repairs, as defined in this classification. This account shall also include the proportion of the service value of nondepreciable and depreciable road property retired carried in account 726, "Property retired chargeable to operating expenses," which by specific authority of the Commission shall be charged to current operating expenses. (See § 10.04–6 Distribution of charges for nondepreciable road property retired, and paragraph (k) of § 10.04–8 Depreciation accounting; road property.)

When road property previously subject to amortization accounting under section 124, "Amortization deductions," of the Internal Revenue Code is retired, the difference between the service value (ledger value less value of salvage and insurance recovered) thereof, and the balance in account 702½E, "Accrued amortization of defense projects—Road," with respect to the specific facility retired, after appropriate adjustment for any depreciation accrued thereon, shall be included in this account.

This account shall also be charged with such amounts as are concurrently credited to accounts 72 to 77, inclusive, in accounting for the retirement of road property.

NOTE: The cost of dismantling or demolishing the property, if borne by the carrier, shall be charged to account 270, "Dismantling retired road property," or account 306, "Dismantling retired shop, and power-plant machinery," as may be appropriate.

§ 10.268 Deferred maintenance; way and structures. This account shall include the estimated cost of repairs to way and structures which cannot be made during the current year due to priorities for materials and supplies or shortage of labor.

This account shall be credited with amounts cleared from account 774, "Maintenance reserves", in accordance with the text of that account. (See § 10.04–25 Deferred maintenance, and major repairs to equipment.)

§ 10.269 Roadway machines. This account shall include the cost of repairing roadway machines which are used for the repairs of roadway and structures.

(b) Roadway and track supplies. The cost of supplies consumed in connection with the operation of roadway machines while used in repairs of roadway and tracks; and cost of supplies used by trackwalkers, track watchmen, and roadway and track repair men.

ITEMS OF ROADWAY SUPPLIES

Alcohol for hydraulic jacks.
Fuel for heating tool and other section houses.
Fuel for portable forges used in roadway and track work.
Gasoline for motor cars.
Oatmeal and ice for drinking water used by roadway and track repair men.
Oil and waste for hand cars, lever cars, motor inspection cars, and push cars.
Oil and wicks for lanterns used by trackwalkers, track watchmen, and roadway and track repair men.
Oil and wicks for lighting tool and other section houses.
Torpedoes used by trackwalkers, track watchmen, and roadway and track repair men.
Water for section houses.

§ 10.272 Removing snow, ice, and sand. This account shall include the cost of keeping track and roadway clear of snow, ice, and sand.

It shall include cost of preventing accumulation, such as the cost of distributing, setting up, inspecting, taking down, and regathering portable snow and sand fences; and cost of tools furnished for the purpose; also cost of storing fences.

It shall include cost of removing accumulations of snow, ice, and sand, cost of snow-plow and flanger service, and of work-train service; cost of applying and removing flangers from locomotives and cars, and of slatting pilots; cost of salt to keep switches clear; and cost of meals and lodging for men employed in removal service.

§ 10.273 Public improvements; maintenance. (a) This account shall include the portion borne by the carrier of the expense of maintenance of public improvements, whether done by public authority or by the carrier's employees under governmental requirement.

(b) By public improvements are meant improvements for public benefit such as curbing, grading, guttering, and paving of streets, overhead highway bridges, including approaches; drainage, sewer, irrigation, and water systems; flood protection, parks, sidewalks, etc.

For list of items see account 39, "Public improvements—Construction."

NOTE A: The expense of repairing paving within the grounds of buildings or other structures shall be charged to the accounts provided for repairs of the structures.

NOTE B: Assessments for maintaining public improvements included in the general tax levy for a regular taxing district shall be charged to the appropriate tax account in income.

NOTE C: Interest and penalties, based on monthly or annual percentage rates, for failure to pay assessments within the allotted time shall be included in account 547, "Interest on unfunded debt."

§ 10.274 Injuries to persons. This account shall include expenses on account of injuries to persons which occur directly in connection with the maintenance of way and structures, including injuries occurring in connection with the operation of work trains in such service, and injuries caused by defective highways within the right of way.

It shall also include expenses on account of injuries to employees incurred while demolishing structures, the maintenance of which would be chargeable to maintenance of way and structures; services of employees and others called in consultation in connection with claim adjustments; pay and expenses of employees while engaged as witnesses at inquests and lawsuits; and a suitable proportion of donations made to hospitals.

This account shall also include amounts estimated to be sufficient to meet the probable liability of the carrier for unaudited expenses applicable thereto, except that it is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the account.

ITEMS OF EXPENSE

Artificial limbs.
Carriage fees.
Claim adjusters' and clerks' services.
Claim adjusters' office expenses.
Compensation for injuries or death.
Final judgments, including plaintiffs' court costs.
Funeral expenses.
Hospital attendance.

Witnesses' fees and expenses at inquests and lawsuits.

NOTE A: Expenses incident to personal injury suits, not otherwise provided for, shall be included in account 454, "Law expenses."

NOTE B: Amounts donated by a carrier to hospitals shall be distributed, 25 percent to account 274, "Injuries to persons"; 25 percent to account 332, "Injuries to persons"; and 50 percent to accounts 420, "Injuries to persons."

NOTE C: The pay, office rent, office expenses, and other expenses of claim adjusters, claim clerks and others in charge of or engaged in connection with claim cases, when not assignable to a distinct class of claims, shall be apportioned equally among the several classes of claims over which they have jurisdiction or in connection with which they are engaged.

§ 10.275 Insurance. This account shall include premiums, except reinsurance premiums, for insuring the carrier against loss through injuries to persons or damage to or destruction or loss of property, whether caused by fire, accident, or other cause, when such loss to the carrier would be chargeable to maintenance of way and structures; also premiums on fidelity bonds of employees whose pay is chargeable to maintenance of way and structures. (See § 10.04–18 Insurance.)

NOTE: The premiums paid by the carrier to its insurance fund shall be credited to an insurance reserve account, to which account shall be charged the amounts of all claims for injuries to persons and damages to the property covered by its insurance. To such account shall also be charged all reinsurance premiums paid to insurance companies, and to it shall be credited all amounts recovered from insurance companies in reimbursement for losses under such reinsurance.

§ 10.276 Stationery and printing. This account shall include the cost of stationery and printing used in connection with maintenance of way and structures.

NOTE: The cost of dictionaries, periodicals, technical books, etc., shall be included in the appropriate superintendence accounts.

§ 10.277 Other expenses. This account shall include all expenses in connection with maintenance of way and structures not provided for elsewhere.

ITEMS OF EXPENSE

Pay and expenses of maintenance of way employees attending conferences with officers in connection with wage disputes.
Fees paid arbitrators in wage disputes with maintenance of way employees.
Payments to maintenance of way employees for time absent on account of sickness, when not compensation for personal injuries.
Gratuities paid to persons for discovering defective rails, etc.

§ 10.278 Maintaining joint tracks, yards, and other facilities—Dr. This account shall include the carrier's proportion of the costs incurred by others in maintaining joint tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities.

NOTE: The purpose of this account is to show the amounts accruing against the carrier for its proportion of the cost of maintaining tracks, yards, and other roadway and structure facilities maintained by others and in the joint use of which the carrier participates. (See § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts.)

§ 10.279 Maintaining joint tracks, yards, and other facilities—Cr. This account shall include amounts chargeable to others as their proportions of the cost incurred by the carrier in maintaining joint tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities.

NOTE: The purpose of this account is to show the amounts accruing in favor of the carrier and against others for their proportions of the cost of maintaining tracks, yards, and other roadway and structure facilities maintained by the carrier and in the joint use of which others participate. (See § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts.)

§ 10.280 Equalization; way and structures. This account shall include adjustments of the differences between the actual and the budgeted or authorized maintenance of way and structures expenses as provided in § 10.04–19 Equalization of maintenance expenses. The amounts included in this account shall concurrently be debited or credited to account 773½, "Equalization reserves."

§ 10.281 Right-of-way expenses. This account shall include the cost to the carrier of maintaining structures owned by or exclusively used by others, such costs having been assumed by the carrier in order to acquire or to secure a less restricted use of its right of way.

The structures here referred to are those such as bridges above the carrier's tracks, tunnels, and roadways under the carrier's tracks.

NOTE: The cost of maintaining public improvements is includible in account 273, "Public improvements—Maintenance."

MAINTENANCE OF EQUIPMENT

§ 10.300 Maintenance of equipment. The primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show the expenses of maintaining the carrier's equipment and the carrier's expense for the repairs of other equipment used in its operations, also the cost of maintaining road property classified as shop and power plant machinery. The repair accounts shall include foreign roads' freight charges for transporting the carrier's equipment to shops for repairs and for transporting such equipment to the carrier's line after repairs have been made. No charge shall be made to these accounts for transporting equipment in the carrier's transportation service trains to shops for repairs or from shops after repairs have been made.

The accounts for maintenance of equipment shall be kept in such manner as to show separately, by primary accounts, the expenses directly assignable to sleeping car operations, dining and buffet service, producing power sold, and other miscellaneous operations.

§ 10.301 Superintendence. This account shall include:

(a) Pay of officers. The pay of officers directly in charge of or engaged in the maintenance of equipment.

NOTE A: The cost of repairing power plant machinery for shop power when located in distinct buildings shall be included in account 304, "Power plant machinery."

NOTE B: The cost of repairing boilers used exclusively for heating shall be included in the appropriate repair accounts for buildings.

NOTE C: The cost of small tools which are soon worn out, when used by mechanics on miscellaneous work, shall be included in clearing account "Shop expenses," and when used on repairs of equipment shall be included in the appropriate accounts for repairs of equipment.

NOTE D: The cost of repairing machinery and tools in shops used exclusively for maintenance of way and structures shall be included in account 229, "Roadway buildings."

§ 10.304 Power-plant machinery. This account shall include the cost of repairing machinery and other apparatus including special foundations in power plants and substations for generating and transforming power used for the operation of trains and cars or to furnish power, heat, and light for general purposes.

For list of items see account 45, "Power-plant machinery."

NOTE A: The cost of repairing power-machinery and apparatus in shop power plants shall be included in account 302, "Shop machinery."

NOTE B: The cost of repairing power-machinery and apparatus in stations and offices used primarily for station and office purposes shall be included in account 227, "Station and office buildings."

NOTE C: The cost of repairing power-machinery and apparatus in plants used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 249, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE D: The cost of repairing foundations, other than those special to particular machines and other apparatus, shall be included in cost of repairing the building and not in this account.

NOTE E: The cost of repairing machinery in distinct plants for furnishing power both for carrier purposes and for sale shall be included in this account. When plants are used solely for generating power for sale the cost of repairs shall be included in account 534, "Expenses of miscellaneous operations."

§ 10.305 Shop and power-plant machinery; depreciation. This account shall include the amount of depreciation charges applicable to the accounting period for all classes of property the cost of which is includible in accounts 44, "Shop machinery" and 45, "Power-plant machinery." (See also § 10.04–8 Depreciation accounting; road property.)

§ 10.306 Dismantling retired shop and power-plant machinery. This account shall include the cost of dismantling retired shop and power-plant machinery and recovering the salvage therefrom.

§ 10.308 Steam locomotives; repairs. This account shall include the cost of repairing transportation service steam locomotives and tenders, including all appurtenances, and the cost of small hand tools used in repair work.

This account shall also include the cost of work-train service for the transportation of locomotives without steam to shops for repairs, including the pay and expenses of caretakers, and the pay and expenses of caretakers of locomotives without steam which are hauled in transportation service trains to shops for repairs; also notarial fees in connection with reports on conditions of locomotives.

NOTE A: The cost of inspecting smokestacks and ash pans of locomotives in service shall be included in the appropriate enginehouse expense accounts.

NOTE B: The cost of repairing steam locomotives and tenders of foreign lines, waybilled as freight, and damaged in transit shall be charged to account 418, "Loss and damage—Freight"; and the cost of repairing steam locomotives and tenders of foreign lines having trackage rights over the carrier's line, damaged by collision, wreck, or other cause, for which the carrier is liable, shall be charged to account 416, "Damage to property."

NOTE C: The cost of running locomotives under steam to shops for repairs in connection with transportation service shall be included in the cost of the service in connection with which the movement occurs.

NOTE D: The cost of repairing steam locomotives used solely in work service in connection with operations shall be included in account 326, "Work equipment—Repairs." The cost of repairing locomotives on account of construction work shall be included in the cost of the work. (See paragraph (c) of § 10.01–4 Cost of construction.)

§ 10.311 Other locomotives; repairs. This account shall include the cost of repairs of transportation service locomotives other than steam locomotives, analogous to those set forth for steam locomotives in account 308, "Steam locomotives—Repairs."

§ 10.314 Freight-train cars; repairs. This account shall include the cost of repairing freight-train cars and appurtenances, and the cost of repairing motor equipment affixed to freight-train cars engaged in transportation service; also cost of small hand tools used in repairs. This account shall also include the net loss sustained on account of the destruction of foreign freight cars in the carrier's transportation service and amounts paid to others for repairs of freight cars for which the carrier is liable.

NOTE: The cost of repairs to work equipment on account of construction work shall be included in the cost of the construction work on which it is used. (See paragraph (c) of § 10.01–4 Cost of construction.)

§ 10.328 Miscellaneous equipment; repairs. This account shall include the cost of repairing miscellaneous equipment, such as wagons, automobiles, and other highway vehicles, and harness.

§ 10.329 Dismantling retired equipment. This account shall include the cost of tearing down retired equipment and recovering the salvage therefrom.

§ 10.330 Retirements; equipment. This account shall include the proportion of the service value of equipment retired carried in account 726, "Property retired chargeable to operating expenses," which by specific authority of this Commission shall be charged to operating expenses in the period. (See paragraph (f) of § 10.04–24 Depreciation accounting; equipment.)

When equipment previously subject to amortization accounting under section 124, "Amortization deductions," of the Internal Revenue Code is retired, the difference between the service value (ledger value less value of salvage and insurance recovered) thereof and the balance in account 702½F, "Accrued amortization of defense projects—Equipment," with respect to the specific equipment retired, after appropriate adjustment for any depreciation accrued thereon, shall be included in this account.

This account shall also be charged with such amounts as are concurrently credited to accounts 72 to 77, inclusive, in accounting for the retirement of equipment.

§ 10.331 Equipment; depreciation. This account shall include the amount of depreciation charges applicable to the accounting period for all classes of equipment the ledger value of which is includible in accounts 51 to 54 and 56 to 58, all inclusive. (See also § 10.04–24 Depreciation accounting; equipment.)

§ 10.332 Injuries to persons. This account shall include expenses on account of injuries to persons which occur directly in connection with repairs of equipment.

Services of employees and others called in consultation in relation to claim adjustments, pay and expenses of employees while engaged as witnesses at inquests and lawsuits, and a suitable proportion of donations made to hospitals shall be included in this account.

This account shall also include amounts estimated to be sufficient to meet the probable liability of the carrier for unaudited expenses applicable thereto, except that it is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the account.

ITEMS OF EXPENSE

NOTE A: Expenses incident to personal injury suits, not otherwise provided for, shall be included in account 454, "Law expenses."

NOTE B: Amounts donated by a carrier to hospitals shall be distributed, 25 percent to account 274, "Injuries to persons"; 25 percent to account 332, "Injuries to persons"; and 50 percent to account 420, "Injuries to persons."

NOTE C: The pay, office rent, and office and other expenses of claim adjusters, claim clerks, and others in charge of or engaged in connection with claim cases, when not assignable to a distinct class of claims, shall be apportioned equally among the several classes of claims over which they have jurisdiction or in connection with which they are engaged.

§ 10.333 Insurance. This account shall include premiums, except reinsurance premiums, for insuring the carrier against loss, through injuries to persons or damage to or destruction or loss of property, whether caused by fire, accident, or other cause, when such loss to the carrier would be chargeable to maintenance of equipment; also premiums on fidelity bonds of employees whose pay is chargeable to maintenance of equipment. (See § 10.04–18 Insurance.)

NOTE: The premiums paid by the carrier to its insurance fund shall be credited to an insurance reserve account, to which account shall be charged the amount of all claims for injuries to persons and damages to the property covered by its insurance. To such account shall also be charged all reinsurance premiums paid to insurance companies, and to it shall be credited all amounts recovered from insurance companies for damage to the property reinsured by them.

§ 10.334 Stationery and printing. This account shall include the cost of stationery and printing used in connection with maintenance of equipment.

§ 10.377 Yardmasters and yard clerks. This account shall include the pay of general yardmaster, yardmaster, assistant yardmaster, general yard foreman, and yard clerks and attendants in yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service, including employees engaged in calling yardmen and trainmen; also pay of policemen, watchmen, and detectives in yard service. (See account 389, "Yard supplies and expenses.")

§ 10.378 Yard conductors and brakemen. This account shall include the pay of yard conductors or foremen and yard brakemen or switchmen handling cars in passenger and freight yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service, including pay while dead-heading in connection with such service. (See account 389, "Yard supplies and expenses.")

NOTE: When conductors and brakemen are engaged in both train and yard service their pay shall be apportioned between the train and yard accounts on the basis of service rendered. This does not apply to train switching service performed by train crews, the entire pay of whom shall be charged to account 401, "Trainmen."

§ 10.379 Yard switch and signal tenders. This account shall include the pay of employees in yards where regular switching service is maintained, who are engaged in the operation of yard switches and signals, including interlockers used solely or principally for the government of all movements of locomotives and trains between main and yard tracks, movements of locomotives between yard tracks and enginehouses, and yard switching movements. (See account 389, "Yard supplies and expenses.")

LIST OF EMPLOYEES

Battery men.
Interlocker oilers.
Lamp cleaners.
Lamp men.
Lamplighters.
Lever men.
Signalmen.
Switch oilers.
Switch tenders.
Tower men.

§ 10.380 Yard enginemen. This account shall include the pay of yard enginemen while engaged in yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service, including pay of such employees while deadheading in connection with yard service. For purposes of this account enginemen shall be understood to include the operators and their assistants, regardless of the type of self-propelled motive power being operated.

NOTE: The pay of enginemen on locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned on the basis of service rendered. Pay of enginemen on train locomotives while engaged in train switching service shall be included in account 392, "Train enginemen." The pay of enginemen on locomotives engaged in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.382 Yard switching fuel. This account shall include the cost, delivered on locomotives or motor cars, of coal, coke, oil, wood, and other fuels consumed in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained, and in terminal switching and transfer service, including a suitable proportion of the pay of fuel agents, fuel inspectors, fuel weighers, and clerks engaged in accounting for fuel at fuel stations; pay of foremen and other fuel-station employees; also a suitable proportion of the cost of tools, such as wheelbarrows, shovels, scoops, and picks, used for handling fuel at such stations and the cost of operating machinery at fuel stations.

NOTE A: The cost of repairs and renewals of coal chutes, buggies, pockets, air hoists, mechanical hoists, and mechanical conveyors at fuel stations shall be charged to account 233, "Fuel stations."

NOTE B: The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives and motor cars engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives and motor cars in train switching service shall be included in accounts provided for train service. The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives and motor cars in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.383 Yard switching power produced. This account shall include the cost of the production and distribution of electric power used in operating locomotives and cars in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained, and in terminal switching and transfer service.

(a) Employees. The pay of employees engaged in operating electric-power stations and substations, such as engineers, firemen, electricians, dynamo men, oilers, cleaners, and coal passers.

(b) Fuel. The cost of coal, oil, gas, and other fuel, including the cost of labor unloading or stocking fuel.

(c) Water. The cost of water used to produce steam or to operate water plants, including pumping, rent of ponds, streams, and pipe lines; also water tests, boiler compounds, and other like supplies and expenses.

(d) Other supplies and expenses. The cost of lubricants, such as oil and grease used in lubricating engines, shafting, dynamos, and pumps; cost of waste, carbon brushes, fuses, lamps, and other supplies; also the cost of heating and lighting power plants, and other expenses not elsewhere specified in connection with operation of electric-power plants. (See § 10.04–12 Power plant operations.)

NOTE: The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.384 Yard switching power purchased. This account shall include the cost of electric power purchased for the propulsion of engines and cars in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained, and in terminal switching and transfer service.

NOTE: The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.385 Water for yard locomotives. This account shall include the cost of water supplied to locomotives in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained, and in terminal switching and transfer service, including rent of ponds, lakes, other sources of water supply, and right of way for pipe lines; cost of water purchased, expenses of work trains while engaged in hauling water for locomotive supply, and cost of testing water; also cost of labor expended and cost of materials and supplies used in the operation of water stations and purifying plants.

The cost of operating boilers, engines, and pumps at water stations; heating and lighting water stations, breaking ice in water tanks, thawing out tank spouts and water cars, keeping fires in tanks and water cars to prevent freezing, shoveling snow into locomotive tanks; also temporary connections between water cars and locomotive tenders, compounds injected into locomotive boilers to decrease scale formation, and other expenses directly incident to the supplying of water to such locomotives, shall be included in this account.

An equitable proportion of the pay and the office, traveling, and other expenses of superintendent of water service engaged in connection with water supply for locomotives shall be included in this account.

NOTE: The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.386 Lubricants for yard locomotives. This account shall include the cost of valve, engine, car, and other lubricating oils, grease, compounds, and waste used for lubrication of locomotives in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service.

NOTE: The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.387 Other supplies for yard locomotives. This account shall include the cost of supplies, other than fuel, water, and lubricants, used on locomotives in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service, including the cost of repairs and renewals of furniture, tools, and other movable articles required for use on locomotives in yard service.

The cost of sand charged to this account shall include the cost of material and supplies used in preparing and drying the sand for use, such as the cost of fuel, wheelbarrows, shovels, and sand screens.

NOTE A: Where the quantity of sand used on locomotives engaged in yard service is relatively small as compared with the quantity used by locomotives engaged in train service, the entire cost of such material shall be included in account 399, "Other supplies for train locomotives." Where the quantity used in yard service is relatively large, the entire cost shall be included in this account.

NOTE B: The cost of other supplies consumed by locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.388 Enginehouse expenses; yard. This account shall include the expense of caring for and preparing locomotives for switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service, including a proportion of such expenses as are common to train, yard switching, and work service.

(a) Enginehouse men. The pay of enginehouse employees engaged in wiping, cleaning, watching, and dispatching locomotives; keeping and preparing fires, dumping ashes, washing boilers, cleaning fire boxes, packing driving boxes and truck boxes; cleaning smokestacks, air-brake equipment, and front ends of locomotives; checking locomotive tool equipment, cleaning ash and cinder pits; operating turntables, drying sand, inspecting smokestacks and ash pans; calling enginemen, and moving locomotives around engine yards when operated by hostlers; also a proportion of the pay of enginehouse foremen and their clerks.

(b) Miscellaneous expenses. The cost of tools, supplies, and sundry expenses on account of caring for and preparing locomotives at enginehouses.

§ 10.390 Operating joint yards and terminals—Dr. This account shall include the carrier's proportion of the costs incurred by others in their operation of joint yards and terminals, including signals, interlockers, and other facilities at such joint yards and terminals.

NOTE A: The purpose of this account is to show the amounts accruing against the carrier for its proportion of the cost of operating yards and terminals operated by others, and in the joint use of which the carrier participates. (See § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts.)

NOTE B: No portion of expenses chargeable by the operating carrier to accounts 392 to 403, inclusive, shall be included in this account.

§ 10.391 Operating joint yards and terminals—Cr. This account shall include amounts chargeable to others as their proportions of the costs incurred by the carrier in the operation of joint yards and terminals, including signals, interlockers, and other facilities at such joint yards and terminals.

NOTE A: The purpose of this account is to show the amounts accruing in favor of the carrier and against others for their proportions of the cost of operating yards and terminals operated by the carrier and in the joint use of which others participate. (See § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts.)

NOTE B: No portion of expenses chargeable by the operating carrier to accounts 392 to 403, inclusive, shall be included in this account.

§ 10.392 Train enginemen. This account shall include the pay of enginemen while engaged in transportation train service or while deadheading in connection therewith and pay of such enginemen engaged in piloting trains over home lines; also the pay of employees while regularly engaged in shoveling coal forward on locomotive tenders. For purposes of this account enginemen shall be understood to include the operators and their assistants, regardless of the type of self-propelled motive power being operated.

NOTE: The pay of enginemen on locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned on the basis of service rendered. Pay of enginemen on train locomotives while engaged in train switching service shall be included in this account. The pay of enginemen on locomotives engaged in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.394 Train fuel. This account shall include the cost, delivered on locomotives or motor cars, of coal, coke, oil, wood, and other fuel for propulsion of trains in transportation-train service, including a suitable proportion of the pay of fuel agents, fuel inspectors, fuel weighers, and clerks engaged in accounting for fuel at fuel stations; pay of foremen and other fuel station employees; also a suitable proportion of the cost of tools, such as wheelbarrows, shovels, scoops, and picks, used for handling fuel at such stations, and the cost of operating machinery at fuel stations.

NOTE A: The cost of repairs and renewals of coal chutes, buggies, pockets, air hoists, mechanical hoists, and mechanical conveyors at fuel stations shall be charged to account 233, "Fuel stations."

NOTE B: The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives and motor cars in train-switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives and motor cars in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.395 Train power produced. This account shall include the cost of producing and distributing electric power for the propulsion of electric locomotives and cars in transportation train service.

(a) Employees. The pay of employees engaged in operating electric-power stations and substations, such as engineers, firemen, electricians, dynamo men, oilers, cleaners, and coal passers.

(b) Fuel. The cost of coal, oil, gas, and other fuel, including the cost of labor unloading or stocking fuel.

(c) Water. The cost of water used to produce steam or to operate water plants, including pumping, rent of ponds, streams, and pipe lines; also water tests, boiler compounds, and other like supplies and expenses.

(d) Other supplies and expenses. The cost of lubricants, such as oil and grease, used in lubricating engines, shafting, dynamos, and pumps; cost of waste, carbon brushes, fuses, lamps, and other supplies; also cost of heating and lighting power plants, and other expenses not elsewhere specified in connection with operation of electric-power plants. (See § 10.04–12 Power plant operations.)

NOTE: The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.396 Train power purchased. This account shall include the cost of electric power purchased for the propulsion of locomotives and cars in transportation train service.

NOTE: The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.397 Water for train locomotives. This account shall include the cost of water supplied to locomotives in transportation train service, including rent of ponds, lakes, other sources of water supply, and right of way for pipe lines; cost of water purchased, expenses of supply trains while engaged in hauling water for locomotive supply, and cost of testing water; also cost of labor expended and cost of material and supplies used in the operation of water stations and purifying plants.

The cost of operating boilers, engines, and pumps at water stations, heating and lighting water stations, breaking ice in water tanks, thawing out tank spouts and water cars, keeping fires in tanks and water cars to prevent freezing, shoveling snow into locomotive tanks; also temporary connections between water cars and locomotive tenders, compounds injected into locomotive boilers to decrease scale formation, and other expenses directly incident to the supplying of water to such locomotives, shall be included in this account.

§ 10.411 Other expenses. This account shall include all expenses in connection with rail line transportation not properly chargeable to other transportation accounts.

ITEMS OF EXPENSE

Amounts paid for switching empty cars otherwise than in connection with loaded movements or with the repairs to the equipment.
Amounts paid on account of bills of lading issued on fraudulent receipts.
Amounts paid to suspended transportation department employees covering periods of suspension.
Compensation for property loss incident to failure to stop at station to pick up passengers.
Demurrage accruing on a foreign line by reason of error of carrier's agent.
Extra drayage due to agent's error in routing interline shipment.
Fees paid arbitrators in wage disputes of transportation department employees.
Loss of station funds by burglary, when not covered by insurance.
Loss of train collections in holdup.
Overcharges paid foreign lines on account of error of the carrier's agent in routing and billing.
Pay and expenses of transportation department employees attending conferences with officers in connection with wage disputes.
Payments for switching on account of cars not passing inspection at junction points.
Penalties imposed under reciprocal demurrage laws for failure to furnish cars.
"Penalty switching" payments on account of improper delivery of cars to other carriers.

§ 10.412 Operating joint tracks and facilities—Dr. This account shall include the carrier's proportion of the transportation expenses incurred by others in the operation of joint tracks, interlockers, and other facilities which are not provided for in account 390, "Operating joint yards and terminals—Dr."

NOTE A: The purpose of this account is to show the amount accruing against the carrier for its proportion of the cost of operating tracks and facilities (other than at joint yards and terminals) operated by others and in the joint use of which the carrier participates. (See § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts.)

NOTE B: No portion of expenses chargeable by the operating carrier to accounts 392 to 403, inclusive, shall be included in this account.

§ 10.413 Operating joint tracks and facilities—Cr. This account shall include amounts chargeable to others as their proportions of transportation expenses incurred by the carrier in the operation of joint tracks, interlockers, and other facilities which are not provided for in account 391, "Operating joint yards and terminals—Cr."

NOTE A: The purpose of this account is to show the amounts accruing in favor of the carrier and against others for their proportions of the cost of operating tracks and facilities (other than at joint yards and terminals) operated by the carrier and in the joint use of which others participate. (See § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts.)

NOTE B: No portion of expenses chargeable by the operating carrier to accounts 392 to 403, inclusive, shall be included in this account.

§ 10.414 Insurance. This account shall include premiums, except reinsurance premiums, for insuring the carrier against loss through injuries to persons or damage to or destruction or loss of property, whether caused by fire, accident, or other cause, when such loss to the carrier would be chargeable to rail line transportation; also premiums on fidelity bonds of employees whose pay is chargeable to rail line transportation. (See § 10.04–18 Insurance.)

NOTE: The premiums paid by the carrier to its insurance fund shall be credited to an insurance reserve account, to which account shall be charged the amount of all claims for injuries to persons and damages to the property covered by its insurance. To such account shall also be charged all reinsurance premiums paid to insurance companies, and to it shall be credited all amounts recovered from insurance companies for damage to property reinsured by them.

§ 10.415 Clearing wrecks. This account shall include the cost of clearing wrecks other than wrecks of work trains.

(a) Labor. The wages of employees while engaged in connection with wrecking service, loading, and transferring contents of wrecked cars, building temporary tracks around wrecks, and removing such tracks.

(b) Train service. The cost of train service in connection with replacing wrecked equipment upon the tracks and transporting such equipment to shops for repairs, including amounts paid to other companies for service of locomotives, derricks, and other equipment and for wages of crews in wrecking service.

(c) Other supplies and expenses. Payments for reloading or transferring freight, express, baggage, and mail; transferring passengers, and cost of provisions or board for men clearing up or watching at wrecks.

NOTE A: Expenses of clearing wrecks of work trains shall be included in the cost of the work in connection with which the wrecked train was engaged.

NOTE B: The cost of restoring roadbed and tracks to original condition after wrecks and the cost of repairing equipment damaged or destroyed by wrecks shall be charged to the appropriate accounts for maintenance of way and structures and maintenance of equipment.

NOTE C: That proportion of payments to other companies for use of locomotives, derricks, and other equipment in wrecking service which represents rent shall be included in the income accounts.

§ 10.416 Damage to property. This account shall include payments and expenses on account of damages to the property of others, whether by fire, collision, flood, or other cause, with the exception of payments and expenses on account of damage to property intrusted to the carrier for transportation, and for damage to stock on right of way. It shall include also fines or compensation paid for interference with the business of others, as by detention of vessels at drawbridges, or by blocking streets.

This account shall include also the pay, office rent, and office, traveling, and other expenses of employees and others engaged as claim adjusters or as witnesses in lawsuits in connection with damage to property cases, or engaged in detection of thieves; notarial fees paid in connection with such cases; and payments for or repairs of damage to equipment of other carriers, or to property contained therein, such carriers having trackage rights upon or grade crossings over the carrier's tracks.

This account shall also include amounts estimated to be sufficient to meet the probable liability of the carrier for unaudited expenses applicable thereto, except that it is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the account.

NOTE A: Damage to livestock on right of way, and damage to freight and baggage intrusted for transportation, are provided for under accounts 417, "Damage to livestock on right of way"; 418, "Loss and damage—Freight"; and 419, "Loss and damage—Baggage."

NOTE B: Expenses incident to suits growing out of damage to property claims, not otherwise provided for, shall be included in account 454, "Law expenses."

NOTE C: The pay, office rent, and the traveling, office, and other expenses of claim adjusters, claim clerks, and others engaged in claim matters when not accurately assignable to a distinct class of claims, shall be apportioned equally among the several classes of claims over which they have jurisdiction or in connection with which they are engaged. This provision does not apply to the pay and expenses of general officers or general office employees whose pay is includible in general account 450, "General."

§ 10.417 Damage to livestock on right of way. This account shall include payments on account of cattle and other livestock killed or injured while crossing or trespassing on the right of way, including cost of removing and burying the same.

There shall be included in this account also the pay and the traveling, office, and other expenses of employees and others engaged as livestock claim adjusters or engaged as witnesses in law-suits in connection with damage to livestock on right of way; also notarial fees in connection with claims for damage to livestock on right of way.

This account shall also include amounts estimated to be sufficient to meet the probable liability of the carrier for unaudited expenses applicable thereto, except that it is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the account.

NOTE A: Expenses incident to suits growing out of livestock claims, not otherwise provided for, shall be included in account 454, "Law expenses."

NOTE B: The pay, office rent, and traveling, office, and other expenses of claim adjusters, claim clerks, and others engaged in claim matters when not accurately assignable to a distinct class of claims, shall be apportioned equally among the several classes of claims over which they have jurisdiction or in connection with which they are engaged. This provision does not apply to the pay and expenses of general officers or general office employees whose pay is includible in general account 450, "General."

§ 10.418 Loss and damage; freight. This account shall include payments and expenses on account of loss, destruction, damage, or delays to revenue freight shipments, including locomotives and cars transported as freight, express matter, milk shipments, and livestock, and expenses incurred on account of such payments; also expenses on account of loss, destruction, or damage to shipments of company material.

This account shall also include the cost of repacking and boxing damaged freight shipments; notarial fees in connection with freight claims; freight charges paid other carriers on lost, destroyed, or damaged shipments; pay, traveling, office, and other expenses of employees or others engaged as freight-claim adjusters, as witnesses in lawsuits in connection with freight-claim cases, in selling damaged and unclaimed shipments, or in detecting thieves; rent of warehouses used for storage of damaged and astray freight shipments, payments for storage of such shipments in public warehouses, and interest and penalties assessed for nonpayment of freight claims.

Amounts received from the sale of astray and damaged freight shall be credited to this account.

This account shall also include amounts estimated to be sufficient to meet the probable liability of the carrier for unaudited expenses applicable thereto, except that it is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the account.

NOTE A: Expenses incident to suits growing out of loss and damage (freight) claims, not otherwise provided for, shall be included in account 454, "Law expenses."

NOTE B: The pay, office rent, and traveling, office, and other expenses of claim adjusters, claim clerks, and others engaged in claim matters when not accurately assignable to a distinct class of claims shall be apportioned equally among the several classes of claims over which they have jurisdiction or in connection with which they are engaged. This provision does not apply to the pay and expenses of general officers or general office employees whose pay is includible in general account 450, "General."

§ 10.419 Loss and damage; baggage. This account shall include payments for loss, destruction, damage, or delays to baggage and other personal property carried as baggage, and damage to personal apparel; also expenses on account of such loss or damage.

This account shall also include the cost of repacking and boxing damaged baggage; notarial fees in connection with baggage claims; baggage claim payments made to other carriers on lost, destroyed, damaged, or delayed shipments; pay, traveling, office, and other expenses of employees or others engaged as baggage claim adjusters, as witnesses in lawsuits in connection with baggage claim cases, in selling damaged and unclaimed baggage, or in detecting thieves; rent of warehouses used exclusively for storage of damaged and unclaimed baggage, payments for storage of such shipments in public warehouses, and interest and penalties assessed for nonpayment of claims.

Amounts received from the sale of astray and damaged baggage shall be credited to this account.

This account shall also include amounts estimated to be sufficient to meet the probable liability of the carrier for unaudited expenses applicable thereto, except that it is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the account.

NOTE A: Expenses incident to suits growing out of loss and damage (baggage) claims, not otherwise provided for, shall be included in account 454, "Law expenses."

NOTE B: The pay, office rent, and traveling, office, and other expenses of claim adjusters, claim clerks, and others engaged in claim matters when not accurately assignable to a distinct class of claims, shall be apportioned equally among the several classes of claims over which they have jurisdiction or in connection with which they are engaged. This provision does not apply to the pay and expenses of general officers or general office employees whose pay is includible in general account 450, "General."

NOTE C: When a payment on account of injuries to passengers includes allowance for damage to personal apparel the damage allowance shall be included in this account when separable; otherwise in the appropriate personal injury account.

§ 10.420 Injuries to persons. This account shall include expenses on account of injuries to persons which occur directly in connection with transportation service, including damages for ejectment of passengers.

Services of employees and others called in consultation in relation to claim adjustments; pay and expenses of employees while engaged as witnesses at inquests and lawsuits, and a suitable proportion of donations made to hospitals, shall be included in this account.

This account shall also include amounts estimated to be sufficient to meet the probable liability of the carrier for unaudited expenses applicable thereto, except that it is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the account.

§ 10.445 Producing power sold. This account shall include the cost of operating power plants, substations, transmission systems and distribution systems, for the production of power sold.

The proportion of the cost assignable to the production of the power sold only shall be included in this account. (See § 10.04–12 Power plant operations and § 10.04–14 Maintaining transmission and distribution systems.)

This account shall include:

(a) Superintendence. The pay of officers directly in charge of power plants, substations, transmission systems and distribution systems; pay of their clerks and office attendants; also the office, traveling, and other expenses of such officers and employees.

(b) Employees. The pay of foremen, subforemen, engineers, firemen, electricians, system operators or load dispatchers, dynamo tenders, foremen regulators, regulators and assistants, switchboard men, brush men, oilers, wipers, wiremen, and others engaged in the operation of power plant and substation apparatus and devices.

(c) Fuel. The cost of fuel used in the production of power and for heating power plants.

(d) Other supplies. The cost of water, lubricants, and other power plant and substation supplies.

(e) Stationery and printing. The cost of stationery and printing used in connection with producing power sold.

(f) Other expenses. The items of expense not otherwise provided for in this account.

NOTE: When officers have immediate supervision over producing power sold and other operations, their pay, office, and other expenses, as also the pay, office, and other expenses of their assistants, clerks and office attendants, shall be equitably apportioned to the accounts appropriate to the operations over which they have supervision.

§ 10.446 Other miscellaneous operations. This account shall include the operations of facilities such as cold-storage plants; coal-storage plants; cotton-compress plants; wood-preserving plants; ice-supply plants, etc., when the cost of the facilities is includible in the road and equipment accounts and they are operated by the railway companies.

NOTE: When officers have immediate supervision over other miscellaneous service and other operations, their pay, office, and other expenses, as also the pay, office, and other expenses of their assistants, clerks, and office attendants, shall be equitably apportioned to the accounts appropriate to the operations over which they have supervision.

§ 10.447 Operating joint miscellaneous facilities—Dr. This account shall include the carrier's proportion of such costs as are incurred by others in their operation of joint facilities which are chargeable by them to accounts 442, "Hotels and restaurants," 443, "Grain elevators," 445, "Producing power sold," or 446, "Other miscellaneous operations."

§ 10.448 Operating joint miscellaneous facilities—Cr. This account shall include amounts chargeable to others as their proportions of such costs as are incurred by the carrier in its operation of joint facilities which are chargeable by it to accounts 442, "Hotels and restaurants," 443, "Grain elevators," 445, "Producing power sold," or 446, "Other miscellaneous operations."

GENERAL

§ 10.450 General. The primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show the expenses incurred of a general character not chargeable to the preceding general accounts, such as those for general administration and accounting, and those of the financial, law, real estate, tax, and claim departments.

NOTE: Directly assignable organization and administration expenses incident to investments in leased or nonoperating physical property, and in stocks, bonds, and other securities, are chargeable to income account 549, "Maintenance of investment organization."

§ 10.455 Insurance. This account shall include premiums, except reinsurance premiums, for insuring the carrier against loss, through injuries to persons or damage to or destruction or loss of property, whether caused by fire, accident, or other cause, when such loss to the carrier would be chargeable to general account 450, "General"; also premiums on fidelity bonds of officers and employees whose pay is chargeable to general account 450, "General." (See § 10.04–18 Insurance.)

NOTE: The premiums paid by the carrier to its insurance fund shall be credited to an insurance account, to which account shall be charged the amount of all claims for injuries to persons and damages to the property covered by its insurance. To such account shall also be charged all reinsurance premiums paid to insurance companies, and to it shall be credited all amounts recovered from insurance companies for damage to the property reinsured by them.

§ 10.456 Relief department expenses. This account shall include salaries and expenses incurred in connection with conducting relief departments; also contributions to such departments.

§ 10.457 Pensions and gratuities. (a) Except as hereafter provided, this account shall include pensions paid currently to retired employees and the expenses incurred solely in connection therewith. It shall also include gratuities paid to the families or heirs of employees; amounts paid currently to insurance companies or to trustees to provide annuities for retired employees (see note); and premiums paid on insurance policies for employees where the carrier is not a beneficiary.

NOTE: The initial payments to insurance companies or to trustees for prior services of employees shall be charged to account 621, "Miscellaneous debits."

(b) A carrier may account for pensions on an accrual basis provided it has established a retirement plan whereby it definitely agrees to pay pensions to its retired employees. If the carrier elects to adopt the accrual plan, this account shall be charged and account 769 credited each month with amounts representing benefits currently accruing under the plan and borne by the carrier. Contributions by employees shall be credited direct to account 769. Pension payments shall be charged to account 769. Before adopting the accrual plan for pensions, the carrier shall inform the Commission of the details of its pension plan. No charges shall be made to this account in anticipation of discretionary pension payments in the future.

§ 10.458 Stationery and printing. This account shall include the cost of stationery and printing used in general offices and not chargeable to other accounts, including the cost of printing annual reports, contracts, leases, stock certificates, and passes.

INCOME, PROFIT AND LOSS, AND GENERAL BALANCE SHEET

§ 10.05 General instructions. The carrier's records shall be kept with sufficient particularity to show fully the facts pertaining to all entries made in the accounts provided herein for income, profit and loss, and general balance sheet. Where the full information is not recorded in the general books, the entries therein shall be supported by other records in which the full details shall be shown. Such general book entries shall contain sufficient reference to the detail records to permit ready identification, and the detail records shall be filed in such manner as to be readily accessible for examination by representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

§ 10.05–1 General ledger accounts. When the title and definition of an income, profit and loss, or general balance-sheet account clearly indicate that it is a summary of other accounts, it is not required that a special ledger account shall be kept under such a title to include the balances from the accounts usually kept in the ledger, but in such case the titles of the subaccounts in the ledger shall give references by numbers, titles, or both, to the income, profit and loss, or general balance-sheet account prescribed herein of which they are subdivisions.

§ 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation. The carrier shall include in operating expenses charges for depreciation on road property and equipment used but not owned the rent for which is includible in account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment," and shall maintain the same records of service lives, salvage values, etc., as provided for owned road property and equipment. The amount currently to be charged to account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment," is the excess of the total compensation over the amount chargeable by the carrier to the depreciation accounts in operating expenses. If settlement between the carrier and the lessor is not currently made, the amount of the depreciation accrued during the period of the lease shall be credited by the carrier to account 779, "Accrued depreciation—Leased property." The necessary adjustments of the difference between the balance thus accrued in that account and the actual amount of settlement shall appropriately be made through account 607, "Miscellaneous credits," or account 621, "Miscellaneous debits," at the time settlement for depreciation on the property is made with the lessor.

The carrier shall not include in the depreciation account in operating expenses any charges for depreciation of equipment used but not owned when the rents therefor are included in the rent for equipment and joint facility rent accounts 503 to 508 and 536 to 541, inclusive.

§ 10.05–3 Closing general ledger. Accounts shall be written up, posted to the general ledger and balanced monthly. The final entries for any month shall be made not later than 60 days after the last day of the month for which the accounts are stated, except that the period within which the final entries for the month of December shall be made may be extended to such date in the following March as shall not interfere with the preparation and filing of annual reports as required by paragraph 2 of section 20 of the Interstate Commerce Act.

INCOME

§ 10.06 Special instructions.

§ 10.06–1 Income accounts defined. Income accounts are those designed to show, as nearly as practicable, for each fiscal period, the total amount of money that a carrier becomes entitled to receive for services rendered, the returns accrued upon investments, the accrued costs paid or payable for the services rendered by it, the losses sustained by it, the amounts accrued for taxes, for use of moneys and for use of properties of others, and the appropriations made from income during the period. The net balance of income (or loss) shall be carried to profit and loss.

§ 10.06–2 Delayed items. The carrier shall account for delayed items and adjustments and cancellation of entries recorded in balance-sheet accounts relating to income of former years in accordance with the instructions contained in § 10.02–3 Delayed items.

§ 10.06–3 Unaudited items. When the amount of any item affecting income cannot be accurately determined in time for inclusion in the accounts of the month in which the transaction occurs, the amount of the item shall be estimated and in such form included in the proper income account with contra entry to the appropriate balance-sheet account. When the item is audited the necessary adjustments shall be made through the accounts in which the estimate was recorded. If, during the interval between the date of inclusion of the item in the accounts and the date on which it is audited, a substantial difference from the initial estimate is determined, appropriate adjustments shall be made in the current accounts to cover such difference. The carrier is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the accounts.

INCOME ACCOUNTS

CREDIT

§ 10.501 Railway operating revenues. This account shall include the total revenues derived from operations as shown in the primary revenue accounts provided in this part.

§ 10.502 Revenues from miscellaneous operations. This account shall include the total revenues derived from the operation of miscellaneous operating physical property, such as that the cost of which is includible in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

NOTE: The income from miscellaneous nonoperating physical property shall be included in account 511, "Income from nonoperating property."

§ 10.503 Hire of freight cars; credit balance. This account shall include, except as provided in the texts of accounts 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment," and 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment," the net credit balance of (a) amounts receivable accrued for the use of the accounting company's freight cars leased or interchanged, and (b) amounts payable accrued for the use of the freight cars of others, leased or interchanged. (See § 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation.)

NOTE A: If the net balance is a debit, it shall be included in account 536, "Hire of freight cars—Debit balance."

NOTE B: Rent for freight cars included in the lease of road to another company shall be included in account 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment."

NOTE C: Rents paid for freight cars used in construction work-train service are chargeable to the cost of the work. (See paragraph (c) of § 10.01–4 Cost of construction.)

§ 10.504 Rent from locomotives. This account shall include, except as provided in the text of account 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment," amounts receivable accrued as rent for the use of the accounting company's locomotives leased or interchanged. (See Note C to account 717, "Interest and dividends receivable.")

NOTE: Rent for locomotives included in lease of road to another company shall be included in account 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment."

§ 10.505 Rent from passenger-train cars. This account shall include, except as provided in the text of account 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment," amounts receivable accrued as rent for the use of the accounting company's passenger-train cars leased or interchanged. (See Note C, to account 717, "Interest and dividends receivable.")

NOTE: Rent for passenger-train cars included in lease of road to another company shall be included in account 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment."

§ 10.506 Rent from floating equipment. This account shall include, except as provided in the text of account 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment," amounts receivable accrued as rent for the use of the accounting company's floating equipment leased or chartered. (See Note C to account 717, "Interest and dividends receivable.")

NOTE: Rent from floating equipment included in lease of road to another company shall be included in account 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment."

§ 10.507 Rent from work equipment. This account shall include, except as provided in the text of account 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment," amounts receivable accrued as rent for the use of the accounting company's work equipment leased or interchanged. (See Note C to account 717, "Interest and dividends receivable.")

NOTE: Rent for work equipment included in lease of road to another company shall be included in account 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment."

§ 10.508 Joint facility rent income. This account shall include amounts receivable accrued for rent of equipment, tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities owned or controlled by the accounting company and used jointly with other companies or individuals.

Amounts receivable from other companies in reimbursement for taxes on property jointly used shall be credited to this account.

NOTE: The portion of the cost of maintenance, operation, or administration of joint facilities recoverable from others shall be credited to the various joint facility accounts provided for operating expenses. When the compensation for the use of joint facilities is a fixed amount or is based upon a charge per passenger, ton, car, or other unit, it shall be fairly apportioned by the creditor between this account and the appropriate joint facility operating expense accounts.

§ 10.509 Income from lease of road and equipment. This account shall include the entire amount receivable accrued for the exclusive use of road, tracks, or bridges (including equipment or other railway property covered by the contract) the rented property being owned or controlled by the accounting company, whether payable to the accounting company in cash or disbursed by the lessee on behalf of the accounting company as interest on funded debt, guaranteed dividends on stock, or otherwise. (See Note C to account 717, "Interest and dividends receivable.")

When the lessor company maintains the road and equipment leased, the cost of maintaining the property rented shall be charged to this account, except that when the rent thus receivable for the use of property other than equipment is relatively small and the expense of maintenance is not separable, the entire amount received may be credited to revenue account 142, "Rents of buildings and other property."

If, under the terms of a lease, the deficit, or any portion of it, resulting from the lessee company's operations of the property leased is payable by the lessor company, the amount thus payable shall be charged to this account by the lessor.

NOTE A: When taxes on leased property are assumed by the lessor, the accruals of such taxes shall be included in the lessor's account 532, "Railway tax accruals."

NOTE B: If property the rent of which is chargeable to account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment," is sublet by the accounting company, the rent receivable therefor shall be credited to this account.

NOTE C: When specific charges against the lessee are made by the lessor for repairs of equipment which is actually maintained by it the amount of such charges shall be appropriately credited by the lessor to its equipment repair accounts and charged by the lessee to the corresponding accounts.

§ 10.510 Miscellaneous rent income. This account shall include such rents of property owned and controlled by the accounting carrier as are not provided for in the foregoing accounts.

To this account shall be charged the cost of maintenance of the property rented, also specific incidental expenses in connection with such property, such as the cost of negotiating contracts, advertising for tenants, fees paid conveyancers, collectors' commissions, and analogous items.

NOTE A: If property the rent of which is chargeable to account 543, "Miscellaneous rents," is sublet by the accounting company, the rent receivable therefor shall be credited to this account.

NOTE B: Taxes on property the rent of which is creditable to this account shall be charged to account 532, "Railway tax accruals."

NOTE C: The rent from property carried in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property," shall not be included in this account, but in account 511, "Income from nonoperating property."

NOTE D: Rent and other income from real estate acquired for new lines or for additions and betterments shall be credited to the appropriate road and equipment accounts until the completion or coming into service of the property.

§ 10.511 Income from nonoperating property. This account shall include the net credit balance of the nonoperating revenues or income from, and the expenses (including depreciation, but excluding taxes) of, physical property the cost of which is carried in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

NOTE A: Net debit balances in this account shall be shown in red ink.

NOTE B: The revenues from the operation of miscellaneous operating physical property shall be included in income account 502, "Revenues from miscellaneous operations," and the expenses of operation shall be included in account 534, "Expenses of miscellaneous operations."

§ 10.512 Separately operated properties; profit. This account shall include amounts receivable under the terms of agreements or contracts whereby the surplus resulting from the operation by others of properties of other companies having a separate corporate existence is to be paid, in whole or in part, to the accounting company.

In determining the amount receivable by the accounting company, consideration shall be given not only to the operating revenues and operating expenses but also to other items of income or deduction which affect that amount.

NOTE A: The amount payable by the operating company shall be charged by it to account 550, "Income transferred to other companies."

NOTE B: Dividends or other returns upon securities issued by separately operated companies, and held or controlled by the accounting company, shall be included in accounts 513, "Dividend income"; 514, "Interest income"; or 516, "Income from sinking and other reserve funds," as may be appropriate.

§ 10.513 Dividend income. This account shall include dividends declared on railway and other stocks, the income from which is the property of the accounting company, whether such stocks are owned by the accounting company and held in its treasury or deposited in trust, or are controlled through lease or otherwise.

Dividends declared shall not be credited prior to actual collection unless their payment is reasonably assured by past experience, guaranty, anticipated provision, or otherwise. (See Note C to account 717, "Interest and dividends receivable.")

Accruals of guaranteed dividends may be included in this account if their payment is reasonably assured.

NOTE A: This account shall not include credits for dividends on stocks issued or assumed by the accounting company and owned by it, whether pledged as collateral or held in its treasury, in special deposits, or in sinking or other reserve funds.

NOTE B: Dividends on stocks of other companies held in sinking or other reserve funds shall be credited to account 516, "Income from sinking and other reserve funds."

§ 10.514 Interest income. This account shall include the interest on securities and debenture stock of other companies, the income from which is the property of the accounting company, whether such securities are owned by the accounting company and held in its treasury or deposited in trust, or are controlled through lease or otherwise.

It shall include also, interest on notes and other evidences of indebtedness and interest on bank balances, open accounts, and other analogous items, including discount on short-term notes. Interest accrued shall not be credited prior to actual collection unless its payment is reasonably assured by past experience, guaranty, anticipated provision, or otherwise. (See Note C to account 717, "Interest and dividends receivable.")

At the option of the accounting company there may be included each year in this account the portion, applicable to the fiscal period, of the amount requisite to extinguish, during the interval between the date of acquisition and the date of maturity, the discount or premium on securities of other companies owned (other than short-term notes). Amounts thus credited or charged shall be concurrently charged or credited to the account in which the cost of the securities is carried. The discount on short-term notes shall be distributed through equal monthly credits, over the terms of the notes.

NOTE A: This account shall not include interest on securities issued or assumed by the accounting company and owned by it, whether pledged as collateral or held in its treasury, in special deposits, or in sinking or other reserve funds.

NOTE B: Interest on securities other than those of the accounting company, and on other assets held in sinking or other reserve funds shall be included in account 516, "Income from sinking and other reserve funds."

NOTE C: Discount on bills for material purchased shall be credited to the accounts to which is charged the cost of the material with respect to which the discount is allowed.

§ 10.516 Income from sinking and other reserve funds. This account shall include the income accrued on cash, securities, and other assets (not including securities issued or assumed by the accounting company) held in sinking and other reserve funds. (See Note C to account 717, "Interest and dividends receivable.")

At the option of the accounting company there may be included each year in this account the portion, applicable to the fiscal period, of the amount requisite to extinguish, during the interval between the date of acquisition and the date of maturity, the discount or premium on funded securities held in sinking or other reserve funds. Amounts thus credited or charged shall be concurrently charged or credited to the account in which the cost of the securities is carried.

NOTE: Credits to fund reserve accounts representing income on reserve funds shall be concurrently charged to account 552, "Income applied to sinking and other reserve funds."

§ 10.517 Release of premiums on funded debt. This account shall include, during each fiscal period, such proportion of the premiums on outstanding funded debt as may be applicable to the period. This proportion shall be determined in accordance with § 10.08–3 Discount, expense, and premium on funded debt.

§ 10.518 Contributions from other companies. This account shall include amounts received or receivable from other companies or individuals, representing the whole or a part of the net deficit of the accounting company when, under the terms of agreements or contracts, no obligation for subsequent reimbursement is incurred.

In determining the amount receivable by the accounting company, consideration shall be given not only to the operating revenues and operating expenses, but also to other items of income or deduction which affect that amount.

NOTE: The amount payable shall be charged by the contributing company to account 545, "Separately operated properties—Loss."

§ 10.519 Miscellaneous income. This account shall include all items, not provided for elsewhere, properly creditable to income account during the fiscal period.

§ 10.520 Delayed income credits. This account shall include delayed credit items and adjustments for which no provision has previously been made, relating to operating revenues, operating expenses, and income arising during the current year which are applicable to prior years and which are relatively so large that their inclusion in the appropriate accounts of the current year would seriously distort the accounts for the year. (See § 10.02–3 Delayed items.)

NOTE: All entries in this account shall be made in such detail as will indicate the operating-revenue, operating-expense or income accounts to which they relate.

DEBIT

§ 10.531 Railway operating expenses. This account shall include the total expenses caused by operations, as shown in the primary expense accounts provided in these regulations.

§ 10.532 Railway tax accruals. This account shall include accruals for taxes of all kinds (including Federal income tax) relating to railway property (including floating equipment, if any), operations, and privileges, whether based upon the valuation of the property, amount of stocks and bonds or other evidences of debt issued or outstanding; gross or net earnings, dividends declared, number of passengers carried, quantity of freight transported, length of line operated or owned, rolling stock operated or owned, or other basis; also taxes for issuing and recording mortgages and trust deeds and for issuing bonds or other evidences of long-term debt.

The taxes on leased property shall be included in this account by the carrier obligated to assume such expenses under the terms of the lease.

NOTE A: Taxes on leased property paid by one party to the lease and chargeable to the other party to the lease shall be charged directly to the party bearing the expense and not included in the income account of the party first making payment.

NOTE B: Taxes on other than railway property, operations, and privileges shall be charged to account 544, "Miscellaneous tax accruals," when the amount is separable from the taxes chargeable to this account.

NOTE C: Special assessments for street and other improvements, and special benefit taxes, such as water taxes and the like, shall be included in operating expense accounts or investment accounts, as may be appropriate.

NOTE D: Amounts received in reimbursement of taxes on property jointly used shall be credited to account 508, "Joint facility rent income." Amounts paid in reimbursement of such taxes shall be charged to account 541, "Joint facility rents."

NOTE E: Taxes accruing on new lines under construction or on property acquired for the extension of existing lines or for addition or betterment purposes before the facilities are opened for commercial operation or the property acquired becomes available for service shall be charged to road and equipment accounts.

§ 10.534 Expenses of miscellaneous operations. This account shall include the total expenses caused by the operation of miscellaneous physical property the cost of which is includible in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

NOTE: The expenses of miscellaneous nonoperating physical property shall be included in account 511, "Income from nonoperating property."

§ 10.535 Taxes on miscellaneous operating property. This account shall include accruals of taxes paid or payable upon miscellaneous operating property, such as that the cost of which is includible in account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

NOTE: Taxes upon miscellaneous nonoperating physical property shall be included in account 544, "Miscellaneous tax accruals."

§ 10.536 Hire of freight cars; debit balance. This account shall include, except as provided for in the classification for investment in road and equipment and in the texts of accounts 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment," and 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment," the net debit balance of (a) amounts receivable accrued for the use of the accounting company's freight cars leased or interchanged, and (b) amounts payable accrued for the use of the freight cars of others, leased or interchanged. (See § 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation.)

NOTE A: If the net balance is a credit, it shall be included in account 503, "Hire of freight cars—Credit balance."

NOTE B: Rent for freight cars included in the lease of road to the accounting company shall be included in account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment."

NOTE C: Interest accrued on equipment obligations shall be charged to account 546, "Interest on funded debt."

NOTE D: Rents paid for freight cars used in construction work-train service are chargeable to the cost of the work. (See paragraph (c) of § 10.01–4 Cost of construction.)

§ 10.537 Rent for locomotives. This account shall include amounts payable accrued for the use of the locomotives of others, leased or interchanged, except as provided for in the classification for investment in road and equipment and in the text of account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment." (See § 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation.)

NOTE A: The rent for locomotives included in the lease of road to the accounting company shall be included in account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment."

NOTE B: Interest accrued on equipment obligations shall be charged to account 546, "Interest on funded debt."

NOTE C: Rent paid for locomotives used in construction work-train service is chargeable to the cost of the work. (See paragraph (c) of § 10.01–4 Cost of construction.)

§ 10.538 Rent for passenger-train cars. This account shall include amounts payable accrued for the use of the passenger-train cars of others, leased or interchanged, except as provided for in the classification for investment in road and equipment and in the text of account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment." (See § 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation.)

NOTE A: The rent for passenger-train cars included in the lease of road to the accounting company shall be included in account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment."

NOTE B: Interest accrued on equipment obligations shall be charged to account 546, "Interest on funded debt."

§ 10.539 Rent for floating equipment. This account shall include amounts payable accrued for the use of the floating equipment of others, leased or chartered, except as provided for in the classification for investment in road and equipment and in the text of account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment." (See § 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation.)

NOTE A: The rent of floating equipment included in the lease of road to the accounting company shall be included in account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment."

NOTE B: Interest accrued on equipment obligations shall be charged to account 546, "Interest on funded debt."

§ 10.540 Rent for work equipment. This account shall include amounts payable accrued for the use of the work equipment of others, leased or interchanged, except as provided for in the classification for investment in road and equipment and in the text of account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment." (See § 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation.)

NOTE A: The rent for work equipment included in the lease of road to the accounting company shall be included in account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment."

NOTE B: Interest accrued on equipment obligations shall be charged to account 546, "Interest on funded debt."

NOTE C: Rent paid for work equipment when used in construction work-train service is chargeable to the cost of the work. (See paragraph (c) of § 10.01–4 Cost of construction.)

§ 10.541 Joint facility rents. This account shall include amounts payable accrued as rent for equipment, tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities owned or controlled by other carriers, companies, or individuals, and in the joint use of which the accounting company participates.

Amounts paid or payable by the accounting company in reimbursement for taxes on property jointly used shall be charged to this account.

NOTE: The cost of maintenance, operation, or administration of joint facilities, chargeable to the accounting company, shall be charged to the various joint facility accounts provided for operating expenses. When the compensation for the use of joint facilities is a fixed amount or is based upon a charge per passenger, ton, car, or other unit, it shall be fairly apportioned between this account and the appropriate joint facility operating expense accounts. This apportionment shall be made by the operating company, and shall be followed by the accounting company.

§ 10.542 Rent for leased roads and equipment. This account shall include amounts payable accrued as rent for roads, tracks, or bridges (including equipment or other railway property covered by the contract) the property being owned by other companies and held under lease or other agreement by the terms of which exclusive use and control for operating purposes are secured. The entire amount of rent payable by the lessee in accordance with the agreement shall be included in this account, whether paid to the lessor in cash or disbursed by the lessee, on behalf of the lessor, as interest on funded debt, guaranteed dividends on stock, or otherwise. (See § 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation.)

NOTE A: When taxes on leased property are assumed by the lessee the accruals of such taxes shall be included in the lessee's account 532, "Railway tax accruals."

NOTE B: If, under the terms of a lease, the deficit or any portion of it resulting from the lessee's operation of the property leased is payable by the lessor company, the amount shall be charged to account 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment," by the lessor and credited to this account by the lessee.

NOTE C: If property, the rent of which is chargeable to this account, is sublet by the accounting company to others, the rent from the sublease shall be credited to account 509, "Income from lease of road and equipment."

NOTE D: Payments for the exclusive use of road and equipment maintained by the lessor and used in the accounting company's operations (when considerable in amount and when not provided for in the classifications of operating expenses) shall be divided into two portions: One, representing cost of maintenance shall be charged to the appropriate maintenance accounts and the other, representing rent (amount applicable to the investment in the property), shall be charged to this account.

NOTE E: When specific charges against the lessee are made by the lessor for repairs of equipment which is actually maintained by it the amount of such charges shall be appropriately credited by the lessor to its equipment repair accounts and charged by the lessee to the corresponding accounts.

§ 10.543 Miscellaneous rents. This account shall include rents payable accrued on property held by the accounting company under lease or other agreement and not properly chargeable to any of the foregoing accounts.

NOTE A: This account shall not include rents provided for in the operating expense accounts.

NOTE B: If property, the rent of which is chargeable to this account, is sublet by the accounting company to others, the rent from the sublease shall be credited to account 510, "Miscellaneous rent income."

NOTE C: Payments for the exclusive use of miscellaneous property maintained by the lessor and used by the accounting company shall be divided into two portions: One, representing the cost of maintenance, shall be charged to the appropriate operating accounts, and the other, representing rent (amount applicable to the investment in the property), shall be charged to this account. The bill rendered by the creditor shall show the distribution of the payments as between maintenance and rent, and such distribution shall be adhered to by the debtor.

§ 10.544 Miscellaneous tax accruals. This account shall include all accruals for taxes not provided for elsewhere, such as taxes on securities owned, taxes on income from securities owned, and taxes on miscellaneous nonoperating physical property the cost of which is includible in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

NOTE A: When the proper separation of any particular tax is not ascertainable the entire amount shall be included in account 532, "Railway tax accruals."

NOTE B: Taxes upon miscellaneous operating property shall be charged to account 535, "Taxes on miscellaneous operating property."

§ 10.545 Separately operated properties; loss. This account shall include amounts payable under the terms of agreements or contracts whereby the deficit resulting from the operation by others of properties of other companies having a separate corporate existence is to be paid, in whole or in part, by the accounting company.

In determining the amount payable by the accounting company, consideration shall be given not only to the operating revenues and operating expenses, but also to other items of income or deductions which affect that amount.

NOTE A: The amount receivable by the operating company shall be credited by it to account 518, "Contributions from other companies."

NOTE B: Dividends or other returns upon securities issued by separately operated companies and held or controlled by the accounting company shall not be included in this account to offset a deficit payable, but in accounts 513, "Dividend income"; or 514, "Interest income," as may be appropriate.

§ 10.546 Interest on funded debt. This account shall include the current accruals of interest on all classes of long-term debt, the principal of which is includible in account 755, "Funded debt unmatured"; 755½, "Debt in default"; 756, "Receivers' and trustees' securities"; 756½, "Equipment obligations"; and 757, "Amounts payable to affiliated companies," also interest accruals on debenture stock. This account shall be kept in such form that the interest on debenture stock, on receivers' and trustees' securities, and on other classes of funded debt may be shown separately in the annual report to the Commission.

NOTE A: This account shall not include charges for interest on funded debt obligations issued or assumed by the accounting company and owned by it, whether pledged as collateral or held in its treasury, in special deposits, or in sinking or other reserve funds. (See account 552, "Income applied to sinking and other reserve funds.")

NOTE B: When funded debt is incurred for new lines or extensions, or for addition and betterment purposes, the accruals of interest on such funded debt (less interest received on unexpended balances), to the date of completion or coming into service of the property so acquired shall be included in the road and equipment accounts.

NOTE C: This account shall be maintained so as to show separately: (a) fixed interest which will be paid, or for which provision for payment will be made, when the interest matures; (b) interest in default; and (c) contingent interest determined to be payable.

§ 10.547 Interest on unfunded debt. This account shall include interest accrued on unfunded debt, such as short-term notes payable on demand or having dates of maturity one year or less from dates of issue, and open accounts including discount and expense on demand and short-term loans, interest on receipts outstanding for installments paid on capital stock, interest on deferred payments for public improvements, and other analogous items. The discount on short-term notes, if of a considerable amount, shall be distributed through equal monthly charges, over the term of the notes.

NOTE: When short-term notes or other evidences of unfunded indebtedness are issued for new lines or extensions or for addition and betterment purposes the accrual of interest to the date of completion or coming into service of the property shall be included in the road and equipment accounts.

§ 10.548 Amortization of discount on funded debt. This account shall be charged during each fiscal period with the proportion of the discount and expense on funded debt obligations applicable to that period. This proportion shall be determined according to a rule the uniform application of which through the interval between the date of sale and the date of maturity will extinguish the discount and expense on funded debt. The charge to this account for any period must not be either greater or less than the proportion of the balance remaining unamortized applicable to that period so long as any portion of the discount and expense remains unextinguished, except that if the total discount and expense applicable to any particular issue of securities does not exceed $25,000, the entire amount may be charged to this account at time of issue. (See § 10.08–3 Discount expense and premium on funded debt.)

§ 10.549 Maintenance of investment organization. This account shall include the directly assignable organization and administration expenses of the accounting company which are incident to its investments in leased or nonoperating physical property, and in stocks, bonds, or other securities.

ITEMS OF EXPENSE

Advertising annual reports (lessor companies only).
Calls for bonds in accordance with sinking fund provisions of mortgages.
Directors' fees.
Printing and mailing dividend checks.
Publishing and mailing annual reports and other corporate statements to shareholders.
Publishing notices of declaration of dividends.
Law expenses.
Office expenses.
Salaries of officers, clerks, and attendants.
Stationery and printing.

NOTE: Organization and administration expenses incident to railway operation are provided for in operating expense general account 450, "General."

§ 10.550 Income transferred to other companies. This account shall include the whole or any portion of the income of the accounting company payable to another company under the terms of agreements or contracts without obligation for reimbursement.

In determining the amount payable by the accounting company, consideration shall be given not only to operating revenues and operating expenses, but also to other items of income or deduction which affect that amount.

NOTE A: The amount receivable by the other company shall be credited by it to account 512, "Separately operated properties—Profit."

NOTE B: Dividends or other payments upon securities issued or assumed by the accounting company shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.551 Miscellaneous income charges. This account shall include interest charges not provided for elsewhere, such as interest on tax deficiencies, overcharge claims, and court awards; also income tax upon the interest on the accounting company's funded debt when assumed by it; and other income deductions not provided for elsewhere.

§ 10.552 Income applied to sinking and other reserve funds. This account shall include amounts applied to sinking and other reserve funds from income, whether definite appropriations from income; allotments or payments of definite amounts from income under the terms of mortgages, deeds of trust, or other contracts that provide for such allotments or payments; or accretions representing interest or other returns accrued on the contents of such funds and required to be retained therein.

NOTE A: The amounts charged to this account shall be concurrently credited to account 785, "Earned surplus—Appropriated."

NOTE B: Similar appropriations made from surplus shall be charged to profit and loss account 613, "Surplus applied to sinking and other reserve funds."

§ 10.553 Dividend appropriations of income. This account shall include amounts definitely declared payable from the income of the fiscal period, as dividends on actually outstanding capital stock issued or assumed by the accounting company, other than debenture stock. (See definition of the several classes of capital stock in balance-sheet account 751, "Capital stock.") If a dividend is not payable in cash the consideration shall be described in the entry with sufficient particularity to identify it.

This account shall be subdivided so as to show separately the dividends on the various subclasses of capital stock.

NOTE A: Interest accrued on debenture stock shall be charged to account 546, "Interest on funded debt."

NOTE B: This account shall not include charges for dividends on capital stock issued or assumed by the accounting company and owned by it, whether pledged as collateral, or held in its treasury, in special deposits, or in sinking or other reserve funds. (See account 552, "Income applied to sinking and other reserve funds.")

NOTE C: This account shall be used when the appropriations are definitely made chargeable to income. Similar appropriations made from surplus shall be charged to profit and loss account 614, "Dividend appropriations of surplus."

§ 10.554 Income appropriated for investment in physical property. This account shall include amounts definitely appropriated from income to be applied for the construction or acquisition of new lines and extensions and of additions to and betterments of property the cost of which is chargeable to road and equipment accounts or applied for the construction or acquisition of property the cost of which is includible in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

Records of the accounting carrier shall be so kept that the appropriations charged to this account for any fiscal period may be distinguished as relating to (a) amounts expended during preceding fiscal periods, (b) amounts expended during the current fiscal period, and (c) amounts held in reserve.

The records shall also show separately appropriations for investment in road and equipment and for investment in miscellaneous physical property.

NOTE A: Similar appropriations made from surplus shall be charged to profit and loss account 615, "Surplus appropriated for investment in physical property."

NOTE B: The amounts charged to this account shall be concurrently credited to account 785, "Earned surplus—Appropriated."

§ 10.555 Stock discount extinguished through income. This account shall include amounts definitely appropriated from income to reduce or extinguish the amount of discount on capital stock issued by the accounting company. (See balance-sheet account 754, "Discount on capital stock.")

NOTE: Similar appropriations made from surplus shall be charged to profit and loss account 616, "Stock discount extinguished through surplus."

§ 10.556 Miscellaneous appropriations of income. Except as provided in account 552, "Income applied to sinking and other reserve funds," this account shall include amounts definitely appropriated from income for the discharge of the principal (less the discount, if any, suffered at the time of sale) of any indebtedness incurred in the acquisition or improvement of property carried in the road and equipment accounts; also amounts similarly appropriated to provide a reserve for doubtful accounts, and for other purposes not provided for elsewhere.

NOTE A: Similar appropriations made from surplus shall be charged to profit and loss account 618, "Miscellaneous appropriations of surplus."

NOTE B: The amounts charged to this account shall be concurrently credited to account 785, "Earned surplus—Appropriated."

§ 10.557 Delayed income debits. This account shall include delayed debit items and adjustments for which no provision has previously been made, relating to operating revenues, operating expenses, and income arising during the current year which are applicable to prior years, and which are relatively so large that their inclusion in the appropriate accounts of the current year would seriously distort the accounts for the year. (See § 10.02–3 Delayed items.)

NOTE: All entries in this account shall be made in such detail as will indicate the operating-revenue, operating-expense or income accounts to which they relate.

§ 10.560 Form of income statement. The classified form of income statement is designed to show the financial changes resulting from transportation operations and other business of the accounting company during any specified period.

PROFIT AND LOSS

§ 10.07 Special instructions. This group of accounts forms the connecting link between the income accounts and general balance sheet account 786, "Earned surplus — Unappropriated." They are designed to show the changes in earned surplus during each fiscal period as affected by the balance of the income accounts as reported for the period; by any disposition of earned surplus made at the option of the carrier; and by miscellaneous gains and losses not accounted for elsewhere.

PROFIT AND LOSS ACCOUNTS

CREDIT

§ 10.601 Credit balance (at beginning of calendar year). This account shall include the net credit balance in the earned surplus account at the beginning of the calendar year.

§ 10.602 Credit balance transferred from income. This account shall show the net credit balance brought forward from the income account for the calendar year.

§ 10.607 Miscellaneous credits. This account shall include amounts, not provided for elsewhere, transferred from other accounts to profit and loss, and amounts representing increases of resources not properly assignable to the income accounts. Among the items which shall be included in this account are:

Adjustments or cancellations of balance-sheet accounts, relating to profit and loss accounts.

Cancellation of balance-sheet accounts representing unclaimed wages and vouchered accounts written off because of carrier's inability to locate the creditor.

Profit from the sale of land carried in account 701, "Road and equipment property" (see § 10.01–10 Land retired).

Profit derived from the sale of investment securities.

Profit derived from the sale of property carried in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

Credits resulting from adjustments required to bring to par funded debt securities issued or assumed by the accounting company and reacquired at a cost less than the par value.

Unreleased premiums on funded debt reacquired before maturity (see § 10.08–3 Discount, expense, and premium on funded debt).

Collection of old accounts previously written off to profit and loss.

DEBIT

§ 10.611 Debit balance (at beginning of calendar year). This account shall include the net debit balance in the earned surplus account at the beginning of the calendar year.

§ 10.612 Debit balance transferred from income. This account shall show the net debit balance brought forward from the income account for the calendar year.

§ 10.613 Surplus applied to sinking and other reserve funds. This account shall include amounts definitely appropriated from earned surplus and applied to sinking and other reserve funds; and allotments or payments of definite amounts from earned surplus into sinking and other reserve funds under the terms of mortgages, deeds of trust, or other contracts that provide for such allotments or payments.

NOTE A: The amounts charged to this account shall be concurrently credited to account 785, "Earned surplus—Appropriated."

NOTE B: Similiar appropriations made from income shall be charged to income account 552, "Income applied to sinking and other reserve funds."

§ 10.614 Dividend appropriations of surplus. This account shall include amounts definitely declared payable from earned surplus as dividends on actually outstanding capital stock issued or assumed by the accounting company, other than debenture stock. (See definition of the several classes of capital stock in balance-sheet account 751, "Capital stock.") If a dividend is not payable in cash the consideration shall be described in the entry with sufficient particularity to identify it.

This account shall be subdivided so as to show separately the dividends on the various subclasses of capital stock.

NOTE A: Interest accrued on debenture stock shall be charged to income account 546, "Interest on funded debt."

NOTE B: This account shall not include charges for dividends on capital stock issued or assumed by the accounting company and owned by it, whether pledged as collateral or held in its treasury, in special deposits, or in sinking or other reserve funds. (See account 613, "Surplus applied to sinking and other reserve funds.")

NOTE C: Similar appropriations made from income shall be charged to income account 553, "Dividend appropriations of income."

§ 10.615 Surplus appropriated for investment in physical property. This account shall include amounts definitely appropriated from earned surplus, to be applied for the construction or acquisition of new lines and extensions and of additions to and betterments of property the cost of which is includible in the road and equipment accounts or applied for the construction, acquisition, or improvement of property the cost of which is includible in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

Records of the accounting carrier shall be so kept that the appropriations charged to this account for any fiscal period may be distinguished as relating to (a) amounts expended during preceding fiscal periods, (b) amounts expended during the current fiscal period, and (c) amounts held in reserve.

NOTE A: Similar appropriations made from income shall be charged to income account 554, "Income appropriated for investment in physical property."

NOTE B: The amounts charged to this account shall be concurrently credited to account 785, "Earned surplus—Appropriated."

§ 10.616 Stock discount extinguished through surplus. This account shall include amounts definitely appropriated from earned surplus to reduce or extinguish the amount of discount on capital stock issued by the accounting company. (See § 10.08–2 Discount, premium, and assessment on capital stock.)

NOTE: Similar appropriations made from income shall be charged to income account 555, "Stock discount extinguished through income."

§ 10.618 Miscellaneous appropriations of surplus. This account shall include amounts definitely appropriated from earned surplus to provide a reserve for doubtful accounts and, except as provided in account 613, "Surplus applied to sinking and other reserve funds," for the discharge of the principal (less the discount, if any, suffered at the time of sale) of any indebtedness incurred in the acquisition or improvement of property carried in the road and equipment accounts; also other amounts appropriated from surplus and not provided for elsewhere.

NOTE A: Similar appropriations made from income shall be charged to income account 556, "Miscellaneous appropriations of income."

NOTE B: The amounts charged to this account shall be concurrently credited to account 785, "Earned surplus—Appropriated."

§ 10.621 Miscellaneous debits. This account shall include amounts, not provided for elsewhere, chargeable to profit and loss from other accounts, amounts written off in consequence of adjustments, and payments not properly chargeable to the income accounts. Among the items which shall be charged to this account are:

Adjustments or cancellations of balance-sheet accounts, relating to profit and loss accounts,

Losses resulting from the sale of investment securities,

Losses resulting from the sale, destruction, or abandonment of property carried in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property,"

Debits resulting from adjustments required to bring to par funded debt securities issued or assumed by the accounting company and reacquired at a cost exceeding the par value,

Adjustments of the difference between the ledger value of land credited to account 701, "Road and equipment property," and the estimated value thereof charged to account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property" (see § 10.01–10 Land retired),

Loss from the sale of land carried in account 701, "Road and equipment property" (see § 10.01–10 Land retired),

Discount on capital stock remaining unextinguished at the time of its reacquisition, resale, or retirement if in excess of the pro rata portion includible in unearned surplus,

Unextinguished discounts on funded debt reacquired before maturity,

Payments of old accounts previously written off to profit and loss,

Penalties and fines for violation of the Interstate Commerce Act, or other Federal laws, when not specifically provided for elsewhere.

GENERAL BALANCE SHEET

§ 10.08–1 Balance sheet accounts. Balance sheet accounts are intended to disclose the financial condition of the carrier as of a given date by showing the assets, liabilities, capital stock, and related items and surplus or deficit of the carrier.

§ 10.08–2 Discount, premium, and assessment on capital stock. Separate ledger accounts shall be provided for each subclass of capital stock issued or assumed by the accounting company to cover discount suffered and premium realized at the sale or resale of capital stock. General levies or assessments against stockholders shall be credited to the appropriate ledger accounts for the subclass of capital stock against which the levy or assessment is made.

The total of net debit balances in these ledger accounts shall be included in account 754, "Discount on capital stock," and the total of net credit balances in account 753, "Premiums and assessments on capital stock."

By the term "discount" is meant the excess of the par value of stocks issued or assumed, plus dividends declared and accrued at the date of sale, over the money value of the consideration received at their sale.

By the term "premium" is meant the excess of the money value of the consideration received at the sale of stocks over the sum of their par value and dividends declared and accrued at the date of sale.

Discount on each subclass of capital stock may be offset or reduced by charges to account 753, "Premiums and assessments on capital stock," to the extent that net gains from premiums or assessments have been included therein or to subaccount 784.1, "Paid-in surplus," to the extent that net gains from reacquisition and resale or retirement of capital stock applicable to such subclass have been included therein. Any remaining discount may be amortized by charges to account 555, "Stock discount extinguished through income"; account 616, "Stock discount extinguished through surplus"; or discount may be retained and carried in account 754, "Discount on capital stock," until the stock to which the discount applies is retired.

In case the accounting company is permitted and elects with the approval of the Commission, to distribute all or any part of the net balance of paid-in surplus to its stockholders, the amount thus distributed shall be charged to subaccount 784.1, "Paid-in surplus."

When an issue of capital stock, or any part thereof, is reacquired either by purchase or through donations by shareholders, and is not canceled, it shall be charged at its par value or if stock without par value at the proportionate amount at which the particular class of stock is included in account 751, "Capital stock," account 703, "Sinking funds"; 704, "Capital and other reserve funds"; 721, "Insurance and other funds"; 728, "Securities issued or assumed—Unpledged"; or 729, "Securities issued or assumed—Pledged," as may be appropriate.

The difference between the amount at which such reacquired stock was recorded in account 751, "Capital stock," and the amount paid by the accounting company for such stock, including any premium or discount applicable to such subclass carried in account 753, "Premiums and assessment on capital stock," or in account 754, "Discount on capital stock," and the commissions and expense in connection with its reacquisition shall be included in subaccount 784.1, "Paid-in surplus"; Provided, however, That the excess of a debit over the amount of accumulated net gains applicable to such subclass included in paid-in surplus shall be charged to account 621, "Miscellaneous debits."

When reacquired capital stock is resold the difference between the amount at which such stock is included in a particular asset account and the net sale price realized when resold shall be included in subaccount 784.1, "Paid-in surplus"; Provided, however, That the excess of a debit over the amount of accumulated net gains applicable to each subclass of capital stock resold included in paid-in surplus shall be charged to account 621, "Miscellaneous debits."

In no case shall discount on capital stock be charged to or included in any account as a part of the cost of acquiring property or as a part of the cost of operation.

§ 10.08–3 Discount, expense, and premium on funded debt. Ledger accounts shall be provided to cover the discounts, expense, and premiums at the sale or resale of each subclass of funded debt and of receivers' and trustees' securities issued for the benefit of or assumed by the company. For explanation of "subclass" see account 755. "Funded debt unmatured."

By the term "discount" is meant the excess of the par value of funded debt securities (of whatever kind) issued or assumed, and the accrued interest thereon, over the actual cash value of the consideration received for such securities.

By the term "premium" is meant the excess of the actual cash value of the consideration received for funded debt securities (of whatever kind) issued or assumed over the par value of such securities and the accrued interest thereon.

By the term "expense" is meant all expense in connection with the issue and sale of evidences of debt, such as fees for drafting mortgages and trust deeds; fees for issuing or recording mortgages and trust deeds; cost of engraving and printing bonds, certificates of indebtedness, and other negotiable paper having a life of more than one year; fees paid trustees provided for in mortgages and trust deeds; fees paid for legal services to trustees relative to mortgage securities; fees and commissions paid underwriters and brokers for marketing such evidences of debt; and other like expense except taxes for issuing or recording mortgages and trust deeds and for issuing bonds or other evidences of long term debt which shall be charged to account 532, "Railway tax accruals."

The total of the net debit balances remaining in these several accounts should be included in account 725, "Discount on funded debt," and the total of the net credit balances in account 772, "Premium on funded debt."

Each fiscal period there shall be charged to income account 548, "Amortization of discount on funded debt," a proportion (based upon the ratio of such fiscal period to the remaining life of the respective securities reckoned from the beginning of the period to the date of maturity of the debt to which the charges relate) of each of the debit balances in these accounts, and correspondingly there shall be credited to income account 517, "Release of premiums on funded debt," a similar proportion of each of the credit balances in these accounts. When the total discount and expense applicable to any particular issue of securities does not exceed $25,000, carriers may charge the entire amount to account 548, "Amortization of discount on funded debt," at time of issue.

When any funded debt which has been actually issued to bona fide holders for value is reacquired by the accounting company, that proportion of the balance remaining in the accounts containing discount, expense, and premium on funded debt for the subclass of the security reacquired applicable to the portion reacquired shall be credited or charged thereto, as may be appropriate, and concurrently charged or credited to profit and loss. Such proportion shall be based upon the ratio of the par value of the security reacquired to the par value of all the securities of the subclass actually outstanding immediately before such reacquirement.

In case, however, the premium realized or discount suffered at the prior sale of the securities reacquired has been included (in excess of the amount authorized in the text of road and equipment account 76, "Interest during construction") in an asset account other than the premiums and discounts account, such asset account shall be concurrently adjusted through profit and loss to the extent of such excess of the premium or discount previously included therein with respect to the securities reacquired.

Except as provided for in road and equipment account 76, "Interest during construction," no discount and expense on funded debt shall be charged to or included in any account as a part of the cost of acquiring any property, tangible or intangible, or as a part of the cost of operation.

§ 10.08–4 Contingent assets and liabilities. Contingent assets and liabilities shall not be included in the body of the balance-sheet statement, but shall be shown in detail in a supplementary statement accompanying the balance-sheet statement. Contingent assets are those without value to the accounting company until the fulfillment of conditions regarded as uncertain. Contingent liabilities include items which may, under certain conditions, become obligations of the company, but are neither direct nor assumed obligations on the date of the balance sheet.

§ 10.08–5 Book value of securities owned. (a) The investment in securities other than those issued or assumed by the accounting company shall be recorded in these accounts at the money value, at the time of acquisition, of the consideration given therefor by the accounting company, but excluding amounts paid for accrued interest and accrued dividends. The accounting company shall write down the ledger value of any securities to the extent of impairment in their value. Fluctuations in market value shall not be recorded however. Securities shall be written down to reflect anticipated loss in value or written off entirely if there be no reasonable prospect of realizing any value whatever therefrom. Adjustments in the ledger values of securities shall not be delayed beyond the year in which a loss is claimed for income tax purposes. In accordance with paragraph (c) of this section carriers may create reserves from surplus to cover such reductions in value. Under no circumstances shall the investment in the securities be stated in these accounts at an amount in excess of their cost to the accounting company.

(b) The amount of the adjustment shall be charged to account 621, "Miscellaneous debits."

(c) Carriers may create reserves from surplus to provide for depreciation in the value of securities owned and recorded in accounts 706, "Investments in affiliated companies," and 707, "Other investments," by charges to account 621, "Miscellaneous debits." See account 707½, "Reserve for adjustment of investment in securities."

§ 10.08–6 Income from sinking fund assets. Accrued interest on uninvested sinking fund cash on deposit in banks or trust companies, and accrued interest and other income arising from stocks, bonds, or other assets held in sinking and reserve funds shall be credited to account 516, "Income from sinking and other reserve funds," and when required by the mortgage or other provision to be held in the funds shall be charged, according to the character of the funds, to account 703, "Sinking funds," or to account 721, "Insurance and other funds," and concurrently, if a reserve is required, an equal amount shall be charged to income account 552, "Income applied to sinking and other reserve funds," and credited to account 785, "Earned surplus—appropriated."

§ 10.08–7 Current assets. In the group of accounts designated as current assets (accounts 708 to 719, inclusive) shall be included cash, those assets which are readily convertible into cash or are held for current use in operations, current claims against others and amounts accruing to the carrier which are subject to current settlement. There shall not be included in this group of accounts any item the collection of which is not reasonably assured by the known financial condition of the debtor. Items of current character but of doubtful value previously credited to operating revenue, operating expense or income accounts shall be written down or written off by charging those accounts. If there has been any impairment in value, such items shall be included in account 722, "Other deferred assets," at an amount not in excess of a reasonable estimate of future value. If it is desired to retain a record of assets written off they shall be recorded at a nominal value in account 722, "Other deferred assets."

§ 10.08–8 Joint liabilities. The accounting company shall state as a liability in its balance sheet the difference between the total par value of securities jointly or severally issued by it and others and the portion of such liability which, under the joint arrangement, it is expected will be liquidated by the other party or parties to the joint arrangement. The amount of the jointly or severally issued securities it is expected will be liquidated by the other party or parties shall be shown as a contingent liability in accordance with § 10.08-4 Contingent assets and liabilities.

§ 10.08-9 Surplus. Records shall be maintained in such manner as to show two major divisions of surplus:

1. Unearned surplus.
2. Earned surplus.

Unearned surplus and earned surplus shall be segregated and clearly differentiated, and no transfer shall be made from the former to the latter, either directly by credits to earned surplus representing gains on transactions in the accounting company's own capital stock, or indirectly by charges against unearned surplus to cover losses, write-downs, chargeoffs, or dividend distributions unless specifically allowed and approved by the Commission.

The carrier shall maintain account 784, "Unearned surplus"; account 785, "Earned surplus—appropriated"; and account 786, "Earned surplus—unappropriated." Surplus shall be segregated so far as practicable, into "Unearned surplus," "Earned surplus—appropriated," and "Earned surplus—unappropriated," and any unsegregated balance shall be included in a subaccount under account 786, "Earned surplus—unappropriated."

GENERAL BALANCE SHEET ACCOUNTS

DEBIT

§ 10.701 Road and equipment property. This account, except in connection with the acquisition of transportation property as provided for in accounts 701½A, "Acquisition adjustment" and 702½B, "Donations and grants," shall include the acounting company's investment in road and equipment (including that held under contract for purchase), used or held for use as transportation property in existence at the date of the balance sheet.

When property is retired from service this account shall be credited with the ledger value of the property retired. (See § 10.01-6 Items to be credited.)

NOTE A: This account shall not include any items representing titles to securities.

NOTE B: When any equipment is acquired under an agreement which provides that the cost shall be paid in installments, the cost (its money value at time of purchase) shall be charged to the appropriate road and equipment accounts at the time the equipment is delivered to the carrier, and included in this account in the same manner as the cost of equipment purchased outright. When the par value of notes or other securities issued in payment, or in part payment, for such equipment is more (or less) than the actual cash value of the equipment at the time of the purchase, or of the proportion to which the securities are applicable, the difference between the par value of the securities and the actual cash value of the equipment, or of the proportion paid for by the securities, shall be charged (or credited) to the proper discount and premium accounts.

NOTE C: Held for use, as referred to above, implies the ability of the carrier to substantiate by plans or policy its characterization of the probable future use which is to be made of the property within a reasonable period of time.

§ 10.702 Improvements on leased property. This account, except in connection with the acquisition of transportation property as provided for in accounts 702½A, "Acquisition adjustment" and 702½B, "Donations and grants," shall include the cost of improvements made by the lessee to property which is held under lease from others or through control of the company owning the property, where such improvements are used by the lessee in transportation service, and the lessee is not to be reimbursed by the lessor for such improvements.

When the cost of improvements made by the lessee is to be refunded by the lessor periodically during the term of the lease agreement or at the termination thereof, and provided further that in the meantime the lessor company does not include the cost of such improvements in account 701, "Road and equipment property," the lessee shall include the cost thereof in this account.

When leased property is retired from service this account shall be credited with the ledger value of any improvements thereto the cost of which has been included in this account, and also with the amount representing the liability of the carrier to the lessor or owner for any property retired that has been used in transportation service and was held under lease or through control of the company owning the property.

The carrier's records shall be kept in such manner as to show the debits and credits to this account in accordance with the provisions for road and equipment.

NOTE A: This account shall not include any items representing titles to securities.

NOTE B: When the lessor company includes in account 701, "Road and equipment property," the cost of improvements made by the lessee to property leased by it from the lessor and settlement is not made at the time for the cost thereof, the lessee, pending settlement with the lessor, shall include the cost thereof in account 706, "Investments in affiliated companies," or 707, "Other investments," as may be appropriate.

§ 10.702½A Acquisition adjustment. This account shall be charged with the cost of a railway or portion thereof acquired since January 1, 1938, as an operating entity or system by purchase, merger, consolidation, reorganization, receivership sale or transfer, or otherwise. If the consideration or a part thereof given for the property acquired consists of securities issued by the accounting carrier, the cash value thereof for the purpose of determining the cost to be charged to this account shall be the sum of the par value of securities having par values and the stated or assigned values of no par securities as determined and approved by the Commission. Where the consideration given for the property acquired is other than cash or securities issued by the accounting carrier, such consideration shall be valued on a current cash basis.

The accounting for assets acquired and liabilities assumed shall then be as follows:

(a) Assets acquired, except property includible in accounts 701, "Road and equipment property," or 702, "Improvements on leased property," and liabilities assumed shall be recorded in their appropriate accounts in the manner provided for in classification of general balance sheet accounts.

(b) Property includible in primary road and equipment accounts 1 and 2½ to 58, inclusive, and 72 to 77, inclusive, shall be recorded in those accounts at original cost or estimated original cost as found by the Bureau of Valuation.

(c) In the primary road and equipment account 2, there shall be recorded the original cost of lands owned by predecessor carrier or carriers at basic valuation date as reported under Valuation Order No. 7, dated November 21, 1914, and included in the Commission's basic valuation reports. Any lands so reported without cost except those donated shall be estimated by the accounting company, which will be subject to verification by the Bureau of Valuation. To this shall be added the cost at the time of dedication to public use of any lands acquired since the basic valuation date.

(d) In the primary road and equipment account 71, there shall be recorded the expenditures incident to the organization or reorganization of the accounting company.

(e) The money outlay expended by a predecessor carrier or carriers for additions and betterments to property leased from other companies whose physical properties are not included in the reorganization, shall be transferred to account 702, "Improvements on leased property," in the amounts recorded in that account on the books of the predecessor carrier or carriers.

(f) The amounts thus recorded in primary accounts 1 to 77, inclusive, shall be concurrently charged to balance sheet accounts 701, "Road and equipment property," or 702, "Improvements on leased property," as appropriate.

(g) Balances in accounts 702½C, "Accrued depreciation—Road," 702½D, "Accrued depreciation—Equipment," and 779, "Accrued depreciation—Leased property," carried on the books of the predecessor carrier or carriers as of the date of acquisition or reorganization shall be carried over and recorded in the respective accounts on the books of the accounting company. To the extent that a credit balance is available in this account, the accounting company shall credit account 702½C, "Accrued depreciation—Road," and charge this account with the estimated amount by which the balance in account 702½C, "Accrued depreciation—Road," appears to be deficient with respect to past accrued depreciation on depreciable road property included in account 701, "Road and equipment property."

(h) This account shall concurrently be debited or credited, as appropriate, to offset assets and liability items recorded in accordance with paragraphs (a) to (g) of this section.

(i) To the extent that a credit balance is available in this account if so authorized upon application to the Interstate Commerce Commision, retirement of nondepreciable property in existence at the date of acquisition or reorganization which is not replaced may be charged hereto if the loss is not assignable to operations subsequent to date of acquisition or reorganization. Other charges to this account may be made upon specific approval by the Commission.

NOTE: The accounting company shall be prepared to furnish the Interstate Commerce Commission with a full report of the contract of organization and a statement showing in detail the consideration given for the property acquired. It shall procure in connection with the organization all existing records, memoranda and accounts in possession or control of the grantor relating to construction and improvement of the property acquired and shall preserve such records, memoranda and accounts until authorized by law to destroy or otherwise dispose of them.

Where the records, memoranda and accounts are so involved with other records, memoranda and accounts of the grantor as to make this transfer impracticable, certified copies shall be procured and retained by the accounting company; the verity of the copies should be certified by the custodian of the originals.

§ 10.702½B Donations and grants. This account shall be credited with grants obtained from governmental agencies, and with donations from individuals and others in connection with the construction or acquisition of property the cost of which is chargeable to accounts 701, "Road and equipment property," and 702, "Improvements on leased property." (See "Cost," under paragraph (c) of § 10.01-2 Items to be charged.)

§ 10.702½C Accrued depreciation; road. (a) This account shall be credited with amounts concurrently charged to operating expenses or other accounts to cover the loss in service value of depreciable road property; also with any balance in account 776, "Accrued depreciation—Road and equipment," as of December 31, 1944, for depreciation of road property. It shall also include amounts which the Commission may authorize the accounting company to credit to account 607, "Miscellaneous credits," or charge to account 621, "Miscellaneous debits," or to account 702½A, "Acquisition adjustment," in respect to past accruals of depreciation.

(b) At the time of the retirement of each unit of equipment this account shall be charged with the entire service value of the unit retired or minor item retired and not replaced.

(c) For balance sheet purposes, this account shall be treated as a single composite reserve for equipment. However, for purposes of analysis, the accounting company shall maintain subsidiary records in which this reserve is broken down into components corresponding to the primary accounts for equipment. These subsidiary records shall show the current debits and credits to this reserve by primary accounts. (See § 10.04-24 Depreciation accounting; equipment.)

§ 10.702½E Accrued amortization of defense projects; road. This account shall be credited with amounts charged to account 270½, "Road—Amortization of defense projects," to cover the amortization of road property, the cost of which is included in account 701, "Road and equipment property," or account 702, "Improvements on leased property." (See also Note B to account 270½.) This account shall be charged with the credit balance herein applicable to specific road property at the time the property is retired.

§ 10.702½F Accrued amortization of defense projects; equipment. This account shall be credited with amounts charged to account 331½, "Equipment—Amortization of defense projects," to cover the amortization of equipment, the cost of which is included in account 701, "Road and equipment property," or account 702, "Improvements on leased property." (See also Note B to account 331½.) This account shall be charged with the credit balance herein applicable to specific equipment at the time the equipment is retired.

§ 10.703 Sinking funds. This account shall include the amount of cash, the ledger value of live securities of other companies, and other assets which are held by trustees of sinking and other funds for the purpose of redeeming outstanding obligations, including such assets so held in the hands of the accounting company's treasurer when the assets are segregated in a distinct fund; also amounts deposited with such trustees on account of mortgaged property sold the proceeds of which are to be held for the redemption of securities, and the par value or with respect to no par stock, the amounts recorded in account 751, "Capital stock," relating thereto, of live securities issued or assumed by the accounting company and held in such funds. A separate account shall be kept for each fund. The title of each such account shall designate the obligation in support of which the fund is created.

NOTE: In stating the balance sheet in the annual reports to the Commission the total amount of the funds and the par value or with respect to no par stock, the amounts recorded in account 751, "Capital stock," relating thereto, of securities issued or assumed by the accounting company and held in the funds shall be shown in the short columns, and the net amount of the funds (total amount less securities issued or assumed) shall be shown in the long column.

§ 10.704 Capital and other reserve funds. This account shall include the amounts of cash and the ledger value of other assets segregated for capital purposes other than sinking funds. A separate account shall be kept for each fund.

(a) The account shall be charged with:

(1) Funds that have been realized from the sale of equipment obligations and other long-term obligations and that have not been applied toward the specific purposes for which the obligations were incurred;

(2) Funds deposited with trustees to be held until mortgaged property sold is replaced;

(3) The ledger value of assets held by trustees, or by the accounting company's treasurer when segregated in a distinct fund or funds, which have been set aside in accordance with governmental, mortgage, or contractual requirements in connection with reorganizations or otherwise.

(b) The account shall be credited with:

(1) Direct expenditures from the funds;

(2) Amounts transferred to sinking funds;

(3) The ledger value of assets of the character indicated in paragraph (a) (3) of this section, by transfer to the appropriate current asset account, when the assets are definitely assigned in advance of expenditure to the payment of interest or other recorded current liabilities.

NOTE A: An appropriate record shall be maintained with respect to securities issued or assumed by the accounting company and held in the funds, identifying those that are nominally issued or nominally outstanding.

NOTE B: Funds specifically set aside for sinking fund purposes shall be included in account 703, "Sinking funds." If one purpose of a capital fund is to provide contributions to a sinking fund under specified conditions, the entire amount of the fund shall be included in this account until the contributions to the sinking fund are made, at which time the amounts thereof shall be transferred to account 703, "Sinking funds."

§ 10.704½ Maintenance funds. This account shall be charged with the amounts of cash on special deposit and the cost of United States Treasury securities that have been set aside to be held by the accounting company's treasurer until disbursed in settlement of charges incurred for deferred maintenance of way and structures and equipment due to priorities of material and supplies or shortage of labor, also charges incurred for major repairs to equipment that are usually made at intervals of several years.

It shall be credited with withdrawals therefrom as disbursements are made for the purposes for which the funds were set aside.

§ 10.705 Miscellaneous physical property. This account shall include the accounting company's investment in physical property other than property assignable to accounts 701 and 702, including hotels, restaurants, power plants, etc., which are not operated by the accounting company or another carrier in connection with its transportation service.

ITEMS OF INVESTMENT

Coal and other mines.
Commercial power plants.
Hotels and restaurants.
Lands and buildings not used in transportation operations.
Lands and other property acquired and held in anticipation of future use.
Mineral and timber lands.
Rails and other track material leased to others.
Saw mills and other manufacturing plants not operated in connection with transportation service.

§ 10.705½ Accrued depreciation; miscellaneous physical property. This account shall be credited with amounts charged to income or other accounts to cover the depreciation of property the cost of which is included in account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

When any miscellaneous physical property is destroyed, sold, or otherwise retired from service, the amount included in this account with respect to the property retired shall be charged hereto.

§ 10.706 Investments in affiliated companies. This account shall include the ledger value of the accounting company's investment in securities issued or assumed by affiliated companies other than securities held in special deposits or special funds, and also investment advances made to affiliated companies. (See § 10.08–5 Book value of securities owned.)

This account shall be maintained in such manner as to show each of the following classes of investment in each affiliated company:

(a) Stocks.
(b) Bonds.
(c) Other secured obligations.
(d) Unsecured notes.
(e) Investment advances.

A complete record of securities pledged shall be maintained so that the ledger value of securities pledged and unpledged may be shown separately in the annual report to the Commission.

NOTE A: Accounts with affiliated companies which are subject to current settlement, if their collection is reasonably assured, shall be classed as current assets, but if settlement is deferred beyond one year such items shall be transferred to account 722, "Other deferred assets."

NOTE B: The term "affiliated companies" includes:

1. Controlled companies, including companies solely controlled by the accounting company, and also companies jointly controlled by the accounting company and others under a joint arrangement.
2. Controlling companies, including both companies solely controlling the accounting company, and companies which jointly control the accounting company under a joint arrangement.
3. Companies controlled by controlled companies.
4. Companies controlled by controlling companies.

By "control" is meant the ability to determine the action of a corporation. For the purposes of this account, the following are to be considered forms of control:

(a) Right through title to securities issued or assumed to exercise the major part of the voting power in the controlled corporation.
(b) Right through agreement of some character or through some source other than title to securities, to name the majority of the board of directors, managers, or trustees of the controlled corporation.
(c) Right to foreclose a first lien upon all or a major part in value of the tangible property of the controlled corporation.
(d) Right to secure control in consequence of advances made for construction of the operating property of the controlled corporation.
(e) Right to control only in a specific respect the action of the controlled corporation.

A leasehold interest in the property of a corporation is not to be classed as a form of control over the lessor corporation.

"Sole control" is that which rests in one corporation.

"Joint control" is that which rests in two or more corporations and which is held under a joint arrangement.

NOTE C: The value of securities borrowed by the accounting company and pledged shall not be included in this account.

NOTE D: The value of securities pledged for purposes other than that of security for funded debt or short-term loans shall be included in accounts 703, "Sinking funds," 704, "Capital and other reserve funds," or 721, "Insurance and other funds," as may be appropriate.

§ 10.707 Other investments. This account shall include the ledger value of the accounting company's investment in securities issued or assumed by nonaffiliated companies other than securities held in special deposits or special funds; also investment advances made to nonaffiliated companies and to individuals. (See § 10.08–5 Book value of securities owned.)

This account shall be maintained in such manner as to show each of the following classes of investment in each nonaffiliated company:

(a) Stocks.
(b) Bonds.
(c) Other secured obligations.
(d) Unsecured notes.
(e) Investment advances.

A complete record of securities pledged shall be maintained so that the ledger value of securities pledged and unpledged may be shown separately in the annual report to the Commission.

NOTE A: Accounts with nonaffiliated companies which are subject to current settlement, if their collection is reasonably assured, shall be classed as current assets, but if settlement is deferred beyond one year such items shall be transferred to account 722, "Other deferred assets."

NOTE B: The term "nonaffiliated companies" includes all companies other than those defined as affiliated in NOTE B of account 706, "Investments in affiliated companies."

NOTE C: The value of securities borrowed by the accounting company and pledged shall not be included in this account.

NOTE D: The value of securities pledged for purposes other than that of security for funded debt or short-term loans shall be included in accounts 703, "Sinking funds," 704, "Capital and other reserve funds," or 721, "Insurance and other funds," as may be appropriate.

§ 10.707½ Reserve for adjustment of investment in securities. This account shall include the total of the balances in such reserves as are maintained by the accounting company for the purpose of providing for reductions in the value of securities owned and recorded in accounts 706, "Investments in affiliated companies," or 707, "Other investments." Corresponding charges shall be made to account 621, "Miscellaneous debits." (See paragraph (c) of § 10.08–5 Book value of securities owned.)

If reserves are maintained in provision for anticipated losses in specific securities, when the related assets are written down or written off, or are sold or otherwise disposed of at a loss, the reduction in the book value or the losses sustained shall be charged to this account to the extent of the credit balance in the account applicable to the particular securities involved, and the remainder, if any, shall be charged to account 621, "Miscellaneous debits." In case a general reserve for losses in unspecified security values is maintained, all such losses resulting from write-downs, write-offs, etc., shall be charged to this account to the extent of the total credit balance in the account, and the remainder, if any, shall be charged to account 621, "Miscellaneous debits."

§ 10.708 Cash. This account shall include money, checks, sight drafts, and sight bills of exchange in the hands of the accounting company's financial officers and agents, or in transit from its agents and conductors for which such agents and conductors have received credit. It shall include also, deposits with banks and trust companies available for use on demand, and savings accounts subject to the usual clause reserving the right to defer payment for a specified number of days. (See § 10.08–7 Current assets.)

§ 10.709 Temporary cash investments. This account shall include the cost of securities and other collectible obligations acquired for the purpose of temporarily investing cash, such as United States Treasury certificates, marketable securities, time drafts receivable, demand loans, time loans, time deposits with banks and trust companies, and other similar investments of a temporary character.

§ 10.711 Special deposits. This account shall include the unexpended balances in funds deposited specifically for the payment of dividends, interest, or other recorded current liabilities. (See § 10.08–7 Current assets.)

§ 10.712 Loans and bills receivable. This account shall include the book value of all collectible obligations in the form of demand or time loans and bills receivable, or other similar evidences (except interest coupons) of money receivable within a time not exceeding one year from date of issue. (See § 10.08–7 Current assets.)

NOTE A: Obligations held as investments which mature more than one year after date of issue shall be included in accounts 706, "Investments in affiliated companies"; or 707, "Other investments," as may be appropriate.

NOTE B: Loans and bills receivable acquired for the purpose of temporarily investing cash shall be included in account 709, "Temporary cash investments."

§ 10.713 Traffic and car-service balances—Dr. This account shall include the net of the balances receivable from or payable to other companies in the accounts representing interline freight, passenger, and baggage revenues, and charges for equipment interchanged on a per diem or a mileage basis, when such balances result in a net debit.

NOTE A: When the net of the balances is a credit it shall be included in acount 759, "Traffic and car-service balances—Cr."

NOTE B: The amount to be entered in this account in the carrier's annual report to the Commission shall be stated in accordance with the text of this account. For convenience in accounting the carrier may maintain currently separate subaccounts under the following captions:

713 and 759 (a) Interline freight, balance.
713 and 759 (b) Interline passenger, balance.
713 and 759 (c) Interline baggage, balance.
713 and 759 (d) Equipment interchanged, balance.

§ 10.714 Net balance receivable from agents and conductors. This account shall include the net balance due in current accounts from agents, from train, sleeping car, and dining car conductors, and from train collectors, train auditors, porters, and other employees and representatives charged with the collection or custody of current revenues. (See § 10.08–7 Current assets.)

NOTE: Amounts advanced to general and special agents as working funds shall not be included in this account, but in account 720, "Working fund advances."

§ 10.715 Miscellaneous accounts receivable. This account shall include amounts due in audited accounts considered good, such as those due from the United States or other Governments for the transportation of mails and Government property, and from express companies for express facilities furnished under contract; amounts due from other carriers on account of freight claims paid; miscellaneous bills against other railway companies, corporations, firms, and individuals, and other similar items. (See § 10.08–7 Current assets.)

NOTE: The amount to be entered in this account is not the net balance between this account and account 761, "Miscellaneous accounts payable."

§ 10.716 Material and supplies. This account shall include the balances representing the cost, less depreciation, if any, of all unapplied material, such as road and shop material, articles in process of manufacture by the accounting company, fuel, stationery, and dining car and other supplies. In determining the cost of material and supplies suitable allowance shall be made for any discounts allowed in the purchase thereof.

NOTE A: Balances representing the cost of unapplied construction material and supplies located at the point of use, which have been purchased specifically for projected new roads and extensions or for new railroad equipment, are provided for in road and equipment account 47, "Unapplied construction material and supplies," or account 59, "Unapplied material and supplies—Equipment."

NOTE B: An inventory of material and supplies shall be taken during each calendar year and the necessary adjustments to bring this account into harmony with the actual inventory balances shall be made in the accounts of the year in which the inventories are taken. In effecting this adjustment determined differences in accounting for important classes of material shall be equitably assigned among the accounts to which the classes of material are ordinarily chargeable. Other differences shall be equitably apportioned among the primary accounts to which material has been charged since the last inventory. (See Case 17, Accounting Bulletin No. 15.)

§ 10.717 Interest and dividends receivable. This account shall include the amount of interest accrued to the date of the balance sheet on bonds owned and on loans made, the amount of dividends declared on stocks owned, and dividends accrued on such stocks when contracts require that the dividends be paid at stated times. (See § 10.08–7 Current assets.)

NOTE A: No amount representing interest or dividends receivable shall be included in this account unless its payment is reasonably assured by past experience, anticipated provision, or otherwise.

NOTE B: No dividends or other returns on securities issued or assumed by the accounting company shall be included in this account.

NOTE C: If settlement of amounts included in this account is not made when due either in cash or with other tangible assets of equal money value, such amounts shall be cleared from this account and charged to the income account originally credited (subject to § 10.06–2 Delayed items). If notes are taken in settlements of amounts included in this account, the amounts thereof shall be charged to account 712, "Loans and bills receivable," or account 722, "Other deferred assets," as may be appropriate (see § 10.08–7 Current assets,) but such amounts shall not be credited to income (or if previously credited to income shall be cleared therefrom as provided in the first sentence of this note), unless inclusion therein is justified by the current asset position of the obligor. If such notes are of doubtful value, the amount at which they are charged to account 722, "Other deferred assets," in accordance with § 10.08–7 Current assets, shall be credited to account 778, "Other unadjusted credits," and income shall not be credited until payment is received, and then only with the amount collected. If long-term notes are taken in settlement of current assets, the credit to income shall be canceled and account 722, "Other deferred assets," shall be charged with their true values, and a like sum shall be credited to account 778, "Other unadjusted credits."

§ 10.718 Accrued accounts receivable. This account shall include estimates of all unaudited current items receivable by the carrier to the date of the balance sheet, including those which are creditable to revenue, expense, or income accounts in accordance with § 10.02–2 Unaudited items affecting operating accounts, and § 10.06–3 Unaudited items. (See also § 10.08–7 Current assets.)

Examples, without limitation, of items to be accrued:

Rents receivable under leases which are not includible in account 715, "Miscellaneous accounts receivable." (See note C to account 717, "Interest and dividends receivable.")

Amounts receivable from others for unreported interline traffic.

Amounts receivable from others for use of facilities, including equipment, for which bills have not been rendered.

Amounts receivable from others for services for which bills have not been rendered.

§ 10.719 Other current assets. This account shall include items of current assets not covered by accounts 708 to 718, inclusive.

It shall include asset items not includible in any of the foregoing current asset accounts that have been advanced beyond the stage of deferred assets. (See § 10.08–7 Current assets.)

§ 10.720 Working fund advances. This account shall include amounts advanced to general and special agents, and to other officers and employees, as working funds from which certain expenditures are to be made and accounted for. It also includes advances to fast freight lines and to demurrage and other bureaus.

§ 10.721 Insurance and other funds. This account shall include the amount of cash and the ledger value of securities of other companies and other assets which are in the hands of trustees or managers of insurance, employees' pension, savings, relief, hospital, and other funds which have been raised and specifically set aside or invested for specific purposes not provided for elsewhere; also the par value or with respect to no par stock, the amounts recorded in account 751, "Capital stock," relating thereto, of securities issued or assumed by the accounting company and held in such funds. A separate account shall be kept for each fund.

NOTE A: Sinking funds and capital and other reserve funds are provided for in accounts 703 and 704, respectively.

NOTE B: In stating the balance sheet in the annual reports to the Commission the total amount of the funds and the par value or with respect to no par stock, the amounts recorded in account 751, "Capital stock," relating thereto, of securities issued or assumed by the accounting company and held in the funds shall be shown in the short columns, and the net amount of the funds (total amount less securities issued or assumed) shall be shown in the long column.

NOTE C: This account shall not include funds held by the accounting company solely as trustee and in which it has no beneficial interest.

§ 10.722 Other deferred assets. This account shall include the estimated value of salvage recoverable from property retired when the recovery of the salvage is deferred for any reason; items of a current character but of doubtful value; and all other deferred items not covered by accounts 720 or 721. (See § 10.08–7 Current assets.)

§ 10.723 Prepayments. This account shall include the balances in the accounts representing prepaid rents chargeable to the appropriate rent accounts as the term is consumed for which the rents are paid; also interest and insurance premiums paid in advance of their accrual, which are to be apportioned and charged, as they accrue, to the appropriate accounts.

§ 10.725 Discount on funded debt. This account shall include the total of the net debit balances in the discount, expense, and premium accounts for the several subclasses of funded debt. (See § 10.08–3 Discount, expense, and premium on funded debt.)

§ 10.726 Property retired chargeable to operating expenses. This account is intended as a suspense account in which may be included amounts chargeable to operating expenses as follows:

(a) Amounts representing the service value of nondepreciable road property retired which are relatively so large that their inclusion in the accounts for a single year would distort those accounts. (See § 10.04–6 Distribution of charges for nondepreciable road property retired.)

(b) Amounts representing the service value of depreciable road property retired which are relatively so large that their inclusion in the depreciation reserve would result in unduly depleting the reserve. (See paragraph (k) of § 10.04–8 Depreciation accounting; road property.)

(c) Amounts representing the service value of equipment retired which are relatively so large that their inclusion in the depreciation reserve would result in unduly depleting the reserve. (See paragraph (f) of § 10.04–24 Depreciation accounting; equipment.)

(d) This account is to be used only after permission of the Commission has been asked and given. The carrier in its application to the Commission shall give full particulars concerning the property retired, the amount which it is proposed to charge to operating expenses, and the period over which, in its judgment, the amount of such charge shall be distributed.

§ 10.727 Other unadjusted debits. This account shall include the amount of debit balances in suspense accounts that cannot be cleared and disposed of until additional information is received, such as freight claims paid when found to be correct, but in advance of investigation with other carriers; debit balances in clearing accounts, such as "Shop expenses," "Store expenses," "Operations of gravel pits," and "Operation of quarries"; unextinguished discount on short-term notes; unadjusted debit items not otherwise provided for and similar items the proper disposition of which is uncertain.

§ 10.728 Securities issued or assumed; unpledged. This account shall include the par value, or with respect to no par stock, the amounts recorded in account 751, "Capital stock," relating thereto, of securities issued or assumed by the accounting company that are held unpledged in the company's treasury or by its agents or trustees, except those held by trustees of sinking or other similar funds.

This account shall be divided into:

(a) Stocks, and

(b Bonds and other evidences of long-term debt, each of which divisions shall be further subdivided between:

(1) Amounts nominally but not actually issued, and

(2) Amount nominally outstanding.

NOTE A: The term "securities," as used in this account, includes all authorized certificates of stock and evidences of indebtedness which have been signed, sealed, and, when required, certified by the registrar or by the trustees under the mortgage or contract, and are not "short-term securities." By short-term securities are meant those which are payable on demand or which mature not more than one year from date of issue. (See also Notes B to accounts 751 and 755.)

NOTE B: This account shall not include securities that are merely guaranteed.

NOTE C: This account shall not include any securities held in sinking and other reserve funds.

NOTE D: In the general balance-sheet statement the balance in this account shall be stated in the short column only.

NOTE E: When securities that have been issued to bona fide holders for value, or after issuance by another company have been assumed by the accounting company, are reacquired and not canceled or retired, they shall be included in this account at their par value; or with respect to no par stock the amounts recorded in account 751, "Capital stock," relating thereto. If such securities are subsequently pledged, they shall be included in account 720, "Securities issued or assumed—Pledged." (See § 10.08–2 Discount, premium, and assessment on capital stock, and § 10.08–3. Discount, expense, and premium on funded debt.)

NOTE F: Stocks having no par value classable as nominally issued shall be recorded by number of shares. (See Note C under account 751, "Capital stock.")

§ 10.729 Securities issued or assumed; pledged. This account shall include the par value, or with respect to no par stock, the amounts recorded in account 751, "Capital stock," relating thereto, of securities issued or assumed by the accounting company that have been pledged as collateral security for any of its long-term debt or short-term loans.

This account shall be divided into:

(a) Stocks, and

(b) Bonds and other evidences of long-term debt, each of which divisions shall be further subdivided between:

(1) Amounts nominally but not actually issued, and

(2) Amounts nominally outstanding.

NOTE A: The term "securities" as used in this account includes all authorized certificates of stock and evidences of indebtedness which have been signed, sealed, and, when required, certified by the registrar or by the trustees under the mortgage or contract, and are not short-term securities. By "short-term securities" are meant those which are payable on demand or which mature not more than one year from date of issue. (See also Notes B to accounts 751 and 755.)

NOTE B: This account shall not include securities that are merely guaranteed.

NOTE C: This account shall not include securities which have been borrowed by the accounting company and pledged, nor any securities held in sinking and other reserve funds.

NOTE D: In the general balance-sheet statement the balance in this account shall be stated in the short column only.

NOTE E: The par value or with respect to no par stock, the amounts recorded in account 751, "Capital stock," relating thereto, of securities issued or assumed that have been pledged for other purposes shall be included as may be appropriate in accounts 703, "Sinking funds," 704, "Capital and other reserve funds," or 721, "Insurance and other funds."

NOTE G: Stocks having no par value classable as nominally issued shall be recorded by number of shares. (See Note C under account 751, "Capital stock.")

CREDIT

§ 10.751 Capital stock. This account shall include the total par value of par value stock, and the total amount paid in or the amount approved by the Commission for stock without par value, for all shares of capital stock or other form of proprietary interest in the accounting company which have been issued to bona fide purchasers and have not been reacquired and canceled; also shares of stock nominally issued, and reacquired shares which have not been canceled.

Appropriations of surplus which have been transferred to no par stock account shall also be included. The amount of the consideration received from the sale of par value stock in excess of the amount credited to this account shall be credited to account 753, "Premiums and assessments on capital stock."

When capital stock is retired or canceled, this account shall be charged with the amount at which such stock is carried in this account. In the case of no par stock the amount to be charged hereto shall be the proportion, applicable to the reacquired shares immediately prior to reacquisition, of the total book liability included herein of actually outstanding shares of the particular class and series of stock of which the reacquired shares are a part.

The amounts included in this account shall be recorded so as to show:

(a) Par value of shares of par value stock and amount paid in or approved by the Commission of shares of no par stock (pledged or unpledged) held in the company's treasury, by its agents or trustees, or otherwise subject to its control including shares nominally but never actually issued and

(b) Par value of shares of par value stock and amount paid in or approved by the Commission of shares of no par stock issued and actually outstanding, being the shares not held by the company, its agents or trustees, or subject to its control.

The amounts included herein shall be further divided so as to show the amount of each class of stock issued, separated as between par value and nonpar value stock, as follows:

(1) Common stock. Stocks which have no preference over other issues of stock in distribution of dividends or of assets.

(2) Preferred stock. Stocks having preference over other issues of stock in distribution of dividends or of assets.

(3) Debenture stock. Stocks issued under a contract to pay a specified return at specified intervals.

(4) Receipts outstanding for installments paid. Receipts for payments on account of subscriptions to capital stock.

When the subscriber has paid his subscription in full and is entitled to receive certificates representing the shares for which he has subscribed, the par value of stocks having par value or the agreed purchase price or the price authorized by the Commission of stock without par value shall be included in the division appropriate for the class for which the certificates are issued.

Each of the above classes shall also be divided into subclasses according to differences in dividend or interest rights, voting rights, or conditions under which the securities may be retired.

NOTE A: When a general levy or assessment is made against the holders of capital stock, requiring the payment of any sum in addition to the consideration agreed upon at the time of sale, the amount collected upon such levy or assessment shall be credited to account 753, "Premiums and assessments on capital stock."

NOTE B: When capital stock having par value is exchanged for capital stock without par value any sums resting in account 753, "Premiums and assessments on capital stock," with respect thereto shall be cleared to account 751, "Capital stock," and any amounts resting in the discount account with respect thereto shall be cleared to subaccount 784.1, "Paid-in surplus"; Provided, however, That any excess over the amount of accumulated net gains applicable to the subclass exchanged included in paid-in surplus shall be charged to account 621, "Miscellaneous debits." (See § 10.08–2 Discount, premium, and assessment on capital stock.)

NOTE C: An appropriate record shall be maintained with respect to shares of capital stock showing the number of shares nominally issued, nominally outstanding, actually issued and actually outstanding.

NOTE D: For the purpose of the balance-sheet statement capital stock is considered to be "nominally issued" when certificates are signed and sealed and placed with the proper officer for sale and delivery, or pledged, or otherwise placed in some special fund of the accounting company. It is considered to be "actually issued" when it has been sold to a bona fide purchaser for a valuable consideration, and such purchaser holds it free from all control by the accounting company. All capital stock actually issued and not reacquired and held by or for the accounting company is considered to be "actually outstanding." If reacquired by or for the accounting company under such circumstances as require it to be considered as held alive and not canceled or retired, it is considered to be "nominally outstanding."

§ 10.752 Stock liability for conversion. This account shall include the company's liability under agreements to exchange its capital stock for the outstanding securities of companies whose physical property has been acquired under such agreements, but whose securities have not yet been surrendered for exchange.

§ 10.753 Premiums and assessments on capital stock. This account shall include the excess of the actual cash value (at the time of the sale of the stock) of the consideration received over the amounts recorded in account 751, "Capital stock," for par value stock plus accrued dividends, if any, also subsequent assessments against stockholders representing payments required in excess of par or other amounts recorded in account 751, "Capital stock," in accordance with the text of that account. (See § 10.08–2 Discount, premium, and assessment on capital stock.)

When capital stock is retired and canceled, the amount in this account with respect to the shares of such stock retired and canceled shall be charged hereto.

§ 10.754 Discount on capital stock. This account shall include discount suffered in the issuance and sale of capital stock. Record supporting the entries to this account shall be kept to show the discount suffered, if any, on such subclass of capital stock. (See § 10.08–2 Discount, premium, and assessment on capital stock.)

§ 10.755 Funded debt unmatured. There shall be included in this account the total par value of unmatured debt (other than equipment obligations), maturing more than one year from date of issue, issued by the accounting company and not retired or canceled, and the total par value of similar unmatured debt of other companies, the payment of which has been assumed by the accounting company.

The amounts included in this account shall be divided so as to show the par value of (1) certificates or other evidences of funded debt (pledged and unpledged) held in the company's treasury, by its agents or trustees, or otherwise subject to its control, including both those reacquired after actual issue and those nominally but never actually issued; and (2) certificates or other evidences of funded debt issued and actually outstanding, being those not held by the company, its agents or trustees, or subject to its control.

The amounts included herein shall be further divided so as to show the amount of each class of funded debt, as follows:

(b) Mortgage bonds. Bonds secured by lien on physical property and not includible in the other subdivisions of this account.

(c) Collateral trust bonds. Bonds and notes secured by a lien on securities or other negotiable paper; and stock trust certificates that are similar in character to collateral trust bonds.

(d) Income bonds. Bonds which are a lien on a carrier's revenue alone, or bonds which, while being a lien on its property and franchises, can claim payment of interest only in case interest is earned.

(e) Miscellaneous obligations. All funded obligations not provided for by the other subdivisions of this account, also notes, unsecured certificates of indebtedness, debenture bonds, plain bonds, real estate mortgages executed or assumed and other similar obligations maturing more than one year from date of issue, but excluding liabilities for assessments for public improvements and those evidenced by conditional or deferred equipment purchase contracts for which provision is made in account 770, "Other deferred liabilities," and account 756½, "Equipment obligations," respectively.

(f) Receipts outstanding for funded debt. Receipts for payments on account of funded debt. When certificates are issued for amounts so paid, the par value shall be included in the account covering the class of funded debt for which the certificates are issued.

Each of the above classes shall also be divided into subclasses according to differences in mortgage or other lien or security therefor, rate of interest, interest dates, or date of maturity. Parts of any issue agreeing in other characteristics but maturing serially may be treated as of the same subclass.

Records shall be maintained in such manner as to show (1) securities the issuance or assumption of which has been authorized by the Commission under section 20a of the Interstate Commerce Act, and similar securities issued or assumed prior to the effective date of that provision of the act, and (2) other obligations of a kind which may legally be issued or assumed without such authorization.

NOTE A: Securities (other than equipment obligations) maturing one year or less from date of issue shall be included in accounts 757, "Amounts payable to affiliated companies," or 758, "Loans and bills payable," except that where an issue of securities maturing serially over a period of years contains short-term obligations such obligations may be included as funded debt. Matured funded debt shall be included in account 768, "Other current liabilities" if provision has been made for current settlement. If no provision has been made for current settlement, matured funded debt shall be included in account 755½, "Debt in default," except that when the collection of matured funded debt of affiliated companies is not enforced by controlling companies, the principal amount (to the extent held by a controlling company) shall be included in account 757, "Amounts payable to affiliated companies."

NOTE B: For the purposes of the balance-sheet statement funded debt securities are considered to be "nominally issued" when certified by trustees and placed with the proper officer for sale and delivery, or pledged, or otherwise placed in some special fund of the accounting company. They are considered to be "actually issued" when they have been sold to a bona fide purchaser for a valuable consideration, and such purchaser holds them free from all control by the accounting company. All funded debt securities actually issued and not reacquired and held by or for the accounting company are considered to be "actually outstanding." If reacquired by or for the accounting company under such circumstances as require them to be considered as held alive and not canceled or retired, they are considered to be "nominally outstanding."

NOTE C: Nonnegotiable notes having a maturity of more than one year after date of issue, held by affiliated companies, shall be included in account 757, "Amounts payable to affiliated companies."

NOTE D: In the general balance-sheet statement the total unmatured funded debt included in the account shall be shown in the first short column. The amount nominally but not actually issued and the amount nominally outstanding shall be shown in the second short column, and in the long column shall be shown the amount actually outstanding.

§ 10.755½ Debt in default. This account shall include amounts transferred from other accounts representing matured funded securities or obligations, receivers' and trustees' securities, equipment obligations and short-term notes, when maturity dates of such obligations have not been extended.

NOTE A: The principal amount of matured funded debt of affiliated companies the collection of which is not enforced by the controlling company shall (to the extent of the principal amount held by the controlling company) be included in account 757, "Amounts payable to affiliated companies."

NOTE B: The principal amount of unpresented funded debt obligations which have matured, and for which provision has been made for payment shall be included in account 768, "Other current liabilities."

§ 10.756 Receivers' and trustees' securities. When receivers or trustees acting under the orders of a court are in possession of the property of the company, and under the order of such court issue or assume evidences of indebtedness (other than equipment securities or obligations) the par value of such evidences shall be credited to this account.

NOTE: The par value of equipment securities or the principal amount of obligations incurred for the purchase of equipment under conditional or deferred payment contracts shall be included in account 756½, "Equipment obligations."

§ 10.756½ Equipment obligations. This account shall include the par value of equipment securities and the principal amount of contractual obligations including those maturing serially or payable in installments over a period of more than one year.

The amounts included herein shall be divided as follows:

(a) Principal amount of equipment securities including those maturing serially, issued or assumed by the accounting company or by receivers and trustees, which have been authorized by the Commission under section 20a of the Interstate Commerce Act and similar securities issued or assumed prior to the effective date of that provision of the act.

(b) Principal sums of obligations for equipment purchased under conditional or deferred payment contracts, which may be legally entered into or assumed by the accounting company or by receivers and trustees, without authorization by the Commission.

NOTE: Amounts included in this account which are payable within one year from the date of the balance sheet shall be shown in a footnote thereto.

§ 10.757 Amounts payable to affiliated companies. This account shall include the par value of nonnegotiable notes issued to affiliated companies, matured funded debt of affiliated companies held by controlling companies where there is no agreement for an extension as to time of payment and collection of the principal is not enforced, credit balances in open accounts with such companies other than credit balances in current accounts classable as current liabilities, and interest accrued on notes, matured funded debt of affiliated companies and open accounts included in this account, when such interest is not subject to current settlements.

This account shall be divided:

(a) Notes, including herein not only nonnegotiable notes that run longer than a term of one year, but also such notes payable on demand or within one year from the date of issue when it is mutually agreed that the notes shall not be enforced as current assets by the holder.

(b) Par value of matured funded debt of affiliated companies held by controlling companies where there is no agreement for an extension of time and collection is not enforced.

(c) Open accounts not subject to current settlement.

(d) Interest accrued on amounts included in this account when not subject to current settlements.

NOTE A: Accounts with affiliated companies which are subject to current settlements, such as traffic and car-service balances, charges for material and supplies currently furnished, charges for repairs to equipment, etc., shall be classed as current assets or current liabilities, as may be appropriate.

NOTE B: No item shall be included in this account which is not known to be the property of an affiliated company.

NOTE C: The term affiliated companies includes:

1. Controlled companies, including companies solely controlled by the accounting company, and also companies jointed controlled by the accounting company and others under a joint arrangement.

2. Controlling companies, including both companies solely controlling the accounting company, and companies which jointly control the accounting company under a joint arrangement.

3. Companies controlled by controlled companies.

4. Companies controlled by controlling companies.

By "control" is meant the ability to determine the action of a corporation. For the purposes of this account, the following are to be considered forms of control:

(a) Right through title to securities issued or assumed to exercise the major part of the voting power in the controlled corporation.

(b) Right through agreement of some character or through some source other than title to securities, to name the majority of the board of directors, managers, or trustees of the controlled corporation.

(c) Right to foreclose a first lien upon all or a major part in value of the tangible property of the controlled corporation.

(d) Right to secure control in consequence of advances made for construction of the operating property of the controlled corporation.

(e) Right to control only in a specific respect the action of the controlled corporation.

A leasehold interest in the property of a corporation is not to be classed as a form of control over the lessor corporation.

"Sole control" is that which rests in one corporation.

"Joint control" is that which rests in two or more corporations and which is held under a joint arrangement.

§ 10.758 Loans and bills payable. This account shall include the balances representing obligations outstanding in the form of loans and bills payable or other similar evidences (except interest coupons) of indebtedness payable on demand or within a time not exceeding one year from date of issue.

This account shall be kept in such form so as to show separately the amounts of notes payable within one year from date of issue that are secured by collateral.

NOTE. This account shall not include obligations which mature more than one year after date of issue, or demand or short-term notes issued to affiliated companies and includible in account 757, "Amounts payable to affiliated companies."

§ 10.759 Traffic and car-service balances—Cr. This account shall include the net of the balances receivable from or payable to other companies in the accounts representing interline freight, passenger, and baggage revenues, and charges for equipment interchanged on a per diem or a mileage basis, when such balances result in a net credit.

NOTE A: When the net of the balances is a debit it shall be included in account 713, "Traffic and car-service balances—Dr."

NOTE B: The amount to be entered in this account in the carrier's annual report to the Commission shall be stated in accordance with the text of this account. For convenience in accounting the carrier may maintain currently separate subaccounts under the following captions:

713 and 759 (a) Interline freight, balance.
713 and 759 (b) Interline passenger, balance.
713 and 759 (c) Interline baggage, balance.
713 and 759 (d) Equipment interchanged, balance.

§ 10.760 Audited accounts and wages payable. This account shall include the amount of audited vouchers or accounts and audited pay rolls unpaid on the date of the balance sheet. It shall include balances representing unclaimed wages and outstanding pay and time or discharge checks issued in payment of wages and all other unpaid vouchered items.

§ 10.761 Miscellaneous accounts payable. This account shall include outstanding drafts drawn by station agents, outstanding drafts drawn on the company in settlement of freight claims, conductors' refund and extra-fare checks not presented for redemption, deposits of affiliated companies subject to current settlement, taxes collected from employees and others for the account of taxing agencies, and other items of the nature of demand liabilities not covered by accounts 758, 759, 760, 762, and 763.

NOTE: The amount to be reported under this account is not the net balance between this account and account 715, "Miscellaneous accounts receivable."

§ 10.762 Interest matured unpaid. This account shall include the amount of matured and unpaid interest on funded debt, and other obligations of the accounting company for which provision has been made for current settlement.

Interest which matures on the first day following that for which the balance sheet is made shall be included in this account.

NOTE: Interest matured unpaid on nonnegotiable debt to affiliated companies, if not subject to current settlement, shall be included in account 757, "Amounts payable to affiliated companies."

§ 10.763 Dividends matured unpaid. This account shall include the amount of dividends payable on capital stock but unpaid, uncalled for, or unclaimed at the date of the balance sheet.

Dividends which become payable on the first day following that for which the balance sheet is made shall be included in this account.

§ 10.764 Unmatured interest accrued. This account shall include the amount of interest subject to current settlement accrued to the date the balance sheet is made but not payable until after the first day following that date on funded securities or obligations, debt in default, receivers' and trustees' securities, amounts payable to affiliated companies, notes payable and other indebtedness issued or assumed by the accounting company.

NOTE A: Interest accrued which is not paid when it matures shall be included in account 769½, "Interest in default," unless provision has been made for current settlement. Where interest is in default, subsequent accruals shall be credited direct to account 769½, "Interest in default."

NOTE B: Interest accrued on amounts recorded in account 757, "Amounts payable to affiliated companies," and not subject to current settlement, shall be included in that account.

§ 10.765 Unmatured dividends declared. This account shall include dividends declared on capital stock, but not payable until after the first day following the date of the balance sheet.

§ 10.766 Accrued accounts payable. This account shall include estimates of all unaudited items payable by the carrier to the date of the balance sheet, including those which are chargeable to revenue, expense, or income accounts in accordance with § 10.02–2 Unaudited items affecting operating accounts, and § 10.06–3 Unaudited items. (See also § 10.08–7 Current assets.)

Examples, without limitation, of items to be accrued:

Rents payable under leases due subsequent to the date of the balance sheet which are not includible in account 761, "Miscellaneous accounts payable."

Amounts payable to others for unreported interline traffic.

Amounts payable to others for use of facilities, including equipment, for which bills have not been rendered.

Amounts payable to others for services for which bills have not been rendered.

NOTE: Do not include in this account the carrier's estimate of liability in respect of injuries to persons and loss and damage claims. Such estimated liability shall be credited to account 778, "Other unadjusted credits."

[12 F. R. 4452, as amended at 12 F. R. 8348]

§ 10.767 Taxes accrued. This account shall be credited with the accruals of all taxes which have been concurrently charged to the appropriate income or other accounts for taxes. Such accruals may be based upon estimates, provided such estimates shall be adjusted so as to reflect in this account at all times the carrier's estimate of its unpaid liability for each of the several classes of taxes which have not been finally settled.

Vouchers for the current payment of taxes, including taxes for which accruals have not been made previously, shall be charged to this account. Taxes paid in advance shall also be charged to this account.

The records supporting the entries in this account shall be kept to show separately by classes of taxes the amount of the tax accruals for the current year and adjustments of accruals for prior years.

§ 10.768 Other current liabilities. There shall be included in this account the principal amount of unpresented bonds drawn for redemption through the operation of sinking and redemption fund agreements, also the principal amount of unpresented funded debt obligations, and receivers' and trustees' securities which have matured (for which provision has been made for current settlement), and other current liabilities not covered by accounts 758 to 767, inclusive.

§ 10.769 Pension and welfare reserves. This account shall include the credit balances representing the liability of the carrier for amounts provided by charges to operating expenses or by specific appropriations of income or surplus, including amounts contributed by employees, irrespective of whether carried in special funds or in the general funds of the carrier, for pensions, accident and death benefits, savings, relief, hospital, or other provident purposes.

Separate subaccounts shall be kept for each kind of reserve created, and the appropriate reserve shall be charged when payments are made to retired employees, or disbursements are made for the purposes for which the reserves were created.

§ 10.769½ Interest in default. This account shall include the amount of matured and unpaid interest (for which no provision has been made for current settlement) on all indebtedness issued or assumed by the accounting company except interest which is added to the principal of the debt on which incurred. Where interest is in default, subsequent accruals shall be credited direct to this account.

§ 10.770 Other deferred liabilities. This account shall include items of deferred liabilities not covered by accounts 769 and 769½ such as assessments for public improvements payable over a period longer than one year; retained percentages due contractors to be paid upon completion of contracts; deposits for construction of side tracks to be refunded on basis of an agreed portion of the earnings from the traffic handled over the tracks, and other similar items.

NOTE: The amount of assessments for public improvements, if payments are to be made within one year, shall be included in account 768, "Other current liabilities."

§ 10.772 Premium on funded debt. This account shall include the total of the net credit balances in the discount, expense, and premium accounts for the several sub-classes of funded debt. (See § 10.08–3 Discount, expense, and premium on funded debt.)

§ 10.773 Insurance reserves. This account shall include the net credit balance in the accounts to which are credited insurance premiums concurrently charged to operating expenses to cover self-carried risks on fire, fidelity, boiler, casualty, burglar, and other insurance, and to which are charged losses sustained on items protected by such insurance.

§ 10.773½ Equalization reserves. This account shall include ledger balances representing reserves created by charges to operating expenses for maintenance of road and equipment, in accordance with § 10.04–19 Equalization of maintenance expenses. The debit or credit balances in this account shall be closed at the end of each calendar year to the accounts through which they were created.

§ 10.774 Maintenance reserves. This account shall be credited with amounts systematically reserved by accruals to maintenance of way and structures and maintenance of equipment for deferred maintenance and major repairs to equipment in accordance with § 10.04–25 Deferred maintenance, and major repairs to equipment.

When the maintenance work for which provision was made has been performed, the cost of such repairs shall be charged, according to the nature of the repairs to the appropriate primary accounts under maintenance of way and structures and maintenance of equipment. Concurrently this account shall be cleared to the extent that provision has been made herein for such repairs through the accounts originally charged therewith.

NOTE: To the extent that provision is made in this account for deferred maintenance and major repairs to equipment an amount of cash equal thereto shall be deposited in a special account or invested in United States Treasury securities and included in account 704½, "Maintenance funds."

§ 10.778 Other unadjusted credits. This account shall include the amount of credit balances in suspense accounts that cannot be cleared and disposed of until additional information is received, such as amounts received from sales of mileage tickets, to be disposed of as mileage is honored; amounts received from sales of excess baggage script, to be disposed of as coupons are honored; interchangeable mileage credential ticket redemption funds; amounts collected from the sale of damaged, unclaimed and overfreight held pending claim; estimated liability for injuries to persons and loss and damage claims; credit balances in clearing accounts, such as "Shop expenses," "Store expenses," "Operating gravel pits," and "Operating quarries"; estimated revenue overcharges such as those covered by reclamation claims or by claims of Governmental departments for the application of land-grant rates instead of commercial rates; unadjusted credit items not otherwise provided for and similar items, the proper disposition of which is uncertain.

NOTE: With respect to injuries to persons and loss and damage claims, if the settlements when audited are charged to this account the balances for each year shall be kept separately until all items have been adjusted and cleared, but, if the settlements when audited are charged to the appropriate expense accounts the balance in this account shall be adjusted through the appropriate expense accounts so as to reflect the probable liability at the close of each year.

§ 10.779 Accrued depreciation; leased property. This account shall be credited with amounts concurrently charged to operating expenses or other accounts to cover the estimated accrued depreciation on leased road and equipment when settlements between the accounting company and the lessor are not made currently. (See § 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation.) It shall also be credited with depreciation accrued on property the cost of which is included in account 702, "Improvements on leased property." When leased property for which accruals have been included in this account is retired from service, the entire service value of property the cost of which has been charged to account 702 by the lessee and the service value of property, the ledger value of which is carried in account 701, "Road and equipment property," by the lessor for which the lessee is liable to the lessor shall be charged to this account.

§ 10.784 Uncarned surplus. This account shall include all surplus arising from sources other than those classable under profit and loss and earned surplus accounts or other balance sheet accounts for which specific provision is made. Subaccounts shall be maintained as follows:

§ 10.784–1 Paid-in surplus. This subaccount shall include such items as amount of consent dividends on the accounting company's capital stock; surplus arising from donations by the accounting company's stockholders; amounts representing reduction of the par or recorded value of the accounting company's capital stock; amounts of forfeited subscriptions to the accounting company's capital stock; gain from the acquisition, retirement, or resale of reacquired shares of the accounting company's capital stock; and long-term debt of the accounting company forgiven by stockholders.

It shall be charged with amounts included herein when capitalized by stock dividends or otherwise with the approval of the Commission, and losses from retirement or resale of reacquired shares up to an amount not in excess of credits included herein applicable to the reacquired shares; and may be charged with the amortization of discount on capital stock to the extent of credits herein. (See § 10.08–2 Discount, premium, and assessment on capital stock.)

§ 10.784–2 Other unearned surplus. This subaccount shall include unearned surplus, as above defined, arising from sources other than those enumerated under subaccount 784.1.

§ 10.785 Earned surplus; appropriated. This account shall include the total of the net balances of appropriations of income and earned surplus for the acquisition of capital assets; the retirement of debt; sinking and redemption funds; and all other appropriations specifically set aside in the hands of trustees as well as appropriations held in general funds for which no specific investment or segregation of assets has been made. It shall also include accretions to the assets held in such special funds. (See income account 552, "Income applied to sinking and other reserve funds.")

A subdivision of this account shall be maintained by classes of appropriations, the titles of which shall indicate the purpose for which the appropriations were made.

§ 10.786 Earned surplus; unappropriated. This account shall include the net balance (debit or credit) of the amounts included in accounts 601 to 621, inclusive. It shall not include transfers either to or from account 784, "Unearned surplus," unless so authorized upon application to the Commission.

The balance of all profit and loss accounts (601 to 621, inclusive) shall be closed into this account at the end of each calendar year.

§ 10.790 Form of general balance-sheet statement. The classified form of general balance-sheet statement is designed to show the financial condition of the accounting company at any specified date.

TRAIN MILES

§ 10.800 Rules and definitions. (a) A train is a unit of equipment, or a combination of units of equipment (exclusive of light locomotives), in condition for movement over tracks by self-contained motor equipment. A locomotive is a self-propelled unit of equipment designed solely for moving other equipment. A light locomotive is a locomotive in condition for movement by its own motor equipment, uncoupled to cars, work equipment, or dead locomotives. A motor car is a self-propelled unit of equipment designed to carry freight or passenger traffic, and is not to be considered a locomotive.

(b) A train-mile is the movement of a train a distance of 1 mile.

(c) In computing train-miles, fractions representing less than one-half mile shall be disregarded and other fractions considered as 1 mile.

(d) Transportation service train-miles shall be based on the actual distance run between terminals and stations, and shall be computed from the official time-tables or distance tables.

(e) Work service train-miles shall be based on the actual distance run between terminals. When work trains are run between terminals and not ordered to work at some specified point or within specified working limits, the actual miles run shall be allowed to them, the same as to any other class of trains. When ordered to run to a certain point to work at that point or within specified working limits, the actual miles made while under running orders shall be allowed, and in addition an arbitrary mileage of 6 miles per hour for the time working at the point or within the working limits named. In computing such arbitrary mileage, fractions representing less than one-half hour shall be disregarded and other fractions considered as one hour. Constructive miles on the basis of 6 miles per hour shall be allowed trains run for the purpose of removing snow when the actual miles of such trains are less than the constructive miles. No record is required of work-train miles on new roads, road extensions, or portions of such roads or extensions, before the commencement of the regular operation of revenue service trains.

(f) Each train and each section of a train run by a separate train crew shall be considered a separate train, whether hauled by one or more locomotives either the whole distance or a part of the distance between the train terminals. There shall be nothing added to this distance to cover running of locomotives from enginehouses to terminals, doubling hills, running for water, switching, or other work at way stations, or for the service of helper or pusher locomotives or of extra locomotives on double-head or triple-head trains.

(g) When the carrier's trains, hauled by its locomotives and handled by its crews, are detoured over foreign roads, the miles shall be computed on the basis of the miles actually run, and classified by it in its train-miles in accordance with the service performed.

(h) Separate accounts of train-miles shall be kept for trains hauled by locomotives and for trains moved by motor cars.

TRAIN-MILE ACCOUNTS

TRANSPORTATION SERVICE [1]

§ 10.801 Freight-train miles. This account shall include miles run by all trains between terminals or stations for the transportation of revenue and company freight; also miles run by trains consisting of empty freight cars, and by trains consisting of a locomotive and caboose running light in connection with such service.

Trains which contain passenger-train cars shall be classed as freight trains whenever the number of freight-train cars is in excess of the number of passenger-train cars in them.

Freight-train miles shall be subdivided as follows:

Ordinary freight-train miles: Miles run by trains consisting of a locomotive, with or without caboose, with other equipment.

Light freight-train miles: Miles run by trains consisting of a locomotive and caboose, running light in connection with freight-train service.

§ 10.802 Passenger-train miles. This account shall include miles run by revenue service trains to transport passengers, baggage, mail, milk, express, or any combination of these; also miles run by trains consisting of deadhead passenger equipment.

Trains which contain freight-train cars shall be classed as passenger trains whenever the number of passenger-train cars is in excess of the number of freight-train cars in them.

NOTE: This account does not apply to trains run for the transportation of mail or milk upon the basis of authorized tariffs at rates based upon weight. The miles of such trains shall be classed as freight-train miles.

WORK SERVICE

§ 10.805 Work-train miles. This account shall include miles run by trains engaged in company service, such as official, inspection, and pay trains; inspection trains for railway commissioners for which no revenue is received; trains running special with fire apparatus to save the carrier's property from destruction; trains run for transporting the carrier's employees to and from work when no transportation charge is made; wrecking trains; trains run for the purpose of ditching, filling embankments, and widening cuts; trains run for the purpose of removing snow; trains distributing ties, rails, other track material, ballast, bridge material, and other material and supplies for maintenance or for additions and betterments; trains run for picking up and concentrating such material; and trains run for distributing material and supplies for use in connection with operation.

NOTE B: The accounting for expenses of work-train service shall be in accordance with paragraph (c) of § 10.01–4 Cost of construction and paragraph (c) of § 10.04–3 Cost of repairs, and other requirements of the accounting regulations for operating expenses.

NOTE C: No record is required of the miles of construction trains on new roads or road extensions, or on portions of such roads or extensions, before the commencement of the regular operation of revenue service trains.

LOCOMOTIVE MILES

§ 10.810 Rules and definitions. (a) A locomotive is a self-propelled unit of equipment designed solely for moving other equipment. A locomotive-mile is a movement of a locomotive a distance of 1 mile, under its own power.

(b) In computing locomotive-miles fractions representing less than one-half mile shall be disregarded, and other fractions considered as 1 mile.

(c) All locomotive-miles made in hauling transportation service trains shall be based upon the actual distance run between terminals or stations, and shall be computed from the official time-tables or distance tables as prescribed for train-miles.

(d) Light-locomotive miles shall be based on the actual distance locomotives run, except that no light-locomotive miles shall be allowed for terminal service where the distance in one direction is less than one-half mile.

(e) Miles of locomotives in helper service shall be computed on the basis of actual distance run in such service.

(f) Train switching locomotive-miles shall be computed at the rate of 6 miles per hour for the time actually engaged in such service. In computing such arbitrary mileage fractions representing less than one-half hour shall be disregarded and other fractions considered as one hour.

(g) Yard switching locomotive-miles shall be computed at the rate of 6 miles per hour for the time actually engaged in such service. In computing yard switching locomotive-miles, fractions representing less than one-half hour shall be disregarded, and other fractions considered as one hour.

(h) Work-train locomotive-miles shall be computed according to the rules prescribed for work-train miles. Miles of work locomotives employed in switching at shops for shop purposes, spotting cars in gravel pits, working with pile drivers, etc., shall be computed upon the basis of 6 miles per hour for the actual time in the service. In computing the time engaged fractions representing less than one-half hour shall be disregarded and other fractions considered one hour.

(i) The miles of new or generally repaired locomotives running light in breaking-in service shall not be included in the locomotive-mile accounts.

(j) No record is required of the miles of locomotives in construction service on new roads or road extensions, or on portions of such roads or extensions, before the commencement of the regular operation of revenue service trains.

(k) A separate record shall be kept for miles of steam locomotives and for miles of other locomotives.

(l) Miles of motor cars shall not be classed as locomotive-miles.

LOCOMOTIVE-MILE ACCOUNTS

TRANSPORTATION SERVICE; LINE [2]

§ 10.811 Freight locomotive-miles. This account shall include miles run by locomotives in freight-train service, the train-miles of which are includible in account 801, "Freight-train miles."

Principal freight locomotive-miles: Miles run by locomotives principal to the train, between terminals or stations, with freight trains; also miles run by locomotives between terminals or stations, with cabooses, going to or returning from such service; and miles run in hauling the second cut of freight trains doubled over grades.

[1] These accounts shall include the miles of all revenue service trains, including trains which incidentally carry employees or company freight. They shall also include the miles of trains which are operated between terminals or stations to transport company freight, when the service is similar to that connected with the transportation of commercial freight and statistics of ton-miles are kept.

The trains here referred to are those the locomotive and train expenses of operating which are includible in the locomotive and train expense accounts in § 10.370 Transportation; rail line.

[2] This account shall include the miles run by locomotives moving transportation service trains, and also miles run light in connection with such service.

Helper freight locomotive-miles: Miles run by locomotives as helpers over the division or that portion covered by the run, or on important grades, including double-headers, triple-headers, and pushers, regardless of whether on the head end, in the middle, or on the rear of the train.

Light freight locomotive-miles: Miles run by locomotives light between terminals or stations in connection with freight-train service on account of unbalanced traffic; miles run light for hauling second cuts of trains doubled; miles run light between freight trains and next coaling station or water tank for coal or water; miles run light to pick up or assist freight trains between terminals; miles run light by grade helpers in returning from assisting freight trains as pushers or double-headers; and miles run light by locomotives coming from or going to enginehouses or turntables from freight-train service.

NOTE. No miles shall be allowed for light movements at terminals if the distance between enginehouses or turntables and freight-train terminals is less than one-half mile.

§ 10.812 Passenger locomotive-miles. This account shall include miles run by locomotives in passenger-train service, the train-miles of which are includible in account 802, "Passenger-train miles."

Principal passenger locomotive-miles: Miles run by locomotives principal to the train between terminals or stations, with passenger trains.

Helper passenger locomotive-miles: Miles run by locomotives as helpers over the division, or that portion covered by the run, or on important grades.

Light passenger locomotive-miles: Miles run by locomotives light between terminals or stations on account of unbalanced traffic, in connection with passenger-train service; miles run light between passenger trains and next coaling station or water tank for coal or water; miles run light to pick up or assist a passenger train between terminals; miles run light by grade helpers in returning from assisting passenger trains as pushers or double-headers; and miles run light by locomotives coming from or going to enginehouses or turntables from passenger-train service.

NOTE: No miles shall be allowed for light movements at terminals if the distance between enginehouses or turntables and passenger-train terminals is less than one-half mile.

TRANSPORTATION SERVICE; SWITCHING

§ 10.815 Train switching locomotive-miles. This account shall include miles allowed train locomotives for performing switching service at terminals and way stations. Include such items as switching at industry tracks, team tracks, freight house tracks, and interchange tracks; picking up or leaving cars en route; switching out bad order cars, weighing cars, making up or breaking up train at points where no yard service is maintained. No time should be included representing delays that may occur after yard switching has been completed such as waiting for a train order, held up account of meeting with a train in opposite direction, waiting for waybills or other time lost due to conditions other than actual train switching.

§ 10.816 Yard switching locomotive-miles. This account shall include miles allowed yard locomotives while switching in yards where regular switching service is maintained; also miles of switching locomotives running light between terminals and yards where regular switching service is maintained in connection with switching service in such yards. This account shall be subdivided as follows:

Yard switching locomotive-miles; freight: Miles allowed yard locomotives in yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service while engaged in switching cars in connection with the transportation of revenue freight; also miles allowed locomotives in such service while engaged incidentally in switching cars in connection with the transportation of company freight.

Yard switching locomotive-miles; passenger: Miles allowed yard locomotives while switching cars in connection with passenger-train service.

NOTE: Where yard switching is performed for both freight and passenger service by the same locomotive, or by locomotives assigned to one yard, a fair approximation of the mileage may be assigned to each service daily or monthly.

WORK SERVICE

§ 10.817 Work service locomotive-miles. This account shall include the actual miles run by locomotives in work-train service as defined in § 10.805; also miles of locomotives engaged solely in shop or material yard switching service.

NOTE A: Miles run by locomotives while engaged incidentally (in connection with regular yard switching service) in switching company material in company shop or material yards, or in switching equipment for repairs between yards and shops, shall be included in account 816, "Yard switching locomotive-miles."

NOTE B: Miles run by locomotives engaged in shop and material yard switching service, if operated by shop employees, shall not be included in this account.

CAR MILES

§ 10.820 Rules and definitions. (a) A car-mile is a movement of a unit of car equipment a distance of 1 mile.

(b) In computing car-miles, fractions representing less than one-half mile shall be disregarded, and other fractions considered as 1 mile.

(c) Separate accounts of car-miles shall be kept for the cars in trains hauled by locomotives and for the cars in trains moved by motor cars. The record of car-miles in trains moved by motor cars shall show separately the miles for motor cars and for cars not thus equipped.

CAR-MILE ACCOUNTS

TRANSPORTATION SERVICE

§ 10.821 Freight-train car-miles. (a) This account shall include the miles run by freight-train cars (including caboose cars) in transportation service. Such car-miles shall be subdivided as follows:

Loaded (run by loaded freight cars).
Empty (run by empty freight cars).
Caboose (run by caboose cars).

(b) This account shall be so kept as to show miles run in freight trains and in passenger trains separately.

§ 10.822 Passenger-train car-miles. (a) This account shall include the actual miles run by passenger-train cars in transportation service. It shall include miles of loaded cars and also of empty cars deadheaded in connection with the service, and shall be subdivided as follows:

(1) Coaches. Miles run by coaches and chair cars in which passengers are carried at regular tariff fares without extra charge for space occupied.

(2) Combination coach cars. Miles run by combination passenger and baggage, passenger and mail, and passenger and express cars in which passengers are carried at regular tariff fares without extra charge for space occupied.

(3) Sleeping and parlor cars. Miles run by sleeping, parlor, and other cars for which an extra fare is charged for space occupied.

(4) Dining, club, lounge, and observation cars. Miles run by dining, cafe, and other cars devoted exclusively to the serving of meals and other refreshments and by club, lounge, and observation cars without charge in excess of sleeping or parlor car fares.

(5) Business cars. Miles run by all railway business cars operated for the transportation of the carrier's officers and employees.

(6) Other passenger-train cars. Miles run by baggage, express, mail, milk, and postal cars, and by cars in which such services are combined. (This class includes no cars intended for the transportation of revenue passengers.)

(b) This account shall be so kept as to show miles run in freight trains and in passenger trains separately.

WORK SERVICE

§ 10.825 Work service car-miles. This account shall include miles run by cars in work trains, except by equipment which is designed exclusively for work service, such as snow plows, flangers, derricks, pile drivers, wrecking cranes, tool cars, and camp outfits. (For definition of work train see § 10.805.)

Chapter V—Department of the Army

Subchapter B—Claims and Accounts

PART 536—CLAIMS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES

REIMBURSEMENT TO OWNERS AND TENANTS OF LAND ACQUIRED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY PURSUANT TO PUBLIC LAW 534, 82d CONGRESS

New §§ 536.100 through 536.107 are added to Part 536 as follows:

Sec.
536.100 Statutory provisions.
536.101 Definitions of terms as used in §§ 536.100–536.107.

Sec.
536.102 Scope.
536.103 Delegation.
536.104 Filing of application.
536.105 Limitation of amount of payment.
536.106 Conditions of reimbursements.
536.107 Payment.

AUTHORITY: §§ 536.100 to 536.107 issued under Pub. Law 534, 82d Cong.
SOURCE: Regs., September 26, 1952, ENGCM.

§ 536.100 Statutory provisions. The Secretary of the Army is authorized, to the extent he determines to be fair and reasonable, under regulations approved by the Secretary of Defense, to reimburse the owners and tenants of land to be acquired for any public works project of the Department of the Army for expenses and other losses and damages incurred by such owners and tenants, respectively, in the process and as a direct result of the moving of themselves and their families and possessions because of such acquisition of land, which reimbursement shall be in addition to, but not in duplication of, any payments in respect of such acquisition as may otherwise be authorized by law: Provided, That the total of such reimbursement to the owners and tenants of any parcel of land shall in no event exceed 25 per centum of the fair value of such parcel of land as determined by the Secretary of the Army. No payment in reimbursement shall be made unless application therefor, supported by an itemized statement of the expenses, losses, and damages so incurred, shall have been submitted to the Secretary of the Army within one year following the date of such acquisition. The authority for reimbursement of owners and tenants for moving costs conferred by section 401 (b) of the act shall be in addition to but not in duplication of authority contained in subsection 501 (b) of the act of September 28, 1951 (65 Stat. 365) (see §§ 536.90 to 536.97) for the reimbursement to owners and tenants of land acquired pursuant to authorization in said act.

§ 536.101 Definitions of terms as used in §§ 536.100–536.107—(a) The act. Public Law 534, 82d Congress, approved July 14, 1952.

(b) Owner. Any owner of land who moves himself, his family, or his possessions because of acquisition of his land for any public works project of the Department of the Army.

(c) Tenant. One who under proper authority uses or occupies land and who moves himself, his family, or his possessions because of acquisition of such land for any public works project of the Department of the Army.

(d) Land to be acquired for any public works project. Acquisition by the Department of the Army of any interest in land required for military, river and harbor or flood control purposes, except industrial installations not within the boundaries of an authorized multiple ownership project being acquired under circumstances similar to those involved in the normal acquisition of property for an airfield, camp or reservoir.

(e) Industrial installations. Any unit of real property which when acquired by the United States is being used or is useful for the production of matériel, munitions and supplies or for industrial research and development.

(f) Date of acquisition. The date on which title to land being acquired vests in the United States or the date on which the temporary term commences if a possessory interest only is being acquired.

(g) Fair value. The value of the land as determined in accordance with Department of the Army appraisal procedure.

§ 536.102 Scope. Pursuant to the provisions of the act, reimbursement may only be made to the extent determined fair and reasonable for items of expense and other losses and damages incurred by owners or tenants in the process and as a direct result of the moving of themselves and their families and possessions. The types of reimbursable items and non-reimbursable items hereinafter described are not intended to be exclusive.

(a) Types of reimbursable items:

(1) Moving expenses, such as costs of transportation, insurance, crating and unerating.

(2) Temporary storage expenses.

(3) Expenditures for obtaining new site or land such as cost of appraisals, surveys, and title searches, where such expenses are normally borne by the purchaser. This does not include any part of the purchase price for the new site or any expenditures for the purpose of adding to the value or utility of the new site.

(b) Types of non-reimbursable items:

(1) Costs of conveying property to the Government.

(2) Consequential damages or losses, such as as loss of good will, loss of profits, loss of trained employees, or expenses of sales and losses because of such sales.

§ 536.103 Delegation. Authority is delegated to the Chief of Engineers, Department of the Army, and such of his officers or employees in the Office, Chief of Engineers, as he may designate and are approved by the Secretary of the Army to perform all functions and make all determinations which are authorized to be performed by the Secretary of the Army with respect to reimbursement under the provisions of section 401 (b), of the act.

§ 536.104 Filing of application. All applications for reimbursement will be filed with the appropriate Division or District Engineer, Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army, for forwarding to the Chief of Engineers for final action. Such applications must be delivered to or mailed to such Division or District Engineer within one year from the date of acquisition and must be supported by an itemized statement of the expenses, and the losses and damages incurred and for which reimbursement is requested.

§ 536.105 Limitation of amount of payment. The act provides that the total amount of reimbursement to all owners and tenants of any parcel of land shall not exceed 25 percent of the fair value of such parcel of land. In the event that the approved amount of reimbursement for all owners and tenants exceed 25 percent of the fair value of the land, each applicant will receive the same proportion of the 25 percent of the fair value as the approved amount for each application is of the total amount approved for all applications.

§ 536.106 Conditions of reimbursement. In determining whether reimbursement will be made and the extent and amount thereof, consideration will be given to the following:

(a) Reimbursement shall not be made unless and until reasonable proof of the expenses or other losses and damages incurred, in the form of receipts therefor or the next best evidence thereof when receipts are not available, have been submitted.

(b) Reimbursement shall not be made to the extent the applicant's negligence, or wrongful act has contributed to the amount of the expenses, losses or damages.

(c) Reimbursement shall not be made for expenses, losses or damages which were allowed in establishing the compensation paid or to be paid for the interest acquired in the land.

§ 536.107 Payment. Appropriate action will be taken to accomplish payment in accordance with prescribed procedure and regulations. Reimbursement will be made from funds appropriated to the Department of the Army pursuant to any act authorizing civil or military public works projects for the Department of the Army, to the extent available.

NOTE: The regulations contained in §§ 536.100–536.107 were approved by the Secretary of Defense on October 17, 1952.

[SEAL] WM. E. BERGIN,
Major General, U. S. Army.
The Adjutant General.

Chapter VI—Department of the Navy

Subchapter C—Personnel

PART 723—BOARD FOR THE CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS

Part 723 is revised to read as follows:

Sec.
723.1 General provisions.
723.2 Establishment, function, and jurisdiction of the Board.
723.3 Application for correction.
723.4 Entitlement to hearing; notice; counsel; witnesses; access to records.
723.5 Hearing.
723.6 Action by the Board.
723.7 Action by the Secretary.
723.8 Staff action.
723.9 Reconsideration.
723.10 Settlement of claims.
723.11 Miscellaneous.

AUTHORITY: §§ 723.1 to 723.11 issued under sec. 207, 60 Stat. 837 as amended, 65 Stat. 655; 5 U. S. C. 191a.

§ 723.1 General provisions—(a) Purpose. This part establishes procedures for making application, and the consideration of applications, for the correction of Navy and Marine Corps records (hereinafter referred to as naval records) by the Secretary of the Navy acting through the Board for Correction of Naval Records (hereinafter referred to as the Board).

(b) Authority. Section 131 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 831) provides that no private bill or resolution, and no amendment to any bill or resolution, authorizing or directing the correction of military or naval records shall be received or considered in either the Senate of the House of Representatives. Section 207 of the same act, as amended (65 Stat. 655), provides:

(a) The Secretaries of the Army, Navy, and Air Force and the Secretary of the Treasury (with respect to the Coast Guard), respectively, under procedures set up by them, and acting through boards of civilian officers or employees of their respective Departments, are authorized to correct any military or naval record where in their judgment such action is necessary to correct an error or remove an injustice, and corrections so made shall be final and conclusive on all officers of the Government except when procured by means of fraud: Provided, That procedures set up by the Secretaries of the Army, Navy, and Air Force in accordance with this subsection shall be approved by the Secretary of Defense: Provided further, That no corrective action shall be taken under this subsection unless the request therefor be filed by claimant, his heirs at law, or legal representatives within three years after his or their discovery of the alleged error or injustice, or within ten years after the date of enactment of this act, whichever be the later: Provided further, That the failure to file the request by claimant, his heirs at law, or legal representative, within three years after his or their discovery of the alleged error or injustice may be excused by such board of civilian officers or employees of the respective Departments upon finding by it that it is in the interest of justice to excuse such failure to file within the prescribed time in which event action shall be taken in the same manner as if the request had been filed within the three years as prescribed herein.

(b) The Department concerned is authorized to pay, out of applicable current appropriations, claims of any persons, their heirs at law or legal representatives as hereinafter provided, of amounts paid as fines, forfeitures, or for losses of pay (including retired or retirement pay), allowances, compensation, emoluments, or other monetary benefits, as the case may be, which are found to be due on account of military or naval service as a result of the action heretofore taken pursuant to section 207 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, or hereafter taken pursuant to subsection (a) of this section: Provided, That in the case of deceased persons where no demand is presented by a duly appointed legal representative of the estate, payments otherwise due hereunder shall be made to the decedent's widow, widower, legal heirs, or beneficiaries, in the order of precedence or succession as may be prescribed by the applicable provisions of law relating to the kind of payment involved and when not otherwise so provided, in the order of precedence as set forth in the act of February 25, 1946 (60 Stat. 30), or as may be prescribed by the applicable provisions of law relating to the kind of payment involved.

(1) This subsection shall not be deemed to authorize the payment of any claim heretofore compensated by Congress through enactment of a private law.

(c) The acceptance by the claimant of any settlement made pursuant to subsection (b) of this section shall constitute a complete release by the claimant of any claim against the United States on account of such correction of record.

(d) Applicable current appropriations shall be available for payment of such sums as may be due for continuing the pay (including retired or retirement pay), allowances, compensation, emoluments, and other monetary benefits to persons who shall have received payment pursuant to the provisions of subsection (b) of this section and who may be entitled to such continuing payments as a result of the correction of their military or naval records: Provided, That continuing payments are authorized to be made to such personnel for not more than one year following the date of the correction or one year following the date of enactment of this Act, whichever be the later, without the necessity of reenlistment, appointment, or reappointment to the grade, rank, or office to which such pay (including retired or retirement pay), allowances, compensation, emoluments, and other monetary benefits are attached, and such reenlistments, appointments, and reappointments are hereby authorized by the Secretary concerned without regard to other qualifications.

(e) The Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of the Treasury, for their respective Departments, shall make semiannual reports to the Congress of all claims paid under this subsection during the period covered by each such report. Each such report shall include, with respect to each such claim, a statement of the amount paid, to whom, and a brief description of the claim.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the payment of any amount as compensation for any benefit to which the claimant might subsequently become entitled under the laws and regulations administered by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs.

§ 723.2 Establishment, function and jurisdiction of the Board—(a) Establishment and composition. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of section 207 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, as amended, the Board for Correction of Naval Records is established in the Office of the Secretary of the Navy.

(2) The Board will consist of civilian officers or employees of the Department of the Navy in such number, not less than three, as may be appointed by the Secretary of the Navy. Three members present shall constitute a quorum of the Board. The Secretary of the Navy will designate one member as the Chairman. In the event of absence or incapacity of the Chairman, an Acting Chairman chosen by the Board shall act as Chairman for all purposes.

(b) Function. The function of the Board is to consider all applications properly before it for the purpose of determining the existence of an error or an injustice and to make appropriate recommendations to the Secretary of the Navy.

(c) Jurisdiction. The Board shall have jurisdiction to review and determine all matters properly brought before it, consistent with existing law.

§ 723.3 Application for correction—(a) General requirements. (1) The application for correction should be submitted on DD Form 149 (Application for Correction of Military or Naval Records) or exact facsimile thereof, and should be addressed to: The Secretary of the Navy (Board for Correction of Naval Records), Washington 25, D. C. Forms and explanatory matter may be obtained from: Board for Correction of Naval Records, Navy Department, Washington 25, D. C.

(2) Except as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, the application shall be signed by the person requesting corrective action with respect to his record and will either be sworn to or will contain a provision to the effect that the statements submitted in the application are made with full knowledge of the penalty provided by law for making a false statement or claim. (Title 18, U. S. Code, secs. 287, 1001).

(3) When the record in question is that of a person who is incapable of making application himself, or whose whereabouts is unknown, or when such person is deceased, for the purpose of bringing the matter before the Board the application may be made (except where compliance with the provisions of the law with respect to time limitations for filing an application may require otherwise) by such person as the Board shall determine to be competent and suitable and to have a proper interest therein, including but not limited to, a spouse, a parent, or relative. Such proof of suitability and proper interest shall be submitted as may be required by the Board.

(b) Time limit for filing application. The claimant, his heirs at law, or legal representatives, must file a request for correction of a record with the Secretary of the Navy prior to October 25, 1961, or within three years of discovery of the alleged error or injustice, whichever be the later. The failure to file such request within the time prescribed may be excused by the Board on its finding that it is in the interest of justice to do so.

(c) Exhaustion of other remedies. No application will be considered until the applicant has exhausted all effective administrative remedies afforded him by existing law or regulations, and such legal remedies as the Board shall determine are practical and appropriately available to the applicant.

(d) Other proceedings not stayed. The application to the Board for correction of a record shall not operate as a stay of any proceedings being taken with respect to the person involved.

(e) Denial of application. It shall be adequate ground for denial of any application that a sufficient basis for review has not been established or that effective relief cannot be granted.

§ 723.4 Entitlement to hearing; notice; counsel; witnesses; access to records—(a) Entitlement to hearing. When an application has been found to be within the jurisdiction of the Board and sufficient evidence has been presented indicating probable error or injustice, the applicant will be entitled to a hearing before the Board either in person or by counsel of his own selection or in person with counsel.

(b) Notice. (1) In each case in which a hearing is authorized, the Board will transmit to the applicant and counsel, if any, a written notice stating the time and place of hearing. The notice will be mailed to the applicant and counsel, if any, at least thirty days prior to the date of hearing, except that an earlier date may be set where the applicant waives his right to such notice in writing.

(2) Upon receipt of notice of hearing, the applicant will notify the Board in writing at least 15 days prior to the date set for hearing as to whether he will be present at the hearing and will indicate to the Board the name of counsel, if represented by counsel, and the names of such witnesses as he may intend to call in his behalf. Cases in which the applicant notifies the Board that he does not desire to be present at the hearing, will be considered in accordance with § 723.5 (b) (2).

(c) Counsel, definition of. As used in this part, the term "counsel" will be construed to include members in good standing of the Federal Bar or the Bar of any State, accredited representatives of veterans organizations recognized by the Veterans Administration under section 200 of the act of June 29, 1936 (38 U. S. C. 101), and such other persons who, in the opinion of the Board, are considered to be competent to present equitably and comprehensively the request of the applicant for correction, unless barred by law.

(d) Witnesses. The applicant will be permitted to present witnesses in his behalf at hearings before the Board. It will be the responsibility of the applicant to notify his witnesses and to arrange for their appearance at the time and place set for hearing.

(e) Access to records. (1) The applicant shall have access to such official records as are deemed necessary to an adequate presentation of his case. It will be the responsibility of the applicant to procure such evidence not contained in the official records of the Department of the Navy as he desires to present in support of his case.

(2) Classified or privileged matter shall not be disclosed or made available without express finding of the Chairman that such disclosure is required in the case and is not detrimental to the public interest. Such disclosure must be in accordance with law and departmental regulations concerning the security of classified material. When appropriate the applicant may be supplied only with a summary or extract of classified matter.

§ 723.5 Hearing—(a) Convening of Board. The Board will be convened at the call of the Chairman and will recess or adjourn at his order.

(b) Conduct of hearing. (1) The hearing shall be conducted by the Chairman, and shall be subject to his rulings so as to insure a full and fair hearing. The Board shall not be limited by legal rules of evidence but shall maintain reasonable bounds of competency, relevancy, and materiality:

(2) If the applicant, after being duly notified, has indicated to the Board that he does not desire to be present or to be represented by counsel at the hearing, the Board will consider the case on the basis of all the material before it, including, but not limited to, the application for correction filed by the applicant, any documentary evidence filed in support of such application, any brief submitted by or in behalf of the applicant, and all available pertinent records.

(3) If the applicant, after being duly notified, has indicated to the Board that he will be present or be represented by counsel at the hearing, and without good cause and timely notice to the Board, he or his representative fails to appear at the time and place set for the hearing, the Board may consider the case in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, or will make such other disposition of the case as is indicated under the circumstances.

(4) All testimony before the Board shall be given under oath or affirmation. The proceedings of the Board and the testimony given before it will be recorded verbatim.

(c) Continuance. The Board may continue a hearing on its own motion. A request for continuance by or in behalf of the applicant may be granted by the Board if a continuance appears necessary to insure a full and fair hearing.

§ 723.6 Action by the Board—(a) Deliberations, findings, decisions, and recommendations. (1) Only members of the Board and its staff shall be present during the deliberations of the Board.

(2) Whenever, during the course of its review of the case, it appears to the Board's satisfaction that the facts have not been fully and fairly disclosed by the records or by the testimony and other evidence before the Board, the Board may require the applicant to obtain, or the Board may obtain, such further information as it may consider essential to a complete and impartial determination of the facts and issues.

(3) Following a hearing, the Board will make written findings, decisions, and recommendations. A majority vote of the members present on any matter before the Board will constitute the action of the Board and shall be so recorded.

(4) Where the Board deems it necessary to submit comments or recommendations to the Secretary of the Navy as to matters arising from but not directly related to the issues of any case, such comments and recommendations shall be the subject of separate communication.

(b) Minority report. In case of a disagreement between members of the Board a minority report may be submitted, either as to the findings, decision, or the recommendations or to all, including the reasons therefor.

(c) Record of proceedings. When the Board has completed its proceedings, a record thereof shall be prepared. Such record shall indicate whether or not a quorum was present at the hearing and at the Board's deliberations. The record shall include the application for relief, a transcript of any testimony, affidavits, papers, and documents considered by the Board, briefs and written arguments filed in the case, the findings, decision and recommendations of the Board and all other papers, documents, and reports necessary to reflect a true and complete history of the proceedings. The record so prepared will be certified by the Chairman or his designee as being true and complete.

(d) Withdrawal. The Board may permit an applicant to withdraw his application without prejudice at any time before its proceedings are forwarded to the Secretary of the Navy.

§ 723.7 Action by the Secretary. The record of proceedings of the Board will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Navy who will direct such action in each case as he determines to be appropriate, which may include the return of the record to the Board for further consideration when deemed necessary.

§ 723.8 Staff action. (a) Upon final action by the Secretary of the Navy, the record of proceedings shall be returned to the Board for disposition. The Board shall transmit the decision previously submitted and approved by the Secretary of the Navy to the proper naval authority for appropriate action.

(b) The addresses of such decisions shall report compliance therewith to the Chairman of the Board.

(c) The Board shall transmit a copy of the record of proceedings to the proper naval authority for filing in the service record of the subject of the application except where the effect of such action would be to nullify the relief granted. In such cases no reference to the Board's decision shall be made in the service record or files of the applicant and all copies of the record of proceedings and any related papers shall be forwarded to the Board and by it retained in a confidential file maintained for the purpose. Access to such file shall be had only upon written order of the Secretary of the Navy.

(d) Upon receipt of the record of proceedings after final action by the Secretary of the Navy, the Board shall communicate the decision to the applicant and his counsel, if any.

(e) The applicant shall not be entitled to copies of the record of proceedings, but such record shall be made available for his inspection except where, in the discretion of the Chairman, it is detrimental to the public interest.

§ 723.9 Reconsideration. After final adjudication further hearing before the Board will be granted only upon presentation by the applicant of newly discovered relevant evidence not previously considered by the Board and then only upon recommendation of the Board and approval by the Secretary of the Navy.

§ 723.10 Settlement of claims—(a) Authority. (1) The Department of the Navy is authorized to settle and pay claims for amounts paid as fines or forfeitures or for losses of pay (including retired or retirement pay), allowances, compensation, emoluments, or other monetary benefits as the case may be which are found to be due, under applicable provisions of law, on account of naval service, and as the result of action heretofore or hereafter taken under section 207 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, as amended, except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) The Department of the Navy is not authorized to pay any claim heretofore compensated by Congress through enactment of a private law, or to pay any amount as compensation for any benefit to which the claimant might subsequently become entitled under the laws and regulations administered by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs.

(b) Application for settlement. (1) Settlement and payment of claims shall be made only upon a claim of the person whose record has been corrected or of his legal representative, his heirs at law, or his beneficiaries. Such claim for settlement and payment may be filed as a separate part of the application for correction of the record.

(2) In case the person whose record has been corrected is deceased, and where no demand is presented by a duly appointed legal representative of the estate, payments otherwise due shall be made to the decedent's widow, widower, legal heirs, or beneficiaries, in the order of precedence or succession as may be prescribed by the applicable provisions of law relating to the kind of payment involved and when not otherwise so provided, in the order of precedence as set forth in the act of February 25, 1946 (60 Stat. 30), or as may be prescribed by the applicable provisions of law relating to the kind of payment involved.

(3) Upon request, the applicant or applicants shall be required to furnish requisite information to determine their status as proper parties to the claim for purposes of payment under applicable provisions of law.

(c) Settlement. (1) Settlement of claims shall be upon the basis of the decision and recommendations of the Board, as approved by the Secretary of the Navy. Computation of the amounts due shall be made by the appropriate disbursing activity. In no case will the amount found due exceed the amount which would otherwise have been paid or have become due under applicable laws had no error or injustice occurred. To the extent authorized by law and regulations, amounts found due may be reduced by the amount of any existing indebtedness to the Government arising from naval service.

(2) Prior to or at the time of payment, the person or persons to whom payments are to be made shall be advised by the disbursing activity as to the nature and amount of the various benefits represented by the total settlement, and shall be advised further that acceptance of such settlement shall constitute a complete release by the claimants involved of any claim against the United States on account of the correction of the record.

(d) Report of settlement. (1) In every case where payment is made, the amount of such payment and the names of the payee or payees, shall be reported to the Chairman of the Board.

(2) The Chairman of the Board shall make a semi-annual report to the Secretary of the Navy of all claims paid during the period covered by the report, including a statement of the amount paid, the names of the payee or payees and a brief description of the claim in each case.

§ 723.11 Miscellaneous.—(a) Staff assistance. The facilities of all bureaus, offices and boards of the Navy Department shall be made available to the Board to assist it in the performance of its function.

(b) Expenses. No expenses of any nature whatsoever voluntarily incurred by the applicant, his counsel, his witnesses, or by any other person in his behalf, will be paid by the Government.

(c) Changes in procedures. The Board may initiate recommendations for such changes in procedures as established herein as may be considered necessary for the proper functioning of the Board. Such changes will be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Navy and of the Secretary of Defense.

The regulations contained in this part were approved by the Acting Secretary of Defense on September 29, 1952, and became effective on that date.

Dated: November 3, 1952.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Ceiling Price Regulation 17, Supplementary Regulation 10, Interpretation 1]

CPR 17—GASOLINES, NAPHTHAS, FUEL OILS AND LIQUIFIED PETROLEUM PRODUCTS, NATURAL GAS, PETROLEUM GAS, CASINGHEAD GAS AND REFINERY GAS

SR 10—SPECIFIC CEILING PRICES FOR MIDDLE DISTILLATES ON THE EAST COAST

INT. 1—DETERMINATION OF PRICES AT TANK CAR AND OTHER LEVELS (SECTION 2)

Several questions have been raised as to the proper interpretation of the pricing provisions of Supplementary Regulation 10 to Ceiling Price Regulation 17.

Section 2 (a) of SR 10 establishes ceiling prices at East Coast ports for tank car or transport truck delivery for sale to resellers. The phrase "tank car or transport truck deliveries" refers to the level of sales as distinguished from the method of delivery. While the method of delivery is ordinarily determinative of the level of sale it is not necessarily so.

Section 2 (d) (2) permits the addition to the ceiling prices set forth in sections 2 (a), (b), and (c) of 0.15 cents per gallon on sales by operators of terminals or refineries and by bulk plant operators to others than bulk plant operators, but this 0.15 cents per gallon may not be added on sales to resellers at the tank car or transport truck level. The 0.15 cents per gallon cannot be added by either a terminal or refinery operator or a bulk plant operator on sales to a dealer who uses bulk storage in the regular conduct of his kerosene and fuel oil business, unless, despite such dealer's maintenance of storage facilities, his supplier has customarily classified and treated him from the standpoint of price as a purchaser at the tank wagon level as distinguished from a purchaser at the tank car or transport truck level. If the dealer's bulk plant is not used or is used for other purposes than storage and distribution he is not a bulk plant operator and may be charged the 0.15 cents per gallon.

Section 4 of Supplementary Regulation 10 requires the preservation of customary differentials, discounts and allowances in effect during the base period. If the ceiling price established under SR 10 properly includes the 0.15 cents per gallon allowable on sales to other than bulk plant operators, customary differentials, discounts and allowances must be made from that ceiling price. For example, if a reseller not operating a bulk plant and not taking in tank car or transport truck lots has customarily bought on the basis of tank car prices his supplier may add the 0.15 cents per gallon to his price. However, having done so, he must reduce the price by any differentials, discounts or allowances that were customarily granted that reseller.

Under section 2 (d) (1) resellers of products obtained from terminals and refineries may raise their prices to ultimate consumers by the amount of the increase allowable to their suppliers under SR 10 regardless of whether they have actually paid their suppliers that increase. In any case, the ceiling price on any sale to any ultimate consumer is the appropriate, specific ceiling set forth in sections 2 (a), 2 (b) or 2 (c) plus 0.15 cents per gallon.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 34, Supplementary Regulation 8, Revision 1]

CPR 34—SERVICES

SR 8—POWER LAUNDRIES IN COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Revision 1 to Supplementary Regulation 8 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This revision of Supplementary Regulation 8 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 permits power laundries in Cook County, Illinois, to increase by ten percent the ceiling prices of their power laundry services. This revised supplementary regulation does not permit the increase to be applied to diaper supply, linen supply and dry cleaning services of such laundries.

Because of a decrease in earnings due to sharply increased costs resulting from authorized wage increases, Supplementary Regulation 8 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 which was issued November 21, 1951, authorized power laundries in Cook County, Illinois, to increase their ceiling prices by five percent. The adjustment was based on financial data for fiscal periods beginning in 1949 and ending June 1951. However, since the original issuance of Supplementary Regulation 8, despite some volume increases, further increases in costs arising out of additional wage increases are causing the power laundries in Cook County, Illinois, to show a loss for 1952 as against a profit for 1949.

Under the provisions of this revision the power laundries in Cook County, Illinois, are permitted to increase the ceiling prices which they established prior to the five percent increase, or sections 20 (a), 20 (b), or 20 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, by 10 percent.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the price increases permitted by this revised supplementary regulation are the minimum needed to permit the continued supply of this service.

In the formulation of this revision, the Director has consulted insofar as practicable with representative suppliers of these services, including representatives of trade associations, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the increases permitted by this revision are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. Purpose.
2. Relationship to Ceiling Price Regulation 34.
3. Ceiling prices.
4. Application of section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34.
5. Definitions.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 5 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. Purpose. This revised supplementary regulation permits power laundries in Cook County, Illinois, to increase by ten percent their charge for power laundry services, except diaper supply, linen supply, and dry cleaning services. This increase is in lieu of the increase previously permitted by Supplementary Regulation 8 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, and is not in addition thereto.

SEC. 2. Relationship to Ceiling Price Regulation 34. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, unless changed by the provisions of this revised supplementary regulation as provided in sections 3 and 4 of this regulation remain in effect.

SEC. 3. Adjustment of ceiling prices. You may, to the extent you supply power laundry services in Cook County, Illinois, increase your ceiling prices by ten percent for power laundry services, except diaper supply, linen supply and dry cleaning services thus supplied, by either of the following methods:

(a) You may apply such an adjustment to the total amount of each invoice rendered to the customer, provided you shall clearly write or stamp beside the adjustment on each such invoice the words "OPS permitted price increase." If you use this method of applying your price increase you need not make the supplementary filing required by section 18 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34.

(b) You may, in lieu of the method provided in paragraph (a) of this section, increase by ten percent the flat prices of each power laundry services article, except a diaper supply, linen supply and dry cleaning service article. Within ten days after your prices are established under this paragraph, you must prepare and file with your district office of the Office of Price Stabilization a supplemental statement as required under section 18 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. You may not price under paragraph (a) of this section once you have elected to price under this paragraph (b).

(c) If the increase computed in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section results in a fraction of a cent, the ceiling price must be decreased to the next lower cent if the fractional cent is less than one-half cent, or may be increased to the next higher cent if the fraction is one-half cent or more.

SEC. 4. Application of section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. No seller of power laundry services subject to this revised supplementary regulation may, after the effective date of this regulation, obtain an increase in his ceiling prices for such power laundry services, except diaper supply, linen supply and dry cleaning services, under either section 20 (a), 20 (b) or 20 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. All orders establishing ceiling prices for any power laundry subject to this revised supplementary regulation issued under either section 20 (a), 20 (b) or 20 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 are hereby revoked, upon the effective date of this regulation.

SEC. 5. Definitions. (a) "Power laundry" or "power laundries" as used in this regulation are laundries which in the laundry trade are customarily known and designated as such, and do not include hand laundries, launderettes or laundries using home-type laundry equipment to supply laundry service.

Effective date. This revised supplementary regulation shall become effective November 7, 1952.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

JOSEPH H. FREEHILL,
Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 34, Amdt. 1 to Supplementary Regulation 10]

CPR 34—SERVICES

SR 10—LAUNDRIES IN DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA

CLARIFICATION

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment to Supplementary Regulation 10 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This Amendment 1 to Supplementary Regulation 10 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 clarifies and adds to the list of definitions contained in section 4 of this supplementary regulation. In addition, it clearly sets forth the applicability of the supplementary regulation to the services performed by independent routemen and stores who are known in the laundry and dry cleaning industry as "bobtailers." These bobtailers deal directly with hotels in picking up hotel flat work items which are then processed by sellers of wholesale laundering services. The processed flat work is paid for by the bobtailer at a discount from the laundry's normal wholesale price. This customary discount is the differential established under section 16 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 as amended. The bobtailer's selling price to the hotels is traditionally the same as the laundry's normal wholesale selling price for similar service to hotels. Some question has arisen as to whether sales to the hotels by these so-called bobtailers is within the coverage of Supplementary Regulation 10. To clarify this point a new sentence is added to section 4 specifically designating bobtailers as sellers of wholesale laundry service to hotels. This amendment will maintain traditional laundry and dry cleaning industry price relationships and is consistent with industry practice.

In addition, doubt has been expressed as to the meaning of the term "each pickup" contained in paragraph (a) of section 3 and subparagraph (a) (2) of section 4, some sellers contending that there was no limit placed on the number of pickups which could be made daily. In order to indicate that the additional charge for the first 50 pounds of each pickup of hotel flat work permitted by section 3 should be made on the basis of one pickup per day, an express limitation to that effect is included in that section. Corresponding changes have been made in the list of definitions contained in section 4.

Wholesale laundry service sellers remain subject to the provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, including section 16 thereof, and their increased ceiling prices under this supplementary regulation must reflect their customary price differentials, including discounts to bobtail sellers.

In the formulation of this amendment there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Supplementary Regulation 10 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 is amended by adding at the end thereof a new sentence to read as follows: "For the purpose of this regulation bobtail sellers are considered to be sellers of wholesale laundering service."

2. Paragraph (a) of section 3 is amended by adding at the end thereof a new sentence to read as follows: "However, the 8¢ per initial 50 pounds charge is limited to the first 50 pounds of flat work picked up on any one day."

3. A new subparagraph (3) is added to paragraph (a) of section 4 to read as follows:

(3) "Bobtail sellers" means a separate class of purchaser and reseller of wholesale laundering services, consisting of independent routemen and stores, not employed or owned by a laundry furnishing wholesale services to hotels, which purchases such wholesale laundering services from a wholesale laundry service seller at a discount and resells these services to its own customers at the same prices that the wholesale laundry itself would have charged the same class of purchaser for the same services. Bobtail sellers do not ordinarily engage in processing operations.

Effective date. This amendment to Supplementary Regulation 10 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is effective November 10, 1952.

Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 34, Supplementary Regulation 25]

CPR 34—SERVICES

SR 25—POWER LAUNDRIES IN PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Supplementary Regulation 25 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This Supplementary Regulation 25 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 permits an increase in ceiling prices for certain power laundry services and dry cleaning services supplied by power laundries located in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. An increase in ceiling prices is also given to independent routemen and stores, known in the laundry and dry cleaning industry as "bobtailers", in order that customary differentials between classes of power laundry service purchasers may be maintained. This supplementary regulation does not permit the increase to be applied to the diaper supply and linen supply services of such laundries.

A study of the operating costs and profit margins of a representative number of the power laundries in the City of Philadelphia, which provide 90 percent of the total sales of services furnished by these laundries amounting to an estimated $16,300,000 in 1951, reveals that increased labor and material costs have impaired the pre-Korean earnings of such laundries. In addition, new wage contracts entered into with labor unions representing the employees of these laundries resulted in substantial wage increases to all classes of workers. These wage increases are all within the formula of Wage Stabilization Board regulations or have received Wage Stabilization Board approval, with the result that earnings of these laundries will be further impaired. The price increase granted herein has been determined to be the minimum necessary to maintain the financial stability of these laundries in order to assure a continued supply of these essential services. The uniform increase has been determined in accordance with the standards for individual adjustments under section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34.

Under the provisions of this supplementary regulation, ceiling prices of such power laundries and bobtail sellers may be increased by 9 percent, such adjustment to be applied to the total amount of each invoice rendered to the customer and identified as the "OPS permitted price increase." If this method is used to apply the amount of the increase, the seller need not make the supplementary filing required by section 18 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. At the option of the individual laundry and bobtailer, however, the flat ceiling price for each article may be increased by 9 percent. Adjusted flat ceiling prices must, within ten days after their determination, be filed with the appropriate Office of Price Stabilization district office as required by section 18 as amended of Ceiling Price Regulation 34.

In the future, power laundries and bobtailers subject to this supplementary regulation may not obtain an adjustment of their ceiling prices for power laundry and dry cleaning services under section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. Any adjustment of ceiling prices under section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 heretofore granted is automatically revoked as of the effective date of this supplementary regulation.

In the formulation of this supplementary regulation, the Director has consulted insofar as practicable with representative suppliers of these services, including representatives of trade associations, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the increases permitted by this supplementary regulation are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

SECTION 1. Purpose. This supplementary regulation permits power laundries whose plants are located in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to increase their ceiling prices for power laundry and dry cleaning services by 9 percent. It also permits bob-tail sellers (see section 5—Definitions) who purchase power laundry and dry cleaning services from power laundries located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for resale to ultimate consumers, to increase their ceiling prices for the resale of such services by 9 percent. This supplementary regulation does not apply to the sale of diaper supply and linen supply services by power laundries or bob-tail sellers.

SEC. 2. Relationship to Ceiling Price Regulation 34. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, except as affected by the provisions of this supplementary regulation, shall remain in effect.

SEC. 3. Adjustment of ceiling prices. If you are subject to this supplementary regulation, you may, to the extent you sell power laundry and dry cleaning services supplied by power laundries located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, increase your ceiling prices by 9 percent for power laundry and dry cleaning services, except diaper supply and linen supply services, thus supplied by either of the following methods:

(a) You may apply such an adjustment to the total amount of each invoice rendered to the customer, provided you shall clearly write or stamp on each such invoice the words "OPS permitted price increase." If you use this method of applying your price increase, you need not make the supplementary filing required by section 18 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34.

(b) You may, in lieu of the method provided in paragraph (a) of this section, increase by 9 percent the ceiling prices of each power laundry and dry cleaning service article, except a diaper supply and linen supply service article. Within ten days after your prices are established under this paragraph you must prepare and file with your district office of the Office of Price Stabilization a supplemental statement as required under section 18 as amended of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. You may not establish prices under paragraph (a) of this section once you have elected to establish prices under this paragraph.

(c) If the price increase computed in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section results in a fraction of a cent, the price increase must be decreased to the next lower cent if the fractional cent is less than one-half cent, or may be increased to the next higher cent if the fraction is one-half cent or more.

SEC. 4. Application of section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. No seller subject to this supplementary regulation may, after the effective date of this supplementary regulation, apply for an adjustment of any of his ceiling prices for power laundry and dry cleaning services except diaper supply and linen supply services under section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended. All orders establishing ceiling prices for any power laundry subject to this supplementary regulation issued under either section 20 (a), (b), or (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 are hereby revoked, upon the effective date of this regulation.

SEC. 5. Definitions. (a) (1) "Power laundry" or "power laundries" as used in this regulation are laundries which in the laundry trade are customarily known and designated as such, and do not include hand laundries, launderettes or laundries using home-type laundry equipment to supply laundry services.

(2) "Bobtail sellers" as used in this regulation means a separate class of purchaser of power laundry and dry cleaning services, consisting of independent route men and stores, not employed or owned by a power laundry, which purchases such power laundry and dry cleaning services from a power laundry at a discount and resells these services to its own customers at the same prices that the power laundry itself would have charged the same class of purchaser for the same services. Bobtail sellers do not ordinarily engage in processing operations.

Effective date. This supplementary regulation is effective November 10, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 34, Supplementary Regulation 26]

CPR 34—SERVICES

SR 26—CEILING PRICES OF CERTAIN SELLERS OF AUTOMOTIVE AND FARM EQUIPMENT REPAIR SERVICES

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Supplementary Regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This Supplementary Regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 adapts ceiling price regulation of automotive and farm equipment repair services more closely to the operation of the automotive and farm equipment industry.

Many sellers of automotive and farm equipment repair services also sell the type of commodities they service. There is no uniformity within the industry, however, in allocating overhead costs between the services portion and the commodity portion of such businesses. Some manufacturers of these commodities recommend to their dealers a method of allocating most overhead costs, but these recommended methods differ from one manufacturer to another, and the dealers of any particular manufacturer may differ among themselves in their application of the recommended method. These differences in methods of allocation cause differences in reported earnings, which would be nearly the same if the same method of allocation had been used. The Director's experience in processing applications under section 20 (a) of CPR 34 is that where the seller is chiefly a seller of automotive and farm equipment, rather than primarily a seller of repair services on such commodities, the differences in methods of allocation cause distortions in the adjustments granted, and that a modification of section 20 (a), as applied to such sellers, is therefore required. This supplementary regulation provides such a modification.

Since there is no basis uniformly used throughout the automotive and farm equipment industry for determining the earnings of dealers from the services portion of their businesses, this supplementary regulation employs, as a method of determining hardship in respect of their sales of automotive and farm equipment repair services, a ratio of labor sales to labor costs. This method utilizes the same category of labor costs and income from labor sales for all such dealers for all periods without reference to the commodity aspects of their businesses. In general this supplementary regulation employs this ratio of labor sales and labor costs as a basis on which it will grant adjustment of these service prices when the dollar difference between the labor sales and labor cost, for the same volume, has declined but in determining the amount of adjustment, if any, that will be granted, OPS will consider all of the factors mentioned in section 20 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 which remains applicable to these service sellers except insofar as it is inconsistent with this supplementary regulation. The adjusted ceiling prices of sellers whose representative period ends later than June 30, 1951, may not exceed the prevailing level of prices.

Those sellers who were not in business before January 26, 1951 and have no representative experience that could serve as a basis of adjusting their ceiling prices, but who have been in business at least three months are given the prevailing level of prices. Generally such sellers will be new sellers who have already been given approximately this level of prices as their ceiling prices for their services, and it is not anticipated that this provision of this supplementary regulation will have wide application.

This supplementary regulation also authorizes the service sellers to whom it applies to redetermine their ceiling prices for factory warranty services, on the automotive or farm equipment they sell, to enable them to recover their approximate direct labor costs in supplying these services. Traditionally these services have been furnished on the basis of the direct labor costs involved in supplying them and it is, therefore, considered equitable to provide that these sellers shall be authorized to charge a ceiling price that will enable them to continue to recover these costs.

This supplementary regulation provides a new form of application for adjustment and provides that such applications must, in all cases, be filed in the OPS district offices.

In the formulation of this supplementary regulation, there has been consultation with industry representatives including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the provisions of this supplementary regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 7 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101–2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this supplementary regulation does. This supplementary regulation modifies the method of adjusting the ceiling prices of certain sellers for automotive and farm equipment repair services under section 20 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. It specifies a new form to be used in applying for such adjustments and now in all cases requires that such applications must be filed in the OPS district offices. It also provides a means whereby the sellers to whom it applies may redetermine their ceiling prices for factory warranty services.

SEC. 2. Relationship to Ceiling Price Regulation 34. Except for the changes made by this supplementary regulation, all provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, including section 20 (a) remain in effect with respect to sellers subject to this supplementary regulation.

SEC. 3. Applicability. This supplementary regulation applies to sellers of automotive and farm equipment repair services who also sell automotive or farm equipment, and whose dollar volume of customers labor sales (see section 7) was less than 50 percent of the total dollar volume of sales of their entire business during a representative period (see section 7), or if they were not in business before January 26, 1951, and have no representative period but have been in business more than three months, during the entire time they have been in business.

SEC. 4. Ceiling price adjustments. (a) If this supplementary regulation applies to you, OPS will adjust your ceiling prices for automotive and farm equipment repair services upon a showing that they impair, to such an extent as to threaten the effective operation of your service business, your gross profit on customers labor sales (see section 7) in a representative period. In general, the amount of adjustment granted will be the amount necessary to give you the same dollar gross profit on customers labor sales as you had on the same volume of such sales in your representative period. In determining, however, the extent of the adjustment, if any, that will be granted to you, OPS will consider the factors specified in section 20 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, insofar as they are applicable to your service business. If your representative period ends later than June 30, 1951, your adjusted ceiling prices may not exceed the prevailing level of ceiling prices for the same services sold by the most similar class of sellers.

(1) If you were not in business before January 26, 1951, and have no representative period (see section 7), but have been in business more than three months, OPS will adjust your ceiling prices for automotive and farm equipment repair services to the prevailing level of ceiling prices for the same services sold by the most similar class of sellers.

(b) You must file your application for adjustment on OPS Public Form No. 154 in the OPS District Office for the OPS district in which your place of business is located. If you render services at more than one place of business, each place of business is a separate seller under this supplementary regulation and a separate application must be filed for each location at which you want your ceiling prices adjusted. In addition to the information required of you by OPS Public Form No. 154, OPS may request such additional information as may be found necessary in considering your application. If paragraph (a) (1) applies to you, you must file your application as requested in this paragraph.

(c) If prior to November 12, 1952, you have filed an application for adjustment of your ceiling prices for automotive or farm equipment repair services on OPS Public Form No. 43, revised, and an adjustment order has not been issued to you prior to December 2, 1952, you must reapply under this supplementary regulation on OPS Public Form No. 154.

SEC. 5. Redetermination of your ceiling prices for factory warranty services. If you compute your ceiling prices for factory warranty services rendered on automotive or farm equipment, under CPR 34, as amended, by multiplying the actual time required to perform the work, or a time allowance specified in a flat rate manual, by a rate which is below the wage rate you pay your regular productive mechanics, you may use the current wage rate to redetermine your ceiling prices for such services. If you redetermine your ceiling prices for factory warranty services under this section of this supplementary regulation, you must file a statement to that effect, including the wage rate you use in making the computation, with your OPS District Office before using your increased prices.

SEC. 6. Interpretations. If you want an official interpretation of this supplementary regulation or of OPS Public Form No. 154, you should write to the District Counsel of your OPS District Office. Any action taken by you in reliance upon and in conformity with a written official interpretation will constitute action in good faith pursuant to this supplementary regulation. Further information on obtaining official interpretations is contained in Price Procedural Regulation 1, as revised.

SEC. 7. Definitions and explanations. (a) When used in this supplementary regulation:

(1) "Automotive equipment" means any self-propelled vehicle, except railroad equipment, operated on land as distinguished from on water or in the air.

(2) "Cost of customers labor sales" refers to the total wages you paid for the direct labor which produced the customers labor sales. It includes fringe benefits which are calculated as a percentage of payrolls and it may include certain supplies such as paint or grease which are consumed in producing the services sold to the customers. It does not include cost of parts; wages you paid for "come back" work for which you made no charge to your customers; wages paid to perform factory warranty work; wages paid for work on your own new or used automotive and farm equipment, buildings, or other property; or any wages you paid for any other purpose than to pay for direct labor involved in customers labor sales.

(3) "Customers labor sales" means your sales to customers of labor on automotive or farm equipment, excluding charges for parts, and including among other customers labor sales the following:

(i) Body repair, if the work was performed by your own employees;

(ii) Paint work, if the work was performed by your own employees;

(iii) Lubrication services (not including oil changes);

(iv) Washing and polishing;

(v) Tire service (not including tire sales);

(vi) Undercoating, if the work was performed by your own employees.

"Customers labor sales" does not include any amount for factory warranty work; for work on your own new or used automotive and farm equipment, buildings, or other property; or any amount that does not represent a change to a customer for work done for him by you or your employees on automotive or farm equipment.

(4) "Farm equipment" means any equipment with moving parts, drawn by animals or automotive vehicles, used on a farm.

(5) "Factory warranty services" means work performed for a manufacturer of automotive or farm equipment by one of his authorized dealers, to comply with the manufacturer's warranty on such equipment.

(6) "Gross profit on labor sales" means the difference between your customers labor sales and your cost of customers labor sales.

(7) "Productive mechanic" or "productive employee" means an employee whose direct labor is involved in customers labor sales.

(8) "Representative period" means the first twelve months after December 31, 1948, of the operation of a business that has been operating at least 24 months prior to the date you file your application for adjustment under this supplementary regulation, regardless of whether it was operated by you or your predecessor. If during the twelve month period your business was seriously affected by flood, strike, fire or some other unusual occurrence, OPS may determine that the period is not representative for your business in which case OPS will also determine what period, if any, is representative.

(9) "Sales of the entire business" means total sales of automotive and farm equipment commodities and services and all other commodities and services.

Effective date. This supplementary regulation shall become effective November 12, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this supplementary regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

CPR 34—SERVICES

SR 27—DRY CLEANING IN MILWAUKEE COUNTY, WISCONSIN

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this supplementary regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This supplementary regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 permits an increase in ceiling prices for dry cleaning services furnished at wholesale and retail by sellers located in Milwaukee County, Wisconsin. A previous ceiling price increase granted to power laundries in Milwaukee County did not include dry cleaning services.

An OPS study of the operating costs and profit margins of 25 firms doing approximately 90 percent of both the wholesale and retail dry cleaning business in Milwaukee County, Wisconsin, which amounted to $6,000,000 in 1951, reveals that increased labor and material costs incurred since the Ceiling Price Regulation 34 base period (December 19, 1950, to January 25, 1951, inclusive) have impaired the pre-Korean earnings of such dry cleaning service sellers.

The action taken herein gives effect to the standards for individual price adjustment contained in section 20 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 and permits the minimum increase necessary to maintain the financial stability of these dry cleaning service sellers and assure continued supply of these essential services.

Under the provisions of this supplementary regulation, Ceiling Price Regulation 34 ceiling prices of sellers of dry cleaning services may be increased by a stated amount. Since OPS has the previous price filings of these sellers in its possession, the suplementary filing required by section 18 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is not considered to be necessary and is therefore excused, thereby easing the administrative burden of these service sellers and of the OPS.

In the future, sellers subject to this supplementary regulation may not obtain an adjustment of their ceiling prices for dry cleaning services at wholesale and retail under section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. Any adjustment of ceiling prices under section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 heretofore granted is automatically revoked as of the effective date of this supplementary regulation.

In the formulation of this suplementary regulation, the Director has consulted insofar as practicable with representative suppliers of these services, including representatives of trade associations, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the increases permitted by this supplementary regulation are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

SECTION 1. Purpose. This supplementary regulation permits sellers of dry cleaning services furnished at wholesale and retail located in Milwaukee County, Wisconsin, to increase their ceiling prices for wholesale and retail dry cleaning services in the manner provided in section 3.

SEC. 2. Relationship to Ceiling Price Regulation 34. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, except as affected by the provisions of this supplementary regulation shall remain in effect. However, you need not make the supplementary filing required by section 18 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34.

SEC. 3. Adjustment of ceiling prices. You may, to the extent you supply dry cleaning services at wholesale or retail from locations in Milwaukee County, Wisconsin, increase your ceiling prices for the dry cleaning services thus supplied as follows:

	Increase at wholesale	Increase at retail
Suits	$0.05	$0.10
Dresses	.05	.10
Ladies' coats	.05	.10
Topcoats	.05	.10

SEC. 4. Application of section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. No seller of dry cleaning services at wholesale or retail subject to this supplementary regulation may, after the effective date of this regulation, obtain an increase in his ceiling prices for such dry cleaning services under either section 20 (a), 20 (b) or 20 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. All orders establishing ceiling prices of any seller of dry cleaning services subject to this supplementary regulation issued under either section 20 (a), 20 (b) or 20 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 are hereby revoked, upon the effective date of this regulation.

SEC. 5. Definitions. (a) As used in this supplementary regulation the term:

(1) "Dry cleaning services" means services rendered in the cleaning of garments primarily with fluids other than water. When rendered at retail, dry cleaning services includes pressing or finishing the garment. When rendered at wholesale, finishing is usually specified if the garment is to be pressed.

(i) "Cleaning" means the dry cleaning of a garment or item, including the spotting thereof.

(ii) "Finishing" means the pressing of a garment or item.

(2) "Wholesale" refers to the sale for resale to the ultimate consumer of dry cleaning services to tailor shops, valets, hotels and retail outlets. It also includes sales to commercial, industrial, institutional or governmental users.

(3) "Retail" refers to the sale of dry cleaning services directly to the ultimate consumer except commercial, industrial, institutional and governmental users.

Effective date. This Supplementary Regulation 27 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 shall become effective November 7, 1952.

SR 28—DRY CLEANING IN COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this supplementary regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This Supplementary Regulation 28 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 permits an increase in ceiling prices for dry cleaning services furnished at wholesale and retail by sellers located in Cook County, Illinois. A previous ceiling price increase granted to power laundries in Cook County did not include dry cleaning services.

An OPS study of the operating costs and profit margins of a representative number of dry cleaning service sellers in Cook County, Illinois, accounting for approximately 75 percent of the total volume of sales of these services, which amounted to $20,000,000 in 1951, reveals that increased labor and material costs incurred since the Ceiling Price Regulation 34 base period (December 19, 1950 to January 25, 1951, inclusive) have impaired the pre-Korean earnings of such dry cleaning service sellers.

The action taken herein gives effect to the Standards for individual price adjustment contained in section 20 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 and permits the minimum increase necessary to maintain the financial stability of these dry cleaning service sellers and assure continued supply of these essential services.

Under the provisions of this supplementary regulation, Ceiling Price Regulation 34 ceiling prices of sellers of dry cleaning services may be increased by a stated amount. Since OPS has the previous price filings of these sellers in its possession, the supplementary filing required by section 18 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is not considered to be necessary and is therefore excused, thereby easing the administrative burden of these service sellers and of the OPS.

In the future, sellers subject to this supplementary regulation may not obtain an adjustment of their ceiling prices for dry cleaning services at wholesale and retail under section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. Any adjustment of ceiling prices under section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 heretofore granted is automatically revoked as of the effective date of this supplementary regulation.

In the formulation of this suplementary regulation, the Director has consulted insofar as practicable with representative suppliers of these services, including representatives of trade associations, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the increases permitted by this supplementary regulation are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 118, Amdt. 1]

CPR 118—PRODUCERS OF BOLTS, NUTS, SCREWS AND RIVETS

UNIFORM INDUSTRY-WIDE METAL COST INCREASE ADJUSTMENTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 118 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment implements Supplementary Regulation 1 to General Overriding Regulation 35 which has been issued simultaneously herewith.

Supplementary Regulation 1 gives producers of bolts, nuts, screws, or rivets an option to use the following industry-wide increases instead of the increases calculated for each producer under General Overriding Regulation 35:

Screws: 1.6 percent.
Large rivets (steel): 25 cents per 100 pounds.
All other rivets: 2.2 percent.
Steel or aluminum bolts and nuts: 2.2 percent.

This amendment incorporates this option and the increases permitted thereunder into Ceiling Price Regulation 118 for purposes of information, consistency and clarity. The reasons for providing the option are set forth in detail in the Statement of Considerations to Supplementary Regulation 1 to GOR 35.

In the formulation of this amendment there has been consultation with industry representatives, including the Nut, Bolt and Rivet and the Screw Industry Advisory Committees and trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Section 2 of Ceiling Price Regulation 118 is amended by addition of the following:

(e) Optional industry-wide increases. Rather than using the increases provided by GOR 35, you may, pursuant to the provisions of Supplementary Regulation 1 to GOR 35, at your option add to your ceiling prices as established by paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this section or pursuant to section 5 of this regulation an amount not to exceed the following:

(1) All stove bolts, machine screws, wood screws, tapping screws, stove bolt nuts, machine screw nuts, recessed head bolts and screws, preassembled lock washer stove bolts, preassembled lock washer screws, binding screws: 1.6 percent.

(2) Steel solid rivets ½" in diameter and larger: 25 cents per 100 pounds.

(3) All steel or aluminum machine bolts, carriage bolts, lag bolts, plow bolts, step bolts, elevator bolts, tap bolts, coupling bolts, tire bolts, cap screws, set screws, steel solid rivets less than ½" in diameter, aluminum rivets all diameters, American standard regular nuts, American standard heavy nuts, American standard light nuts, and also every similar industrial fastener manufactured by any process to any specification whatsoever: 2.2 percent.

(4) All steel or aluminum threaded studs of all types, socket head and blank bolts, track bolts, track bolts nuts, frog bolts, switch bolts, gage rods, screw spikes, lock nuts, speed nuts, wing nuts, thumb nuts, acorn nuts, cap nuts, clinch-nuts, split rivets, tubular rivets, blind rivets other than explosive, clevis pins, wire spokes, spoke nipples, all of the foregoing when manufactured by any process to any specification whatsoever: 2.2 percent.

(5) All steel or aluminum miscellaneous headed, threaded, punched, bent or cut off products when manufactured by a person who is otherwise a producer of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets by use of any machine customarily used in the manufacture of any headed or punched product mentioned in subparagraph (3) above: 2.2 percent.

Once you exercise this option with respect to any one of the above listed bolts, nuts, screws or rivets, you must thereafter use the appropriate industry-wide increase specified above exclusively in establishing your ceiling prices for all your sales of any of the above listed bolts, nuts, screws or rivets.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 118 shall become effective November 12, 1952.

CPR 134—CEILING PRICES FOR EATING AND DRINKING ESTABLISHMENTS

EXEMPTIONS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 7 to Ceiling Price Regulation 134 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment exempts from price control so-called in-plant feeding operations and those feeding facilities which are operated by a caterer on behalf of an educational institution.

1. As part of the increasing stress placed by employers on the maintenance of good relations with their employees, in-plant feeding operations have greatly expanded since the war. Because of the purpose of these operations, the prices charged in these types of eating and drinking establishments are generally lower than those the employees would pay at public eating places. Very often, if not in most cases, any operating losses are considered an expense of the plant or other business concern in which the feeding operation is conducted, whether it is carried out by the owner of the plant or business or by a caterer or concessionaire. Despite the desire of many enterprises to cut the subsidy they have had to pay for support of low priced feeding facilities, it is the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization that the demands of successful employer-employee relations will prevent unreasonable increases in prices. This amendment, therefore, exempts from price control dining rooms, cafeterias, snack bars, etc., which are not open to the general public and are operated by or on behalf of industrial or commercial concerns for the purpose of serving meals, food items and beverages to the employees of those concerns. However, if this type of eating and drinking establishment is operated by a caterer or other person on behalf of an industrial or commercial concern, the exemption applies only if the concern maintains control of the prices charged for meals, food items and beverages. Similarly, this amendment exempts from price control eating and drinking establishments which are not open to the general public and are operated by employee associations for the purpose of serving meals, food items and beverages to the members of those associations.

2. Under the present regulation, eating and drinking establishments which are not open to the general public and are operated by an educational institution, student fraternity, organization or association primarily for the convenience of students, faculty and guests, are exempt from price control. This amendment provides that when this type of eating and drinking establishment is operated by a caterer or other person, on behalf of the institution or association, it is also exempt from price control if the institution or association maintains control of the prices charged for meals, food items and beverages.

In the formulation of this amendment, there has been consultation to the extent practicable with industry representatives including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable, are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and comply with all of the applicable standards of that act.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 134 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 4 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Establishments which are not open to the general public and are operated by or on behalf of a school, college, university or other educational institution or a student fraternity or other student organization or association primarily for the convenience or accommodation of students, faculty and guests: Provided, That where an establishment of this kind is operated by a caterer or other person on behalf of such an institution, fraternity, organization or association, the latter maintains control of the prices charged for meals, food items and beverages.

2. Section 4 (a) is amended by adding subparagraphs (7) and (8) to read as follows:

(7) Establishments which are not open to the general public and are operated by employee associations for the purpose of serving meals, food items and beverages to the members of those associations.

(8) Establishments which are not open to the general public and are operated by or on behalf of industrial or commercial concerns for the purpose of serving meals, food items and beverages to the employees of those concerns: Provided, That where an establishment of this kind is operated by a caterer or other person on behalf of an industrial or commercial concern, the latter maintains control of the prices charged for meals, food items and beverages.

3. Section 18 is amended by adding a new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

(d) If your sales are exempt from the provisions of this regulation under section 4 you must nevertheless maintain and keep for inspection by the Office of Price Stabilization for the period specified the records listed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section which you were required to have at the time your sales became exempt. However, you need not prepare or preserve the records listed under paragraph (b) (2) or (3) which cover the period after your sales become exempt under section 4.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This Amendment 7 to Ceiling Price Regulation 134 is effective November 7, 1952.

TIGHE E. WOODS,
Director of Price Stabilization.

GCPR, SR 63—AREA MILK PRICE ADJUSTMENTS

AMPR 5—CHICAGO MILK MARKETING AREA, STATE OF ILLINOIS

AUTOMATIC WITHDRAWAL OF INCREASE IN CEILING PRICES OF FLUID MILK PRODUCTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, and Delegation of Authority No. 41, this amendment to Area Milk Price Regulation 5, pursuant to Supplementary Regulation 63 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Amendment 5 to Area Milk Price Regulation 5 provided a ½ cent per sales point increase in the ceiling price of milk in Chicago. The Statement of Considerations to Amendment 5 to Area Milk Price Regulation 5 stated that:

A representative sample of Chicago dairies are being requested to submit additional data to the Agency within the next thirty days. After this information has been received, appropriate action will be taken in light of all the evidence available. This order will, therefore, be revoked after sixty days unless supported by the requested information.

The Office of Price Stabilization finds that an analysis of the data presently available to it reveals an inadequate basis either for revoking this increase or continuing it indefinitely. Accordingly, this order continues this increase until December 15, 1952. After December 15, 1952, this increase is automatically withdrawn. In the interim between the effective date of this amendment and December 15, 1952, it is believed that a conclusive answer can be reached. More data are presently being obtained to assist in this determination.

In the judgment of the Director, the provisions of this amendment to Area Milk Price Regulation No. 5 in Region VII are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended by the Defense Production Act amendments of 1951 and 1952.

The Director gave due consideration to the national effort to achieve the maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended; to prices prevailing during the period from May 24, 1950 to June 24, 1950, inclusive; and to all relevant factors of general applicability. In the formulation of this amendment, the Director has consulted industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the fullest extent practicable and has given due consideration to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Area Milk Price Regulation 5 issued under Supplementary Regulation 63 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation, is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 4 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4. Ceiling prices for milk for fluid consumption—(a) Your ceiling prices up to and including December 15, 1952. Up to and including December 15, 1952, your ceiling prices for any milk product for fluid consumption shall be your ceiling price determined under the provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation and in effect on November 15, 1951, plus (except for sales to vendors) one cent per sales point. Your ceiling ceiling price for any milk product for fluid consumption sold to vendors shall be your ceiling price determined under the provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation and in effect November 15, 1951, plus one-quarter cent per sales point.

(b) Your ceiling prices after December 15, 1952. After December 15, 1952, your ceiling prices for any milk product for fluid consumption shall be your ceiling price determined under the provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation and in effect on November 15, 1951, plus (except for sales to vendors) ½ cent per sales point. Your ceiling price for any milk product for fluid consumption sold to vendors shall be your ceiling price determined under the provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation and in effect November 15, 1951, plus one-quarter cent per sales point.

(c) Sales points. Each of the following categories shall be considered one sales point for the specified container size. To determine the sales point value for a container of another size in any category, divide the contents of that container size by the contents of the container size in the same category specified in this section:

(1) One quart of fluid milk products, such as regular milk, homogenized milk, vitamin D milk, special buttermilk, chocolate whole milk, and fluid milk or drinks specially treated or flavored with a butterfat content between 3½ and 6 percent.

(2) One-half gallon of fluid milk products such as skim milk with a butterfat content of less than 3½ percent.

(3) One-third of a quart of concentrated whole milk and allied products having a butterfat content of 10 percent or more.

(4) One pint of cream products having a butterfat content between 10 percent and 15 percent.

(5) One-half pint of cream products having a butterfat content of more than 15 percent.

(6) Sixteen ounces of cottage cheese products.

(7) Sixteen ounces or one pint of specialty products such as yogurt.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment 6 to Area Milk Price Regulation 5, pursuant to Supplementary Regulation 63 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation shall become effective November 7, 1952.

[General Overriding Regulation 35, Supplementary Regulation 1]

GOR 35—PASS THROUGH FOR STEEL, PIG IRON, COPPER AND ALUMINUM COST INCREASES

ADJUSTMENTS FOR BOLTS, NUTS, SCREWS AND RIVETS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Supplementary Regulation 1 to General Overriding Regulation 35 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This supplementary regulation gives producers of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets an option to use the following industry-wide increases instead of the "pass-through" as otherwise calculated for each producer individually under General Overriding Regulation (GOR) 35.

Screws: 1.6 percent.
Large rivets: 25 cents per 100 pounds.
All other rivets: 2.2 percent.
Steel or aluminum bolts and nuts: 2.2 percent.

Furthermore, it permits persons employing bolts, nuts, screws or rivets as manufacturing materials to use these industry-wide increases as the amounts they may reflect for bolts, nuts, screws and rivets in adjusting their own ceiling prices under GOR 35, if they wish. However, such persons who buy from resellers rather than the manufacturers of these products use the industry-wide increases.

This supplementary regulation is issued pursuant to section 18 of GOR 35 which provides for the issuance of supplementary regulations where the pass-through increase procedure provided for by GOR 35 is not appropriate for a particular industry. The GOR 35 procedure is found not to be appropriate for producers of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets.

Some 400,000 different items are manufactured by these producers and they are sold to thousands of different customers. The notification requirements of GOR 35, accordingly, appear not only burdensome for the producers, but also unduly complicate the calculations of the ceiling prices of the products in which bolts, nuts, screws or rivets are used. Furthermore, it has been determined that the application of GOR 35 would result in variations in the prices among producers of the same bolts, nuts, screws or rivets. These items have historically been priced on an "in-line" basis and the disturbed price relationships would result in confusion for the purchasers of these products.

To afford a medium for eliminating the confusion and complications mentioned, this supplementary regulation provides the producers of these items with an option to use the uniform increases listed above. The increases of 2.2 percent for bolts, nuts, and small rivets, and the 1.6 percent for screws is arrived at by taking the lowest increase calculated under GOR 35 for each of these product lines which was reported by individual members of the Industry Advisory Committees for the Bolt, Nut and Rivet Industry and for the Screw Industry. In each instance the members of the Advisory Committees represented the bulk of the production in each of the two industries. In the case of each industry the lowest increase was only slightly less than the weighted average of the reporting members.

An exception is made in the case of large rivets. The reason for this exception is that there are only a few manufacturers of this particular product and the metal cost represents the predominant part of the cost of production. Accordingly, the uniform increases provided for products involving a much smaller proportionate metal cost result in price increases for large rivets which fail by substantial amounts to cover the metal cost increase. Producers of these items demonstrated the desirability of providing a pass-through equivalent to the $5.00 a ton increase in the price of the steel bars from which these items are processed. This increase is reflected in the supplementary regulation by permission to use 25¢ per 100 pounds as the pass-through for this product.

The only bolt, nut, screw and rivet items not covered by the option are nonferrous bolts and nuts. These are manufactured by only three or four companies and are highly special products. The production costs of these items vary sharply between the producers who each specialize not only in types of non-ferrous bolts and nuts produced, but also in methods of marketing. Accordingly, the provisions of GOR 35 are appropriate to these particular items and no option is provided for them.

Producers who exercise the option to use the uniform price increases provided for by this supplementary regulation are exempted from the notification procedures of section 13 of GOR 35 and purchasers who are entitled to calculate increases under GOR 35 are, in turn, permitted to use automatically the industry-wide pass-through increases provided for herein when figuring their own ceiling prices under GOR 35. The reason for this is that it is presumed that these products have been selling at ceilings and that the producers of these items will in most cases increase their prices by the industry-wide increases permitted by this supplementary regulation.

Where a producer does not exercise the option and calculates his increases pursuant to GOR 35, persons purchasing from him may use such GOR 35 pass-through increases in calculating their own ceiling prices (provided, of course, they receive due notification in accordance with section 13 of GOR 35) or they may choose to use the uniform industry-wide increases. In a few cases, producers of nuts, bolts, screws or rivets have already given notice of price increases calculated on an individual basis under GOR 35. Such producers may substitute the uniform industry-wide increases provided in this supplementary regulation by giving notice to their customers of the change.

Of course, in order to accomplish the purposes of this supplementary regulation, a producer who adopts the uniform increase provided for a category of nuts, bolts, screws or rivets, must use the appropriate uniform adjustment for all of his sales of nuts, bolts, screws or rivets.

No provision is made for distributors, warehouses and mill supply houses who purchase bolts, nuts, screws and rivets, since they are entitled to reflect the amount of the increases in figuring their own ceiling prices under the provisions of Supplementary Regulation 29 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation. However, persons purchasing from these sources who are entitled to use the GOR 35 increases are to reflect the industry-wide increases provided for herein in calculating their own ceiling prices under GOR 35.

Ceiling Price Regulation 118 has been amended simultaneously herewith to reflect the option privilege established by this supplementary regulation.

In the formulation of this regulation there has been consultation with industry representatives, including the Nut, Bolt and Rivet and the Screw Industry Advisory Committees, and trade association representatives, to the extent practicable, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

In the opinion of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this regulation are generally fair and equitable, comply with all applicable provisions of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of that act.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this regulation does.
2. Optional industry-wide increases.
3. Exemption from section 13 of GOR 35.
4. Purchasers of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 4 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110; E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. This regulation does the following:

(a) It gives producers of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets an option to use the industry-wide increases listed in section 2 of this regulation, rather than the increases calculated for each producer under GOR 35.

(b) It permits persons (other than purchasers from resellers rather than manufacturers) authorized by GOR 35 to pass through metal cost increases, to use either the amounts listed in section 2 of this regulation for bolts, nuts, screws and rivets or the individual increases calculated under GOR 35 as the amounts to be reflected for these items in calculating their ceiling prices under GOR 35. However, purchasers of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets from resellers use the amounts listed in section 2.

(c) It relieves producers who exercise the option in section 2 of this regulation of the necessity of complying with the notification provisions of section 13 of GOR 35 with respect to the bolts, nuts, screws or rivets listed in section 2 of this regulation.

SEC. 2. Optional industry-wide increases. If you are a producer of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets, instead of using the increases provided by GOR 35, you may, at your option, add to your ceiling prices as established by paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this section or pursuant to section 5 of Ceiling Price Regulation 118, an amount not to exceed the following:

(a) All stove bolts, machine screws, wood screws, tapping screws, stove bolt nuts, machine screw nuts, recessed head bolts and screws, preassembled lock washer screws, binding screws: 1.6 percent.

(b) Steel solid rivets ½" in diameter and larger: 25 cents per 100 pounds.

(c) All steel or aluminum machine bolts, carriage bolts, lag bolts, plow bolts, step bolts, elevator bolts, tap bolts, coupling bolts, tire bolts, cap screws, set screws, steel solid rivets, less than ½" in diameter, aluminum rivets all diameters, American standard regular nuts, American standard heavy nuts, American standard light nuts, and also every similar industrial fastener manufactured by any process to any specification whatsoever: 2.2 percent.

(d) All steel or aluminum threaded studs of all types, socket head and blank bolts, track bolts, track bolt nuts, frog bolts, switch bolts, gage rods, screw spikes, lock nuts, speed nuts, wing nuts, thumb nuts, acorn nuts, cap nuts, clinch-nuts, split rivets, tubular rivets, blind rivets other than explosive, clevis pins, wire spokes, spoke nipples, all of the foregoing when manufactured by any process to any specification whatsoever: 2.2 percent.

(e) All steel or aluminum miscellaneous headed, threaded, punched, bent or cut off products when manufactured by a person who is otherwise a producer of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets by use of any machine customarily used in the manufacture of any headed or punched product mentioned in paragraph (c) above: 2.2 percent.

Once you exercise this option with respect to any one of the above-listed bolts, nuts, screws or rivets, you must thereafter use the appropriate industry-wide increase specified above in establishing your ceiling prices for all sales of any of the above-listed bolts, nuts, screws or rivets.

SEC. 3. Exemption from section 13 of GOR 35. If you adjust your ceiling prices by using the uniform industry-wide increases set forth in section 2 of this regulation and you have not previously notified your customers of some other adjustment figure, you need not give the notice to your customers required by section 13 of GOR 35.

SEC. 4. Purchasers of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets. (a) If you are a purchaser of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets who is authorized by GOR 35 to pass through metal cost increases, and, prior to effective date of this regulation, you have not received from the producer selling you such products notice of an increase in his ceiling prices under GOR 35, you may use the increase amounts listed in section 2 of this regulation for any bolts, nuts, screws or rivets listed in that section 2 as the amounts which you reflect for these items in calculating your own ceiling prices under GOR 35. You are limited to these amounts for such bolts, nuts, screws or rivets unless, on or after the effective date of this supplementary regulation, you are notified, pursuant to section 13 of GOR 35, by the selling producer that he is using the pass-through increases calculated under GOR 35 rather than the industry-wide increases listed in section 2 of this regulation. Where such notification is given, you may use the increases set forth therein or the increases set forth in section 2 above in adjusting your ceiling prices under GOR 35.

(b) If you are a purchaser of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets and, prior to the effective date of this regulation, you have received from the producer selling you such products notice of an increase in his ceiling prices under GOR 35 which does not correspond with the amounts listed in section 2 of this regulation, you may continue to use the figure contained in that notice or you may use the appropriate figure specified in section 2 above.

(c) Once you have made the choice, permitted under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section 4, of using either the industry-wide increases provided in section 2 or the increases calculated under GOR 35, you may not thereafter change to the other method of adjusting your ceiling prices.

(d) If you are a purchaser of bolts, nuts, screws or rivets who is authorized by GOR 35 to pass through metal cost increases, and you buy any of the products listed in section 2 above not from the producer but from a reseller, in making the adjustments in your ceiling prices under GOR 35, you use the appropriate figure set out in that section 2.

Effective date. This supplementary regulation to General Overriding Regulation 35 is effective November 12, 1952.

Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

Chapter VI—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[NPA Order M-73 as amended November 7, 1952]

M-73—MAINTENANCE, REPAIR, INSTALLATION, AND OPERATING SUPPLIES AND MINOR CAPITAL ADDITIONS, FOR RAIL TRANSPORTATION SYSTEMS

This order, as amended, is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority granted by the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this amended order, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

EXPLANATORY

This order as amended affects NPA Order M-73 as amended April 16, 1952, in the following respects, among others: In section 2, it changes the definitions of "operating supplies" (paragraph (e)) and "installations" (paragraph (h)). In section 3, it authorizes the acquisition and use of used steel and foreign steel without an allotment. In section 8, operators of rail transportation systems are permitted to obtain rail and track accessories without regard to calendar-day inventory limitations, provided such acquisitions do not exceed allotments and advance allotments issued under the order.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this order does.
2. Definitions.
3. Statements of requirements.
4. Use of allotment number U-3 and rating DO-U3.
5. Limitations on use of allotment number and rating.
6. Exceptions due to emergency conditions.
7. Rail transportation systems whose requirements are not in excess of $25,000 per quarter.
8. Inventory limitations.
9. Request for adjustment or exception.
10. Records and reports.
11. Communications.
12. Violations.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 12 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this order does. The purpose of this order is to provide a uniform procedure under the Controlled Materials Plan by which rail transportation systems may obtain controlled materials and products or materials other than controlled materials for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies (hereinafter collectively referred to as "MRO"), installation, and minor capital additions. Except as otherwise provided, it requires each operator of a rail transportation system to report to NPA his total quarterly requirements for MRO, installation, and minor capital additions, and it explains how he may obtain the materials or products authorized by NPA after a review of such requirements. It also contains special provisions with respect to inventories of rail and track accessories.

SEC. 2. Definitions. For purposes of this order:

(a) "Rail transportation system" means and includes the following types of transportation facilities in the United States: A common carrier railroad, a terminal railroad, a switching railroad, a private car line company, a rapid transit system (including a subway and elevated railroad), and a street railway system (including a trolley coach system).

(b) "Operator" means any person to the extent that he owns or operates a private car line company or is engaged in the business of transporting passengers or property over a rail transportation system.

(c) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States Government or any other government.

(d) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue any plant, facility, or equipment in sound working condition, and "repair" means the restoration of any plant, facility, or equipment to sound working condition when it has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, failure of parts, or the like. "Maintenance" and "repair" include the replacement of any equipment (other than rail motive power and rolling stock) regardless of its accounting classification, but neither "maintenance" nor "repair" includes additions to plant or improvement of any plant, facility, or equipment by replacing materials or products which are in sound working condition. In routine maintenance, repair, and operations, the application of a superior part or a part of superior quality shall not be considered a capital addition, although under established accounting practices such application results in a charge to a capital account.

(e) "Operating supplies" means any kind of material carried by a rail transportation system as operating supplies according to its established accounting practice. Neither the term "operating supplies" nor any other provision of this order includes or applies to any item contained in List A of NPA Reg. 2.

(f) "MRO" means maintenance, repair, and operating supplies, as defined in this section, but does not include installation or minor capital additions.

(g) "Minor capital additions" means any improvement or addition where the total cost of materials or products required does not exceed $2,500 for any one complete capital addition. The term "one complete capital addition" includes all items entering into the improvement or addition as part of a single project or plan whether or not installed or completed at the same time, and the cost of all such items is to be included in figuring the total cost of the addition. No capital addition shall be subdivided for the purpose of bringing it or any part of it within the foregoing definitions.

(h) "Installation" means the setting up or relocation of machinery, fixtures, or equipment in position for service, and the connection thereof to existing service facilities, where such setting up or relocation is not and does not occur in conjunction with construction, as defined in Revised CMP Regulation No. 6. Where such installation occurs in a building, structure, or project which has been completed for less than 1 year and is part of the construction "project," as defined in Revised CMP Regulation No. 6, it shall not be considered installation for the purposes of this regulation.

(i) "Controlled materials" means steel, copper, and aluminum, in the forms and shapes indicated in CMP Regulation No. 1.

(j) "Authorized controlled material order" means any delivery order for any controlled material (as distinct from a product containing controlled material) which is placed pursuant to an allotment of controlled materials as provided in this order.

(k) "Delivery order" means any purchase order, contract, shipping, or other instruction, calling for delivery of any material or product on a particular date or dates or within specified periods of time.

(l) "NPA" means the National Production Authority.

SEC. 3. Statements of requirements. (a) An operator of a rail transportation system who wishes to operate under the provisions of this order shall file an application with NPA on Form NPAF-105 for a quarterly allotment of controlled materials and a quota of products or materials other than controlled materials for MRO, installation, and minor capital additions. He shall state on Form NPAF-105, in the manner prescribed therein, his actual quarterly requirements for such materials and products and shall file such form on a date specified by NPA prior to the beginning of the calendar quarter in which delivery is required.

(b) Where NPA has approved an application wholly or in part, the authorization returned to the applicant shall constitute an allotment of controlled materials in the quantities and in the forms and shapes specified therein and will establish a quota of products or materials other than controlled materials which the applicant is authorized to acquire for MRO, installation, and minor capital additions. NPA may from time to time issue advance allotments and quotas.

(c) No operator of a rail transportation system shall order controlled materials or products or materials other than controlled materials for MRO, minor capital additions, or installations in the absence or in excess of an allotment or quota issued as prescribed in this section, except as provided in sections 6 and 7 of this order and except that he may obtain foreign steel and used steel without placing an authorized controlled material order therefor and without making a corresponding charge against his allotment.

SEC. 4. Use of allotment number U-3 and rating DO-U3—(a) Authorized controlled material orders. Each operator of a rail transportation system who receives an allotment of controlled materials pursuant to this order may place delivery orders for such controlled materials not exceeding the quantities specified in the allotment. He shall place on each such order, or on a separate piece of paper attached thereto, the allotment number U-3, together with the abbreviated designation of the calendar quarter and year for which the allotment is valid, such as U-3-3Q52. Each delivery order shall bear the following certification:

Certified under NPA Order M-73

Such an order shall constitute an authorized controlled material order within the meaning of CMP regulations issued by NPA when signed as provided in section 8 of NPA Reg. 2. The certification shall serve as a representation to the supplier and to NPA that the operator of the rail transportation system is authorized under the provisions of this order to obtain the controlled materials covered by the authorized controlled material order.

(b) Delivery orders for products or materials other than controlled materials. Each operator of a rail transportation system who receives an authorization covering products or materials other than controlled materials may place on each delivery order therefor, the rating DO-U3, together with the words "Certified under NPA Order M-73." Such certification shall be signed as provided in section 8 of NPA Reg. 2. This certification shall constitute a representation to the supplier and to NPA that the operator of the transportation system is authorized under the provisions of this order to obtain the products or materials other than controlled materials covered by the delivery order.

(c) Delivery orders pursuant to CMP Regulation No. 5. No operator of a rail transportation system shall place orders pursuant to CMP Regulation No. 5 except as provided in section 7 of this order.

SEC. 5. Limitations on use of allotment number and rating. Neither the allotment number assigned in paragraph (a) of section 4 nor the rating assigned in paragraph (b) thereof shall be applied or extended to obtain any item listed in Schedules I or II of CMP Regulation No. 5. However, an operator of a rail transportation system may obtain such listed items in any calendar quarter without the use of such number or rating to the extent authorized each quarter by NPA pursuant to this order. The limitations of this paragraph do not apply to railroad safety and traffic control signs and markers.

SEC. 6. Exceptions due to emergency conditions. An operator of a rail transportation system may at any time use the allotment number U-3 or the rating DO-U3 assigned in section 4 of this order, whichever is applicable, to order for delivery controlled materials and products or materials other than controlled materials necessary for the maintenance or repair of property or equipment damaged or destroyed by extraordinary cause, such as explosion, fire, sabotage, acts of the public enemy, flood, storm, or similar emergency condition: Provided, however, That if an operator of a rail transportation system exceeds an allotment or quota issued by NPA for any calendar quarter by virtue of placing a delivery order for any such purpose, the controlled materials or the products or materials other than controlled materials so ordered shall be reported to NPA within 10 calendar days from the date of such delivery order on Form NPAF-105, which shall be accompanied by a statement of the reasons therefor.

SEC. 7. Rail transportation systems whose requirements are not in excess of $25,000 per quarter. An operator of a rail transportation system whose aggregate requirements for MRO, installation, and minor capital additions for any calendar quarter are not in excess of $25,000 shall obtain such requirements in accordance with the provisions of CMP Regulation No. 5, unless an election was made prior to July 28, 1951, to operate under the provisions of this order. If an operator's requirements for MRO, installation, and minor capital additions in any particular quarter are in excess of $25,000, such operator shall, for purposes of that quarter, operate under the provisions of this order. No advance allotment or quota will be issued to such person, however.

SEC. 8. Inventory limitations. (a) Nothing in this order shall be deemed to authorize an operator of a rail transportation system to order or receive any controlled materials or products or materials other than controlled materials if acceptance thereof would increase his inventory above the limit fixed in any applicable order or regulation of NPA except that (1) an operator of a rail transportation system may maintain minimum stocks of controlled materials and products or materials other than controlled materials for emergency use, and (2) an operator may acquire reasonable stocks of ties and lumber for seasoning in accordance with the provisions of this order, and (3) an operator who normally stocks rails, joint bars (track), tie plates (track), and track spikes in advance of the season of use, may accept, within the allotments or advance allotments authorized to him under this order, advance delivery of such items for his seasonal requirements to the extent that the deliveries accepted will be no greater than, and no further in advance than those that he would normally accept in the ordinary course of his operations to meet reasonably anticipated seasonal requirements.

(b) An operator of a rail transportation system may resell products or materials acquired under this order (1) to any other operator; or (2) to another person when such products or materials are to be physically incorporated in repairs of equipment which is used in the maintenance, repair, or operations of the operator's own property: Provided, That such products or materials could have been used by the operator in making his own repairs without violation of any of the provisions of this order; or (3) to the operator's own rail transportation system subsidiaries for the maintenance of track or equipment not owned but either customarily maintained by the operator or his subsidiaries, or for which materials are customarily furnished.

SEC. 9. Request for adjustment or exception. Any operator of a rail transportation system affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests for adjustment or exception claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, by letter in triplicate, and shall set forth all pertinent facts, the nature of the relief sought, and the justification therefor.

SEC. 10. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order shall make and preserve, for at least 3 years thereafter, accurate and complete records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, production, and use, in sufficient detail to permit the determination, after audit, whether each transaction complies with the provisions of this order. This order does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily used, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals by those persons who, at the time such microfilm or other photographic records are made, maintain such copies of records in the regular and usual course of business.

(b) All records required by this order shall be made available for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority, at the usual place of business where maintained.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports to NPA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139-139F).

SEC. 11. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: NPA Order M-73.

SEC. 12. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or any other order or regulation of NPA, or who wilfully furnishes false information or conceals any material fact in the course of operation under this order, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order as amended shall take effect November 7, 1952.

[NPA Order M-79, as amended November 7, 1952]

M-79—MAINTENANCE, REPAIR, AND OPERATING SUPPLIES FOR EXPORT

This order as amended is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this order as amended, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. However, because the order as amended affects many exporters in a wide variety of industries, it has been impracticable to consult with representatives of all affected trades and industries.

EXPLANATORY

This amended order revises NPA Order M-79, as amended March 6, 1952, by adding provisions to sections 8 and 9 to permit manufacturers to accept and fill non-rated export orders in excess of their MRO export quotas.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 18 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order sets up a procedure to meet essential foreign requirements for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies of specified types and in limited quantities. It provides quarterly MRO export quotas for manufacturers and explains how they and other exporters may draw on these quotas. It also makes provision whereby manufacturers may apply the DO–MRO rating to export orders and whereby nonmanufacturing exporters may secure the right to apply such rating to export orders.

SEC. 2. Items subject to this order. The only items to which this order applies, and the only items included in "MRO" as that term is used in this order, are the following:

(a) Replacement parts for machinery or equipment which is employed in other than personal or household uses; and

(b) Those items (whether for replacement or not) listed below which are to be employed in other than personal or household uses:

Hand tools, whether hand-operated or power-driven, including appliances such as grease guns, jacks, pumps, and the like.
Chucks (all types), die heads, grinding wheels, and cutting tools (all types, including drills, taps, reamers, and the like), designed for use with machine tools.
Electrodes and anodes.
Welding rods.
Rope, chain, and cable.
Sizing.
Laboratory supplies, instruments, and equipment, with an export sales price f. a. s. not exceeding $1,000 for any one item.
Pole line, transmission, and distribution hardware, and electrical porcelain (dry process and wet process).

SEC. 3. Items excluded from this order. The following items are specifically excluded from the operation of this order:

(a) Materials included in List A of NPA Reg. 2, or in Appendix A of Direction 3 to NPA Reg. 2, as they may be amended or supplemented from time to time;

(b) Materials included in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 5, as such schedule may be amended or supplemented from time to time;

(c) Controlled materials as defined in section 2 (c) of CMP Regulation No. 1, as such regulation may be amended or supplemented from time to time;

(d) Farm equipment;

(e) Parts and accessories for aircraft or for ground equipment for servicing aircraft, and any component of either;

(f) Repair and replacement parts for construction machinery included in List A of NPA Order M–43, as such list may be amended or supplemented from time to time;

(g) Parts, assemblies of parts, and accessories, for automotive vehicles, including all passenger carriers, trucks (on- or off-the-highway), truck trailers, and motorized fire equipment; and

(h) Items made wholly of rubber, leather, textiles, or any combination of such materials.

SEC. 4. Manufacturers' MRO export quotas. Every manufacturer who, in the calendar year 1950 or in his fiscal year described in paragraph (b) of this section, delivered for export (i. e., exported directly or through others or delivered to others for export), to any country other than Canada and those countries in Subgroup A, as defined in the export control regulations issued by the Office of International Trade, a quantity of those items of his own manufacture which are subject to this order and had an aggregate export sales value in excess of $10,000, is hereby assigned, and is hereby directed to compute and establish (subject to revision in accordance with section 5 of this order), a quarterly MRO export quota as follows:

(a) Unless he otherwise elects, in accordance with the subsequent paragraphs of this section, each such manufacturer's standard quarterly MRO export quota is 30 percent of the aggregate export sales value of all such MRO items delivered by him for export in the calendar year 1950.

(b) Any manufacturer who operated on a fiscal year basis prior to March 1, 1951, may elect to compute his quarterly MRO export quota on the basis of his last fiscal year ending prior to that date instead of on a calendar year basis.

(c) Any manufacturer may elect to figure his quota on a seasonal basis. If he so elects, his quarterly MRO export quota for any quarter is 120 percent of the aggregate export sales value of all MRO items which he delivered for export in the corresponding quarter of the year 1950 (or of his fiscal year).

(d) Any manufacturer of replacement parts for machine tools may, instead of computing his quarterly MRO export quota under paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of this section, elect to compute such quota as 50 percent of the aggregate export sales value of all MRO items (as specified in section 2 of this order) delivered by him for export in the last 6 months of the calendar year 1951.

(e) A manufacturer may elect to figure export sales value on either an f. a. s. or on a c. i. f. basis, but he must figure all items on the same basis.

(f) A manufacturer who makes any election under this section may not thereafter change his election without prior written approval of the Office of International Trade.

SEC. 5. Manufacturers' reports to OIT. On or before September 1, 1951, or within 30 days after this order is amended so as first to bring him under it, or within 30 days after this order or any other NPA regulation or order mentioned in section 3 is amended or otherwise modified so as to change the MRO items thereafter to be included in computing his MRO export quota, each manufacturer for whom a quarterly MRO export quota is established by section 4 of this order shall prepare and submit to the Office of International Trade a signed report in duplicate, on Form IT–833, showing the export sales value of all MRO items of his own manufacture which he delivered in his base year (1950 calendar or fiscal, or, in the case of a machine tool part manufacturer so electing under section 4 (d) of this order, the last 6 months of the calendar year 1951) for export (i. e., directly or to or through others) to countries other than Canada and Subgroup A countries as defined in the export control regulations issued by the Office of International Trade. The report must be broken down into categories as specified on the form and must state whether the manufacturer is reporting on an f. a. s. or on a c. i. f. basis. In computing his 1950 deliveries for export (or, in the case of a machine tool part manufacturer so electing under section 4 (d) of this order, his deliveries for export in the last 6 months of the calendar year 1951) pursuant to section 4 of this order, and in preparing his report pursuant to this section, the manufacturer must not (to the best of his information and belief) include any items delivered for use abroad for personal or household purposes or, insofar as replacement parts are concerned, any items delivered for use abroad for other than replacement purposes. Where precise knowledge as to foreign end use is lacking, estimates may be made, but in such cases the manufacturer must include in his report a statement showing what estimates he has made, what were his total sales for export of the category in question, and the basis upon which his estimates are made. The Office of International Trade, if it finds that any such estimates are unreasonable or that such report is erroneous in any respect, may reduce the manufacturer's quarterly MRO export quota as may be appropriate, and the manufacturer, upon being notified of any such reduction, shall adjust his quota accordingly.

SEC. 6. Availability of MRO for export. (a) Each manufacturer for whom a quarterly MRO export quota is established by section 4 of this order shall make available for export (as required) during each calendar quarter, the full amount of such quota, out of his production of such MRO items. The method by which he does this (e. g., whether by making direct export sales, by selling through one or more designated export sales representatives, by selling to nonmanufacturing exporters, or by combining two or more of these methods), is left to his own choice but subject to existing contracts. It is anticipated, however, that his customary pattern of distribution will be followed insofar as practicable. No such manufacturer need accept orders for delivery of MRO items for export in any 1 month aggregating more than 40 percent of his MRO export quota for that quarter.

(b) In cases where a manufacturer is required to establish or recalculate his quarterly MRO export quota, as the result of amendment or other modification of this order or one of the NPA regulations or orders mentioned in section 3 of this order, he must make available for export during the then current calendar quarter and also during each subsequent calendar quarter the amount of his quota as so established or recalculated. In other words, where he has already accepted export orders calling for delivery in any such calendar quarter of items included in the quota thus newly established or recalculated, he must deduct the amount of such orders from his newly established or recalculated quota for that calendar quarter, the difference being the amount of his quota remaining available for that calendar quarter.

SEC. 7. Priorities assistance for nonmanufacturing exporters. Any nonmanufacturing exporters who, having obtained an order from a foreign customer for an MRO item which is demonstrably needed for other than personal or household purposes, finds that he is unable without a rating to secure such item from sources available to him may apply to the Office of International Trade for priorities assistance. In proper cases such exporter will be assigned the right to apply the DO–MRO rating to obtain such item from his appropriate source of supply. In the event that such a right is granted, the rating shall be applied by the exporter by placing on his order to his supplier, or on a separate paper attached to the order or clearly identifying it, the symbol "DO–MRO," together with the words:

Certified under NPA Order M–79

This certification shall be signed as provided in NPA Reg. 2 and shall constitute a representation to the supplier and to NPA that the purchaser is authorized to use the rating under the provisions of this order to obtain the materials ordered. The person upon whom such a rated order is served, or to whom the rating is extended, must accept the order, unless he is a manufacturer whose applicable MRO export quota has already been exhausted through acceptance of export orders calling for delivery in the applicable period or unless he is entitled to reject the order for other proper grounds as provided in NPA Reg. 2.

SEC. 8. Manufacturers' quotas not to be exceeded. A manufacturer for whom an MRO export quota is established by section 4 of this order must charge against such quota, in the dollar amount of their export sales value, all MRO items of his own manufacture (which are chargeable against his quota) for which he accepts export orders which are rated pursuant to either section 7 or section 9 of this order, for shipment to countries other than Canada and Subgroup A countries, as defined in the export control regulations issued by the Office of International Trade. He may not accept orders rated pursuant to either section 7 or section 9 of this order for delivery in any quarter (for items chargeable against his quota) having an aggregate export sales value in excess of his quota for that quarter. Charges are in all cases to be made against quotas for the quarter in which delivery is to be made by the manufacturer. Shipments made on unrated orders need not be charged to quotas.

SEC. 9. Rating of MRO export orders by manufacturers. Any manufacturer who has filed his report as required by section 5 of this order may apply the DO–MRO rating to any MRO export order which he accepts, regardless of whether it comes to him directly from the foreign customer or from a person in this country: Provided, however, That the export orders which he so rates, together with the export orders which he accepts as orders rated pursuant to section 7 of this order, shall not exceed in the aggregate his MRO export quota for the applicable quarter. Any rating so applied shall have the same status and effect as a rating carried by a rated MRO export order placed with the manufacturer by a nonmanufacturing exporter. An order bearing the rating DO–MRO shall constitute a rated order with an allotment symbol for the purpose of all NPA regulations and orders.

SEC. 10. Limitations on use of rating. The rating DO–MRO may not be applied or extended by any person to obtain any of the materials described in section 3 of this order. No manufacturer may extend the DO–MRO rating to obtain any Class A or Class B product (as those products are defined in CMP Regulation No. 1) or any production material for the manufacture of any Class A or Class B product. Such products and materials must be obtained in accordance with CMP Regulations Nos. 1 and 3, as such regulations may be amended or supplemented from time to time. The DO–MRO rating may be extended by a manufacturer, however, to obtain other products and materials as provided in NPA Reg. 2. In extending the rating, the manufacturer must place on his order the words:

Certified under NPA Order M–79

This certification shall be signed as provided in NPA Reg. 2 and shall constitute a representation to the supplier and to NPA that the purchaser is authorized to use the rating under the provisions of this order to obtain the materials ordered.

SEC. 11. Status of orders rated DO–97. Any order rated DO–97 under Direction 2 to NPA Reg. 4, calling for delivery in the third quarter of 1951, is hereby converted into a DO–MRO rated order. Any such DO–97 rated order calling for delivery after the third quarter of 1951, must be converted into a DO–MRO rated order on or before September 1, 1951, by action of the person placing the order, or it will become an unrated order. Any MRO order rated DO–97 or DO–MRO under Direction 2 to NPA Reg. 4, calling for delivery after August 1, 1951, must be charged against the manufacturer's MRO export quota for the quarter in which delivery is ordered, regardless of whether converted or not.

SEC. 12. Exports requiring validated licenses. The authority granted by this order to apply the DO–MRO rating to any item requiring a validated license for its export does not imply assurance that such a license will be issued.

SEC. 13. Relation to other NPA orders and regulations. The provisions of all other NPA regulations and orders which are not in conflict with this order remain in full force and effect. Nothing in this order shall be construed as applicable to any material under allocation or as relieving any person from the obligation of complying with such limitations on acquisition or use of materials or such other provisions as may be contained in any applicable regulation or order of NPA or with any order of any other competent authority.

SEC. 14. Records and reports. (a) Every manufacturer and every nonmanufacturing exporter subject to this order shall make and preserve at his regular place of business for at least 2 years accurate and complete records showing, with respect to each manufacturer, what his MRO export quotas are, how he computed them, their factual justification, what revisions or adjustments he has made in them and for what reasons, any elections made as to use of seasonal quotas, methods of figuring quotas and charges against them, or other options exercised and, with respect to each manufacturer and each nonmanufacturing exporter, all receipts, deliveries, and inventories of MRO items for export with or without rating, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this order have been met. This requirement does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records disclose the above data and supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

(b) All records required by this order shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of NPA.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall maintain such further records and submit such reports to NPA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 15. Applications for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest.

In examining requests for adjustment claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be submitted in writing, in triplicate, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

SEC. 16. Applications for inclusion under this order. Any manufacturer excluded from this order by reason of the fact that his deliveries for export as specified in section 4 of this order were not in excess of $10,000 in 1950 (calendar or fiscal) may nevertheless, upon his request submitted in writing in triplicate, be granted the privilege of operating under the order.

SEC. 17. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the Office of International Trade, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-79.

SEC. 18. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this order is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order as amended shall take effect November 7, 1952.

[NPA Reg. 1, Amendment 1 of November 7, 1952]

REG. 1—INVENTORY CONTROL

This amendment to NPA Reg. 1 is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this amendment, consultation was had with representatives of the sulfur industry and consideration was given to their recommendations. Since there is no trade association in this industry consultation with trade association representatives was not possible.

NPA Reg. 1, as amended September 9, 1952, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. The following item in Table IA of NPA Reg. 1, under the heading of "Chemicals" is deleted:

Sulfur

2. The following item in Table II of NPA Reg. 1 is deleted:

Sulfur ---------- M-69

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

This amendment shall take effect November 7, 1952.

Chapter XXI—Office of Rent Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Rent Regulation 1, Amdt. 22 to Schedule B]

[Rent Regulation 2, Amdt. 23 to Schedule B]

RR 1—HOUSING

RR 2—ROOMS IN ROOMING HOUSES AND OTHER ESTABLISHMENTS

SCHEDULE B—SPECIFIC PROVISIONS RELATING TO INDIVIDUAL DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS OR PORTIONS THEREOF

KANSAS CITY AND CLEVELAND DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

Effective November 10, 1952, Rent Regulation 1 and Rent Regulation 2 are amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 204, 61 Stat. 197, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 1894)

Issued this 7th day of November 1952.

JAMES MCI. HENDERSON,
Director of Rent Stabilization.

1. Item 68 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 1—Housing, reading as follows:

68. Provisions relating to the Kansas City Defense-Rental Area (Item 170 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Kansas City Defense-Rental Area, section 141 of this regulation is changed to read as follows:

SEC. 141. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The housing accommodation had a maximum rent in effect on November 10, 1952, and the present maximum rent for the housing accommodation does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent for the housing accommodation 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable housing accommodations on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the housing accommodations or comparable housing accommodations, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under sections 157 or 162 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Kansas City Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 68 of Schedule B.

2. Item 74 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 2—Rooms, reading as follows:

74. Provisions relating to the Kansas City Defense-Rental Area (Item 170 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Kansas City Defense-Rental Area, section 138 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 138. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The room had a maximum rent in effect on November 10, 1952, and the present maximum rent for the room does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable rooms on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the room or comparable rooms, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under sections 157 or 160 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Kansas City Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 68 of Schedule B.

3. Item 69 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 1—Housing, reading as follows:

69. Provisions relating to the Cleveland Defense-Rental Area (Item 228 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Cleveland Defense-Rental Area, section 141 of this regulation is changed to read as follows:

SEC. 141. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The present maximum rent for the housing accommodation does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable housing accommodations on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation, for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947 for the housing accommodations or comparable housing accommodations, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under sections 157 or 162 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Cleveland Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 69 of Schedule B.

4. Item 75 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 2—Rooms, reading as follows:

75. Provisions relating to the Cleveland Defense-Rental Area (Item 228 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Cleveland Defense-Rental Area, section 138 is added to this regulation to read as follows:

SEC. 138. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The present maximum rent for the room does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable rooms on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation, for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation, for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947 for the room or comparable rooms, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under sections 157 or 162 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Cleveland Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 69 of Schedule B.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Internal Revenue

[26 CFR Parts 19, 29]

INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1941

TAXATION OF EMPLOYEE BENEFICIARIES OF CERTAIN TRUSTS AND TREATMENT OF FULL-TIME LIFE INSURANCE SALESMEN AS EMPLOYEES FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth below in tentative form are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 62 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32, 467; 26 U. S. C. 62, 3791).

[SEAL] JOHN B. DUNLAP,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) to section 335 of the Revenue Act of 1951 and Public Law 589 (82d Congress), approved July 17, 1952, relating to taxation of beneficiaries of certain trusts exempt under section 165 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code and to section 343 of the Revenue Act of 1951, relating to treatment of full-time life insurance salesmen as employees for certain purposes, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 29.22 (b) (2)–5, as amended by Treasury Decision 5853, approved August 29, 1951, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following undesignated paragraph:

As to inclusion of full-time life insurance salesmen within the class of persons considered to be employees, see section 3797 (a) (20), as added by section 343 of the Revenue Act of 1951, set forth immediately preceding § 29.3797–1.

PAR. 2. Section 29.23 (p)–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5666, approved November 2, 1948 is further amended by adding immediately after the second sentence of paragraph (a) the following new sentence: "(As to inclusion of full-time life insurance salesmen within the class of persons considered to be employees, see section 3797 (a) (20), as added by section 343 of the Revenue Act of 1951, set forth immediately preceding § 29.3797–1.)"

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.165–1 the following:

SEC. 335. EMPLOYEES' TRUSTS (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Amendment of section 165 (b). Section 165 (b) (relating to taxability of beneficiary on distributions from an employees' trust) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "Where such total distributions include securities of the employer corporation, there shall be excluded from such excess the net unrealized appreciation attributable to that part of the total distributions which consists of the securities of the employer corporation so distributed. The amount of such net unrealized appreciation and the resulting adjustments to basis of the securities of the employer corporation so distributed shall be determined in accordance with regulations which shall be prescribed by the Secretary. For purposes of this subsection, the term 'securities' means only shares of stock and bonds or debentures issued by a corporation with interest coupons or in registered form, and the term 'securities of the employer corporation' includes securities of a parent or subsidiary corporation (as defined in section 130A (d) (2) and (3)) of the employer corporation."

(b) Effective date. The amendment made by this section shall be applicable with respect to distributions made after December 31, 1950.

PUBLIC LAW 589 (EIGHTY-SECOND CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION), APPROVED JULY 17, 1952

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 165 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to employee stock purchase plans) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "In no event shall the amount actually distributed or made available to any distributee include net unrealized appreciation in securities of the employer corporation attributable to the amount contributed by the employee. Such net unrealized appreciation and the resulting adjustments to basis of such securities shall also be determined in accordance with regulations which shall be prescribed by the Secretary."

SEC. 2. The amendment made by this Act shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951.

PAR. 4. Section 29.165–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5422, approved December 13, 1944, is further amended by adding after the second sentence of paragraph (a) (1) the new sentence. "As to inclusion of full-time life insurance salesmen within the class of persons considered to be employees, see section 3797 (a) (20), as added by section 343 of the Revenue Act of 1951, set forth immediately preceding § 29.3797–1."

PAR. 5. Section 29.165–6, as amended by Treasury Decision 5853, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting a headnote to paragraph (a) to read: "In general" and by redesignating present paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) as subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph (a).

(B) By inserting immediately after the second sentence of paragraph (a) the following new sentence: "(For rules providing for exclusion from income in the year of distribution of amounts representing unrealized appreciation in the value of securities of the employer corporation, see paragraph (b) of this section.)"

(C) By inserting immediately preceding the last sentence of such section the following: "See, however, paragraph (b) of this section for rules relating to exclusion from such excess of amounts representing net unrealized appreciation in the value of securities of the employer corporation distributed after December 31, 1950."

(D) By adding at the end of such section the following paragraph (b):

(b) Distributions including securities of the employer corporation.—(1) In general. If a trust exempt under section 165 (a) makes a distribution to a distributee, and such distribution includes securities of the employer corporation, there shall be excluded for purposes of computing the amount of such distribution includible in the distributee's income in the year of distribution net unrealized appreciation in such securities to the following extent:

(i) If the distribution is made after December 31, 1950, and constitutes a total distribution to which the rules of paragraph (a) (3) of this section are applicable, the amount to be excluded is the entire net unrealized appreciation attributable to that part of the total distribution which consists of securities of the employer corporation; and

(ii) If the distribution is made in a taxable year of the distributee beginning after December 31, 1951, and is other than a total distribution to which paragraph (a) (3) of this section is applicable, the amount to be excluded is that portion of the net unrealized appreciation in the securities of the employer corporation which is attributable to the amount considered to be contributed by the employee to the purchase of such securities.

The amount of net unrealized appreciation which is excludible under the rules of subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph shall not be included in the basis of the securities in the hands of the distributee at the time of distribution for purposes of determining gain or loss on subsequent disposition.

For purposes of section 165 (b) and of this section, the term "securities" means only shares of stock and bonds or debentures issued by a corporation with interest coupons or in registered form, and the term "securities of the employer corporation" includes securities of a parent or subsidiary corporation (as defined in section 130A (d) (2) and (3), relating to employee stock options) of the employer corporation.

(2) Determination of net unrealized appreciation. The amount of net unrealized appreciation in securities of the employer corporation which are distributed by the trust is to be determined by reference to the cost or other basis to the trust of such securities and by reference to the market value of such securities at the time of distribution. Thus, if a distribution consists in part of securities which have appreciated in value and in part of securities which have depreciated in value, the net unrealized appreciation shall be considered to consist of the net increase in value of all of the securities included in the distribution. For this purpose, two or more distributions made by a trust to a distributee in a single taxable year of the distributee shall be treated as a single distribution.

The determination of the cost or other basis to the trust of a distributed security of the employer corporation, for purposes of determining net unrealized appreciation thereon, shall be made in accordance with the following rules:

(i) If a security was, at the time of purchase by, or contribution to, the trust, earmarked for the account of a particular employee so that the cost or other basis of such security to the trust is reflected in the account of such employee, such cost or other basis shall be used.

(ii) In all other cases, there shall be used the average cost (or other basis) to the trust of all securities of the employer corporation of the type distributed to the distributee which the trust has on hand at the time of the distribution, or which the trust had on hand on a specified inventory date which date does not precede the date of distribution by more than twelve calendar months. If a distribution includes securities of the employer corporation of more than one type, the average cost (or other basis) to the trust of each type of security distributed shall be determined. The application of this rule is illustrated by the following example:

Example. A, a distributee who makes his income tax returns on the basis of a calendar year, receives on August 1, 1952, in a total distribution, to which paragraph (a) (3) of this section is applicable, ten shares of class D stock of the employer corporation. The trust inventory of July 1, 1952 (the specified inventory date of the trust) discloses the following with respect to class D stock:

Shares	Purchase date	Cost per share	Total cost
20	Jan. 19, 1948	$95	$1,900
40	Dec. 1, 1949	102	4,080
20	Aug. 5, 1950	101	2,020
80			8,000

The average cost of each share of class D stock on hand on the last specified inventory date is $100, and such cost is to be used in determining the amount of unrealized appreciation in each such share at the time of distribution.

For purposes of section 117, relating to capital gains and losses, the period for which the distributee has held securities of the employer corporation which have been distributed or made available to him will begin with and include the day on which such securities were distributed or made available to him.

(3) Unrealized appreciation attributable to employee contributions. In any case in which it is necessary to determine the amount of net unrealized appreciation in securities of the employer corporation which is attributable to contributions made by an employee:

(i) The cost or other basis of the securities to the trust and the amount of net unrealized appreciation shall first be determined in accordance with the rules in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph;

(ii) The amount contributed by the employee to the purchase of the securities shall be solely the portion of his actual contributions to the trust properly allocable to such securities, and shall not include any part of the increment in the trust fund expended in the purchase of the securities;

(iii) The amount of net unrealized appreciation in the securities distributed which is attributable to the contributions of the employee shall be that proportion of the net unrealized appreciation determined under the rules of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph which the contributions of the employee properly allocable to such securities bears to the cost or other basis to the trust of the securities;

(iv) If a distribution consists solely of securities of the employer corporation, the contributions of the employee expended in the purchase of such securities shall be allocated to the securities distributed in a manner consistent with the principles set forth in subparagraph (2) (i) or (ii) of this paragraph, whichever is applicable, that is, the amount of the employee's contribution which can be identified as having been expended in the purchase of a particular security shall be allocated to such security, and the amount of such contribution which cannot be so identified shall be allocated ratably among the securities distributed. If a distribution consists in part of securities of the employer corporation and in part of cash or other property, appropriate allocation of a portion of the employee's contribution to such cash or other property shall be made unless such allocation is inconsistent with the terms of the plan or trust.

Example. A trust distributes ten shares of stock issued by the employer corporation each of which was purchased by the trust for $100, consisting of employee contributions in the amount of $60 and employer contributions in the amount of $40, and on the date of distribution has a fair market value of $180. The portion of the net unrealized appreciation attributable to the contributions of the employee with respect to each of the shares of stock is $48 computed as follows:

(1)	Value of one share of stock on distribution date	$180
(2)	Employee contributions	$60
(3)	Employer contributions	40
(4)	Total contributions	100
(5)	Net unrealized appreciation	80
(6)	Portion of net unrealized appreciation attributable to employee contributions, 60/100 (amount of employee contributions (Item 2) over total contributions (Item 4)) of $80 (Item 5)	48

For the purpose of determining gain or loss to the distributee in the year or years in which any share of stock referred to in the preceding example is sold or otherwise disposed of in a taxable transaction, the basis of each such share in the hands of the distributee at the time of the distribution by the trust will be $132 computed as follows:

(a)	Employee contributions	$60
(b)	Employer contributions	40
(c)	Portion of net unrealized appreciation attributable to employer contributions (item (5) minus item (6))	32
(d)	Basis of stock	132

(4) Change in exempt status of trust. For principles applicable in making appropriate adjustments if the trust was not exempt for one or more years prior to the year of distribution, see paragraph (a) of this section.

PAR. 6. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.3797–1 the following:

SEC. 343. DEFINITION OF EMPLOYEE (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Amendment of section 3797 (a). Section 3797 (a) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(20) Employee. For the purpose of applying the provisions of chapter 1 with respect to contributions to or under a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, or annuity plan, and with respect to distributions under such a plan or by a trust forming part of such a plan, the term "employee" shall include a full-time life insurance salesman who is considered an employee for the purpose of subchapter A of chapter 9, or, in the case of services performed before January 1, 1951, who would be considered an employee if his services were performed during 1951.

(b) Effective date. The amendment made by this section shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950.

The amendments made to Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) by paragraphs 1, 2, 4 and 6 are hereby made applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950, and before January 1, 1942, such years being covered by Regulations 103 (26 CFR Part 19).

INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS AFFECTED BY AN EXCHANGE OR DISTRIBUTION MADE AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1947

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth below in tentative form are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32; 26 U. S. C. 62).

[SEAL] JUSTIN F. WINKLE,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) to section 338 of the Revenue Act of 1951, approved October 20, 1951, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.373–1 the following:

SEC. 338. EXCHANGES AND DISTRIBUTIONS IN OBEDIENCE TO ORDERS OF SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20,1951).

(a) Definition of system group. Section 373 (d) (1) (relating to the definition of the term "system group") is hereby amended to read as follows:

(1) At least 90 per centum of each class of the stock (other than (A) stock which is preferred as to both dividends and assets, and (B) stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends but which is not preferred as to assets but only if the total value of such stock is less than 1 per centum of the aggregate value of all classes of stock which are not preferred as to both dividends and assets) of each of the corporations (except the common parent corporation) is owned directly by one or more of the other corporations; and.

(b) Effective date. The amendment made by subsection (a) shall be applicable with respect to taxable years affected by an exchange or distribution made after December 31, 1947.

PAR. 2. Section 29.373–1 (d) is amended as follows:

(A) By designating the present text thereof as subparagraph (1) Taxable years affected by an exchange or distribution made before January 1, 1948.

(B) By striking from the first sentence thereof "The term 'system group' is defined" and inserting in lieu thereof: "For taxable years affected by an exchange or distribution made before January 1, 1948, the term 'system group' is defined".

(C) By adding at the end thereof the following subparagraph (2):

(2) Taxable years affected by an exchange or distribution made after December 31, 1947. For taxable years affected by an exchange or distribution made after December 31, 1947, the term "system group" is defined in section 373 (d) to mean one or more chains of corporations connected through stock ownership with a common parent corporation, if at least 90 percent of each class of stock (other than (A) stock which is preferred as to both dividends and assets, and (B) stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends but which is not preferred as to assets but only if the total value of such stock is less than 1 percent of the aggregate value of all classes of stock which are not preferred as to both dividends and assets) of each of the corporations (except the common parent corporation) is owned directly by one or more of the other corporations, and if the common parent corporation owns directly at least 90 percent of each class of stock (other than stock preferred as to both dividends and assets) of at least one of the other corporations; but no corporation is a member of a system group unless it is either a registered holding company or a majority-owned subsidiary company. While the type of stock which must, for the purpose of this definition, be at least 90 percent owned may be different from the voting stock which must be more than 50 percent owned for the purpose of the definition of a majority-owned subsidiary company under section 373 (c), as a general rule both types of ownership tests must be met under section 373 (d), since a corporation, in order to be a member of a system group, must also be a registered holding company or a majority-owned subsidiary company.

SECURITY OF VESSELS; CONTROL OVER MOVEMENT OF VESSELS IN WATERFRONT AREAS

MERCHANT MARINE COUNCIL PUBLIC HEARING

1. The Merchant Marine Council will hold a public hearing on December 2, 1952, commencing at 9:30 a. m., in Room 4120, Coast Guard Headquarters, Thirteenth and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C., for the purpose of receiving comments, views, and data on proposed regulations regarding control over movement of vessels in waterfront areas, as set forth in detail in paragraph 6 below.

2. The proposed regulations together with the authority therefor are set forth in paragraph 6. Copies of the proposed regulations have been mailed to persons and organizations who have expressed an active interest in the subject under discussion. Copies of the proposed regulations may be obtained from the Commandant (CMC), Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington 25, D. C., so long as they are available.

3. The President of the United States has found, as stated in Executive Order 10173, as amended by Executive Orders 10277 and 10352, that the security of the United States is endangered by reason of subversive activities. The activities of water taxis, junk boats, sludge barges, and garbage disposal boats, as defined in the proposed regulations below, are of particular danger to the security interests of the United States due to the pattern of their waterfront operations which involves their frequent contact with vessels and continual passage among all waterfront areas, including sensitive areas of importance to the national defense, and as the casual and unobserved pattern of their activity, particularly after dark, gives them unusual opportunity to conduct activities inimical to the security interests of the United States.

4. The Commandant, United States Coast Guard, has been assigned certain duties under the provisions of Executive Order 10173, as amended, regarding the security of vessels and waterfront facilities. Pursuant to the authority of 33 CFR Subpart 6.04 in Executive Order 10173, as amended, the Commandant may supervise and control the movements of any vessel whenever necessary to prevent damage or injury to any vessel or waterfront facility or to carry out the other objectives of the Executive Order 10173, as amended, and may inspect and search any vessel at any time.

5. Comments on the proposed regulations are invited. All persons who desire to submit written comments, data, and views prior to the hearing for consideration in connection with the proposed changes should submit them in writing for receipt prior to December 1, 1952, by the Commandant (CMC), Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington 25, D. C., or comments, data, and views may be presented orally or in writing at the hearing. In order to insure consideration of comments and to facilitate checking and recording, it is essential that each comment regarding a section or paragraph of the proposed regulations shall be submitted on Form CG–3287, showing the section number, the proposed change, the reason or basis (if any), and the name, business firm or organization (if any), and the address of the submitter. A small quantity of this Form CG–3287 may be obtained upon request from the Commandant (CMC), or from any Coast Guard District Commander. Oral comments may be submitted before the Merchant Marine Council on December 2, 1952. At the public hearing the proposed regulations will be considered in the sequence set forth below.

6. It is proposed to establish a new Part 123 in Subchapter K (Security of Vessels) in Chapter I of 33 CFR. This part will set forth requirements regarding control over movement of certain vessels in waterfront areas in accordance with Executive Order 10173, as amended. The proposed regulations read as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 123.01 to 123.85 issued under E. O. 10173, Oct. 15, 1950, 15 F. R. 7005, 3 CFR 1950 Supp., E. O. 10277, Aug. 1, 1951, 16 F. R. 7537, 3 CFR 1951 Supp., E. O. 10352, May 19, 1952, 17 F. R. 4607. Interpret or apply 40 Stat. 220, as amended, 50 U. S. C. 191.

§ 123.01 General definitions. The terms "Commandant," "District Commander," "Captain of the Port," and "Waterfront facility" when used in this part shall have the meaning set forth in §§ 6.01–1, 6.01–2, 6.01–3, and 6.01–4 of this chapter (15 F. R. 7005; E. O. 10173, as amended, 3 CFR 1950 Supp., p. 140).

§ 123.05 Water taxi. The term "water taxi" shall mean any small vessel which is operated primarily for the purpose of transporting persons or things to and from points, places, or vessels within a port area, either on scheduled or unscheduled trips.

§ 123.10 Junk boat. The term "junk boat" shall mean any boat which is operated for the purpose of collecting junk from vessels within a port area or waterfront facilities.

§ 123.15 Garbage disposal boat. The term "garbage disposal boat" shall mean any vessel operated for the purpose of collecting garbage from vessels in a port area.

§ 123.20 Sludge barge. The term "sludge barge" shall mean any barge or boat including tender operated for the purpose of taking bilge water, contaminated oil, etc., from the bilges or double bottom of vessels in a port area.

§ 123.25 Applicability of regulations. (a) The regulations in this part shall apply to all ports or places in the United States, its territories or possessions (not including the Panama Canal Zone).

(b) The District Commander may, whenever he deems such action advisable, suspend or restore the applicability of the regulations in this part to ports or places within his jurisdiction. The District Commander shall give the public full and adequate notice of such actions. Such notice should be also published in the local notices to mariners.

§ 123.30 Excluded vessels. The term "water taxi," "junk boat," "sludge barge," or "garbage disposal boat," shall not include tugs, barges, or lighters in regular commercial use; ferryboats; sightseeing boats; fishing party boats; boats operated by persons, companies, or corporations, for the purpose of transporting their own employees to and from work; or boats operated by an agency of the federal, or state, or local government.

§ 123.35 Movement license. No water taxi, junk boat, sludge barge, or garbage disposal boat shall be operated until the owner, agent, operator, or person in charge has obtained a movement license from the Captain of the Port for such operation, which license shall be renewed annually or upon change of owner, agent, operator or person in charge. Either the original or a signed or certified copy of the license shall be carried on such vessels and shall be produced for inspection upon the demand of any officer charged with the enforcement of the regulations in this chapter.

§ 123.40 Identification credentials. All persons employed on water taxis, junk boats, sludge barges, and garbage disposal boats shall be in possession of one of the credentials listed in § 125.11 of this chapter.

§ 123.45 Water taxis. (a) The license issued by the Captain of the Port for the movements of a water taxi shall contain the names of the owner or owners and person, or persons, who are authorized to operate the boat and shall specify that the boat may be operated only under the following conditions:

(1) That the water taxi shall be operated only on a specified route or in a specified area. The license shall specify the routes or areas authorized.

(2) That the operator or person in charge shall maintain a daily log showing the time and the name or official number of all vessels contacted, and an identification of all waterfront facilities contacted, and the points between which passengers were transferred.

(3) That persons or things may not be embarked or loaded, disembarked or discharged, at shore points other than the shore points which shall be specified in the license except in case of emergency or when prior approval has been obtained from the Captain of the Port.

(4) That the water taxi shall be operated in conformity with all applicable federal laws and regulations.

§ 123.50 Junk boats. (a) The license issued by the Captain of the Port for the movement of a junk boat shall contain the names of the owner or owners and person or persons who are authorized to operate the boat and shall specify that the boat may be operated only under the following conditions:

(1) That the boat shall be operated during daylight only, that is, from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset.

(2) That the operator or person in charge shall maintain a daily log showing the time and name or official number of all vessels contacted and the time and an identification of all waterfront facilities contacted.

(3) That the junk collected may be discharged only at a point or points specified in the license.

(4) That the boat shall be operated in conformity with all applicable federal laws and regulations.

§ 123.55 Garbage disposal boats. (a) The license issued by the Captain of the Port for the movements of a garbage disposal boat shall contain the name of the owner or owners and person or persons who are authorized to operate the boat and shall specify that the boat may be operated only under the following conditions:

(1) That the boat shall be operated only in the area specified in the license.

(2) That the operator or person in charge shall maintain a daily log showing the time and name or official number of all vessels contacted and the time and an identification of all waterfront facilities contacted.

(3) That the garbage collected may be discharged only at a point or points specified in the license.

§ 123.60 Sludge barges. (a) The license issued by the Captain of the Port for the movement of a sludge barge shall contain the name of the owner or owners and person or persons who are authorized to operate the boat and shall specify that the boat may be operated only under the following conditions:

(1) That the boat shall be operated only in the area specified in the license.

(2) That the operator or person in charge shall maintain a daily log showing the time and name or official number of all vessels contacted and the time and identification of all waterfront facilities contacted.

(3) That the sludge may be discharged only at a point or points specified in the license.

§ 123.65 Denial of license. The Captain of the Port may deny issuing a license to a water taxi, junk boat, sludge barge, or garbage disposal boat whenever he finds that the issuance of such a license is or may be inimical to the security interests of the United States.

§ 123.70 Revocation of license. The Captain of the Port, after adequate notice and an opportunity for a full and fair hearing to the licensee, may revoke the license issued to a water taxi, junk boat, sludge barge, or garbage disposal boat whenever he finds that any one or more of the specified conditions have been violated, or when he finds that the operations of the boat are, or have been subsequent to the issuance of the license, inimical to the security interests of the United States.

§ 123.75 Right of appeal. The owner, agent, master, or person in charge of a water taxi, junk boat, sludge barge, or garbage disposal boat may appeal from the decision of the Captain of the Port denying issuance of a license or from an order of revocation to the District Commander having jurisdiction. If the appeal is denied by the District Commander, a further appeal may be made to the Commandant whose decision shall be final. An appeal shall not operate to stay the effectiveness of the Captain of the Port's decision or order during the consideration of such appeal.

§ 123.80 Restoration of license. The Captain of the Port may issue or reissue a license upon proper showing by the owner, agent, master, or person in charge of a water taxi, junk boat, sludge barge, or garbage disposal boat that its operations are not or will no longer be in violation of the regulations in this part or inimical to the security interests of the United States.

§ 123.85 Daily logs. (a) The daily logs maintained by water taxis, junk boats, sludge barges, and garbage disposal boats shall be kept in bound books, each book containing the daily log for calendar month.

(b) The log books shall be kept on file, either on board the vessel or at the office or place of business of the owner or operator, for six months, and shall be produced for inspection upon the demand of any officer charged with the enforcement of the regulations in this chapter.

[7 CFR Part 51]

INSPECTION, CERTIFICATION, AND STANDARDS FOR FRESH FRUITS, VEGETABLES AND OTHER PRODUCTS

U. S. STANDARDS FOR CAULIFLOWER

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance of revised United States Standards for Cauliflower under the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1953 (Pub. Law 451; 82d Cong., approved July 5, 1952) to supersede United States Standards for Cauliflower (13 F. R. 2249) effective May 27, 1948.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same with M. W. Baker, Deputy Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5:30 p. m., e. s. t. on the fifteenth (15) day after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

§ 51.171 Standards for cauliflower—(a) Grades—(1) U. S. No. 1. U. S. No. 1 consists of compact heads of cauliflowers which are not discolored, or over-mature, and which are free from soft or wet decay and are free from damage caused by wilting, fuzziness, riciness, enlarged bracts, bruises, hollow stems, dirt or other foreign matter, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means. Unless otherwise specified, the heads shall be not less than 4 inches in diameter. Jacket leaves shall be fresh, green, and free from damage caused by disease and free from serious damage by any other cause. Unless otherwise specified, jacket leaves shall be well trimmed.

(i) In order to allow for variations, other than for size, incident to proper grading and handling, not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, of the cauliflower in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade but not more than one-tenth of this amount, or 1 percent, may be affected by soft rot or wet decay affecting the curd. In addition, not more than 5 percent, by count, of the heads in any lot may be smaller than the specified minimum size.

(b) Unclassified. Unclassified consists of cauliflower which has not been classified in accordance with the foregoing grade. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no definite grade has been applied to the lot.

(c) Application of tolerances. (1) The contents of individual packages in the lot, based on sample inspection, are subject to the following limitations: Provided, That the averages for the entire lot are within the tolerances specified for the grade.

(i) For a tolerance of 10 percent or more, individual packages in any lot may contain not more than one and one-half times the tolerance specified, except that when the package contains 15 specimens or less, individual packages may contain not more than double the tolerance specified.

(ii) For a tolerance of less than 10 percent, individual packages in any lot may contain not more than double the tolerance specified, except that at least one defective and two off-sized specimens may be permitted in any package.

(d) Definitions. (1) "Compact" means that the flower clusters are closely united and the head feels solid.

(2) "Discolored" means that the head is of some abnormal color.

(3) "Over-mature" means a stage of growth which is beyond that of a compact, properly developed head. An over-mature head usually is loose or open and ordinarily is turning yellow.

(4) "Damage" means any defect which materially affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the curd, or any disease which materially affects the appearance, or the shipping quality of the jacket leaves. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects, the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as damage:

(i) Fuzziness which gives the head a distinctly fuzzy appearance on more than one-half of the head;

(ii) Riciness, when the appearance of the head is materially injured by a very abnormal rough or granular surface on the curd;

(iii) Enlarged bracts, when the appearance of the head is materially injured by leaves (bracts) growing up through and extending above the curd; and,

(iv) Mold which causes the flesh of the curd to disintegrate or which exceeds ⅜ inch in diameter in the aggregate, or any single spot of mold which exceeds ⅛ inch in diameter.

(5) "Diameter" means the average diameter of the head exclusive of the jacket leaves.

(6) "Serious damage" means any injury to the jacket leaves which seriously affects their appearance.

(7) "Well trimmed" means that the jacket leaves shall be limited to the number and length necessary to protect the head. No jacket leaves are required on heads which are individually wrapped, or packed with cushions, partitions or other means which protect the head from bruising.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of November 1952.

[Docket No. AO-242]

HANDLING OF MILK IN NORTH CENTRAL TRI-STATE MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C., 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, Rochester, Minnesota, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., on December 9, 1952.

The public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to economic and marketing conditions which relate to the handling of milk for the North Central Tri-State marketing area and to the issuance of a marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area. The proposed marketing agreement and order proposals set forth below have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture, and at the hearing evidence will be received relative to all aspects of the marketing conditions which are dealt with by the proposals or any modifications thereof.

Marketing agreement and order proposed by the Tri-State Grade A Council:

DEFINITIONS

1. Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

2. Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or such other officer or employee of the United States as may be authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

3. Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal agency as may be authorized to perform the price reporting functions of the United States Department of Agriculture.

4. Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

5. Delivery period. "Delivery period" means the calendar month or the total portion thereof during which this subpart is in effect.

6. Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association of producers which the Secretary determines (a) is qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 11, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; (b) has full authority in the sale of milk of its members, and (c) is engaged in making collective sales of or marketing milk or its products for its members.

7. Marketing area. The North Central Tri-State Marketing Area comprises the following districts which include the designated counties:

(a) LaCrosse District. Monroe (including Camp McCoy), Vernon, LaCrosse, and Jackson in Wisconsin; the Townships of Caledonia, Wilmington, Jefferson, Winnebago, Mayville, Crooked Creek, Union, Brownsville, Mound Prairie, Hokah and LaCrescent in Houston, and the Townships of Dresbach and New Hartford in Winona in Minnesota.

(b) Southeastern Minnesota District. Trempealeau, Buffalo, and Pepin Counties in Wisconsin; Winona (except the Township of Dresbach and New Hartford), Houston (except the Townships of Caledonia, Wilmington, Jefferson, Winnebago, Mayville, Crooked Creek, Union, Brownsville, Mound Prairie, Hokah and LaCrescent), Olmsted, Wabasha, Goodhue, Dodge, Fillmore, Steele, Waseca (except the Townships of Janesville, Alton, Freedom and Vivian), Mower, Freeborn, and the Townships of Shieldsville, Wells, Cannon, Wheeling, Morristown, Warsaw, Walcott and Richland in Rice in Minnesota; Howard and Winneshiek in Iowa.

(c) Mankato District. Le Sueur, Nicollet, Brown, Watonwan, Martin, Faribault, Blue Earth and the Townships of Janesville, Alton, Freedom and Vivian in Waseca in Minnesota.

(d) Mason City District. Worth, Cerro Gordo, Floyd, Winnebago, Hancock, Wright and Mitchell in Iowa.

8. Handler. "Handler" means:

(a) Any person engaged in the handling of milk in his capacity as the operator of a fluid milk plant, a country plant, or any other plant from which milk in any of the forms specified in section 41 (a) is disposed of to any place or establishment within the marketing area other than a plant; and

(b) Any cooperative association which is not a handler pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, with respect to producer milk caused to be diverted for the account of such cooperative association from a fluid milk plant or a country plant to a nonpool plant.

9. Pool plant. A "pool plant" is either:

(a) Fluid milk plant. "Fluid milk plant" means any plant located in the marketing area which is approved by any health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area as a plant from which milk may be distributed for consumption as fluid milk in the marketing area, and from which during the month Class I milk pursuant to section 41 (a) is disposed of (including sales at such plant, plant store or eating place) within the marketing area; or

(b) Country plant. "Country plant" menas any plant, other than a fluid milk plant, which is approved by any health authority having jurisdiction within the marketing area for the receiving of milk qualified for consumption as fluid milk within the marketing area (but excluding that portion of any plant used to receive or process milk or milk products required by applicable health authority regulations to be kept physically separate from milk so qualified): Provided, That any plant (either fluid or country) shall not be a pool plant if the percentage of either butterfat or skim milk in milk so qualified which is received at the plant from dairy farmers and moved in fluid form as milk to a fluid milk plant, or disposed of within the marketing area as Class I milk pursuant to section 41 (a) is less than:

(1) 60 percent in the current month during the period August through November;

(2) 25 percent in the current month during the period December through July, except that if the percentage was more than 60 percent for the entire period of August through November immediately preceding no percentage shall be required for such months of December through July.

10. Nonpool plant. "Nonpool plant" means any plant other than a fluid milk plant or a country plant.

11. Producer. "Producer" means any dairy farmer, other than a producer-handler, who produces milk qualified by any health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area for consumption as fluid milk in the marketing area.

12. Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who is both a producer and a handler and who receives no milk directly from the farms of other producers: Provided, That the maintenance, care, and management of the dairy animals and other resources necessary to produce the milk and the processing, packaging, and distribution of the milk are the personal enterprise and the personal risk of such person.

13. Producer milk. "Producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat which is produced by a producer, other than a produce-handler, and which is received by a handler either directly from producers or from other handlers.

14. Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat except that contained in producer milk.

15. Base milk. "Base milk" means a quantity of milk determined for each producer pursuant to section 75.

16. Excess milk. "Excess milk" means milk delivered by a producer in excess of base milk.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

20. Designation. The agency for the administration of this subpart shall be a market administrator who shall be a person selected by the Secretary. Such person shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

21. Powers. The market administrator shall have power to:

(a) Administer the terms and provisions of this subpart;

(b) Make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this subpart;

(c) Receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the terms and provisions of this subpart; and

(d) Recommend to the Secretary amendments to this subpart.

22. Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this subpart including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 30 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer the terms and provisions of this subpart;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of the funds provided by section 80, the cost of his bond and the bonds of his employees, his own compensation, and all other expenses, except those incurred under section 81, necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this subpart and upon request by the Secretary surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(g) Publicly announce unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who within 10 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to sections 30 and 31, or (2) payments pursuant to sections 65, 69, and 71;

(h) Audit each handler's records and payments by inspection of such handler's records and the records of any person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends;

(i) On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period report to each cooperative association which so requests the utilization of the milk caused to be delivered to each handler by such cooperative association. For this purpose such milk shall be prorated to each class in the same proportion that the total receipts of producer milk by such handler were used in each class;

(j) Publicly announce, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate the prices determined for each delivery period as follows:

(1) On or before the 5th day of each delivery period, (i) the minimum price for Class I milk computed pursuant to section 50 and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to section 52, both for the current delivery period, and (ii) the minimum prices for Class II milk computed pursuant to section 50 and the butterfat differentials computed pursuant to section 52; and

(2) On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period, the uniform price computed pursuant to section 61 and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to section 66; and

(k) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

30. Delivery period reports. On or before the 7th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on the forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(a) The quantities of butterfat and skim milk in milk received from producers;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in (or used in the production of) receipts from any other handler;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of other source milk (except nonfluid milk products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging by the handler);

(d) The utilization of all receipts required to be reported pursuant to this section; and

(e) Such other information with respect to receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

31. Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

(b) On or before the 20th day of each delivery period each handler shall submit to the market administrator such handler's producer payroll for the preceding delivery period which shall show:

(1) The total pounds of milk received from each producer and cooperative association and the total pounds of butterfat contained in such milk;

(2) The amount of payment to each producer and cooperative association; and

(3) The nature and amount of any deductions involved in such payments.

32. Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or to his representative during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or to establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization in whatever form of all skim milk and butterfat received, including nonfluid milk products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products handled;

(c) Payment to producers and cooperative associations; and

(d) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and milk products on hand at the beginning and end of each delivery period.

33. Retention of records. All books and records required under this subpart to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

40. Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat received within the month by a handler and which is required to be reported pursuant to section 30 shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of sections 41 to 45, inclusive.

41. Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in sections 42 and 43, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk drinks, cream, cultured sour cream, any mixture (except eggnog and bulk ice cream and frozen dairy product mixes) of cream and milk or skim milk, (2) used to produce concentrated (including frozen) milk, flavored milk, or flavored milk drinks disposed of for fluid consumption neither sterilized nor in hermetically sealed cans, and (3) all other skim milk and butterfat not specifically accounted for as Class II milk;

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat;

(1) Used to produce any product other than those specified in paragraph (a) of this section;

(2) Disposed of for livestock feed; or

(3) In inventory variations of milk, skim milk, cream, or any product specified in paragraph (a) of this section.

42. Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

43. Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of by a handler either by transfer or diversion shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream, to the approved plant of another handler (except a producer-handler), unless utilization in Class II is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 7th day after the end of the month within which such transaction occurred: Provided, That if either or both handlers have received other source milk the skim milk or butterfat so transferred or diverted shall be classified at both plants so as to allocate the greatest possible Class I utilization to producer milk.

(b) As Class I milk, if transferred or diverted to a producer-handler in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream.

(c) As Class I milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of milk or skim milk from an approved plant to an unapproved plant more than 200 miles distant by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator.

(d) As Class I milk, if transferred in the form of cream under Grade A certification from an approved plant to an unapproved plant located more than 200 miles distant and as Class II milk if so transferred without Grade A certification.

(e) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream from an approved plant to an unapproved plant located not more than 200 miles distant by shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, unless:

(1) The handler claims classification as Class II milk on the basis of a utilization mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both the operator of the unapproved plant and the handler on or before the 7th day after the end of the month within which such transfer occurred; and

(2) The operator of the unapproved plant maintains books and records showing the receipts and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at such plant which are made available if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification: Provided, That if the Class I utilization of skim milk and butterfat in such plant exceeds receipts at such plant of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in milk direct from dairy farmers who the market administrator determines constitutes the regular source of supply for fluid usage of such unapproved plant in markets supplied by it, an amount of skim milk and butterfat equal to such excess shall be classified as Class I milk.

44. Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the monthly report submitted by each handler and shall compute the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler.

45. Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to section 44, the market administrator shall determine the classification of milk received from producers as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk determined pursuant to section 41 (b) (3).

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk in other source milk: Provided, That if the receipts of skim milk in other source milk are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk received from other handlers according to its classification as determined pursuant to section 43 (a);

(4) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(5) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk received from producers, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be called "overage."

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of Class I and Class II milk computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

MINIMUM PRICES

50. Class prices. Subject to the provisions of sections 52 and 53 the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for milk received from producers at a pool plant during the delivery period shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. The price shall be the basic price determined pursuant to section 51 for the preceding delivery period plus $0.55 during May and June; plus $1.05 during July, August, September, October and November; and plus $0.75 in all other delivery periods: Provided, That such Class I price differentials shall be increased or decreased by application of the supply-demand adjustment established under § 941.52 (a) of Order No. 41, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area for the same delivery period: And provided further, That milk transferred to other plants outside of the marketing area shall be priced $0.20 higher than otherwise computed during the September-November period, and $0.20 lower during the January–April period.

(b) Class II milk. The price shall be that determined by the market administrator as follows:

(1) Multiply by 4.24 the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade AA (93-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, during the delivery period: Provided, That if no price is reported for Grade AA (93-score) butter, the highest of the prices reported for Grade A (92-score) butter for that day shall be used in lieu of the price for Grade AA (93-score) butter;

(2) Multiplying by 8.2 the weighted average of carlot prices per pound for spray process nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding delivery period through the 25th day of the current delivery period, by the United States Department of Agriculture; and

(3) From the sum of the results arrived at under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph subtract 75.2 cents.

51. Basic prices. The basic price to be used in determining the price per hundredweight of Class I milk shall be the price for Class II milk computed pursuant to section 50 (b) or that derived from either of the formulas set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, whichever is the highest.

(a) The average of the basic or field prices ascertained to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the delivery period at the following plants or places for which prices are reported to the market administrator by the listed companies or by the Department of Agriculture;

(b) (1) Multiply the average wholesale price per pound of 93-score butter at Chicago for said delivery period as reported by the Department of Agriculture by 6; (2) add 2.4 times the weekly prevailing price of "Cheddars" during said delivery period on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange at Plymouth, Wisconsin, as reported by the Department of Agriculture; (3) divide the resulting sum by seven (7); (4) add 30 percent thereof; and (5) multiply the resulting sum by 3.5.

52. Butterfat differentials to handlers. If the average butterfat content of the milk of any handler allocated to any class pursuant to section 46 is more or less than 3.5 percent, there shall be added to the respective class prices computed pursuant to section 50 for each 1 tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such milk is above 3.5 percent or subtracted for each 1 tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such milk is below 3.5 percent, an amount equal to the butterfat differential computed as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Multiply by 1.3 the price of 93 score butter at Chicago and divide by 10.

(b) Class II milk. Multiply by 1.2114 the price of 93 score butter at Chicago and divide by 10.

53. District supply-demand differentials to handlers. (a) If total receipts of producer milk in any district are less than 100 percent of Class I sales [1] in any month, the price for Class I shall be raised 5 cents per hundredweight for the following month, and if total receipts of producer milk in any district during the period of August through November averages less than 100 percent of Class I sales,[1] the price for Class I shall continue to be 5 cents higher through the next August.

(b) If total receipts of producer milk in any district are in excess of 130 percent of Class I sales [1] during any month during the August–November period, the Class I price shall be lowered 5 cents per hundredweight for the following month; and if such receipts should average in excess of 130 percent of Class I sales [1] during the entire August–November period, the 5-cent decrease shall remain effective through the following August.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

55. Producer-handler. Sections 41 through 52 and 60 through 76 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

56. Handlers subject to other Federal orders. In the case of any handler who the Secretary determines, disposes of a greater portion of his milk as Class I milk in another marketing area regulated by another milk marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act, the provisions of this subpart shall not apply except as follows:

(a) The handler shall with respect to his total receipts of skim milk and butterfat make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

(b) If the price which such handler is required to pay, under the other Federal order to which he is subject, for skim milk and butterfat which would be classified as Class I milk under this subpart is less than the price provided by this subpart, such handler shall pay to the market administrator for deposit into the producer-settlement fund (with respect to all skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I milk within the marketing area) an amount equal to the difference between the value of such skim milk or butterfat as computed pursuant to this subpart and its value as determined pursuant to the other order to which he is subject.

57. Handlers who operate non-pool plants. Handlers who operate non-pool plants shall, not later than the 12th day after the end of the delivery period, make payment to the market administrator for deposit into the producer settlement fund an amount equal to the difference between the Class I and Class II price with respect to all milk disposed of as Class I milk within the marketing area from such non-pool plant: Provided, That approved plants which have a non-pool status because of low utilization shall be exempt from this provision on satisfactory proof of payment of minimum class prices.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

60. Computation of value of milk. The value of milk received during each delivery period by each handler from producers shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class prices and adding together the resulting amounts: Provided, That if the handler had overage of either skim milk or butterfat there shall be added to the above values an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of overage by the applicable class prices.

[1] Class I sales here are defined as those excluding those outside of a 100-mile radius from the market area boundary.

61. Computation of uniform price. (a) Paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section and sections 62, 65, 68, 69, 70 and 71 shall be applied separately to (1) producer milk received at, or diverted by a cooperative association from plants in the LaCrosse District, and (2) producer milk received at, or diverted by a cooperative association from, plants in the Marketing Area other than the LaCrosse District.

(b) During the months of August through November, the market administrator shall compute a uniform price for milk purchased or received from producers by each handler at his pool plants as follows:

(1) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to section 60 for all handlers who made the reports prescribed by section 30 and who made the payments pursuant to section 65 for the preceding delivery period;

(2) Add not less than one half of the cash balance on hand in the producer-settlement fund less the amount of the contingent obligations to handlers pursuant to section 67;

(3) Subtract if the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is greater than 3.5 percent or add if such butterfat content is less than 3.5 percent an amount equal to the total value of the producer butterfat differential applicable pursuant to section 66.

(4) Add or subtract the appropriate amounts equal to the values of the district supply-demand differentials computed pursuant to section 67 (a);

(5) Add an amount equal to the total value of the location differentials computed pursuant to section 67 (b);

(6) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of milk included in these computations; and

(7) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents. The resulting amount shall be known as the uniform price for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat received from producers during the months of August through November.

(c) Computation of uniform prices for base milk and excess milk. For each of the months of December through July, inclusive, the market administrator shall compute the uniform prices per hundredweight for base milk and for excess milk, each of 3.5 percent butterfat content, received from producers at an approved plant as follows:

(1) Compute the value of all producer milk as prescribed in section 61 (b) (1–5).

(2) Compute the value of all excess milk by multiplying the volume in each class by the appropriate class price.

(3) Compute the value of all base milk by subtracting the value found in subparagraph (2) from that found in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(4) Compute the uniform price of excess milk by dividing the value obtained in subparagraph (2) by the excess volume.

(5) Compute the uniform price of base milk by dividing the value found in subparagraph (3) by the base volume.

(6) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from prices obtained in subparagraphs (4) and (5). The resulting amounts shall be the uniform prices for 3.5 percent excess and base milk, respectively.

62. Notification of handlers. On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall mail to each handler who operates a pool plant at his last known address, a statement showing:

(a) The classification and value of the milk received from producers by such handler at his pool plant.

(b) The applicable class prices and the uniform price for all milk during the months of August through November, or the uniform prices for base milk and for milk in excess of base during the months of December through July.

(c) The amount due such handler or the amount to be paid by such handler pursuant to sections 68 and 69.

PAYMENTS FOR MILK

65. Time and method of payment. Each handler shall, subject to the butterfat and location differentials prescribed in sections 66 and 67, make payment for milk received at a pool plant as follows:

(a) On or before the 15th day after the end of the delivery period during which the milk was received to each producer for milk, except that for which payment is made to a cooperative association pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, (1) during the months of August through November at not less than the uniform price computed pursuant to section 61 (a), (2) during the months of December through July at not less than the uniform prices for base and excess milk computed pursuant to section 61 (b).

(b) On or before the 12th day after the end of the delivery period during which the milk was received, to a cooperative association for milk caused to be delivered to such handlers from producers by the cooperative association if the cooperative association is authorized to collect payment for such milk and if it so requests, an amount equal to not less than the sum of the individual amounts otherwise payable to such producers.

66. Producer butterfat differential. In making payments to producers pursuant to section 65 there shall be added to or subtracted from the uniform price for each 1 tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such milk is above or below 3.5 percent the following amounts:

(a) During August through November—an amount equal to the weighted average value of the butterfat allocated to each class pursuant to section 45.

(b) During December through July—(1) with respect to milk not in excess of base an amount computed by multiplying by 1.30 the price of 93-score butter at Chicago and dividing the results by 10, and (2) with respect to milk delivered in excess of base an amount computed by multiplying by 1.15 the price of 93-score butter at Chicago and dividing the result by 10.

67. (a) District supply-demand. In making payment to producers pursuant to section 65 for milk received at pool plants, each handler shall be governed by the provisions of section 53.

(b) Location differential to producers. In making payments to producers pursuant to section 65 for milk delivered to pool plants outside the city limits of towns of over 5,000 population each such handler shall subtract from the payment on all milk the following amounts according to distance from city limit:

	Cents
1–3 miles	3
4 miles	4
5 miles or over	5

These amounts are to be paid by the handlers directly to the producer-settlement fund.

63. Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the producer-settlement fund into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to section 69 and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to section 70.

69. Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to the market administrator the amount by which the utilization value of the milk received by such handler from producers during such delivery period is greater than the amount required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to section 65.

70. Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler the amount by which the utilization value of the milk received by such handler from producers during the delivery period is less than the amount required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to section 65: Provided, That if the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly the payments to all handlers and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available. No handler who has not received the balance of such payments from the market administrator shall be considered in violation of section 65 if he reduces his payments to producers by not more than the amount of the reduction in payment from the producer-settlement fund.

71. Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records or accounts discloses errors resulting in moneys due (a) the market administrator from such handler, (b) such handler from the market administrator, or (c) any producer or cooperative association from such handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any amount so due, and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payment set forth in the provision under which such error occurred.

72. Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this subpart for the payment of money irrespective of when such obligation arose.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this subpart shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The delivery period(s) during which the milk with respect to which the obligation exists was received for handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to a cooperative association, the name of such producer(s) or cooperative association, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this subpart, to make available to the market administrator all books and records required by this subpart to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the delivery period during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligations are made available to the market administrator.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this subpart to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transactions involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this subpart shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month, during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed unless the handler, within the applicable period of time, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, files a petition claiming such money.

BASE PLAN

75. (a) Bases are established August through November and apply the following December through July.

(b) Any producer who is not eligible to receive a base as computed above shall have a base computed by applying the appropriate percentage on the following table to his deliveries to handlers:

December	75	June	35
January	60	July	70
February	50	August	100
March	40	September	100
April	40	October	100
May	35	November	100

76. Base rules. The following rules shall be observed in the determination of bases:

(a) A base may be transferred during the period of December through July upon written notice to the market administrator on or before the last day of the month of transfer, but only under the following circumstances:

(1) Upon the death, retirement or entry into military service of a producer, the entire base may be transferred to a member (or members) of his immediate family who continues to supply producer milk from the same farm.

(2) If a base is held jointly and such joint holding is terminated the entire base may be transferred as a unit to one of the joint holders or to another producer.

(b) A producer who ceases deliveries to a fluid milk plant or country plant for more than 45 days shall lose his base if computed pursuant to section 75 (a) and if he resumes deliveries to such a plant he shall be paid on a base determined pursuant to section 75 (b) until he can establish a new base under section 75 (a) to begin the next December 1.

(c) By notifying the market administrator prior to the last day of any month in the period December through July, inclusive, a producer having a base established pursuant to section 75 (a) may relinquish such base by cancellation, and effective from the first day of the month in which notice is received by the market administrator until the end of such eight-month period such producer's base shall be computed in the manner provided by section 75 (b).

(d) As soon as bases computed by the market administrator are allotted, notice of the amount of each producer's base shall be given by the market administrator to the handler receiving such producer's milk and to the cooperative association of which the producer is a member. Each handler, following receipt of such notice, shall promptly post in a conspicuous place at each of his plants a list or lists showing the base of each producer whose milk is received at such plant.

(e) If a producer operates more than one farm he shall establish a separate base with respect to producer milk delivered from each such farm.

OTHER PAYMENTS

80. Expense of administration. As his prorata share of the expense of administration of this part each handler, with respect to all milk purchased or received directly from producers' farms (including such handler's own production) and which is disposed of as Class I milk during the delivery period, shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 12th day after the end of such delivery period, 4–6 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe.

81. Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section each handler, in making payments to producers (other than himself) pursuant to section 65 shall deduct 5 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of such delivery period. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to check weights of, sample, and test milk received from producers and to provide producers with market information.

(b) In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deductions specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as may be authorized by the membership agreement or marketing contract between such cooperative association and such producers and on or before the 12th day after the end of such delivery period pay such deductions to the cooperative association rendering such services.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

85. Effective time. The provisions of this subpart, or any amendment to this subpart, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated.

86. Suspension or termination. The Secretary shall, whenever he finds that, this subpart, or any provision of this subpart obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, terminate or suspend the operation of this subpart or any such provisions of this subpart.

87. Continuing obligations. If upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this subpart, there are any obligations under this subpart the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

88. Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this subpart, except this section, the liquidating agent shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated all assets, books and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

90. Agents. The secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this subpart.

91. Separability of provisions. If any provision of this subpart or its application to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this subpart, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Proposed by the Borden Company:

1. Include Eau Claire County, Wisconsin, within the proposed marketing area.

2. Provide that a "handler" shall include anyone who operates a plant within or without the marketing area, from which fluid milk is distributed in the marketing areas and that, regardless of any other provision in the marketing order as to whether the plant shall be a "pool plant" or a "nonpool plan," the handler shall be required to pay not less than the minimum class prices for all milk.

3. Include as a separate class (Class I–A) all skim milk and butterfat disposed of in the form of cream or fluid products containing over 6 percent butterfat; and provide a minimum price therefor which shall be less than the price for skim milk and butterfat utilized as Class I milk.

4. Provide that the prices for Class I and Class I–A milk shall be increased and decreased on the basis of the operation of the formula, but only in specific units per hundredweight under the so-called "bracket schedule" of changing the price. In the case of Class I the unit of change shall be 22¢ per hundredweight.

Copies of this notice of hearing may be procured from the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. or may be there inspected.

Dated: November 6, 1952, at Washington, D. C.

[7 CFR Part 994]

HANDLING OF PECANS GROWN IN GEORGIA, ALABAMA, FLORIDA, MISSISSIPPI AND SOUTH CAROLINA

EXPENSES OF PECAN ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE AND RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR FISCAL PERIOD BEGINNING OCTOBER 1, 1952

Notice is hereby given that the Department is considering the issuance of the proposed administrative rule herein set forth pursuant to the provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 111 and Order No. 94 (7 CFR Part 994), regulating the handling of pecans grown in Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, and South Carolina, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

Prior to the final issuance of such rule, consideration will be given to data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and which are received not later than the close of business on the tenth day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except that if such tenth day after publication should fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, such submission may be received by the Director not later than the close of business on the next following work day.

Pursuant to the provisions of said agreement and order, the Pecan Administrative Committee at its meeting in Albany, Georgia, on October 2, 1952, unanimously recommended a budget of expenses of $30,800 and an assessment rate of 22 cents per hundred pounds of pecans handled for the fiscal period beginning October 1, 1952. In making the foregoing recommendation, the Committee took into consideration its estimate that 14,000,000 pounds of pecans will be handled for distribution as unshelled pecans during the aforesaid fiscal period. The proposed rate of assessment of 22 cents per hundred pounds of pecans handled, when applied to this estimated quantity, will provide sufficient funds to cover the proposed expenses of $30,800, and such expenses and rate of assessment appear to be reasonable. The proposed budget of expenses and rate of assessment are the same as were approved for the fiscal period beginning October 1, 1951.

The proposed rule is as follows:

§ 994.303 Expenses for the fiscal period beginning October 1, 1952, and rate of assessment—(a) Expenses. Expenses in the amount of $30,800 are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the Pecan Administrative Committee for its maintenance and functioning during the fiscal period beginning October 1, 1952; and

(b) Rate of assessment. The rate of assessment to be paid, in accordance with the applicable provisions of said marketing agreement and order, by each handler who first handles unshelled pecans shall be 22 cents per hundred pounds of assessable unshelled pecans handled by him as the first handler thereof during the fiscal period beginning October 1, 1952.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of November 1952.

[SEAL] S. R. SMITH,
Director,
Fruit and Vegetable Branch.

CITY OF CENTRALIA, WASHINGTON

NOTICE OF DECLARATION OF INTENTION

NOVEMBER 5, 1952.

Public notice is hereby given that the City of Centralia, State of Washington on August 29, 1952, filed with this Commission its declaration of intention pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Power Act (49 Stat. 838) (16 U. S. C. 818) and the rules and regulations of this Commission in such matters made and provided. The Declarant states that it intends to construct, operate and maintain certain hydroelectric generating project works, which are specifically described in the said declaration, across, along, over and in the Nisqually River approximately 6 miles Southeasterly from the Town of Yelm, Washington, where it has an existing hydroelectric power plant. The Declarant proposes to enlarge the dam across the said river, to improve the canal by cleaning it out, to construct a penstock and an addition to the power house to accomodate a turbine of 7,500 hp with the directly connected generator of 6,250 kva 80 percent power factor, and to construct and install all other necessary appurtenances. The plant will be manually operated and controlled. A power interconnection now exists with Bonneville Power Administration and no additional interconnection is contemplated at this time.

Declarant states that the proposed project will have no effect on present or proposed navigation; also that it is entitled to divert up to 1,050 cubic feet of water per second of the natural flow of Nisqually River when its power plant is fully developed thus increasing the amount of the flow from its present volume by 700 to 720 cfs.

The Commission will investigate the project and determine whether a license under the Federal Power Act is required or whether the project may be constructed upon compliance with the State laws only.

Any objection or comments concerning this matter should be communicated or submitted within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice to the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

COLUMBIA GAS SYSTEM, INC., AND CUMBERLAND AND ALLEGHENY GAS CO.

NOTICE REGARDING THE ISSUANCE AND SALE OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AND INSTALLMENT PROMISSORY NOTES BY SUBSIDIARY AND THE ACQUISITION THEREOF BY PARENT COMPANY

NOVEMBER 5, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application has been filed with this Commission by the Columbia Gas System, Inc. ("Columbia"), a registered holding company, and Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company ("Cumberland"), a subsidiary company of Columbia, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. Sections 6 (b), 9 and 10 of the act have been designated as being applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to said joint application which is on file in the offices of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Cumberland proposes to issue and sell and Columbia proposes to acquire 10,000 shares of common stock, par value $25 per share ($250,000), and a maximum of $300,000 principal amount of 3⅝ percent Installment Promissory Notes. Cumberland represents that the proceeds in the amount of $550,000 to be derived from Columbia would be used to finance the remainder of its 1952 construction program. Columbia states that it would first purchase common stock when and as funds are required up to a maximum amount of 10,000 shares, and thereafter it would purchase 3⅝ percent Notes as funds are needed, up to a maximum principal amount of $300,000. It is further stated that Cumberland would not issue or sell any such common stock or 3⅝ percent Notes subsequent to March 31, 1953.

The 3⅝ percent Notes to be issued by Cumberland would be registered and the principal amounts thereof would be payable in twenty-five equal annual installments on February 15 of each of the years 1954 to 1978, inclusive. Interest on the unpaid principal amount of said Notes will be payable semi-annually on February 15 and August 15.

The issuance and sale of the common stock and Notes by Cumberland are stated to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission of the State of West Virginia.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 15, 1952, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by the said joint application which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 15, 1952, said joint application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

By the Commission.

COLUMBIA GAS SYSTEM, INC., AND NATURAL GAS COMPANY OF WEST VIRGINIA

NOTICE REGARDING THE ISSUANCE AND SALE OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AND INSTALLMENT PROMISSORY NOTES BY SUBSIDIARY AND THE ACQUISITION THEREOF BY PARENT COMPANY

NOVEMBER 5, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application has been filed with this Commission by the Columbia Gas System, Inc. ("Columbia"), a registered holding company, and Natural Gas Company of West Virginia ("Natural Gas"), a subsidiary company of Columbia, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. Sections 6 (b), 9 and 10 of the act are designated as being applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to said joint application which is on file in the offices of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Natural Gas proposes to issue and sell and Columbia proposes to acquire, at par, 1,500 shares of common stock, par value $100 per share, ($150,000), and a maximum of $200,000 principal amount of 3⅝ percent Installment Promissory Notes. Natural Gas represents that the proceeds in the amount of $350,000 to be derived from Columbia would be used to finance the remainder of its 1952 construction program. Columbia states that it would first purchase common stock when and as funds are required up to a maximum amount of 10,000 shares and thereafter it would purchase 3⅝ percent Notes as funds are needed, up to a maximum principal amount of $200,000. It is further stated that Natural Gas would not issue or sell any such common stock or 3⅝ percent Notes subsequent to March 31, 1953.

It is further stated that the 3⅝ percent Notes proposed to be issued by Natural Gas would be payable in twenty-five equal annual installments on February 15 of each of the years 1954 to 1978, inclusive. Interest on the unpaid principal amount thereof would be payable semiannually on February 15 and August 15.

The issuance and sale of the common stock and Notes by Natural Gas is stated to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission of the State of Ohio.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 15, 1952, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by the said joint application which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 15, 1952, said joint application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

PHILADELPHIA CO. ET AL.

NOTICE REGARDING PROPOSED TAX AGREEMENTS AMONG PARENT AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOVEMBER 5, 1952.

In the matter of Philadelphia Company, Duquesne Light Company, Allegheny County Steam Heating Company, Cheswick and Harmar Railroad Company; File No. 70-2954.

Notice is hereby given that a joint declaration has been filed with this Commission by Philadelphia Company ("Philadelphia"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of Standard Gas and Electric Company ("Standard"), also a registered holding company, by Duquesne Light Company ("Duquesne"), a public utility subsidiary of Philadelphia, and by Allegheny County Steam Heating Company ("Allegheny") and Cheswick and Harmar Railroad Company ("Cheswick"), non-utility subsidiaries of Duquesne. Declarants have designated section 12 (f) of the act and Rule U-45 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions which are summarized as follows:

On October 1, 1952, the Commission approved Steps I and I-A of a plan of liquidation of Standard, filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act. (Holding Company Act Release No. 11510). Step I involves the retirement of the Prior Preference Stock of Standard through the distribution of portfolio stocks of Standard, including common stock of Duquesne. Step I-A involves the settlement of various intercompany claims between Standard and its parent Standard Power and Light Corporation ("Power"), also a registered holding company, and provides, among other things, for the transfer of 31,000 shares of the common stock of Duquesne by Standard to Power. An application by the Commission for enforcement of Steps I and I-A is now pending in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware.

It is also proposed under Step I of the aforementioned plan that Philadelphia will enter into separate agreements with Duquesne and its subsidiaries Allegheny and Cheswick with respect to the apportionment of Federal income and excess profits taxes, and refunds thereof, if any, covering the period from 1942 through 1950 during which such companies joined with Standard in the filing of consolidated tax returns. The agreement with Duquesne provides in substance that (a) Duquesne will pay its share (as determined under previous agreements) of any additional Federal income and excess profits taxes, on a consolidated tax return basis, for all years through 1950 up to an aggregate of (i) $8,117,571, the amount accrued on its books for such taxes as of July 3, 1952, (ii) $2,000,000, representing the estimated possible additional liability for such taxes, and (iii) its share of any interim refunds of such income and excess profits taxes received after July 3, 1952; (b) that Philadelphia will assume all liability for such taxes for the years through 1950 in excess of such aggregate amount; and (c) that if the share of Duquesne of the net aggregate of the taxes finally determined to be payable is less than the amount of such taxes paid by Duquesne prior to July 3, 1952, Philadelphia will be entitled to the resulting net refunds and interest thereon.

The agreements with Allegheny and Cheswick provide in substance that (a) Allegheny and Cheswick will pay their share of any additional Federal income and excess profits taxes on a consolidated tax return basis, for all years through 1950 up to an aggregate of (i) the respective amounts accrued therefor on their books as of July 3, 1952 ($57,031.52 in the case of Allegheny and $6,412.16 in the case of Cheswick), and (ii) their respective shares of interim refunds received after July 3, 1952; and (b) that Philadelphia will assume all liability for such taxes for the years through 1950 in excess of such respective aggregate amounts and will be entitled to receive all net refunds and interest thereon for such years.

In its findings and opinion approving Step I of the aforesaid Standard plan, this Commission found that the proposed agreements would be fair and equitable to Standard's security holders and to Philadelphia, Duquesne, Allegheny and Cheswick. In the present declaration specific approval is sought as to the execution of the proposed agreements since Duquesne, Allegheny and Cheswick were not parties to the proceeding involving Step I of the Standard plan.

The declarants estimate that their expenses will not exceed $100 and state that services of counsel are not to be separated from their general services in connection with Step I of the Standard plan, for which compensation will be sought in connection with the reorganization of Standard.

The declaration indicates that no State or Federal Commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Declarants request that the Commission's order herein become effective upon issuance.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 17, 1952, at 5:30 p. m. request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said declaration which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time thereafter said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

By the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

National Production Authority

[Suspension Order 40; Docket No. 53]

REBO MANUFACTURING CORP. AND JOSEPH REICHERT

SUSPENSION ORDER

A hearing having been held in the above-entitled matter on the 24th day of October 1952, before Warren A. Seavey, a hearing commissioner of the National Production Authority, on a statement of charges made by the General Counsel, National Production Authority, in accordance with the National Production Authority's General Administrative Order 16-06 (16 F. R. 8628) dated July 21, 1951, and Rules of Practice 1, Revised (17 F. R. 8156); and

The respondents Rebo Manufacturing Corp. and Joseph Reichert were duly apprised of the specific violation charged, and informed of the rules and procedures which govern these proceedings and the administrative action which may be taken.

The respondents appeared by their attorneys, Harold Rosenwald and Edward Schneider, of Boston, Mass., the National Production Authority being represented by James E. Agnew of its Boston Regional Office and Joseph J. Saunders of its Office of General Counsel.

The charges: The respondents were charged with having violated section 3 (c) of CMP Regulation No. 1, May 3, 1951 (16 F. R. 4127), as amended November 23, 1951 (16 F. R. 11860), with having produced 84,967 pounds of automobile exhaust extensions from carbon steel controlled materials without having received an authorized production schedule, this in the period between April 1, 1952, and September 11, 1952.

By an amendment consented to by the attorneys for the respondents, the charge was changed from the charge of having produced Class B products to one of having produced Class A products.

Facts: By agreement between the counsel for the National Production Authority, for the Rebo Manufacturing Corporation and by Joseph Reichert, individual respondent controlling the Rebo Manufacturing Corporation, it was agreed: That the Rebo Manufacturing Corporation had produced Class A products without having a production schedule to the amount of approximately 84,000 pounds between April 1, 1952, and September 11, 1952; that this was done upon purchase orders on the Hub Auto Supply Company of Boston as a subcontractor, which had represented that it had an authorized production schedule which it could extend to the respondents; that the respondents had a right to rely upon the validity of these representations until notice from the National Production Authority that it was not so authorized; that on the 21st of August a letter was sent by the National Production Authority to the Rebo Manufacturing Corporation (made a part of the stipulation) in effect warning the Rebo Manufacturing Corporation that it might be violating the rules in manufacturing for the Hub Auto Supply Company, also known as the Wilson Company, that the letter was received in course of post but was not opened by the Rebo Manufacturing Corporation until September 11, when the inspector from the National Production Authority visited the plant of the company; that thereupon, September 11th, all production of controlled material ceased.

Counsel for the respondents moved for dismissal of the charges. Upon this being refused, evidence was taken as to the occurrences between August 22 when the notification was deposited at the place of business of the Rebo Manufacturing Corporation, and September 11, when knowledge as distinct from notice was brought home to the company. Counsel for the National Production Authority disclaimed any intent to charge violation prior to August 22.

Summarizing the evidence thus orally presented, I find the following facts: That the Rebo Manufacturing Corporation is a very small concern, consisting of Rebo, his son, an assistant and a once-a-month bookkeeper; that its assets consist of a few machines in an area of approximately 3,000 feet; that a large percentage of its business has been performed for the Hub Auto Supply Company and consists of stamping and bending steel to form tail pieces and baffles for use in automobiles. On August 22d, the date of the delivery of the above mentioned letter, there was a considerable quantity of material both stamped and unstamped on hand and between August 22 and September 11, from the pieces already stamped and useful only when shaped, there were made 1,400 tail pieces, having a gross weight of approximately 500 pounds, this being the sole violation remaining of the original charges.

The reason for the nondiscovery of the notification of August 22 was the careless way in which the correspondence of the company was carried on. There was, however, no knowledge of the possible content of the letter and there was no indication that the respondent Reichert intended to flout the National Production Authority. His carelessness was directed rather to the general business affairs of the concern than to any disposition not to obey governmental orders.

It was also brought out that previous to August 22 an inspector from the Boston office of the National Production Authority had several times visited the plant and had been referred by Reichert to the Hub or Wilson Company for further information, but it was not until just before August 22 that the National Production Authority came to believe that the Hub or Wilson Company was not privileged to authorize the respondent to manufacture for it. When the respondents learned that they were violating the orders of the National Production Authority, they stopped the improper use of controlled materials.

I find further that since the respondents did not use any materials after August 22 which could be used for any purpose other than that for which they used them, and since they had not drawn fresh supplies of controlled materials after August 22, their technical violation resulting from the careless failure to read received mail did not in any way affect the national economy with reference to controlled materials.

Conclusions: I find that the respondents were acting throughout in good faith; that they made every attempt upon learning the facts to comply with governmental orders; that the affair has been a minor disaster for them; that they will not be able to operate sufficiently to support themselves if they are unable to secure and work upon controlled materials; that public policy requires that this small enterprise should not be destroyed and that the national economy should not be deprived of the use of the materials and machines belonging to the company, which it would if the respondents' business were to be stopped for a substantial period.

On the other hand, it is desirable that more care should be used in relation to controlled materials and for the purpose of correcting the unauthorized use of controlled materials occasioned by the technical violation and in order to prevent future violation of National Production Authority orders and regulations by the respondents, and because no other remedy is open to the National Production Authority, it is accordingly ordered:

1. That all priority assistance, allocations and allotments of controlled material be withdrawn and withheld from Rebo Manufacturing Corp., its successors and assigns, and Joseph Reichert for a period of 2 weeks commencing with the date of this order.

2. That Rebo Manufacturing Corp., its successors and assigns, and Joseph Reichert be prohibited from acquiring, using, or disposing of any materials under the control of the National Production Authority for a period of 2 weeks commencing with the date of this order.

3. That all privileges of self-certification, self-authorization, and automatic allotment granted or authorized by the National Production Authority with respect to controlled materials and materials under the control of the National Production Authority be withdrawn and withheld from Rebo Manufacturing Corp., its successors and assigns, and Joseph Reichert for a period of 2 weeks commencing with the date of this order.

Issued this 27th day of October 1952.

By WARREN A. SEAVEY,
Hearing Commissioner.

VOLUME 17 NUMBER 222

Washington, Thursday, November 13, 1952

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10408

TRANSFER OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE PORTION OF THE TRUST TERRITORY OF THE PACIFIC ISLANDS WHICH INCLUDES THE ISLANDS OF TINIAN AND SAIPAN FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR TO THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY

WHEREAS the administration of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands (hereinafter referred to as the trust territory) was transferred to the Secretary of the Interior by Executive Order No. 10265 of June 29, 1951; and

WHEREAS the purposes of the trusteeship agreement approved by the Security Council of the United Nations on April 2, 1947, and by the United States Government on July 18, 1947, can better be effectuated by placing in the Secretary of the Navy the authority and responsibility for the administration of that portion of the trust territory which includes the islands of Tinian and Saipan:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States, it is ordered as follows:

1. The administration of that portion of the trust territory which includes the islands of Tinian and Saipan is hereby transferred from the Secretary of the Interior to the Secretary of the Navy, such transfer to become effective on January 1, 1953.

2. When the transfer of administration made by this order becomes effective, the Secretary of the Navy shall take such action as may be necessary and appropriate, and in harmony with applicable law, for the administration of civil government in that portion of the trust territory which includes the islands of Tinian and Saipan and shall, subject to such policies as the President may from time to time prescribe and, when appropriate, in collaboration with other departments or agencies of the Government, carry out the obligations assumed by the United States as the administering authority of the trust territory under the terms of the trusteeship agreement approved by the United States on July 18, 1947, and under the Charter of the United Nations: Provided, however, That the authority to specify parts or all of either of such islands as closed for security reasons and to determine the extent to which Articles 87 and 88 of the Charter of the United Nations shall be applicable to such closed areas, in accordance with Article 13 of the trusteeship agreement, shall be exercised by the President: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Navy shall keep the Secretary of State currently informed of activities on such islands affecting the foreign policy of the United States and shall consult the Secretary of State on questions of policy concerning such islands which relate to the foreign policy of the United States, and that all relations between departments or agencies of the Government and appropriate organs of the United Nations with respect to such islands shall be conducted through the Secretary of State.

3. The executive departments and agencies of the Government are authorized and directed to cooperate with the Departments of the Navy and Interior in the effectuation of the provisions of this order.

4. To the extent that they pertain to the islands of Tinian and Saipan, the provisions of Executive Order No. 10265 of June 29, 1951, shall be superseded by the provisions of this order as of the date set out in the paragraph numbered 1, above.

nation of parity prices (15 F. R. 837, as amended by 15 F. R. 9374, 16 F. R. 2865, 5971, and 17 F. R. 961) are amended as hereinafter specified, in order to make changes required by Public Law 585, 82d Congress. The amendment to paragraph (a) of § 5.1 takes account of the amendment to section 301 (a) (1) (G) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 as amended which requires for basic commodities until 1956, the use of parity prices according to the "old" parity formula if higher than the parity prices according to the new formula. The amendment to § 5.4 adds extra long staple cotton to the list of commodities for which marketing season average prices will be used in making parity price calculations and removes American-Egyptian cotton from the list. The amendment to § 5.7 adds American upland cotton and extra long staple cotton to the list of commodities for which parity prices shall be calculated and removes cotton and American-Egyptian cotton from the list.

1. Section 5.1 (a) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 5.1 Parity index and index of prices received by farmers. (a) The parity index for the purpose of calculating parity prices according to the formula contained in section 301 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended by the Agricultural Acts of 1948 and 1949 (hereinafter referred to as section 301 (a)), shall be the index of prices paid by farmers, interest, taxes, and farm wage rates, as revised January 1950 and published by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics in the January 31, 1950, and subsequent issues of the monthly report, "Agricultural Prices." For the purpose of calculating parity prices according to the formula which was in effect prior to January 1, 1950 (and which is applicable to basic commodities until 1956, if higher than the parity price determined by the new formula), as provided for by section 301 (a) (1) (G), and for calculating transitional parity prices for nonbasic commodities, as provided for by section 301 (a) (1) (E), the indexes of prices paid and of prices received, including interest and taxes, shall continue to be calculated using the same weights and formula as were utilized for computing parity prices prior to January 1, 1950. The publication of these indexes by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics in the monthly report, "Agricultural Prices," shall be continued.

2. Section 5.4 is amended by changing the period at the end of the paragraph entitled "Basic Commodities" to a semicolon and adding the words "extra long staple cotton" and by deleting from the paragraph entitled "Other Commodities" the words "American-Egyptian cotton."

3. Section 5.7 is amended by deleting from the paragraph entitled "Basic Commodities" the word "cotton;" and adding in its place the words "American upland cotton; extra long staple cotton;" and by deleting from the paragraph entitled "Other Commodities" the words "American-Egyptian cotton."

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 909—ALMONDS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

BUDGET OF EXPENSES OF ALMOND CONTROL BOARD AND RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR CROP YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1, 1952

Notice of proposed rule making with respect to expenses of the Almond Control Board for the crop year beginning July 1, 1952, and rate of assessment, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of September 19, 1952 (17 F. R. 8441), pursuant to provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 119 and Order No. 9 regulating the handling of almonds grown in California (7 CFR Part 909), effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). In said notice, opportunity was afforded interested persons to submit to the Department written data, views, or arguments for consideration prior to issuance of the final rule. No such documents were received during the time specified in the notice.

Therefore, after consideration of all relevant matters, it is found and determined that the budget of expenses of the Almond Control Board and rate of assessment shall be as follows:

§ 909.302 Budget of expenses of the Almond Control Board and rate of assessment for the crop year beginning July 1, 1952—(a) Budget of expenses. For the crop year beginning July 1, 1952, expenses in the amount of $49,000 are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the Almond Control Board for its maintenance and functioning and for such purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions of the agreement and order, determine to be appropriate.

(b) Rate of assessment. The rate of assessment for the crop year beginning July 1, 1952, shall be, in lieu of the assessment rate specified in § 909.121 of said agreement and order, fifteen one-hundredths of a cent (.15 cent) for each pound of edible almond kernels received by each handler for his own account, except as to receipts from other handlers on which assessments have been paid.

Notwithstanding the approval of the aforesaid, none of such funds may be used to pay any wage or salary that is inconsistent with the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order No. 10161, or any supplementary order, directive, or regulation pursuant thereto.

It is hereby found and determined that good cause exist for making this document effective upon its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, instead of waiting thirty days after publication, for the reasons that (1) it is necessary that the Almond Control Board be authorized to collect assessments from handlers to defray expenses incurred in administering the marketing agreement and order during the present crop year and the establishment of a rate of assessment is necessary prior to such collection, (2) handling of 1952 crop almonds has begun, and (3) the order herein will require no special preparation by handlers or the Almond Control Board.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of November 1952 to become effective upon publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 966—ORANGES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA OR IN ARIZONA

ORDER DISCHARGING TRUSTEES

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), the provisions of Order No. 66, as amended (7 CFR Part 966), regulating the handling of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, were terminated by an order issued on March 6, 1952 (17 F. R. 2085), effective at 11:59 p. m., P. s. t., March 8, 1952. Said order also provided for the liquidation of the affairs of the Orange Administrative Committee, established pursuant to said order, as amended.

The members of the Orange Administrative Committee were designated joint trustees of all the funds and property and were directed to conduct the liquidation and effect the distribution of any excess contributions among the handlers entitled thereto.

Such liquidation and distribution have been effected in accordance with the provisions of the procedure prescribed in the said termination order and the applicable provisions of Order No. 66, as amended; all books and records of the Orange Administrative Committee and of the trustees have been delivered to the Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration; there are no funds or property in the possession or under the control of said trustees; and there is no further liability or outstanding obligation to be discharged by said trustees.

It is, therefore, hereby ordered, That the aforesaid members of the Orange Administrative Committee, serving as trustees pursuant to said Order No. 66, as amended, and said termination order, be, and they hereby are, discharged and released from any further obligations to serve as joint trustees pursuant to said orders and from any and all further obligations thereunder.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of November 1952, to be effective immediately.

PART 984—WALNUTS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA, OREGON, AND WASHINGTON

BUDGET OF EXPENSES OF WALNUT CONTROL BOARD AND RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR MARKETING YEAR BEGINNING AUGUST 1, 1952

Notice of proposed rule making with respect to the budget of expenses of the Walnut Control Board for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1952, and rate of assessment, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of October 14, 1952 (17 F. R. 9107), pursuant to the provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 105 and Order No. 84 regulating the handling of walnuts grown in California, Oregon, and Washington (7 CFR Part 984), effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). In said notice, opportunity was afforded interested persons to submit to the Department written data, views, or arguments for consideration prior to issuance of the final rule. No such documents were received during the time specified in the notice.

Therefore after consideration of all relevant matters, it is found and determined that the budget of expenses of the Walnut Control Board and rate of assessment shall be as follows:

§ 984.304 Budget of expenses of the Walnut Control Board and rate of assessment for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1952—(a) Budget of expenses. Expenses in the amount of $83,700 are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the Walnut Control Board for its maintenance and functioning, and for such purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions of the marketing agreement and order, determine to be appropriate for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1952.

(b) Rate of assessment. Each handler shall pay to the Control Board on demand by the Control Board, from time to time, 0.12 cent for each pound of merchantable walnuts handled or certified for handling by him during the marketing year beginning August 1, 1952.

Notwithstanding the approval of the expenses of said Board, none of such funds may be used to pay any wage or salary that is inconsistent with the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order No. 10161, or any supplementary order, directive, or regulation pursuant thereto.

It is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this document effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, instead of waiting thirty days after publication, for the reasons that (1) the regulation should become effective prior to or as soon as practicable after handling of the 1952 walnut crop begins, (2) the handling of such crop has begun, and (3) the order herein will require no special preparation on the part of handlers.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of November 1952, to become effective upon publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 989—RAISINS PRODUCED FROM RAISIN VARIETY GRAPES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

DESIGNATION OF FREE, RESERVE, AND SURPLUS PERCENTAGES FOR 1952–53 CROP YEAR

Notice was published in the October 17, 1952, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 9225) that the Secretary of Agriculture was considering a proposed rule to designate free tonnage percentages, reserve tonnage percentages, and surplus tonnage percentages with respect to raisins produced from raisin variety grapes grown in California and acquired by handlers during the 1952–53 crop year. These percentages were proposed after consideration of the recommendation submitted by the Raisin Administrative Committee and other information available to the Secretary, in accordance with the applicable provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 109 and Order No. 89 (17 F. R. 1255, 1555), regulating the handling of raisins produced from raisin variety grapes grown in California, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). In said notice, opportunity was afforded all interested persons to file any data, views, or arguments with respect thereto. The period for filing such data, views, or arguments has expired.

After consideration of all matters pertaining thereto, including the data, views, and arguments which were filed in connection with the aforesaid notice, the recommendation of the Raisin Administrative Committee, and other information available to the Secretary, it is hereby found by me on behalf of the Secretary of Agricture that to designate free tonnage percentages, reserve tonnage percentages, and surplus tonnage percentages, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the aforesaid act, and it is, therefore, ordered, that such percentages shall be as follows:

§ 989.206 Free, reserve, and surplus tonnage regulation for the 1952–53 crop year. (a) The percentages of each varietal type of raisins acquired by handlers during the crop year beginning August 15, 1952, and ending August 14, 1953, which shall be free tonnage, reserve tonnage, and surplus tonnage, respectively, are designated as follows: (1) Natural (sun-dried) Thompson seedless raisins: Free tonnage percentage, 55 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, 20 percent; and surplus tonnage percentage, 25 percent; (2) natural (sun-dried) Muscat raisins: Free tonnage percentage, 60 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, 40 percent; and surplus tonnage percentage, zero percent; (3) natural (sun-dried) Sultana raisins: Free tonnage percentage, 100 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, zero percent; and surplus tonnage percentage, zero percent; (4) natural (sun-dried) Zante currant raisins: Free tonnage percentage, 75 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, 25 percent; and surplus tonnage percentage, zero percent; (5) artificially dehydrated Sultana raisins: Free tonnage percentage, 100 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, zero percent; and surplus tonnage percentage, zero percent; (6) artificially dehydrated Zante currant raisins: Free tonnage percentage, 75 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, 25 percent; and surplus tonnage percentage, zero percent; (7) Layer Muscat raisins: Free tonnage percentage, 60 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, 40 percent; and surplus tonnage percentage, zero percent; (8) Golden bleached raisins: Free tonnage percentage, 70 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, 30 percent; and surplus tonnage percentage, zero percent; (9) Sulfur bleached raisins: Free tonnage percentage, 100 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, zero percent; and surplus tonnage percentage, zero percent; (10) Soda dipped raisins: Free tonnage percentage, 100 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, zero percent; and surplus tonnage percentage zero percent; and (11) Valencia raisins: Free tonnage percentage, 100 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, zero percent; and surplus tonnage percentage, zero percent.

It is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for not delaying the effective date of this document later than the fourth day after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (see section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that: (1) Acquisition of raisins by handlers during the 1952–53 crop year has begun, and it is necessary to have this regulation in effect promptly for application against such acquisitions of raisins; (2) this document is being issued as soon as practicable after reasonably reliable information concerning the 1952 production of raisins became available; (3) handlers have been aware for some time that action of this nature would be taken and they should not require more than three days' advance notice; and (4) each of the free tonnage percentages designated in this document is the same as, or higher than, the corresponding free tonnage percentage which was set forth in the aforesaid notice of proposed rule making. In these circumstances, this document should be made effective on the fourth day after the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 19 to Rev. of May 10, 1949]

PART 550—FEDERAL AID TO PUBLIC AGENCIES FOR DEVELOPMENT OF PUBLIC AIRPORTS

PROJECT COSTS

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Federal Airport Act, I hereby amend Part 550 of the regulations of the Civil Aeronautics Administration as follows:

Section 550.4 (c) (1) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 550.4 Project costs. • • •

(c) United States share of project costs. • • •

(1) Project costs other than costs of installation of high intensity lighting on runways designated instrument landing runways. The United States share of the project costs (other than costs of installation of high intensity lighting on runways designated instrument landing runways) of an approved project for the development of an airport, regardless of the size or location of the airport to be developed, shall be 50 percent of the allowable project costs of the project (other than costs of installation of high intensity lighting on runways designated instrument landing runways), except that this share, in the case of any State containing unappropriated and unreserved public lands and nontaxable Indian lands (individual and tribal) exceeding 5 percent of the total area of all lands therein shall be increased as provided in section 10 (b) of the act and except that the United States share shall be 75 percent in the case of the Territory of Alaska and the Virgin Islands, all as set forth in the following table:

UNITED STATES' PERCENTAGE SHARE OF ALLOWABLE PROJECT COSTS IN STATES CONTAINING UNAPPROPRIATED AND UNRESERVED PUBLIC LANDS AND NONTAXABLE INDIAN LANDS

Arizona	61.18	Oklahoma	51.36
California	54.14	Oregon	55.99
Colorado	53.29	South Dakota	53.06
Idaho	56.24	Utah	62.50
Montana	53.48	Washington	51.76
Nevada	62.50	Wyoming	57.25
New Mexico	56.70

NOTE: The percentages listed in this table will vary as changes occur with respect to the area of unappropriated and unreserved public lands and nontaxable Indian lands in the several States, in which event such changed percentages will be used by the Administrator in determining the United States share of allowable project costs other than costs of installing high intensity runway lighting on runways designated as instrument landing runways.

(Secs. 1–15, 60 Stat. 170–178, as amended; 49 U. S. C. and Sup. 1101–1114)

This amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] F. B. LEE,
Acting Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

TITLE 15—COMMERCE AND FOREIGN TRADE

Chapter III—Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce

Subchapter C—Office of International Trade

[6th Gen. Rev. of Export Regs., Amdt. 19 [1]]

PART 373—LICENSING POLICIES AND RELATED SPECIAL PROVISIONS

PART 382—DENIAL OR SUSPENSION OF EXPORT PRIVILEGES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 373.1 Export licensing general policy, paragraph (h) Commodities subject to this export licensing policy, is amended in the following particulars:

Subparagraph (1) is amended by deleting therefrom all RO commodities with processing code symbol FERT.

2. Section 373.24 Statement of past participation in exports for certain commodities, paragraph (b) Commodities requiring statement of past participation, is amended in the following particulars:

Subparagraph (2) DDT (dichlorodiphenyl trichloroethane), including preparations thereof containing 25 percent or more DDT (100 percent basis); Schedule B No. 820580, and subparagraph (5) Paper base stocks, Schedule B Nos. 460110, 460200, 460400, 460500, 461010, and 461900, are hereby deleted.

3. Section 373.37 Special provisions for cryolite is amended in the following particulars:

a. Paragraph (a) Requests for purchase authorization is amended to read as follows:

(a) Requests for purchase authorization. NPA Order M-99, as amended, provides that no person shall purchase cryolite (other than Raymond Mill Dust for which no NPA authorization is necessary) without special authorization from NPA and that the application for export license to the Office of International Trade shall constitute a request for such NPA authorization. The licensing action of the Office of International Trade will be coordinated with the granting of the purchase or other specific authorization by the National Production Authority so that at the time an export license is issued it will be accompanied by the necessary National Production Authority authorization.

b. Paragraph (b) Outstanding licenses is redesignated paragraph (c) Outstanding licenses, and a new paragraph (b) Grade of cryolite, is added to read as follows:

(b) Grade of cryolite. All applications for licenses to export cryolite, natural and artificial, Schedule B No. 596012, shall include, in the commodity description column of Form IT-419, the grade of cryolite covered by the application.

4. Section 382.51 Table of compliance orders currently in effect denying export privileges, paragraph (b), Table of compliance orders, is amended in the following particulars:

a. The following entries are added:

PART 399—POSITIVE LIST OF COMMODITIES AND RELATED MATTERS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Section 399.1 Appendix A—Positive List of Commodities is amended in the following particulars:

1. The following revisions are made in commodity descriptions. These revisions include changes in unit of quantity where indicated.

Dept. of Commerce Schedule B No.	Commodity	Unit	Processing code and related commodity group	GLV dollar value limits	Validated license required
105500	Paddy or rough rice, for seed [1]	Lb.	SEED	25	RO
105500	Paddy or rough rice, except for seed [1]	Lb.	CERL	25	RO
105710	Milled rice, containing more than 25 percent whole kernels (specify approximate percentage whole kernels).[1]	Lb.	CERL	25	RO
105750	Milled rice, containing not more than 25 percent whole kernels (specify approximate percentage whole kernels).[1]	Lb.	CERL	25	RO
618951	Pipe fittings not specially fabricated for particular machines or equipment (see § 399.2): Steel pipe fittings, stainless or alloy (specify by name and grade of steel).[2]	Lb.	STEE	100	RO
618951	Steel pipe fittings, carbon (specify by name and grade of steel).[2]	Lb.	STEE	100	RO

[1] The above four revised entries are substituted for the four entries presently on the Positive List under Schedule B Nos. 105500, 105710, and 105750. The effect of this revision is to delete the reference to unit of weight in the commodity description and to change the unit of quantity from "Bag" to "Lb." The commodities included in the above four entries are subject to the dollar-limit (DL) restrictions (see § 374.2 of this subchapter).

[2] The above two entries are substituted for the entry presently on the Positive List under Schedule B No. 618951. The effect of this revision is to remove carbon steel pipe fittings from the commodities subject to the IC/DV procedure (see § 373.34 of this subchapter). The commodities included in the above two entries are subject to the dollar-limit (DL) restrictions (see § 374.2 of this subchapter) and to the evidence of availability requirements (see § 373.16 of this subchapter).

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of November 6, 1952.

2. The following revisions are made in commodity descriptions. These revisions include changes in GLV dollar-value limits and validated license control where indicated.

Dept. of Commerce Schedule B No.	Commodity	Unit	Processing code and related commodity group	GLV dollar value limits	Validated license required
774450★	Pipe valves, except automatic control or regulating: Iron or steel: Valves and cocks (regardless of pressure) with pressure parts wholly fabricated of, or lined with, any corrosion-resistant material as defined in the "General Notes to Appendix A" (specify whether bellows seal, and indicate that pressure parts are corrosion-resistant).[3]	No.	GIEQ	25	RO
774450★	Valves designed for working pressures of 300 or more p. s. i. g.[3] (specify pressure, whether bellows seal, and indicate that pressure parts are not corrosion-resistant).[3]	No.	GIEQ	25	RO
774465★	Brass, bronze, or other nonferrous metals: Valves and cocks (regardless of pressure) with pressure parts wholly fabricated of, or lined with, any corrosion-resistant materials as defined in the "General Notes to Appendix A" (specify whether bellows seal, and indicate that pressure parts are corrosion-resistant).[3]	No.	GIEQ	25	RO
774465★	Valves designed for working pressures of 300 or more p. s. i. g.[3] (specify pressure, whether bellows seal, and indicate that pressure parts are not corrosion-resistant).[3]	No.	GIEQ	25	RO
774480★	Nonmetal valves: Nonmetal valves and cocks (specify material and whether bellows seal).[4]	No.	GIEQ	25	RO
839600	Other industrial chemicals: Selenium salts and compounds, including selenium dioxide.[5]	Lb.	SALT	1	RO

★The commodities described in this Positive List are excepted from the provisions of General In-Transit License GIT. (See § 371.9 (c) of this subchapter.)

[3] The above two entries are substituted for the two entries presently on the Positive List under Schedule B No. 774450. The effect of this revision is to increase the GLV dollar-value limits from none to $25 for the second proposed entry; and to require applicants to specify (a) whether the valves are bellows seal; (b) whether pressure parts are corrosion resistant; and (c) the working pressure of the valves included under the second proposed entry. The commodities included in both these Positive List entries are subject to the IC/DV procedure (see § 373.34 of this subchapter) and to the dollar-limit (DL) restrictions (see § 374.2 of this subchapter).

[4] All working pressures are based on tests with water at a temperature not exceeding 120° F.

[5] The above two entries are substituted for the two entries presently on the Positive List under Schedule B No. 774465. The effect of this revision is to increase the GLV dollar-value limits from none to $25 for the second proposed entry; and to require applicants to specify (a) whether the valves are bellows seal; (b) whether pressure parts are corrosion resistant; and (c) the working pressure of the valves included under the second proposed entry. The commodities included in both these Positive List entries are subject to the IC/DV procedure (see § 373.34 of this subchapter) and to the dollar-limit (DL) restrictions (see § 374.2 of this subchapter).

[4] The above entry is substituted for the two entries presently on the Positive List under Schedule B No. 774480. The effect of this revision is to require that applicants specify the material and whether bellows seal; and to increase the GLV dollar-value limits from none to $25 for valves designed for working pressures of 300 or more pounds per square inch. The commodities included in this Positive List entry are subject to the IC/DV procedure (see § 373.34 of this subchapter) and to the dollar-limit (DL) restrictions (see § 374.2 of this subchapter).

[5] The above revised entry is substituted for the thirty-second entry presently on the Positive List under Schedule B No. 839600, selenium dioxide. The effects of this amendment are (a) to change the GLV dollar-value limit from $10 to $1 for selenium dioxide; (b) to add the unit of quantity pound; and (c) to extend the Positive List coverage to include all selenium salts and compounds, subject to dollar-limit (DL) restrictions (see § 374.2 of this subchapter).

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of 12:01 a. m., November 13, 1952.

3. The letter "D" is inserted in the column headed "Commodity Lists" opposite the commodities listed below to indicate that they are subject to the evidence of availability requirements (see § 373.16 of this subchapter).

Dept. of Commerce Schedule B No.	Commodity
547300	Carbon or graphite products (natural and artificial); Electrodes for furnace or electrolytic work (specify size).

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 6, 1952.

Shipments of any commodities removed from general license to Country Group R or Country Group O destinations, or whose GLV dollar-value limits are reduced, as a result of changes set forth in Part 2 of this amendment, which were on dock, on lighter, laden aboard an exporting carrier, or in transit to a port of exit pursuant to actual orders for export prior to 12:01 a. m., November 13, 1952, may be exported under the previous general license provisions up to and including December 6, 1952. Any such shipment not laden aboard the exporting carrier on or before December 6, 1952, requires a validated license for export.

(Sec. 3, 63 Stat. 7; 65 Stat. 43; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2023. E. O. 9630, Sept. 27, 1945, 10 F. R. 12245; 3 CFR 1945 Supp.; E. O. 9919, Jan. 3, 1948, 13 F. R. 59; 3 CFR 1948 Supp.)

[1] This amendment was published in Current Export Bulletin No. 663, dated November 6, 1952.

[1] This amendment was published in Current Export Bulletin No. 663, dated November 6, 1952.

In the Matter of U. S. Printing & Novelty Co., Inc., a Corporation, and Benjamin Blush, and Hyman Abramowitz, Individuals, Officers, and Directors of U. S. Printing & Novelty Co., Inc.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Federal Trade Commission on April 1, 1949, issued and subsequently served its complaint in this proceeding upon the respondents U. S. Printing & Novelty Co., Inc., a corporation, and Benjamin Blush, Jack Blush, and Hyman Abramowitz, individuals, officers, and directors of said corporate respondent, charging them with the use of unfair acts and practices in commerce in violation of the provisions of said act. On April 27, 1949, respondents filed an answer to said complaint. Thereafter, on June 23, 1950, upon respondents' motion the hearing examiner of the Commission duly designated herein permitted respondents to withdraw the answer previously filed herein and to substitute therefor an answer admitting all the material allegations of fact and waiving the taking of testimony and other procedure, but reserving the right to appeal from any decision and order issued herein by the hearing examiner or the Commission. Said answer was filed upon the condition that no action would be taken in this proceeding until after the final determination by the Commission had been made in the matter of Superior Products, a corporation, et al., Docket No. 5561. Said matter having been terminated by the Commission's order to cease and desist issued January 29, 1952, the above-entitled proceeding regularly came on for final consideration by said hearing examiner upon the complaint and substitute answer; and the said hearing examiner, on February 15, 1952, filed his initial decision.

Within the time permitted by the Commission's rules of practice, counsel for respondents filed with the Commission an appeal from said initial decision and thereafter this proceeding regularly came on for final consideration by the Commission upon the record herein, including briefs in support of and in opposition to the appeal (respondents' application for oral argument of counsel before the Commission having been denied); and the Commission, having issued its order granting said appeal in part and denying it in part and being now fully advised in the premises, finds that this proceeding is in the interest of the public and makes this its findings as to the facts [1] and its conclusion drawn therefrom [1] and order, the same to be in lieu of the initial decision of the hearing examiner.

It is ordered, That respondent U. S. Printing & Novelty Co., Inc., a corporation, its officers, and respondents Benjamin Blush and Jack Blush, individually and as officers and directors of said corporate respondent, U. S. Printing & Novelty Co., Inc., and their respective representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, do forthwith cease and desist from: Selling or distributing in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, push cards, punchboards, or other lottery devices which are to be used, or which, due to their design, are suitable for use in the sale or distribution of merchandise to the public by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise or lottery scheme.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

It is further ordered, That the complaint herein be, and it hereby is, dismissed as to respondent Hyman Abramowitz.

Issued: September 4, 1952.

By the Commission.

TITLE 20—EMPLOYEES' BENEFITS

Chapter III—Bureau of Old Age and Survivors Insurance, Social Security Administration, Federal Security Agency

[Reg. 4]

PART 404—FEDERAL OLD-AGE AND SURVIVORS INSURANCE (1950——)

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Regulations No. 4 (20 CFR. Cum. Supp., 404.1 et seq.) are amended as follows:

1. Section 404.202 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.202 Method of determining primary insurance amount—(a) Individual attained age 22 after 1950 and has six quarters of coverage after 1950—(1) Prior to effective date of Social Security Act Amendments of 1952. The primary insurance amount of an individual who attained or would have attained age 22 after 1950 and who has six quarters of coverage (see § 404.104) after 1950 shall be 50 per centum of his average monthly wage if such average monthly wage exceeds $49 but does not exceed $100. If the average monthly wage exceeds $100, his primary insurance amount shall be 50 per centum of $100, plus 15 per centum of the amount by which the average monthly wage exceeds $100 but does not exceed $300. Any primary insurance amount which is not a multiple of 10 cents shall be raised to the next higher multiple of 10 cents. If the individual's average monthly wage is less than $50, the primary insurance amount is that amount in column II of the following table, which is on the line on which appears the individual's average monthly wage in column I of such table:

I Average monthly wage:	II Primary insurance amount
$30 or less	$20
$31	21
$32	22
$33	23
$34	24
$35 to $49	25

(2) Effect of Social Security Act Amendments of 1952. The Social Security Act Amendments of 1952 change the benefit formula which appears in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Under this new formula, the primary insurance amount is 55 per centum of the individual's average monthly wage if such average monthly wage exceeds $47, but does not exceed $100. If the average monthly wage exceeds $100, his primary insurance amount is 55 per centum of $100 plus 15 per centum of the amount by which the average monthly wage exceeds $100 but does not exceed $300. Any primary insurance amount which is not a multiple of 10 cents shall be raised to the next higher multiple of 10 cents. If the individual's average monthly wage is less than $48, his primary insurance amount is as follows: for an average monthly wage of $34 or less, a primary insurance amount of $25; for an average monthly wage of $35 through $47, a primary insurance amount of $26. This formula is effective with respect to monthly benefits payable under section 202 of the act for months after August 1952 and with respect to lump sums payable under section 202 (i) of the act on the basis of deaths occurring after such month.

2. Section 404.203 is amended by deleting the paragraph immediately preceding the table appearing in such section and substituting the following paragraph:

§ 404.203 Use of conversion table to determine primary insurance amount—(a) Prior to effective date of Social Security Act Amendments of 1952. For the purpose of paragraphs (b) (2) and (c) of § 404.202, the primary insurance amount of an individual is the amount appearing in column II of the following table on the line on which in column I appears his primary insurance benefit as determined by § 404.204. The average monthly wage of any individual shall, for purposes of section 203 (a) of the act (see § 404.402) be the amount appearing in column III of the following table on the line on which in column I appears his primary insurance benefit.

3. Section 404.203 is further amended by adding the following paragraph immediately after the table appearing in such section:

(b) Effect of Social Security Act Amendments of 1952. The Social Security Act Amendments of 1952 provide a new conversion table to determine the primary insurance amount of an individual. This new table, which appears as Appendix 1 to this subpart, is applied to monthly benefits payable under section 202 of the act for months after August 1952 and to lump sums payable under section 202 (i) of the act on the basis of deaths occurring after such month. Each primary insurance amount appearing in column II of this table is equal to the corresponding primary insurance amount under column Ia (both amounts being derived from the same range of primary insurance benefits appearing in column I) increased by 12½ per centum or $5, whichever is the larger, and further increased, if such amount is not then a multiple of $0.10, to the next higher multiple of $0.10. For purposes of computing the maximum amount of benefits payable under section 203 (a) of the act with respect to the wages and self-employment income of an individual whose primary insurance amount is determined from column II, the average monthly wage of such individual shall be the average monthly wage in column III on the same line as appears his primary insurance amount.

4. So much of § 404.204 as precedes paragraph (c) thereof is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.204 Determination of primary insurance benefit for conversion table. Except as provided in § 404.204a, for purposes of § 404.203 the primary insurance benefit of an individual shall be as follows:

(a) Individual entitled to primary insurance benefit on August 1950. If the individual was entitled to a primary insurance benefit (see § 403.301 of this chapter (Regulations 3)) for August 1950 his primary insurance benefit shall be the primary insurance benefit to which he was entitled for such month, except that if such individual is a World War II veteran (see § 404.1321) or he had rendered services for wages of $15 or more in August 1950, his primary insurance benefit shall be the larger of the following:

(1) The primary insurance benefit to which he was entitled for August 1950; or

(2) The primary insurance benefit to which he was entitled for August 1950 as recomputed under section 209 (q) of the act in effect prior to the Social Security Act Amendments of 1950 (§ 403.304 of this chapter (Regulations 3)), or in the case of a World War II veteran as recomputed to include wage credits allowable for World War II service under § 404.1305. Such recomputation is to be made as though application has been filed therefor on August 31, 1950.

The primary insurance benefit determined under the preceding provisions of this paragraph shall, for purposes of § 404.203 (b), be redetermined to include wages deemed paid to an individual by reason of his active military or naval service of the United States on or after July 25, 1947, provided such wages are otherwise creditable under the provisions of Subpart N of this part.

(b) Individual died prior to September 1950. The primary insurance benefit of an individual who died prior to September 1950 is his primary insurance benefit as computed under the act in effect prior to the Social Security Act Amendments of 1950 (see § 403.301 et seq. of this chapter (Regulations 3)), except that if the individual served in the active military or naval service of the United States after September 15, 1940, his primary insurance benefit shall be computed so as to include wage credits for such service, provided they are otherwise creditable under the provisions of Subpart N of this part, but only if it results in a primary insurance benefit higher than that obtained under section 210 of the act in effect prior to the Social Security Act Amendments of 1950.

5. Two new sections designated as §§ 404.204a and 404.204b are inserted immediately after § 404.204:

§ 404.204a Special cases not requiring use of conversion table appearing in § 404.203 (b). The provisions of §§ 404.203 (b) and 404.204 shall not apply where:

(a) A person was entitled (without the application of section 202 (j) (1) of the act) to a monthly benefit under section 202 for August 1952 (except under subsection (a) thereof); and

(b) Such person's entitlement to such benefit continued after August 1952; and

(c) The primary insurance amount of the individual on the basis of whose wages and self-employment income such benefit is payable was determined through the use of the conversion table appearing in § 404.203 (a). In such cases, the amount of such person's benefit for months after August 1952 shall be the amount for August 1952 (after applying the provisions of sections 203 (a) and 215 (g) of the act) increased by the larger of the following amounts: 12½ per centum of such amount, raised to the next higher multiple of $0.10 if it is not a multiple of $0.10, or an amount equal to the product of $5 and the fraction applied to the primary insurance amount in determining such benefit, raised to the next higher multiple of $0.10 if it is not a multiple of $0.10. The resulting amount shall be subject to the reductions required by § 404.402 and after application of the provisions of such section, it shall be raised to the next higher multiple of $0.10 if it is not a multiple of $0.10.

§ 404.204b When the provisions of § 404.204a become inoperative. The benefit amount of any person determined under § 404.204a will be redetermined in accordance with the provisions of § 404.203 (b) and § 404.204 where:

(a) Another person becomes entitled on the basis of the same wages and self-employment income to a benefit to which he was not entitled, on the basis of such wages and self-employment income for August 1952; or

(b) Another person, entitled for August 1952, to a benefit, on the basis of the same wages and self-employment income, is not entitled to such benefit on the basis of such wages and self-employment income; or

(c) The benefit amount payable to such person or another person entitled on the basis of the same wages and self-employment income is different from the benefit amount that would have been payable for August 1952 had the Social Security Act Amendments of 1952 been applicable in such month.

The redetermined benefit amount shall be payable for the first month after August 1952 in which the provisions of § 404.204a become inoperative.

6. Section 404.206 (d) is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.206 Wages and self-employment income used in determining average monthly wage. • • •

(d) All wages deemed paid to an individual by reason of his service in the active military or naval service of the United States after September 15, 1940, and prior to January 1, 1954, provided such wages are otherwise creditable under the provisions of Subpart N of this part.

7. Section 404.209 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.209 Closing date. • • •

(a) Wage closing date. An individual's "wage closing date" is the first day of the second quarter before the quarter in which such individual died or became entitled to old-age insurance benefits, whichever first occurred. In the case of an individual who, in 1952, became entitled (without the application of section 202 (j) (1) of the act) to old-age insurance benefits or died and whose primary insurance amount is computed under § 404.202 (a) or (b), his "wage closing date" shall, instead of the date specified in the preceding sentence, be the first day of the quarter of death or entitlement, whichever first occurred, but only if it yields a higher primary insurance amount.

8. So much of § 404.212 as precedes paragraph (a) thereof is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.212 Recomputation of benefits of individual entitled to old-age insurance benefits. An individual entitled to old-age insurance benefits may secure a recomputation of his primary insurance amount under either paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section.

9. The headnote of § 404.212 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Where requested after deductions from benefits or attainment of age 75. • • •

10. Section 404.212 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.212 Recomputation of benefits for individual entitled to old-age insurance benefits. • • •

(b) Where requested after deductions from benefits or attainment of age 75. • • •

(2) His benefits were subject to a deduction under section 203 (b) (1) and (2) of the act for at least 12 months (in a 36-month period) after his last computation of his primary insurance amount, except that this subparagraph shall not apply if the individual was 75 years of age or over in the month in which he filed the application required by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and his old-age insurance benefit was, prior to the filing of such application, based upon a primary insurance amount computed under § 404.202 (c); and

11. Section 404.212 is amended by inserting the following paragraph, designated as (c), immediately after the example appearing in paragraph (b) thereof:

§ 404.212 Recomputation of benefits for individual entitled to old-age insurance benefits. • • •

(c) Where requested to include self-employment income. An individual who becomes entitled to an old-age insurance benefit in 1952, or in 1953 in a taxable year which began in 1952 (and without the application of section 202 (j) (1)) and who had self-employment income for a taxable year which ended within or with 1952 or which began in 1952 may have his old-age insurance benefit recomputed if he files an application therefor after the close of such taxable year. Such recomputation shall be made in the manner as is provided in §§ 404.202 to 404.210 (but without regard to section 215 (b) (4) (A) of the act; see § 404.206 (a)) for the computation of the primary insurance amount, except that, for purposes of § 404.209, such individual's self-employment income closing date shall be the day following the quarter with or within which such taxable year ended, and for purposes of § 404.206, the self-employment income for any subsequent taxable year shall not be taken into account. Such recomputation shall be effective for and after the first month in which such individual became entitled to old-age insurance benefits.

12. The headnote of § 404.213 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Recomputation to include railroad compensation or earnings after individual's entitlement.

13. The headnote of § 404.213 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) How recomputed, if recomputation based on earnings after individual's entitlement. • • •

14. Section 404.213 is amended by inserting the following new paragraphs, designated as (f), (g), and (h), immediately after paragraph (e) thereof:

(f) Recomputations to include self-employment income of individual who died in 1952 or in a taxable year beginning in 1952. In the case of an individual who died in 1952 or died in 1953 in a taxable year which began in 1952 (but did not become entitled to old-age insurance benefits prior to 1952) and who had self-employment income for the taxable year which ended with his death, such individual's primary insurance amount may be recomputed if the person entitled to monthly benefits on the basis of his wages and self-employment income files application after the close of such taxable year. Such recomputation shall be made in the manner as provided in §§ 404.202 to 404.210 (but without regard to section 215 (b) (4) (A) of the act; see § 404.206 (a)) for the computation of the primary insurance amount except that, for purposes of § 404.209, such individual's self-employment income closing date shall be the day following the quarter with or within which such taxable year ended.

(g) Recomputation to include self-employment income of individual entitled at death. A survivor entitled to monthly benefits on the basis of the wages and self-employment income of an individual who, at the time of death, could have become entitled to a recomputation under § 404.212 (c) had he filed application therefor at such time may secure such recomputation upon the filing of an application. Such recomputation shall be made in the same manner as though such individual had filed the application at the time of death.

(h) Payments under recomputation permitted by paragraphs (f) and (g). A recomputation permitted by paragraphs (f) and (g) of this section shall be effective for and after the month in which the survivor became entitled to monthly benefits. No recomputation under such paragraphs will affect the amount of a lump-sum death payment (§ 404.343); nor shall it render erroneous any lump-sum death payment certified prior to the effective date of such recomputation.

16. Section 404.402 is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.402 When reductions are required. A reduction in the amount of benefits is required when there are two or more benefits for a month based upon the wages and self-employment income of an insured individual, and when the total amount of such benefits for such month, calculated under section 202 (a) through (h) of the act, is more than $40, or $45 for months after August 1952, and exceeds one of the following amounts:

(a) $150, or $168.75 for months after August 1952; or

(b) 80 per centum of such individual's average monthly wage; or

(c) If any of such benefits are payable to a child who would, but for the provision in section 202 (k) (2) (A) of the act (see § 404.334), be entitled to benefits payable on the basis of the wages and self-employment income of one or more other insured individuals, 80 per centum of the sum of the average monthly wages of all such insured individuals.

17. Section 404.403 is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.403 How reductions are made—(a) Applicability of provisions of § 404.402. If, by reason of § 404.402, a reduction in the amount of benefits is required, each of such benefits (except an old-age insurance benefit) must be proportionately reduced so that the total of the benefits will be the amount stated in paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of such § 404.402, whichever is the least, except that if the conditions of paragraph (c) exist, the limitation specified in paragraph (b) shall not apply. In no case will the total amount of benefits for any month be reduced to an amount less than $40, or $45 for months after August 1952.

Example. E, mother of X, Y, Z, died a fully and currently insured individual with an average monthly wage of $80 and a primary insurance amount of $40. Each child's benefit, after adjustment for the maximum, is $21.40. Later A, father of X, Y, Z, died with an average monthly wage of $100 and a primary insurance amount of $50. X filed an application for child's benefits on A's account. Y and Z thereby became automatically entitled on that account. On A's account, each child is entitled to $29.20, or a total of $87.60. The maximum payable is $150 or 80 percent of the sum of E's average monthly wage and A's average monthly wage, whichever is the lesser. 80 percent of the combined average monthly wage is $144. Since the total benefits payable to the children are less than $144, their individual benefits need not be reduced.

(b) Circumstances under which provisions of § 404.402 are inapplicable. The provisions of § 404.402 will not apply where:

(1) An individual was entitled (without the application of section 202 (j) (1) of the act) to an old-age insurance benefit under section 202 (a) of the act for August 1952; and

(2) Two or more other persons were entitled (without the application of section 202 (j) (1) of the act) to monthly benefits under section 202 on the basis of the wages and self-employment income of the individual referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, and

(3) The total of the benfits to which all persons are entitled on the wages and self-employment income of the individual referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for any month subsequent to August 1952 for which such individual is entitled to such old-age insurance benefit would, because of the increase in benefits resulting from the Social Security Act Amendments of 1952 and the application of the maximum provisions appearing in § 404.402, be reduced to an amount lower than the total of such benefits to which such persons were entitled for August 1952. In such a case, the total benefits payable for such subsequent month will not be reduced below the total benefits payable for August 1952 after application of the provisions of § 404.402 plus the amount by which the old-age insurance benefit was increased in such subsequent month by the operation of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1952.

18. Section 404.408 is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.408 Deductions imposed because individual works. If an individual under the age of 75 renders services for wages of more than $50 in any month prior to September 1952, or $75 in any month after August 1952 for which he is entitled to a benefit or if such individual is charged, in accordance with the provisions of § 404.414, with net earnings from self-employment of more than $50 for any month or $75 for any month, as the case may be, deductions are made:

(a) From any benefit or benefits which are payable to him. The amount to be deducted is equal to the benefit or total of benefits payable to him for the month in which he rendered the services for wages of more than $50 or $75, whichever is applicable, or for which he was charged with net earnings from self-employment of more than $50 or $75, whichever is applicable.

(b) From any wife's, child's, or husband's insurance benefits which are payable to his wife, child, or husband with respect to such individual's wages and self-employment income. The amount to be deducted is equal to such wife's, child's, or husband's insurance benefit for the month in which such individual rendered services for wages of more than $50 or $75, whichever is applicable, or for which he was charged with net earnings from self-employment of more than $50 or $75, whichever is applicable.

For the purposes of determining whether an individual has rendered services for "wages" or more than $50 or $75, whichever is applicable, the provisions of section 209 of the act which for other purposes limits the meaning of wages in a calendar year prior to 1951 to $3,000 or in a calendar year after 1950 to $3,600, do not apply.

19. Section 404.414 is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.414 Charging net earnings from self-employment—(a) For taxable years ending prior to September 1952. The following rules will apply in determining the amount of an individual's net earnings from self-employment that are to be charged to a particular month for purposes of deductions (§ 404.408) with respect to taxable years ending prior to September 1952:

(1) If the individual's net earnings from self-employment for his taxable year are not more than $50 times the number of months in such taxable year, each month in such year shall be charged with $50 or less; or

(2) If such net earnings exceed that amount, each month of such year is first charged with $50. The first $50 of the excess (or the whole of the excess if it is less than $50) is charged to the latest month of the taxable year. The next $50 of the excess, if any (or the whole of the excess if it be less than $50) is charged to the next preceding month and so on until all of the excess is charged or every month to which a portion of the excess is chargeable has been charged with a part of such excess.

(b) For taxable years ending after August 1952. The rules for charging net earnings from self-employment appearing in paragraph (a) of this section shall apply with respect to taxable years ending after August 1952, except that such charging shall be on the basis of $75 per month rather than $50 per month.

20. Section 404.415 is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.415 Months to which net earnings from self-employment cannot be charged. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 404.414, net earnings from self-employment in excess of $50 times the number of months of the taxable year, if such taxable year ended prior to September 1952, or $75 times the number of months of the taxable year if such taxable year ended after August 1952, shall not be charged to any month:

(a) In which such individual was not entitled to a benefit;

(b) In which the individual performed services for "wages" for which he suffered a deduction under § 404.408;

(c) In which the individual is a wife, widow, or a former wife divorced who suffers a deduction because of the occurrence of an event specified in § 404.409;

(d) In which the individual was 75 years of age or over; or

(e) In which the individual did not engage in self-employment.

A person shall be deemed to have engaged in self-employment in any month if in such month he renders substantial services in operating a trade or business as owner or partner even though there may be no net earnings attributable to his services for such month.

21. Section 404.423 is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.423 Reports to the Administration of net earnings from self-employment. Section 203 (g) of the act imposes upon an individual entitled to any monthly benefit under section 202 of the act during a taxable year (or the individual in receipt of such benefits on his behalf) the obligation to report to the Administration the amount of his net earnings from self-employment for any such taxable year when such net earnings exceed the product of $50 or $75, whichever is applicable (see § 404.414), times the number of months in such year provided that the individual so entitled had not attained age 75 in or prior to the first month of such year. The report for such taxable year must be filed with the Social Security Administration on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of such year. The filing of an income tax return with respect to such individual's self-employment income is not such a report. The report to the Administration shall be made on such forms and in accordance with such instructions (printed thereon or attached thereto) as are prescribed by the Administration. The prescribed form may be obtained from any office of the Bureau.

22. Section 404.1001 is amended by adding after paragraph (u) thereof the following new paragraph, designated as (v):

§ 404.1001 General definitions and use of terms. • • •

(v) "Social Security Act Amendments of 1952" means the act approved July 18, 1952 (66 Stat. 767).

23. The title to Subpart N is deleted and the following title and centerhead are substituted therefor: "Subpart N—Benefits in Case of Veterans; World War II Veterans".

24. Section 404.1306 (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.1306 Limitations on creditability of war-service wages. • • •

(b) If any part of the World War II active service of such veteran has been credited toward another "Federal benefit" (see § 404.1307); except that, in cases in which applications for benefits under section 202 of the act are filed after August 1952, the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply if it would reduce by $0.50 or less the primary insurance amount of the World War II veteran on whose wages and self-employment income the monthly benefit or lump-sum death payment is based.

25. The following material is added to Subpart N immediately after § 404.1324:

VETERANS OF SERVICE AFTER WORLD WAR II

NOTE: §§ 404.1350 to 404.1361 interpret or apply sec. 217 (e), 66 Stat. 773; 42 U. S. C. 417 (e).

§ 404.1350 General effect of section 217 (e). Section 217 (e), added to the act by the Social Security Act Amendments of 1952, gives wage credits to certain individuals who served in the armed forces after World War II.

§ 404.1351 Effect of section 217 (e) of the act. Any veteran who served in the active military or naval service of the United States on or after July 25, 1947, and prior to January 1, 1954, will be deemed to have been paid wages (in addition to the wages, if any, actually paid to him) of $160 for each month during any part of which he rendered such service. Such wages will be credited to the account of such veteran for the purposes of determining entitlement to and the amount of any monthly benefit or lump-sum death payment payable under section 202 of the act on the basis of the wages and self-employment income of such veteran. Such crediting is subject to the limitations of the succeeding sections of this part.

§ 404.1352 Limitation on creditability of wages granted by § 404.1351. Wages granted by § 404.1351 shall not be credited to the account of a veteran:

(a) If a larger monthly benefit or lump-sum death payment would be payable without the crediting of such wages; or

(b) If any part of the active service during the period referred to in § 404.1351 has been credited toward another "Federal benefit" (see § 404.1353) except that the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply if its application would reduce by $0.50 or less the primary insurance amount of the veteran on whose wages and self-employment income the monthly benefit or lump-sum death payment is based; or

(c) For the month of July 1947, if such veteran's account is credited with war-service wages under § 404.1305 for that month.

§ 404.1353 Meaning of "Federal benefit." For the purposes of § 404.1352 and §§ 404.1354 to 404.1356, inclusive, a "Federal benefit" means any benefit (other than a lump-sum payment which is not a commutation of or substitute for periodic payments) under the civil service, railroad retirement, military or other Federal program which provides for retirement on account of age, length of service, or disability, or for survivors insurance, where the amount of such benefit is based, in whole or in part, upon active military or naval service during the period beginning with July 25, 1947, and ending prior to January 1, 1954, and such benefit is determined by any agency or wholly owned instrumentality of the United States (other than the Veterans Administration) to be payable by it under any other law of the United States or under a system established by such agency or instrumentality.

§ 404.1354 Determination and certification of payments based on wages granted under § 404.1351. Where the limitation on creditability of wages granted under § 404.1351 (see § 404.1352 (b)) is not applicable, the rights of an individual applying for payment of benefits or a lump sum on the basis of the wages and self-employment income of a veteran shall be determined on the basis of the provisions of § 404.1351, and certification of payment may be made pursuant to such determination, subject, however, to the effect of the receipt of notice by the Administrator from another department, agency or wholly owned instrumentality of the United States that a "Federal benefit" (see § 404.1353) has been determined by it to be payable (§ 404.1355).

§ 404.1355 Effect of notice of determination that a "Federal benefit" is payable. If the Administrator has been notified by a department, agency, or wholly owned instrumentality of the United States that a "Federal benefit" (see § 404.1353) has been determined by it to be payable (even though later terminated) to anyone (including dependents or survivors) on the basis of the active service during the period beginning with July 25, 1947, and ending prior to January 1, 1954, of a veteran, any benefits or a lump sum payable under title II with respect to the wages and self-employment income of such veteran shall be determined without regard to the provisions in § 404.1351 for the crediting of wages granted under such section. If, prior to the receipt of such notification, the Administrator has made a determination and pursuant to such determination has certified a benefit for payment to the veteran, his dependents or survivors, or has certified for payment a lump-sum death payment, as provided by § 404.1354, the Administrator, upon the receipt of such notification, shall certify no further benefits for payment or shall recompute the amount of any further benefits as may otherwise be payable under title II, and shall also determine the existence and amount of any erroneous payment (see § 404.1356).

§ 404.1356 Overpayment in connection with existence of "Federal benefit." Any payment certified to an individual in accordance with § 404.1354 shall, upon receipt of notification by the Administrator that a "Federal benefit" is determined to be payable, constitute an overpayment (see Subpart F of this part) to the extent that such payment was based upon the inclusion of wages deemed paid pursuant to the provisions of § 404.1351. Thereupon, such overpayment shall be subject to the provisions of Subpart F of this part.

§ 404.1357 Filing proof of support. In the case of a veteran who died prior to September 1952, the 2-year period for filing proof of support as required of a parent or a widower under Subpart D of the regulations in this part shall be deemed to have been met if such proof is filed prior to September 1954.

§ 404.1358 Supporting evidence as to right to receive benefits and lump sums. The requirements for supporting evidence as applied to cases involving World War II veterans (see § 404.1320) shall be applicable to veterans specified in § 404.1351.

§ 404.1359 Definition of the term "veteran"—(a) Included individuals. The term "veteran," as used in §§ 404.1351 to 404.1358, inclusive, and §§ 404.1360 to 404.1362, inclusive, includes any individual who was in the active service of any of the armed forces of the United States, including the Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, and the Coast Guard or any of the components thereof on or after July 25, 1947, and prior to January 1, 1954, and including also any member of the commissioned corps of the United States Public Health Service in the active service of the Public Health Service on or after July 25, 1947, and prior to July 4, 1952, and who, if discharged or released from such active service, was so separated under conditions other than dishonorable (see § 404.1361) after service of at least 90 days or by reason of a disability or injury incurred or aggravated in service in line of duty.

(b) Excluded individuals. The term "veteran," as used in §§ 404.1351 to 404.1358, inclusive, and §§ 404.1360 to 404.1362, inclusive, does not include, among others, any individual who died in the active service if his death was inflicted as a punishment for a military or naval offense, other than by an enemy of the United States. Neither does it include a member of any of the units designated in the second sentence of § 404.1321 (b) insofar as such units were in existence during the period beginning with July 25, 1947, and ending prior to January 1, 1954.

§ 404.1360 Active service of 90 days; defined. Active service of 90 days means one or more periods totalling at least 90 days (whether or not consecutive) which are served in the period beginning with July 25, 1947, and ending prior to January 1, 1954. Where 90 days were not served wholly within such period, but such service began prior to July 25, 1947, and concluded on or after that date or began prior to January 1, 1954, and concluded on or after that date, the requirement of active service of 90 days is met only if such service of 90 days was continuous. Active service of 90 days is not necessary in the case of a veteran who was in the active service during the period referred to in the preceding sentence and who was separated therefrom by reason of a disability or injury incurred or aggravated in service in line of duty.

§ 404.1361 Conditions other than dishonorable; defined. This term shall have the same meaning as given to it by the provisions of § 404.1323.

§ 404.1362 Effective date of preceding provisions. The provisions in §§ 404.1350 to 404.1361, inclusive (except § 404.1357) shall be effective only with respect to monthly benefits under section 202 of the act for months after August 1952 and lump-sum death payments in cases of deaths occurring after August 1952. In cases where entitlement to monthly benefits under section 202 of the act on the basis of the wages and self-employment income of a veteran, as defined in § 404.1359, existed for August 1952, then the provisions of §§ 404.1350 to 404.1361, inclusive (except § 404.1357) apply only if such veteran or any other individual entitled to benefits on the basis of such veteran's wages and self-employment income files an application to include in the wage record of the veteran the wages granted by § 404.1351. Where such an application is filed, the provisions of such preceding sections shall apply to such benefits for the months after whichever of the following is the later: August 1952 or the seventh month before the month in which such application was filed. With respect to § 404.1357, such section is effective as of the date the Social Security Act Amendments of 1952 were enacted (July 18, 1952).

26. Section 404.1404 is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.1404 Compensation to be treated as wages. Where eligibility does not exist to an annuity under section 5 of the Railroad Retirement Act or a lump sum under section 5 (f) (1) of that act, section 205 (o) of the act requires that compensation (as defined in the Railroad Retirement Act) shall be treated as wages (see § 404.1017), except that where war-service wages for any month are credited to the wage record of a World War II veteran (see § 404.1321 (a)) under § 404.1305 or where wages are credited to a veteran, as defined in § 404.1359, under § 404.1351, compensation shall not be treated as wages to the extent that compensation is attributable as having been paid during such month on account of military service creditable under section 4 of the Railroad Retirement Act.

27. Section 404.322 (g) is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.322 Widower's insurance benefits: conditions of entitlement. • • •

(g) (Except as provided in § 404.1357), filed proof of such support within two years after the date of her death or the month in which she became entitled to old-age insurance benefits (whichever is appropriate); and

28. Section 404.328 (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.328 Parent's insurance benefits: conditions of entitlement. • • •

(c) Was receiving at least one-half of his support (see § 404.312) from such individual at the time of such individual's death and (except as provided in §§ 404.1319 and 404.1357) has filed proof of such support within two years after the date of such death; and

PART 561—OFFICERS' RESERVE CORPS

APPOINTMENT IN ARMY MEDICAL SERVICE SECTIONS

In § 561.18, paragraphs (b) (1) and (2), (c) (1) and (2), and (d) (1) and (2) are amended as follows:

§ 561.18 Appointment in Army Medical Service sections. • • •

(b) Medical Corps. (1) For appointment in the Medical Corps section, applicants must meet the following requirements:

• • • • •

(2) In addition to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, applicants must meet the following medical professional experience requirement:

(i) Appointment of qualified applicants below the grade of colonel will be in grades determined solely by the number of years of medical professional experience acquired subsequent to applicant's graduation from medical school as follows:

Grade	Professional experience (years)
First lieutenant	Less than 4 years.
Captain	4 years or more but less than 11 years.
Major	11 years or more but less than 18 years.
Lieutenant colonel	18 years or more.

(ii) Applicants for the grade of colonel will be required to have a minimum of 25 years' medical professional experience following graduation from medical school, in addition to which applicants must show indication of having achieved such unequivocal prominence as to make them authorities in their particular field. Examples are outstanding contributors to scientific research and to the development of the specialty under consideration. Also applicants ordinarily must have been certified by one of the American specialty boards in specialties for which such boards are constituted.

• • • • •

(c) Dental Corps. (1) For appointment in the Dental Corps section, applicants must meet the following requirements:

• • • • •

(2) In addition to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, applicants must meet the following dental professional experience requirement:

(i) Appointment of qualified applicants below the grade of colonel will be in grades determined solely by the number of years of dental professional experience acquired subsequent to applicant's graduation from an approved dental school as follows:

Grade	Professional experience (years)
First lieutenant	Less than 4 years.
Captain	4 years or more but less than 11 years.
Major	11 years or more but less than 18 years.
Lieutenant colonel	18 years or more.

(ii) Applicants for the grade of colonel will be required to have a minimum of 25 years' dental professional experience following graduation from an approved dental school, in addition to which applicants must show indication of having achieved such unequivocal prominence as to make them authorities in their particular field. Examples are outstanding contributors to scientific research and to development of the dental specialty under consideration. Applicants for direct appointment in the grade of colonel ordinarily must have been certified by a dental specialty board in the specialty for which such a board is constituted.

• • • • •

(d) Veterinary Corps. (1) For appointment in the Veterinary Corps section, applicant must be a graduate of a veterinary college acceptable to the Department of the Army and legally authorized to confer the degree of doctor of veterinary medicine or its equivalent and meet the following requirements:

• • • • •

(2) In addition to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, applicants must meet the following veterinary professional experience requirement:

(i) Appointment of qualified applicants below the grade of colonel will be in grades determined solely by the number of years of veterinary professional experience acquired subsequent to applicant's graduation from an approved veterinary school as follows:

Grade	Professional experience (years)
Second lieutenant	Less than 1 year.
First lieutenant	1 year or more but less than 5 years.
Captain	5 years or more but less than 12 years.
Major	12 years or more but less than 19 years.
Lieutenant colonel	19 years or more.

(ii) Applicants for the grade of colonel will be required to have a minimum of 26 years' veterinary professional experience following graduation from an approved veterinary school, in addition to which applicants must show indication of having achieved such equivocal prominence as to make them authorities in their particular field. Examples are outstanding contributors of scientific research, outstanding administrators, and outstanding contributors to the development of the specialty under consideration.

Chapter XIV—The Renegotiation Board

Subchapter B—Renegotiation Board Regulations Under the 1951 Act

PART 1453—MANDATORY EXEMPTIONS FROM RENEGOTIATION

CONTRACTS AND SUBCONTRACTS FOR CERTAIN AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES AND RAW MATERIALS

Section 1453.2 (d) is amended by deleting subparagraphs (6), (7) and (8) and adding new subparagraphs (6), (7) and (8) to read as follows:

(6) Exclusion of profits attributable to increment in value of excess inventory. For the purpose of determining the profits derived from contracts with Departments and subcontracts the aggregate renegotiable receipts or accruals for the fiscal year under review shall be reduced by an amount equal to the portion of the profits attributable to the increment in value of excess inventory. The portion of the profits attributable to the increment in value of excess inventory is an amount equal to the excess of the increment in value for the fiscal year over the loss in value for the fiscal year. The result of making such reduction will be to exclude from consideration thereafter in determining excessive profits any amount of profit attributable to the increment in value of excess inventory.

(7) Example of computation of exclusion.

A, whose fiscal year ended June 30, 1951, contracted on January 1, 1950, to sell 1,000,000 units of item X to the Army for $1,000,000. Performance of the contract was as follows:

Units	Manufactured	Invoiced
500,000	Jan. 1, 1950–Oct. 31, 1950	Before Dec. 31, 1950.
300,000	Nov. 1, 1950–Dec. 31, 1950	Jan. 1, 1951–Apr. 1, 1951.
100,000	Jan. 1, 1951–May 31, 1951	Before June 30, 1951.
100,000	June 1, 1951–June 30, 1951	July 1, 1951–Aug. 1, 1951.

In producing one unit of item X, 4 pounds of grade Z raw products are required.

At the beginning of the inventory period during which January 1, 1950, fell, A had in inventory 5,000,000 pounds of grade Z raw products. Under his accounting methods this was valued at the lower cost or market and allocated to production on the first in, first out basis. This inventory was acquired as follows:

April 1, 1949, 2,000,000 pounds at $0.24 per pound.

June 1, 1949, 2,000,000 pounds at $0.25 per pound.

October 1, 1949, 1,000,000 pounds at $0.255 per pound.

On January 1, 1950, A had unfilled contracts or commitments requiring the use of 500,000 pounds of grade Z raw products. The quantity of his excess inventory is computed as follows:

	Pounds
Inventory (at beginning of inventory period)	5,000,000
Less raw products required for unfilled contracts	500,000
Excess inventory (long position)	4,500,000

The market price of grade Z raw products on January 1, 1950, was $0.26 per pound. This is the replacement value of the excess inventory.

The 1,000,000 units of item X require 4,000,000 pounds of grade Z raw products. Therefore, of the 4,500,000 pounds of excess inventory, 4,000,000 pounds are allocable to the contract in question. It is now necessary to consider the invoice dates set forth at the beginning of the example. Of the 4,000,000 pounds, 2,000,000 pounds are allocable to performance resulting in receipts or accruals before the effective date of the act and 400,000 pounds to performance resulting in receipts or accruals after the end of the fiscal year. The remaining 1,600,000 pounds are allocable to renegotiable performance resulting in receipts or accruals during the fiscal year. It is the excess of the replacement value over the cost of such 1,600,000 pounds of excess inventory which constitutes the increment in value for the fiscal year. This is computed as follows:

Replacement value:
1,6000,000 pounds at $0.26		$416,000
Less cost:
1,500,000 pounds at $0.25	$375,000
100,000 pounds at $0.255	25,500
		400,500
Increment in value for the fiscal year		15,500

Assuming that there was no loss in value for the fiscal year, the portion of profits attributable to increment in value of excess inventory is equal to $15,500. Assuming also that A had no other receipts or accruals subject to the act during the fiscal year, his aggregate renegotiable receipts or accruals for that period, $400,000 is reduced by $15,500 to $384,500 for the purpose of computing profits derived from contracts with Departments and subcontracts under the 1951 act for his fiscal year ended June 30, 1951.

(8) Procedure. A contractor who claims that a portion of its profits attributable to the increment in value of excess inventory should be excluded from consideration in determining whether or not it has received excessive profits shall give notice to the Board of such claim at the time of or before such contractor completes the filing of the Standard Form of Contractor's Report (RB Form 1B). The Regional Board to which the contractor is assigned for renegotiation will request the contractor to substantiate its claim before conclusion of the renegotiation if it is of the opinion that, without regard to the provisions of this paragraph, excessive profits may exist.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Ceiling Price Regulation 12, Amdt. 4]

CPR 12—MILLED RICE

RESCISSION OF ROLLBACK; CALROSE AND REX NIRA

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 12 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Amendment 3 to Ceiling Price Regulation (CPR) 12, revised the ceiling prices for the various varieties of milled rice to reflect changes in the legal minimum price for rough rice, as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, since the issuance of CPR 12 in March of 1951, Amendment 3 increased the ceiling prices of most short grain varieties and made no change in the ceiling prices of most long grain varieties. However, the ceiling prices of two of the minor varieties, Rex Nira and Calrose, which account for less than 1 percent of the annual volume, were reduced. While the new ceiling prices were issued on an interim basis pending an industry-wide survey of milling costs and margins, it now appears that the data available for these minor varieties of rice were inadequate. In view of the interim nature of the action, the Director has therefore decided not to reduce the ceiling prices of these varieties at this time. Such action as the completed survey indicates is appropriate will be taken with respect to these two varieties at the same time as other revisions are made in accordance with the survey results.

In the formulation of this amendment there has been consultation with industry representatives to the extent practicable. In view of the need for prompt action on this amendment it was not practicable to consult with trade association representatives.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable, are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and comply with all applicable standards of that act.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Section 4 (a) (1) of Ceiling Price Regulation 12 is amended to read as follows:

(1) For varieties of milled rice containing not less than 93 percent of whole kernels and grading U. S. No. 2, your ceiling prices are as follows:

Varieties	Price per 100 pounds
Group 1: Rexora, Rexark, Patna, Blue Bonnet, and Nira	$12.00
Group 2: Fortuna and Edith	11.25
Group 3: Blue Rose, Arkrose, Kamrose and Magnolia	11.00
Group 4: Prelude, Zenith, Calady and Lady Wright	10.75
Group 5: Pearl, Early Prolific, and all other varieties not specifically named	9.75
Rex Nira, sometimes known as R N	11.50
Calrose	10.75

Effective date. This amendment is effective November 12, 1952.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 17, Amdt. 8]

CPR 17—GASOLINES, NAPHTHAS, FUEL OILS AND LIQUEFIED PETROLEUM PRODUCTS, NATURAL GAS, PETROLEUM GAS, CASINGHEAD GAS, AND REFINERY GAS

AMENDING PROVISIONS OF SECTION 23A TO PREVENT INCREASES IN GENERAL LEVELS OF AREA CEILING PRICES

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), as amended, Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 17 (16 F. R. 3033) is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Price provisions in many contracts for the purchase of natural gas from producers and gatherers contain escalator clauses calling for increases in prices at stated intervals or under stated conditions. For reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations accompanying Amendment 1 to CPR 17 (effective April 16, 1951), the regulation permitted the operation of such escalator clauses in contracts in existence prior to January 25, 1951, the date of price control, and permitted the escalated prices to be used by other sellers in establishing competitive and in-line ceiling prices. It also permitted the operation of so-called "favored nation" clauses, which bind buyers who pay an increased price to one of their sellers to pay an increased price to some or all of their other sellers.

The large scale financing of gas production and interstate pipe lines was based in some measure on contracts calling for initially low prices subject to escalation. For that reason the Director has concluded that fairness to both buyers and sellers and stability in the industry make it desirable to continue to permit the unfettered operation of such of those contracts as were executed prior to the imposition of price control. However, to permit sellers who did not base their planning and operations on such contracts to use them by reference to secure prices higher than the general levels of ceiling prices, which levels are generally fair and equitable, would be incompatible with the stabilization program. Therefore, since it now appears that escalator clauses calling for prices higher than the current general level of ceiling prices will shortly take effect, this amendment to CPR 17 is issued.

The amendment permits the escalator clauses in contracts entered into prior to or during the base period to operate. At the same time it prevents escalator clauses from establishing ceiling prices higher than base period ceilings for any sales other than those made under the particular contracts containing such clauses. It does this by limiting the use of "most favored nation" clauses in contracts and the use of the in-lining provisions of section 23a (c) of CPR 17 to those instances where their use will not result in piercing the general area ceiling, which is the highest price for comparable sales of gas during the base period.

This amendment has the further effect of preventing sellers from in-lining their prices with sellers whose prices may be increased pursuant to state minimum price regulations. While OPS is required to recognize such minimum prices as ceilings under section 402 (1) of the Defense Production Act, it need not and should not give the regulations or orders establishing minimum prices greater scope than the state itself does. This is especially true since those regulations and orders are based on state purposes and policies not necessarily consonant with those of the Defense Production Act.

In the formulation of this amendment there has been consultation with industry representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization ceiling prices established by this amendment will be generally fair and equitable and consistent with the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 17 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 23a (c) (2) (i) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Existing contracts. (i) Where a buyer and seller have entered into a contract prior to January 25, 1951 such contract may be carried out in accordance with its terms, except that no term of any such contract providing for an increase in price based on an increase in price under any other contract, may be carried out if to carry it out will result in a price above the highest price paid during the base period for gas of the same particular type by a purchaser of the same class in the same market or producing area.

2. Section 23a (c) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) Limitation on in-line pricing. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, no ceiling prices shall be established under sections 23a (c) (2) (ii), or 23a (c) (3) (i), or 23a (c) (3) (ii), above the highest price paid during the base period for gas of the same particular type by a purchaser of the same class in the same market or producing area.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended, 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective November 17, 1952.

TIGHE E. WOODS,
Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 24, Amdt. 21]

CPR 24—CEILING PRICES OF BEEF SOLD AT WHOLESALE

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, Delegation of Authority by the Secretary of Agriculture with respect to meat, as amended, Economic Stabilization Agency General Order 2, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order 5, Revision, this Amendment 21 to Ceiling Price Regulation 24 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment makes the following changes in Ceiling Price Regulation (CPR) 24:

1. This amendment redefines prefabricated quick frozen and packaged retail beef cuts and prefabricated packaged retail beef cuts. In certain instances, processors have preferred to designate the grades of these items by the use of numerical symbols rather than by the use of grade names and have asked OPS to permit them to do so. So long as consumers are informed of the actual grade names, there is no harm in permitting the use of symbols. Therefore, this amendment gives sellers at wholesale of these items the alternative of using either the verbal grade designation or an equivalent numerical symbol.

2. This amendment adds a new item "trimmed short loin" to Schedule 1, section 20. Heretofore there has been a price in the regulation for trimmed full loins and untrimmed short loins. However, there have been requests from a number of specialty stores that historically purchased a considerable number of extra short loins to add this item to the list of wholesale cuts in section 20. They have been unable under the regulation prior to this amendment to purchase these extra short loins trimmed unless they purchased the entire full loin. Inasmuch as many of these stores do not usually sell sirloins as frequently as they are able to sell short loins, they found that their operations were hampered by their inability to purchase trimmed short loins. Moreover, these stores do not desire to purchase untrimmed short loins because, as specialty stores, they cannot readily dispose of the fat and trimmings. The addition of this new item, thus, provides these stores with an added degree of flexibility. An appropriate definition has been added in Appendix 2 to cover this new item.

3. This amendment also gives sellers an opportunity to dispose of ground beef which has been rejected by the armed forces because its fat content exceeds 25 percent. Ground beef rejected by the armed forces, under the regulation prior to this amendment, could be sold if its fat content exceeded 30 percent. The Department of Defense originally specified that ground beef's fat content should not exceed 25 percent, but later agreed with the meat industry to accept ground beef with as much as 30 percent fat. CPR 24 was then amended to provide an outlet for ground beef which contained more than 30 percent fat and which had been rejected by the armed forces. When meat became more plentiful and the offerings to the armed forces became more abundant, the Government returned to its original specifications and declined to accept any ground beef which contained any more than 25 percent fat. Accordingly, it becomes necessary to provide for the sale of ground beef which was rejected because the fat content exceeds 25 percent. This amendment therefore provides that this meat may be sold at the ground beef ceiling price if the fat content does not exceed 30 percent and may be sold at the plate and brisket trimmings' price if the fat content is between 30 and 50 percent.

4. This amendment also permits the sale of any imported ungraded boneless beef. Distribution Regulation 2 requires that all beef be grade marked. Where imported meat is shipped in carcass form there is no grading problem, since an official grader of the U. S. Department of Agriculture can easily examine the carcass and affix the appropriate grade mark. However, a considerable quantity of imported meat is being shipped into this country in boneless form, thereby making grade marking difficult. Accordingly, CPR 24 was recently amended to permit the sale of New Zealand boneless beef which had not been grade marked by the U. S. D. A. Recently, the U. S. D. A. authorized the importation of fresh meat from Mexico as well as from other foreign countries. Therefore, a similar provision is now added eliminating grading requirements on any imported boneless beef so long as the meat is sold at a price not in excess of that provided for cutter and canner grade beef. In order to avoid circumvention of the provisions of CPR 24, sellers of imported boneless beef are required to transfer the meat in the same container in which it is imported into this country and to designate on the container that the meat is of a quality equivalent to OPS Grade 70, the grade for which the lowest ceiling prices have been established in the regulation.

5. This amendment also adds an allowance for returnable containers used in connection with the sale of boneless beef and beef variety meats. This allowance is designed to cover the cost of the cleaning and sterilization of these containers as well as to cover their depreciation.

6. Finally, this amendment revises the definition of "dinner steak" in order to preclude the possibility of ground beef qualifying as a dinner steak. The definition has been changed by adding a proviso prohibiting the grinding of the meat which is used in the production of dinner steaks.

In formulating this amendment, the Director of Price Stabilization has consulted so far as practicable with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and has given full consideration to their recommendations. In his judgment the provisions of this regulation are generally fair and equitable, are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Titles I and IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, are necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense, and comply with all the applicable standards of the act.

All standards prescribed in this amendment were, prior to the issuance of Ceiling Price Regulation 24, in general use in the meat industry. Such standards as are prescribed are indispensable to price control of beef, since no practicable alternative to such standardization exists for securing effective price control of this commodity. It is not believed that this amendment will cause any substantial changes in business practices, cost practices or methods, or means or aids to distribution; however, to the extent that such changes may be compelled, they are necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of Ceiling Price Regulation 24, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 24 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 9 is amended by adding, at the end of the first sentence of section 9 (a) (3) the following: "You are not required to keep records of the grade of imported boneless beef which does not bear a grade mark if, as provided in section 29 (b), that beef is not required to bear a grade mark."

2. Section 20, Schedule I is amended by adding the following new item 22:

	Price by grades
	Prime	Choice	Good	Commercial	Utility
22. Trimmed short loin...	109.80	96.80	83.80	65.70	65.00

3. Sections 24 (b) (1) and 24 (b) (2) are amended to read as follows:

(1) If the fat content is over 25 percent but under 30 percent, your ceiling price is established by section 22, item 11, ground beef (bulk).

(2) If the fat content is between 30 percent and 50 percent, your ceiling price is established by section 22, item 25, plate and brisket trimmings.

4. Section 29 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Ungraded (or improperly graded) beef. The ceiling price for any beef product (other than tenderloins) listed in sections 20, 21 or 22 of this regulation, which does not clearly bear a correct grade mark as required by Distribution Regulation 2, Revision 1, as amended, is the ceiling price established by this regulation for the lowest grade of such beef product. However, notwithstanding any of the provisions of this regulation or of Distribution Regulation 2, Revision 1, as amended, you may sell imported boneless beef which does not bear a correct grade mark as otherwise required by Distribution Regulation 2, Revision 1, as amended, if (1) the beef is sold in the original container in which it was imported into this country or in a substitute container required by the Bureau of Animal Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture (B. A. I.) because of damage to the original container; (2) the shipping container bears the inspection stamp of the B. A. I.; (3) the container is marked with the words "OPS Grade 70"; and (4) the meat is sold at prices not exceeding those established for cutter and canner boneless beef in section 22 or the prices established in section 23, whichever is applicable.

5. Section 45 is amended by adding the following to the list of the types of containers:

Returnable containers (as defined in section 50 (dd))----------	0.40

6. Section 50 is amended by adding a new section 50 (dd) to read as follows:

(dd) "Returnable container" means a container of solid wood, solid fiber composition, or metal, of a type and size which the seller has customarily used in making deliveries of boneless beef and beef variety meats and by-products, which is thoroughly cleaned and sterilized before each time it is used, and which remains the property of the seller. The container must be packed at the seller's place of business, taken into the buyer's place of business in making delivery of the products packed therein, and returned to the seller's place of business. The addition for returnable containers may be used only in connection with sales and deliveries of boneless beef and beef variety meats and by-products.

7. Appendix 2 is amended by adding the following new item 22:

(22) "Trimmed short loin" means short loin (bone in) as defined in Appendix 4 (a) (8).

8. Appendix 8 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) "Prefabricated quick frozen and packaged retail beef cut" means a beef steak or roast, listed in Ceiling Price Regulation 25, Revised, derived from beef of prime, choice, good, commercial, or utility grade, thoroughly frozen at quick freezing temperatures, wrapped in moisure-proof paper or packaged in a moisture-proof container, bearing a clearly visible tag or other marking showing (1) the name of the cut, (2) the net weight of the meat, (3) either the name of the processor, his OPS registration number, or his plant establishment number if his plant is inspected by the B. A. I. and he is not a slaughterer, and (4) the grade of the carcass from which the cut was derived, designated either by the following words or symbols:

Prime----------	OPS grade 10
Choice----------	OPS grade 20
Good----------	OPS grade 30
Commercial----------	OPS grade 40
Utility----------	OPS grade 50

In addition to the foregoing the wrapper or package shall contain a blank space whereon the retailer may designate the price per pound and the total price. The grade marks shall not be removed from the beef except when such removal cannot be avoided in preparing the cut in accordance with the specifications provided for such cut in Ceiling Price Regulation 25, Revised.

9. Appendix 8 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) "Prefabricated packaged retail beef cut" means a beef steak or roast, listed in Ceiling Price Regulation 25, Revised, derived from beef of prime, choice, good, commercial, or utility grade, wrapped in moisture-proof paper or packaged in a moisture-proof container, bearing a clearly visible tag or other marking showing the name of the cut, the net weight of the meat contained in the package, and the grade of the carcass from which the cut was derived, designated either by the following words or symbols:

Prime----------	OPS grade 10
Choice----------	OPS grade 20
Good----------	OPS grade 30
Commercial----------	OPS grade 40
Utility----------	OPS grade 50

In addition to the foregoing the wrapper or package shall contain a blank space whereon the retailer may designate the price per pound and the total price. The grade marks shall not be removed from the beef except when such removal cannot be avoided in preparing the cut in accordance with the specifications provided for such cut in Ceiling Price Regulation 25, Revised.

10. Appendix 8 (f) (8) is amended to read as follows:

(8) "Dinner steak" means a product produced from rounds, loins and/or ribs of any grade, from which all flank, sinews, cartilage, back strap and excess fat have been removed so that the trimmable fat left on the steak does not exceed 10 percent of the weight of the steak, and which has not been ground at any stage of the manufacturing process.

CPR 30—MACHINERY AND RELATED MANUFACTURED GOODS

CLARIFICATION OF APPENDIX A WITH RESPECT TO CERTAIN COMMODITIES

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 40 to Ceiling Price Regulation 30 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment makes several changes in Appendix A to Ceiling Price Regulation 30 which are intended only to clarify the coverage of the regulation with respect to certain commodities and groups of commodities. The changes neither extend nor limit the coverage of the regulation as it presently exists and are being made only to avoid any conflict with CPR 161 (Consumer Durable Goods) which was issued recently.

In view of the technical nature of the changes made by this amendment the Director of Price Stabilization has found that special circumstances have rendered consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives impracticable.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Appendix A to Ceiling Price Regulation 30 is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. The item beginning "Electronic devices * * *" is amended to read as follows:

Electronic devices, equipment and parts except radio and television receivers, hearing aids, and electronic business machines commonly used in offices.

2. The item beginning "Fans and blowers * * *" is amended to read as follows:

Fans and blowers, industrial; excluding unit heaters or unit ventilators, hand blowers, and desk, pedestal, portable, ceiling, wall-bracket type fans, and propeller type fans 24" diameter and under; but including warm air furnace fans, attic ventilating fans, built-in fans over 24" diameter and pressure fans and blowers.

3. The item beginning "Food and beverage machinery * * *" is amended to read as follows:

Food and beverage machinery including meat packing-house machinery and equipment, canning plant machinery for food products, dairy and milk product plant machinery and equipment (except farm dairy equipment for which see "Farm Equipment"), cereal manufacturing machines, confectionery, vegetable oil and beverage industries machinery, and miscellaneous food products machinery not elsewhere classified; but excluding food preparation appliances, either electrical or hand operated, designed primarily for household, and commercial and institutional use, such as juice extractors, cookers, coffee makers, roasters, choppers, fruit and vegetable peelers, slicing machines, stock kettles, etc.

4. The item beginning "Pumps, hand operated * * *" is amended to read as follows:

Pumps, hand operated, except store fixtures and hand operated tire pumps.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment is effective November 12, 1952.

CPR 34—SERVICES

FILING OF APPLICATIONS FOR ADJUSTMENT

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment deletes from the list of services for which ceiling price adjustment applications must be filed with the National Office of OPS rather than the OPS District Office the following: services rendered on food or agricultural commodities; services of selling agents, brokers or auctioneers; real property management services; banking services; admissions to athletic and sporting events; non-exempt services rendered by public utility and common carrier corporations, their lessees, concessionaires or assigns; and dock and terminal facilities. The result is that all applications for adjustments of ceiling prices under section 20 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 must be filed with the appropriate OPS District Office, except in the following cases: Where the service is supplied by a person whose business normally is carried on in more than one OPS region; where the service is rendered to manufacturing or industrial establishments which are either a necessary part in the production of a commodity or are useful or necessary in the preparation of a raw material for marketing; royalty arrangements of any kind, and warehouse facilities. The requirement that applications must be filed with the National Office if any one or more of the services sold or supplied by the applicant are required to be filed with the National Office is unchanged.

It is the policy of the Office of Price Stabilization to delegate to the field offices the duty of acting on applications by sellers wherever it is possible to do so. Ordinarily, the field office is better aware of local problems and situations than is the National Office, and it is usually more convenient for the seller to deal with a nearby office than with Washington, D. C. In most cases it is more efficient for both the seller and the Office of Price Stabilization if the field office can process applications. On the other hand, some matters by their nature require analysis and other processing by experts generally not available among the small staff of a District Office. Other matters involve inter-regional application, require liaison with other government agencies, or for various other reasons can be more efficiently disposed of in the National Office.

The Director of Price Stabilization has concluded, therefore, that applications for adjustment of ceiling prices under section 20 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 should be handled by OPS field offices, with the exceptions noted in the first paragraph above. All of the applications that must still be filed at Washington involve services or situations that in most cases the National Office is best equipped to process.

In view of the technical nature of this amendment, special circumstances have rendered consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, impracticable.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Section 20 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, is further amended by deleting from subparagraph (2) thereof subdivisions (iii), (v), (vi), (vii), subdivisions (iv) and (x) as (iii) and (iv), respectively, so that subparagraph (2) reads as follows:

(2) You must file your application on OPS Public Form 43, Revised, in duplicate, with the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., if you sell or supply any services, subject to Ceiling Price Regulation 34, which are listed or described below:

(i) Any services supplied by a person whose business (services, and other business) normally is carried on in more than one OPS region.

(ii) Any services rendered to manufacturing or industrial establishments which are either a necessary part in the production of a commodity or are useful or necessary in the preparation of a raw material for marketing.

(iii) Royalty arrangements of any kind.

(iv) Warehouse facilities.

If some of the services you sell or supply are listed or described in this subparagraph and some of the services you sell or supply are not so listed or described, you must file your application for adjustment for all of the services which you sell or supply with the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

In addition to the information required of you by OPS Public Form 43, Revised, OPS may request such additional information as may be found necessary in considering your application.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is effective November 17, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 105, Revision 1, Correction]

CPR 105—USED INDUSTRIAL AND CONSTRUCTION MACHINERY AND RELATED EQUIPMENT

CORRECTION

In the formulation of Revision 1 to Ceiling Price Regulation 105, issued and effective on June 30, 1952, three incorrect references were inadvertently made in paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2) of section 6 headed Government sales, and Appendix A contains a misspelled word. Paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2) of section 6 of CPR 105, Revision 1, are, therefore, corrected as follows:

1. In paragraph (b) (1) the reference to paragraph (b) (2) in parentheses is deleted in its entirety. Also in paragraph (b) (1), the reference to paragraph (b) (3) should be changed to (b) (2). Accordingly, paragraph (b) (1) is corrected to read as follows:

(b) First optional method. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this regulation, the ceiling price for sales by the Government of a used commodity may be either 65 percent of the "Government's acquisition cost" of the commodity, or the price determined under the depreciation method set forth in paragraph (b) (2) of this section, not in excess of 80 percent of the Government's acquisition cost of the commodity. The "acquisition cost" of a commodity which the Government uses in fixing ceiling prices under this section is the net invoice price at which the Government originally acquired the commodity when it was new.

2. In paragraph (b) (2), the reference to paragraph (b) (2) in parentheses is deleted in its entirety. Accordingly, paragraph (b) (2) is corrected to read as follows:

(2) Depreciation method. The Government may use the depreciation method set out in section 2 (d) in figuring the ceiling prices of commodities listed in Appendix B. In using that method, however, the Government substitutes "acquisition cost" for "base price" (section 2 (c)). The Government may not determine the ceiling price of a used commodity under the depreciation method unless it gives the purchaser a statement, signed on its behalf by an official duly authorized thereto, before, or at the time of, the purchase or delivery of any used commodity priced under the depreciation method. This statement shall contain (1) a description of the used commodity which is sufficient to permit its identification, and (2) the date of acquisition of the commodity by the Government.

3. In Appendix A there is a misspelled word:

In the classification "Batteries, storage, when sold * * * etc.," the word "intrical" should be "integral." Accordingly, that classification in Appendix A is corrected to read as follows:

Batteries, storage, when sold as "reconditioned and guaranteed" or when sold as an integral part of a used machine. Other sales of used storage batteries are not covered by this regulation.

CPR 112—WHOLESALE PAPER MERCHANTS

ADJUSTMENT FOR INCREASED OUTBOUND FREIGHT RATES

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 1 to Ceiling Price Regulation 112 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment authorizes wholesale paper merchants selling on a delivered basis to increase their previously established ceiling prices by the actual amount of the increase in their outbound freight costs resulting from increases in rates authorized by statute, by the Office of Price Stabilization, or by another Federal or State regulatory agency.

Wholesale paper merchants generally sell on a delivered basis and, as a result, have been required to absorb the increases in outbound freight costs. This action allowing them to reflect increases in outbound transportation costs is in line with and based on the same general considerations as recent actions providing similar relief for manufacturers whose ceilings were fixed on a delivered basis.

The recent approval by the Interstate Commerce Commission of a request by motor carriers of the Central Territory to place in effect a surcharge of $1.50, in addition to the applicable rates per 100 pounds on all shipments under 5,000 pounds, adversely affected this industry in particular. According to the National Paper Trade Association's survey of nearly 400 wholesale paper merchants who represent 46 percent in sales of the wholesale paper business, the average warehouse sale in 1951 consisted of about 240 pounds of paper delivered to the purchaser at $48.75, which returned $2.42 profit before Federal taxes. The average cartage and delivery cost was 86 cents. Thus, this freight surcharge is substantial and might well eliminate the profit on many of the sales to which it applies. It is estimated that 20 percent of warehouse orders would be affected by this surcharge.

Data presently available indicate that the freight rate increases, together with higher labor and operating costs, have had the effect of eliminating the profits of wholesale paper merchants on many small shipments and of reducing their net margins. In addition thereto, 1952 sales are 10% to 15% lower than 1951 which, together with the increased costs of doing business, may cause the earnings of wholesale paper merchants to be less than the minimum level required by the industry earnings standard. In view of these circumstances, this amendment permits the pass-through of all increases in outbound freight rates made effective since March 31, 1951.

In the formulation of this amendment, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable, and are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 112 is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. Section 10 is amended to read as follows:

Establishment of ceiling prices. To determine your ceiling prices for a sale of a commodity, apply your appropriate base period percentage mark-up, as defined in section 8 for the quantity involved in the sale, to the current "cost of goods sold" as defined in section 9, and add thereto the dollar-and-cent difference between the actual outbound freight charged to you and the outbound freight that would have been charged under the freight rates prevailing during the base period.

2. Section 30 is amended by the addition of the following paragraph (s):

(s) Outbound freight charge. This term means the actual net amount paid by you to independent carriers for transporting the commodity from your warehouse to the purchaser. It does not include payments to a person who is an employee, subsidiary, or affiliate of yours, or of whom you are a subsidiary or affiliate, or any amount for which you are reimbursed by the buyer. Included are payments made to railroads or trucking companies and payments for railway express, air freight, or parcel post shipments, insofar as these payments are not in excess of the rate authorized by statute, by the Office of Price Stabilization, or by other Federal or State regulatory agency.

This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 112 shall become effective November 17, 1952.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 178]

CPR 178—COLLAPSIBLE TUBES

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Ceiling Price Regulation is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This regulation establishes ceiling prices for the sale of collapsible tubes.

Collapsible tubes are made from aluminum, tin and lead metal slugs which are fabricated into containers for medical and pharmaceutical products, cosmetics, dentifrices, food products and for household and industrial uses. They also have many military applications.

There are approximately 20 plants in the nation engaged in the manufacture of collapsible tubes. The art of manufacturing these tubes calls for a wide knowledge of graphic arts, metallurgy, extrusion processes, and allied arts. There are few standard tubes produced, the vast majority being tailor-made containers to meet the requirements of the filler.

Historically the industry has used two pricing methods. Prices for tubes made from tin or lead metal slugs were determined by issued price lists which reflected conversion costs only, and separate charges were made for metal contained, on the basis of prices published in the American Metal Market. Aluminum tubes were generally priced by price lists which quoted a price for a finished tube, aluminum metal included. Decorations, spouts, coating, etc., were all quoted as extras.

The industry has had the option of pricing its products either under CPR 22 or the General Ceiling Price Regulation; and, because of the necessity of retaining a customary price relationship, the Industry has elected to price its products under the General Ceiling Price Regulation until a tailored regulation could be issued. This regulation is designed to reflect the customary pricing practices of the industry and establishes ceiling prices at the average level of prices established by CPR 22. At the time the discussion with this industry began in 1951, the agency standards and policies now in effect had not been crystallized, and the early discussions with the manufacturers were on the basis of an industry-wide factor under CPR 22. In general, at this time, if ceiling price levels are represented to be no longer generally fair and equitable, OPS stands ready to give necessary price relief if a study of the industry indicates that such relief is required under the industry earning standard, or under a product standard applied on an industry-wide basis.

In the case of soft metal tubes, tubes made from tin and lead, it has been the customary practice of the industry to establish prices based on a charge for the fabrication of the tubes, plus the current market price for the metal. The current result of this method of pricing is that the industry's prices for these tubes, reflecting the reduced level of prices for the metals, are lower than those prevailing during the GCPR base period. This regulation permits the industry to continue its customary practice in the pricing of these soft metal tubes.

Based on cost data compiled by this Agency, the ceiling prices for aluminum tubes are the GCPR prices increased by 9 percent. Pursuant to the custom in the trade, the ceiling prices for soft metal tubes are the GCPR prices for the fabrication of the tubes increased by 4 percent, to which may be added the cost of the metal, which will continue to be charged for on the basis of prices published in the American Metal Market. A like 4 percent increase is allowed for the services of converting metal owned by the buyers into collapsible tubes.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the provisions of this ceiling price regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

So far as practicable, the Director has given due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and to relevant factors of general applicability. In the judgment of the Director the provisions of this regulation comply with all of the requirements with respect to the establishment of ceiling prices set forth in the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 14 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101–2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does—(a) Commodities and services covered. This regulation establishes ceiling prices for the sale of fabricated aluminum, tin, lead and tin-lead alloy collapsible tubes, and for the service of converting tin, lead and tin-lead alloy into collapsible tubes.

(b) Persons covered. This regulation applies to all persons including exporters and importers, who buy, sell, or fabricate the products covered by this regulation or furnish conversion services covered by this regulation.

(c) Geographical applicability. This regulation applies in the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 2. Ceiling prices. (a) (1) Your ceiling prices for the commodities and services covered by this regulation are your base period prices to which is added: A 9 percent increase for fabricated aluminum tubes and extras, plus the adjustment allowed under General Overriding Regulation 35; a 4 percent increase (other than on metal costs) for the fabrication of soft metal tubes and extras, plus the market price for metal used; and a 4 percent increase for conversion services.

(2) In determining your ceiling price, you must use the first of the prices established during the base period available to you under paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section. If you are unable to determine your ceiling price under the foregoing provisions you must apply for the establishment of a ceiling price under the provisions of section 5 of this section.

(3) You must adjust any ceiling price determined in accordance with the provisions of this section to reflect your customary price differentials and terms of sale as set forth in section 3 of this regulation.

(4) The base period referred to in this section is the period from December 19, 1950 to January 25, 1951, inclusive.

(b) Base period prices. (1) Your base period price for aluminum collapsible tubes and extras, for the fabrication of soft metal tubes or for conversion services included on a published price list which you had in effect on January 25, 1951 in the same quantity to the same class of purchasers.

(2) The highest price at which you contracted in writing during the base period to sell the same product, the same fabrication, or the same conversion service in the same quantity to the same class of purchaser.

(3) The highest price at which you made an offer in writing during the base period to sell the same product, the same fabrication, or the same conversion service in the same quantity to the same class of purchaser.

(4) The highest price set forth on the price sheet, if any, used by you during the base period for pricing sales of the same product, the same fabrication, or the same conversion service in the same quantity to the same class of purchaser.

(c) Formula prices. (1) If you cannot determine a ceiling price in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section your base period price for any collapsible tubes or conversion services is the price determined in accordance with the formula which you had in effect on January 25, 1951, for pricing the same or a similar product. You must apply such formula in exactly the same manner as you would have on January 25, 1951, and you must use the metal and materials costs, straight time labor rates, burden and overhead rates, machine hour rates, other cost factors, and profit markups which were in effect for you on that date and you may not include any cost increases occurring after that date. If, however, you purchase a partially completed item or subcontract any operations, you may include the price you paid for such item or service to the extent that it does not exceed the ceiling price established by OPS.

(2) In determining a base period price in accordance with this paragraph, you may apply your formula on the basis of an estimate of the time and material which will be required to produce the quantity ordered, but such estimate must be made in accordance with your customary practice as of January 25, 1951, and must be based upon the production experience you would have used in applying your formula on that date.

SEC. 3. Customary price differentials and terms of sale.—(a) Class of purchaser differentials. Your ceiling price determined in accordance with section 2 must reflect all jobber, distributor, producer, special customer and other class of purchaser differentials which you had in effect on January 25, 1951.

(b) Other price differentials. Your ceiling price determined in accordance with section 2 must reflect all other price differentials which you had in effect on January 25, 1951.

(c) Delivery terms and allowance. You must sell your collapsible tubes on the same basis as you would have on January 25, 1951, and you must comply with the following provisions:

(1) If on January 25, 1951, it was your practice to make any sales on an f. o. b. shipping point basis or on a delivered price basis with actual transportation charges collect and allowed, you may make similar sales on the same terms and you need not make any deductions in the ceiling prices established in section 2 on account of transportation costs paid by the buyer.

(2) If on January 25, 1951, it was your practice to make any sales on a delivered basis (either by paying all transportation charges or making delivery in your own trucks), you must make similar sales on the same terms. If you do not do so, you must reduce the ceiling prices established in section 2 by the amount of any transportation costs paid by the buyer. If a purchaser requests shipment by a more expensive method than the method you would have used on January 25, 1951, you may add to the ceiling price established in section 2 the difference between the cost of the method of shipment you would have used on January 25, 1951, and the cost of the method of shipment actually used.

(3) If on January 25, 1951, it was your practice to make any sales on an f. o. b. shipping point basis with an allowance for all or a portion of the transportation costs paid by the purchaser, you must make similar sales on the same terms and you must reduce the ceiling prices established in section 2 by an amount determined in accordance with your customary practice. You must, however, calculate such amount on the basis of the transportation charges in effect at the time of shipment.

(4) You may reflect any actual increases in outbound transportation costs to you resulting from increases in rates authorized by OPS, or other Federal or State regulatory agency.

(d) Credit and other terms of sale. You must adjust the ceiling price determined in accordance with section 2 to reflect all cash discounts which you had in effect on January 25, 1951, and such price must carry all guarantees, servicing terms, and other applicable conditions of sale which you had in effect on that date. You may make a charge for extension of credit to a purchaser if you customarily made a charge therefor on January 25, 1951, but the amount of such charge must not be greater than that which you had in effect on that date.

SEC. 4. Rounding ceiling prices. The ceiling prices determined under this regulation may be rounded, but they must be expressed in the nearest cent or fraction of a cent the manufacturer normally employs. However, once this election is made the ceiling prices for all commodities normally priced by the manufacturer upon the same basis must be similarly rounded to reflect decreases as well as increases. In no event may the increase be greater than 1 percent of your ceiling price prior to rounding. For example, if a price is normally quoted to the nearest half of a cent and the ceiling price for commodity A is 82.40 cents, that ceiling price may be rounded to 82.50 cents. However, if the ceiling price for commodity B is 91.24 cents the ceiling price must be rounded to 91.00 cents.

SEC. 5. Those who cannot price under other sections. (a) (1) If for any reason a manufacturer cannot determine a ceiling price under the foregoing provisions of this regulation, you must apply to the Industrial Materials and Manufactured Goods Division, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., for the establishment of a ceiling price or pricing formula.

(2) Any application pursuant to this section must be signed by an authorized person, must be made by registered mail, return receipt requested, and must contain the following information:

(3) The applicant's trade name and address; the name of the product, service, or extra for which a ceiling price or pricing formula is sought; a statement of the reason why the applicant cannot determine a ceiling price or pricing formula under this regulation; a proposed ceiling price or pricing formula; and a statement of how you determined such ceiling price or pricing formula.

(b) Any ceiling price or pricing formula established by OPS pursuant to this section will be in line with the ceiling prices or pricing formulae otherwise established in this regulation.

(c) After receipt of an application pursuant to this section OPS may approve or disapprove the proposed ceiling price or pricing formula, establish a different ceiling price or pricing formula or request additional information. Pending any such action, the manufacturer may sell the product, service or extra covered by the application at his proposed ceiling price provided that he agrees with the purchaser to refund the amount, if any, by which such price exceeds the ceiling price established by OPS. If OPS has not acted upon the application within 30 days of the receipt thereof, the proposed ceiling price shall be deemed to be established for all deliveries made between the date the application was mailed to OPS and the date of any order issued by OPS disposing of the application.

(d) If you are required to file an application pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section and do not do so, OPS may issue an order establishing a ceiling price or pricing formula for you. Any ceiling price or pricing formula provided for by such order will be in line with the ceiling prices or pricing formulae otherwise established in this regulation and will apply to all deliveries for which a ceiling price was not otherwise established by this regulation, including deliveries completed prior to the date of the order. The issuance of such an order will not relieve you of your obligation to comply with the requirement of this regulation or of the various penalties for your failure to do so.

SEC. 6. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Price Procedural Regulation No. 1, Revised.

SEC. 7. Adjustable pricing. Nothing in this regulation shall be construed to prohibit any person making a contract or offer to sell a product or service covered by this regulation at (a) the ceiling price in effect at the time of delivery, or (b) the lower of a fixed price or the ceiling price in effect at the time of delivery. No person, however, may deliver or agree to deliver such product or service at a price to be adjusted upward in accordance with any increase in a ceiling price after delivery.

SEC. 8. Excise, sales and similar taxes. Any person may collect in addition to the ceiling price established by this regulation, any excise, sales or similar tax imposed upon him by reason of his sale of any product covered by this regulation if he is not prohibited by law from making such collection and if he states separately from his selling price the amount of the tax collected and provided such separate statement and collection of the amount of the tax is not prohibited by law.

SEC. 9. Record keeping requirements. (a) (1) Every seller covered by this regulation, and every person who, in the course of trade or business, buys from such seller, must prepare and keep for inspection by the Director of Price Stabilization for a period of two years, accurate records or invoices of each sale of the commodities, services or extras covered by this regulation showing: The date of sale; the name and address of the seller and buyer; the name of the commodity, service or extra sold, the quantity of each such commodity, service or extra; the price charged for each such commodity, service or extra; the point or points of shipment and the buyer's receiving point, and the amount of the transportation charges, if any, and by whom they were paid.

(2) Every seller covered by this regulation shall deliver to the purchaser at the time of any sale of a commodity, service or extra covered by this regulation an invoice which shall set forth the information required by paragraph (a) (1).

(b) Retention by the buyer of an invoice issued in connection with the sale of a commodity, service or extra covered by this regulation will be considered compliance with the provisions of this section if the invoice contains all the information required by paragraph (a).

SEC. 10. Interpretations. If any person wants an official interpretation of this regulation, he should write to the Division Counsel, Industrial Materials and Manufactured Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C. Any action taken in reliance upon and in conformity with a written official interpretation will constitute action in good faith pursuant to this regulation. Further information on obtaining official interpretation is contained in Price Procedural Regulation 1, Revised.

SEC. 11. Prohibitions. (a) No person shall do any act prohibited or omit to do any act required by this regulation, nor shall any person offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do or omit to do any such acts.

(b) Specifically (but not in limitation of paragraph (a) of this section), no person shall, regardless of any contract or other obligation, sell, deliver, or negotiate the sale or delivery of any product, and no person in the regular course of trade or business shall buy or receive any product, at a price higher than the ceiling price established by this regulation. Every person covered by this regulation shall keep, make and preserve true and accurate records and reports, required by this regulation. If any person violates any provisions of this regulation, he is subject to criminal penalties, enforcement action, and action for damages.

SEC. 12. Evasions. (a) Any means or device which results in obtaining indirectly a higher price than is permitted by this regulation or in concealing or falsely representing information as to which this regulation requires records to be kept is a violation of this regulation. This prohibition includes, but is not limited to, means or devices making use of commissions, fees, services, gross sales, transportation arrangements, premiums, discounts, special privileges, upgrading, tie-in agreements and trade understandings, as well as the omission from records of true date and the inclusion in records of false data.

(b) No seller shall require a purchaser to subdivide a requirement into small or partial orders nor shall a purchaser subdivide his requirements into small or partial orders for the purpose of enabling the seller to obtain a higher unit price.

SEC. 13. Supplementary regulations. The Director of Price Stabilization may issue supplementary regulations modifying or supplementing this regulation as he deems appropriate.

SEC. 14. Definitions—(a) "Class of purchaser" refers to the practice of charging different prices for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers. Such practice may be based on the characteristics or distributive level of the purchaser (for instance, distributor, manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber, retailer, mail order house, government agency, public institution or individual consumer), or on the location of the purchaser, the quantity purchased by him, or whether he purchased for cash or credit. If the practice was followed of giving an individual buyer a price differing from that charged others, that buyer constitutes a separate class of purchaser.

(b) "Conversion service" means the service performed in producing an extruded collapsible tube from metal owned by another person.

(c) "Exporter" means any person selling a commodity, either directly or through an agent, for delivery or shipment to any place outside the United States, its territories or possessions.

(d) "Extras" are items, such as waxing, coating, applicators and lithographing, as are normally listed on the price lists of a fabricator or converter.

(e) "Fabricated aluminum tubes" means any extruded aluminum collapsible tube product fabricated from metal owned by the fabricator of the product.

(f) "Importer" means a person by whom a commodity is imported and who first sells it after importation. A commodity is imported which is transported from a place outside the continental limits of the United States, its territories and possessions.

(g) "Market price" (1) For tin the market price is the New York spot price of "Straits" tin as published in the American Metals Market under the heading "Outside Market", as of the close of business the latest trading day before quotation of the selling price but not in excess of the applicable ceiling price. If it has been your customary practice to use the market price for tin as quoted as of the close of business the latest trading day before shipment of the commodity, or as quoted on the first day of the month in which shipment is made, you may continue to do so.

(2) For lead the market price is the New York price for common grade lead as published in the American Metal Market as of the close of business the latest trading day before quotation of the selling price but not in excess of the applicable ceiling price. If it has been your customary practice to use the market price for lead as quoted as of the close of business the latest trading day before shipment of the commodity, or as quoted on the first day of the month in which shipment is made, you may continue to do so.

(3) For tin-lead the market price is a composite of the market price of that percentage of the commodity which is made of tin plus the market price of that percentage of the commodity which is made of lead.

(h) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor representative of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or other government or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing.

(i) "Price sheet" means any document distributed to your salesmen or other employees setting forth prices for any collapsible tubes or applicators.

Effective date. This regulation is effective November 17, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[General Overriding Regulation 34, Amdt. 3]

GOR 34—EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN LUMBER AND WOOD PRODUCTS

EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN WOOD CHIPS AND WOOD SHAVINGS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 and Economic Stabilization General Order No. 2, this Amendment 3 to General Overriding Regulation 34 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This Amendment 3 to General Overriding Regulation 34 exempts from price control wood chips produced in the United States west of the one-hundredth meridian and made from refuse wood. It also exempts wood shavings. This action affects all levels of sale.

The items hereby exempted are relatively unimportant factors in business costs. The decision to take this action was made principally because the burden of maintaining price controls over them outweighs their importance to the stabilization program. Ceilings for the items affected were previously determined under the General Ceiling Price Regulation.

Wood chips are made either from refuse wood or from logs. This exemption applies only to chips made from refuse wood in order to avoid a diversion of logs to wood chip production in the production area involved.

Wood chips are used principally in the production of wood pulp and other wood cellulose products. They are also used to some extent to produce wood distillation products.

Wood shavings are a waste product of wood-working establishments, chiefly marketed for agricultural uses (as litter, such as stable, kennel and chicken bedding), packing, gas purification and for manufacture into fuel briquets. It is not anticipated that the exemption of wood shavings will cause a rise in their over-all price because they compete with various other products remaining under price control.

In formulating this amendment the Director of Price Stabilization has consulted extensively with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and has given full consideration to their recommendations. In his opinion the exemptions provided by this amendment will not defeat or impair the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

General Overriding Regulation 34 is amended as follows:

1. Section 2 is amended by adding two new paragraphs to read as follows:

(m) Wood chips produced in the United States west of the one-hundredth meridian and made from refuse wood.

(n) Wood shavings.

2. Section 3 is amended by adding two new paragraphs to read as follows:

(k) As used in paragraph (m) of section 2, "wood chips" are small wood fragments produced by cutting or chopping wood in a chipper. "Refuse wood" consists of sawmill slabs, edgings, trimmings, and blocks, and veneer cores and veneer waste, suitable for conversion into pulpwood chips.

(l) As used in paragraph (n) of section 2, "wood shavings" are thin slices of wood waste which are by-product parings or cuttings resulting from wood-working by the use of a knife, plane or similar device.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment is effective November 12, 1952.

Chapter VI—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[NPA Reg. 2, as Amended November 10, 1952]

Reg. 2—Basic Rules of the Priorities System

This regulation, as amended, is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this regulation as amended, consultation with industry representatives has been rendered impracticable because this regulation applies to all trades and industries.

This regulation, as amended, affects NPA Reg. 2, as amended September 13, 1951, and as further amended by Amendment 1 of December 11, 1951, as follows: Minor changes are made in the introductory paragraphs. The table of contents following the introductory paragraphs is changed to accord with the changes in the numbering and headings of certain sections herein. Changes are made in sections 3, 10, 12, 13, 14, 15, 17, and 22 for purposes of clarification. Paragraph (b) of section 12 is added to require cancellation of ratings under certain circumstances. A new paragraph (c) is inserted in section 14 and the former paragraphs (c) and (d) are redesignated (d) and (e), respectively. Sections 23, 24, and 25, are combined in a new section 24 and said sections, as well as sections 26 and 28, are changed in minor respects in order to conform to similar provisions in other NPA regulations and orders. Sections 26 and 28 are renumbered sections 23 and 26, respectively. Section 27 is renumbered section 25, and minor changes are made in List A.

App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

Section 1. What this regulation does. This regulation states the basic rules of the priorities system to be administered by the National Production Authority. It states what kind of orders are rated orders, how to place them, and the preference status of such orders. These rules apply to all business transactions within the jurisdiction of NPA unless more specific regulations, orders, or directives of NPA state otherwise.

Sec. 2. Definitions. (a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Materials" means any raw, in-process, or manufactured commodity, equipment, component, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind.

(c) "NPA" means the National Production Authority.

(d) "Rated order" means any purchase order, contract, or other form of procurement for materials or services bearing an authorized rating and the certification required by this regulation or any other applicable regulation or order of NPA.

(e) "Assignment" of a rating. A rating is assigned when NPA, or a Government agency that it has authorized, grants a person the right to use the rating.

(f) "Application" of a rating. A rating is applied when the person to whom it is assigned uses the rating.

(g) "Extension" of a rating. A rating is extended when it is used by the person to whom it was applied or when it is further used by another person to whom it was extended.

Sec. 3. Ratings authorized. (a) The following ratings are authorized:

(1) A DO rating. This rating will be indicated by the prefix DO and an identification of the program (including the program identification B–5 where used as a suffix), which must be furnished a supplier by the person who is using the rating.

(2) A DX rating. This rating will be indicated by the prefix DX and an identification of the program. The DX rating will be authorized for use only as an emergency rating, to obtain products and materials in cases of extreme urgency. Except where expressly provided to the contrary in any NPA regulation or order, any provision of any NPA regulation or order applicable to any DO rating shall also be applicable to any DX rating. For example, in the case of an NPA order which provides for a limitation on the acceptance of DO-rated orders by a supplier, a DX-rated order shall be considered, only for the purpose of such limitation, as though it were a DO-rated order.

(b) Rated orders shall have the following preferential status:

(1) All DX rated orders will have equal preferential status. Any DX rated order shall take priority over any unrated or DO rated order.

(2) All DO rated orders will have equal preferential status. Any DO rated order shall take priority over any unrated order.

(c) A rating shall have no effect on deliveries on orders calling for delivery of controlled materials (as defined in CMP Regulation No. 1) after September 30, 1951.

(d) A rated order with a program identification consisting of a letter and one digit or consisting of two or more letters constitutes a "rating with an allotment number or symbol" as referred to in CMP regulations.

Sec. 4. When ratings may be assigned or applied. (a) A claimant agency, or other person designated by NPA, may be authorized by NPA to assign or apply a rating. However, no authorization to assign or apply ratings, whether by delegation, regulation, or otherwise, shall include authority to assign or apply a DX rating, unless expressly so stated therein.

(b) When a regulation, order, or certificate assigns a rating to any person either by naming him or by describing the class of persons to which he belongs, that person may apply the rating to get delivery of materials or the performance of certain services.

(c) No person may place rated orders for more material than he is authorized to rate even though he intends to cancel some of the orders or reduce the quantity of material ordered to the authorized amount before it is all delivered.

Sec. 5. When ratings may be extended for material. (a) When a person has received a rated order for the delivery of material, he may extend the rating to get the material which he will deliver on that order, or which will be physically incorporated in the material which he will deliver, including containers and packaging materials required to make the delivery, and including also chemicals directly used in the production of the material. If the material is to be processed, this includes the portion of it which would normally be consumed or converted into scrap or byproducts in the course of processing. However, he may not extend such a rating to get material for plant improvement, expansion, or construction, or to get machine tools or other items which he will carry as capital equipment, or to get maintenance, repair, or operating supplies.

(b) If a person has made delivery of material or has incorporated it into the material which he has delivered on a rated order, he may extend the rating to replace it in his inventory subject to the inventory provisions of any NPA regulation or order. Any material ordered with a rating as replacement in inventory must be substantially the same as the material which the person delivered or incorporated in the material which he delivered, except for minor variations in size, shape, or design.

Sec. 6. Additional restrictions upon the use of ratings for certain materials. The ratings established by this regulation shall have no effect upon deliveries of any of the items listed or referred to in List A of this regulation. No person shall use ratings to obtain any of such items, and no person selling any such items shall require a rating as a condition of sale. Any rating purporting to be used to obtain any such items on a preferred basis shall be void.

Sec. 7. Use of ratings for services. (a) When a person is entitled to use a rating to get processed material, he may furnish the unprocessed material to a processor and use the same rating to get the material processed.

(b) If NPA specifically authorizes a person to use a rating to get services, he may use it for that purpose.

(c) Except as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, no person may use a rating to get services.

(d) A person to whom a rating for services, as distinct from the production or delivery of material, has been applied or extended may not extend the rating for any purpose.

Sec. 8. How to apply or extend a rating. (a) When a person applies or extends a rating, he must put the prefix DO and an identification of the program supplied to him; for example, DO–39, DO–K2, or DO–SU, on his purchase order, or on a separate piece of paper attached to the order or clearly identifying it, together with the words "Certified under NPA Reg. 2," signed as prescribed in this section. This certificate constitutes a representation to the supplier and to NPA that the purchaser is authorized under the provisions of this regulation or CMP regulations to use the rating for the delivery of the materials covered by the purchase order. A certification under any CMP regulation shall be deemed to be a certification under this regulation.

(b) Certifications on purchase or delivery orders must be signed by the person placing the order or by a responsible individual who is duly authorized to sign for that purpose. The signature must be either by hand or in the form of a rubber stamp or other facsimile reproduction of a handwritten signature. If a facsimile signature is used, the individual who uses it must be duly authorized in writing to use it for this purpose by the person whose signature it is, and a written record of the authorization must be kept.

(c) When a rated order is placed by telegram, the rating identification and certificate must be set out in full in the telegram. It will be sufficient if the file copy of the telegram is signed in the manner required for certification by this regulation.

(d) On rated orders requiring shipment within 7 days, the substance of the certification may be stated verbally or by telephone. However, the following rules must be complied with:

(1) The person making the statement for the buyer must be a person duly authorized to make the certification.

(2) Both the buyer and the seller must promptly make a written record of the fact that the certification was given orally and the record must be signed by the buyer in the same way as a certification.

(e) The person who places a rated order, the individual whose signature is used, and the individual who approves the use of the signature, will each be considered to be making a representation to NPA that the statements contained in the certification are true to the best of his knowledge and belief. The person receiving the certification and any other information required to be included with it, shall be entitled to rely on it as a representation of the buyer unless he knows or has reason to believe that it is false.

(f) No person shall knowingly apply or extend or purport to apply or extend a rating to any order unless he is entitled to do so. No person shall apply or extend a rating for material or services after he has received the material or after the services have been performed, and any person who receives such a rating shall not extend it.

Sec. 9. Special provisions applicable to extensions; grouping of orders. (a) No person may extend any rating to replace inventory after the expiration of 3 months from the date of receipt of the order bearing the rating, or 1 month from the date he took from inventory the material being replaced, whichever date is later.

(b) If the purchase requirements for filling a number of rated orders for different items bearing different rating identifications are combined in one purchase order, each applicable rating identification must be placed alongside the related item.

(c) If the purchase requirements for filling a number of rated orders for the same material but bearing different rating identifications are combined in one purchase order, the purchase order must show the amount of such material to which a particular rating identification is extended.

(d) In the case of a manufacturer of common components or shelf items or any other person who has a number of DO-rated orders or DO-rated and DX-rated orders, for which he cannot place orders for minimum commercially procurable quantities of materials to fill the rated orders individually, he may place one DO-rated order for all the materials using the identification symbol DO–Z8 (formerly DO–99). Orders bearing the rating DO–99 and outstanding on July 17, 1951, shall have the same preferential status as though they were rated DO–Z8. However, the amounts so ordered may not exceed the total amount of the material required for the rated orders so combined. An order placed pursuant to this paragraph may bear a DX rating only if all materials ordered will be used to fill DX-rated orders, in which case the identification symbol DX–Z8 shall be used.

Sec. 10. Rules for acceptance and rejection of rated orders. Every order bearing a rating must be accepted and filled regardless of existing contracts and orders except as provided in this section. The "existing contracts and orders" referred to include not only ordinary purchase contracts but other arrangements achieving substantially the same results, though in form they may concern the use of production facilities rather than the material produced.

(a) A person must not accept a DO-rated order for delivery on a date which would interfere with delivery of any rated order which he has already accepted, nor accept a DX-rated order for delivery on a date which would interfere with delivery of any DX-rated order already accepted. However, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, or except where a provision of an NPA order or other regulation does not require the acceptance of a DX-rated order (whether expressly or by reason of section 3, paragraph (a) (2) of this regulation), a DX-rated order must be accepted without regard to the effect of such acceptance upon the filling of unrated or DO-rated orders.

(b) If a person, when receiving a rated order bearing a specific delivery date, does not expect to be able to fill it by the time requested, he must not accept it for delivery at that time. He must either (1) reject the order, stating when he could fill it, or (2) accept it for delivery on the earliest date he expects to be able to deliver, informing the customer of that date. He may adopt either of these two courses, depending on his understanding of which his customer would prefer. He may not reject a rated order just because he expects to receive other rated orders in the future.

(c) A supplier does not have to accept a rated order in any of the following cases, but there must be no discrimination in such cases against rated orders or between rated orders of different customers:

(1) If the person seeking to place the order is unwilling or unable to meet regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment. When a person who has a rated order asks a supplier to quote his regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment, the supplier must do so, except that if this would require detailed engineering or accounting work, he may give his best estimate without such work and say that it is not binding. However, the supplier need not quote if he is not required to accept the rated order and advises the person seeking the quotation of the reason for his refusal.

(2) If the order is for the manufacture of a product or the performance of a service of a kind which the person to whom the order is offered has not usually made or performed, and in addition, if either (i) he cannot fill the order without substantially altering or adding to his facilities, or (ii) the order can readily be performed by someone else who has usually accepted and performed such orders.

(3) If an order for material is offered to a person who produces or acquires it for his own use only, and he has not filled any orders for that material within the past 2 years. If he has filled any orders within that period, but the rated order would take more than the excess over his own needs, he may reject the order for any amount over the excess.

(4) If filling the order would stop or interrupt the supplier's operations during the next 60 days in a way which would cause a substantial loss of total production or a substantial delay in operations.

(5) If the acceptance or performance of the order would violate any other regulation or order of NPA in effect at the time such order is received.

(d) A producer need not accept a rated order from another person who produces the same product. A processor need not accept a rated order from another person who performs the same processing service.

(e) Any person who refuses to accept a rated order shall, upon written request of the person placing the order, promptly give his reasons in writing for his refusal.

SEC. 11. Report to NPA of improperly rejected orders. When a rated order is rejected in violation of this regulation, a report of the relevant facts may be filed with the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: NPA Reg. 2. NPA will take such action as it considers appropriate after requiring an explanation from the person rejecting the order.

SEC. 12. Cancellation of ratings. (a) If a rating which has been used by a person is revoked, he must immediately, in the case of each order to which he has applied such rating, inform his supplier that the rating is cancelled and that the order is no longer to be treated as a rated order.

(b) If after placing with a supplier a rated order for any material and prior to delivery of such material the customer finds that he no longer needs such material for the purpose for which he applied the rating, he must immediately inform his supplier in writing that the rating is cancelled and that his order is no longer to be treated as a rated order.

(c) If any person receives notice from his customer or otherwise that the customer's order is no longer a rated order or that the customer's order is cancelled, he must immediately withdraw any extensions of that rating which he has made to any purchase order placed by him.

SEC. 13. Sequence of filling rated orders. (a) Every person who has rated orders on hand must schedule his operations, if possible, so as to fill each rated order by the required delivery or performance date. If this is not possible, he must give precedence as follows:

(1) He must give precedence to any DX-rated order over any unrated or DO-rated order, and he must give precedence to any rated order over any unrated order.

(2) As between conflicting rated orders of otherwise equal preferential status, he must give precedence to the order which was received first with the rating.

(3) As between conflicting rated orders of otherwise equal preferential status received on the same date, he must give precedence to the order which has the earliest required delivery or performance date.

(4) If he has accepted a rated order, he may not schedule delivery on an order of the same or lower preferential status which he later receives, if such scheduling will interfere with scheduled delivery on the rated order previously accepted. However, if both deliveries can be made on schedule, he need not make delivery on the first customer's order ahead of the second.

(b) In the usual case, the date on which specifications on a rated order have been furnished to the manufacturer in sufficient detail to enable him to put the product into production is to be considered the date on which the rated order is received.

(c) If a rated order or a rating applicable to an order is cancelled when the supplier has material in production to fill it, he need not immediately stop processing in order to put other rated orders into production. He may continue to process the material which he had put into production for such order to a stage of completion which will avoid a substantial loss of total production, but he may not incorporate any material which he needs to fill any rated orders on hand. He may not, however, delay putting other rated orders into production for more than 15 days.

SEC. 14. How changes in customers' orders affect ratings. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the general rule is that any change in a customer's rated order, when made by the customer, constitutes a cancellation of the rating, if the change will require the manufacturer to interfere with his production. If the change does require such interference, the order shall be deemed to be rated on the date of receipt of notice of the change. For example:

(1) A change in shipping destination does not constitute a cancellation of the rating on the order.

(2) An increase in the total amount of a material ordered pursuant to a rated order shall, if the order for the increased amount is rated, be deemed to be a new order to the extent of the increase, unless the order for such increased amount can be filled with only a negligible interference with the filling of rated orders scheduled prior to receipt of notice of such increase.

(3) A change in the date of delivery, whether advanced or deferred, when made by the customer shall be deemed to be, for the purpose of the rating, an order rated on the date of receipt of notice of such change, if it interferes with production or delays delivery on any other rated order previously scheduled.

(4) A reduction in the total amount ordered will presumably not require a change in the manufacturer's schedule and, if such is the case, the rating on the order will not be affected. If, however, the amount is reduced below a minimum production quantity, the manufacturer may require that the amount for delivery be not less than such minimum production quantity, and if the customer is not willing to agree to that quantity, the manufacturer may consider the order as unrated for all purposes. The manufacturer may not discriminate between customers in requiring delivery of minimum production amounts.

(5) When the customer directs the manufacturer to hold or suspend production without specifying a new delivery date, the rating on such order is cancelled. If requested to do so within 10 days after receipt of such direction, the manufacturer must again treat the order as a rated order and reinstate it as nearly as possible to its former place in his proposed schedule of delivery, as long as the reinstatement does not cause loss of production or delay in the scheduled deliveries of other rated orders. Any request for reinstatement of the rating made after 10 days from the date of receipt of such direction shall be deemed to be a new rating applied to the order on the date of receipt of such request.

(6) Where any minor variation in size, design, capacity, etc., is requested by the customer and can be arranged by the manufacturer without interfering with his production, such change would not have any effect upon the rating.

(b) The application of a DX rating to an order bearing a DO rating shall not constitute a cancellation of the DO rating but shall give such order the preferential status to which a DX-rated order is entitled under this regulation: Provided, however, That an order to which a DX rating is applied shall not thereby take precedence over any other DX-rated order previously received.

(c) The addition of the program identification B–5 as a suffix to a DO rating previously used on a purchase order shall not constitute a cancellation of the original DO rating.

(d) Where a change in an order has the effect, pursuant to this section, of cancelling a rating and treating the order as being rated on the date of receipt of notice of such change, or on any later date as provided in this section, the conditions existing on such date shall, only so far as the rating is concerned, govern its acceptance and sequence in delivery under the rules of this regulation.

(e) This section affects only a rating on a rated order which has been accepted by the supplier, and nothing in this section shall authorize the cancellation of any rated order.

SEC. 15. Delivery or performance dates. (a) Every rated order must specify delivery or performance on a particular date or dates or during a particular month, which, in no case, may be earlier than required by the person placing the order. Any order which fails to comply with this requirement shall not be treated as a rated order. Except in the case of a DX rated order, the words "immediately" or "as soon as possible" or other words to that effect do not meet the requirements of this paragraph.

(b) The required delivery or performance date, for purposes of determining the sequence of deliveries or performance pursuant to section 13 of this regulation, shall be the date on which delivery or performance is actually required. The person with whom the rated order is placed may assume that the required delivery or performance date is the date specified in the order or contract unless he knows either (1) that the date so specified was earlier than required at the time the order was placed, or (2) that delivery or performance by the date originally specified is no longer required by reason of any change of circumstances. A delay in the scheduled receipt of any other material which the person placing the order requires prior to or concurrently with the material ordered, shall be deemed a change of circumstances.

(c) If, after accepting a rated order which specifies the time of delivery, the person with whom it is placed finds that he cannot fill it approximately on time, he must promptly notify the customer, telling him when he expects to be able to fill the order.

(d) If a person finds that he cannot fill on schedule all DO-rated orders which he has accepted and scheduled for delivery, he must give precedence over any other DO-rated order to any DO-rated order which bears a program identification consisting of the letter A, B, C, or E, followed by a digit (including the program identification B–5 where used as a suffix), or the program identification Z–2, unless the person who placed such order having such program identification otherwise consents in writing.

SEC. 16. Mandatory orders and directives. Every person shall comply with each mandatory order and directive issued to him by NPA. Mandatory orders and directives issued by NPA take precedence over rated orders previously or subsequently received, unless a contrary instruction appears in the mandatory order or directive.

SEC. 17. Use or disposition of material acquired under this regulation. (a) Any person who gets material with a rating or through a specific authorization or a directive of NPA must, if possible, use or dispose of it (or of the product into which it has been incorporated) for the purpose for which the assistance was given. However, material obtained with any DO rating may be used to fill any DX rated order, or to fill any order which is entitled to precedence under section 15 (d) of this regulation. Physical segregation is not required as long as the restrictions applicable to any specific lot of material or product are observed with respect to an equivalent amount of the same material or product.

(b) The restriction in paragraph (a) of this section does not apply when a material, or a product into which it has been incorporated, can no longer be used for the purpose for which the priority assistance was given; for example, when the assistance was given to fill a particular order and the material or product does not meet the customer's specifications or the contract or order is cancelled. In such cases the rules on further use or disposition in paragraph (c) of this section must be observed.

(c) The holder of a material or product subject to paragraph (b) of this section may sell it as long as he complies with all requirements of other applicable sections of this regulation and of other orders and regulations of NPA, or he may use it himself in any manner or for any purpose as long as he complies with such requirements.

SEC. 18. Delivery for unlawful purposes prohibited. No person shall deliver any material which he knows or has reason to believe will be accepted, redelivered, held, or used in violation of any order or regulation of NPA.

SEC. 19. Intracompany deliveries. The provisions of this regulation apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates, and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

SEC. 20. Effect of ratings upon materials subject to inventory restrictions. The inventory restrictions described in all NPA regulations and orders (including CMP Regulation No. 2) apply to all materials subject thereto, including such materials obtained with ratings or other priorities assistance.

SEC. 21. Scope of regulations and orders. (a) All regulations and orders of NPA (including directions, directives, and other instructions) apply to all subsequent transactions even though they are covered by contracts previously entered into. Regulations and orders apply to transactions in the territories or insular possessions of the United States unless the regulation or order specifically states that it is limited to the continental United States or to the 48 States and the District of Columbia. However, restrictions of NPA orders or regulations on the use of material or on the amount of inventory shall not apply when the material is used or the inventory is held directly by the Department of Defense outside the 48 States and the District of Columbia, unless otherwise specifically provided.

(b) All orders and regulations of NPA which control the sale, transfer, or delivery of any material, product, or equipment, apply to sales made by any person, whether for his own account or for the account of others, and all restrictions upon accepting delivery apply to acceptance of delivery at any type of sale, including sales made by auctioneers, receivers, and trustees in bankruptcy, and in other cases where the assets of a business are being liquidated.

SEC. 22. Defense against claims for damages. No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for any act or failure to act resulting directly or indirectly from compliance with a rule, regulation, or order of NPA (including any direction, directive, or other instruction), notwithstanding that any such rule, regulation, or order shall thereafter be declared by judicial or other competent authority to be invalid.

SEC. 23. Request for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this regulation may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests for adjustment or exception claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this regulation, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, by letter in triplicate, and shall set forth all pertinent facts, the nature of the relief sought, and the justification therefor.

SEC. 24. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this regulation shall make and preserve, for at least 3 years thereafter, accurate and complete records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, production, and use, in sufficient detail to permit the determination, after audit, whether each transaction complies with the provisions of this regulation. This regulation does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily used, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals by those persons who, at the time such microfilm or other photographic records are made, maintain such copies of records in the regular and usual course of business.

(b) All records required by this regulation shall be made available for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority, at the usual place of business where maintained.

(c) Persons subject to this regulation shall make such records and submit such reports to NPA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 25. Communications. All communications concerning this regulation shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: NPA Reg. 2.

SEC. 26. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this regulation, or any other regulation or order of NPA, or who wilfully furnishes false information or conceals any material fact in the course of operation under this regulation, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

NPA Reg. 2, as amended, shall take effect November 10, 1952.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
By GEORGE W. AUXIER,
Executive Secretary.

LIST A OF NPA REG. 2

1. The following items are not presently subject to any ratings issued by or under the authority of NPA and therefore no rating shall be effective to obtain any of them:

Communications services.
Crushed stone.
Gravel.
Sand.
Scrap.
Slag.
Steam heat, central.
Waste paper.
Water.
Wood pulp.

2. Items with respect to which priority and allocation functions are within the jurisdiction of other Government agencies and therefore subject to regulation by them, are listed or referred to below. Such items are not subject to ratings issued by or under the authority of NPA. However, producers of such items are subject to NPA regulations and orders with respect to other materials used by them.

(a) Solid fuels: [1] All forms of anthracite, bituminous, subbituminous, and lignitic coals, coke, and coal chemicals, except with respect to the distribution of coal chemicals produced as byproducts of coke made from coal which distribution was delegated to NPA by Defense Solid Fuels Administration Delegation 1 of May 2, 1951 (16 F. R. 4590).

(b) Gas and gas pipelines: [1] Natural gas, manufactured gas, and pipelines for the movement thereof.

(c) Petroleum and petroleum pipelines: [1] Crude oil, synthetic liquid fuel, their products and associated hydrocarbons, including pipelines for the movement thereof. The priority and allocation functions with respect to certain of such products listed in Petroleum Administration for Defense Delegation 1 of April 18, 1951 (16 F. R. 3389) were delegated to NPA.

(d) Electric power: [1] All forms of electric power and energy.

(e) Radioisotopes, stable isotopes, source and fissionable materials.[2]

(f) Farm equipment: [3] Domestic distribution of equipment manufactured for use on farms in connection with the production or processing of food. "Farm equipment" as used in Executive Order 10161 is determined to be only that equipment listed in Appendix A of a Memorandum of Agreement between Production and Marketing Administration (Department of Agriculture) and NPA, bearing dates of June 18 and June 26, 1952 (17 F. R. 6129), as the same may from time to time be amended.

(g) Fertilizer, commercial: [4] In form for distribution to users.

(h) Food, except in certain cases where used industrially: [4] In general, foods and other agricultural commodities and products are within the jurisdiction of the Department of Agriculture, but those which have industrial uses are within the jurisdiction of NPA when they lose their identity as food or agricultural commodities or products. The respective jurisdictions of the Department of Agriculture and NPA are described generally (and in certain cases specifically) in an agreement between the Production and Marketing Administration (Department of Agriculture) and NPA signed on March 30 and April 13, 1951, respectively (16 F. R. 3410), which agreement is referred to in NPA Delegation 10 of April 26, 1951 (16 F. R. 3669). The agreement (reference to which should be made) does not attempt to list all foods and agricultural commodities and products which involve industrial uses but does cover the major items as to which there might be a question of jurisdiction. In general, the respective jurisdictions fall within the following categories:

(1) Commodities which are within the jurisdiction of the Department of Agriculture until they enter any manufacturing process which results in their being neither food nor agricultural commodities or products (certain examples of which are listed in the agreement, such as egg products, fats, oils, grain and grain products, molasses, potatoes, spices, starches, sugar, and tartaric acid).

(2) Commodities which are within the jurisdiction of the Department of Agriculture until the point specified in the agreement (such as cotton lint and linters, hemp, flax fiber, skim milk for casein, wool, and mohair).

(3) Commodities which are within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Department of Agriculture (ice, naval stores, tobacco, and tobacco products).

(i) Transportation, storage, and port facilities, including air transport, coastwise, intercoastal, and overseas shipping.[4]

(j) Products (production and distribution) used in the petroleum industry and listed in NPA Delegation 9 (Feb. 26, 1951), as follows: [5]

(1) Tetraethyl lead fluid.
(2) Petroleum cracking catalysts.
(3) Special inhibitors used in gasoline.
(4) Lubricating oil additives.
(5) Fluids and additives made especially for oil and gas drilling, and demulsifiers.

(k) Ores, minerals, and other source materials listed in Column II of Appendix A of NPA Delegation 5, as amended January 29, 1952.[6]

REG. 2—BASIC RULES OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

DIR. 1—AUTOMATIC CONVERSION OF DELIVERY ORDERS BEARING CERTAIN RATINGS

DIR. 2—STATUS OF CERTAIN DELIVERY ORDERS DURING THE THIRD QUARTER

REVOCATION

Direction 1 (16 F. R. 6033) and Direction 2 (16 F. R. 9417) to NPA Reg. 2 are hereby revoked.

This revocation does not relieve any person of any obligation or liability incurred under these directions, nor deprive any person of any rights received or accrued under said directions prior to the effective date of this revocation.

[CMP Regulation No. 2 as Amended November 10, 1952]

CMP REG. 2—INVENTORIES OF CONTROLLED MATERIALS

This regulation as amended is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of the amendment of this regulation, consultation with industry representatives was found to be impracticable due to the necessity for immediate action. However, there was consultation with industry representatives prior to the original issuance of this regulation on May 10, 1951.

EXPLANATORY

This amendment affects CMP Regulation No. 2 by amending sections 2, 3, and 10 (a), and by adding Schedule I.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 13 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. The purpose of this regulation is to prevent the accumulation of excessive inventories of controlled materials. It does this by limiting the quantities of such materials that may be ordered, received, or delivered.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this regulation:

(a) "Item of controlled material" means any item in any class of controlled material listed in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1, which is different from all other items in that class by reason of one or more of its specifications, such as length, width, thickness, temper, alloy, or finish.

(b) "User of controlled material" means any person who uses any item of controlled material for production, construction, or maintenance, repair, or operating supplies.

(c) "Class" means any numbered class of controlled material listed in Schedule I of this regulation.

(d) "Practicable minimum working inventory" means the smallest quantity of material from which a person can reasonably meet his deliveries or supply his services on the basis of his currently scheduled method and rate of operation. In the absence of unusual circumstances, a person's inventory will be considered more than a practicable minimum working inventory if the ratio of his inventory to his currently scheduled operations is substantially greater than the ratio which he normally maintained between his inventory and his operations during any reasonably representative period in the 6 months ending June 30, 1950.

SEC. 3. General maximum inventory limitations. (a) No user of controlled material shall accept delivery of any item of steel listed in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1,[1] if his inventory of such item is, or by such receipt would become, in excess of the quantity of such item necessary to meet his deliveries, supply his services, or perform his operations, on the basis of his currently scheduled method and rate of operation during the succeeding 45-calendar-day period, or in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory, whichever is less: Provided, however, That from September 1, 1952, to December 31, 1952, the above specified 45-calendar-day period shall be a 30-calendar-day period.

(b) Commencing October 1, 1952, no user of controlled material shall accept delivery of any item of copper or aluminum listed in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1, if his inventory of such item is, or by such receipt would become, in excess of the quantity of such item necessary to meet his deliveries, supply his services, or perform his operations, on the basis of his currently scheduled method and rate of operation during the succeeding 60-calendar-day period, or in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory, whichever is less.

(c) For the purpose of this regulation, any item of controlled material which is to be further processed is considered to be in inventory until actually put into process or actually installed or assembled. For the purpose of this regulation, processing does not include minor initial operations, such as painting, and does not include any shearing, cutting, trimming, or other operation, unless such initial operation is a part of a continuous fabricating or assembling operation; nor does it include operations such as inspection, testing, segregation, or earmarking for a specific job.

(d) A user of controlled material may elect, as of any date between November 10, 1952, and November 15, 1952, and as of the first day of each calendar quarter thereafter, to maintain his inventory of all controlled material which falls within any one class on the basis of such a class, instead of on the basis of items, of controlled material. No user of controlled material who makes such an election with regard to one or more classes of controlled material shall accept delivery of any item of controlled material if his inventory of the class into which such item falls is, or by such receipt would become, in excess of the aggregate quantity (by weight) of all items in the same class, necessary to meet his deliveries, supply his services, or perform his operations, on the basis of his currently scheduled method and rate of operation during the succeeding 45-calendar-day period in the case of steel (30-calendar-day period until December 31, 1952) and during the succeeding 60-calendar-day period in the case of copper and aluminum, or in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory, whichever is less. Furthermore, no user of controlled material shall accept delivery of any item of controlled material which he has elected to maintain on a class basis if his inventory of such item is, or by such receipt would become, in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory. After such an election has been made, as aforesaid, with respect to a particular class, it may not thereafter be changed with respect to such class without the prior written approval of NPA. Under this paragraph, a user of controlled material may maintain his inventory of all controlled material which falls within one or more classes on the basis of such classes and his inventory of all controlled material which falls within other classes on the basis of items.

SEC. 4. Exceptions. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3 of this regulation, any person may accept delivery of any item of controlled material in excess of the prescribed inventory limits under the following circumstances:

(a) If any producer of controlled material exercises his privilege under section 20 of CMP Regulation No. 1 of making delivery prior to the delivery date specified by the user of controlled material, such delivery may be accepted and the prescribed limits exceeded to the extent that such excess results from such prior delivery.

(b) If a user of controlled material has instructed a producer or other supplier to reduce, postpone, or cancel a delivery, and the material has been shipped or loaded for shipment before receipt of such instruction, delivery of such material may be accepted and the prescribed limits exceeded to the extent that such excess results from such delivery.

(c) If a user of controlled material has instructed a producer to reduce, postpone, or cancel a delivery of a special item of controlled material which the producer has already produced or has in production, or for the production of which he has acquired special materials, delivery of such special item may be accepted and the prescribed limits exceeded to the extent that such excess results from such delivery. For the purposes of this section, a special item of controlled material is one which the producer does not usually make, stock, or sell, and which he cannot readily dispose of to others.

(d) If a user of controlled material would be authorized under section 3 of this regulation to accept delivery of a quantity of an item of controlled material less than the minimum shown for such item in Schedule IV of CMP Regulation No. 1, he may accept delivery of the full minimum shown in such schedule, provided that the controlled material involved is not procurable from a distributor.

(e) If any producer of controlled material, under a directive of NPA, makes delivery of controlled material to a person who will convert such controlled material into another form of controlled material, the person to whom such delivery was made may accept the delivery and exceed the prescribed limits to the extent that such excess results from such delivery.

(f) If a user of controlled material imports any controlled material that he acquired prior to landing, he may accept delivery of such material and exceed the prescribed limits to the extent that such excess results from such delivery. However, if by such acceptance his inventory exceeds the prescribed limits, he may not accept further deliveries of such controlled material from domestic sources until his inventory thereof is reduced to permitted levels.

SEC. 5. Adjustment of receipts and orders. Every user of controlled material must place orders and schedule receipts in such manner that deliveries of controlled material to him may be made without violating the provisions of this regulation. If, by reason of change in his operations, slowing or stoppage of production, delayed delivery by a controlled materials producer or other supplier, or other cause, a person who has ordered material for future delivery would, if he accepted delivery on the dates specified, exceed the limits prescribed by this regulation, he shall promptly revise and adjust his outstanding orders and scheduled receipts and, if necessary, reduce, postpone, or cancel the same, so that his acceptance of deliveries will conform to this regulation.

SEC. 6. Separate inventories. (a) A person who has more than one operating unit may elect to maintain separate inventory records for each such unit and, if he does, the provisions of this regulation shall apply to each such unit independently. After such an election has been made, it may not at any time thereafter be changed without the prior written approval of NPA.

(b) In determining his inventory, a person shall include all items of controlled material in his possession and all such items held for his account by another person, but not items of controlled material held by him for the account of another person.

SEC. 7. Prohibited deliveries. No person shall deliver any item of controlled material if he knows or has reason to believe that acceptance of such delivery would be in violation of this regulation.

SEC. 8. Excess inventories. This regulation does not provide for disposal of excess inventories which may be on hand. However, excess inventories of items of controlled material, including inventories of such items which are not in form usable by the holder, are subject to requisition, under appropriate circumstances, as provided in Title II of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

SEC. 9. Applicability of other regulations and orders. Nothing in this regulation shall be construed to relieve any person from complying with all other applicable regulations and orders of NPA.

SEC. 10. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this regulation shall make and preserve, for at least 3 years thereafter, accurate and complete records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, production, and use, in sufficient detail to permit the determination, after audit, whether each transaction complies with the provisions of this regulation. Each person who elects to maintain all or part of his inventory of controlled material on a class basis shall simultaneously incorporate in his records a statement to the effect that he has made such an election. This regulation does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily used, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals by those persons who, at the time such microfilm or other photographic records are made, maintain such copies of records in the regular and usual course of business.

(b) All records required by this regulation shall be made available for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority, at the usual place of business where maintained.

(c) Persons subject to this regulation shall make such records and submit such reports to NPA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 11. Applications for adjustment or exception. Any person subject to any provision of this regulation may file a request for adjustment, exception, or other relief upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests claiming that the public interest is prejudiced, consideration will be given to the requirements of public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing submitted in triplicate, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

SEC. 12. Communications. All communications concerning this regulation shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: CMP Regulation No. 2.

SEC. 13. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this regulation or any other regulation or order of the National Production Authority, or who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this regulation, is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This regulation as amended shall take effect November 10, 1952.

[Rent Regulation 1, Amdt. 23 to Schedule B]

[Rent Regulation 2, Amdt. 24 to Schedule B]

RR 1—HOUSING

RR 2—ROOMS IN ROOMING HOUSES AND OTHER ESTABLISHMENTS

SCHEDULE B—SPECIFIC PROVISIONS RELATING TO INDIVIDUAL DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS OR PORTIONS THEREOF

OHIO

Effective November 12, 1952, Rent Regulation 1 and Rent Regulation 2 are amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 204, 61 Stat. 197, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 1894)

Issued this 10th day of November 1952.

JAMES MCI. HENDERSON,
Director of Rent Stabilization.

1. Item 70 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 1—Housing, reading as follows:

70. Provisions relating to Montgomery County, Ohio, a portion of the Dayton Defense-Rental Area (Item 230 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in Montgomery County, Ohio, a portion of the Dayton Defense-Rental Area, section 141 of this regulation is changed to read as follows:

SEC. 141. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The present maximum rent for housing accommodation does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable housing accommodations on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation, for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the housing accommodation or comparable housing accommodations, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under sections 157 or 162 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to Montgomery County, Ohio, a portion of the Dayton Defense-Rental Area, are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 70 of Schedule B.

2. Item 76 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 2—Rooms, reading as follows:

76. Provisions relating to Montgomery County, Ohio, a portion of the Dayton Defense-Rental Area (Item 230 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in Montgomery County, Ohio, a portion of the Dayton Defense-Rental Area, section 138 is added to this regulation to read as follows:

SEC. 138. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The present maximum rent for the room does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable rooms on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation, for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the room or comparable rooms, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under sections 157 or 160 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to Montgomery County, Ohio, a portion of the Dayton Defense-Rental Area, are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 76 of Schedule B.

[Rent Regulation 1, Amdt. 24 to Schedule B]

RR 1—HOUSING

SCHEDULE B—SPECIFIC PROVISIONS RELATING TO INDIVIDUAL DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS OR PORTIONS THEREOF

ILLINOIS

Effective November 13, 1952, Rent Regulation 1 is amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 204, 61 Stat. 197, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 1894)

Issued this 10th day of November 1952.

JAMES MCI. HENDERSON,
Director of Rent Stabilization.

1. Item 71 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 1—Housing, reading as follows:

71. Decontrol of specified classes of housing accommodations. The application of this regulation is hereby terminated, effective November 13, 1952, with respect to housing accommodations in Cook County, Illinois, a portion of the Chicago Defense-Rental Area, which on August 1, 1952, met the description set forth in either of the following paragraphs (a) or (b):

(a) Unfurnished housing accommodations having a maximum rent which (1) was $150.00 or more per month and (2) was equal to at least $35.00 per room per month, or

(b) Furnished housing accommodations having a maximum rent which (1) was $175.00 or more per month and (2) was equal to at least $45.00 per room per month.

When on August 1, 1952, the housing accommodations had alternative maximum rents for alternative conditions, the maximum rent in effect on August 1, 1952, for the conditions under which it was rented on that date or for the conditions under which it was rented on the date it was last rented prior to August 1, 1952, if vacant on August 1, 1952, shall be used to determine whether the housing accommodations are decontrolled or not.

For purposes of this decontrol provision, space not ordinarily considered as being a separate room such as foyer, bathroom, hall, closet, pantry or alcove, shall not be counted as a room. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to Cook County, Illinois, a portion of the Chicago Defense-Rental Area, are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 71 of Schedule B.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

PART 1—PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

DEPOSITIONS

In the matter of amendment of §§ 1.821, 1.822, 1.825, 1.826 and 1.827 of the Commission's rules and regulations relating to depositions.

1. The Commission has reviewed its rules of practice and procedure relating to the taking of depositions with a view toward making these rules more flexible and liberal. We believe that such action is particularly desirable at this time in view of the number of hearings which will result from the lifting of the TV "freeze."
